

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1156

Chapter 1156

With Avery's current relationship with Cole, it's not bad that Cole doesn't want to make things difficult for her.

What good could Cole have for her?

Avery's uncontrollable guess was that Cole planned some other conspiracy.

Cole asked, "You'll know when you see it. It's guaranteed to be a good thing. Where are you now? I'll have someone deliver it to you."

Since Cole wanted her to see this good thing so much, Avery also wanted to see what it was!

After thinking for a few seconds, Avery said, "Send it to my company."

If it was sent to Elliot's house, Elliot would definitely see it.

"Okay." Cole said and quickly hung up the call.

Avery came out of the community and just got into the car when Elliot called.

If Ell didn't call, Avery also intended to call him.

"Avery, Ben Schaffer called me just now and said that you have already dealt with Gwen's affairs." Elliot did not expect things to go so smoothly, "Did she not cooperate or give you a face?"

“No,” Avery said in a relaxed tone, “I told her to move, and she packed up and left with me.”

“Is she picky about where she lives?” Elliot continued to ask.

“No. In fact, she doesn’t talk much.” Avery recalled the scene after she met Gwen, “I don’t know if Nathan’s affair affected her but she feels very depressed. But you don’t have to worry, I’ll pay more attention to her in the future.”

“Wife, you’ve worked hard for me.”

Avery smiled and said, “What’s so hard about it. By the way, I happened to pass by the company, so I plan to go to the company to see if I can go back at noon. Elliot, if you stay at home or you’re bored, you can go to work. I’m afraid you’ve wanted to go to work for a long time, right?”

Elliot said truthfully: “I don’t want to work with you and my children every day. But since you’ve gone to work, I’ll go to the company too!”

“Okay.” Avery drove to the company after speaking on the phone.

Sterling Group.

At 10 o’clock in the morning, Ben Schaffer came out of the elevator with a cup of coffee. At a glance, he saw Chad was standing and was waiting at the door of the office.

“Chad, why are you standing at the door of my office?” Ben Schaffer’s eyes were scarlet and his face was haggard, but the corner of his mouth was smiling, showing that he was in a good mood.

Chad said guiltily, “Mr. Schaffer, were you... okay last night? I called the boss last night, and the boss told me to leave you alone, so I’ll leave first.”

“What’s the matter?” Ben Schaffer pushed open the office door and strode in, “Elliot told you to leave me alone, that’s because he did. He asked his wife to go to my house this morning and take Gwen away. Later I don’t have to look at that girl’s face anymore.”

Chad pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose: “Mr. Schaffer, she lives in your house, and will she show you her face?”

“Yes! Because I told her that if she didn’t come back after 9 p.m., I wouldn’t open the door for her. So she started to show my face. If someone else gave me a face, would I be able to bear it?! Gwen is Elliot’s sister, and I can’t bully her. Right?” Ben Schaffer sat down in the office chair and took a sip of coffee and said it.

“Oh, I didn’t expect you to be so miserable, Mr. Schaffer.” Chad sympathized.

“Otherwise, why did I use alcohol to drown my sorrows last night. Because I was so bitter.” Ben Schaffer said with a smile on his face, “Fortunately, this trouble has been solved. I’ll treat Avery to eat another day for Dinner.”

“Well.” Chad’s eyes suddenly stared at Ben Schaffer’s neck, cleared his throat, and reminded, “Mr. Schaffer, it’s better not to play with women outside. It’s not clean after all.”

His words made Ben Schaffer explode.

“Speaking of this, I’m on fire again! The woman the builder arranged for me last night was absolutely amazing. It’s the first time I had seen such a stupid woman and I was very angry!”

Chad asked, “What’s wrong?”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1157

Chapter 1157

“I wanted to drink water last night, but she brought me a glass of water in the dark. I asked her to turn on the light, but she refused to live or die... I suspect that this woman must be very ugly. Otherwise, it will not be like this. Forget it, I won't bother her anymore. She's so ugly, I guess she can only make some money by going to the dark. It's not easy."

Chad was stunned.

"She's so ugly, but the two of you..."

Ben Schaffer coughed and said embarrassedly, "Don't tell me about this. It's too embarrassing. I drank too much last night, and my reason was out of control. Hey. I don't seem to drink as much as I used to."

Chad: "It has nothing to do with the amount of alcohol. You drank too much last night, and everyone will get drunk."

"If I get drunk again in the future, I will give you a million." Ben Schaffer decided to use restrain himself in this way. His voice was settled, and there was a knock on the office door.

The two looked towards the door, only to see Elliot walking in.

"Boss, why did you come to the company? Isn't your marriage leave over yet?" Chad immediately walked to Elliot's side.

"Avery went to the company today, so I came to see it too." Elliot strode in front of Ben Schaffer and smelled a pungent smell of alcohol, "How much did you drink last night?"

"It's too much, I can't remember. If I knew you had taken your sister away today, I didn't drink so much last night." Ben Schaffer said angrily.

"Avery said that Gwen was very obedient." Elliot didn't understand why Ben Schaffer was in such pain.

“Be obedient. She’s pretending to be in front of Avery. If she angers Avery, you will cut off her source of income.” Ben Schaffer breathed a sigh of relief when he said this, “Actually, Gwen didn’t do anything to me. It’s too much, that is, I always stare at me. It seems that I have done something wrong to Gwen. I look at your face during the day, and go back to see your sister’s face at night, can I feel at ease?”

Elliot: “I haven’t seen her for half a month in the company.”

“I’m making an analogy. Your sister’s temper is definitely not smaller than yours. She is incompetent now, so she bears it. If she has the ability, it is estimated that she will be in heaven.” Ben Schaffer teased.

“Mr. Schaffer, don’t be angry. Gwen has already left, and it is estimated that you will never see her in the future. Seeing that you are not looking very well, why don’t you go back to rest in the morning?” Chad said as he wanted to give Mr. Schaffer some relief.

“Chad, Your boss didn’t say anything, do you count?” Ben Schaffer teased.

Chad immediately shrank behind Elliot.

Elliot gave Chad a look and told him to go first.

After Chad left, Elliot sat down opposite Ben Schaffer.

Elliot said, “Avery may want my money.”

Ben Schaffer raised his eyebrows and asked, “What does she want your money for?”

Elliot: “This proves that I love her.”

Ben Schaffer asked nervously, “Pfft! Then do you want to give it? How much does she want?”

Elliot: "She didn't ask me exactly how much she wanted, but asked me if I would give her all my property."

Ben Schaffer: "Oh, it scared me to death! Women are like this sometimes, she should ask casually. Don't worry."

Elliot said, "I'm not worried, I just want you to be mentally prepared. If she really wants it, I will definitely give it."

Ben Schaffer: "..."

Avery waited for about half an hour in the lobby on the first floor until the 'good thing' sent by Cole. She took the small and light bag and walked towards the elevator suspiciously. She believed that what was inside would surprise her. So she decided to go to the office and take it apart.

Arrived at the office, Avery immediately closed the office door. She quickly opened the bag and glanced inside. There appeared to be a small bag inside.

Avery walked to the window, and after seeing what was inside, she gasped sharply. She immediately took out the small bag inside!

-is blood!

This is a small bag of dark red blood.

Avery was suddenly dizzy, her ankles were weak, and she felt like she was going to fall. She didn't faint, but she guessed whose blood it was.

Suddenly, her mobile phone rang. She took a deep breath, strode to the desk, and took out the phone from the bag with trembling hands. She answered the phone, and Cole's evil voice came leisurely: "Have you received the item?"

"You b*stard!" Avery gritted her teeth and cursed angrily, "What do you want to do?"

"You don't even ask this Whose blood is it? Forget it, I won't tell you, just take it for the test. Anyway, the test results will be available in less than half an hour." Cole smiled and exhaled, "You are so angry. Ohh, Come on, you've already guessed who it is."

"Cole, why didn't I find out that you are a crazy person before?" Avery was already mad with anger, and her body trembled, "Adrian is your uncle. Does your father know about this?"

Cole sneered, "Of course my father does. Now the father and son are of the same mind. Thanks to you and Elliot. If it weren't for you, the father and son relationship would not have been so good. I'll send you ten milliliters of blood today. Think carefully about whether you want to agree to our request!"

"I don't agree?"

"Then I will continue to send you blood tomorrow. I will send you ten milliliters every day until Adr blood is drained! I heard that my aunt seems to have given your son a few hundred milliliters of blood. Let's see if Adrian can last for a few days." Cole's voice sounded like a devil, "We just want money, if you don't give it, then wait for Adrian to collect the body. Not only Adrian will die, but also my aunt will die if she can't get a kidney."

After Cole finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Hearing the disconnection sound of 'dududu', Avery's tears suddenly fell.

This move by Henry and his son is really sinister.

If Avery had known that they were so mean and cold-blooded towards their relatives, even if she made Elliot unhappy, she would definitely keep Adrian by her side.

Avery was wrong! It's her fault. She actually thought that Henry would treat her own brother well. It's too bad and it's too late now.

The office door was suddenly pushed open, and Mike strode in.

His intrusion surprised Avery.

Avery didn't have time to wipe the tears from her face, and she didn't have time to adjust her mood. So after seeing Mike, the expression on her face froze.

Mike looked at her with tears and grief in his eyes, and stood at the door. He heard that Avery came to the company, so he came to talk with her.

Unexpectedly...

"Avery, What's the matter?" Mike took a deep breath and strode in front of her. Out of the corner of his eyes, he caught a glimpse of what Avery was holding in her hand, "What are you holding in your hand?"

Avery immediately Held the bag of blood in the palm of her hand.

“Why didn’t you knock on the door when you came in?” Avery complained.

Mike scratched his head then said, “I knocked the door but you didn’t hear it. What happened? you quarreled with Elliot? It shouldn’t be. Haven’t you two been doing well recently?”

“Talk to him. It doesn’t matter.” Avery took a few tissues from the tissue box and wiped away the tears on her face, “I just saw a social news, a middle-aged man with disabled legs, set up a stall on the side of the road, repairing shoes, Sending his daughter to school... Every time I see news like this, I think of my mother and feel heartache for the people at the bottom.”

“Really!” Mike pointed to her clasped hand, “What are you holding in your hand, show me. If you don’t show me, I won’t believe what you said.”

Avery quickly adjusted her mood and said, “What effect does it have on me if you don’t believe it? Why did you come to see me for?”

“Hey, you’re saying this too much. I heard that you came to the company and I came to see you. And we don’t live together anymore. I haven’t seen each other for several days.” Mike slumped down in the chair opposite her, “Although you invited me to Elliot’s house for a meal. I really don’t want to go to his house.”

“After that, we will meet outside once a week.” Avery Give a solution.

Mike: “Okay! But you haven’t told me what happened. If you let Elliot know...”

Avery looked at him seriously, “Don’t threaten me. You’re not allowed to talk to anyone about what happened just now.”

“It’s okay, I don’t say it. Then you at least tell me a little bit, Otherwise, how much should I worry? Avery, you can’t only think about yourself and not my feelings.” Mike replied with the same seriousness, “If you were me, could you ignore me?”

Avery choked, "Henry and his son threatened me with cloud ink and asked me to go to Elliot to ask for share."

Mike said excitedly, "D*mn it! I knew that was the case. The father and son looked like dogs but they were actually more rogues than rogues. The last person who gave me this feeling was Charlie Tierney.

"Mike, I don't know how to talk to Elliot. He won't give them the shares. I know his temper...he will never give it..."

Mike raised his eyebrows and said, "It's me, I won't give it either. Why don't you find someone to do the father and son?"

Avery looked at him in disbelief: "Do you really want to help me?"

Mike said coldly, "Yes! I really want to help you. If you don't give them money and don't kill them, then only Adrian will die. Do you think they will pay the legal price for killing Adrian? No! They will definitely find a reasonable reason to cover up their m-urder."

Avery's tears burst the dyke again.

Mike took out a tissue and handed it to her and said, "Don't cry. They just see you as being soft, so they pick you up. You don't even dare to go to Elliot. But Elliot can't give money for Adrian either."

"And if it's Shea?" Avery asked blankly.

Mike was stunned: "If it was Shea...Elliot would not necessarily hand over the shares. He should choose to kill them like me."

Avery: "..."

“Avery, What did you mean just now, is it possible that Shea is still alive?” Mike asked.

“Don’t ask. I’m going out. We’re chatting, you’re not allowed to say it.”

“Don’t worry, I’m definitely tight-lipped but I suggest you still consider my proposal.” Mike sent her out of the office.

“Don’t say it, I won’t kill them.” Avery refused.

After leaving the company, Avery drove to the hospital. She wants to test the bag of blood.

An hour later, she got the test results.

Blood sample blood type: RH negative blood O blood type.

Among the people she knows, only Shea and Adrian are this special blood type. So this bag of blood belongs to Adrian.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1160

Chapter 1160

Avery was sitting in the waiting area on the first floor of the hospital, her eyes were blank and she was shivering. It seems that she has entered a desperate situation, and she doesn’t know how to go. She didn’t want to tell Elliot, if she did, Elliot would really kill Henry and Cole. She doesn’t want to turn Elliot into a m-urderer. But if she doesn’t tell Elliot, she can only see Adrian and Shea die one after another.

After thinking about it, there is only one way.

After sitting in the hospital for a while, she dialed Cole’s number.

“Have you figured it out?” Cole answered the phone, expecting her reply.

“Let’s meet and talk! I’ll send you the location, come over as soon as possible.” Avery came out of the hospital quickly to meet Cole.

“You won’t set me up, right? Avery, let me tell you, Adrian is in our hands, If you do any tricks, Adrian will definitely die.” Cole said nervously.

“I know.” After Avery said, she hung up the phone.

40 minutes later, the two met in a private room at a restaurant near the hospital.

Cole cautiously surveyed the private room.

“What are you doing in the private room? There shouldn’t be people hiding in the private room, right?” Cole said, looking under the table.

Avery was laughed at by his timid behavior: “Cole, You’re obviously timid as a mouse but you want to do all the bad things. If you are a human being, you don’t have to worry about who will harm you.”

“You think you said this to me but can you change my mind? Have you ever heard a sentence called starvation to death for the cowardly but for the cowardly to persevere?” After sitting down in the chair, Cole picked up the kettle and poured himself a glass of water.

“Cole, do you remember the sweet words you said when you were chasing me?” Avery changed the subject lightly, “You said that you would always be good to me. Although it has passed, it is still very interesting. I miss you who was kind back then.”

Cole frowned and looked gloomy: “Avery, I beg you, don’t recall the past. Don’t you think it’s disgusting to say these things? I’m disgusting, and you are disgusting too. “

“Well, we are all disgusting.” Avery’s hand, under the table, reached into the bag, “then who don’t you think is disgusting?”

“All disgusting! Elliot, my dad and My grandma, they are all bad people.” Cole gritted his teeth and became emotional, “Only my mother is not disgusting, but my mother was killed by Elliot.”

“I think, you may need to see a psychiatrist in your situation.” Holding the phone, Avery calmly got up from the chair and walked towards Cole, “Let me recommend a doctor for you. This doctor may be helpful to you.”

“I don’t need it.” Cole protested, “It’s not me but this perverted society.”

“Really?” Avery walked behind Cole and put the dagger against his neck.

After the cold blade touched his skin, his body suddenly froze.

“Avery! What are you doing?” Cole panicked, his voice trembling.

“What do you think?” Before coming to the restaurant, Avery went to the nearby supermarket to buy this dagger.

Allow Henry and his son to threaten her with Adrian’s life, and she can also treat her in her own way.

“Cole, don’t move. If you struggle and resist, I won’t show mercy.” Avery said, and dialed Henry.

Henry quickly answered the phone.

“Henry, your son is in my hands now. If you don’t want to lose your son in old age, then you can use cloud ink in exchange for your son’s life. Before 6 p.m, If I haven’t seen Adrian, just wait and collect your son’s body.” Avery said coldly, word by word.

Henry was stunned. He didn't expect Avery to do such an incredible thing. And the fear in Cole's body turned into humiliation in an instant. He actually fell into Avery's hands. If the father compromises, then the father and son will have no bargaining chip. Although he is greedy for life and fears death, and is as timid as a mouse, the poor life is not acceptable to him.

So Cole grabbed Avery's hand: "You killed me. You came to kill me!"
