Chapter 1141

Avery teased: "I told Layla that you will go to the parent-teacher meeting tomorrow. Because when filling out the enrollment information, the father column was blank. I'm afraid that the teacher doesn't know who Layla's father is."

Elliot was severely punished Heartbroken.

"The news of the two of us getting married a few days ago was on the hot search. Do you think your daughter's teacher would not know about it?"

"We got married, so how does the teacher know who Layla's father is? Our marriage doesn't mean me Your children are yours!" Avery continued to pierce his heart.

"Okay, you continue to send messages and explain it to the teacher." Elliot said sadly.

Elliot knew that the teacher had long known about his relationship with Layla, because he had greeted the principal since the beginning of school.

It's just Avery's behavior that makes him a little sad. Does she still want to have children with other men?

After dinner, Elliot offered to go shopping.

"Is the sun coming out of the west?" Avery looked at him, puzzled, "I know you don't like to go shopping."

"I like to go shopping with you." Elliot corrected her, "You buy things neatly and not picky. It's the same as me."

“You just say that I’m going to buy things soon? This is also a manifestation of not like shopping. People who like shopping will choose repeatedly.”

“I want to go shopping for clothes. “I want to be respectful when I go to my daughter’s parent-teacher meeting tomorrow.”

Avery: “???”

“Mom! Let’s go shopping! I’m going too!” Layla said excitedly.

After Avery responded to her daughter, she questioned Elliot in a low voice, “Aren’t those clothes in your closet quite new? Why do you have to buy new clothes?”

“Formal clothes look older.” Elliot explained.

“Oh, I see. You want to look younger.”

“Avery, can you save me some face?” Elliot was helpless.

“It’s okay to pretend to be in front of outsiders. Can you be more real in front of me?” Avery said, asking, “Do you want to take Robert there?”

After thinking about it for a while, Elliot said, “Then go shopping with Robert.”

Avery immediately dismissed the idea: “I won’t bring Robert this time. I’ll buy you clothes first. I’ll take him next time I go shopping. “

After she made the decision, the family of three went out for a walk. Arriving at Commercial Street, they headed straight to the men’s clothing store.

After Elliot tried suit after suit, Layla finally chose her favorite style.

“I saw my classmate’s dad wear it like that!” Layla explained the reason.

Avery couldn’t help laughing: “Layla, your dad doesn’t like to wear the same clothes as others.”

Layla said with an ‘oh’, “But my dad looks better in this suit than my classmate’s dad.”

Elliot was overjoyed, take out the card immediately and went to checkout.

After buying clothes, the family of three went to a nearby shopping mall.

After they bought Layla some toys and hair accessories she liked, it was eight o’clock in the evening.

Because Layla has homework to do, she has to go home first.

After arriving home, Avery saw that Wesley had returned the message. She immediately said to Elliot, “Go teach your daughter to do her homework, and I’ll play with Robert for a while.” After the father and daughter went to the study, she immediately turned on her phone.

Wesley’s reply came into view: From the test results, Adrian’s kidney should be able to be transplanted to Shea.

Chapter 1142

Avery read the reply several times, and after confirming that she read it correctly, she breathed a sigh of relief!

Shea is saved. Avery immediately sent a message to Cole: Adrian's kidney can be transplanted to Shea. We will meet again tomorrow to discuss the transfer of the company in detail.

Cole replied quickly: [Avery, after I discussed it with my dad, we still insisted on our original request.]

Avery was stunned when she saw the news.

Stick to the original request?

Their original request was for Elliot's shares.

Avery's body suddenly became cold, and she couldn't stop shaking.

They didn't even want her company, they insisted on Elliot's shares. That's abominable!

Avery took the phone and walked outside. Seeing that she was going out, Mrs. Cooper immediately asked, "Avery, where are you going?"

"I'm going outside to talk on the phone." Avery cleared the emotions on her face and explained, "Mike has something to do with me."

"Oh! We moved, and we didn't tell him. We really had to explain it to him." Mrs. Cooper said.

Avery took the mobile phone and strode out. The street lights were on in the yard, but she felt dark.

Obviously everything has turned around, but the road is blocked again.

Avery hated Henry and Cole. Walking to the corner of the yard, she dialed Cole's number.

Cole answered the phone in seconds: "Avery, what I meant with my dad is what I said in my message."

"Are you guys looking down on my company?" She asked coldly, "Give me the reason."

"It's not that I look down on your company. At least I don't have this idea. It's my dad who thinks your company's financial report last year was not very good... The revenue seems to be quite average. Although your company's reputation is very good but this revenue is really a bit low, right?"

"That's because most of the revenue is invested in R&D!" Avery was angry at their ignorance, "The most important thing for technology companies is R&D. This year, the investment is even greater, But the revenue will also be very impressive. This year, it will be at least ten times the basis of last year."

Avery had a headache and wanted to end this painful torture as soon as possible. She didn't expect that she was willing to give in to this step, and their father and son actually disliked that the chips she gave were not enough.

"Well, I believe in you, and I also believe that your company is a very promising company. But Avery, you also know that my ability is limited and I don't have a reliable team like you. After you give me the company, your core team will definitely follow you. How will I operate then?"

Avery said, "Mike will follow me. As long as you appease the others and give enough money, they will definitely not leave. You only need If you spend more money, you are afraid that you will not be able to hire talents? The most important thing in this society is talents. You have to believe in yourself!"

"Hehe, Avery, thank you for giving me confidence. I was beaten by my father and lost my fighting spirit. If only you were so good to me before..."

"Cole, is it necessary to mention the past? You go to discuss it with your father and show your courage. Your father is not If you want Elliot's shares, you're just arguing with Elliot. You can maximize your benefits by listening to me. Don't end up stealing chickens without losing money." Avery warned sharply.

After being silent for a few seconds, Cole let go: "Okay, I'll go talk to my dad again. I'll give you a reply tomorrow."

Avery reminded, "Cole, I hope you'll wake up a bit this time. Don't make the same mistake again. You guys can't fight Elliot. "

Cole: "I know you really reminded me, but your words still make me support but uncomfortable."

"Then what do you want me to say? Why do you keep facing Elliot? If he knew about this, I don't know how impulsive he would act. I can't guarantee that your father and you will be in danger. So we can resolve this matter privately, without disturbing him."

Chapter 1143

"Got it!" Cole hung up the phone.

Avery held the phone and breathed heavily.

She hoped the father and son could figure it out. Otherwise, once Elliot was involved in this matter, she would really be unable to control the trend of the matter. She was afraid that the situation would get out of control, that her peaceful life would be disrupted.

After finally getting through the torture of the wedding day, they were stable for less than half a month. Is God really going to be so cruel to them?

After some time, Elliot came out to look for her. Seeing her crouching in a corner of the yard, Elliot frowned, "Avery, why are you squatting? Mrs. Cooper said you came out to call Mike, why did you call for so long?" Elliot helped her up, "Have you quarreled with Mike?"

Avery immediately hugged him tightly and said in a hoarse voice : "Elliot, I'm not in a good mood."

"Because of the move?" Elliot held her face up and looked at her, "What did Mike say?"

"He just moved out, but after he moved out, we also moved away." Avery mind was a little confused, "I feel a little lost when I think that Hayden is not around."

"Isn't that saying that he is fine abroad?" Elliot embraced her waist and patiently comforted, "If you want a child With better development, it is necessary for them to see the wider world. They are not destined to stay with us forever. You have to adjust our mentality in time."

"As for Mike, you don't need to care about him at all. He has his life, it has nothing to do with us. Our life has nothing to do with him." Elliot added.

"Hmm. Has Layla finished her homework?" Avery adjusted her mood.

"It's done. Mrs. Cooper took her to take a bath."

"Well. Let's take a bath too! You have to go to school for a parent-teacher meeting tomorrow morning."

"Avery, You wash first." Elliot held her little hand, "You are a little cold."

"Okay."

Elliot sent her to the master bedroom, and immediately came out of the room after seeing her entering the bathroom. He dialed Mike, intending to teach Mike a good lesson.

The phone was dialed and it took a while to be answered. Elliot said, "I decided to move. What's your dissatisfaction with me! What's your anger at Avery?" Elliot lowered his voice, but couldn't hide his anger, "Aren't you too comfortable to be beaten?"

Thinking of Avery squatting in the yard, his fists clenched instantly.

Mike was at a loss: "F*ck! What the h-e-l-l are you talking about? Why can't I understand? When did I lose my temper with Avery? You'd better explain it to me, or I'll kill you now."

Elliot listened With his sharp roar and frowned: "Avery called you just now. Didn't you complain to her? After Avery finished talking to you, she squatted in the yard alone."

"Huh?" Mike shouted loudly, and at the same time his brain was running at a high speed, "She called me? Oh! There is such a thing..."

Mike is Avery's person, so of course he has to lie for Avery!

Elliot had a gloomy face and hung up the phone.

Mike's reaction was too clumsy, he heard the flaw.

Elliot pushed open the door, entered the room, walked to the bed, and picked up Avery's cell phone. He wanted to see who she was on the phone with just now.

Chapter 1144

Elliot opened Avery call record, and Cole's name came into view. Without any thought, he dialed Cole's phone.

Cole answered the phone quickly: "Avery, didn't I tell you to answer tomorrow?"

Answer?

Elliot's heartstrings tightened: "What answer?"

On the other side of the phone, Cole froze.

What is Elliot's voice? He clearly saw that it was Avery's call, how could Avery make Elliot's voice?

Cole glanced at the screen of his mobile phone, and after confirming that it was Avery's call, he took a deep breath.

Cole felt guilty, "Why did you call me with Avery's cell phone? Don't you have a cell phone? You have something to do with me? We don't seem to have anything to say between us!"

Elliot gritted his teeth and said word by word "What answer do you want to give Avery tomorrow? Say it."

"Go and ask Avery. I..."

"Since you are not afraid of death, I will send someone to find you now." Elliot pinched now Killing Cole is like pinching an ant to death.

Elliot used to worry about their uncle and nephew relationship, but now it doesn't matter, he can do anything.

Cole's face was ashen with fright: "Don't be impulsive. I said."

Elliot suppressed his anger and waited for him to explain.

“That’s it.” Cole didn’t dare to tell him the truth rashly, so he started to make up the story, “Adrian has been feeling unwell recently, because Avery was his attending doctor before, so we talked to Avery. His situation. Then Avery wanted us to give Adrian to her, and she took Adrian for treatment, but my dad was not so relieved...”

“Your dad is worried about me.” Elliot sarcastically .

Cole teased. “I don’t know what he thought. That’s what happened. You look at Avery’s cell phone secretly, won’t she be angry when she finds out?”

After Elliot finished speaking, he hung up the phone. Avery came out of the bathroom after taking a shower, saw Elliot’s cold face, and walked in front of him puzzled.

Elliot said bluntly, “I checked your phone just now. You didn’t call Mike.”

She was startled. Her heart was very flustered, but she tried to maintain the surface calm: “Have you seen my call log?”

“Yes, I did.” Elliot said confidently, “Can’t I read it?”

“Yes!” Her eyes flickered, She picked up the phone on the bed and glanced at the call log. Just now, Elliot and Cole spoke on the phone for two minutes. She was very curious about what Elliot and Cole talked in these two minutes.

Avery asked, “What are you talking about?”

I was afraid that Cole couldn’t help Elliot’s intimidation, so he said it all.

Elliot looked at her face, thought for a few seconds, and replied, "He said what you were talking about."

"Oh? What did he say?" She was frightened, "Tell me, I'm afraid he will lie."

You tell me what you said so I know if he's lying." Elliot didn't seem to trust her very much.

She has been playing with her mobile phone a little more frequently these days, and lying too often.

Even if it's really for Adrian's business, is that so?

"For Adrian's business." Avery took her hand, "Elliot, Adrian is really pitiful. Henry didn't treat him well."

"That's none of your business." Elliot said sharply, "You can't save the world, and you can't save everyone. It's enough to take care of your own life."

Elliot strode into the bathroom and closed the bathroom door.

Avery's nose was slightly sour.

Elliot was angry. After getting married, he has always been very restrained in temper, gentle with her, and patient with children. He was not only a good husband, but also a good father.

Chapter 1145

If possible, Avery hopes that their lives can always be so peaceful and beautiful.

In fact, although Elliot is sensitive and suspicious, he is also very good at coaxing.

As long as Avery puts down her posture and is soft on him, he can usually calm down.

When Elliot came out of the shower, Avery took him to bed.

Elliot's face was still blue and his eyes were angry.

After Elliot lay down, Avery turned off the light.

"Husband, I..."

"Is Adrian more important or me?" Elliot interrupted her.

"Of course you are important." Avery hugged his body tightly, sniffing the familiar breath on his body, "I just want to do something within my power. After all, Adrian is Shea's brother. I promise to do it. These will not affect our lives."

Elliot said, "It has already affected. You said that you are in a bad mood. Seeing that you are in a bad mood, do you think I am in a good mood?"

"I promise that I will not be in a bad mood in the future. His business has affected his mood." Avery moved to his face and placed a kiss on his cheek, "You have a parent-teacher meeting tomorrow, so you can't wear a mask the whole time. I'll cover your face with concealer tomorrow."

"Okay."

After the reconciliation, the two fell asleep quickly.

The next day.

Avery got up earlier than usual. She promised to cover the scars on Elliot's face, but when she moved yesterday, she didn't bring concealer.

Elliot opened his eyes and saw that she was busy in front of the dresser.

"Avery, what are you doing?"

"I'm looking for liquid foundation." Avery took out all the liquid foundations she brought, and picked a shade that was more suitable for his skin tone, but she could pick and choose and couldn't find a suitable one, "I forgot to bring concealer, so I could only I covered you with liquid foundation. The liquid foundation is a bit white, I don't know if it can cover you."

Elliot heard the words and immediately lifted the quilt and got out of bed.

"Try first." Elliot put his face in front of her.

"Oh." Avery opened a bottle of liquid foundation, squeezed some out, and smeared it on his cheeks.

After smearing it evenly, Elliot's entire face turned white.

"It's a little white. But the concealer is good, and you can't see the injury on your face." Avery asked him to look in the mirror.

Elliot looked at himself in the mirror and laughed at himself: "Little white face."

"Haha! This is already the darkest shade of foundation I brought over. The others are whiter. If you don't want this white, then I'll let the driver go now and buy it. But it's a little early and the mall may not be open yet."

It's not her fault. She has fair skin, so the liquid foundation shades are all white.

Besides, there were almost no other blemishes on her face except dark circles, so she did not usually use concealer.

"Just use this! As long as you can't see the wound on your face." Elliot compromised.

Avery took him to the bathroom to remove his makeup. When he's done washing, reapply his makeup.

At eight o'clock, she sent the father and daughter out.

After eating breakfast, Avery went back to her room to sleep. Her eyes closed, and after a while, they suddenly opened. She picked up her phone and called Cole.

Cole said last night that he would give her an answer today. Presumably their father and son have already thought about it.

Cole answered the phone quickly.

"Cole, have you discussed it with your father?"

Cole said lazily, "I discussed it with dad. We only need the shares in Elliot's hands. The rest will not work. Avery, if you really want to save Shea's life, you should find a way to persuade him. Elliot bowed his head!"
