

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1131

Chapter 1131

Seeing that Elliot figured it out, Avery was very relieved.

The family of three came out of the yard and didn't go far when they met two aunties for a walk.

When the aunt saw Avery, she immediately greeted warmly: "Avery, are you back from vacation?"

Avery: "Well, you are taking a walk!"

"Well! Your baby is so cute!" The aunt praised Robert, Suddenly looking at Elliot, "Avery, is this your husband?"

Avery glanced at Elliot and responded with a smile.

"Your husband is very handsome, but what's wrong with his face? Is this jaundice?" The aunt looked worried, and even wanted to touch Elliot's face.

Elliot immediately took out the mask and put it on.

"No, he has some injuries on his face and is already healed." Seeing Elliot restrained, Avery immediately said, "Auntie, let's go for a walk first."

"Good! Bye!" After the two aunties left, Elliot said glumly: "Are you familiar with them?"

Avery said, "Not familiar! Just meet up! After all, from a community, it is inevitable that we will meet."

Elliot: "Then how did she know you were on vacation?"

Avery said, "It's not surprising that they know! Layla takes Robert out to play every evening. Our children are so beautiful and cute. These aunties like our children, so naturally they can't help but talk to each other."

Elliot: "That's it. I thought it was Mrs. Cooper who said it."

Avery said, "Mrs. Cooper won't tell them about our affairs. Mrs. Cooper pays special attention to privacy."

Elliot: "It's okay to talk about such trivial matters."

Avery: "But Mrs. Cooper won't speak out. She is very cautious. Although she is a servant, I think she is more like an elder."

By the time they came back from their walk, Mike's luggage was already packed.

"I'm ready to go." Mike dragged his suitcase and reluctantly said to Avery, "Don't mess up my room. I'll check back from time to time."

"Don't worry, your room will definitely be reserved. Avery thought for a while and said, "You come over for dinner at night, otherwise Layla will be sad when she comes back at night and finds out that you have moved."

Mike: "Okay. I can come to eat every night."

"Okay!" Avery sent him to the garage and whispered, "If you have any news about Adrian, tell me immediately."

Mike: "I know. I'll check when I'm settled."

In the evening, Mike came over for dinner. After seeing Avery, he immediately gave Avery a wink.

Avery was relieved to understand.

After dinner, Avery said that she was not feeling well after eating, and asked Elliot to take the two children out for a walk.

After Elliot took the two children out, Mike immediately took back to his room.

"I directly broke through the communication company's system this time, and found the specific location of Adrian's number." Mike put his hands on his hips, "I'm a bull!"

"I've always known your bull. Where is his specific location? I...I want to go and have a look now." Avery couldn't contain her excitement.

"Do you think Elliot can let you go out with me?" Mike poured cold water on her, "I'll go take a look alone later."

"I'll send bodyguards with you. I'm afraid of danger." Avery said worriedly, "Henry and his son have long been stunned. I'm afraid they will do something extreme."

Chapter 1132

Originally, Mike didn't think how dangerous this matter was. Hearing her say this, he was instantly frightened.

"But you don't have to worry. Henry is getting old, and Cole's small body is definitely not your opponent. If you really fight, you shouldn't suffer too much loss." Avery comforted.

“Thank you for looking down on me so much. But I think Cole and I are about half a pound!” Mike sighed.

“Don’t be afraid, my bodyguard will protect you.” Avery glanced at him and comforted him. “you can leave now!”

Mike: “Didn’t you tell Layla about my move?”

“Why didn’t you say anything at the dinner table?” Avery raised her eyebrows, “I’ll tell her later. Don’t you want to come tomorrow night?”

After speaking, Avery went to the bodyguard. After sending them away, she went to the community to find Elliot and the children.

“Mom! The gardenias here are blooming! So fragrant!” Seeing Avery, Layla immediately picked a gardenia and handed it to her.

Avery took the flowers and smelled them: “Well, it’s really fragrant! But the flowers in the community cannot be picked! If you like gardenias, we can plant gardenias in the yard.”

Layla pursed her lips and said, “I picked it. Dad said you can pick it.”

Avery raised her eyes to look at Elliot: “Can you teach me something better?”

“Just a few flowers, if the child likes to pick them, or not. I’m... compensated.” Elliot said later, with a serious lack of confidence.

Because Avery’s eyes became more and more severe.

“Layla, we won’t pick the flowers in the community in the future. Tell Dad what flowers you like, and Dad will let them buy them for you.” Elliot changed his words immediately.

Layla took her mother's hand and smiled, "Mom, Dad is so afraid of you!"

"Because he made a mistake. If he didn't make a mistake, he wouldn't be afraid of me!" Avery glared at Elliot.

"Avery, I don't think we need to put this innocuous little thing on the line."

"You don't do this to your own sister. What did you say in the morning, did you forget it so quickly?" Avery reminded him, "As a parent, in addition to caring for children, we also need to teach them correct values."

"Okay." Elliot was educated obediently.

"Elliot, do you feel that we are like this now, especially like a retired life? Every day I eat breakfast and go for a walk, then go back for lunch, take a nap after lunch, eat dinner when I wake up, and come out after dinner. Take a walk... a day has passed."

Avery looked at the darkened sky and said with emotion.

"It's quite different from retirement. When we retire, we won't have children by our side." Elliot looked at Robert with a peaceful face in the cart, and began to imagine the scene when the child grew up.

"When the time comes, we can have a dog." Avery planned.

"I don't like things that shed hair." Elliot was a little disgusted.

"At that time, it's good if the dog like you, but you still dislike the dog." Avery whispered.

Elliot felt a little sad. He suspected that Avery might start to dislike him.

Elliot suggested, "Avery, let's move to my house! as there is no gym in your house. There is no room big enough to be used as a gym."

Avery knew that he had a habit of exercising, so she thought about the feasibility of this problem.

Avery asked the question, "But Hayden won't come to live at your house."

"Isn't Hayden going abroad? When he comes back, we will move back, or change to a bigger house." Elliot said this and looked at his daughter, "Layla, do you want to move to Dad's house? Dad's house has a big house. How about planting your favorite flowers in your yard?"

Avery teased: "Elliot, you are a scheming old man, you know how to convince your daughter to convince me."

"If I don't know you well, how can I be your husband?" Elliot looked at his daughter again, "Dad's house can set up a piano room for you, a dance room..."

Chapter 1133

Layla was crazy.

Elliot continued, "Besides the master bedroom, you could control all the other rooms in Dad's house. Okay?"

Layla nodded frantically.

“When you chased me, you didn’t follow me like this.” Avery satirized him.

“My whole being is yours, not to mention a mere house?” Avery blushed immediately after she said these disgusting words in a serious manner.

And Layla was pushed by the two of them and Robert ran away.

.....

At the same time, Ben Schaffer was slightly drunk after being toasted a few glasses of wine.

“Mr. Schaffer, it’s so boring for us big men to drink! I’ll call a few sensible women here... There are new products tonight.” A fat middle-aged man flattered Ben. North opening.

Ben Schaffer suddenly woke up a little: “No! I should go home after drinking this cup!”

“Mr. Schaffer, don’t rush to leave, someone will bring it soon, You can take a look. I’ve seen the photos. Well, this time the little sister is very pretty!”

Ben Schaffer: “I don’t like too young!”

“Then I’ll find you a more mature one.”

“No! What kind of woman I want, find it myself.” Ben Schaffer has been very sad these days. Gwen lived in his house, he was very uncomfortable. He wanted her to go, but he couldn’t bear it.

Nathan will be sentenced to death soon. Although Gwen is twenty years old, losing her biological father will definitely make her very painful.

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

Ben Schaffer picked up the glass, intending to finish the glass and leave.

At this time, the private room door was pushed open. A well-dressed middle-aged woman led three slender young women in.

The fat-headed man immediately waved to one of the women: "Gwen, come here! This is Mr. Schaffer, come and accompany Mr. Schaffer for a few drinks!"

Gwen and Ben Schaffer looked at each other, and the air quickly wiped out the crackling fire!

Ben Schaffer's eyes were sharp, looking at Gwen, who was wearing heavy makeup, not only sober, but also on fire.

Gwen said she wanted to be a model, this is her model path?

When Gwen saw Ben Schaffer, a flash of disbelief quickly flashed in her eyes. Fortunately, she thought that Ben Schaffer was a gentle man and a more amiable elder brother than Elliot. Haha, I didn't expect his true face to be like this.

Gwen strode to the vacant seat beside Ben Schaffer and sat down.

The fat-headed man immediately poured her a glass of wine and asked her to respect Ben Schaffer.

The moment Gwen took the wine glass, Ben Schaffer grabbed the wine glass from her hand.

"Mr. Schaffer, what's the matter?" The fat-headed man asked in confusion, "Gwen is a newcomer to our company. Not only is she good-looking, but she is also very beautiful."

With a 'bang', Ben Schaffer put the wine glass on the table. He left, then grabbed Gwen's hand and strode out of the private room.

After coming out of the hotel, Ben Schaffer stuffed her into the car and scolded her sternly: “Gwen, this is what you said about going to work? Don’t you feel disgusted?! I’m going to call your second brother. Don’t think about it from him in the future. Get a cent!”

Gwen was so frightened that his face turned dark blue, “I’m disgusting, aren’t you disgusting? You are the cleanest looking for women outside every day!”

Ben lifted his hand and scolded: “What a mess! I’m not like you!”

After he finished speaking, he dialed Elliot’s number.

Chapter 1134

Although Gwen has never met Elliot, she is very afraid of him. She desperately rushed towards Ben Schaffer, aimed at his neck, and bit hard!

“Ah—” Ben Schaffer exclaimed in pain.

On the other side of the phone, Elliot listened to his strange cry, and his heart tightened abruptly: “Ben ! What happened?!”

Ben Schaffer gasped in pain and hurriedly brought the phone to his ear.

Gwen stared at him angrily, with her eyes shining like a wild cat. put a lot of pressure on him.

If Ben really complained to Elliot, he believed that Gwen would bite his neck again!

Ben Schaffer lied, "It's okay... I almost hit a wild cat just now! Fortunately, I was a false alarm."

"Why are you calling me?" Elliot had an intuition, and it must have something to do with Gwen.

Since Gwen lived in Ben Schaffer's house, every time Ben Schaffer looked for him, he would talk about Gwen.

Ben Schaffer continued to lie, "I accidentally pressed the shortcut key to call you. Have you eaten? Where are you now? Are you with Avery? Are you having fun after returning to Aryadelle?"

Elliot heard that Ben was speechless and was looking for a call, so he hung up the call.

Avery came out of the bathroom, saw him frowning, and asked, "What's wrong with Ben Schaffer? Could it be your sister's accident?"

"No. He said he made a mistake."

"Oh, I'll put on a mask. "Avery put a mask on his face, then lay on the bed and played with his mobile phone.

Mike sent her a message: F*CK! Adrian's mobile phone is in the house that Henry rented! Cloud Adrian is not in it! They transferred the cloud ink! Now I can't do it.

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

Looking at the message from Mike, Avery heart sank little by little. She thought that it would be better for Adrian to return to Henry than to stay with Nathan.

But now it seems that she is very wrong. Henry is not better than Nathan.

Henry still deprived Adrian of his freedom and locked up Adrian like a beast.

Avery eyes were sore, if she had expected Adrian's fate to be like this, she would never have handed Adrian to anyone!

Schaffer family.

After Ben brought Gwen home, he locked the door.

"Gwen, I don't need to say more about this job, you can't do it anymore!" Ben Schaffer has calmed down a lot.

Gwen is young and ignorant, and needs someone to guide her.

"My boss only asks me to drink with others, and doesn't ask me to do anything else." Gwen hadn't realized the sinister society, "If you accompany others to drink, you can get paid $2,000. why don't I make this money? "

"Your boss gave you $2,000?"

"Yes!" Gwen showed him the payment records, "He told me that he would only drink with the guests..."

"You believe what he says." Ah! If the person you meet tonight is not me, but another man, do you know how dangerous you are now?" Ben Schaffer reprimanded, "You are not allowed to go to work in that company tomorrow. If you insist on Go, then you will move away from my house!"

Gwen frowned at him: "What about you? You come back so late every day, do you play with different women outside every day? Sc*mbag ! Why do you care of me?"

Gwen said emotionally, and went back to her room to close the door with a 'bang'.

Ben Schaffer stood in the living room with his hands on his h-i-p-s. His anger was particularly uneasy.

Chapter 1135

Ben Schaffer wanted to get angry, but didn't know how. What the hell did he do!

He shouldn't let Gwen live in.

Star River Villa.

After Elliot fell asleep, Avery turned on her phone, sent a message to Wesley and asked Shea's physical condition.

Wesley: [Shea may not last long. She has persisted for a long time. This year, I have traveled to many countries, looking for a suitable kidney source but I have not been able to find a suitable one.]

Avery looked at the message sent by Wesley, and her eyes became wet.

The two of them persisted in silence for so long in private, but there was no result. If they continued to search like this, would God really take care of them?

She has a strong hunch that Adrian's kidneys will most likely be able to fit Shea's body. Because they are twins and have the same blood type, this is Shea's last hope!

Henry just wanted money, and she was willing to exchange money for Shea's life!

Thinking of this, she decided to ask Henry to meet again tomorrow.

The next morning, after she put Layla in the car, she returned to the living room and said to Mrs. Cooper, "I want to go out, and Elliot will wake up later. If he ask you, you can say that I went out to buy daily necessities. "

Oh, okay." After Mrs. Cooper came down, she asked, "Are you really going to buy daily necessities?"

"Well, my period is coming soon. Prepare some in advance."

After talking to Mrs. Cooper, she went out. Because she carried a bag, Mrs. Cooper had no doubts.

Avery saw Henry and Cole again at the breakfast shop last time.

The father and son looked at her haggard and thought she had compromised and were very proud.

"Avery, you can figure it out. Elliot gave us one-third of the shares, and he still has two-thirds. He still takes the big money. He has already made so much money, how can he share the shares for us now? He still uses our Foster family's surname!" Cole said arrogantly.

Avery's face was cold, and his voice was even colder: "I did compromise, but I really can't help you find Elliot to ask for his company's shares. You know what kind of person Elliot is, even if I ask him, he may not be agree."

"Since you can't do it, why did you call us out?" Henry looked alert, "I tell you, don't play tricks, if you dare to play, you will wait for Adrian to starve to death."

"You are so vicious!" Avery frowned and looked at Henry, "Adrian is your own younger brother. Yet you treat him like this. Your mother knows it, so I don't know how chilling you should be."

"My mother is dead. It's useless for you to tell me this. I just want money."

“I know you want money. I’ll give you my company, is that enough?” Avery said word by word, “Although my company doesn’t make money from Sterling Group but the annual revenue is also very considerable. It is enough for your father and son to live and wear for a lifetime. If you think it is possible, then we will trade.”

“Your company?” The father and son were stunned.

“Are you looking down on my company?” This is already the biggest concession Avery can make.

The Tate Industries is her father’s hard work, but now, she has to give it up. She really had no other way.

She couldn’t force Elliot to hand over the shares in her hand. She would rather sacrifice her property than force him.

“You may not be able to get my company.” Avery handed them a list, “You take Adrian to do these tests first, and I want to determine whether his kidney can be transplanted to Shea.”

Henry took the list, glanced at it and said, “I don’t know how much your company is worth. I’ll study it when I go back.”

“Bring Adrian to check first!” Avery gritted her teeth.

“Okay, we’ll take him for a checkup as soon as possible. I’ll let you know when the test results come out.” Cole saw her blushing eyes, so he agreed.

Chapter 1136

Avery came out of the breakfast shop after eating breakfast.

She met Elliot head-on. He was wearing the light gray home clothes she bought for him with a black mask on his face, revealing only those sharp eagle-like eyes. He came out alone, so he must have come to find Avery.

In an instant, Avery was full of thoughts, moved, and... scared.

Henry and Cole stood behind Avery. Following her gaze, the father and son saw Elliot.

Although Elliot was not wearing a formal suit and wearing a mask and the father and son recognized him at a glance.

Cole was very responsive, he pulled his father and ran towards the car.

Avery strode towards Elliot. But Elliot's eyes fell on Henry and Cole.

How could they be here?

Why did Avery meet the two of them?

What did they talk about?

He could hardly control his reason, and before Avery came over, he strode towards Henry.

"Elliot!" Avery immediately stopped him, "Don't be impulsive! Listen to me!"

At the same time as Avery grabbed his arm, Henry and Cole quickly got into the car.

Cole burned his butt, stepped on the accelerator, and the car roared away!

Elliot watched them leave, and immediately looked at Avery. His Adam's apple rolled: "Tell me."

"They came here for Adrian's business." Avery looked into his deep but cold eyes, "Adrian has a terrible headache and they took Adrian to the hospital, but it was of no use. So they came to me. "

After listening to her explanation, he frowned slightly.

Elliot: "How did you answer them?"

Avery said, "I introduced them to a doctor. Let them go to that doctor first. If it still doesn't work, I'll go check it out for him."

"You shouldn't Lie to me." Elliot accepted her explanation, but he was still angry, "You said to buy sanitary pads, but there are still some at home. You can lie to Mrs. Cooper with such a crude lie. So how can you use it to lie to me?"

Avery was angry when she saw him, immediately grasped his big hand, and explained with a smile: "I know there are still at home but there is only one more package. More than one package is not enough! You think you have solved a major case but I really want to go buy sanitary napkins. Come and accompany me. "

Avery dragged him to the nearby supermarket.

"Have you eaten breakfast?"

"I didn't. I thought you were lying and couldn't eat it."

"Haha, why are you so angry? Even if I lied to you, you still have to eat." Avery's face With a smile but her heart is particularly uncomfortable.

If she told that she concealed Shea's condition, Elliot would definitely be even more angry.

Elliot glanced at her, "It's fine if you don't lie to me. Avery, I don't have any secrets with you anymore, and I don't want you to hide anything from me.

"Absolutely because you don't know is better than knowing." Avery said with a clear conscience.

Chapter 1137

"What does it mean that I don't know is better than knowing? As long as it is something you know and I want to know that" Elliot shook Avery's hand and increased his strength unconsciously.

"I told you just now. I didn't mean to hide it from you. When I went out, you hadn't woken up yet!" Avery smiled, "I can't wake you up, can I?"

"Well."

.....

On the way.

Henry checked the financial report disclosed by the Tate Industries last year. After reading the financial report, Henry said with disgust: "Although Avery's company is profitable and It is far worse than Sterling Group."

“Dad, we can’t get the entire Sterling Group! I think Tate Industries is also very good. Isn’t it said that this company is No. 1 in the field of drones? Let’s think about it.” Cole felt happy when he thought of the fact he could easily get.

Henry snorted coldly: “Are you sure you can manage a technology company like this? This kind of technology relies entirely on core technology to win. If the follow-up research and development can’t keep up, it may be overtaken by rival companies. Cole, you are What is it, you don’t know what it is? Even if the Tate Industries is developing well now. When it falls into your hands, it will definitely decline at the speed of light.”

Cole didn’t expect his father to attack him so mercilessly.

“Dad, I can’t beat Elliot, can’t I beat Avery? Could it be that the core technology of the Tate Industries was developed by Avery? Don’t you make fun of it? Avery takes care of the children at home every day and doesn’t care at all. The company.”

“Do you think that Avery will not leave after Avery gives you the company? When her team leaves, she can open another Tate Industries! And her new company will definitely be able to In a short period of time, surpass you!” The more Henry thought about it, the more uneasy he became.

“Then I can sell it immediately after taking over the Tate Industries! With the current value of the Tate Industries, we can get a lot of money!” Cole didn’t want to give up the fact of the Tate Industries, “Elliot How could it be possible to distribute the shares to us? It’s better to take Avery’s company.”

“It’s no wonder you can’t do great things with your brains! If we get Elliot’s shares and then resell them, wouldn’t we get more money than we would get from the Tate Industries?”

Henry’s words made Cole’s blood boil.

“Dad, you’re right. It’s not safe for us to hold the shares of Sterling Group. It’s better to transfer them immediately after we get them. I don’t know how many people are greedy for the shares of Sterling Group.”

“Let Adrian do it first . Check it out! In case Adrian’s kidney can’t be transplanted to Shea, we are excited for nothing now!”

Starry River Villa.

Because it was agreed yesterday that we will move to Elliot’s house next, so after breakfast, Mrs. Cooper started to pack up.

Avery doesn’t really want to move and is used to living here. But now that she is married to Elliot, she can’t just consider her own feelings.

“I knew I would have bought a bigger villa back then.” Avery said regretfully as she packed her luggage.

“You like this neighborhood so much?” Elliot asked.

There are too many people in this community, and he can’t bear to go out for a walk every evening and be surrounded by a group of old aunties.

“It’s not that you like this community, but you’re used to it.”

“Didn’t you live in my house for a long time? Are you not used to living in my house?” Elliot asked back, “If you are not used to living in my house, then we will continue to live there. Here it is. I can find a way to turn your attic into a small fitness room. “

Avery blinked her apricot eyes.

“My attic, are you serious? My attic is not as big as your toilet. How many fitness equipment can I put in it?”

“How about freeing up Mike’s room? I think his room is quite big.” Elliot suggested her again.

“No!” Avery refused without hesitation, “Let’s move to your big mansion. The big deal is to let Mike come to live in your house too.”

“You can call Eric to live at my house, anyway, my house is big enough.” Elliot sarcastically.

Avery couldn’t help laughing: “You’re addicted to being jealous, right?”

Elliot said quietly, “Aren’t you mad at me on purpose? If I find a few women to live with, you can’t just eat dry vinegar like me. I guess you can Peeled my skin.”

Chapter 1138

After listening to his words, the discomfort in her heart caused by the move was instantly resolved.

“You’re right, if you have close relationships with other women, I will definitely not make it easier for you.” She gave him a slap in the face, “Twenty-four filial piety is the only way out for you.”

Elliot: “When will you see me? Women other than you have close contact with each other? I think...Tammy? Or, does our daughter count?”

“I think you are free! Come and pack with me.” She led Follow him to the bedroom.

“Wait, I’ll bring Robert here. Otherwise, he will be stay in the living room alone. Don’t look at the child, so don’t care about his feelings. It is because he is small, so we have to take care of him even more.”

Avery teased him, “Then you go to work later. Let’s take him too. Why don’t you just quit your job and take care of your children at home. I’ll give you pocket money for your living expenses every month.”

Elliot took Robert from the living room and followed her words: "Aren't you afraid that I will spoil the child? If you let me take care of the child at home, it's not impossible, as long as you don't care how I take it."

Avery: "..."

Avery believed that he would take care of the child at home full-time, and he would definitely bring the child into a daddy and treasure boy!

.....

Schaffer family.

At 8:30 in the morning, Gwen quietly came out of the room and planned to go to work secretly.

Regarding Ben Schaffer's threat, she thought about it all night and came to the conclusion that she could refuse the escort arranged by the boss in the future. If the boss forces her, she will resign.

Before Gwen reached the living room, she was attracted by a figure sitting on the sofa in the living room. Her steps stopped suddenly!

The woman sitting on the sofa caught a glimpse of Gwen's figure out of the corner of her eye, and immediately looked over.

"Huh?" Juniper Schaffer immediately got up from the sofa and walked towards Gwen, "Who are you? Why are you at my son's house?"

Gwen snapped her toes in embarrassment: "A... Auntie, Hello."

“Hello, who are you? Did Ben Schaffer bring you?” Juniper looked amiable, “Don’t be nervous, I don’t care about his private life.”

A few years ago, Juniper was urging marriage every year, and Ben Schaffer was annoyed and directly threatened to cut off the relationship.

“Well...I’m staying here for a while. When I have the money to buy a house, I’ll move out.” Gwen said crampedly.

“Oh, since Ben Schaffer asked you to live here, then you can live here! How tired is it for a girl to buy a house.” Juniper pulled Gwen to sit down on the sofa, and looked at her carefully for a few seconds, the more she looked, the more Satisfied, “You are so beautiful, much prettier than that Chelsea! How old are you this year? Where are you from? Are you going to school or work now?”

Gwen blushed: “Auntie, Ben Schaffer and I are not the kind of relationship you think. I’m only twenty years old, so Ben Schaffer is forty, right? He’s too old, I won’t find such an old boyfriend.”

Juniper: “...”

Juniper was very Uncomfortable, sad, heartbroken. Although her son is old but capable.

The dignified chief financial officer of Sterling Group would be disliked by a girl. It seems that this girl must have a good family background.

Wait... This girl just said she wanted to buy a house. If her family background was good, she would definitely not say such a thing.

Just when the atmosphere was deadlocked, Ben Schaffer came out of the room. Seeing his mother and Gwen sitting together, he couldn’t help having a heart attack.

“Ben Schaffer, which daughter is this girl?” Juniper walked up to her son and whispered, “She hates you for being old and also hates you.”

Ben Schaffer sneered: "She is Elliot's younger sister! If it wasn't for this relationship, I wouldn't have taken her in!"

Juniper immediately glowed red after hearing the explanation. She pulled Ben Schaffer and walked quickly into the room.

Chapter 1139

After entering the room, Juniper held her son's hand in both hands and said earnestly: "Ben! This is a golden opportunity! Elliot's sister, how close this relationship is! If you marry her, this is not the case. Have you kissed her?"

Ben Schaffer was struck by lightning: "Mom! Are you crazy?! Me and her...I...I despise her!"

"You despise other people's children. What is the girl doing? She is only twenty years old, what a great age!"

"She graduated from high school, but didn't go to university. She is a scmbag!" Graduated from a prestigious school in Ben Schaffer, how can she bear that her wife is a scmbag?

Gwen was wiped out in the first round!

"What's wrong with not going to college? Didn't you say she's Elliot's younger sister? What kind of younger sister or Cousin?" Juniper probably also felt that Gwen's education was too low, and was a little worried.

"Half-sister!" Ben Schaffer said.

“Oh hey! Isn’t that the biological sister?” Juniper exclaimed, “What’s wrong with Elliot’s biological sister who didn’t go to college? Even if she is illiterate, I think it would be good for her to be your wife!

” Mom, don’t think I don’t know what you’re thinking. Elliot doesn’t recognize this sister.”

“If you don’t recognize it now, it doesn’t mean you won’t recognize it in the future. Besides, it’s not just her relationship with Elliot that I care about.” Juniper told the truth, “how beautiful she is and has a good figure. What’s more important is that she is young, and the two of you are together, she will definitely give you a beautiful child.”

Ben Schaffer spit old blood In the heart.

“It’s impossible for me and her! You have a heart to die. When she finds the house, I’ll let her get out.” Ben Schaffer said coldly, pushed open the door and walked out.

In the living room, Gwen was no longer there.

Gwen just eavesdropped on their speech outside the door. She heard Ben Schaffer say that she disliked her because she was a sc*mbag. She was a little angry, but felt that Ben Schaffer was right.

From elementary school to high school, Gwen not only had poor studies, but also had a bad relationship with her classmates. Her father and brother never cared about her, and she never told them about her own affairs. Because from childhood to adulthood, no matter what she said to them, they would scold her in the end.

In such a family, it is a kind of sadness in itself. And looking good will only accelerate the tragedy.

She will never forget the night when the college entrance examination was over, she was almost raped by some gangsters in the class, and she swore at that time that she would never go to school again.

It's better to stay at home with that fool Adrian. At least not to be bullied.

Had her father not been sentenced to death, she would have continued to live in self-isolation at home.

Foster family.

After the luggage was moved in, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Scarlet began to pack up. After Avery helped clean up for a while, Elliot pulled her back to the bedroom to rest.

Robert fell asleep after eating the milk, so they could rest for a while.

"Just let the servants do those little things." Elliot carried her to the bed and put her down. "You are my wife now, and I don't want to see you too tired."

"I'm not tired. It's you, these days of vacation, instead, you lost weight." Avery held his face and teased, "It seems that you still have to go to work."

"I think so too. If you don't go to work, you have no appetite for food."

"You are working hard." Avery lie down on the bed and soon fell asleep. She had a nightmare. She dreamed that Adrian's kidney could not be transplanted to Shea.

. When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1140

Chapter 1140

When Avery woke up from the great sadness, the sunset outside the window had already set, and the sunset glowed red half of the sky. She picked up her phone and checked the time.

It's half past five in the afternoon.

Elliot was no longer in the room.

She took a deep breath and sent a message to Cole: [Did you take Adrian to check?]

After sending the message, the door was pushed open.

Layla's little face appeared before her.

"Mom, are you awake? Why did you sleep so long?" Layla saw her mother awake and immediately entered the room, "I'm here to call you for dinner."

Avery put down the phone, lifted the quilt, and sat up.

"Layla, are you still used to moving to Daddy's house? We still have a lot of luggage in our house. If you're not used to it, we can go back to our house anytime." Avery got out of bed and put on her shoes.

Layla sighed, "It must be a little strange. Dad's house is so big like a maze. But Dad's house is also very good, and the big house can hold more things. It's even better if my brother likes it here. "

Avery walked towards the bathroom, "I'm afraid it's hard for your brother to accept this place. When your brother comes back, we'll move back in."

"Oh." Layla followed to the bathroom, "Mom, our school is tomorrow. The school conducts a parent-teacher conference. Are you going or my father?"

Avery was stunned for a moment: "Do you want your mother to go or your father to go?"

“Of course I want you to go. How beautiful you are.” The corner of Layla’s mouth raised a smile, and then she frowned tangled, “But Dad also wants to go. I don’t want him to go.”

“You want Mom to go because Mom is prettier than Dad? Layla, We can’t judge people by their appearance!” After Avery washed her face, she became more sober, “If your father knew that you disliked him, he would definitely be sad.”

I hadn’t found Elliot’s glass heart before. The longer I get along with him, the more I realize that he is a fragile and sensitive man.

Maybe because he’s getting older?

“I don’t dislike my father’s bad looks. I just think he’s a little serious, and he might scare our teachers.” Layla begged, “So Mom, you should go to my parent-teacher conference!”

“Well! Mom will wait. Go tell your father.”

The mother and daughter came out of the master bedroom and went downstairs.

Elliot hugged Robert and greeted them downstairs with a fatherly smile.

Avery knew what she was thinking by just looking at him.

“Avery, Layla’s parent meeting tomorrow, let’s go together!” Elliot opened his eyes and said to her.

Avery looked at Layla: “How about I go with your dad?”

“But the teacher said that only one parent is required to participate.” Layla wondered.

“I’ll just tell your teacher.” Elliot really wanted to go to his daughter’s parent-teacher meeting, but he could see from her daughter’s face that her daughter wanted Avery to attend.

So Elliot can solve this problem by going with Avery.

“Otherwise, let your father go! Mom has attended your parent-teacher conference several times. But your father has not participated in his child’s parent-teacher conference since he was born.” Avery comforted her daughter, “We are pitiful. Have pity on him.”

Layla laughed with a ‘poof’: “Okay, then let’s pity him!”

The smile on Elliot’s face froze, and he felt an arrow in his knee.

One of the things that he was very happy about was so miserable that Avery said it.

At dinner time, Avery ate two bites, and Cole’s message came back.

She picked up her phone and saw the checklist sent by Cole. She forwarded the checklist to Wesley and asked Wesley to see if the check result matched Shea.

“Eat when you eat, don’t play with your phone.” Elliot said, “Who do you message?”
