Simple Silence

Chapter 1046

Why is her phone turned off? Did something happen to her or did her phone die?

Said to pick a gift for him, it's impossible to pick a gift for two hours, right?

Unable to get through to her phone, he could only call her bodyguard.

The bodyguard answered his call.

The bodyguard said, "I didn't hear my boss's cell phone ringing! She's in the hospital right now! But it's not that she's sick, it's someone else who's in the hospital, and she's accompanying her in the hospital!"

"Who's in the hospital?" Elliot's voice tightened.

The bodyguard was stunned for a moment, then hesitantly said: "I can't say...it's a man anyway."

"If you don't tell me, I'll find out." Elliot's eyes darkened, and he said sternly, "Speak!"

The bodyguard swallowed After taking a breath, he hesitated and said, "Yes...it's her patient...it's called Adrian."

When Elliot heard Adrian's name, chills rose in his eyes.

Avery went to accompany Adrian, so he didn't come to the appointment.

Moreover, Avery lied to him on the phone, saying that she was going to buy him a gift, but she was accompanying Adrian.

Elliot hung up the phone and sat down in the chair.

The sky suddenly started to drizzle.

He looked at the weather this morning, and it showed that it was cloudy today, and it didn't say there was rain, so he arranged the balcony.

A waiter came over with an umbrella and asked, "Mr. Foster, it's raining. come inside!"

Elliot didn't want to change positions.

He just wanted to know whether Avery would come tonight.

The waiter continued, "Mr. Foster, when will Ms. Tate come? Why don't you eat first? Wait for Ms. Tate to come..."

His voice came coldly, "Go away. don't mind me!"

In the hospital.

After the bodyguard answered Elliot's call, he returned to the ward.

Adrian suddenly vomited more severely and Avery was supporting him, patting him on the back, and handing him a tissue.

The bodyguard frowned.

Adrian looks miserable if no one takes care of him like this.

However, if Avery is not here, the nurse will take care of him.

Thinking of this, the bodyguard walked to Avery and reminded: "Boss, do you have an appointment with Mr. Foster tonight?"

"Well, how do you know?" Avery was a little anxious.

She should go to Elliot, but with Adrian like this, she can't walk away.

The bodyguard said, “You’re dressed like this, aren’t you ready to go on a date? Go on a date first! I’ll look at him, it’ll be alright.”

Avery hesitated for a moment, then replied, “Okay, then I’ll go first.”

After she finished speaking, Adrian immediately grabbed her arm tightly: “Avery... I’m so uncomfortable... Am I going to die?”

Adrian felt that his internal organs were about to spit out. This painful feeling made him extremely uneasy. He is not afraid of death, but does not want Avery to leave.

Avery is his placebo.

With her by her side, even if she vomited to death, he could endure it.

If Avery left, he would feel like he was leaving this world in the next second.

Avery comforted him, “You won’t die. In two days, you will be much better. even if I leave, there will be doctors and nurses watching over you. They will take care of you.”

“Take me with you...” Adrian’s eyes were filled with tears, and he held her tightly in his palms, praying.

Avery wondered, “Adrian, You still need an infusion and you can’t leave the hospital. I will pick you up when you feel better. You can only stay in the hospital now. I have something to do tonight, I have to Go first, I’ll see you tomorrow morning.”

Avery never forgot his date with Elliot tonight. As long as Adrian’s condition is not so serious, she has already gone to the appointment.

Adrian vomited from time to time, seeing him so uncomfortable, she was really embarrassed to leave.

But now she’s been procrastinating for too long, and she has to find Elliot.

Chapter 1047

After Avery voice was settled, Adrian let go of her arm. But he looked at her with tears streaming down his face.

Avery looked at him like this and didn't dare to leave at all. She took her bag, found her mobile phone in the bag, and wanted to call Elliot.

She pressed the power button, but the phone screen was still black. She doesn't know when it's out of power.

"Call me by borrowing your cell phone." She said to the bodyguard.

The bodyguard immediately unlocked the phone and handed it to her.

She entered Elliot's number and dialed it. She quickly thought in her mind how to explain to him that she couldn't make the appointment.

I'm afraid it won't work to lie, so I can only confess to him.

The phone was called, it was connected, but it was not answered.

After the phone hung up automatically, she returned the phone to the bodyguard.

"Can you help me borrow a charger from the nurse's station? My phone is out of power." Avery said to the bodyguard.

"I'll ask." The bodyguard strode out of the ward.

After the bodyguard went out, Avery looked at Adrian: “I won’t leave. If you don’t feel so sick, close your eyes and rest. I can take you away only if your body recovers quickly.”

After a while, the bodyguard entered the ward with a borrowed charger.

Avery charged the phone and turned it on.

She saw the missed call from Elliot. She wanted to call him back, but she was afraid that Adrian would have a rest.

She had to wait until Adrian fell asleep before leaving.

She sent Elliot a message: “I’ll find you later.”

When Adrian fell asleep, she immediately went to Elliot.

Outside the window, the rain beat against the window, making a loud crackling sound.

Avery doesn’t hate rain, she even likes to hear the sound of rain many times. The sound of the rain calmed her down.

But at this moment, she listened to the sound of the rain outside the window, and her heart was numb.

Elliot didn’t reply to her message or call her back.

He must be angry.

If Avery was waiting for him instead, she would not necessarily be more forgiving than him.

Because tonight's appointment was set in the morning.

So when Avery sees him later, no matter how angry he gets, she can bear it.

About 40 minutes later, Adrian's breathing was even, and he fell into a deep sleep.

After Avery confessed to the bodyguard, he strode away!

The rain didn't stop outside, but it was much lighter than an hour ago.

She came out of the inpatient department and stepped directly into the rain.

At 9 o'clock at night, she rushed to Sinan's mansion.

She met Elliot in F1, the open-air balcony on the second floor.

She immediately understood why Elliot didn't reply to her message or call her back.

Because, he sits in the rain.

The waiter's tone was vaguely complaining, "Ms. Tate, finally here. Mr. Foster has been waiting for you all night. It has been raining since the beginning of the rain. Mr. Foster has been waiting for you, I haven't had dinner yet!"

Elliot probably heard the waiter's voice, and his deep eyes turned around abruptly.

Seeing his embarrassed appearance after being soaked in the rain, she felt like a stone was blocked in her heart, and she couldn't breathe heavily.

She strode towards him.

Soon, she came to him. Almost uncontrollably, she reached out to take his arm.

“Elliot, I’m sorry. I’m late. Don’t get caught in the rain, go inside!” She tried to pull him up from the chair.

But Elliot pushed her away!

Chapter 1048

“Where’s the gift?” Elliot voice was hoarse and his penetrating power was strong.

Three simple words made her startled.

“Why lie to me?” Elliot eyes looked coldly at her shocked face.

It’s not that he can’t bear her to put him aside and go to the hospital to take care of Adrian, as long as she tells him openly.

“I’m sorry, Elliot.” Avery took a deep breath, stretched out her hand again, and held his arm, “Don’t get in the rain. You’ll catch a cold.”

Elliot lifted her arm again.

“What about that man?” His voice was cold and indifferent, and under the rain, his face became even more desolate, “Why don’t you continue to take care of him in the hospital?”

She explained, “He fell asleep. He swallowed A bottle of antihypertensive medicine, he almost died. If it hadn’t been rescued in time, he might have died.”

Elliot’s voice came in a harsh voice, “It’s better if he’s dead. Even if he doesn’t die now, I’ll kill him!”

Elliot!” Avery exclaimed as if someone was strangling her neck, “I know you’re talking mad! It’s my fault! I should have called you earlier to prevent you from waiting for me here!” Let’s go first! I beg you!”

She grabbed his arms with both hands, trying to pull him up from the chair, but he was so tense that he wouldn’t get up.

The feeling of helplessness and fear spread to all limbs.

Avery was afraid that Elliot would get sick if he got drenched again, but she knew very well that he was angry and would never listen to her.

In desperation, Avery cried uncontrollably.

Elliot looked at her grief-stricken appearance, and his heart clenched tightly.

What are they going to do tonight?

Seems like... a marriage proposal?

He had imagined many times that tonight they would listen to the beautiful sound of the piano, have a pleasant dinner together, and imagine a bright future.

He prepared the diamond ring for the marriage proposal, which will be brought to her when the fifth course is served.

When she opened the lid, she was pleasantly surprised to see the diamond ring!

Now, all the surprises have become superfluous.

Elliot got up from the chair. His deep eyes looked at her delicate face wet by the rain. His voice was dull and cold, "Avery, you can get what you want without shedding tears. Because I tried in the end, nothing."

He finally pushed her arms away, and the tall body disappeared from her face.

After he left, she felt that the sky in front of her completely collapsed.

Avery knew he would be angry, but she didn't expect him to be so angry. She was only a few hours late, didn't she come, is it because she was taking care of Adrian in the hospital, he couldn't accept it?

She fell into the chair he was sitting on, trying to guess his mood.

Not long after, the eyes suddenly lit up. Beautiful lights flicker in front of her eyes, changing colors and shapes, just like dancing. She stared blankly at the beam in front of her, suspecting that she was hallucinating.

A waiter held an umbrella and walked to her side: "Ms. Tate, this is a light show prepared for you by Mr. Foster. Mr. Foster has left, so please enjoy it alone!"

"The light show?"

“Yes. Mr. Foster also invited a famous piano master to play. The master has been waiting for a long time. Would you like to play for you now?”
The waiter asked.

She suddenly raised her eyes to look at the waiter: “Why?”

It was just a meal, why did he invite someone to play?

Waiter said, “Ms. Tate, I don’t know why you are late, but Mr. Foster took great pains for tonight’s appointment. You really shouldn’t betray his good intentions.”

“I didn’t mean to be late.” She looked back, her eyes blurred with tears.
“I didn’t know he prepared so much for tonight’s date. He didn’t tell me.”

The waiter said, “Mr. Foster wants to surprise you. You haven’t had dinner yet. ? Would you like to eat?”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1049 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1049

“I don’t want to go in. I’ll stay here as long as Elliot waits for me here.”
She choked.

The waiter looked at her thin body and worried that she would catch a cold, so he immediately arranged for someone to bring an open-air parasol.

Then the waiter came with a thick blanket and put it on her shoulders.

“Ms. Tate, I have notified the kitchen to serve the dishes. You can leave after dinner! Instead of staying here, it’s better to ask Mr. Foster’s forgiveness.”

After a while, delicious dishes were served on the table. Looking at the exquisite food on the table, she finally understood why Elliot was so angry.

Tonight’s date, she thought it was just an ordinary date, but obviously it wasn’t!

Elliot invited a piano master to play, and there was such a beautiful light show, and the dinner was sumptuous to the level of a state banquet. How could this be an ordinary date?

“Ms. Tate, please unveil this dish yourself.” The waiter pointed to the fifth dish and spoke to Avery.

Hearing this, Avery lifted the lid of the fifth dish.

This was a lotus cake. Next to the lotus-shaped dessert, there was a lifelike goldfish, and the goldfish had a diamond ring in its mouth.

This diamond ring attracted all Avery’s attention.

“This...” Avery said in surprise.

The waiter explained, “Ms. Tate, Mr. Foster was going to propose to you tonight. For tonight’s date, he had come to set up the scene from the day before yesterday. Everything you could see now is Mr. Foster’s expression of love for you.”

Her tears fell uncontrollably. She looked around. Against the backdrop of the beautiful light show, all kinds of flowers come into view. The more she found out, the deeper the apology in her heart. She couldn't stay here for a second. She took the diamond ring from the goldfish's mouth to the palm of her hand and strode out of the balcony.

She was going to find Elliot! Ask him to forgive. She had no idea that he would propose to her, after all, she had promised to marry him before.

If she knew that Elliot was going to propose to her tonight, she would definitely come to him first!

Even if I told him that I was going to the hospital, I would definitely come to see him first.

Foster family.

Elliot returned home, went straight upstairs, entered the bedroom, and locked the door.

Before Mrs. Scarlet could ask a word, she heard him lock the door.

—This was must a conflict with Avery.

Mrs. Scarlet knew that the two of them were going to be alone this holiday, but she didn't expect that the two of them would make such a fuss on the first day of the holiday.

Mrs. Scarlet wanted to call Avery to ask what was going on, but thinking that Elliot was so wet, it must have been very noisy.

This level of quarrel, even if Avery is called on the phone, will not be relieved.

Just when Mrs. Scarlet was about to close the villa door, a stimulating light came from outside the courtyard door.

A car stopped outside the courtyard gate, and after a while, Avery got out of the car.

Soon, she came to the door of the villa.

Mrs. Scarlet brought her shoes.

“Avery, what’s the matter with you and your husband? When your husband comes back, you are all wet, and so are you. Are you two dating in the rain?”

Avery’s eyes were red and swollen from crying, and she spoke in a hoarse voice: “I made him angry.”

Mrs. Scarlet looked embarrassed, “Oh...he locked himself in the room. Although I have a spare key...”

“Give me the key.” Avery reached out to Mrs. Scarlet.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1050 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1050

Mrs. Scarlet hesitated for a while, then turned around to get the key.

If the relationship between Elliot and Avery was not about preparing for marriage, Mrs. Scarlet would never have dared to give Avery the key.

Elliot respected Mrs. Scarlet, and did not take Mrs. Scarlet as a person, but Mrs. Scarlet did not dare to do anything beyond her rights.

If Mrs. Scarlet made a mistake and touched Elliot's bottom line, Elliot would also dismiss Mrs. Scarlet.

Mrs. Scarlet dared to take such a big risk and gave Avery the spare key of his bedroom, but she was sure that Avery would be the hostess here in the future.

After Mrs. Scarlet handed the key to Avery, she looked at her and said, "Avery, go take a bath first! Don't catch a cold. I'll go and get some clothes."

Avery held the key tightly. She glanced at the stairs.

She didn't know what Elliot was doing now. She didn't know if she would force her into his room later, or would he be kicked out.

The same moment, the other side.

After the fancy house was snatched by Nathan, Henry and Cole continued to live in the rented house.

In the past few days, Cole went to see several houses, but he was not particularly satisfied.

Henry didn't want to see the house, he just wanted to know who Nathan's awesome son was. This matter is like a thorn in his heart. If he doesn't understand it, he can't sleep well at night. He printed out the photos of the richest people younger than Nathan on the rich list and kept looking at them.

Cole came out to drink water after taking a bath, and saw his father was looking at those pictures of the rich again, and suddenly became angry.

“Dad, are you crazy?” Cole reprimanded, “Look at these photos, can we become rich?”

Henry raised his head and glared at his son: “I’m looking for Nathan’s son! Why are other people’s sons so promising, and why is my son such a waste? Why don’t you get in my way here, why don’t you go back to your room and reflect on it!”

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Cole said, “Dad, You scold me?!”

“Yes. What rubbish are you investing in!” Henry angrily scolded, “If you lose the last sum of money in our hands, it will be quite good Alright! I’ll go and see if I can find a job as a security guard or a cleaner then, and as for you, I don’t have to worry about it anymore!”

Cole’s eyes were scarlet at the words. He does lose what he invests, and he doesn’t want it, but he is really not good at investing.

“Dad, do you really think I will lose all my money?” Cole was deeply shocked.

Henry continued, “If you don’t care about the company’s affairs as before, you won’t lose money. As long as you take care of things, the company will be finished! I can’t blame you either. I didn’t educate you well.”

Tears of pain flowed from the corners of Cole’s eyes.

“Don’t cry! It’s useless!” Henry put his eyes on the photo again, “Come and help me see, how could that old b*stard Nathan give birth to such a promising son?”

Cole took the photo, brought it over and said in a sour tone: “Maybe he lied to us. If he really has such a good son, why did he return to Aryadelle recently ?”

“My intuition tells me that he did not lie. Otherwise, where would he get the money from ? How can he be so arrogant in front of me ? When I beat him before, he didn’t dare to move.” Henry rubbed his temples.

After Cole looked at the pictures of the rich people one by one, he wondered: “These people are all on the rich list, why not Elliot ?”

“Elliot ?!” Henry’s temple jumped suddenly, “How could he be Nathan’s son ?”
