

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1171

Chapter 1171

When Avery got home, her heart was empty.

In fact, Elliot didn't reply to her messages in seconds every time. If Avery didn't ask him for shares in the future, she would never be so nervous.

She took the phone and swiped several times, but she didn't get a reply from him.

She sent a message to Tammy: [Tammy, how are you and Jun recently?]

Tammy: [That's it! He has been very busy lately.]

Avery: [Then when you send him a message, when does he usually reply?]

Tammy: [He usually returns when he sees it. Why are you asking this all of a sudden?]

Avery: [I messaged Elliot at noon, but he hasn't gotten back to me yet.]

Tammy: [You can just call him and ask if it's okay. He must be busy and didn't see the messages, or he must reply to you.]

Avery: [I think so too. So I still don't call him. Anyway, he will be back in the evening.]

Tammy: [Well, don't you also go to work?]

Avery: [I took Robert to get vaccinations this afternoon, but didn't go to the company.]

Tammy: [Oh, I haven't seen you talk to me specifically for such trivial matters. I always thought that you were taking Elliot's hands to death, but now it's the other way around haha!]

Avery: [The feelings are mutual. He likes me and I like him too.]

Tammy: [Yes. After I divorced Jun once, I realized that it wasn't that I couldn't live without him, but that I was as lost as I was without him. what a shame.]

Avery: [It's all over. Cherish each other well in the future.]

After chatting with Tammy, Elliot still didn't reply.

Avery took the phone to charge and planned to ask him what Elliot was doing when he came back from get off work.

At 5:30 p.m., the bodyguards took Layla home.

Avery's mobile phone is also fully charged. She unplugged the charger and opened Whatsapp, but Elliot still did not reply to the message.

Her heart suddenly froze. She found his number and dialed it.

The phone was dialed, and a system prompt sounded soon – sorry, the number you dialed is temporarily unavailable, please try again later.

Is his phone turned off?

Is it powered off or the meeting is shut down?

Her heart suddenly beat violently, and an ominous premonition rose in her heart. She immediately dialed Chad's number, but fortunately the call was quickly connected.

"Chad, is Elliot off work now? I sent him a message and he didn't reply, and I couldn't get through when I called him." Avery asked, "Is he so busy today?"

Chad was stunned. He raised his eyes to look at Elliot in the office chair, and then looked up at Elliot's mobile phone on the desk.

Elliot is not busy today.

He stretched out his hand to cover the receiver of his mobile phone, and whispered to Elliot, "Boss, Avery is calling. She said that your mobile phone can't be reached, and the message has not been answered. She asked if you are off work, and asked if you are busy."

Elliot: " Tell her I'm busy and I'll be home late tonight, and tell her not to wait for me."

Chad immediately conveyed the boss's meaning to Avery.

Avery responded in frustration: "Is your boss so busy now? I didn't listen to him."

"Yeah! I've been very busy recently. He didn't tell you, maybe he didn't want to worry you." Chad said .

"Oh, then you ask him to call me back."

"Okay, I'll pass it on."

After talking on the phone, Chad said to Elliot, "Avery asked you to call back."

Elliot: "My phone is out of battery."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1172

Chapter 1172

"Oh, is your charger broken? I have a charger there, I'll bring it to you..."

"No." Elliot's charger is not broken, he just doesn't want to charge it.

His mobile phone was automatically turned off when he heard Avery's call recording till the phone was out of power.

After listening to the recording all afternoon, he now only needs to think of keywords such as 'Avery', 'Adrian', 'Henry', and his heart hurts and disgusts.

Chad couldn't help it, and he asked loudly, "Boss, what is the reason for you and Avery this time?"

"Don't ask what you shouldn't ask, don't say what you shouldn't say." He raised his cold eyes and looked at him coldly.

Chad immediately shut up: "I see. Do you want to go home tonight? If you don't go back, I'll go buy you dinner now."

Elliot: "I don't think so."

"If you don't give her a Call back, I think she may come to the company to look for you later." Chad reminded, "If you don't neglect her so much, she will definitely think wildly."

"It's precisely because I don't neglect her, so she always don't care about my feelings." Elliot eyes were cold, and his voice was even colder, "I was never afraid of making trouble with Henry before. But now, I'm tired."

Not tired, but tired.

Thinking about being used from birth. Now that he has become famous. he thinks that he can dominate everything, that he has found true love and a destination, but he still cannot escape the end of being used.

Avery said more than once that he would never lie to him again, and Elliot believed it. Now the beautiful illusion is torn apart, revealing the ugly lie.

Elliot is really tired.

Chad had never seen Elliot so depressed.

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

When Elliot was angry, Chad had seen it, whether it was a rage or cold-blooded revenge, but he had never seen Elliot cry tiredly.

Chad especially wanted to know what happened between Elliot and Avery, but he knew very well that he couldn't find the result if he asked again.

And what he said just now was very clear, don't ask what you shouldn't ask, don't say what you shouldn't say.

Chad not only couldn't ask him what happened, but he couldn't tell everything that happened now.

Foster family.

Avery and Layla are sitting at the dining table and having dinner.

"Mom, our house is so deserted." Layla felt emotionally, "Uncle Mike is no longer living with us. My brother is not at home, and Dad is going to work again. Maybe he will work overtime every day in the future... A classmate told me that she can only see her father two or three times a month, because her father usually travels around for work."

Avery: "Your father will not do this. Even if he works overtime, he will go home at night."

"But if he comes back too late, I won't see him. I go to school early in the morning, and he can't see me." Layla puffed out her cheeks, "My classmate said that her father had a woman outside, so she often Don't go home."

Avery was shocked by her daughter's remarks.

"Layla, your dad isn't that kind of person."

Layla sniffed, "I don't want dad to be like that either. I'll be sad and you'll be sad too. Brother will hate him even more. Then You call my father after dinner and ask him to come back early."

Avery: "I have called your Uncle Chad, and when your father is not so busy, he will call me back. If he does not call I called back to show that he was on his way home."

"Oh!" Layla felt relieved, "Mom, when are you going to see brother? I'm about to have summer vacation!"

Avery thought for a few seconds then said, "We can visit him anytime after your summer vacation."

Layla put down her tableware and ran out of the dining room with a look of excitement.

Seeing that her daughter was so happy, Avery picked up the phone to see if Elliot had any reply.

As a result, still no.

Half an hour has passed since she called Chad.

It stands to reason that Chad should have conveyed what she said to Elliot, why did Elliot still not reply to her?

Whether it was a message or a phone call, as long as she didn't receive a response from him for a second, she felt uneasy in her heart.

She dialed his number again, and the system beep was still heard.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1173

Chapter 1173

Avery frowned, came out of the dining room, and decided to drive to his company to find him.

She wondered if he was busy with work and didn't have time to look at his phone, or if there were other reasons.

Half an hour later, her car stopped at the entrance of Sterling Group Building.

The lights on some floors of the building are still on. She went straight to the lobby on the first floor.

The security guard saw her and immediately swiped her card to let her in. She took the elevator to the floor where Elliot's office was.

With a 'ding' sound, the elevator door slowly opened.

The lights in the corridor are on, but the door of Elliot's office is closed.

Elliot was no longer in the company. Was he already on his way home?

Her disappointment was greater than her hope. Always feel like something was wrong. Otherwise Elliot wouldn't have contacted her for so long.

They have been very sweet since their marriage, even if they stick together 24 hours a day, they will not get tired.

How could his attitude change?

Did Henry and his son find him?

But she'd already negotiated with them, and they shouldn't have the guts to provoke him. She squatted at the door of his office and dialed Chad.

Chad answered again in seconds: "Avery, what's the matter?"

"Where has Elliot left? I'm at the door of his office now, and he's no longer in the office." Avery's tone couldn't hide her disappointment.

"When I got off work, I told him what you said. However, his mobile phone was out of power, and it seemed that the charger was broken. At that time, a client wanted to invite him to dinner, and then talk about the cooperation in detail, so he may now Let's go to dinner with the client." Chad worked hard to make up the reason.

Elliot was sitting in his car. Because Elliot didn't want to go home, Chad took him to the hotel now.

Chad continued. Avery, why don't you go to the company's ground parking lot. If my boss's car is still there, I'll probably leave with the client."

“Okay, I’ll go take a look.” Avery got up and walked towards the elevator, “By the way, what kind of person is that customer? Will he drink Elliot or mess around?”

“No. That client and the boss have known each other for a long time.”

“Oh. I see. Why don’t you send me the client’s number?” Avery asked.

“Uh...I don’t have the customer’s number. Because this customer is in direct contact with the boss every time.” Chad continued.

After talking on the phone, Chad looked at Elliot in the back seat.

“Boss, if you don’t go home tonight, what about tomorrow night?”

“We’ll talk about it tomorrow night.”

“Avery will probably go to the company tomorrow morning to find you.”

“I won’t go to the company tomorrow.”

“Where are you going tomorrow?” Chad was a little panicked.

“I don’t need to report to you. If she finds you again, you can continue editing.” Elliot gave him an order.

Chad responded and said anxiously: “Boss, I’m a little afraid of you.”

“Don’t call me boss. Don’t call me boss in the future.” He interrupted Chad.

Avery has decided to put his shares To Henry, if he doesn’t agree to Avery, can their marriage continue?

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1174

Chapter 1174

Elliot never speculates on Avery with the greatest malice. But Avery’s conversation with Henry was like stabbed him from behind.

Has she ever thought that Adrian is a human being? Although Adrian is pitiful, should she sacrifice him to save Adrian?

If Avery discussed with him first, got his consent, and then went to talk to Henry about the phone call, Elliot would never be so sad.

After Chad sent him to the hotel, he came out of the hotel.

It's almost July, and the nights are getting warmer.

Chad was sweating shortly after he came out of the hotel. He got into the car and dialed Ben Schaffer.

The mood of Chad was deeply affected by Elliot, "Brother Ben, I don't know what to do now. I feel like I'm unemployed."

Ben Schaffer frowned: "Elliot fired you? What did you do wrong?"

Chad took a deep breath then said, "I don't know. I don't think I made a mistake but he just told me not to call him boss. If I don't call him boss, what should I call him?"

"Then call him President Foster!" Ben Schaffer gave him advice.

Chad explained, "I called him Mr. Foster when I first joined the company. Once he was with the vice president, I called Mr. Foster, and they both looked at me together. Since then, I have called him Calling the boss. I've been calling for a few years. He won't let me call tonight, what does he mean?"

Chad was one of the people around Elliot who knew him best. But he couldn't guess what he was thinking now, let alone what he would do next. An unknown fear arises spontaneously in his heart.

"If you ask me, I don't know." Ben Schaffer pondered for a few seconds, "I went to him at noon, and he wouldn't say anything. But it's definitely related to Avery."

"I know it has something to do with Avery. He doesn't plan to go home tonight, nor does he want to contact Avery. He asked me to lie to Avery that he was very busy. If she really got into trouble with Avery, I wouldn't let me lie to him." Chad looked dazed, "Brother Ben, I'll just tell you about this, don't tell me. He won't let me tell."

"Where is Elliot now?"

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

"He's in the hotel. He said that he won't go to the company tomorrow."

Ben Schaffer's breathing suddenly became heavy, "What's wrong? They were all fine yesterday. Didn't Avery just sprinkle a handful of dog food in the circle of friends?"

"Yes, I don't understand either. But I can't ask Avery, so don't ask her either. If I ask, my lie will be no longer true."

"Why don't you ask Mike?" Ben Schaffer suggested, "Maybe he knows something."

Chad said, "He moved out of Avery's house. I'm sure he doesn't know anything."

Ben Schaffer said, "Then there's nothing. Besides, we outsiders really can't get involved in the affairs of the two of them. When did the two of them quarrel, didn't they reconcile themselves?"

Chad was depressed, "But in the past, when the two of them quarreled, the boss could go to work normally. As long as the boss can go to work normally, I don't think it will be a problem. It's too big. The boss doesn't plan to work this time. Does he want to stop his work for this company."

Ben Schaffer said, "Then let him rest for a few days. It's useless for us to be anxious. You go home first. We'll talk about it tomorrow."

"Yeah."

The Foster family.

After Avery took a bath, she came out of the bathroom, walked to the bed, and picked up her mobile phone.

There were no messages and calls.

Elliot suddenly seemed to have news out of thin air from her world.

When Avery went out yesterday morning, Elliot also kissed her cheek.

Thinking that she called his number again, but still couldn't get through.

His mobile phone is dead and the charger is broken, wouldn't he borrow someone else's charger to charge it?

If Elliot wants to charge his phone, he can charge it anytime. Even, he can change a new mobile phone to contact Avery at any time.

Are customers so important? Is work so important?

Her heart was clear like a mirror that Elliot just didn't want to contact her, and he didn't want to return home.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1175

Chapter 1175

As for why Elliot did this, Avery couldn't guess the reason.

Henry and his son would never dare to look for Elliot. Is there anyone else looking for him?

Avery was lying on the bed, looking at the chandelier, dazed. Suddenly, a terrible thought flashed in her mind.

If Elliot doesn't come back and doesn't contact her, how can she ask him for shares? Although it was not appropriate to think about such a thing at this time, it was a burning eyebrow.

If Avery couldn't fulfill her promise to Henry in a week, Henry and his son may torture Adrian. Thinking of this, two lines of tears fell from the corners of her eyes. She thought she had reached a desperate situation two days ago. Now, what kind of desperate situation was the first two days?

Now is the real dead end.

With Elliot's ignored her today, and he may ignore her in the future. Even if they have children, even if she and the children live in his house now. Once Elliot decides to give up, nothing is going to work for him.

That night, she lost sleep.

The next morning.

Avery came to Sterling Group. When Chad came to the company, he saw Avery standing at the door of Elliot's office.

Chad had long guessed that Avery would come to the company today, so it was no surprise to see her. Only, he had to pretend to be surprised.

Chad: "Avery, why are you here?"

"Do you know where Elliot went? He didn't come home last night. The phone is still there and didn't turn on." Avery's eyes were full of red, and even with foundation on her face, she couldn't hide her haggardness.

Chad dialed Elliot's number in front of her, "Ah this...I can't get through to him either."

Avery murmured, "Then I'll wait here. Yesterday morning, We were all fine when we parted. He suddenly lost contact. Did you find anything unusual about him yesterday?"

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

Chad immediately shook his head and said, "I was working yesterday and didn't notice anything unusual about him. His office door is open, now you can go in and sit and wait for boss."

"Okay, thank you."

Chad felt very guilty. Because he knew that Elliot would not come to the company today.

If Avery waits any longer, he will just wait in vain.

After Chad sent her into Elliot's office, he immediately returned to his office. He paced up and down the office, and after struggling for a while, he dialed Mike.

"Hurry up and call Avery to tell her away. She's in my boss's office now, and my boss won't come to the company today."

"Just tell her."

"Just tell her! My boss doesn't want to see her. I can't tell you the specific reason." Chad lost his patience, "Hurry up and find a way to get her away! I told you, you are not allowed to tell her."

Mike held the phone and cursed in a low voice. He asked Elliot to find a way to deal with Henry and his son, but Elliot ignored Avery?

How did it turn into this?

Mike immediately rushed to Sterling Group and pushed open the door of Elliot's office.

"Avery, follow me." Mike grabbed her arm and took her outside.

“What are you doing?” Avery pushed him hard and refused to leave, “I want to wait for Elliot here. Let me go.”

“He won’t come.” Mike roared.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1176

Chapter 1176

This stern roar fell in Avery’s ears, and also in Chad’s ears outside the door.

Chad suddenly became angry, strode behind Mike, and twisted his back hard.

Mike endured the pain and immediately changed his words to Avery: “I mean you don’t have to wait for him here. What a waste of time! Which CEO would come to work so early?”

Avery was not convinced by his explanation.

The phrase ‘he won’t come’ kept echoing in Avery’s mind. Like a deflated balloon, she was drained of all her strength.

Mike easily pulled her out of the office and left the Sterling Group.

Avery was stuffed into the car, and Mike fastened her seat belt: “I’ll let someone drive your car away later.”

After Mike got into the driver’s seat, he immediately drove the car out.

Avery looked at the Sterling Group building that was gradually receding out of the window, and murmured, “Mike, you said he wouldn’t come, who told you?”

Seeing her in a trance, Mike had a headache.

If he tell her the truth, it will stimulate her deeper.

“I just guessed. Did you forget that I’m a man too?” Mike said, “Chad told me last night...”

“What did he say to you?” Avery couldn’t wait to interrupt him.

Mike looked at the road ahead with a guilty conscience and said, “He told me that you were looking for Elliot, but Elliot didn’t seem to be in a hurry. So he guessed that the two of you were quarreling again.”

Fortunately, Avery couldn’t see his face, otherwise she would definitely see his guilty conscience.

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

Avery: “I didn’t quarrel with him.”

“That’s why he quarreled with you.” Mike said, “The two of you must have had a conflict anyway. Otherwise, why would he?”

“I don’t know. I didn’t quarrel with him, why did he quarrel with me?” She was puzzled. “How do I know what he’s thinking when he avoids like this? He’s so weird this time.

“Strange. But you can’t wait in his office like this. Aren’t you afraid of his employees laughing at you?” Mike said, “If he wants to see you, you can naturally see him. If he doesn’t want to see you, you will never see him in his office.”

“How much hatred does it take to see me forever?” Avery murmured.

Mike comforted, “I just said casually, I don’t think he will see you forever. I think he will definitely see you tonight or in two days.”

“Send me home. I’ll go back to sleep.” Avery lowered her eyes slightly, Feeling exhausted.

“Okay. Don’t think about anything, maybe he’ll come back when you wake up.”

Avery guessed, “I feel like Elliot knew everything. Otherwise he wouldn’t be like this. He’s not a merciless person, and he won’t stop going home for a trivial matter.”

“If Elliot knew it, I would also know it. Avery, no matter what, you must prepare for the worst. When you are threatened, you should consider it. let him know, it’s not necessarily a bad thing.” Mike said calmly.

Avery said excitedly, “But Elliot has ignored me now. You really, Don’t you think it’s not necessarily a bad thing? I think things are so bad.” The latter words were stuck in his throat and could not be said.

Avery also intends to ask him for shares, and now it seems that she is delusional.

Avery actually thought that Elliot would give what she wanted from him.

Elliot is running away from her now, and the result has already been stated.

Thinking that Avery could not fulfill her promise to Henry, that Adrian and Shea would die one after another, and that she and Elliot might be irreparable, she was miserable.

She should listen. Whether it was Mike's advice or Wesley's advice, if she listened, neither she nor Elliot would have come this far.

It was totally wrong. Avery only considers what she has lost now.

In fact, the result is now good. At least for Elliot, it was good. He didn't have to take out his company's shares, and he didn't have the impulse to kill Henry and his son. He was just angry with Avery alone, and even if he lost this relationship, he still had a decent life.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1177

Chapter 1177

Thinking of this, Avery felt better. Perhaps, she and Elliot still have no fate after all. No matter how many children they have, they will never grow old together.

"Avery, don't cry." Mike regretted seeing her weeping. If Mike knew this was the result, he would never have called Elliot.

"I'm fine..." Avery raised her hand to wipe her tears, "I'll just cry for a while."

"How can I go to the company at ease like this?" Mike said sadly.

"I want to stay by myself." Avery choked, "Send me to my own house."

"Okay." Mike turned the car at the intersection ahead and drove towards the Starry River Villa.

In the hotel.

Chad pressed the doorbell of Elliot's room. Elliot's cell phone hasn't been turned on yet, and he hasn't responded to his work emails. He's lost contact.

Chad was very worried, so he came to have a look. As a result, he rang the doorbell three times, but there was no response.

Is Elliot not in the room anymore?

Chad immediately went to the front desk and asked, "Help me check if Mr. Elliot left the hotel today."

The lady at the front desk said, "Sorry, this is the privacy of the guests, I can't help..."

"I'm his assistant." Chad took out his business card and handed it to the lady at the front desk.

The lady at the front desk took his business card, glanced at it, and returned it to him: "Mr. Rayner, I'm sorry. You can go to our manager."

Chad took back the business card and went to the hotel manager.

When the hotel manager heard that he wanted to inquire about Elliot's privacy, he immediately said, "Mr. Rayner, I know you are Mr. Foster's assistant. But I still can't reveal his privacy casually. Otherwise, he will not come to our hotel in the future."

Chad expressed his understanding: "I don't want to know his privacy, I'm afraid he doesn't eat well and he has stomach problems."

"You can rest assured. He has breakfast today."

"Okay. Thank you." Chad came out of the hotel after getting this answer.

Elliot was no longer in the hotel, where should he go?

He really worried.

Elliot's sudden visit today was very surprising.

"Mr. Foster, I can go to your place completely, so that you don't have to run." The lawyer poured Elliot a glass of water.

"I have something to entrust you to do for me." Elliot looked cold and expressionless.

The lawyer sat upright: "Okay, but don't you have legal affairs?"

"I want to ask you to do it." Elliot said.

If you go to the company's legal counsel, then the matter will soon spread to several high-level ears.

Elliot just wanted to end the matter quietly.

The lawyer said, "Mr. Foster, thank you very much for trusting me. I have known you for many years. I will definitely do my best to handle your affairs."

"I want you to find someone." Elliot took out a piece of paper strips on the table.

A person's name and phone number are written on it.

The lawyer took the note, glanced at it, and wondered, "Cole...Isn't this your nephew?" After that, he changed his words immediately, "I'm sorry, I forgot that you are not related to them by blood. "

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1178

Chapter 1178

Starry River Villa.

After Avery entered the living room, she saw Mike coming in, and immediately said, "You go. I'll stay here for a while to clean up."

"Then I'll contact you at noon." After Mike finished speaking, he walked out. After he got in the car, he dialed Tammy.

"Tammy, wait a moment and call Avery. Ask her to go out to play, or you can go to her. In short, find a way not to leave her alone." Mike was particularly worried about Avery.

"What's wrong with Avery?" Tammy noticed from Mike's tone that things were not simple.

"I can't tell you in a few words. You see her, let's see if she will tell you."

Tammy asked, "She quarreled with Elliot? She sent me a message yesterday, saying that Elliot didn't reply to her message. No. Could it be because of this?"

"That's right. She says she wants to be quiet now, you can contact her later."

"Understood."

Tammy finished talking on the phone and immediately took a set of clothes from the closet to change. After dressing up briefly, she dialed Jun.

"Husband, have you heard about the quarrel between Elliot and Avery?"

Jun was in a meeting when he received a call and came out of the conference room with his mobile phone.

"What happened to the two of them? I haven't heard of them quarreling!"

"I just asked you. If you don't know, forget it." Tammy was about to hang up.

"Ask Avery. The two of you have such a good relationship."

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

Tammy said, "I was going to find her. But I think Elliot caused the trouble. Yesterday, Avery told me that Elliot didn't reply to her news. I was laughing at Avery. You take the time to inquire."

...

When Tammy drove to the Starry River Villa, he pressed the doorbell at the gate of the courtyard.

Avery came out from inside.

The courtyard door opened, and Tammy entered the courtyard and looked at her at the same time: "Are you planning to move back?"

Avery was wearing plastic gloves and a waterproof apron, and it looked like she was cleaning at home.

"The house is dusty, I'll clean it up." Avery explained lightly, "Why are you here? What did Mike tell you?"

Tammy said straight to the point, "Don't do this kind of rough work. Just leave it to the nanny."

"I can't stop thinking about it when I'm quiet. Doing something can make it less uncomfortable." Avery entered the living room and took off Gloves, "I think I may lose Elliot."

"Don't be so pessimistic. You and Elliot have gone through so many storms, and He has three children. Why would he want to break up with you? Unless he has water in his head." Tammy said firmly.

"Things that often feel impossible will happen. People who think they won't lose are easy to lose." Avery glanced at the house with desolate eyes, "I think I may move back soon. So clean the house."

"Did Elliot say he want to break up with you?" Tammy asked.

"Once Elliot decides to let go, no matter how much I keep it, it's useless." Avery eyes were red and her voice was sour, "I know him."

"Has Elliot told you to break up?" Tammy was panicked and depressed, "What about the child? He won't fight with you for custody of the child, will he?"

Avery shook her head: "He has not heard from yesterday until now. He may still be thinking about the trade-off."

Tammy sighed heavily, "Avery, even if he is really thinking about trade-offs, he won't necessarily break up with you!"

"I have a very strong hunch."

Tammy reassured, "Then can you predict the winning numbers of the next lottery? Avery, don't scare yourself. Besides, even if he really wants to you If you break up, he must have no face to fight with you for child custody. As long as you hold the child firmly in your hands, other pains can be overcome. You told me before that the child is the number one in your heart. "

Avery: "The reason why I feel so uncomfortable is because I may have broken his heart. I don't want to hurt him at all..."

"Can you tell me what happened?" Tammy asked.
