

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1076 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1076

Starry River Villa.

Mrs. Cooper wrapped a letter and brought it to Avery.

“Avery, should I unpack it for you, or do you unpack it yourself?” Mrs. Cooper asked.

Avery took the letter and glanced at the information on the information column.

It was sent from a person which Avery had not heard of much about. She directly opened the package and took out a postcard from it.

The moment she saw the postcard, Wesley’s face appeared in her mind.

Mrs. Cooper asked, “Did it come from Wesley? Is the address the same as last time?”

Avery shook her head, “It’s not the same address. Elliot also plans to go to that place where he sent postcards last time after marriage. Look. It’s alright now, he has changed Aryadelle again.”

Mrs. Cooper frowned and guessed: “Is he traveling the world!”

Avery took a closer look at the postcard.

This is a hand-painted postcard of two cartoon characters, a man and a woman, getting married.

She whispered, “I didn’t realize that he was so good at painting before. I don’t know how he is doing now. There’s no need for him to even go home because of this.”

Mrs. Cooper said, “Yeah! His parents have a son and they must be in pain if he doesn’t come home for such a long time. Can’t you contact him at all now?”

“Can’t contact him. His previous number is useless.”

“He remembers the child’s birthday and also knows about your wedding. It means that he has always been following domestic news. He is such a contradictory person!”

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

Avery put down the postcard and said, “Let’s see what he can do in the future. Can’t put it down!”

“Mike arrives at noon, right?”

Avery glanced at the time, “Well, I’m going to pick him up at the airport now.”

Mrs. Cooper said, “It’s still early. Besides, just let the driver go. If you recognize at the airport, you will be troublesome. You are a celebrity now.”

Avery: “I went out with a bodyguard. I really want to know Hayden’s situation over there.”

“Okay! Remember to wear a mask when you go out.”

“Well.”

Avery put the postcard Packed up, changed a set of clothes, and went out in a low-key manner.

Tomorrow is her and Elliot's wedding.

In the past two days, guests from other places had come one after another, and Elliot was aentertaining guests at the resort.

After Avery received Mike later, she would go with Mike.

Airport.

After Avery read books in the bookstore for a while, the bodyguard received Mike and walked towards her.

Mike put on her shoulder, "What book are you reading! You are so fascinated by it. This wedding between you and Elliot is a sensation all over the world! I saw your news on the headlines in Bridgedale. Elliot is not very A low-key person, this high-profile is really unaccustomed to."

Avery took the book to the cashier to check out, and responded to Mike's ridicule: "Let's get married this time, what's the matter with a high-profile?"

"Tsk tsk. You two get married in such a high-profile way, and if there is anything going on after the marriage, people all over the world will see you as a joke." Mike couldn't change the habit of crow-mouthing.

Avery asked, "Can't you expect our marriage to be sweet?"

.com providing only the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website '.com' . Also Please bookmark this page to get next update... Thank you

.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1077 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1077

Mike teased, “Yes! The key is whether the two of you can be sweet or not, it doesn’t matter if I want it or not! Could it be that the two of you quarreled before, did I expect it? But you don’t have to worry about Hayden, He has basically gotten used to it there.”

“Did Hayden whisper to you in private?” Avery asked.

Mike seemed to have heard a funny joke and chuckled: “Does Hayden seem like someone who can whisper to people? He can say a few more words in front of you, and he doesn’t like to talk at all in front of other people. On the first night he went to the new school, the teacher asked me if he was dumb.”

Avery said in astonishment, “Then you said he has adapted?!”

“Yes! I asked his teacher, teacher said that he and his classmates have adapted to him, and promise not to bully him. Isn’t this just adaptation?” Mike laughed.

Avery glared at him: “I shouldn’t have let him go abroad.”

“He has already gone abroad, and it’s too late for you to regret it. Elliot told me that the two of you decided to see him after the wedding, and you should go and take a good look. Look! Make sure Hayden is not only not thin, but also growing.”

“That’s the best way. If he’s not doing well, I’ll take him home.”

Mike looked at her, “Don’t frown. You’re going to be a bride tomorrow. What do you think?”

Avery thought about it for two seconds, then said, “I think the wedding is so troublesome. Since the day before yesterday, Elliot seemed to be a male publicist and he was entertaining the guests every day.”

“I... I heard, Chad said it. Not only did Elliot become a male publicist, he and Ben Schaffer were too busy to die. I heard Chad said that his college classmates have come to a lot of beautiful women. Are you panic?”

Avery opened the door and sat in In the car and said to Mike: “Have you never been to his company? There are countless young and beautiful female employees in his company. Every time I go, I feel that their last job in personnel may be related to beauty pageants.”

Mike: “Haha... Haha! I’ll open my eyes next time.”

About an hour later, the two arrived at the resort.

It was just lunch time.

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

Avery successfully met Elliot's female classmates. Although these female classmates were all over thirty, they were all well maintained, mature, sexy and elegant.

After Avery greeted everyone, she sat down beside Elliot.

"Avery, we finally meet you in person. You look much prettier than you look in the photo! Elliot's eyes are really high!" A female classmate flattered.

"Avery definitely didn't capture Elliot's heart with her looks! He had never seen Elliot before. Avery must have had something special." The male classmates had different opinions, "Avery, I heard that you're a doctor, when Elliot married you, he doesn't need to go to the hospital in the future."

Avery smiled restrainedly: "I'm not a general practitioner. If he has an Andrology disease, he still has to see a professional doctor!"

"Then where would you look? What's the matter with you?"

"I'm a Neurosurgeon."

"Awesome! Although I don't understand, I think you must be amazing! Otherwise, why would Elliot marry you?"

.

Avery was not angry. Elliot's classmates thought that she had surpassed him. After all, in terms of economy, she really couldn't compare to him.

Elliot said, "I'm with Avery, and there are not so many complicated reasons. It's because she's good-looking."

Avery coughed sharply.

It is no exaggeration to say that every one of his female classmates is very handsome. In front of them, Avery has absolutely no advantage in appearance.

Elliot poured her a glass of water calmly, and then continued to explain the reason for marrying her, “The first time I saw her, I was fascinated by her. She is not only beautiful, but also has a great figure. Besides, her character is also good.”

Avery was stunned by his praise. When she saw the others present, she was also stunned.

Elliot’s ability to talk nonsense with his eyes open is really amazing!

.com providing only the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website '.com' . Also Please bookmark this page to get next update... Thank you

.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1078 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1078

“Avery can cook. She cooks for me what I want to eat. She is very kind to me. And she can also knit sweaters. The sweaters she knits are better than those sold in the store outside.”

“When I’m unhappy, she tells jokes to make me happy.”

“When I’m happy, she takes me out to play. You know, I’m boring, but she never dislikes me.”

“When I was sick. At that time, she stayed up all night and took care of me meticulously. She is not only an excellent mother, an entrepreneur, but also a good wife.”

...

Elliot seemed to be drinking too much, talking and boasting alone. Avery was in the fog and wanted to dig a hole in the ground.

Avery never knew she was so good. She suspected that this was what his dream wife looked like.

“Elliot, why are you talking so much today?” Avery poured him a glass of juice, trying to calm him down.

Elliot took a sip of the juice, but went up even higher, looked at her with deep eyes, and asked, “Avery, why did you marry me?”

Avery was speechless. She could see through his eyes and thoughts.

Elliot wanted her to praise him the way he praised her just now.

“Avery, tell me why you married Elliot! After all, you are so good, and there must be no shortage of suitors!” Someone asked.

Avery cleared her throat embarrassedly, and then said bravely: “I’m a relatively shallow person. The reason why I am willing to marry him is not only because he is handsome and in good shape, but also because I like his money. Yes, I heard right, you like his money.”

Everyone was speechless.

Elliot looked at her with blurry eyes and encouraged her to continue.

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

Avery confided the truth, “Elliot is a man with high self-esteem and conceit, so he often makes me angry. Every time he makes me angry, he will give me expensive gifts. Precious jewelry is the most often he gives me. Although I don’t like to wear jewelry, I like to look at it.”

“He not only share me his social account password, but also share his bank card password, safe password, all of them. I’m afraid I can’t remember it but he wrote all the passwords in a small notebook and gave it to me.”

As soon as she said this, the women present became sour!

“Besides, I asked him how much he gave me for this marriage. Guess what he said?” Avery deliberately sold it off, “He said he packed it up for me.”

“T’ll go! Elliot, Are you so generous to women? Did you really send yourself out?” Someone exclaimed.

“Elliot, I knew you were so innocent. I should have worked hard in the first place to catch you!” A female classmate said with regret.

“What’s the use of your efforts? Elliot likes a woman like Avery who combines beauty and wisdom. Although you are beautiful, can you cook? Can you knit sweaters? Do you give injections on a patient? “

Okay! I sigh! Avery is really amazing!”

...

After a pleasant lunch, Avery took Elliot to rest.

Back in the room, Elliot said in a mocking tone, “Do you like my money?”

“When did I cook for you?” Avery asked back

“Do you want to know my password? Then I’ll write it down in a small notebook for you.” Elliot walked to the cabinet, looking for paper and a pen.

.com providing only the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website '.com' . Also Please bookmark this page to get next update... Thank you

.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1079 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1079

Avery lay down on the bed, “Elliot, even if you blow me up outside, I won’t be like what you said. I don’t know how to knit sweaters.”

“They don’t know you, so I want them to know that you didn’t overestimate me.” Elliot wrote all the passwords on a piece of paper, took it, and handed it to her, “Wife, please take a look.”

Avery accepted his reasoning. She took the paper and after reading it carefully, she found, “Elliot social account password is her birthday and The bank card password is Layla’s birthday.”

Elliot volunteered to explain, “Layla and you, Both are the most important women in my life.”

Her cheeks were hot, and she asked, “Isn’t my son important?”

Elliot sit down beside the bed, “It’s not that important. You and your daughter are more caring. Your son will only be angry with me.”

“Robert is not angry with you. You can’t think that your son is not good just because you have a bad relationship with Hayden.”

“I didn’t. I don’t think my son is good. It’s just that I think my son should support himself and not rely on me.” Elliot walked to the window and closed the white gauze curtain, “When they are underage, I can help them. When they are adults, I will not help them.”

Avery asked a question mark: “Even if they are adults, they are not yet twenty years old! Are you sure you will leave them alone when they become adults?”

“If they ask me for help, I will help. If not Please, I won’t help.” Elliot took off his coat, put it aside and hung it, then sat down beside her, “I don’t want our son to become a prodigal like Cole.”

Avery folded the paper with the password written on it and put it in the bag: “Not all the rich second generation are like Cole. Of course, I respect your decision. If the child doesn't ask for help, you really don't need to worry too much. It's like Hayden's character. He is relatively strong and doesn't want us to interfere too much in his life."

"Well."

After Avery lay down, She hugged Elliot's body and said, "Are you sure you won't invite your elder brother? You invited other relatives of the Foster family but you didn't invite your eldest brother. Will your eldest brother be angry when he finds out?"

Elliot said coldly, "I broke up with him already. I can't invite him specifically because he knows my secret."

"Well, it's fine if you don't invite. Go to sleep! I'll call you later. "

Avery said.

This chapter is provided by .com. Visit .com for daily update.

After Elliot responded, he quickly breathed evenly.

Avery looked at his tired sleeping face and hugged him tightly.

She remembered that during Elliot lunch today, he changed his usual image of cherishing words like gold and praised her for being in heaven and earth, but he didn't want her to suffer a little grievance.

After solving the misunderstanding with him, she felt more deeply that this man had a deep friendship for her. In the future, she will definitely not live up to his affection.

In the evening, Avery went home and picked up Mrs. Cooper and Robert.

When approaching the main road of the resort, the speed of the vehicle slowed down. Avery accidentally glanced out the car window and saw a familiar face!

“Mrs. Cooper, does the man in the blue shirt look like Cole?” Avery said to Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper looked out the car window and carefully looked at the man in the blue shirt.

“Looks like him! Has Mr. Foster invited him?”

“No. I just asked Elliot at noon today. Elliot said he didn’t invite Henry and Cole.” Avery frowned and murmured, “What is he doing here? and I don’t seem to have seen the man he spoke with.”

“The father and son, Henry and Cole will not do something disgusting when you two get married tomorrow?” Mrs. Cooper frowned, with an ominous premonition in her heart.

Avery listened to Mrs. Cooper’s words, and her calm heart was disturbed!

.com providing only the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website '.com' . Also Please bookmark this page to get next update... Thank you

