

Chapter 2731

“Since a beauty like you is inviting me in, we might as well have fun together, right?”

Harvey York was curiously looking at Lexie York.

He wanted to see what this woman was planning to do.

He wasted no time and got inside the car before putting on his seat belt.

Lexie lightly chuckled before stepping on the pedal.

The Ferrari 488 was howling like a mad beast toward the Huancheng Expressway.

The coastline could be seen in the rain while the car was speeding up. Harvey tilted his head toward the woman beside him and asked, “Madam York, you didn’t just invite me here to watch the rain falling, right?

“I don’t have any interest in doing something like this with an old hag either.

“Why don’t you tell me why you came to me at such a specific time? What do you want to talk about?”

Lexie also had no intention of beating around the bush.

“I got news saying you can cure Selena Judd’s sickness and that you struck a deal with her,” she said.

Harvey shrugged.

“You’re well-informed, Madam York, but don’t you know that my condition is to prevent Vince York from being under Selena’s name?”

Lexie’s expression turned colder after hearing Harvey’s words.

Harvey's words seemed simple. He was just stopping Vince from being Selena's successor...

But in reality, with such a condition, Vince would lose his right to become the next legitimate head of the family.

It was enough for Harvey to destroy Vince's mind with just a simple condition.

"There's something I don't get, Sir York.

"You're quite the character yourself. You should know that an outsider like yourself can't just butt in the Yorks' business, even if you're a powerful man."

Lexie slightly opened her bright red lips.

"The Yorks of Hong Kong is at a crucial point of shifting power. It seems calm on the outside, but a storm has already been brewing.

"If some influential people from Hong Kong or

Las Vegas were to get involved, they might get themselves killed in an instant.

“What’s an outsider like you butting in for?”

“You have a death wish or something?”

Lexie stepped on the pedal, accelerating the car as she spoke.

The corner of her skirt flipped up, showing a hint of alluring fair skin on her leg.

Harvey showed a playful smirk while looking at Lexie’s deliberate attempt to seduce him.

Safe to say that this auntie was just some manipulative woman.

She was already so old, yet she still dared to use a petty trick like this. This trick must have been tried and tested.

It was a shame that Harvey was disinterested in a surefire tactic like this.

“I have no interest in you Yorks from Hong Kong.

“I also don't care if Vince rises to power.”

Harvey leaned on his seat indifferently.

“But, trouble just keeps coming back to me!

“Ever since I stepped foot in Hong Kong and Las Vegas, how many times has Vince tried to kill me?

“We all know how the world works, Madam York. You should know that I'm speaking facts.

“If it weren't for Vince constantly causing me trouble, why would I even bother going against useless filth like him?

“Since some filth wants to put me down, rather than watching him rise to power and come at me with all his might...

“I’d rather slap him to death before all that even happens.

“My train of thought should be logical enough, right?

“Or are you saying it’s only natural for Vince to kill me off?

“And if I retaliate, I’m the one being unreasonable?”

At this moment, a playful look was showing on Harvey’s face.

Chapter 2732

Lexie York's eyes twitched slightly after hearing Vince York being referred to as filth.

“As you said, we know how the world works, Sir York.

“The things you do are naturally justified.

“Vince is at fault for going against you in the first place. I'll go back and teach him a lesson, and I'll even get him to apologize at your doorstep.

“But, in return, I do hope you show your sincerity.

“This way, we'll be able to bury the hatchet. Both of you get what you want, no?

“After all, both of you are top talents of the younger generation on par in almost every single thing. If you two really went against each other, only others will benefit from the situation.”

Harvey lightly chuckled.

“Show my sincerity?”

“Let’s not go too far back, just yesterday. I’m sure you know what happened back in the Budokan.

“Don’t you know that Scarlett Leithold came to assassinate me with her group of people in the middle of the night?”

“You say you want to bury the hatchet, but you’ve only been trying to kill me off so far.

“Me meeting Selena Judd was a part of your plan too, wasn’t it?”

Harvey looked playful before showing a text from an unknown number on his phone.

Creaaak!

Lexie instinctively stopped the car after seeing the text, swerving the car backward in the middle of the rain.

After forcibly stopping the car, Lexie glared at Harvey and coldly exclaimed, “Who sent you this?!”

Lexie was filled with rage. The person that sent it might have been someone close to Vince.

If that were the case, it would mean that another force within the Yorks of Hong Kong wanted Vince dead.

Lexie rejoiced. She felt fortunate that she looked for Harvey at this moment.

Harvey was showing blatant ridicule in his eyes.

“You’re still pretending, Madam York?” said Harvey calmly.

“Vince wasn’t the one that sent the text?”

“Weren’t you the ones who got me out to save Helena Hoffman and meet with Lady Judd?”

“I don’t know if you’re planning to make Lady Judd kill me off or the other way around...”

“But let me tell you something. Your plan failed!”

“I convinced her to investigate the matter ten years ago!”

“I’m sure you and Vince must’ve been closely involved with the mastermind back then!”

“Just wait till you die!”

Harvey shrugged. He wanted Vince and Lexie to know about all this.

If he did not inform Lexie of this, the two would have died without even knowing about it.

Lexie's expression kept changing after hearing those words.

“Alright, Madam York. I don't think you're showing any sincerity at all!” he exclaimed.

“You keep scheming against me, but you're asking me to bury the hatchet?”

“If you really want to make peace, fine.

“If you want me to let Vince off the hook, then so be it.

“Make him kneel and beg in front of me.

“I might consider it if he does that.

“If not, tell him to get himself cleaned up. I'll go pick up his head when I feel like it.”

“It's a misunderstanding, Sir York. I can assure you.”

Lexie immediately came to her senses before bitterly glaring at Harvey. She did not seem enraged by Harvey's words at all.

“I swear to God. We definitely didn't send the text.”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2733

“I believe that someone working for Vince York was the one who did it. I’ll investigate this matter and give you a statement about it.”

Harvey York calmly smiled without giving a reply.

Lexie York looked at Harvey. The fierce look on her face was gone, completely replaced with care and affection.

“Sir York, I know you won’t believe anything I say.

“But, I still want to ask something from you. Tell Selena Judd that you’ll retract the deal.

“Vince can still be her good son.

“If we all turn a blind eye, all of us can survive these harsh times.”

Harvey burst out laughing.

“Are you a little too confident in your charm, or do you think I’m some sort of pervert who’s never seen a woman?”

“You think you can convince me just by spraying some perfume and taking me out to look at the scenery?”

“If you want something, you’d at least need to make some sacrifices for it, right?”

“You must be delusional if you think you can get whatever you want without any losses!”

Lexie showed a pitiful look on her face after hearing those words.

“Of course, you’ll have something in return, Sir York.

“If you tell Selena this...

“If you swear that you will never oppose Vince ever again...

“I promise you that our grudge will be written off immediately!

“From now on, you’ll be our important guest from Hong Kong and Las Vegas! You can do whatever you please here! No one will cause you trouble!

“On top of that, I’ll give you fifteen billion dollars!

“I’ll also give you a hillside villa!”

“I’ll even name all the spies of the Dragon Palace’s branch! You can completely take control of the organization!

“Money, status, and power are all yours!

“Please just help me out on this, Sir York.

“If you want anything else, I’ll get it for you!”

Lexie removed her seat belt and moved her alluring face right in front of Harvey. Her refreshing breath could be felt caressing Harvey’s face at this moment.

The bottomless cleavage in front of him would make any man fall into a trance.

Harvey playfully smirked. He did not believe that the fifth lady of the Yorks and the madam of Country H’s Dragon Palace would sell her own body for something this trivial.

This did not make any sense!

Without a second thought, Harvey derisively leaned back to stay away from the beauty before him.

“Madam York, I understand that you and Vince are extremely close, but I’m sorry, I don’t trust any of you!” he calmly exclaimed.

Lexie frowned before slightly opening her mouth.

“We’re still talking about the same thing repeatedly, Sir York.

“Besides, you’re a York yourself.

“The Yorks from South Light is also family.

“Do you really want to oppose Vince that badly?

“Or are you actually trying to take his place?”

“Don’t worry. I am not interested to become the head of the Yorks from Hong Kong,” replied Harvey calmly.

“I’m just disgusted by everything that he’s done.

“He conspired with the Islanders and betrayed his ancestors just to rise to power!

“He shamelessly proclaimed himself as Country H’s Chief Instructor!

“He killed a small child without mercy!

“He even threw away his humanity just to use the woman who loves him!

“Tell me. Why should I let go of someone this heinous and heartless?”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorlEnglish>

Chapter 2734

“You...”

Harvey York's words had utterly made Lexie York feel sluggish.

She did not expect that the perfect successor of the Yorks, in her eyes, was nothing to Harvey.

Lexie tried to calm herself down after taking a deep breath.

There was no way back after all that had already happened.

She looked at Harvey with a tender look in her eyes.

“Sir York, the things you said did happen.

“But, you of all people should know that men of great ambition are not concerned by trivial matters.

“Vince York only did all this because he had no choice.

“If he takes the position as the new head of the family, I’m sure he’ll definitely protect the citizens of the southeast waters in Country H’s stead!

“If he didn’t have such ambition and patriotism, why would I, the lady of the Dragon Palace, even help him in the first place?

“If you don’t believe Vince or me, you should at least put your trust in the Dragon Palace, right?

“This is the pillar of Country H that deals with outside forces. The one that’s most loyal to the country!

“The Dragon Palace is never wrong.”

Lexie kept leaning in toward Harvey’s face.

Their breaths were extremely close to each other then.

A pleasant smell wafted toward Harvey. It was indeed an alluring yet refreshing smell.

With such elegance and a face as beautiful as a painting, any man would have been moved in an instant.

“Sir York, if you’re still unsatisfied with my conditions, you can tell me what you want...”

“If you can resolve the situation and bury the hatchet...”

“If you can let Vince rise to power, I can give you everything...”

Harvey sized up the beauty in front of him with an odd look on his face.

‘Lexie was Vince’s auntie, right?’

‘Why would she even go this far for her nephew?’

‘She’s the lady of the Dragon Palace, after all!

‘Her status is extremely immense in both Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

‘Why would she bow to a young man like me and even sell her own body for his benefit?!

‘Something’s not right!

‘Maybe these two...’

An unbelievable thought came to Harvey’s mind.

If Harvey were actually right about this, then it would be safe to say that Vince was truly merciless!

“Please, Sir York. Help me out here...”

Before Harvey could even react, Lexie fell right onto Harvey and wrapped her hands around his neck as if she had lost all her strength.

The soft embrace was enough to make Harvey frown.

But, it was not because of Lexie's actions. A convoy could be seen passing by at this time.

The car window of a Toyota Alphard in the middle rolled down, showing Selena Judd's emotionless face.

It was only for a brief moment, but Harvey and Selena locked eyes before the convoy disappeared into the distance.

'B*tch!

'She set this up!'

Harvey finally came to his senses. Everything was just a play by Lexie.

Driving all the way here before giving a warm hug...

She only wanted Selena to see this!

Lexie would even do something like this just to save Vince!

Safe to say that those two were a lot closer than he initially thought!

Harvey kicked Lexie away with an expression as cold as ice.

Clack!

Lexie locked the doors instantly, forcing her and Harvey inside this tight space.

Harvey York squinted at the disappearing convoy before glancing back at Lexie York.

“You’ve been putting up a show this whole time just to let Lady Judd see this?” he coldly exclaimed.

“What? Now the show’s over, but you still intend to lock me in with you?”

“You’re not scared of me slapping you to death?”

Harvey sized up the woman in front of her.

He only wanted to get in the car in the first place to play tricks on Lexie, causing chaos and disarray for Vince.

Lexie had the same plan in mind. She wanted the weak alliance between Harvey and Selena Judd to crumble.

Safe to say that this woman was quite intriguing after all. It was enough to prove her intelligence in coming up with such tactics.

It was a shame that those so-called tactics were nothing more than a farce for Harvey.

“Selena’s already gone, and you can’t catch up to her. Besides, it’s raining outside. Are you not afraid of getting a cold, Sir York?”

Lexie sat back in her seat. The tender look on her face completely vanished.

She glanced back at Harvey with a prideful look in her eyes.

“You think that’ll work?”

Harvey calmed himself down.

“Lady Judd and I are only working together out of mutual benefit.

“She only accepted my deal not only because I can cure her sickness but also because she wants to know what happened ten years ago.

“She’s obviously an intelligent woman if she managed to stay in her position.

“If you think she’ll just give up because she saw us being all lovey-dovey inside a car, then you must be a little too naive!”

Lexie calmly chuckled.

“Selena is the current lady of the Yorks and also the lady of Wolsing’s Judd family.

“A big character like this can see through such small tricks!

“But, there’s something you don’t know.

“Selena’s obsessed with purity.

“She will never work with someone who tried to betray her.

“Simply put, the moment she sees us together, you have no right to meet her anymore.

“My plans were simple, but it was pretty effective.

“You’re a powerful man, so you should know that the one thing you can never hold is not power, status, or riches. It’s a person’s heart!”

Harvey sighed after seeing the beauty in front of him talking in such a righteous way.

“You must’ve planned for everything, Madam York! You’re pretty heinous, going after someone’s heart like that!”

Lexie showed a sweet smile.

“Thank you for your kind compliments, Sir York!”

Harvey squinted.

“But, speaking of one’s heart, you might not understand more than I do.

“A woman might be obsessed with purity...

“But don’t forget, Lady Judd and I didn’t even know each other before today.

“I’m not her husband, nor am I her child. Is her purity more important? Or the rage that never stopped haunting her for ten whole years?

“I think she knows better than the both of us.”

“You think I don’t know?

Lexie burst out laughing.

“Of course I do!

“But, there’s something you don’t know as well. My fourth brother hates me to the core!

“You think he’ll allow some disgusting man that has a thing with me to approach his loved one?”

<https://t.me/HarveyYorkEnglish>

Chapter 2736

“Where’s your proof?”

Harvey York was indifferent.

“You wouldn’t think that this is proof of us having an affair just because I got inside your car, right?”

“Your fourth brother is the head of the Yorks, after all! Do you think he’s really that naive?”

“He’ll believe it for sure.”

Lexie York showed a faint smile.

“I know he hates me to the core, but he cares about the family’s reputation the most.

“If I cry in front of him about an ignorant man trying to taint me and force Selena Judd to take the fall!

“Even with just a bit of proof, I’m sure he’ll definitely come for you!

“And Sir York, you should believe that it’s not hard at all for me to fabricate some proof!

“Either you kneel and beg me so you can become Vince York’s servant...

“Or you die!”

Harvey raised his hand and looked at his palm before shifting his gaze toward Lexie while showing a playful look on his face.

“Lexie, do you know what it means to be too smart for your own good?

“I know full well the kind of person you are.

“With how you do things, there’s no way you’d tell me every single thing you’re planning...

“You even mocked me in front of my face...

“You must be trying to agitate me, so I slap you in the face, right?”

“You didn’t think I’d see the camera you set up in the back seat, did you?”

“Or rather, did you think I wouldn’t see that unethical relationship you have with your nephew, Vince?”

Harvey then grabbed a stuffed animal pillow on the back seat and ripped it open before Lexie could even stop him.

A tiny camera and a voice recorder could be seen around the eyes of the pillow.

“All this for your little lover...”

“You really are wicked, aren’t you?”

“You try to break up my relationship with Selena, then force me to take action on you.”

“If I did just that, you’d edit the footage and publish it online or send it to Lord York through your channels.

“You’ll have proof of me using violence against you even before I make any advances!

“When that happens, from Grandma York to the guards of the family...

“Will prioritize ending my life!

“If this situation escalates, the incident ten years ago will mean absolutely nothing!

“What a disaster!

“What a great distraction!”

“If you were to succeed, I’d have to die or be kicked out of Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

“When that happens, Vince might even be able to rise to power legitimately!”

Harvey's calm words ultimately revealed Lexie's plans, peeling the truth from her bit by bit.

As expected from the fifth lady of the Yorks and the lady of the Dragon Palace.

Every single one of her plans was intertwined...

But these so-called plans were just ridiculous and naive dreams to Harvey.

Every time Harvey spoke, Lexie's face lost a bit of color. A horrible expression was showing on her face in the end.

Clack!

Harvey crushed the camera and the memory card before thoroughly looking around the car. Even Lexie's underclothes were not spared then.

Harvey showed a cold gaze as he frisked Lexie's body.

After finding another two cameras perfectly disguised as shirt buttons, he turned them to dust and showed a faint smile before returning to his seat.
