Chapter 1051

“Oh... yes, how could my uncle be Nathan’s son?” Cole said here, taking Nathan’s photo and looking at it carefully stand up.

Nathan’s photo is a surveillance screenshot of the restaurant where Henry ate that day.

So the photo is a little blurry.

Only the outline of the facial features can be seen clearly.

“Dad, do you think that my uncle and Nathan are somewhat similar?” Cole handed Nathan’s photo to his father, “If you don’t think about it, I don’t think they are similar. The two of them look alike, and they look very similar.”

After Henry glanced at Nathan’s photo a few times, the expression on his face gradually solidified.

Henry didn’t compare Elliot’s appearance with Nathan’s appearance before, but now after listening to Cole’s words, he feels that the two of them are indeed a bit similar.

“If Nathan really has a particularly awesome son, stomping his feet in Aryadelle can make Aryadelle tremble three times, how do I feel that my uncle is more in line with what he said?” Cole wondered. “These other rich people are completely different from Nathan. Only my uncle has a little resemblance to him.”

Henry was greatly stimulated and was speechless.

Henry had never heard that Elliot was not a child of the Foster family. When his mother was still alive, she was very fond of Elliot. If Elliot was not a child of the Foster family, why should his mother love this little son so much?

But he wondered that Elliot's personality was different from the rest of the Foster family. Besides, Elliot's appearance seemed to be different from the rest of the Foster family.

"Dad, even if Elliot is not from our family, but Nathan's son, what can we do? Now the Foster family has been completely defeated, and only Elliot is left to support the reputation of the Foster family. He has no choice." Cole leaned on the sofa and sighed helplessly.

"If he wasn't from our family, then he would at least have to pay us a lot of money!" Henry frowned and gritted his teeth, "When he founded Sterling Group, your grandma gave him a lot of start-up capital! If according to the proportion, at least one third of Sterling Group should belong to the Foster family now!"

Cole's eyes suddenly lit up: "Dad, if Elliot is really not from our family, then... Isn't he going to make a fortune?"

"Hehe, how can you be sure that he is not from our family?"

"It's better to do DNA!"

"You go to him?" Henry teased, "Do you think he will take care of you, Is it?"

Cole was stunned. He didn't dare to go to Elliot at all, let alone question Elliot's identity ?

Henry said, "You can only start from Nathan's side. This matter is of great importance. Don't tell the public first."

Cole nodded: "Dad, this may be an opportunity given to us by God!"

Henry said, "It may also kill us! Don't you know what kind of person Elliot is? If he breaks his face, he may kill us directly."

Cole's expression suddenly changed.

Foster family.

After Avery took a bath, she took the key and walked to the master bedroom on the second floor. She stood in the doorway of the master bedroom, feeling uneasy.

Mrs. Scarlet stood at the entrance of the stairs and looked at her, and she was also frightened, "Avery, why don't you go to the guest room to rest!"

OK. Then Avery inserted the key into the keyhole and opened the door of the master bedroom. She pushed the door open, strode in, and closed the door.

The room was dark, but Elliot could vaguely be seen resting on the bed.

Chapter 1052

Elliot has a hunch that he must not fall asleep.

How could Elliot fall asleep when he was so angry?

Now that Avery opened the door and came in and Elliot must have heard the sound.

She walked to the bed step by step, thinking to herself that if he didn't speak, then she would lie down beside him and sleep with him.

After tossing for a day, she was also very tired.

Just as she was sitting on the edge of the bed and was about to go to bed, Elliot's voice was dull and angrily said: "Get out!"

"I'm not going out." Avery lifted her legs and got on the bed.

Not only did she get into bed, but she pulled the quilt and lay down beside him.

Before Elliot could move, she hugged his body tightly.

Elliot's body was tense, and his breathing gradually became heavy, as if he was about to explode in the next second.

"Elliot, I'm sorry. I know it's wrong... I really know it's wrong." She buried her face in the back of his neck and whispered, "I saw the light show you prepared for me. I also saw the diamond ring you prepared for me..."

Her words stung the emotions Elliot finally calmed down.

Elliot pushed Avery away and shouted hoarsely, "Don't touch me!"

Avery froze for a moment, then hugged his body tightly again.

“Elliot, I have never doubted your feelings for me.” Avery opened her heart to him, “I have never doubted my feelings for you. The people I love, from beginning to end, You are the only one. If I knew you were going to propose to me tonight, I would definitely see you as soon as possible. “

Elliot’s chest heaved quickly. His breathing increased, but he didn’t say a word. His head hurts badly, and temperature doesn’t seem to be normal.

Avery clinged to him like a vine, and he felt more uncomfortable to breathe.

Elliot didn’t push her away again, because he knew that even if he pushed her away again, she would continue to pester him.

“Elliot, I didn’t receive your call because my phone was out of power and turned off. I put it in my bag. I didn’t know it was out of power.” Avery rambled and explained to him, “I haven’t forgotten our date. I plan to go to you when Adrian’s condition is better. But he keeps vomiting, and I can’t bear it.”

She mentioned Adrian, and his emotions were ignited again.

Avery moved into his arms and faced him face to face, “Elliot, don’t be angry. I just want you to know that I really didn’t mean to be late. No matter what happens in the future, I will definitely put you in the Number one.”

Elliot’s big palm was about to push her away but after Avery finished speaking, he finally softened.

What he wants has always been simple. That's what she cares about.

Avery buried her head in his chest, listening to his powerful heartbeat, and felt extremely relieved. As long as he doesn't push her away, she won't let go of him.

Avery really realized she was wrong. She seemed to take his kindness to her for granted.

He clearly had an appointment at night, how could he lie to him, and how could he be so late?

Even if it's a normal date, it shouldn't be taken lightly.

His breathing gradually evened out on top of her head, but she didn't feel sleepy.

On the one hand, his emotions were up and down, and his heart was a little uncomfortable. On the other hand, he didn't eat dinner and was very hungry.

The waiter said he didn't have dinner either, isn't he hungry?

Avery took a breath, thinking about waiting for him to fall asleep a little more before getting out of bed to find something to eat.

But after a while, she was hot with his body heat.

She lifted the quilt a little and stroked his face with her hand.

"It's hot!" she whispered.

Realizing that Elliot was having a fever, Avery quickly got up and got medicine.

But Elliot quickly held her body down, preventing her from leaving.

“Elliot...you have a fever, I’ll get you medicine...” Avery was forced to shrink into his arms and explained to him in a low voice.

Elliot used a lot of strength to grab her arm.

He is definitely awake!

It’s just that he didn’t speak, nor would he let go.

Chapter 1053

Elliot felt very cold. The moment Avery left his embrace just now, his cold body trembled, feeling like he was going to freeze to death.

He couldn’t let her go.

“Elliot, don’t mistreat yourself again, okay?” Avery couldn’t count how many times it was. “Whether it’s you or I, don’t mistreat yourself anymore.”

Elliot was like a scorching fireball, emitting a steady stream of scalding heat.

Avery was in a panic and afraid that Elliot might have a problem.

“Elliot, let me go. I’ll get medicine for you.” Avery pushed his arm away, remembering.

Elliot quickly grabbed her and turned against her.

“Elliot! Do you want to die from illness?!” Avery was scratched by his palm and she felt hurt.

She didn't want to yell at him, but if she didn't let him wake up, even if she used brute force, she couldn't break free from his shackles.

After she roared, the strength of his palm lightened slightly.

But he still didn't let her go.

Avery sat in front of him, leaving and not wanting to leave, but not wanting to lie down any longer. The two of them were silently confronting each other in the dark.

"I do want to die." Elliot said, his voice was hoarse.

He seemed to be awake and to be burned out.

Avery was enraged by him, "I won't let you die! If you die, what will I do with the children?!"

"I will give you the property, and you will live well." Elliot voice came again, With suffocating despair.

"Why do you want to die?! Just because I'm late tonight..." Avery choked and asked.

"Tired." Elliot replied.

He wasn't late because of her, it was just a fuse. He felt that his life was a mistake. It was wrong from birth.

With tears in her eyes, Avery pulled his arm away forcefully and quickly jumped out of bed.

She turned on the light, stood under the bed, and looked at him coldly: "Elliot, I think you have a fever and talk nonsense. Anyone can die, but you can't! You can't leave your three children to me to raise alone! If you dare to die, I will go with you! Our children, let them fend for themselves!"

Avery said harshly and strode towards the door!

Elliot raised his head, the dazzling white light made him quickly close his eyes.

The headache seemed to split, and breathing became a luxury.

Before Avery came over, Avery fell into a drowsiness.

The next morning.

The phone rang in the quiet room.

Elliot opened his eyes suddenly. He quickly recognized that it was Avery's ringtone. He turned his head and saw Avery rubbing his eyes, looking for her mobile phone. After she got her phone on the bedside table, she answered it.

"Boss, Adrian is awake! I'm making a fuss to see you!" On the other side of the phone, the voice of the bodyguard came anxiously.

Avery immediately looked at Elliot.

She saw that Elliot opened his eyes and looked at her with indifference, and she felt cold all over.

Elliot had a fever last night and passed out.

After she fed him a fever-reducing medicine, It didn't work, so she called his family doctor and asked him to deliver the medicine overnight.

The Doctor gave him two bottles of liquid, and then the fever subsided.

She waited for him to finish the medicine before falling asleep.

So she is very sleepy now.

She said to the bodyguard, "I can't go there. My husband is sick, and I have to take care of him."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1054 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1054

The bodyguard didn't react for a while, who was the 'husband' in her mouth.

"Who is it? Who is your husband?" the bodyguard asked loudly, raising his voice.

Elliot heard the bodyguard's gruff voice through her cell phone.

Avery's face turned red with a swish: "Who else is there except Elliot? He and I are getting married soon.

"Okay, take care of him, I'll just ignore Adrian."

If Elliot was not by his side, Avery would definitely ask the bodyguard to give Adrian the phone to comfort Adrian. But when Elliot was here, she didn't dare to do it.

After hanging up, she looked at Elliot.

Elliot had turned his body to his side, his back to her.

Avery put down the phone and leaned towards him.

"Elliot, how do you feel?" Avery said, reaching out and touching his forehead.

Elliot remembered what happened last night, and had a grudge in his heart, so he pushed her hand away.

“I’m sorry, I was wrong last night.” Avery lay on top of him, her voice soft, “Are you hungry? Let me bring you breakfast!”

“Why don’t you go to the hospital to take care of that fool?” His voice was dull come.

“Because you are more important than him.” She pulled his body over and made him face her, “Elliot, look, I put the ring on. The size is just right.”

Elliot looked at her finger with the diamond ring, and in his heart The anger is hard to come out.

He still remembers the words she said in his arms when he had a fever last night.

He believed she was not late on purpose.

It’s just that she and Adrian are bound to be incompatible. She can’t say that she loves him, and then get entangled with Adrian.

Even this entanglement is just out of sympathy and pity.

Seeing his face was cold and gloomy, Avery said, “I know you can’t accept Adrian because he is Shea’s brother. Elliot, you know it.”

Her words made his eyes light up and suddenly became cold.

“Adrian is my patient, so this matter can’t be hidden from me.” She got out of bed and brought him water, “Actually, if Nathan treats him a little bit better, I won’t doubt it.”

“What are you? When did you know?” Elliot gritted his teeth.

She had a complete showdown with him, “I knew it before Nathan came to you. Elliot, I will face this matter with you. There is only one Elliot in this world, and that’s you.”

His Adam’s apple rolled, “Go away, I can’t tell what I feel in my heart”

Avery took a glass of water and walked to the bed.

Avery put the water glass into his hand and said, “I have to snatch Adrian from Nathan. Because Nathan wants to use Adrian to threaten you. Although Nathan is your father, he only treats you as a ATM, and he will not consider your life or death at all. Elliot, I only have one request. Don’t kill Adrian. We can put him in a place where no one can find him.”

Elliot retorted, “Why do you think this world will Is there such a place? Only if he dies, no one will find him.”

Avery was shocked: “Do you have to kill him? Elliot, what if I don’t let him?”

Elliot put the water glass on the cabinet next to him and said, “Do you believe that someone will find him and use him to threaten me? “Do you want to see me threatened? Or do you want all the bad things about me to be seen by everyone?”

“But didn’t you hide Shea well before? We also hide Adrian like this...”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1055 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1055

Elliot frowned and proposed another plan, “Didn’t you find Shea? It’s okay not to kill Adrian, then kill Nathan’s family.”

Avery was speechless. She couldn’t accept his proposal. She didn’t want him to kill.

“Elliot, you haven’t recovered from your cold yet, so you should have a good rest first. Don’t worry about Adrian. I’ll let the bodyguards watch him in the hospital. Nathan can’t get close to him now.” She lowered her eyes and whispered, “When you’re healthy, let’s see if there is any other way.”

“Avery, escaping can’t solve any problem. I can’t coexist with him.” His voice was cold and biting.

“Why can’t we work together? Adrian won’t rob you of anything. Like Shea, he is not an ordinary person in the normal sense. If Shea is still alive, do you want to kill Shea together?” Avery wrinkled, frowned and questioned him.

“You are vexatious. Shea is dead, so your question cannot be established.” Elliot retorted her.

“Who is making trouble unreasonably? What’s wrong with Adrian? Why can’t you tolerate him?” Avery knew for a long time that she and Elliot would face this problem, but he didn’t expect him to be so determined.

“He’s right, it’s me who’s wrong.” His face was gloomy, “Not only did I take up his life, but I plan not to give it back to him for the rest of my life!”

Avery took a painful breath, “Elliot, I didn’t say you were wrong. Your life is not your choice. You are also a victim.”

Elliot lifted the quilt and got off the bed.

She watched him stride into the bathroom and felt a dull pain in her heart.

She might not be able to convince him.

There is probably no better way to do this.

He was right, if they hid Adrian, Nathan would definitely go all out to find it. As long as Nathan doesn’t die, he will find him forever.

Either Adrian dies, or Nathan dies, or this incident will break out at any time!

Mrs. Scarlet gave the two of them a secret look, and then backed away.

It seems that the conflict between the two of them has not been resolved.

After Mrs. Scarlet left, Avery opened her mouth to break the silence:
“Elliot, I thought about it. After Adrian was discovered, the worst result is that your background will be exposed. You are not the young master of the Foster family, so what? This incident can’t affect the operation of your company at all.”

Elliot said, “You are right. This incident does not affect my company. However, my killing of Jaxson Foster will also be exposed.”

Avery said: “But You were underage at that time, and underage murder will not be sentenced to death.”

“Avery, do you know how cruel what you said was to me?” Elliot put down the bowl and chopsticks, his face ashen, ” Whether it’s my background or my underage murder, this is a scandal that I don’t want to be known by outsiders! You forced me to face it!”

“I didn’t force you to face it. I just...” Avery sighed and put down the bowls and chopsticks, “Elliot, don’t kill people, okay? You had no choice but to kill Jaxson Foster, but now you don’t have to do such a thing.”

“Let’s go!” Elliot had a splitting headache and said hoarsely, “I want to stay alone for a while.”

Avery watched him get up from the dining chair and leave the dining room, feeling empty. She didn’t want him to suffer so much, but she knew very well that she brought his suffering.

Without Avery, Elliot can do whatever he wants without anyone’s control.

No one can threaten him.

After sitting for a while, Avery came out of the dining room and left Foster’s house.
