Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1541

Chapter 1541 Revenge On Evan

Ruby stayed silent.

He's the devil!

"I'm asking you a question! Was it Evan?"

With that, he even took out his phone, searched for Evan's image in the headlines and showed it to her. He yelled, "Is it him? Yes or no?"

Staring at Evan's photo, Ruby could not help but remember those terrifying scenes. She thought of the twisted look on his face and his gloating expression when he tortured her...

As she breathed deeply, her body trembled.

From the look of pain and rage in her eyes, Steven understood that Evan was the culprit.

"Evan, I only snatched two potential collaborations away from you. How can you do something so inhumane?" exclaimed Steven through gritted teeth. "You've humiliated my wife. I must take revenge! Evan, I'll settle this score with you!"

Afterward, Steven paid extra attention to Evan and the Seet Group's actions. He instructed Riley to conduct an investigation secretly and searched for an opportunity to take revenge.

When Riley discovered that Evan was staying alone in the Duxton Hotel for a business trip, he thought that it was a good opportunity for revenge.

After devising a plan, Steven secretly brought a group of men over.

Just when he was about to attack, he was taken down unexpectedly. A bunch of men barged in suddenly and started beating his men up.

"How dare you attack Mr. Seet secretly? I'll kill all of you today!"

While he watched helplessly, his men vomited mouthfuls of blood while being punched over and over again.

"Stop! Stop!"

Despite his cries, the others beat his men up even more severely, to the extent that they got beaten to death.

He was utterly dumbfounded. He hated himself for not having a meticulous plan and for being too eager for revenge. In the end, he fell for Evan's trap instead. Because of his rashness, his men had sacrificed their lives.

If he had another chance, he would definitely plan his steps properly and attack only after he was absolutely certain.

Alas...

"Steven, Mr. Seet says that you're simply too bold. The Maupay family is an eyesore in Y City, so why don't we send you to hell today?"

"What did you say? Evan wants to take action against the Maupay family?"

"Didn't you witness us beating your men to death? You're going to be the next one... If the Maupay family finds out, do you think that they'll remain idle? Furthermore, all of you kept stealing the Seet Group's business. Mr. Seet has been upset with you since a long time ago. So, we're going to kill all of you and eliminate all possible troubles."

"No, he won't dare to. There are dozens of people in the Maupay family. Evan won't dare to do something like that!"

"Why not? Mr. Seet is known as the reaper for a reason. He controls life and death—with just a single order, he can kill whoever he wants."

He had heard about how merciless Evan could be. However, there were dozens of people in the Maupay family. He did not believe that Evan would dare to...

Then, he saw Evan, who was sitting on a leather chair. With his back against the light, Evan made a call and instructed coldly, "Set the fire and make the Maupay family disappear from Y City. No one is allowed to live."

Steven was stunned.

Is Evan going to burn them alive? All the dozens of people in the Maupay family?

Although he had heard about how ruthless Evan could be, he never expected him to be so vicious and lawless.

Looks like I've underestimated the Seet Group's background and Evan's ruthlessness.

"Evan, karma will get you!"

"I'm not afraid of karma. News of the Maupay Manor being engulfed in fire will definitely make it to tomorrow's headlines. The Maupay family will disappear forever."

"Evan... You're so brutal! You're a devil!"

"If I'm not a devil, could I have toyed around with your wife like that?"

Steven clenched his fists. Recalling how Ruby looked after being assaulted, his eyes became bloodshot. He wished for nothing more than to rip Evan into pieces.

It was all his fault for being too rash. After all, it would never be too late to take revenge. If he had another opportunity, he would definitely make Evan pay for his crimes ten times over!

Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1542

Chapter 1542 Someone Impersonated Evan

As the memories flashed across her mind, Ruby felt like she was reliving the torturing experiences again.

Her eyes turned bloodshot and her body trembled uncontrollably.

Looking at her, Sally was engulfed with worry. She held Ruby's hand tightly and asked, "Mom, how are you? Are you okay? Don't scare me."

With hatred burning in her eyes, Ruby stared at Kyle. Suddenly, she pointed a trembling finger at him and instructed, "Sally, kill him! Kill him!"

Kyle frowned.

Looking at Ruby's reaction, it seemed like what happened that year was not that simple.

Even Sally was stunned.

Does Mom want me to kill Kyle? I... No, I can't.

She lowered her hand.

"Mom, the person you hate is Evan. The man you're seeing now isn't Evan, but Kyle. You've mistaken him for someone else!"

He's not Evan. You have mistaken him for someone else.

These key phrases which Sally said flashed across Kyle's mind. Suddenly, as if he suddenly thought of something, his eyes lit up.

Read full novel here <https://myfinder.live/>

Could it be that the person wasn't Dad at all? Did someone pretend to be Dad? The impersonator deliberately made Steven, Ruby and the Maupay family think that it was Dad.

If that's the case, it'll explain why Dad is completely oblivious to the Maupay family's hatred for him, his assault on Ruby, and how Steven's hand had been cut off.

If he didn't do it, and it must be someone else who had impersonated him. Therefore, he was clueless.

Who would go through all the effort to devise such a vicious plot to sabotage Dad?

Perhaps, this man's hatred for the Maupay family is even stronger than his hatred for Dad. Otherwise, he wouldn't have made the Maupay family suffer such a devastating loss.

"I didn't mistake him for someone else. I remember Evan's face. I remember this face..." Losing control of her emotions, Ruby kept emphasizing that to Sally.

Evan's face from that night had been ingrained in her memories. She would never forget it even after her death. This face in front of her was identical to the one in her memories, so it was impossible for her to be mistaken. She would never be.

"Mom, he's really not Evan. Evan's already forty years old. Look at him! He's only twenty. Evan's not that young."

Ruby scrutinized Kyle carefully. It was true that the man in front of her was merely twenty years old. He looked like he was in the prime of his youth.

But if he isn't Evan, why would he look like him?

After thinking about it for a while, she turned around and said to Sally, "The devil's look never changes. Since he's a devil, he'll never age."

"Mom, he's really not Evan, nor is he a devil. The reason why he looks like Evan is that he is..."

"Evan's son." Before Sally could complete her sentence, Kyle suddenly took a few steps forward and interrupted her.

"I'm not Evan. The person who harmed you that night isn't Evan either!"

Sally was stunned when she heard what Kyle said. What is he trying to say?

Ruby was certain that Kyle was the devilish Evan. Pointing at him, she insisted, "It's you! It's you!"

"Since you think that my face is identical to Evan's, you think that I'm him. If someone was deliberately pretending to be Evan that night, you would've assumed that he was Evan too."

Deliberately pretending to be Evan?

Sally was shocked when she heard that.

Is Kyle saying that someone had pretended to be his father and harmed Mom? So the person who harmed Mom isn't Evan, but someone else. How is that possible? That's ridiculous!

Even Ruby was stunned. She could not accept what Kyle said just yet. The person who assaulted her back then was none other than Evan. For so many years, she hated him and wished for nothing more than to kill him. It was impossible that the culprit was someone else.

Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1543

Chapter 1543 Another Culprit

"Nonsense! You're just making excuse for yourself."

"Don't jump to conclusions yet. I'd like to ask you a few questions. Please think about it carefully. Firstly, you probably remember the exact date and year of that incident, right?"

Read full novel here <https://myfinder.live/>

Secondly, Evan has an intense hatred for infidelity. Do you think that the man who slept with you will share the same sentiments? Thirdly, Evan has a birthmark on his chest. Does that man have a birthmark?”

Ruby thought about what happened that night. She still clearly remembered the time when it happened.

“It was nineteen years ago, on the fifth of August. I’ll never forget it.”

After that incident nineteen years ago, Steven’s revenge failed. After his arm was cut off, he fled for his life and arranged for the Maupay family to live hidden from the public eye.

Firstly, he hid in another city for three years. When he had the idea of building a hideout, he specially invited someone to design the blueprint. After finishing all the preparations, he returned secretly and spent ten years constructing the hideout. Then, he started his research on explosions—all to prepare for his perfect revenge plan.

“Nineteen years ago, Evan’s son was sick and insisted on being with his mother. Whenever his son needed his help, Evan would always return home. It was rare for him to skip dinner,” said Kyle.

Really?

As it was only Kyle’s perspective, Ruby did not trust him. After returning to her senses, she continued searching through her memories.

The man who had assaulted her had taken off his clothes and tossed them aside casually. A vicious smile was playing on his lips. After the feat, he picked his clothes up and wore them... That frivolous and casual look on his face did not belong to someone who hated infidelity.

Although she was terrified back then, she still saw his chest.

There was no birthmarks—nothing at all.

Is there really something wrong with what happened?

"Did you say that just to excuse yourself? I don't believe you! I don't believe anything that you say!"

Kyle understood how Ruby was feeling.

No one would find it easy to accept the fact that they had hated the wrong person for so many years.

"I understand how you're feeling now. I'll find more evidence to prove it to you!"

"Why are you telling me all these? Why are you defending Evan? Since you look so similar to him, did you inherit his looks? Are you his son?" guessed Ruby as she stared at Kyle.

He nodded. "You're right, Mrs. Maupay. I'm Evan's son, Kyle."

"Evan's son?" Ruby glanced at Sally with an incredulous look. "How do you know Evan's son? Why did you bring him to me?"

Sally quickly explained, "Mom, he said that there's something fishy about what happened back then. I want to know the truth too, so..."

"So you brought him over just for him to spout nonsense?"

"Mrs. Maupay, I'm not spouting nonsense. I promise you that there is evidence. I'll definitely find out the culprit who pretended to be my father and assaulted you."

The culprit... Is there really another culprit?

Ruby suddenly had a severe headache. With a look of agony, she clutched her head.

"Mom, how are you feeling? Shall I summon the doctor?"

"No, no."

"I'll massage your head for you. You'll feel much better." Sally immediately massaged her.

When Kyle saw that, he suggested, "My mom is still with you. Why don't you let her give your mom acupuncture? You can trust her medical skills."

Sally glanced at him. "Your mom's with my father, but I don't know where he has locked her up."

Kyle frowned.

Sally doesn't know where Mom is? Where would Steven imprison her? Will he abuse her? Will he harm Mom the same way the person who impersonated Dad assaulted Ruby?

Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1544

Chapter 1544 Find Nicole

Kyle was overcome with worry when he thought about that.

However, he remembered how calm Evan was. Perhaps, Dad had sent a skilled expert to protect Mom, so she's not in any danger.

Just when he was worried about Nicole, Ruby fell asleep in Sally's arms.

Sally lay her gently on the bed and tucked her under the blankets. After shooting Kyle a look, she left the room with him.

When they exited the room, Saul immediately walked over and scrutinized Kyle. "Are you okay, Mr. Kyle?"

"I'm fine."

"It's going to be dawn soon."

Kyle glanced at his watch. After all that fuss, three hours had passed and it was already five in the morning.

"Sally, can you help me find my mom?"

"No way! There is no way I can't find someone who's in my father's hands."

"Ms. Sally, you're probably very familiar with this hideout, right? If you search every corner, you'll definitely find her. Please, help us find Mrs. Seet. We'll be eternally grateful to you," pleaded Saul.

Sally glanced at him. "You're wrong. I'm not familiar with this place for there are some areas which are forbidden to me."

"No way! Your father can't possibly be guarding against his own daughter?"

Sally lowered her head and remained silent.

Kyle exchanged a glance with Saul. If there were places that were out of bounds to Sally, the hideout was definitely hiding other secrets.

"Kyle, do you really think that someone had impersonated your father back then?"

"Yes. The person who impersonated my father was probably the Maupay family's enemy too. Otherwise, he wouldn't have made all of you suffer such devastating losses."

Sally analyzed the situation quietly.

Did the Maupay family offend someone back then? Someone who could think of such plots and do such atrocious acts probably isn't someone to be trifled with. Also...

"Why would an enemy of the Maupay family pretend to be Evan instead of someone else?"

Kyle had been wondering about Sally's question too.

"Perhaps, he wants to kill two birds with one stone. It might be more convincing to the Maupay family if he pretended to be my father. After all, the Maupay family was one of the top families in Y City back then. Other than my father, no one would dare to sabotage them so openly. Since my father was also given the title, 'the reaper', it's logical to make him the scapegoat."

Thinking about Kyle's analysis, Sally thought that it sounded logical.

"Are you certain that you can find out the real culprit? It's been so many years, so it'll be quite hard to investigate."

"I believe that there are no secrets in this world that can remain hidden forever."

Sally smiled.

I hope so. If the actual culprit was revealed, the misunderstanding would be resolved. If Dad and Mom know the truth and realize that they've been hating the wrong person, there might still be a chance between me and Kyle. However, before the truth is revealed, Dad will definitely not spare Kyle if he discovers his presence in this place.

Sally glanced at the time. "I'll send both of you out first. If my father discovers you, you won't be able to leave."

"Mr. Kyle, Ms. Sally is right. Let her send us out."

Before leaving, Kyle pleaded with Sally again. "Please help me find my mother. My father's innocent, and so is my mother."

Sally understood what Kyle was saying.

Despite Nicole's innocence, she still collaborated with her father and brother to sabotage her.

"Okay, I'll help you look for her. What about Skyler? When are you planning to release him?"

Kyle thought about it. "When my mother returns to us peacefully, I'll release him."

Sally nodded. Looks like I'll have to find Nicole quickly. I can only save Skyler if I return her to them.

Chapter 1545 Third Wheel

After sending Kyle and Saul out of the hideout, Sally rushed back anxiously to take care of Ruby.

When Kyle returned to Imperial Garden, it was half-past-six in the morning.

Juan had just gotten up from bed. He stretched his arms, changed into loungewear and walked out of his bedroom.

Just when he was about to knock on Kyle's door and ask when they were leaving for the Maupay Manor's hideout, he heard a voice behind him.

"Why are you looking for me?"

Juan turned around and saw Kyle, who had just returned.

"Where did you go so early in the morning?"

"I went out for a jog." Kyle came up with a random excuse.

"A jog? How diligent of you! Why didn't I know that you had such a hobby?"

"It's just a sudden impulse. I just started today."

While Kyle spoke, he opened the door and Juan followed him into the bedroom.

Then, he asked about going to the Maupay Manor hideout.

Kyle glanced at him. "There's no need to go. I already figured out what happened back then."

"You figured it out? How? What actually happened?"

"I figured it out while jogging. The person who assaulted Steven's wife isn't Dad, but an impersonator."

"An impersonator?"

Juan was shocked.

However, when he thought about Evan's reaction and the nature of the incident, it was reasonable to suggest that the culprit was an impersonator.

"Kyle, you figured it out while jogging? How impressive!"

"You're very smart yourself too. Next, we need to find out who has impersonated Dad. Where do you think we should start investigating?"

After a moment of silence, Juan raised his head and looked at Kyle. "I still think that we should go to Steven's underground hideout."

"Why?"

"To save Mom!" Other than saving Nicole, they could ask about some other things.

For instance, they could ask about who the Maupay family had offended before the disaster, and whether the man who assaulted Sally's mother had anything special about him. His physical characteristics and unique habits were all important clues.

"If we ask them these questions, we might not discover anything. I'll ask Sally to help us and she'll definitely help us find Mom."

Before Sally left the company, didn't she declare that she's an enemy of Kyle? She was so intent on taking revenge on behalf of her parents. Why is she suddenly willing to help?

While Juan scrutinized Kyle, he understood something.

"You didn't go for a jog just now. You've already visited Steven's hideout and met Sally! Also, she already knows about the impersonator. That's why she let go of her grudge against you and agreed to help you. Am I right?"

Read full novel here <https://myfinder.live/>

Kyle glanced at him and remained silent.

Juan started nagging, "We agreed to go together. Why didn't you ask me to tag along? Instead, you went there secretly! Are you afraid that I'll ruin your time with Sally and act as the third wheel? I can't believe that you're ditching your brother for a girl!"

I'm not ditching him for a girl. I'm just afraid that if something bad happens, both of us will be in trouble. In that case, what'll happen to Dad and Mom?

Kyle could not be bothered to respond or explain to Juan. Hence, he started washing up and brushing his teeth.

However, Juan could not stop nagging. He kept grumbling beside Kyle.

From being upset at how Kyle did not go to the hideout with him, Juan moved his focus to Kyle's relationship with Sally.

"If we can find out the truth and prove that Dad isn't the Maupay family's enemy, things are still possible between you and Sally, right? I can't believe that both of you are connected in such a manner! When Grandma told us to go on a blind date, she was in the same room as me and even pretended to be my girlfriend! In the end, you're still the one fated to be with her. Well, I indirectly helped you. You must thank me properly in the future. However, if things don't work out between the two of you, you don't have to thank me..."

Chapter 1546 Three Days

Kyle continued brushing his teeth. He did not even spare a single glance at Juan, who kept nagging at him.

Ever since Juan was a child, he had always gotten along with Davin. After growing up, Juan actually bore some resemblance to him. However, Kyle did not want to listen to Juan's nagging so early in the morning.

"Are there any news about Uncle Davin?" asked Kyle while he gargled.

"Uncle Davin went to K Nation with Aunt Sheila and Grandma. Don't worry. After I fabricated a story about a beautiful lady liking Uncle Davin, Aunt Sheila will definitely keep a close eye on him. He'll definitely stay in K Nation too."

"Yeah. Aunt Sheila must have honed her skills at stalking and monitoring Uncle Davin after all those years."

"Yeah! Uncle Davin and Aunt Sheila have been friends for so many years. They seem quite happy, actually."

"I hope that they can remain happy like this forever. Okay, let's go and eat. We still need to head to the office afterward."

They went downstairs to eat. When they entered the living room, they saw Evan already sitting at the dining table and setting the table.

Dad is really early today!

They rushed over and sat down obediently.

Gazing at them, Evan suddenly said, "You should pay more attention to Steven's actions. Perhaps, his black box is already in the Imperial Garden."

Stunned, Kyle exchanged a look with Juan. What does Dad mean by that? Did he receive any news?

"Dad, how did you know that Steven's black box is already in Imperial Garden?"

Evan looked at Juan. "I'm saying that it's a possibility. I dreamed about it, so I can't be sure yet."

Um... So it's a dream.

"Dad, if your dream is real, we'll be in mortal danger now. As long as Steven activates the microchip controlling it, we'll die within a split second after the explosion. We'd be burned to ashes alongside Imperial Garden."

Evan nodded. "Indeed, I dreamed that Steven activated the switch last night."

Juan widened his eyes. "Did all of us die afterward?"

Evan shook his head. "I only dreamed that the black box was placed in Imperial Garden secretly and that Steven had activated the microchip. Before I could see whether we've died, I woke up."

Juan thought about it. "That's a good dream, Dad. Since you didn't dream that we died, it proves that we'll not die. Don't worry, we'll survive."

"Dad, you probably dreamed about it because you've been mulling over it too much. Juan and I will settle it as soon as possible."

Evan glanced at Kyle. "I trust the two of you!"

"Dad, when the Maupay family was rising up the ranks in Y City back then, they had probably made enemies, right? Was there anyone who hated them a lot and would wish to eliminate them?"

"Why would you suddenly ask me that, Juan?" Evan was shocked.

"We suspect that someone impersonated you. He was the one who assaulted Steven's wife, cut off his hand and threatened to massacre the Maupay family. The person must definitely hate Steven a lot to do such atrocious acts."

An impersonator.

"Davin has always thought that Steven was merely putting on his own show. Do you think that someone impersonated me instead?"

"Dad, Steven did not put on his own show. I've visited Sally's mother. She mistook me for you and kept insisting that you're the man who assaulted her," explained Kyle.

Evan narrowed his eyes coldly.

I didn't expect that someone would dare to impersonate me. That man deserves to go to hell! In that case, the rumor back then was also part of the person's plot.

"How long would the investigation take?"

"Dad, we'll try our best to do it, but we can't guarantee how long it'll take," replied Juan.

Kyle thought about it. "Dad, we'll find out the truth within five days."

Five days?

Juan was slightly surprised. We don't even have any clues yet. Isn't five days too short?

"Five days is too long. Three days."

Chapter 1547 Exchange Roles

Evan's words caught everyone off guard.

Kyle exchanged a look with Juan. Is Dad too eager to find out the identity of that cursed daredevil who impersonated him?

Noticing their silence, Evan asked, "Is there a problem with that?"

Juan shook his head. "No. Three days, right? That's enough time. We can always forgo our sleep."

Kyle said, "Don't worry, Dad. We'll find out the truth within three days."

"Very good. As expected of my sons."

At that moment, they suddenly felt extremely pressured to be Evan's sons.

After eating, they drove to the office.

Looking at Kyle, who was working seriously, Juan could not help but ask, "Dad only gave us three days. How can you remain so calm? Just leave the company's matters to the assistant. We should discuss how we are going to conduct the investigation."

"Before coming to the office, you asked Dad if the Maupay family had any enemies. That's a clue that we can start with," replied Kyle as he typed on the keyboard.

Juan nodded. "I think that we can start from there too. Unfortunately, Dad only gave us a deadline instead of answering my question. I think that we need someone who really understood what happened that year, especially about the Maupay family, to join us in the investigation."

"You can look for John. Since he has always been working with Dad, he probably knows something."

Finding that suggestion logical, Juan instructed his assistant to look for John. However, he was overseas under Evan's orders to assess a new project site. Hence, he could not return to Y City anytime soon.

"John's always not around when we need him. Why don't we call him and ask about it?"

"Good idea."

Just when Juan was about to call John, someone pushed the office door open.

Juan was surprised to see the person who entered.

"Why did you come back, Uncle Davin?"

Kyle also raised his head and stared at Davin in shock.

Pointing at Juan, Davin walked to a black leather sofa and sat down.

"Juan, why did you sabotage me?"

"What are you talking about, Uncle Davin?" Juan had an innocent look on his face.

"Do you remember what you told Aunt Sheila over the phone?"

When Davin reminded them, Kyle and Juan immediately remembered. Davin was probably talking about how Juan came up with a story about Davin's admirer and deliberately told Sheila about it.

However, he did that because he wanted Sheila to keep an eye on Davin and make him go to K Nation to avoid any possible danger. It was all for his own safety. Now that Davin was confronting him about it, Juan did not know what to say.

"Uncle Davin, I..."

"What? You really sabotaged me badly. Because of what you said, Sheila's been monitoring me all round the clock! Do you know how difficult it is for me to come back?"

"Why did you still come back if it's so tough?" asked Kyle.

Davin looked at Kyle seriously. "Of course, I have to come back! At this moment, the Seet family is on the brink of ruination. As a member of the family, I have to return!"

Then, he glanced at Juan. "Juan, I know why you did that. You wish that I'll stay in K Nation and stay away from danger. However, I don't appreciate that kind gesture. I have the right to make my own choice, so you can't decide on my behalf."

"Uncle Davin, I need you to stay in K Nation! Grandma, Grandpa, Joy and Zayden need someone to take care of them. Being brave enough to die doesn't mean anything at all. Instead, a real man is someone who has the courage to shoulder the future responsibilities of the Seet family!"

Davin was stunned. What Juan said is right....

"Juan, why don't we do this? You go to K Nation and I'll leave you the important task of protecting the Seet family. I'll stay here and exchange roles with you."

Juan thought about it for a moment. "Uncle Davin, it's not that I'm unwilling to swap roles. I simply can't! Dad gave me three days to find out the truth. Can you do that in three days?"

Chapter 1548 Tell Me What Happened

Davin couldn't wrap his head around what Juan had said. Something seems to have happened when I wasn't here.

"Can you tell me what actually happened in detail? Something's happened in the past few days, hasn't it?"

"Uncle Davin, we made another discovery."

His nephew filled him in on the things that had happened patiently, and Davin was shocked after hearing it.

"Are you saying that someone pretended to be your dad and hurt the Maupay family?"

"Yes!" Kyle chimed in.

Davin was incredulous, but he recalled the incident from that day.

"The rise of the Maupay family and them going into hiding was only a short-lived effort. The bad rumors about your dad only started going around when they went into hiding. Back then, when your dad dominated Y City, most reporters dared not put their lives on the line to spread any rumors about him. Besides, everyone in the Maupay family had gone into hiding, so there was no way of proving the truth of those rumors. We would have to take responsibility if we were accused of defaming others. It was also why we'd hear about the rumors from time to time.

"I remember telling your dad that it was probably because Steven was unsuccessful at winning against Seet Group, and he knew that there was no way he could ever succeed, so he had come up with this nonsense and put on a show. I can't believe that it's actually true. This is a huge surprise. But here comes the question. Who on earth hates the Maupay family so much and would be gutsy enough to frame your dad like this?"

Read full novel here <https://myfinder.live/>

"We're trying to figure out what you're wondering too. We want to look for the people who know about what happened back then and ask them what enemies the Maupay family has. And we want to know who on earth hates Daddy so much that they pretended to be him."

Someone who hates the Maupay family and your dad?

Smiling, Davin said, "There are lots of them. The rise of the Maupay family will affect many people. As for your dad, he's a merciless person who is the most influential person in the business world. Naturally, he will also affect the profits of many. Even though these people didn't dare to say anything, lots of them are desperate to see their downfall. That's why the Maupay family and your dad share a lot of enemies."

"Doesn't that mean it'll be hard to find out who it is based on what you said?"

"Not really. Steven's the one who suffered severe losses here. He'll probably find out more if he does. After all, there shouldn't be many who would hate him to the point where they would rape his wife, cut off his arm, try to kill him, and even his family. He should know who's really the one who hates him enough to do all this."

Davin's words made sense to Kyle, but he was worried that things would be difficult if Steven were to investigate the matter.

"Steven is convinced that Daddy was the one who did all the horrible things. He has been enduring everything all these years, all to watch the Seet family go up in flames. The hate he feels is already carved into his bones. It's become his obsession and his sole reason for living. It won't be easy if we tell him now that he has gotten it wrong all this time. It's like letting him watch his goal of many years crumble before his eyes."

Juan nodded in agreement and said, "That's right. A stubborn and self-righteous person like him would rather live in the mistake forever than admit that he's wrong after all these years. How dumb of him to hate on the wrong person!"

Davin stayed silent as he stared at the siblings.

Steven obviously had had his own plans when he made a name for himself in Y City's business world back then.

He had been obsessed enough to fight for the companies Seet Group wanted to collaborate with and had tried to take over Seet Group. It wouldn't be easy for such an arrogant and narcissistic person to admit that he had been fooled by someone.

Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1549

Chapter 1549 Love

"You're both right. It'll be hard to get him to believe us when we have no proof to back us up."

"Uncle Davin, do you think the person who plotted everything back then is someone close to us? Do you think they still pay close attention to who lives and who dies in the Maupay family and the Seet family?"

"I can't say for sure since we have no evidence, but it's still possible. I can help investigate this matter. Let me contact the relatively good people in Y City's business world and see if I can find any clues."

"Let me help, Uncle Davin."

Davin looked at Juan before saying, "No. The people will not think much of it if I bring it up casually. But if you're with me, they will be curious and it'll alert the culprit. If you really want to help me, you can help with something else."

"What is it?"

"Help me explain to Sheep that I have no admirers, nor do I have any women trying to marry me. Just tell her that her intel was incorrect and that I was framed. Then, brag about my performance and tell her not to worry. Just stay in K Nation and take care of your grandparents, Joy, and Zayden."

"Are you really not planning to head back anymore?" Juan asked after hesitating for a moment.

"I want to help investigate this matter, Juan. So please stop asking if I'm going back. For now, we should work together and find out everything we can. Once the truth is out, and when the matter is finally resolved, the Seet family will finally be out of trouble. So there's no point in going back, is there? Sheep, your grandparents, Joy, and Zayden can all come back too."

Juan was at a loss for words.

Uncle Davin is quite persistent. He's usually peppy and lively, but he will still adhere to his principles at important moments. Fine, then. He can stay. We'll just have to act accordingly based on the situation when the time comes.

"All right, then. Just call us whenever you need help, Uncle Davin."

"Don't worry. But don't just stay idle and look for other clues while I do my part. Don't depend solely on me, all right? What if I can't get any results?"

"Okay. Daddy only gave us three days, so we're doing our very best too."

"Your dad... He really is ruthless! Well, it's his usual way of doing things."

"I'm sure Daddy was ruthless toward you in the past too, right?"

He was. But he was good too.

Although Evan had always been ruthless toward him on the outside, he had secretly helped his brother out many times. Davin knew this very well.

If we were ever trapped in a room, and it was guaranteed that only one of us would survive, I'm sure that Evan would tell me to get lost just so that I could live.

That was why his relationship with his brother had always been so precious to him all these years.

"That isn't ruthless. It's love expressed indirectly. Your dad actually likes me really much."

Love? Like?

Juan pursed his lips. "Hmm, but I remember when I was younger, Daddy liked to kick you, call your name through gritted teeth, and also tell you to get lost."

"Your dad is such a bossy person. That's just one of the ways he expresses his love," Davin argued.

"But Daddy has never done that to Mommy. The way he treats Mommy is what you would call love. Love should come from the bottom of your heart."

Davin answered after thinking about it for a moment, "There are many forms of love. The love your dad has for your mom is different from the one he has for me. It's completely different. It also means that your mom is very charming and capable. Being able to get such a bossy man to treat her so well is a required skill after all."

Here, he asked if there was any news about Nicole.

Juan shook his head. "No."

"Then what about your dad? Is he looking for her like a madman?"

"He still goes to Bernian Hospital every day."

Mistaking the CEO for a Gigolo Chapter 1550

Chapter 1550 A Casual Remark

He's been going to the hospital but isn't in a hurry to look for her? This doesn't feel right.

"Something's not right. There's definitely something wrong with your dad."

"You mean..."

"You've got to keep an eye on things, Juan. Now that your mom isn't here, other women might try to take advantage of the situation."

"No way! Besides Mommy, Daddy will never like other women."

"I didn't say that he likes other women. But there are men who put up an act just to get into bed with women. It's only a possibility that he'd do this."

"You're talking about yourself, aren't you?"

Davin saw Kyle's intimidating look the moment he turned around, which was exactly like the look Evan would give him that seemed to say, "Stop spouting nonsense."

His heart thumped, and he quickly stood up. "I have no ill intentions. It was just a casual remark. Don't mind my words. I'll go and investigate what happened back then right away."

When he reached the door, he turned back and said to Juan, "Don't forget to call your aunt Sheila. Explain everything to her and help me clear my name. Remember that, okay?"

With that, he turned and left.

Juan looked at Kyle and said, "I actually agree that Daddy is acting unusual. Logically speaking, he should be depressed and anxious when there isn't news from Mommy for so many days. But he's—"

"Keep an eye on things if you agree with it. I'm choosing to believe in Daddy."

Indeed, you've been with Daddy since you were young, Kyle. He's the one who raised you. It's no wonder why you can believe in him no matter what.

But I'm different. Mommy was the one who raised me. Even if I want to believe in Daddy and his relationship with Mommy, I still need to keep an eye on things for Mommy.

Suddenly, the sound of a phone ringing broke the silence in the office, pulling Juan back to reality.

He glanced at his phone and saw that it was Sheila calling.

Is she looking for Uncle Davin?

He quickly answered the call.

"Hello, Aunt Sheila."

"Juan, is the investigation of the two vixens who like your uncle Davin going well?"

"I was just about to talk to you about this. There was a misunderstanding, Aunt Sheila. I was mistaken. The person those vixens like isn't Uncle Davin. It's someone else."

Sheila knitted her brows.

"If there weren't any vixens around him, why would he think of so many ways to escape my surveillance and return to the country?"

"Well... He came back for work."

Work? You're telling me that Davin is passionate about his work? I don't buy it.

"I can assure you that Uncle Davin is really back because of company matters. He won't do anything bad. Besides, I'll keep an eye on him for you, so don't worry about it, Aunt Sheila."

Wait. Why is there such a sudden change in Juan's attitude? Something's not right. There's definitely something going on.

Sheila was getting more and more anxious after the call ended. Did Davin give Juan something? Is that the reason for the change in his attitude?

I knew it... The Seets will always choose to side with their family in the end. Looks like I'll have to look into this on my own.

"Davin, you'll be a dead man if you ever dare betray me."

The woman pocketed her phone, then put on her sunglasses and made her way out of the airport.

To avoid alerting anyone, she decided to book a hotel and stay there for the time being. She wanted to investigate what was happening in secret first.

That night, upon arriving home with Juan, Kyle sat on the couch and started texting Sally on his phone.

He wanted to pick up some clues from her. Be it his mother's whereabouts or the Maupay family's enemies, they were all useful in his investigation.

Seeing his brother being so serious, Juan got up and walked to the windows. He stared at the moon outside and sighed.

Where are you, Mommy? Are you having a hard time?

"Juan! I have news about Mommy!" Kyle shouted suddenly.
