Chapter 1070

Elliot took her hand, “Do you think I’ll be afraid of him? Let them do whatever they want. They can’t affect me.”

“Are you sure you’re ready?” Avery looked at his calm and resolute face, and the unease in her heart gradually dissipated.

Elliot led her into the resort then said calmly, “I thought about it for a long time last night. Since these things exist, they will come sooner or later. Instead of being afraid, it is better to face it calmly. As long as you and your kids are by my side, the rest is not important.”

Avery’s tense heartstrings suddenly relaxed at this moment.

Avery took a deep breath and said, “Elliot, I’m glad you think so. If we spent every day as the last day of our lives, we would be much braver.”

Elliot murmured, “I don’t want to treat today as the last day. I haven’t had enough time with you. I want to be with you until die.”

Avery said cheerfully, “Hahaha! I’ll tell you a secret. I didn’t say I was going to give you the white hair last time. Hair, I lied to you. You don’t have white hair at all. I pulled your hair and used it for DNA.”

The expression on his face was stunned: “Should I thank you for just pulling my hair, and Didn’t I draw my blood?”

“If I draw your blood, it would be too obvious. You are not a fool, you can definitely guess.” Avery said as she conversation changed, “After I pulled your hair, I also went to pull Cole’s hair. As a result, he screamed in pain, and it made me laugh when I think about it now.”

“You gave me and Cole an appraisal, why didn’t you tell me? Do you think I can’t take this blow?”

Nathan was looking for you, didn’t you tell me?” Her hand swept over the flowers by the roadside, and a flash of white light suddenly flashed in her mind, “Did we forget to take a wedding photo?”

Elliot was stunned.

“Elliot, when I see other people get married, don’t they all take wedding photos? Don’t we need to show the wedding photos to the guests during the wedding?” Avery asked.

Elliot: “It’s too late to shoot now.”

“You really forgot? Hahaha! No one around you reminded you?” Avery laughed mercilessly as she looked at him in a daze.

“I’m inexperienced.” A blush appeared on Elliot’s handsome face. “It’s better to choose a day than to hit the sun. Let’s shoot today!”

Elliot rejected her suggestion: “We are taking wedding photos, not family photos.”

“Oh okay! Where do we go?” When Avery asked this question, she looked around.

This resort faces the sea and the sea view is very beautiful.

“Why don’t we shoot here!” Avery quickly made a decision. “The exterior scene is here, and then I go to the studio to shoot two sets of interior scenes. It’s almost the same.”

“Well, I’ll contact the photographer right away.” Elliot led her Sit down and rest in the villa. When he contacted the makeup artist and photographer, Avery took the mobile phone and sent a message to Tammy.

Avery: [You may not believe it. Elliot and I haven’t taken a wedding photo yet.]

Tammy: [! ! !]

Avery: [Elliot forgot about it. He said he was inexperienced. Like he didn’t propose to me and I agreed to marry him. Are we both a little silly? Ha ha!]

Tammy: [Although you two have no experience in holding weddings, but you two have a lot of experience in having children! A lot of people got married earlier than you, and they haven’t got three babies yet!]

Avery: [...]

Tammy: [I really admire you. In a few years, Hayden will be able to marry a wife.]

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1071 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1071

Avery: [The father and son are in conflict again. Elliot used to live in my house, but now he has returned to his own house.]

Tammy: [How can there be a father and son who do not have conflicts. Ask the teacher to arrange more homework for Hayden.]

Avery: [He usually has a lot of homework. I suspect he may not be at my wedding. He has a game and is going abroad.]

Tammy: [If he doesn't want to participate, respect him! When he's older, their father-son relationship will be fine.]

Avery: [Well, do you want to come and take a wedding photo with me? Shot at the resort.]

Tammy: [OK, I'll go look for you after I pack up!]

After sending the messages, Avery looked at Elliot: "Elliot, have you found a photographer?"

"Well."

"Do you want to take pictures in the water? I saw other people's wedding photos taken in the water before, so beautiful! Avery's thoughts began to spread, "I have also seen other people taking pictures on the cliff."

Elliot: "Are you afraid that you still want to shoot in the sky?"

Avery: “How do you know? Don’t you have a plane? we can take a plane to the sky, and then use the drone to take pictures for us.”

Elliot frowned slightly: “Are you sure?”

Avery thought for a few seconds, and then gave up: “Forget it, let’s take pictures casually, first The marriage is over. We have all given birth to three children. If we don’t have the wedding, Hayden will have to marry a daughter-in-law.”

Elliot sat down beside her and said, “Do you think your son might get married so early? I See that he is not interested in women at all.”

“He is not interested in women now, because he is not yet an adult.” Avery believes that his son is definitely a normal man, “When he is an adult, he will be enlightened.”

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

Elliot said bluntly, “Not necessarily. Didn’t you say he was like me? Before I met you, I had no interest in women. Otherwise I would have been married long ago, and I wouldn’t have been caught by you.

“Elliot, do you have a degree of narcissism?” Her cheeks were slightly red, and she suddenly remembered the scene of their first acquaintance, “Okay, I missed it at the time. If you hadn’t become a vegetative in that car accident, your mother wouldn’t dare to marry any woman you want. I only admit that you were better than me when we first met, and now, I’m on par with you.”

His deep eyes fell on her red face.

“Now you are better than me.” Elliot complimented her without hesitation. “What you do is more meaningful. You have infinite possibilities in the future.”

“Don’t you have infinite possibilities in your future?” Avery retorted.

“Besides making money, I don’t seem to know what else I can do.”
Confusion flashed in Elliot eyes.

Avery leaned her head on his shoulder: “In addition to making money, you can also take good care of your family! It is also meaningful that you spend more time with me and the children.”

“Well. After the wedding, let’s go out for our honeymoon!” Elliot wanted to give himself a long vacation.

Avery didn’t expect him to be so enlightened: “Okay! Where do you want to go?”

Elliot said, “Didn’t Wesley send you a postcard? Don’t you want to go look for him? Maybe we can go and have a look.”

“You want to find Shea, right?” Avery’s head was lifted from his shoulder.

Elliot eyes were slightly red: “Do you think she is still alive?”

Avery shook her head: “If she is still alive, Wesley has no reason not to tell us. Of course, I also hope that she is still alive, even if it is only medically alive, Then at least there is still a chance.”

Elliot said sternly, “If Shea is still alive, even if she knows that I am not her brother, she will not leave me. Adrian chose to go with Henry.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1072 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1072

Avery's calm heart suddenly became cold.

Elliot said, "He was very afraid of me. so he would rather go with Henry than stay with me."

Avery felt uncomfortable. She said, "Elliot, don't mention this. we are getting married today. Don't mention unhappy things."

She thought about that Adrian returned to Henry. No matter how bad it was, it was better than staying by Nathan's side.

Adrian is Henry's younger brother, Henry will never abuse his younger brother no matter what.

Not long after, a team of photographers arrived.

Tammy arrived at about the same time. With the help of Tammy, Avery chose three different shooting themes.

The weather was fine today, and the location shooting went very smoothly.

Originally, one exterior scene and two interior scenes were set. In the end, because the exterior scenes were more relaxed. They shot an extra set of exterior scenes.

Time passed, and it was evening.

Star River Villa.

At dinner table.

“Let’s eat first! Your mother took a wedding photo today, and she couldn’t come back for dinner.” After calling Avery, Mike spoke to the two children.

Layla pouted: “Why not take pictures on weekends? I want to see them take pictures!”

Mike couldn’t help laughing: “If they don’t take wedding pictures, it will be too late for the wedding. Your parents are watching. They ‘re two smart people, but they’re actually very confused.”

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

Layla: “You know they’re not smart, and being friends with them means you’re not smart either!”

The smile on Mike’s face froze: “Layla, your brother is going abroad, and I’ll be the only one to play with you, so be polite to me!”

“Humph! I have my brother to play with me!” Layla said, looking at Hayden, “Brother, I don’t want you to go abroad.”

Hayden: “We agreed last night. You can’t go back. But your mother won’t necessarily let you go abroad to study. Mom must be reluctant to let you.”

Mike Ridiculously said, “Layla, this is not something your mother is reluctant to give up. If your brother didn’t go abroad, your father wouldn’t dare to enter our house. Besides, your brother is going abroad to study, and when he comes back, he will be better than your father in the future!”

Layla shrugged her head and her mouth deflated: “OK, Now it’s going out to study...”

Mike talked to Hayden yesterday afternoon.

Hayden proposed that he wanted to leave the house. Mike has always doted on Hayden, so he helped him think of a way. That is, you go abroad for study hard.

Hayden didn’t even think about it, and agreed to the proposal.

Mike asked him to think about it again and then tell Avery after he is determined.

Finally, Hayden thought about it for a day and decided to go abroad. He didn’t want to face Elliot, and didn’t want to attend Elliot and his mother’s wedding.

So studying abroad is a good excuse to leave.

At 8 p.m., Avery went home.

Mike told her about Hayden’s decision to go abroad.

Mike said, “Hayden has made up his mind, so you don’t have to stop him. But after he goes abroad, it will not be so convenient for you mother and son to meet.”

When Mike’s voice was settled, Avery’s eyes turned red and she cried.

Mike took a tissue and handed it to Avery and said, “Don’t cry. Hayden just went abroad to study and it’s not like he won’t come back. Otherwise, it would be impossible for the father and son to make trouble like this.”

Avery didn’t pick up the tissue but she said, “I can’t accept Hayden leaving me but I know that he has grown up also has his own thoughts, and I should respect him.”

Mike comforted her, “Actually, the overseas learning environment will improve him a little faster. I will send him abroad in person, and he will come back when you and Elliot get married.”

Avery had no other choice at all. They had already agreed on it in private, and now, it’s just a matter of notifying her.

At night, Avery was lying on the bed, but tears could not stop flowing out. She planned to talk to Hayden tonight, but Hayden went to bed early.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1073 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1073

Avery felt that Hayden was deliberately refusing to negotiate with her.

The more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt, and finally she was really depressed, so she dialed Elliot's phone.

"Elliot, Hayden has decided to study abroad. Now, he is leaving."

Elliot's breathing became heavier: "What can I do?"

Avery said, "You don't have to do anything. Because you can't do anything. He has already made his decision. Mike said that Hayden will leave at the latest the day after tomorrow. He doesn't want to stay in this house for a day."

Elliot said helplessly, "Since Hayden wants to leave, let him go. Don't cry Avery. Just let him go and Please, treat him like a child."

"But I can't help but treat him like a child. Elliot, I always feel like I'm going to lose Hayden."

Elliot comforted patiently, "No. He's your son. You'll never lose him. He just doesn't want to face me. He still loves you as always. You can visit him often."

Listening to his deep voice, her emotions gradually calmed down.

Elliot continued to comfort her, “Avery, it is impossible for everything in life to go smoothly. As long as Hayden is free from illness and disaster, we should be lucky.”

Avery: “Well. I’ll get up early tomorrow and talk to him. Even if he’s leaving, Then I don’t feel sad.”

Elliot: “Then you should rest early.”

Avery: “Well. What are you doing?”

Elliot: “I’m reading a book.”

Avery: “What book?”

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

Elliot: “It’s about the war.”

Avery: “Don’t read it too late, or you won’t be in good life tomorrow.”

Elliot: “Well. Go to sleep!”

After hanging up the phone, Avery opened her eyes and looked at the dimly lit room. ‘Elliot said that it is impossible for everything to go smoothly in life’, of course she knew it.

Not only was her life unsatisfactory, but she had also experienced adversity for a long time. When she encountered difficulties before, she was not so vulnerable. She had to be brave to hold this family up. Now that she has Elliot, she should believe that all difficulties will be overcome.

The next morning, Avery went to the children's room to talk to Hayden. She cried last night, so her eyes were swollen today, "Hayden, mom respects all your decisions. mom wanted to tell you that mom will always love you. No matter where you go, mom will miss you always."

Hayden looked at his mom as his Mom lowered her head, then said, "Mom, I'll be back in a year."

Avery: "Well, I'll visit you often."

Hayden: "Okay."

Avery: "Also, your dad won't interfere with you in anything. He Let me tell you, he felt so sorry and he won't bother you again until you decide to forgive him."

Hayden didn't respond to the question. At least for now, he doesn't want to face the problem.

A day later, Avery sent Hayden to the airport.

After watching Hayden go through the security check, Avery couldn't help crying.

"Mom, dad is here." Layla reminded Avery, pulling Avery's hand.

Avery quickly wiped away her tears and turned around –

Elliot didn't tell her that she would come to the airport, so she was a little surprised. He strode up in front of her and embraced her in his arms.

"Don't cry, I'll take you to a place." Elliot said hoarsely.

Avery choked and asked, "Where are you going?"

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1074 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1074

Elliot picked up Layla with one hand, and held Avery's hand tightly with the other hand.

Avery followed Elliot's footsteps and left the airport lobby step by step.

Airport command and control center.

Elliot brought Avery and Layla near a room of huge floor-to-ceiling windows for watching the runway clearly.

“Half an hour later, They could see Hayden's flight taking off.” Elliot took Avery came to the window and said, “I chatted with Mike last night. I thought the same as him, Hayden is now studying abroad that is right for him. It may be a better choice.”

Avery stared at him blankly and was waiting for his analysis.

“In the qualifying round, Hayden was only three points higher than Daniel, so Daniel would question the fairness of the teacher’s rating. If he will get 30 points higher than Daniel, do you think Daniel will still question it? His strength is still somewhat Lack...” Elliot said.

Avery frowned after hearing what Elliot said, “Are you asking too much of your son? Hayden is three years younger than Daniel, in other words, Daniel studied three years more than him. Hayden is three points higher than Daniel, which is already very powerful.”

Elliot looked at her calmly, “But Daniel questioned him, and he collapsed. He can either improve his strength or adjust himself. Now that he has decided to improve his strength, we can support him. “

Avery took a deep breath and looked out the window.

Elliot continued, “Only when his strength is strong enough, he will not be easily provoked by others. I hope my son can surpass me in the future. In this way, he can better protect himself and his family. Now the brief separation, It’s bearable.”

Avery looked back at Elliot: “Maybe you’re right, but emotionally, it’s still hard for me to accept him leaving me. If he wasn’t seven, but seventeen, I wouldn’t be so uncomfortable. When you went abroad for the first time, you must not have been so young, right?”

Elliot said, “It was his own choice. We didn’t force him to leave.”

“Elliot, I knew you were going to say that.” Avery took a deep breath and looked at him resentfully, “You said before that you’ve a disgusting personality, yo’re right. You’re really disgusting sometimes. If your son is not so like you, he wouldn’t be so paranoid.”

Elliot didn't retort.

Half an hour later, Hayden's flight slowly took off from the runway and rushed into the sky.

Elliot brought Avery and Layla home.

"Avery, your wedding dress is here. Would you like to try it?" Mrs. Cooper smiled and asked.

Avery looked at the beautifully packaged oversized box in the living room and tried to force herself not to think about Hayden's departure.

She opened the box and saw the white wedding dress.

"Let me put it on for you!" Elliot lifted the wedding dress from the box and took the initiative to speak.

She answered and went back to the room with him.

After a while, she put on her wedding dress and looked at herself in the mirror, suddenly lost.

It was as if the wedding was imminent.

"How's the size?" Elliot asked in a hoarse voice, looking at her beautiful appearance.

"It fits very well." Avery looked at her emotional eyes in the mirror, her cheeks slightly hot, "Elliot, when the wedding is over, you can accompany me to see Hayden first."

Elliot: "Okay."

"Actually, I don't blame you." Avery turned around and put her arms around his waist. "I blame you, but I don't think so."

"I know." Elliot picked her up and walked to Beside the bed, "Even if you really blame me, I'm not angry."

"Elliot, we won't quarrel in the future, okay? Every time I quarrel with you, I feel so uncomfortable." Avery sat beside the bed. Her little hands Holding his big palm.

"Um."

Elliot held her hand in one hand and the back of her neck in the other, and just as his kiss was about to land on her cheek, his phone rang out of time.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1075 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1075

Avery quickly kissed his thin lips, then pushed him away, “Receive the call!, I’ll change the wedding dress.”

Elliot took out his mobile phone from his pocket, glanced at the call, and answered.

There was a subordinate’s voice over the phone, “Boss, today Henry brought Adrian for DNA testing. I think his motivation for doing DNA testing is bad. He knows that Adrian is his own younger brother, and he will take people to work. I snatched it from you, so I have to do an appraisal.”

Elliot glanced at Avery and that time, she was looking in the mirror, unfastening her laces.

“Keep watching and report to me if there is any situation.” After Elliot said this, he hung up the phone.

“Who is it?” Avery asked when she saw that Elliot had hung up the phone.

“Henry brought Adrian for a DNA test. Aren’t you worried about Adrian, so I made people watch them.” Elliot strode behind her and helped her untie the belt.

“Oh, did Henry ask you anything?” Avery was vaguely uneasy.

Elliot: “Not yet.”

Avery asked casually, “If Henry asks you for money, will you give it?”

Avery then continued, “I guess Cole will lose the money from selling the old house before. When he run out of money, he’ll definitely ask you for it.”

“Wait until he come.” It’s useless to worry about what hasn’t happened yet.

“Avery, don’t let them affect your mood. Even if they ask me for money, I won’t give a cent.” Elliot unpacked her wedding dress. After that, Elliot took a nightgown from the side and put it on her head and said, “You can rest at home today!”

“Well, I’m staying with my daughter.” Avery said sadly.

Elliot coaxed her said, “The pain is temporary, just get used to it.”

Time flies, to the end of May. Tomorrow is the wedding of Elliot and Avery.

For this upcoming grand wedding, major media in Avonsville have carried out lengthy reports.

——It is reported that nearly 1,000 guests were invited on the wedding day, and the whole city will attend the wedding!

——This wedding of the century, which caused a sensation around the world, cost billions, just for the smile of people!

The wedding photos of the two made headlines in major news sections!

For a while, the limelight was no different.

Henry looked at the news about Elliot and Avery's wedding, and the expression on his face was indescribable jealousy.

Elliot can spend billions for a wedding. And as the real Foster's parent, now Henry can only rent out.

Not only Henry not invited to the wedding by Elliot, but his relatives and friends seemed to have forgotten him. Just because he was so destitute that he sold his ancestral home, the Foster family's relatives and friends also cut off contact with him.

Henry sighed, "Elliot is so cruel. He didn't even think about compensating us."

Cole snorted coldly: "Dad, Elliot can climb to the current position. Do you think he is a vegetarian? If we don't ask him for money, he will definitely not give us a cent."

"He's going too far!" Henry put down the phone and rubbed his eyebrows, "It seems that I don't completely tear my face. No way."

"Dad, do you want to go find him today, or go directly to his wedding tomorrow to confront him?" Cole asked.

"Elliot didn't invite us, we can't go to his wedding!" Henry gritted his teeth and picked up his phone again, "Tomorrow, I'll make him kneel down and beg me!"
