

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 964 | Simple Silence

Chapter 964

The staff handed the pass to Avery, “Ms. Tate, this is Hallstatt Villa. You can only enter if you have the pass. If You want visit somewhere always carry the pass with you.”

Avery took the pass and dragged her suitcase. She walked towards this mansion full of modern technology.

Entering the lobby on the first floor, she suddenly found that the villa looked more open and spacious from the inside than from the outside.

It was as if she had entered a magnificent maze.

She turned on her phone and found the lesson plan sent by the vice president. Then drag the suitcase to find the multi-purpose training room.

After a while, she came to the door of the training room, knocked on the door, and pushed the door open.

There were about twenty or thirty people of men and women sitting inside.

After she pushed the door open, everyone’s eyes turned to her.

Her face turned red. Just when she was about to say “I’m sorry I’m late” a low and familiar voice came from the podium: “Why don’t you come in soon?”

Avery felt like an electric shock, and her whole body was numb.

Did she have hallucinations? Why did she hear Elliot’s voice?

She will never hear his voice wrong! It's Elliot!

She looked at the podium, and saw Elliot, well-dressed on the podium, looking at her with a well-groomed look.

How could this be?

Why didn't the vice president tell her in advance that Elliot would come here too?

If she knew that Elliot was here to give lectures, she would never come...be a student!

How embarrassing she is!

"Sorry, I went to the wrong place." Avery remembered that the teacher for tonight was a man named 'Zachariah'.

"Avery, you're right." Elliot strode up to her, took the suitcase in her hand and explained, "Zachariah is not feeling well, let me take the class instead."

Avery was speechless.

"Avery, you go to a vacant seat first. The rest will be discussed after class." After Elliot finished speaking, he carried her luggage and went to the podium!

She stared at her luggage with scarlet eyes, almost conditioned to grab it.

She took a deep breath, turned and walked towards the back row. After she sat down, she immediately took out her mobile phone and intending to send a message to the vice president, asking him if he knew about Elliot replacing other lecturers.

“Don’t play with your mobile phone.” On the stage, Elliot could see Avery’s little movements clearly.

After Elliot spoke seriously, everyone followed his gaze and looked at Avery with a ‘swish’.

Avery’s ashamed!

What the h-e-l-l are you doing? Do you really think you are her teacher? Professor James Hough was not so strict with her before, why should he care about her?

“I’m recording, record what you said, and go back and study hard!” She looked straight at him boldly.

The female student sitting next to her reminded her in a disdainful tone, “Ms. Tate, is this your first time to attend the training? Don’t you know that the training content is strictly confidential? And you are not wearing a uniform, and you are carrying such a large Come in with your suitcase, do you think this is a vegetable market?”

“Yes, it’s my first time here. Have you come many times?” Avery looked at each other innocently, “Is it an honor to come many times? Didn’t you say that this place is to teach everyone how to succeed? You have come so many times and you still haven’t succeeded?”

Someone snickered at the scene.

“Avery! If you think you are successful, what are you doing?!” The other party exploded.

“Do you want to hear the truth?” Avery looked at the woman who was close at hand, and dragged Elliot into the water word by word, “I didn’t come to listen to the class at all, I came to see the man on the podium!”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 965 | Simple Silence

Chapter 965

The scene was in an uproar!

On the podium, Elliot’s ears blushed quietly.

Although Elliot knew what he was saying but he still had a strange feeling in his heart for her.

But this was a public place after all, and he couldn’t make her the target of public criticism.

“Avery, come to the front.” After Elliot spoke, he stepped off the podium and asked the students in the first row to move back.

He let Avery sit in the first row alone, without the same table beside him, so that there would be no more quarrels.

After Avery sat down in the first row, she gave Elliot a grand look. Then she openly took out her mobile phone, and under her nose, sent a message to the vice president: Elliot is also here, why didn’t you tell me in advance?

Vice President said, “If I had said that in advance, you would not have gone. I paid % 300,000 for the registration fee and I really can’t bear to waste this money.”

Avery said, "Why don't I transfer % 300,000 to you now, and I'll go back tomorrow, okay?"

Vice President said, "Huh? Avery, do you just don't want to see Elliot? Or is he embarrassing you? If it's so hard for you to be there, come back! You don't have to transfer money to me. What an embarrassment!"

Avery looked at the vice president's reply, and his emotions gradually calmed down.

Elliot didn't embarrass her.

It wasn't that Elliot lied to her, so why did she put her anger on him?

Just when she took a deep breath and planned to listen carefully to what Elliot said, the pink suitcase beside him made her sanity collapse again!

She really wanted to go up and drag her suitcase down.

Isn't he ashamed?

At this moment, in a luxuriously decorated bedroom of Hallstatt Villa, the mobile phone of the villa owner, Boss Kenny, rang.

Boss Kenny answered the phone. A female voice came over the phone, "I heard that Elliot and Avery have both gone to your place?"

"Oh yes! What's the matter?" Boss Kenny said casually with a cigar in his mouth, "I know you don't get along with them, but I'm friend of Elliot."

"Haha! Boss Kenny, as a successful businessman, you should understand that there are no permanent friends and enemies, only permanent interests!” The female voice laughed wickedly, “I have a perfect one here. Do you want to listen to the plan?”

Boss Kenny put away the smile on his face: “Tell me! If it is not 100% beneficial to me, I will not take any risks.”

“Don’t worry, if you Do as I say and the benefits you will get will be incalculable!”

...

An hour later.

The training session was over tonight.

During this hour, Avery listened to Elliot for about 20 minutes, and she was drowsy, so she sent a message to Tammy complained for 40 minutes.

Elliot carried her suitcase and walked in front of her. Avery wanted to take it over, but she didn’t let go.

“Is what I just said boring? I think you almost fell asleep.” Elliot narrowed his eagle eyes, and his tone seemed dissatisfied.

“You saw that I was about to fall asleep, so you still asked me?” Avery didn’t want to hit him on purpose, “You speak well, but I don’t understand it well.”

When the people in the training room were almost gone, Elliot asked her in a low voice, “Then you’re leaving tomorrow?”

Avery glanced at him: “Are you driving me away?”

“I’m afraid you won’t be able to stay here. After all, it’s boring in the mountains.” He said as if he changed the conversation, “But if someone is with you, it won’t be so boring.”

Avery looked at his handsome but reddish face and said directly: “Elliot, what circle are you going around? You tricked me here, Right? You unite with my vice president...”

“I think we need a space to be alone.” Elliot interrupted her, staring at her little face with deep eyes, and asked in a hoarse voice, “Avery, do you really have the heart to keep me thousands of miles away?”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 966 | Simple Silence

Chapter 966

“Elliot, can you not slander me?” She tried her best to keep a clear head, and was determined not to be led by his nose, “If I really rejected you thousands of miles away, yesterday’s child’s birthday banquet would not be at all. I’ll let you participate.”

Elliot pursed his thin lips into a thin line, trying to say something, but he didn’t say it.

“I’ll take you back to your room to rest.” Elliot pushed her suitcase and walked to the door.

“Do you know my room number?” Avery saw him walking in front and teased, “You really bought my vice president? Elliot, why do you dare to do anything?”

Elliot stood at the door waiting for her, explaining: “It’s not what you think Yesterday at the hotel, your vice president asked me for help. His son was really sick. He wanted to refund the application fee here, but it won't be refunded here. So I refunded him. I asked him to help me get you Called here, he disagreed at first, but yesterday he saw that our relationship was very harmonious, so he changed his mind to help me."

"Are you sure?" Avery listened to his explanation, and the fire in her heart subsided half.

"You can call your vice president now. If you don't even trust him at all, how dare you let him be your vice president?" Elliot teased.

"Even if you have a reason, it won't change the fact that you're a b*stard." Avery raised her lips and mocked, "President of Sterling Group, do you rely on such unprofessional methods to chase women?"

Elliot saw her feigning anger, and the corners of his mouth curled slightly.

"Then how do you want me to chase? I can do it."

Avery strode up to him and snatched her suitcase, "I'll go back to my room by myself and I don't ask you to send it!"

Elliot followed behind her, not hurriedly.

Avery took out her room card and checked her room number.

Elliot calmly said, "Your room is next to mine. I'll take you there."

After that, he took her suitcase into his hand again.

"Avery, if I'm really so incompetent, I'll have to conquer you. As for sharing a room with you now?" He pushed her luggage and walked to the elevator door, "I'm afraid you haven't seen any bad news. you the man, blame me. I Usually too indulgent to you."

Avery was speechless.

People are shameless and invincible.

There was a sudden hunger in her stomach, and she hadn't eaten dinner yet. Hunger stopped her from arguing with him.

Elliot sent her to the door of the room, and then pointed to the room next to him: "Next to me is my room. You are welcome to drop by at any time."

Avery brushed the door open and said coldly, "No, don't come to me either."

She entered the room and closed the door!

The two were separated by a door, and it seemed that they could still hear each other's breathing.

Avery was entangled in her heart, and just kept him out of the door. Isn't she a little heartless?

Anyway, Elliot helped her carry the box.

But on second thought, if it wasn't for his gift, she wouldn't have to rush here at all.

She took a deep breath, forced herself to calm down, and carried the suitcase to the bed.

She was very hungry. In addition, she felt an unpleasant smell on her body. She planned to take a bath first and then went out to eat.

She opened the suitcase, took out the daily necessities one by one, then took out a set of clothes and walked towards the bathroom.

After about 20 minutes, she came out of the shower.

Her hungry stomach began to cramp slightly, so she didn't care about drying her wet hair, she took the phone and the room key and walked directly to the door.

She opened the door, took two steps out, and accidentally saw a slender woman standing at the door of the next room.

When Avery looked at the woman, the woman also looked at her.

The two looked at each other. The expression on Avery's face was a little surprised, but the woman had a charming and playful smile.

She seemed to be saying to Avery, I'm going to go in and conquer the man inside!

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 967 | Simple Silence

Chapter 967

At this moment, the door of next room opened, and the woman walked in with a graceful posture!

Avery's eyes widened!

She couldn't believe that Elliot was flirting with her half an hour ago, but now he's fooling around with other women!

She suddenly felt that the world was spinning, and she didn't know what kind of drama was being staged!

The rooms of the two of them are next to each other. Elliot dares to blatantly find a woman to play in the room. He thinks that the sound insulation effect of the room here is better. When the two of them play together later, she can't hear the movement?

She was disgusted and lost her appetite!

She went back to her room and slammed the door with a loud bang!

That's ridiculous! Elliot is such a man, why didn't she find out before?

Blame her for being naive, she always thought he was a man who kept himself clean and kept his private life in check!

Avery's face was red with anger, and she stood in the room blankly, but she couldn't calm down at all.

She wanted to leave here immediately, but outside the window was a deep mountain and an old forest, and the transportation was inconvenient. Even if she wanted to leave, she would have to wait until tomorrow.

Her psychological defense was completely destroyed!

How could such a ridiculous thing happen?

What did Elliot take her for? Did he deceive her just to let her see his true colors?

She squatted beside the bed, tears welling in her eyes.

How could Elliot open the door for that woman?

Oh no, maybe it was Elliot who called the woman to come.

Otherwise, how could he let that woman in?

After she figured it out, she reached out and wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes, then turned on her phone and booked a flight back tomorrow.

Suddenly, a message came out, which was sent by Tammy: Avery, I heard that you are in Hallstatt with Elliot now. This is too exciting!

Avery looked at the text message, and the tears she held back poured out again.

yes! So exciting!

She replied, "Hmm. Our rooms are next to each other. It is really exciting for him to be in the room with other women now."

After the message was sent, Tammy called immediately.

She hesitated for two seconds and answered the phone.

"Avery! You just said that Elliot is now with another woman..." Tammy said this, it was hard to say.

"I saw it with my own eyes." Avery took a breath and said, "that woman was wearing a tight suspender skirt, her whole thigh was outside... Of course, what other people wear is their freedom, it doesn't matter to me, I'm just disgusted Elliot...before he was looking for this woman, he pretended to tell me that he wanted to pursue me."

After cursing a few times, Tammy gave her an idea: "Avery, don't cry! You are now In the past, knock on his door! I don't think they dare to continue playing! He makes you sad, and you can't make him feel better!"

“It’s not necessary.” Avery didn’t want to see such a scene, it would make her suffer for the rest of her life. “Tomorrow morning, I’ll go back.”

“How could this happen? Avery, I don’t believe it! Even if Elliot is really hungry and thirsty, there is no need to do such a thing in front of you!” Tammy was confused puzzled.

Avery covered her face with her hands and said hoarsely, “If I hadn’t seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn’t have believed it... It feels like a dream, sweetie, tell me if you’re dreaming.”

“No Dreaming! Avery, don’t cry! It’s not worth it for a sc*mbag!” Tammy tried to find a way while comforting Avery.

“Tammy, I have a headache... Let’s not talk about it.” Avery choked up and hung up.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 968 | Simple Silence

Chapter 968

After an unknown amount of time, the doorbell rang. Avery heard it, but didn’t want to open the door or know who was outside.

She felt that she was hollowed out, and the whole figure floated on the water, as if she was about to drown, but she couldn’t die.

She thought about why she was so desperate, because she still had fantasies about him.

Even if he lied again and again in the past, she never really learned a lesson!

Otherwise, she can leave immediately after Elliot admits that this is his plan!

The doorbell rang tirelessly, and she had a splitting headache from the noise.

If she doesn't open the door, she feels that the people outside the door will not give up.

She stood up on the edge of the bed and walked towards the door vainly.

She opened the door, and there was a tall and familiar figure standing outside the door!

She saw him, and her body reflexed back.

"Avery! You misunderstood me!" Elliot saw her crying red and swollen eyes, heartbroken, "I was not in the room just now. After I took you back to the room, someone called me to the reception. So I went to drink. "

He strode into her room and closed the door.

Immediately, she smelled the alcohol emanating from him.

Her eyelashes fluttered, and she looked at him carefully.

Elliot was neatly dressed, barely wrinkled. But his brows were wrinkled and his face was serious, "Tammy called me and scolded me! Only then did I know what happened."

Avery turned around suddenly embarrassed.

She wasn't sure if he was telling the truth or a lie, she couldn't tell.

“The woman who entered my room is Boss Kenny’s niece. I’ve met her a few times and I don’t know her at all. We didn’t have any personal interactions. If I was in the room at the time, I would never have opened the door for her.” Elliot walked over to her In front of him. He held her shoulders with both hands to prevent her from escaping.

“Who opened the door for her? I saw her enter your room with my own eyes.” Her voice was hoarse, with a bit of grievance.

“It’s the waiter.” His chest heaved quickly, “Turn-down service, you know? Actually, I didn’t call for this service, it should have been arranged by the housekeeper. The waiter knew Boss Kenny’s niece, so he let her in with me in the Room. If you don’t believe me, I’ll take you to the surveillance now.”

Avery suddenly felt light, as if she had suffered a serious illness.

She thought of her out of control state just now, and the explanation Elliot gave echoed in her mind. Suddenly, she understood her own mind.

She broke through the shackles in her heart, hugged his body, and leaned her face against his broad and strong chest: “I’m sorry, I misunderstood you. I should have followed up and looked at it.”

“It’s okay, just resolve the misunderstanding.” Elliot hugged her tightly and put his chin on her head, “Avery, can you think of me smarter next time? I did my best to invite you, not to make you sad.”

“I don’t know what’s going on. It seemed like my brain twitched just now.” Avery explained in a low voice, taking in the familiar breath on him, “I obviously care about you and I feel sad when I see you hanging out with other women. It’s going to die.”

“I know.” After thinking for a few seconds, he made a decision, “Avery, let’s get married when we go back!”

Avery raised her head abruptly, staring at him with red eyes.

Elliot also lowered his eyes and looked at her: “I said, we will get married when we go back. We have known each other for 7 years. How many more years of life can we go back to? My heart for you has never changed. Since you also care about me, why we waste any more time?”

Avery looked at his affectionate and serious face and tried to speak several times, but there was something stuck in her throat and she couldn’t make a sound.

She could only nod sharply in response to him.

At night, Avery woke up suddenly.

Her hand touched her side, and she was relieved until she touched his warm body.

She turned on her phone and sent Tammy a message: Tammy, we have decided to remarry.

At this point, Tammy has rested.

She opened her eyes and looked at the screen, without any sleepiness.

She was sober and determined that the man she would spend the rest of her life hand in hand in the future was the man beside her.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 969 | Simple Silence

Chapter 969

Avery opened the address book, found her mother's business card, and clicked it.

She sent a message to her mother: Mom, Elliot and I are reconciled. This time, we solved all misunderstandings and I believed we would never be separated again in the future. Hope you're all well in heaven. I would also live a good life and raise my children well.

After she had sent the message, she would put down her phone and got ready to sleep.

At this moment, the room suddenly lit up.

She looked towards the light source.

It was Elliot's phone screen on the bedside table that lit up.

She could only vaguely tell that he had received a new message on his phone, but she couldn't tell who sent it and what the content was.

Elliot's phone had never been on her guard, and even if she looked, he wouldn't be angry.

If his phone was by his pillow, she might take a look at it out of curiosity. Now she didn't want to get out of bed, and she didn't want to wake him, so she gave up the idea of taking his cell phone.

She closed her eyes, no longer afraid of any unknown fear in her heart.

The next day.

At 7 a.m., Elliot woke up slowly.

He saw Avery lying beside him peacefully and well-behaved. His eyebrows stretched instantly, and the corners of his mouth raised a gentle arc. He was afraid of getting up and waking her up, so he decided to accompany her to lie down for a while.

He picked up his phone from the bedside table, turned it on, and saw a new message.

After reading the message, his face suddenly became extremely gloomy!

An hour later, Avery opened her sleepy eyes and woke up.

After waking up last night, she had some insomnia, so she was not in a good mood and was in a trance.

Especially the picture that appeared in front of her made her even more certain that she might still be in a dream and not wake up at all.

“Are you awake?” It was Boss Kenny’s niece who spoke.

Avery suddenly woke up like she was electrocuted!

Why is this woman in her room? !

She suddenly sat up from the bed and looked at Elliot with a startled expression.

Elliot held a cigarette in one hand, and put his other hand around Boss Kenny’s niece.

The two stood by the bed and looked at her like monkeys in a zoo.

“Avery, didn’t you say you left today? Hurry up and pack your luggage and go!” Elliot exhaled a faint ring of smoke as he spoke.

“Elliot! What the h-e-l-l are you talking about!” Avery held the quilt tightly and asked him with all his might, “You and this woman... Didn’t you say you didn’t know her well? Why did you hug her? She?! Didn’t you say you wanted to marry me? Did I remember it wrong, or did you lie to me again?!”

Outside the door, the violent quarrel in the room could be clearly heard!

After a while, Avery rushed out of the room with the suitcase in hand.

With tears in her eyes, she dragged her suitcase and walked quickly towards the elevator.

Avery walked to the elevator and stood still, looking at the bodyguard with red eyes: “What are you doing with me? Did your boss ask you to humiliate me?!”

Just now, Elliot was in the room in front of her and said no Marry her, love her last night, just to trick her into going to bed.

The humiliation she has suffered in her life is not as much as the humiliation she suffered in one day with Elliot.

She can’t wait to slap herself hard!

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 970 | Simple Silence

Chapter 970

“The boss asked me to take you to the airport.” The bodyguard entered the elevator with her after the elevator door opened.

“I don’t want you to send it!”

“What are you yelling at me?” the bodyguard scolded, “I’m just completing the task assigned by the boss!”

She looked at the bodyguard’s dark face, swallowed the words that were in her mouth, and swallowed them back in her stomach.

All this is bizarre. Something was wrong with her.

“He asked you to take me to the airport, did he say anything else?” Avery asked in a low voice.

Bodyguard said, “You wipe away your tears first, I’m upset to see you crying.”

Avery raised her hand to wipe the tears from her face: “Has he been threatened?”

Bodyguard said, “I don’t know. What he told me The original words are, take Avery to the airport as soon as possible.”

Avery remained silent.

Bodyguard said, “Based on what I know about my boss, it’s probably not safe here. He quarreled with you because he wanted to cover you first and Leave.”

The bodyguard thought that after he told Avery like this, Avery would be so moved that he stayed with Elliot to advance and retreat together.

In the eyes of the bodyguards, Avery is a woman who is affectionate and righteous, never greedy for life and fear of death.

Otherwise, the boss would not like her so much.

As a result, she just silently started to stay.

“Hey, what are you thinking?” The bodyguard bumped her body with his elbow.
“Did you hear what I told you just now? Give me some reaction!”

Avery took a deep breath and said, “When I get out of the elevator later, do I want to continue crying?”

Bodyguard was speechless.

Avery looked at the bodyguard and negotiated sincerely: “What if others don’t let me go? I will show grief later. If you want to be a little more desperate, the bad guys won’t be suspicious.”

Bodyguard was speechless.

The bodyguard followed Elliot and had seen all kinds of wind and waves, but he had never seen Avery, a serious actor!

The heartbroken woman who dared to cry just now is someone else, not the real her.

Avery is so calm now that she wants to get away, and she has not considered whether Elliot will be in danger at all. She is really heartless!

The bodyguard felt that he had seen the wrong person, and even the boss felt worthless!

Why would you dig your heart out for such a wolf-hearted, ruthless and ruthless woman?

Her behavior truly verified the saying that ‘the husband and wife are birds of the same forest, and when disaster strikes, they fly separately’!

The staff of Hallstatt Villa sent the two of them to the foot of the mountain, and then drove back to the mountain.

Avery immediately took out her mobile phone and called the police.

The bodyguard saw that she decisively finished calling the police, and then called Chad, asking Chad to find a way to find someone to rescue Elliot in Hallstatt.

The bodyguard immediately understood that the reason why she was in a hurry to escape was not ruthless, but to save Elliot better.

Otherwise, if she was trapped on the mountain, not only would she be Elliot's fuel bottle, but she would not be able to help Elliot in the slightest.

"Avery, what's the next step?" the bodyguard asked with his arms crossed.

"Why don't you go back to the mountain?" Avery said after thinking seriously, "otherwise, it would be very dangerous to leave him alone on the mountain. If you were there, you could block him."

Bodyguard said, "You let me walk up the mountain?"

Avery looked around, it was relatively remote and she couldn't find a car at all.
