

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1080

Mrs. Cooper suggested, "Avery, call to your husband and ask him to send someone over to take a look. It's so remote here, why did Cole come here? He definitely have had a bad idea."

Avery: "Well. I'll see him later and tell him."

"Avery, let me tell you, don't think Henry seems to be an honest man, but he's not a kind hearted man at all. Mrs. Cooper hugged Robert with a serious face, "Cole is so bad, don't think that he has become so bad himself. In fact, he was influenced by his parents. His mother won't say anything about it and his father wasn't much better either. The fact that, one bed can't sleep two kinds of people."

Avery frowned, pondered for a few seconds, and said, "I vaguely remember that when Elliot became a vegetative, Cole wanted to use me to take away Elliot's property. Such a terrible thing must not be his idea alone!"

"Yes! After Mr. Foster woke up, Cole didn't come to visit him." Mrs. Cooper vividly remembered what happened at the time, "Do you think your husband doesn't know the virtues of their family? As long as Henry is not so bad, the husband will not be so heartless."

Avery was silent.

"So tomorrow, you must be careful with the father and son." Mrs. Cooper reiterated.

"Well, I'll talk to Elliot about it."

After the car entered the resort, Avery saw Elliot at a glance. He was chatting with his friends outside, waiting for her and the child by the way.

When Elliot saw the car coming in, he immediately walked towards them.

After the driver stopped the car, Avery pushed the door and got out of the car.

Avery walked in front of him, “Elliot, you send someone to take a look outside. I saw Cole just now.”

Elliot raised his eyebrows: “Are you sure?”

“Mrs. Cooper also saw it. He was standing on the side of the road with a strange man and didn’t know what to talk about. I always felt that he must be planning something when he appeared here tonight.” Avery didn’t want to be influenced by them for tomorrow’s wedding.

“Don’t worry, I’ll send someone over to take a look.” Elliot reassured, “Even if they plan something, they can’t enter the resort to make trouble.”

Avery frowned: “But I don’t want to be ruined by them when I get married tomorrow. No matter when they want to tear their skin, but not tomorrow.”

Sometimes the more afraid of something, the more and more.

Seeing her so nervous, Elliot’s emotions were inevitably affected.

It seems that Henry intends to reveal all the scandals at his wedding tomorrow!

These days, Elliot has been waiting for Henry to contact him, but Henry did nothing. He guessed what Henry was thinking, but he couldn't figure it out. If Henry comes to him for money, as long as the price is reasonable, he is willing to spend money to eliminate disasters.

Henry didn't find him, which made him even more uneasy. Because this means that Henry may be planning a bigger game.

After Elliot sent someone out to check, he took Robert from Mrs. Cooper's arms. Robert was full of sleep in the car, and now a pair of eyes that were as jet black as jewels were shining brightly.

Seeing his son, the corners of Elliot's mouth couldn't help but rise: "Baby, what are you looking at? Are there many people? Don't be afraid, these uncles and aunts are all your father's friends."

After speaking, Elliot carried his son to go with friends meet.

Mrs. Cooper looked at this scene and said with a smile: "Mr. Foster looks like ten years younger when he holds the child."

Avery said, "And his behavior is also very naive. It seems that he has a son and no one else. And he probably thinks that his son is The cutest in the universe."

Avery took the child's daily necessities from the car, and then took Mrs. Cooper to the room first.
