

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 606

When Avery heard Elliot's voice, a chill ran down her back.

Did Elliot not go to work, or did he wait for her to wake up at home?

Avery awkwardly turned around and looked at him. Elliot was in a suit, with a serious expression on his face.

The sun shone in through the window and fell on him, yet it made him look even more aloof.

"I did take your phone to send out an email," Avery came clean, "I'll admit that it's wrong of me to take your phone without your permission, but you did not talk to me before you boycotted Eric."

Avery admitted her mistakes, but she did not regret making them.

"Avery..."

"Why are you calling me? Are you trying to settle a score with me? I didn't say I wanted to stay with you last night, you thug!" Avery raised her chin and retorted, "If I were you, I would shut up and just let this thing go."

Elliot was at a loss of words upon hearing what Avery said.

Mrs. Cooper saw how they were arguing, she immediately came over to pacify the situation. "Avery, lunch is ready. You should be hungry, right? Come and have lunch!"

Avery's stomach grumbled before Avery could refuse. She did not have breakfast that morning, so she was famished at that moment.

Ever since she got pregnant, her appetite increased tremendously. Even at times, she might feel slightly nauseated, but that did not affect her appetite<sup>23</sup> either.

Elliot at that moment felt as if a bucket of cold water had just been doused over him. All his emotions calmed down.

"Master Elliot, go have some food too! Don't get angry with Avery. She's pregnant with a child now and it's tough for her too." After Avery left for the dining hall, Mrs. Cooper went to Elliot and took over the cup of coffee from him.

Mrs. Cooper's advice worked.

So, what if Avery took his phone and emailed reporters? It was not as if she sent out his nudes. It was just a slight humiliation. Compared to his embarrassment, the child in Avery was obviously more important.

in the dining hall. They sat opposite each other.

Avery was starving, so she buried her head and ate with vigor.

"Slow down, don't choke on your food," Elliot reminded with furrowed brows.

Avery paused for a while before calmly scooping a spoonful of soup and drinking it down.

Perhaps she had enough food already, she suddenly felt like talking to him.

“Elliot, I heard that you have a new staff member that looks like me.”

“Are you talking about Chelsea’s cousin?”

“Do you think she looks like me?” Avery placed the bowl of soup down and calmly looked at him.

Elliot said, “Only on the outside.”

“Oh, do you think she looks better than me?”

Elliot looked up at her. “Have you had enough food already? You’re asking such lame questions.”

“Why are you not answering me? If you say that she looks prettier, I won’t do anything to you. I’m not like you, who gets angry so easily,” Avery provoked, forcing Elliot to answer her question.

Elliot put down the utensils in his hand. He wiped his mouth with a napkin and said seriously, “If I think that she’s prettier than you to the point that it’s dazzling, the woman laying next to me in my bed last night would be her and not you.”

Avery was speechless. He could have just answered the question. Why must he bring up the incident the night before?

Looking at her scrunched-up brows, Elliot teased, “Now who’s the one who said that they don’t get angry easily?”

“I’m not angry. I just think that this is a little disgusting,” Avery said what was making her unhappy, “Could it be that they think I attracted you because of my looks? How absurd. I am so much better on the inside.”

Looking at how self-absorbed she was, the coldness in his eyes vanished. He teased in a hoarse voice, “Yes, I was dazzled by your inner beauty last night.”

Avery had goosebumps upon hearing what Elliot said.

“I’m full. I’ll make a move first.” “I’ll send you off.” Elliot got up and chased after her.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 607

“No need.” Avery regretted it terribly. She should not have chatted with him. At that moment, not only could she not continue the conversation, but she was also feeling awkward too.

“Avery, I still have something to talk to you about. I’ll send you home. We can talk on the way, “Elliot’s tone was unquestionable.

Avery grabbed her bag and followed behind him. Coming out of the mansion, he reached his hand out to her. “Pass me the keys.”

“How are you going to come back later?” After asking this question, Avery saw from the corner of her eyes that his bodyguard had driven another car<sup>46</sup> over.

Avery sighed secretly. No matter where Elliot went, his bodyguard would follow along. Why did she need to worry about him?

After getting in the car, Elliot drove the car calmly. After the meal, Avery's blood sugar spiked, so she was a little<sup>34</sup> dizzy.

"Avery, what are your plans for the children during their summer break?" Elliot asked the question he wanted to discuss with Avery about.

Avery furrowed her brows and suddenly she was no longer groggy. Elliot was so concerned for Hayden and Layla. Did he already know that they were hiscd children?

Looking at how sensitive her reaction was, Elliot could not help but explain, "You're pregnant now. It'll be harder to care for the kids. Why don't you sign them up for summer camp?"

"Oh, Hayden's school has arranged his summer holidays. As for Layla, I haven't decided whether I want to sign her up for any summer activities," Avery said conflictingly.

"You can discuss it with her, see what she wants to do."

"I know. You don't have to worry about this." Avery looked at Elliot's side profile. She hesitated for two seconds before saying, "Elliot, if you really want me to properly stay healthy for the child, you will stop bullying my<sup>23</sup> friends."

Elliot furrowed his brows. "Avery, the people you should warn are your friends. They were the ones that made me angry in the first place."

"Of course, I'll tell them to stay as far away from you as possible, but can you control your temper?" Avery said seriously.

"In your heart, your friends are always more important than me."

Avery's temples hurt. What was the point in comparing?

To prove that he indeed wanted Avery to stay healthy for the child and not make her angry, Elliot turned on the music and ended the argument.

Elliot drove to the Starry River Villa, but he did not enter together with Avery. When Avery entered and changed shoes, she saw Elliot getting into the bodyguard's car from the corner of her eye.

This man was indeed stubborn and proud. If he insisted that he was not in the wrong, even if you grabbed his head, he would never admit that he was in the wrong.

“Avery, have you eaten?” The nanny asked her immediately when she saw Avery returning.

“Yes.” Avery sat on the sofa and saw a few letters on the coffee table.

“Hayden took this home last night,” The nanny explained, “Also, Layla's summer break is starting tomorrow. Mike went to attend her school activity today.”

Avery opened the letter. It was detailed information about the summer camp. She looked at where the summer camp was happening, it was in Bridgedale.

Avery could accompany Hayden to Bridgedale. Then, she would see if Hayden could adapt to the summer camp activities. If he could fit in, she would return alone. If not, she would bring Hayden back together with her.

In the afternoon, Avery drove to her office. The moment she entered the office, the vice president pushed and entered her office too.

“Miss Tate, the live stream last night was amazing! Our sales increased tremendously today!” The vice president smiled widely. “There are rumors on the internet saying that this is a tactic that you did with Elliot. Now the entire internet knows about our company!”

Avery laughed self-deprecatingly. “Then should we have given Elliot some commission?”

The smile on the vice president stiffened. “Did you really join forces with Elliot?!”

Avery said, “Can you use your brain for a second? Do you think that’s possible?”

The vice president said, “It’s possible! Isn’t the father of the child in you Elliot? The entire company knows about it!”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 608

Avery was stunned.

“Initially everyone was just privately discussing who the father of your child is. Last night, Elliot suddenly arrived. Although he said nothing, he kept looking at you. It’s too obvious!” The vice president chuckled.

Avery said, “Eric was also looking at me last night.”.

“That’s different. If the child is Eric’s why would Elliot continue harping over you? Elliot is not the type who would let himself lose.” The vice president said46 vividly.

Avery opened her laptop.

The vice president continued, “Elliot boycotted Eric. So many big brands chose to cancel their contract with Eric because they did not dare to defy him. Only our company would dare to do so, why? Because you’re pregnant with his 34 child.

“Last night during the live stream, many called me to ask me to advise you to not be so rash. They said that Elliot would surely come looking for us for trouble. Look at today’s headlines! I was laughing my head off!”
“Miss Tate, the scandal this time made our company the biggest winner.”

Avery opened her email to look at the job reports for the day. The sales last night were higher than the sales of the previous month. No wonder the vice president was so happy.

“If this trend continues, as long as our core technology won’t be surpassed by others, Wanda won’t be able to defeat us,” The vice president said confidently, “Eric is now our spokesperson. He has a huge fan base! Although he has been boycotted, that does not affect his fans buying our products to avenge him.”

Avery nodded. “I’m going abroad the day after tomorrow.”

“Okay. Miss Tate, your tummy is getting bigger by the day. You don’t need to come to the office. Don’t tire yourself from traveling. I will let you know at first notice if anything happens,” The vice president<sup>23</sup> said.

Avery said, “Thank you.”

“The company is progressing so well, it’s all thanks to you,” The vice president lamented, “If your father in heaven could see how well you managed Tate Industries, he would be relieved.”

Avery lowered her gaze. She hoped her father could rest in peace.

During the evening, a black Rolls-Roice drove into the old Foster mansion. Ever since his mother passed away, Elliot has never come over anymore.

That night, his brother called him and insisted that he came over.

Elliot got out of the car and strode into the living area. Other than Henry and his family, Zoe was there too.

When Zoe met Elliot’s eyes, she immediately looked down.

“Elliot! You haven’t come for quite a long time! Let’s go have a meal and we can talk over it,” Henry said affectionately.

They entered the dining hall and sat down.

Henry cleared his throat and said, “Elliot, I called you over today because there is something important that I need to tell you. Zoe is pregnant with Cole’s child for about more than a month. Initially, I’m against them being together, but now that Zoe is pregnant...”

Elliot had no reaction on his face. “That’s good. I remembered that Zoe said she could not get pregnant easily. Since she got pregnant, she should give birth to the child.”

Henry let out a sigh of relief upon Elliot's reply. "I plan to wait until at least three months then I'll let them get engaged. As for the wedding, we could do it after the child is born. What do you think about that?"

Elliot said, "Just let me know once you set the date."

Henry said, "Okay! We brothers have not drank together for a long time! We have to drink tonight!"

Elliot raised his glass and took a sip.

An hour later, the drunk Henry was brought back to his room by his wife.

Elliot has drunk quite a bit too. His handsome face had a shade of red.

"Elliot." Zoe chased after him to the front yard. "I have really loved you previously. Even if you're the unattainable President of the Sterling Group, I still love you! My love for you is definitely not less than Chelsea's or Avery's love for you, yet why are you so cruel to me?"

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 609

"That's because you're stupid." Elliot was drunk, so he did not mince his words. "I gave you three hundred million dollars. You could have done something with it, yet you chose to mix with Cole. That proves that you two are birds of the same feather."

His words brutally hurt Zoe!

The 300 million dollars was long taken away by Avery!

If Zoe still had the 300 million dollars, why did she have to compromise to get Cole to be with her by using the child in her?

Cole was the man with the best conditions that she could find at that moment.

The bodyguard helped Elliot into the car. Soon, the Rolls-Royce disappeared into the dark night.

Zoe raised her hand to wipe her tears away.

Not far away behind her, Cole had both hands in his pocket. He said coldly, "Zoe, look at yourself! You embarrass me! My uncle has long abandoned you, why do you make yourself look like a sad dog! The man that you need to please now is me!"

Upon hearing his mocks, Zoe turned around. "Cole, when I had money, you wouldn't dare talk to me like that!"

"You don't have any money anymore! You won't be able to earn that much money in the future too! You should accept the reality and just bear me children. All you need to do is take good care of my parents. I won't treat you badly." Cole looked at her like he was doing charity. "You're not getting any younger soon, stop having unrealistic dreams. I'm willing to marry you and that should be your honor!"

Zoe broke down and cried. After her falling out with Wanda, Wanda completely abandoned her and her father.

Zoe's father was heartbroken and returned to Bridgedale. Zoe was not willing to return to Bridgedale just like that. Coincidentally, she felt uncomfortable and found out that she was pregnant, so she used that to tie Cole<sup>23</sup> down.

Perhaps Cole was right. Her life would just be like that for the rest of her life!

At the Starry River Villa, after Avery showered, she started packing for Hayden's summer camp.

Layla was following beside her, busy as a bee.

"Layla, do you want to join a summer camp like Hayden?" Avery smiled and asked.

Layla shook her head without thinking. "Mommy, didn't Uncle Eric tell you that he is taking me out during the summer holidays?"

Avery was stunned. "Did he say that to you?"

"Yes! He asked if I wanted to be on an entertainment program with him. He said we could have fun while earning money..."

"Layla, this is huge! Why did you only tell me now?" Avery was stunned, "Are you sure you want to be on a program? Will you be afraid?"

"If I'm with Uncle Eric, I won't be afraid. Mommy! Let me go play, please!" Layla blinked her huge innocent eyes. "I told Hayden about this. He said I should go if I wanted to, if not I would surely disturb you at home, Mommy."

“So, I’m the last to know about this?” Avery had a look of disbelief. She paused for a while and said sternly, “I don’t agree...” Layla immediately pecked a kiss on Avery’s cheek. “Mommy, just let me go! I want to experience earning money!”

Avery was speechless.

A day later, Avery brought Hayden along on a flight to Bridgedale. Layla, on the other hand, followed Eric to a city to film their entertainment program.

When Elliot knew about these two matters, his expression turned extremely cold!

It was one thing for Avery not to report to him for leaving the country. Who allowed her to let Layla enter the entertainment industry?

Did Avery really think that he did not know that Layla was his daughter? She was forcing him to expose this thin facade!

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 610

Chad could guess why Elliot was angry. He immediately explained, “Avery did not want Lavla to go into entertainment. It was Layla who pleaded and insisted on trying it out. You know it too. Layla is so adorable. Few could truly refuse her.”

“Layla might be immature, but is Avery? Avery is her mother. She should guide her child, not spoil her!” Elliot said sternly.

Chad said, “If Layla were to come and plead with you, can you do it without being unbiased?”

Elliot’s expressions darkened. “Let’s not talk about whether I can do it or not. I realized that your loyalties are starting to lie somewhere<sup>46</sup> else!”

Chad immediately stated his stance. “Definitely not. I’m only putting myself in Avery’s shoes. If Layla were to come and plead with me, I would definitely give in to her. After all, she is so adorable. I have never seen a cuter girl than her.”

Chad’s ass-kissing instantly wiped away Elliot’s<sup>34</sup> anger.

Elliot knew that Layla was adorable. After all, Layla looked like Avery. Avery has often made him angry, but he has never once truly taken any action against her. If Avery shrunk a few times smaller, becoming like Layla, he would only become even more soft-hearted.

“It must be that baby face, Eric, that instigated this!” Elliot said with furrowed brows, “If he did not look for Layla, Layla wouldn’t have done<sup>c</sup> this.”

Chad nodded. “Yes, this move of Eric is too manipulative! He didn’t discuss it with Avery because he knew that Avery wouldn’t agree to it. After all, Avery is not short of cash. She would definitely not let Layla go into the entertainment industry to sell herself. Eric directly persuaded Layla instead, catching Avery off guard!”

Elliot clenched his fists tightly. His gaze<sup>e</sup> darkened.

Chad was afraid that Elliot would do anything rash, he reminded Elliot, “Mr. Foster, you were forced to say that you would not target Eric in the future only a few days ago, so...don’t do anything that would embarrass yourself anymore.”

Perhaps Eric did cross a line by getting Layla into the entertainment industry, but Chad felt that Eric would definitely take good care of Layla.

Elliot picked up his cup of water and took a gulp, forcing himself to suppress his anger.

“Avery went to Bridgedale to send Hayden over. According to her, she would be back in two days,” Chad continued, “Avery was afraid that Hayden would not be able to fit in summer camp, so she went with him.”

Elliot lifted his gaze. “Did she take her bodyguard along?”

“Yes, she did,” Chad said, “Avery is familiar with Bridgedale. She has a lot of friends there too. I don’t think there should be much of a problem.”

Elliot said, “Have you forgotten about the kidnap previously?”

Chad asked embarrassedly, “Then, do you want to head over there?”

“Didn’t you say that she would be back in two days?” Elliot lowered his gaze. It was not that he was not worried for her. It was just that they just fought. If he were to chase after her to Bridgedale, it felt embarrassing to him.

“Hmm. If you don’t go to Bridgedale, you could go to Konad City to...have a look. Layla’s entertainment program is filming at Konad City.” Chad paid utmost attention to Elliot’s ego.

Elliot considered for a while but he did not immediately decide. At Bridgedale, after Avery and Hayden landed , Hayden was picked up by the summer camp's bus.

The summer camp's activities were done in seclusion. Avery could not follow along. She could only wait for the teacher's comments that night or the day after.

“Miss Tate, let me send you home to rest,” The bodyguard said to Avery.

Avery had slept for a few hours on the plane, she was not sleepy at the moment.

“I'm not going back home for now. I'll go see a friend first.” Avery looked at her phone and found her friend's contact. She dialed. After making the call, they agreed to meet up at a restaurant.
