Chapter 981

It's interesting that Elliot sent candy to her company.

"It's not decided yet!" Avery said sternly.

"Ah? Didn't you get married?" The front desk was surprised, "I asked the people in Sterling, and they said you and Mr. Foster got married!"

Avery was speechless.

D*mn!

Avery didn't even know that she was getting married on June 1, but the employees of Elliot's company knew first.

She and Elliot only agreed to get a certificate before wedding and then the date of the wedding depends on the preparations for the wedding.

As a result, he ordered the marriage on June 1, but did not inform her?

She returned to the office and immediately called Elliot.

Elliot answered the phone and said in a low voice, "Avery, I was about to call you. The renderings of the dress are out, and I sent them to your mobile phone. Take a look."

"So soon?" She forgot herself in surprise. The reason for calling him, "Then I'll take a look now."

After that, she hung up the phone.

Clicking on whatsapp, she saw several dress renderings sent by him.

After seeing it, she called back: “Is it the work of the designer yesterday? The renderings are pretty good.”

“So it’s settled?”

“Well.” Avery is not picky. As long as the style is simple and dignified.

The wedding is sacred in her heart.

The dress style he sent just now basically meets the requirements.

“My vice president helped us calculate the good days and auspicious days, and said that June 1 is suitable for marriage.” He asked, “What do you think of June 1?”

Avery walked to the desk and sat down then said, “It turned out to be your vice president’s wedding date. Now my company’s employees all know that the two of us are married on June 1. Let’s go on June 1! It’s just that time will be too tight. “

Elliot chuckled, “It shouldn’t be a problem. As long as you spend a little more money, you will be able to hold the wedding tomorrow.”

Avery’s cheeks blushed slightly, and she changed the subject: “Do you want to invite your eldest brother and nephew?”

“No contact. It’s necessary.” Elliot’s tone became a little colder, “When I see their father and son, I will remember that my mother was killed by them. My mother’s biggest wish in her life is to see me get married. Unfortunately, she can’t see it anymore. “

Avery’s heart touched: ” Do you have a good relationship with your mother?”

He said hoarsely, “My mother loves me very much. I know who treats me well. Except for my mother, you are the best for me.”

Avery has mixed feelings, and her eyes are a little hot: “I always quarrel with you. Why do you think I am good to you?”

“Even if you quarrel with me, I can feel that you care about me.” Elliot’s tone, With a bit of stubbornness.

Avery’s breathing suddenly became heavy, and she didn’t want to hide her feelings any longer, “Elliot, I really care about you. Maybe more than you think.”

Elliot was satisfied with her answer.

“Avery, I have no relatives except you and the child.” Elliot said.

At such a tender moment, Avery remembered the DNA identification of Elliot and Cole.

Results will be out in a week. So Avery was curious, if Elliot was not from the Foster family, who would be his relatives?

Chapter 982

In the evening.

Avery came home and saw Elliot and the designer in the living room.

The designer came to measure Avery’s size.

“Mom, I want a pretty dress too.” Layla looked at Avery with envy.

“Baby, mom bought you so many new dresses, and there are still many that haven’t been worn!” Avery coaxed her.

Layla frowned, “That’s different.”

“Why is it different?”

Layla said this, and suddenly laughed, “Dad showed me the wedding dress that you are going to wear. It’s much prettier than my dresses. Dad said he would buy me the exact same as your dress.”

Avery looked at Elliot and said, “Are you sure you want to buy a wedding dress for your daughter?”

Elliot stunned: “It’s good if your daughter likes it.”

Avery felt that there was a very big problem with his attitude.

First of all, the wedding dress was very large, and it would be very inconvenient for Layla to wear such a bulky dress.

Secondly, how can everything be used to children?

“How can you follow her with everything? If she wants to marry a man casually in the future, would you have the same attitude?” Avery must correct his wrong view of education.

Elliot hasn’t moved in yet, but he has been obedient to Layla. When he moves in in the future, won’t he spoil Layla?

Her question made Elliot frown.

In Elliot’s eyes, Layla is still a little girl. He never thought about her future marriage.

For now, he simply cannot accept his daughter's marriage. Even just thinking about his daughter going to live with other men in the future, his heart will be blocked and uncomfortable.

“Until the age of 18, Layla cannot fall in love. Before the age of 25, she cannot marry.” After a brief thought, Elliot settled on this rule, “Before the age of 18, the mind is immature and easy to be deceived. Before the age of 20, her thoughts were not fully mature, so I wouldn't worry about marrying her to any man.”

Avery felt that his rules were outrageous.

“If you say that your daughter can't get married before the age of eighteen, I totally agree. Why can't you get married before the age of twenty-five?” Avery had a disagreement with him, citing the facts, “When I married you, I could Not twenty-five years old!”

Elliot thought back and analyzed: “We are in different situations. I was lying in bed in an uncertain state. If I wasn't in that state, I wouldn't have married you at all.”

His words are to respect the facts and say it without any emotion. And Avery was directly blown away by his words.

“Do you regret meeting me?”

Elliot stood up from the sofa as if on pins and needles, and explained, “I didn't mean that. I just assumed...”

“Don't you mean that if you were not in a vegetative state, Do you absolutely despise me?” Avery slapped his palm away, “I still despise you! If our family hadn't been down and out, and your family gave me a lot of betrothal gifts, I would have been beaten to death. I won't marry you either!”

Elliot's temple hurt.

"You may have no idea about the situation at the time. After all, you were lying in bed for so long, and you didn't know what happened. I'll help you sort it out." Avery was annoyed by him, how could she let him go easily. "At that time, your family doctor said that you were dying, and your mother was anxious to find women everywhere and wanted to give you a child and leave a descendant, but no woman was willing to marry you!"

Elliot was speechless.

Avery continued to mock him, "Even Chelsea, who was infatuated with you, didn't know where to go at the time. You should thank me for not disliking you in the first place!"

Elliot repented: "Avery, thank you for not disliking me at the beginning."

Avery saw that Elliot admitted his mistake, and his anger halved: "I didn't dislike you at first but your bodyguards guarded me like a prisoner. I can't run away."

Elliot didn't say a word.

Chapter 983

Then Elliot should thank his bodyguard?

After listening to the two of them quarreling, the designer smiled and said, "Ms. Tate, it is a great fate to be together. No matter how unpleasant encounters you have had in the past, you will definitely reconcile in the future."

Avery was charming to the designer. The designer smiled and said, “Well. Are you here to measure me? Take it now! Do you need to take off my clothes?”

“Take off your coat, it’s best to wear tight clothes inside. This will make the size more accurate.”

“Oh, Then I’ll change clothes in the room first.” Avery walked into the room.

Layla walked up to Elliot quietly and asked with doubts: “Dad, what is a vegetative person? I only know that plants, like the flowers and plants outside, are all plants, right?”

Elliot nodded: “Yes, the flowers and plants outside are all plants, they are all plants...”

“Oh,” Layla couldn’t wait to interrupt him, expressing her own understanding.

Veterative means that people can also germinate and bloom, so they are called vegetative people.”

Mrs. Cooper walked over with a smile and said, “Layla, that’s not the case. vegetative means that it doesn’t move like a plant, but it has life. This is a very serious disease.”

Layla was shocked: “My father had such a serious illness before?”

“Well. It’s a miracle that your father can wake up.” Mrs. Cooper said.

At 9 p.m., The children’s room.

Layla tossed and turned, so she hugged her little pillow and climbed onto Hayden's bed.

When the siblings were six years old, they slept in separate beds.

But still in the same room.

Sometimes when it rains and thunders, Layla is afraid that she will climb onto Hayden's bed.

Layla asked in a showy tone, "Brother, our dad used to be in a vegetative state. Do you know what it means to be in a vegetative state?"

Hayden said, "You don't have to tell me. I don't care."

"Oh... Dad used to bloom and bear fruit, that's what vegetative people mean." Since her brother didn't care, Layla started talking nonsense seriously.

Hayden slammed the light on and turned on the light: "Layla, this joke is not funny at all. You go to sleep in your bed."

"I haven't finished yet! Dad said today that I can't fall in love until I'm 18 and You can't get married before the age of 25. Do you want me to be angry?" Layla asked in confusion.

Hayden thought seriously, and after a while, he realized that he thought the same as Elliot.

"Anyway, you can't get married too early. Otherwise, you will be deceived and help count the money." Hayden took her out of bed, "You go to sleep in your bed. Otherwise, I will move to the next room."

Layla hugged the pillow and returned angrily to her own bed.

With a ‘pop’, Hayden turned off the light, and the room fell back into darkness.

The next day.

Ben Schaffer came to Rosacus City and handed Elliot and Avery’s wedding invitation to Chelsea.

Chelsea opened the invitation and saw their names and wedding dates. Her face was calm, but her phalanx was pale.

“How could they invite me? Aren’t you afraid that my appearance will scare the guests away?” She laughed at herself, then threw the invitation lightly on the table.

“Chelsea, did you instigate the matter of Hallstatt Villa?” Ben Schaffer got straight to the point.

“No.” Chelsea replied without hesitation.

“Give me your cell phone, and I’ll take it back to Elliot.” Ben Schaffer reached out to her. “If you didn’t do it, he wouldn’t touch you. But if it turns out that you did it...he won’t keep you alive.”

Chapter 984

Chelsea glanced at his outstretched palm and refused coldly: “No.”

Ben Schaffer frowned: “So you ordered it?”

“No! Why don’t you believe me?” Chelsea Angrily walked to the office chair and sat down, “Ben Schaffer, what you just said to me, is Elliot’s original words?”

Ben Schaffer put his hands on her desk: “Otherwise you thought I was coming to you by myself, Yes? Of course he asked me to come! I was not in Aryadelle a few days ago, and I only found out what happened in the Hallstatt Villa yesterday.”

“Oh, I heard about Hallstatt Villa, and nothing happened at all.” There was a mocking smile on Chelsea’s mouth, and she said inexplicably, “There is no danger at all, why does he doubt me and hold on to it?”

Ben Schaffer guessed the result from her nervous and frightened tone.

What Elliot said was right.

After Chelsea was disfigured, her mind was distorted.

She used to love Elliot the most. If anyone wanted to hurt Elliot, she would be the first to rush out to fight him.

But now, she is killing Elliot. Not only did he kill Elliot, but he also implemented it.

Although the final plan failed and did not cause any danger, if she did not kill Elliot, she would definitely have a second plan in the future.

“Chelsea, don’t lie anymore, and don’t continue to do terrible things.” Ben Schaffer frowned, very painful, “People have to pay for their own mistakes. Your life is your life, and other people’s lives are also lives. “

“Ben Schaffer, I don’t admit it...I don’t admit it, what can you do to me? Can you convict me directly?” Tears welled up in Chelsea’s eyes.

“Did you forget that you went to the Kenny family’s banquet before? Elliot didn’t. If he wasn’t sure, he wouldn’t let me come to you!” Ben Schaffer told her to give up completely.

Chelsea’s body trembled slightly, and tears fell from her eyes.

“I’m sick...” Chelsea yanked the drawer open and took out several boxes of medicines, “These are the medicines I’m taking... I have a mental problem. My spirit is Something went wrong too...I can’t control myself...Ben Schaffer! Help me!”

The medicine she took out was not a brand-new, unopened box.

It can be seen that this is indeed the medicine she is taking.

This coincides with his conjecture.

If Chelsea didn’t have psychological problems, it would be impossible to kill Elliot.

Ben Schaffer frowned, “Chelsea, it’s useless. We’ve guessed that you’re sick. Even so, he still can’t keep you. What if you get sick again and want to kill again?”

Ben Schaffer Saying that, he took out a white pill from his pocket: “I didn’t want you to die too painfully. So I found this pill. You just need to take it, and you will soon be able to fall asleep. After you fall asleep, within ten minutes, you will die.”

After he seemed to say these words calmly, Chelsea was stunned.

“Chelsea, if you don’t listen to me again this time, you will definitely die in pain! Because no one will sympathize with you except me now!” Ben Schaffer put the white pill in front of her and said sharply, “Eat it I will bury you well!”

Chelsea looked at the pills in front of her, and her tears quickly stopped.

After all, there is no escape.

She must die. Even if she doesn’t take the pill today, Elliot will kill her in person before long.

In this case, she can only accept her fate.

She picked up the pill, hesitated for a few seconds, and put it in her pocket.

“Ben Schaffer, I’ll eat it later. I want to catch up with you before I die.” Chelsea walked out from the desk and held Ben Schaffer’s hand, “Ben Schaffer, if I married You, you won’t be reduced to this point now.”

Ben Schaffer looked at her broken face and couldn’t bear it: “If you miss it, you miss it. There is no regret medicine in life. You can take the pill I just gave you. It’s painful. I know you’re afraid of pain, so I brought it here specially. Chelsea, be a good person in your next life!”

Chelsea nodded, then wrapped her arms around his body: “Ben Schaffer, hug me! No one has hugged me since I was disfigured. I’ve been so lonely and painful!”

Chapter 985

Ben Schaffer listened to her aggrieved tone, and stretched out his arms to hug her softly: “I know that you have been in pain. You used to be a high-ranking queen, how have you suffered such grievances.” Chelsea burst into tears.

She now knows that Ben Schaffer is the man who loves her the most in the world. But before she died, she had to hurt him again.

“Ben Schaffer, I want to marry you in the next life... Whether you want to promise or not, you must promise me first. After all, I am dying, and you will satisfy me for the last time.”

Ben Schaffer: “Okay. I will marry you in the next life.”

...

Avonsville.

After seeing the psychiatrist, Tammy called Avery.

After Avery asked where she was, she immediately rushed to see her.

The two sat down at a restaurant for lunch.

“Why doesn’t Jun eat with us? Is it because I am here that he is embarrassed?” Avery asked.

Tammy said, “What’s he embarrassed about? We are chatting together. Is he acting as a light bulb? I told him not to disturb us.”

Avery asked with a smile, “How do you feel after seeing the psychiatrist?”
“

Tammy sighed, “It feels very complicated. Actually, I know that many people have their own painful experiences. In this world, very few people can have a smooth life.”

“Then do you want to change to a psychiatrist? ?” Avery felt that her mood seemed even lower.

Tammy shook her head: “This psychiatrist is very good. She told me not to escape the pain, but to face it and overcome it.”

Avery said, “It takes a process.”

Tammy laughed suddenly, “She told me a funny thing. She said that Elliot had also approached her. But after receiving one treatment, Elliot never came again.”

Avery was surprised: “Why would I tell you this? Isn’t it impossible to reveal the patient’s information?”

Tammy shook her head: “She didn’t reveal the content of Elliot’s treatment, but only said that Elliot came to see her, but she didn’t come again, so she asked a friend to inquire about it and found that Elliot was talking bad about her behind her back.”

Avery was gossiping: “How did Elliot talk bad about her?”

“Elliot complained to his friends that it is better to see a psychiatrist than to see a wild dog on the roadside.”

Avery was speechless.

Tammy sighed, “This doctor knows my relationship with the two of you, so that’s why he told me this. I didn’t expect that Elliot, who looks so powerful, even went to a psychiatrist. “

Avery said, “He also suffered a lot of painful things. Tammy, it will pass.”

“Well.”

In the evening, Elliot found out that Ben Schaffer had lost contact. He called Ben Schaffer during the day, but Ben Schaffer didn't answer.

He thought that Ben Schaffer would call him back when he was done, but at night, Ben Schaffer hadn't called him back. There was an ominous premonition in his heart.

Chelsea is now mentally distorted, and Ben Schaffer has gone alone again. Shouldn't Chelsea hurt Ben Schaffer?

Elliot thought of this, frowned, and dialed the phone again.
