

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 605

Chapter 605 "What did he say?" Elliot sat in his chair, picked up the glass of milk, and took a sip.

"He asked about Avery and hung up."

After breakfast, Elliot went upstairs to get his phone. Chad called him so early in the morning. Something must have happened.

Elliot picked his phone up and pressed the power button once. The screen did not light up as he expected.

He pressed the power button longer. His phone turned on. He furrowed his brows. He did not remember switching off his phone the night before, why was his phone switched off?

Once his phone was on a bunch of missed calls and messages. His chest tightened and tapped into these messages.

[Mr. Foster, have you seen the news today? I've seen it and lost all appetite for breakfast.]

[Mr. Foster, what is your stance on Eric Santos? I don't understand. I'm in shock.]

(Mr. Foster, are you not boycotting Eric anymore? Can we partner up with him again?)

After looking at the messages, Elliot looked at the woman sleeping soundly on the bed with a cold gaze.

Before breakfast he was still gently caressing her face, thinking of doting on her his entire life.

At that moment, he only thought of torturing her badly until she begs for forgiveness!

However, the moment the idea appeared, he got rid of it immediately. She was still pregnant with his child at that moment. He could not be reckless!

If he wanted to be a competent father, he would have to learn how to control his emotions!

He grabbed his phone and left the room.

When Elliot arrived at the Sterling Group, Chad immediately entered his office.

“Mr. Foster, I was talking to Public Relations just now. Right now, we have two options,” Chad suggested solutions, “The first is to deny today’s news and say that you have never said anything about Eric.”

After Chad suggested the first solution, Elliot threw his phone on the desk. Chad picked up Elliot’s phone and noticed his email account. There was an email that was sent by ‘him’ to some reporter at three in the morning.

When Chad read the message, a chill ran down his back, spreading throughout his entire body.

“Uhm Avery sent this from your phone after you fell asleep?”

Elliot’s gaze was so cold he could murder someone. “What do you think?” Would he have done such a humiliating thing to himself?

Chad did not know whether to laugh or to cry. “Then, we can only use the second solution, which is to generously compensate the brands.”

Money was nothing to Elliot. The thing that made him furious was how Avery humiliated him! She crossed a line!

Could he not have discussed it with her before deciding? Did she have to secretly send the reporters an email behind his back?

“Mr. Foster, don’t you have a lock setting on your phone?” Chad kindly suggested, “Why don’t you set one now in case something like this happens again?”

“Can I lock her up?” Elliot said coldly, “She could still use my thumb to unlock the phone when I’m asleep!”

Chad forgot about this point. They slept with each other again the night before. This once again proved that Elliot could not resist Avery!

At Elliot’s mansion, because no one disturbed Avery, so she slept all the way until noon.

When she woke up, the memories of the night before flooded her mind. Her face turned hot!

Avery did not dare to stay too long in Elliot’s house. After dressing up, she secretly went downstairs and decided to sneak off.

“Avery, are you not going to explain yourself?” Elliot had a cup of coffee in his hands. He gritted his teeth and said, “If you dare take a step out of the door, I will break your legs!”
