

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 691

They needed evidence to bring down Chelsea.

“Sweetie, when Elliot Foster came over today, he said you hid in your room when you saw him, “Avery said worriedly. “This is your home. You don’t need to hide from him.”

“I wasn’t hiding,” Hayden said as his brows furrowed. “I just don’t want to see him.”

“He’s planning on moving in to help with your little brother once he’s born.” Avery was in a dilemma and let out a sigh. “Would that make things hard on 46 you?”

Hayden’s brows furrowed even more tightly as he said, “I’ll just ignore him, then!”

“Thanks, sweetie.” Avery patted her son’s shoulder with a pained expression on her face. “I don’t want him to move in either, but he thinks your little brother will need his care. The baby doesn’t belong to just me, so I couldn’t refuse³⁴ him.”

Hayden took a deep breath, then promised, “Don’t worry, Mommy. I won’t acknowledge him! Layla also won’t! I won’t let our little brother acknowledge him either!”

Avery wascd stunned.

What was the initial reason for having a heart-to-heart with Hayden again ?

It was to mitigate the relationship between father and son, and not to deepen the conflict between them!

It seemed like Hayden misunderstood her meaning.

It was fine. They can settle in once Elliot moves in!

Two weeks later, Nora's bandages were removed from her face. She was being discharged from the hospital today.

Chelsea helped her over to the bathroom.

Nora felt like her legs turned heavy. She did not dare look in the mirror,

However, Chelsea forced her to face her ruined face.

The moment Nora stood in front of the mirror and saw the hideous scars and twisted nose bridge on her face, she could not hold back her shrill cry of shock.

“Monster! Monster!”

She buried her face in her hands, but Chelsea did not let her cover her face.

“Avery Tate was the one who made your face this terrifying.”

Chelsea gritted her teeth and shoved Nora's face closer to the mirror. “Look at how hideous you look right now. Nobody will ever love you again! There's no longer any meaning to your life other than getting revenge on

Avery Tate!"

Through reddened eyes, Nora mumbled softly, "Revenge..."

"That's right. Revenge." Chelsea said in her ear, "I'll give you one last chance. If you succeed, I'll pay for you to get a new face. If you fail..."

"I'll definitely succeed! I won't keep this ugly face for the rest of my life!" Nora clenched her fists and cried, "I want a new face!"

Over at the Starry River Villa, Avery was looking through the calendar and discovered that she was exactly thirty weeks pregnant.

The baby would come to full term in another month.

Full term meant that the baby had reached a point in its development where it could be born at any time.

Mike had asked Avery the night before if she wanted to throw a baby shower.

She was feeling a little excited, so she sent a text message to Elliot to ask for his opinion.

In the end, she mistakenly sent the text to Tammy.

Tammy immediately called her after receiving the text.

“Avery! Great minds really do think alike! I was just about to text you! I just got a positive pregnancy test! I might be pregnant!”

“Congratulations, Tammy!” Avery exclaimed happily.

“I’m so nervous right now! I haven’t thought about how to tell Jun about this!” Tammy cried out in excitement. “You’re thinking about throwing a party, right? Maybe I’ll wait until the party to tell him! I’m coming over to see you right now!”

Avery waited the entire afternoon for Tammy to arrive, but she never did.

When she dialed Tammy’s number, she received nothing but the cold sound of a prompt telling her that the phone was turned off.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 692

“Why’s her phone off?” Avery mumbled softly to herself, then walked out of the house.

“Are you going out, Avery?” When the nanny saw her on the move, she quickly followed behind her.

“Tammy said she was coming over but she’s still not here yet. Even if there’s traffic, she should be here by now.” Avery walked past the front gates and looked around.

The nanny comforted her and said, “Maybe she’s gone to buy presents! She always brings all kinds of presents when she comes over.”

The nanny’s consoling words made Avery relax slightly.

“It’s windy out here, Avery. Let’s get back inside!” The nanny was worried that Avery would catch a cold. “Mr. Foster especially asked me to take good care of you and not let you get sick.”

“I stay at home every day now. I’m like a flower in a greenhouse. I’d get sick easier that way.” “You still shouldn’t be out here in this wind!” The nanny helped Avery back into the house.” It’s easy to get sick when the seasons change.”

“Is lunch ready?” Avery asked.

“It is. How about you eat first? We don’t know when Tammy’s arriving yet!”

“I’ll wait for a bit more.” Avery wondered out loud, “She doesn’t usually turn her phone off.”

“It’s easy to charge your phone nowadays, though. You could find charging stations everywhere,” Avery said. “I’ll wait for another thirty minutes. If she isn’t here by then, I’ll go look for her.”

“How are you going to find her if she’s out? You should just rest easy and wait at home. You can call her husband if she doesn’t show up and ask him to look for her,” said the nanny.”

Otherwise, you could also ask the driver to look around.”

Avery knew that the nanny did not want to let her leave the house because of the pressure from Elliot.

The more cautiously they treat her, the more uneasy she felt.

“I’ll bring you a bowl of soup. I made corn chowder today.”

The nanny went into the kitchen to get her some soup.

Avery sat down on the couch and continued calling Tammy, but she still could not get through.

She ended up texting Jun to ask what he was doing.

Jun: [I’m at work! I’m extra busy at the end of the year! I heard Elliot’s going on vacation soon. Tammy will nag me again, then. Sigh.]

Avery: [I’ll leave you to it, then!]

Jun: [Is something up? You’re not just asking for fun, are you?]

Avery: (It’s nothing for now.)

She would contact him again if she still could not reach Tammy.

About half an hour later, a black sedan pulled up outside the front gates.

Avery heard the car and immediately walked out to take a look.

When the car doors opened, Wesley and Shea emerged.

Avery was extremely surprised to see them.

“Wesley, Shea, why didn’t you let me know you were coming over?” She strode over to welcome them.

“Avery! I made a cake and brought it over for you!” Shea held up a small cake and showed her. “Wesley taught me how to make it.”

“You’re amazing, Shea. It looks even better than the ones they sell in bakeries !” Avery took over the cake as she genuinely praised Shea.

“Let me know how it tastes.” Shea held Avery’s hand with a face filled with excitement.” Wesley said you can’t eat too much cake, so I made it smaller.”

“Okay. I’m sure it tastes great.”

Once they entered the living room, Avery opened up the cake box, cut a small slice of cake and tasted it. “How is it?” Shea asked with a face filled with anticipation.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 693

“It’s really good. It’s not too sweet, so I can have more,” Avery praised as she took another bite. “You’re getting more amazing every day, Shea. What else do you want to learn?”

“I want to learn to drive, but Big Brother won’t let me.” Shea’s brows furrowed as she pleaded, “Could you help me beg Big Brother, Avery?”

Avery lifted her gaze and turned to Wesley.

“Is this why you two came over today?”

Wesley shook his head and said, “Shea came to give you the cake. I don’t agree with her learning to drive either.”

Avery turned to Shea and asked, “Why do you want to learn to drive, Shea? Aren’t you scared it might be so dangerous?”

“All of you know how to drive, so I want to learn, too. It won’t be dangerous as long as I don’t drive anywhere with too many people around.” Shea gazed at Avery with a pitiful expression and pleaded with her eyes.

At that moment, Avery’s phone rang.

She picked it up and saw that it was Elliot calling.

She showed her phone screen to Shea, then said, “I’ll talk to him about it, but there’s nothing I can do if he disagrees.”

Shea nodded with a big smile on her face.

Avery answered the phone and put it on speaker.

Elliot's voice instantly filled the room, "Have you had lunch, Avery?"

"Not yet... Tammy said she was coming to see me. I'm waiting for her." She cleared her throat, then said, "Shea wants to learn to drive. Why not let her try it out? You just have to tell her not to drive by herself."

"Is she at your place?" Elliot's voice turned stern.

"She is. She made me a cake." Avery ate another bite of the cake, then said, "It tastes amazing. You should try it when you get back." "I'll be coming back tomorrow. Let's talk about it when I'm back." It was clear from his tone that he did not want to let Shea learn to drive.

"Sure," Avery said, then was about to hang up the phone.

"It should be half past one there right now. Go and have lunch first," Elliot said.

"Got it." She ended the call and put her phone down. "It's no use even if I beg him, Shea."

She felt a little disappointed, but she was not angry.

"Wesley wouldn't let me learn to drive, either. You're the nicest to me, Avery."

“They won’t let you learn because they’re concerned for your safety. I haven’t had lunch yet. Let’s eat together!” Once Avery said that, the nanny immediately placed lunch on the table.

Time flew by, and it was two in the afternoon.

Wesley and Shea said their goodbyes.

“Shea has class in the afternoon. We’ll come see you again another time. You need to get more rest now. Go to the hospital right away if you don’t feel well.”

“I will. Drive safe.”

Once they left, Avery felt a sudden wave of fatigue as her eyelids grew heavy.

As she walked back toward the front door, she suddenly remembered that Tammy still had not arrived since telling her she was coming over!

Her back broke into a cold sweat. She hurried into the living room, picked up her phone and called Tammy “Sorry. The number you have dialed is switched off. Please try again later.”

Why did Tammy have her phone turned off for so long?

Could something have happened?

Avery called Jun without further hesitation.

“I can’t contact Tammy, Jun. She said she was coming over at eleven in the morning, but she still isn’t here yet. Her phone’s turned off,” Avery said, explaining the situation to Jun.

“She never turns her phone off!” Jun exclaimed in shock. “Could she have lost her phone or something?”

“I think something’s weird, too. Even if she did lose her phone, she should be here by now,” Avery said.

“Did you agree to meet at eleven this morning?”

“That’s right. I texted you earlier because I couldn’t reach her on the phone. Wesley and Shea dropped by to see me just now and I forgot about it for a moment. When I tried calling her again, I still couldn’t get through.”

Jun’s brows furrowed tightly as an ominous feeling rose inside of him. “I’ll call the house and ask.”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 694

Tammy was missing!

She disappeared after leaving the house at eleven that morning.

Jun was checking the surveillance cameras over at the traffic control department.

The cameras showed Tammy entering a mall in the city center. After she parked her car, she never exited the 46 mall.

This meant that something happened when she was inside the mall.

The mall had countless surveillance cameras, and there were also a lot of blind spots.

Jun left the traffic control department and rushed to the mall's control room.

When he got Avery's phone call, he took a deep breath, then answered it.

“Tammy's car is still in the mall's parking lot. She went missing while she was in the mall.”

“How could she just vanish like that?!” Avery took in a sharp breath.

She wanted to ask if Tammy could have been kidnapped, but she was too afraid to say it.

Jun felt a lump in his throat.

“She must have been kidnapped! Back when I was hiring bodyguards, I wanted to hire a personal bodyguard for her. She said she doesn't work and sometimes spends all day at home, so she didn't need a bodyguard. I shouldn't have listened to her!”

Tammy was the heiress to Lynch Department Store. She did not take over her father's business, but his estate would definitely be left to her.

With her net worth, it was not a problem at all to get a bodyguard.

People always thought they were the exception when they were not in danger.

“Don’t be upset, Jun. Since something happened to Tammy while she was in the mall, let’s take a look at the mall’s surveillance cameras!” Avery s dup her and prepared to leave the house. “I’ll come over and check with you.”

Jun was hurting, but he still had his reason. “You don’t have to come, Avery. I can check the cameras myself. I’ll let you know right away if I find anything.”

At that moment, Mike walked over and took the bag out of Avery’s hand.

“Stay at home and wait! Wouldn’t it be even worse if something happened to you, too?”

Avery was frozen in place.

“It’s my fault... If I didn’t text Tammy, then she wouldn’t have decided to come see me at the last minute...” she mumbled softly. Then, her voice suddenly rose as she said, “Tammy’s pregnant. She’s pregnant!”

On the other end of the line, Jun exploded in shock as if he had taken a huge blow.

Tammy was pregnant ?

“Jun! Hurry up and find Tammy! You have to find her!” Avery was yelling uncontrollably.” She told me she’s pregnant! Find her right now!”

“I got it! I got it!” Jun let out a raging roar, then hung up the phone.

Avery stood at the doorway as her chest rose and fell rapidly.

Mike saw her flushed face and distressed breathing, and immediately went up to hold her.

“Keep it together, Avery! We’ll find Tammy. Sit on the couch and catch your breath first!”

“It must’ve been Chelsea Tierney... I must’ve been her!” Avery clenched her fists tightly. She could not calm down at all. “I want to go find Chelsea Tierney!”

Chelsea lost her bargaining chip against Avery when Nora was disfigured. With Chelsea’s tough character, she definitely would not let this go easily.

Avery had stayed home recently and never left the house, so Chelsea had no way of getting to her.

She must have switched her target to Tammy!

That must be it!

When Mike saw that Avery was about to rush out, he quickly picked her up and carried her over to the couch.

“Avery Tate! Calm yourself down! It’s night out. Are you thinking of going over to Chelsea Tierney’s house now? Do you think she would confess? It’d be a waste of time!” Mike sat Avery down on the couch, then loomed over her and said, “If you can’t calm down, then call Elliot Foster! Let him step up!”

“What can he do?! He’s abroad right now!” Avery’s emotions were in a frenzy and she shoved Mike aside. “If we don’t rescue Tammy tonight, I don’t want to imagine the consequences!” Zoe and Nora’s fates were the best examples!

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 695

Chelsea was vicious and savage. Anyone who fell into her hands would not end up well,

“... I’ll get Chad to get Ben to go find Chelsea Tierney!” There was no way Mike was letting Avery go see Chelsea. “She wants nothing but for something bad to happen to you. Wouldn’t going to her now be looking for trouble for yourself?”

Mike’s voice echoed through the entire villa.

The expressions on Hayden and Layla’s faces turned sullen.

“Don’t go out, Mommy,” Hayden said in a deep voice

“Listen to Uncle Mike and Hayden, Mommy. Stay at home like a good girl!” Layla begged softly as she held her mother’s hand.

The appearance of her children made reason return into Avery’s mind.

“I won’t go out.” She gave in and stood from the couch. “I’m going to take a shower.”

She was so anxious that she felt like her heart was on fire.

She wanted to do something, but her entire body felt heavy.

When she was anxious to leave the house earlier, the baby kept kicking her as if he knew something was happening.

Avery returned to her bedroom and shut the door. She leaned back powerlessly against the door and breathed deeply.

Was there really nothing she could do?

If she were in trouble, Tammy would definitely come up with an idea to save her.

She could not just sit at home like this...

Suddenly, Avery’s phone rang and snapped her back to reality.

After she answered the call, Elliot’s powerful voice came through the phone.

“Don’t freak out, Avery. I’ve already sent people out to search for Tammy! We’ll find her even if we have to turn the entire city upside down!”

His words left her slightly breathless.

“I wanted to text you earlier, but ended up sending the message to Tammy instead. She only decided to come see me after she saw my text...”

“She was abducted, Avery. Even if they did not act today, they would do it tomorrow or the next day. This has nothing to do with you!” Elliot corrected Avery’s erroneous thoughts.

“Why don’t you think it’s got anything to do with me?” Avery retorted hoarsely. “Apart from Chelsea, I can’t think of anyone else who would do this! Tammy would never have been abducted if she were not my best friend!”

“Ben’s gone to look for Chelsea...”

“Do you think that would do anything?” Avery’s eyes were cold, but her tone was colder. “Do you think I don’t know the relationship between Ben and Chelsea? If I weren’t carrying your child right now, you wouldn’t even care about Tammy’s life or death at all!”

Elliot stayed silent for a few seconds and did not argue with her.

“I’m coming back right away. Wait for me.”

Avery took a deep breath, then hung up the phone.

She dragged her heavy legs into the bathroom.

She turned on the tap and washed her face.

The thought that Tammy might be getting tortured right now made Avery's heart ache.

Her phone screen suddenly lit up. She glanced warily over at the phone and saw Tammy's name flashing on the screen!

Avery thought she was dreaming! She quickly picked up the phone and answered the call.

Once the video call was connected, an unfamiliar environment popped up on the phone screen.

It was a dark storage room with a bunch of unbelievably dirty men in it. These men were watching with greedy eyes at a woman who was lying on the ground...

Tammy! The woman on the ground was Tammy!

“Tammy! Wake up, Tammy!” Avery shrieked at the top of her lungs. When she saw that Tammy did not move a muscle, her nails dug into the palm of her hands. “Let go of Tammy! Let her go! I'll give you anything you want!”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 696

What replied to her was endless silence.

The person who kidnapped Tammy seemed to want nothing from Avery. If not, they would not be silent.

Avery looked at the excited and restless men in the video. They were like a pack of wolves rushing toward Tammy. Avery's scalp felt numb. Her blood was boiling. Her body trembled uncontrollably!

A sense of desperation on the verge of death overwhelmed her. It was as if someone held a blunt knife and stabbed her over and over again!

Mike heard her hysterical shrieks and quickly ran over to her room! He rushed into her room and saw Avery bent forward while holding onto the door of the bathroom.

"Avery! Are you alright?" Mike ran over to help her. Seeing how blue her face was, a bad feeling instantly arose in his heart. "Are you going into labor? I'll send you to the hospital."

Mike wanted to lift her up, but Avery's body tensed. She spat a few words out with difficulty, "Call an ambulance..."

"Avery, don't frighten me! Stand there, don't move. I'll go get an ambulance!" Mike said and quickly ran to look for his phone.

Soon after, the ambulance arrived.

Avery was sent into the ambulance. Mike followed them with another car. The two children stay at home. Mike had already called Chad to get him to come to take care of these children.

In fact, the children did not need to be taken care of. They were good children. They went to bed at night every night on their own. However, something had happened to Avery at that moment. They must be frightened.

Mike could not take them along to the hospital, it would make things even messier that way.

“Hayden, is our little brother coming out soon?” Layla muttered.

Hayden looked at the dark skies outside with a cold expression. He said in a low voice, “Something has happened to Aunt Tammy.”

Avery’s hysterical shrieks were still ringing in his ears. Layla thought that Avery was about to go into labor, but Hayden knew that Avery was in so much pain because of Tammy.

“What happened to Aunt Tammy? Hayden, I don’t want anything to happen to Aunt Tammy.” Layla pouted rather disappointedly.

“Aunt Tammy has been taken away by bad people, but the police will rescue her.” Hayden held Layla’s hand and took her upstairs, returning to their room. “In the future, don’t just run around on your own. You have to take the bodyguard with you.”

“Hayden, why are there so many bad people?” Layla sniffled sadly.

“There are not many bad people,” Hayden explained, “It was always only that one person.”

“Oh...will they be punished?”

“Yes.”

Layla let out a sigh of relief and climbed into bed. “Hayden, is our little brother coming out soon? When Mike called the doctor, I heard him saying.”

Hayden stood by the side of the bed. His dark eyes had mixed emotions. “Maybe, I don’t know either.”

“Hayden, hugs!” Layla was suddenly coquettish, “If our little brother comes out, you have to love me the most! You cannot love him more than me.”

Hayden hugged Layla. “I will definitely love you the most.”

When Chad rushed over, the kids had already turned off the light and gone to bed.

He went to the living area and called Mike. Mike answered the call. He asked, “How are the children?”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 697

“They went to bed, but Hayden is not asleep yet,” Chad said, “I was afraid that I would disturb him, so I didn’t talk to him.”

“Oh, Hayden is quite mature, he understands a lot. He surely won’t be able to sleep.” Mike was standing outside the emergency room at that moment. His mind was a mess. “Avery’s mood affected the child. She might go into labor tonight.”

“Wouldn’t that be a premature delivery?” Chad furrowed his brows. “Will the child be alright?”

“I’m not worried about that. I’m only worried about Avery. You didn’t see how terrible she looked, yet she was still worried about Tammy...” Mike was pacing back and forth in the corridor.

“Give Ben a call, see how he is getting on with Chelsea.”

If Tammy could not be rescued, even if Avery gave birth to the child, it would still weigh heavily on her mind.

“I’m guessing nothing has happened.” Chad knew Chelsea too well. “If Chelsea was the one that did it unless we placed the evidence in front of her, she would never admit it. Talking sense into her or playing the friendship card, would never work.”

“Avery is adamant that Chelsea was the one who did it. What do you think?” Mike asked.

“I can understand how Avery feels, but I don’t dare to come to any rash conclusions,” Chad said cautiously, “You said that child could be delivered tonight. Did you take the maternity kit over?”

“No,”

“Why don’t I send them over right now?” Chad said, “Get the bodyguard to keep watch at home. It should be fine.”

“Okay! The maternity kit is in Avery’s room. Go look for it.”

“Okay.”

In a high-end luxury condominium, Ben was looking at Chelsea seriously.

“Jun is my junior. He respects me a lot and I treat him like a younger brother. Tammy is his wife, so I have always treated Tammy like my sister-in-law.”

“What is the point of you telling me all this? I am not interested in your relationship with them.” Chelsea brought two wine glasses over. She passed one to Ben. “Don’t tell me you think that Tammy’s incident has something to do with me?”

“Chelsea, this thing better has nothing to do with you.” Ben’s gaze was sharp. He did not accept her wine. “If it has anything to do with you, without mentioning Elliot not forgiving you, I won’t forgive you as well. If one does not have a bottom line, what difference is there from a wild animal?”

The word animal made the elegance of Chelsea’s face vanish.

“Why are you suspecting me? Just because I did one bad thing, so the other ninety-nine things were done by me?” Chelsea looked at Ben angrily. “Ben, since when have we become like that?”

“Ever since you brought Nora back. You have always been a smart person, but this move is extremely stupid,” Ben mocked, “If I were you, I would never have let my cousin do her face up to become like Avery. Don’t you feel uncomfortable just by looking at it?”

“She wants to make her face up to become like Avery, what does that have to do with me? That’s her life! It’s her choice! Do you think I could really instruct her as I wish! If I were that great, why can’t I get the man that I want!”

Chelsea downed her red wine in one go. Her eyes were wet.

“He doesn’t love you. No matter what you do, he will never love you! This is such a simple thing, why don’t you understand?”

Ben snatched the wine glass over from her and put them on the table. “Chelsea, I’m warning you for the last time. If Tammy is in your hands, you better let her go soon! Don’t risk your life just for a moment of showing off!”

Ben strode away

Chelsea looked at the shut door. She smiled bitterly. Once she has started, there is no turning back anymore. Even if she knew how terrible the consequences were, she could not stop.

She was in pain every day, so how could she let Avery live happily?

At that hospital, after Chad sent the maternity kit over, Mike pulled him out of the ward.

“She is showing signs of premature labor. The doctor got her to stay in the hospital to observe.

“Oh! My goodness! I thought she was really going to deliver!”
Chad breathed heavily.

“She is in a terrible mood. The doctor gave her a sedative for her to sleep.” Mike furrowed his brows. “Have we found Tammy yet?” Chad shook his head. “Chelsea said that this has nothing to do with her.”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 698

“You guessed it right. As long as there is no evidence, she will never admit to it,” Mike said sarcastically.

“After all, nothing good can come out of admitting to it.” Chad looked at the time. “Why don’t you go and rest a bit?”

“Do you think I can fall asleep?” Mike glanced at the ward. “Once she’s up, if Tammy is still not found, she will definitely lose it. The doctor has said that she can’t be too agitated right now, if not she will go into premature labor. She has already bled.”

“Bled?” Chad was 46 stunned.

“Yes, bled. The doctor said that this is a sign of premature labor.” Mike crossed his hands on his waist. “When is Elliot coming back?”

“He’ll reach by tomorrow morning at seven,” Chad said, “I hope that Avery can sleep until the next 34 morning.”

“So, what, if she sleeps until the next morning? The main point is Tammy is missing. What if the people who kidnapped her had done something to her? The consequences are unimaginable. Think of Zoe. Then think of Nora. They were Chelsea's doing." Mike gritted his teeth. "How could Tammy go through such torture?"

Chad's eyes turned cold. "I'll go look for Jun."

At the mall's surveillance room. Jun has gone through an entire night of surveillance. He has looked at every exit multiple times, yet he has not seen Tammy leaving.

The mall has been swept from every corner, yet Tammy was nowhere to be found.

When Chad saw Jun, he saw Jun's reddened eyes and utter sadness.

"Tammy is pregnant. She barely even had the time to tell me..." Jun said with tears flowing. "Don't look at her always talking so loudly, she's especially timid. She must be extremely afraid right now! I really want to bear the pain for her! That bunch of bastards! Don't let me catch them, if not I will chop them into 23 pieces!"

"Tammy should still be in Avonsville. I asked the train stations and airports. No one has any news on Tammy."

"Where she is right now is not the main point. The main point is whether those bunch of bastards bully her or not!" Jun turned around and wiped his tears. "I didn't protect her well enough. I'm always so busy working that I don't spend much time with her. I should've hired a bodyguard for her."

“Jun, don’t be too sad. Ben has already gone to warn Chelsea. Chelsea will not dare to hurt Tammy,” Chad said, meaning he was already sure that Chelsea was the one who planned the kidnap

“It was Chelsea?” Jun clenched his fists tightly, rage burning in him.

Chad said, “Avery suspects that it is her.”

“I think that it’s her too! The things that she has done to Avery previously, it’s not something a normal person would do! She must have gone mad from jealousy, which was why she kept doing all these!” Jun said angrily, “She couldn’t find any other way to deal with Avery, so she went for the people around her! On top of that, Tammy has slapped her before, she must be loathing her!”

Chad said, “Mr. Foster will be back soon. Once he is back, he will surely help you look for Tammy.”

Jun took a deep breath and suppressed his heartbroken emotions. “Is Avery still alright?”

“She’s not too well. She’s beating herself up even more than you because he thinks that Chelsea was the one who did it. Tammy and Chelsea had no grudges, it was because of her they fought. She’s at the hospital right now, showing signs of premature labor.”

“She’s not in the wrong! The person who is in the wrong is that crazy woman!” Jun clenched his fist and punched the wall. “If anything were to happen to Tammy, I’ll kill Chelsea!”

At four in the morning, Avery woke up in alarm.

When she got up, she looked around at the foreign environment. Her memories came back slowly to her. Tammy was missing. She did not know if there was any news about her at that moment.

Tammy furrowed her brows. She flipped the covers aside and got down from the bed. She anxiously walked over to the entrance and opened the door. Mike appeared before her eyes.

“Why are you out of bed?” Mike said, surprised. He held her arms. “Go back to bed and lie down. The doctor says you need bed rest.”

Avery shrugged his hand away, unwilling to cooperate. “Is Tammy found already? How is she?” Avery’s eyes reddened. Her chest heaving quickly.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 699

Mike has long guessed that Avery would ask this one she was up.

Unless she passed out, if not she would not rest properly in bed.

“I haven’t heard any news yet, but don’t worry, the police are searching for her. She will definitely be found by daylight.” Mike assured her.

When Avery heard that there was no news yet, she fumbled and swayed listlessly, as if her soul has been sucked away.

“Avery, go to bed and lie down. What happens if you go into premature labor?” Mike carried her and placed her in bed. “Your child is only eight months old. If you were to give birth to it now, although it will survive, it still has to be in an incubator. You’re a doctor, you should know that premature children get sick easily. Do you want to see your child suffer?”

Mike’s words caused her body to stiffen. She wanted to go look for Tammy, but she had to care for the child in her tummy too. She tried to control her own emotions, but she could not do it no matter how she tried.

Tears streamed down her face. Her fingers clenched the covers tightly.

Mike stood next to her by the bed, looking at how much pain she was in. He was heartbroken.

He wanted to comfort her, but Tammy was not found yet, no matter what he said was pointless. He could only sit next to her and wait with her silently.

That night was a very long one.

When it was almost dawn, Avery finally fell asleep. The door was suddenly pushed open. Chad brought breakfast and entered.

“You haven’t slept the entire night, right?” Chad measured him up. “Have some breakfast then go back and rest! I’ll keep watch here. In an hour or so, Mr. Foster will be²³ here.”

Mike held the cup of coffee. He furrowed his brow and asked, “Is Tammy still not found yet?”

“No. She is almost missing twenty-four hours already. I’m afraid things are not looking good, “Chad said in a low voice.

“F*ck! If Avery knows about this, she is going to lose it.” Mike instantly lost his appetite. “I’ll wait for Elliot to come before leaving. I’m afraid that if she suddenly wakes up and gets upset, you won’t be able to help her.”

Chad nodded. “You’re right.”

An hour later, Elliot rushed to the hospital, looking worn down from traveling. Once he entered the war, Avery seemed to have sensed his presence. She immediately opened her eyes.

When Elliot saw her reddened and puffy eyes, it was as if he was being choked. He was so overwhelmed he felt suffocated.

“Avery, don’t be sad.” Elliot held her cold hands and said hoarsely, “I promise you that we will find Tammy before dark.”

When Avery heard the word Tammy, she lost it. “Elliot, Tammy has been bullied with such cruel tactics! It’s Chelsea. It must be her! Go and look for her right now!”

“Okay, I’ll go look for her.” Elliot saw her tears and he completely lost his senses. “Wait for me here.”

Outside the door, Chad received a call.

After the call, he saw Elliot coming out of the ward. He immediately went forward and reported to Elliot in a low voice, “Mr. Foster, we found Tammy. S-She has been raped. Her body suffered huge damage, also...she had a miscarriage.”

Chad’s voice was extremely soft, but Avery still heard him.

She stood by the door, breathing heavily with a pained expression.

Then, her breathing got quicker!

“Avery! Are you alright!” Elliot was terrified. He picked her up. His palm on her lower half felt something hot, wet, and sticky...

lagot the doctor!” Elliot barked and carried Avery into her ward. He carefully placed her on the bed.

Avery's pants were wet. Elliot looked at his palms. Thankfully it was not blood!

"Has my water broken..." Avery sobbed terribly. "Elliot, I'm sorry. I'm very sad. I can't control myself..."

If her water has broken, the child has to be given birth immediately. Avery's child was only eight months old. If the child was born at that moment, it was considered premature labor. Premature labor came with a series of 48 complications.

She knew that she was late into her pregnancy, she should not be so upset, she should have controlled her emotions to ensure the child's health, but she could not control herself.:

"Avery, don't cry. Your water breaking is not a huge thing. We'll just give birth to the child, that's all." Elliot took some tissues and wiped away her tears. "Tammy has been located. She is not in any danger. Once you've given birth to your child, I'll take you to see her."

Avery choked up and responded.

Soon, the doctor arrived. Once the doctor checked up on her, they immediately pushed her into the operation theater.

Elliot looked at the shut operation theater doors. His heart constricted tightly.

“Mr. Foster, don’t worry. Avery and the child will be fine,” Chad comforted him.

Elliot swallowed his saliva. He said sternly, “It’s best if that was the case. If anything happens to her and the child, I’ll make sure that the culprit behind this incident will die together!”

Chad said, “Ben has gone to look for Chelsea. She denied that this was her doing.”

“Without any evidence, of course, she won’t admit it!” Elliot said coldly. “Tammy’s body has evidence of the crime. If we investigate this, we will find evidence!”

They were discussing while Mike was yawning by the side. He had not slept for the entire night. At that moment he could barely keep his eyes open.

Tammy has been found. Avery was going into labor. The worst stage has passed. He believed that modern medicine would ensure Avery’s and the child’s safety.

“I’ll go back to catch up on sleep.” Mike greeted them. “When I get up, I’ll bring the children over.”

“Let me send you back! You’re not in a good shape right now. I’m afraid that you’ll get in an accident.” Chad was worried for Mike, so he left together with him.

Soon after they left, Wesley rushed over after hearing the news. Soon after he arrived, the child was born.

Because it was cesarean section labor, after the birth of the child, the surgery did not end there immediately.

The child was a premature baby. After birth, Elliot only managed to take one glance at the child before it was sent to the neonatal unit by the nurse.

The child was small. It was so small Elliot was heartbroken. He even doubted whether the child could survive.

Wesley saw Elliot's wet eyes. He immediately comforted Elliot, "Eight months old premature babies usually won't have any huge complications. Let it be in the incubator for a month or two and it will grow like a normal baby. Don't worry."

"What can I do?" Elliot muttered softly.

"Take good care of Avery," Wesley said, "Although Tammy has been found, the damage is done. You have to properly talk to Avery, be careful of postpartum depression."

Elliot nodded.

"A cesarean section is more damaging to the mother compared to natural birth. Don't let her leave the ward for at least two days after the surgery. No matter what, you have to let her body heal first," Wesley said, "She can only be discharged once the doctor says so."

After a while, the operation theater doors were open. Avery was pushed out and sent to the intensive care unit.
