Chapter 103

Tanner's POV

The babies were in a hurry to get there and 30 minutes later Gabi was actively pushing our first child out. I don't know how fast Alpha Heath was driving to get them here in time, but I bet he set a new speed record for getting here. Von ran in about 5 minutes before Gabi started pushing, but I saw how happy Gabi was with Von getting there in time. The relief on her face was instant when she saw Von enter the room. / am glad they made it in time, as we literally got underway as soon as Von arrived. Our first son was here 8 minutes later. He is so cute. He has strong lungs and looks perfect, and they let me cut the cord. The nurse took him and cleaned him up and I followed her around. Gabi was worried, with cause, about our babies. She had been through enough and heard horror stories of babies taken in hospitals. Plus, there were those two families that wanted our children anyway. She was highly concerned, and she wanted me to stay with them. I would, every step, I know the nurse was nervous about me following her, but I told her, "I have always been interested in what you nurses do for the babies, and I wanted to say thank you for all you do. This is our first child and I just wanted to get to see him".

She smiled and nodded at me, and I watched her as she cleaned off the baby and put him in a warmer, as they are used to being warm. He was weighed and measured, and she did a couple of other things too, but I was so busy watching my son and admiring him, that I didn't catch it all. He was taken back to Gabi in a diaper and laid on her chest for her to try to feed him for the first time. He quickly took to her n*e, and it seemed like they had done this before. I stood proudly next to Gabi watching her and my son as he started to learn to nurse, and I was so proud of my baby, already. It was like nothing I had ever experienced before. I was protective before, but the love I felt for this little one I cannot even describe. / see a flash and I look up to see that my mom has taken a picture of me with her cell phone to capture the moment, and both she and Von have tears in their eyes looking at me, watching Gabi.

I smiled at them both and then looked down at Gabi and my son again, and Gabi was looking up at me and blissfully happy. I hold her free hand and watch as she feeds our baby. It doesn't take long, and he is done, and the nurse comes back to get him, and I follow her around again. They are checking his appearance and getting him wrapped up in a little blanket. They asked me if I wanted to hold him as his brother would be coming soon and I nodded and sat down in the chair near Gabi's bed so she could see him, as I knew she would feel better about it.

I sat there and held him carefully like he was fragile. I am trying to be safe with him. The same nurse walks up and adjusts him in my arms and I feel more comfortable this way and lean back in the chair and get my first really good look at him. He has my black hair, and I wait patiently for him to open his eyes again, as he has looked around several times, but I don't know what color his eyes are. A little while later, he opens his eyes and looks at me, and I see my own eyes looking back at me. He looks just like me and my father, and his name will be perfect. I tear up and can't see him because of my tears and I hear my mom, who is beside me getting her first really good look at him, and her seeing the same thing that I am. My miniature version of myself and my father. This must tug at my mother's heartstrings too, as he looks exactly like my infant picture on her desk.

I looked up at her, and she had tears in her eyes too. I looked back at Gabi, and she was smiling at me too, but the tears were making my eyes blurry. I tell her, "He has my hair and my eyes. He looks just like me and dad".

The doctor gets back where he was as it had been over 15 minutes and it is time for Gabi to start pushing again. I sit there holding our son and I am a proud father. I want everyone to see my son. I cannot wait for dad, my brother, and everyone to get here to see them both. I am so proud of them both and the second one isn't even here yet. Is this feeling normal? Do all parents feel this?

Gabi is a trooper, she is tough as nails. My pack is so lucky to have her. I know Dana started a lot of bullshit and rumors about Gabi, but the main one was she couldn't fight. I know my mate, she is going to mop the floor with those hateful girls. I know Dana may start the fight by herself, but she won't finish it that way. Even though I warned the whole pack about the consequences of helping Dana, and that they would get the same punishment as her. Dana is going to be banished after the fight. As a matter of fact, her stuff was going to be packed up the night before the fight, because no matter the outcome, she risked the lives of our pack members by allowing Taylor and Devon onto our land. It could have turned out very differently than it did, and an example has to be made for others to not break the pack rules, or the same thing would happen to them as well. "

I heard my son make a noise and I broke out of my thoughts and look at him and he was looking right at me like he knew I needed to focus on what was happening right now, and he was right. His brother was coming right now. I am near Gabi's head right now, but I can hear what the doctor was saying. He tells her to stop pushing for a minute, he gets whatever he needs to done, and tells Gabi that one more big push should do it. I could hardly stay seated, and I glanced over at Gabi. She was concentrating and really gave a grunt at that push, and it was done. I heard an equally loud wail fill the room and Gabi lay back, exhausted, and happy, that it was done. My mother took the baby from my arms so I could go and see my second son.

I saw Von standing there with tears in her eyes and so happy, and I stepped back to let her cut the cord for our second son. I already know what Gabi said, and this will mean more for them both for Von to cut it. He will be the heir to Ever Green. Heath, had kept asking. We were trying to keep it a secret and Heath finally explained why he wanted to know. Due to the firstborn taking over the pack, the twin, who just happened to be born 19 minutes later, gets nothing, except in this case. Heath was going to turn his pack over to the second son, or if it was a boy and a girl, if the girl didn't want it, he would give it to our next child. They would both be raised to run a pack, as an Alpha. I thought that was wonderful because I was worried about it myself. In this case, it would work out perfectly for our sons.

The nurse takes my son over and does the same thing for that son as well. I can tell his hair is lighter than my firstborn son's is, it looks like Gabi's hair. I stood then waiting patiently for him to open his eyes to see if he got Gabi's or mine. I didn't have to wait long, he opens his eyes and lets the world know he is displeased with being cold and is immediately put under the heat lamp and settled back down. I hope every problem he faces will be settled as easily as this was. He was checked out and he was absolutely perfect as well. He does have my face, but he has his mother's hair and eye color, which I thought was beautiful. It will also let us tell them apart easily too.

I follow the nurse back to Gabi for her to feed him and he nudges her n*e with his nose and then latches on. He eats for a little bit, and it seems like he will do just fine with it as well. They are both naturals at it, and I swell with pride at my smart boys.

The afterbirth is taken care of as they each had a placenta, and Gabi is done. She is happy but exhausted and she gets taken into another room and set up there. This room has two couches in it and a few chairs have been brought in as well. I heard our families coming before I saw them. Heath and Von came in first, followed by my mom and dad. My sister, Alicia, and her mate Anthony, Gavin, Wyatt, and Everly all enter the room. I saw Heath head to the little rolling beds and said, "both boys, that is wonderful. They are pretty big for twins too. We are so excited for you both". Gabi smiled happily from her bed, and I told them, "Well, Gabi and I would like to introduce you all to our sons. Firstborn, weighing in at 5.5 lbs. and 23 inches long, Dawson Wyatt Wright", I announced to the room, and I heard a gasp from both my dad and Alpha Wyatt. They were both beaming with pride, and I passed my dad his namesake.

"Our second born was also 23 inches long and weighed 5.1 lbs. and his name is Percival Heath Wright" and I passed his namesake into his waiting hands. Seeing such a big man start crying over a small baby was a sight to see. Von had her arm wrapped around his waist and was right there to look at him. Both of them had tears in their eyes looking at him.

I got in bed with Gabi on the side without the IV and we watched as our parents cooed and babied talked to our twins. Alicia and Alpha Wyatt and Luna Everly waited patiently for their turn as, apparently, you need to hold a baby for ten minutes before you let them go. Heath tugged Von into his lap when they sat down on the couch, to wait to hold Dawson. We would be calling them Dawson and Percy, but we wanted them all to know that we loved them and wanted to honor them by naming our twins after them. More cooing ensued and then Alicia, as she was passing Percy to her parents, told them that she was almost a month pregnant herself. Congratulations were all exchanged, and my mom could not have been more excited about getting even more grandchildren. I see Gavin sitting to the side and he is sad, and I feel bad for him as I remember how it felt for me when I was waiting for my mate.

I walked up to him and told him, "We know she isn't in our pack, don't give up hope. You are only 19 years old, she is out there. Aren't you going to train in Ever Green soon after they come back here for Gabi's fight? They just got a lot of people in there and your mate may be one of them. Don't give up, you will find her Gavin. I know you will have a wonderful mate".

Gavin nodded at me and said, "I know it just seems like you have it all right now, and I don't have anything. It is just frustrating, as I am about to turn 20 in a few months, and I just want my mate to be with

1. But I am so happy for you and Gabi. Your babies are the cutest babies I have seen, even if they happen to look like you"

"You know you look like me too, because we look like dad, right?" I teased him back.

"I know, I just couldn't resist, but they are really cute. I would like a few children of my own too", Gavin said.

"All in good time, I bet you will find her by your birthday.

"From your mouth to the Goddesses' ears. I hope she has a great girl picked out for me too", Gavin said, and then he walked off to go check out the babies with our parents. They had Percy now, and Alpha Heath and Von had Dawson. Everyone looked happy and I could see Alpha Wyatt giving Gabi a hug and thanking her for using his name for one of the babies. I could tell that it meant a lot to him, and I walked over to Gabi and edged back onto the bed with her.

"If you want to come here for Christmas Eve and please bring Stone, we can celebrate it with you, and then you can go back if you have something special planned for Christmas day. If not, you can just stay here with us and the babies. Mom and dad are taking a ski trip and we will be inviting Alpha Heath and Luna Von here as well. You can take turns trading the babies out and holding them. I am sure we might need to catch up on some sleep by that time, and we would love to have you here, we have plenty of room “I told them and watched them light up at the offer. Gabi and I had already discussed it and we knew that Christmas was going to be hard at Crimson Shadow, so we thought that we would welcome them here. It will help keep their minds off of Taylor, for at least a little while.

Chapter 104 Gabi's POV

We had a great Christmas and got to spend time with all three sets of grandparents as the trip for Dawson and Aria was from the 20th to the 24th, so they were back there at noon, on Christmas Eve and Aria told Tanner, “You never listen to us, I said around Christmas. How could you think that we would miss the babies' FIRST Christmas?”.

They all thought that it was super important for them to be here for the babies' first Christmas. I had asked Heath to spar with me and when he asked why he promptly got pissed off at Dana and her little bh squad. He nodded and said that we could use the gym whenever I wanted to, as he was definitely going to be there for the fight. I told him that Alan, Hudson, and Jameson would be there as well and he said, “The more the merrier”, but he wasn't smiling about it. I gave myself a week off to heal, but I knew dad would push me harder than anyone else to get where I needed to be. It was exactly what I needed too.

“Who are you fighting honey?” Luna Everly asked and so I had to explain what had happened, and since it involved Taylor, I know it was hard for them both. I knew they were still healing, but I didn't want to lie to them.

“I would actually like to watch you spar Gabi. I have never seen you fight before” Dawson said, and Aria agreed.

“We would as well, as I heard you were one of the elite fighters and I knew you had sparred on our land after we got to meet you, but we didn't get to see you in action” Alpha Wyatt spoke, and Luna Everly nodded in agreement.

“I will have Jason close down the gym tonight for Gabi to get some practice. Jason also wanted to spar with her, and that might help as she hadn't fought him ever before. He is our head trainer and a great friend. I am sure Gavin here would agree to be a “test dummy”, I mean sparring partner, for Gabi too, right, Gavin?” Tanner teased him.

“It would be my pleasure to be a “test dummy” for Gabi. I am at her service whenever she needs a sparring partner. I think you could too, Tanner, truth be told, I think she could take you down too. Gabi is a force to be reckoned with”, Gavin told me, and he is probably right.

“I will offer my services as well, Gabi, just don’t hurt me, baby,” Tanner told me and made me laugh.

“I can also volunteer Gabi, just don’t hurt me for real though, just a little please,” Stone said to

“I am a pretty good fighter, better than Dana, but it will help you to work with people with different fighting styles to prep for this. You did just give birth. You should have given yourself more time”. Aria told me, and I nodded and accepted her offer. She was right, fighting with her, Jason and Gavin would help me

Von and Aria got the babies bundled up and grabbed their bags and we all headed for the gym, as Jason was ready to go sparring with me. Heath was absolutely cute pushing Percy’s stroller and giving me tips and tricks as we walked to the gym. Jason was going to lock the door after we entered, and we would be in the back so no one would be able to see what we were about to do. I still wanted to keep my talents on the down low so they could all figure it out at the same time. I know that some still believe the st Dana was talking because they have known her for years, and I just got here recently, but to me, actions speak louder than words. Some people can talk a good game, but that is it, talk. They are good at telling you what you want to hear, and that is it.

Tran around the track five times to warm up and while I stretched, I reached out to Tala and made sure she was ready for this as well.

“I am always ready, Gabi. We have this. I have told you before that you are so strong, even stronger than you ever realized” Tala mind linked me.

“I know we are strong, Tala, but I am worried maybe I need three weeks to prep for the fight, not just two weeks. I knew I needed to take it easy that first week. Giving birth is tough, and my body needed to heal” I mindlinked her back.

“I am with you, here tonight, and will help you in the fight with Dana too. You are correct, it will not just be her fighting. I believe that those girls are going around trying to get people to agree to help them. I hear whispers in the hallways, but so far most are scared to agree, because of what Tanner told them.

They know what Dana did, and know her penalty will be bad, but the other three girls aren't aware her penalty will be that stiff yet. Some of these girls aren't terribly bright around here" Tala mindlinked me

I stepped up to the mat and saw Stone standing there, and he looked nervous. "Don't forget you love me, Gabi, I am your brother", he said, before taking his stance.

"I do love you. It will be OK, Stone" I told him. He likes Jiu-Jitsu a lot, and that is what he always uses. He needed to learn more and I told him that we were going blow for blow, that he needed to be well rounded so he could take his opponent by surprise. Then I took him down fast, and hard onto the padded mat. It still knocked the breath out of him, and when he finally was able to take a deep breath and sit up, he said, "Well that was fun, NEXT" and headed back over to Alpha Wyatt and Luna Everly, who were both impressed at me getting down an Alpha, so much larger than me, and not breathing hard.

Alpha Wyatt leaned forward and said to Heath, "Can Stone come and train in your pack when the competition comes to train at Ever Green? I think Gabi is right in what she said, he needs to be more well-rounded".

"Gabi was correct in what she told him, and he telegraphs what he is going to do before he does it. He needs to stop that now because he will easily be defeated if he keeps it up", Heath told Alpha

Wyatt.

Aris steps onto the mat and says, "Great job, Gabi. Hopefully, it will be harder to take me down. I have been training for longer than you have been alive".

"I have only been training for 8 months, but I had an excellent trainer". I smiled over at Heath, and we got into our stances and waited for Jason to start the fight. Aria was good, a lot better than Stone, but she telegraphs too, on a lot of her moves and it allowed me to be able to dodge the harder blows. We keep at it until I can sweep her feet and put her into an armbar, and she taps.

Aria gets up impressed and tells me how proud she is of me. Then she said, "We should sell popcorn at this fight, Dawson, this is really going to be a show". Dawson nods and looks at me and says, "We may need you to start training our people here too, Gabi, you seem to read their minds".

“No, not a mind-reader. They both telegraph their blows. It lets me be able to avoid the harder blows and land a few of my own. We can always be a better fighting pack. BUT I will tell you my trainer, who tries to make sure we have no loss of life, advocates taking care of them at a distance. I can take out 100 wolves, if I am loaded up with ammo, properly. I always have my magazines loaded and ready so I can just drop them and put in a new one. If we get attacked by 200 wolves, and I already took out half of them, the rest will either scatter or end up being killed if we are all properly trained. I think we also need to train in weapons too. Heath trained me, and I am very comfortable with a gun on my thigh. The most important thing is no loss of life on our end to me. That is my goal as the Luna here, to protect my pack”, I told them. I see Heath and Von looking at me proudly and Dawson and Aria smiling widely at me. Wyatt and Everly nod in approval as well, and Jason is really impressed about learning about the weapons.

“So, you would be willing to train us on the gun, and martial arts weapons to Gabi?” Jason asked me as he stepped to the ring and Tanner stepped up to call the match.

“I would, but I wouldn’t be alone in the training. Tanner can help some, and I would have the team here, for like a week or two, for everyone that wanted to learn to be able to do it. But this will be after the testing is done. The fundamentals come with respect for the weapon, as well as putting in the time to use it and get comfortable with it. It is a dangerous weapon that can cut a throat out quickly for you to move on to the next rogue. It takes time to master, but that is why the elite team is so dangerous. We can work our way through a lot of rogues, killing as we go. Time is of the essence when you are dealing with rogues”,

I told them

Jason and I square off and get in our stances, and Jason comes at me hard as soon as Tanner starts the match. I anticipated that he was going to. He is a man who, looking at me, thinks that I am defenseless. I am good with that as I didn’t break a sweat or show my true hand in the first two matches. Jason is good, and he didn’t expect me to duck under his arm and give him a hard back elbow strike, and I was already turning to give him a stepping sidekick and I got him down like a tree. I wasted no time jumping on him to sit on his chest to get him into a front mount and putting my arm around his head. I can control his movements now with my body weight, even though I am smaller than him, as I have him wrapped up and am using my arm and shoulder to choke him and keep him from breathing correctly. I waited for the tap, and it only took about 15 seconds for him to admit defeat, and I know it hurt him to do it. I immediately release him when he tapped, and I hopped up and held my hand out to help him up. Jason stands up and gives me a big smile. I bet he heard the rumors that Dana had been spewing, and I hope I give her just as big a surprise when we fight.

put a finger to my lips and said, “Don’t tell anyone. I want them all to be as surprised as she is when we fight. Don’t worry about me. I know that Dana can’t beat me and that she is going to get Elise, Gina, and Ava to jump me from behind. But I didn't want to hurt you, so I controlled what I did. I WILL want to hurt them so I can give them moves that will take them down for a few minutes while I work through the rest of them. I don't hurt people I like", I told him, and then looked over to the group and they were even more impressed

"I would like to come two days early, with the boys, for you to be fully up to speed, Gabi. I know you just gave birth, but you not being able to do the moves because of having to be careful because you were pregnant. It doesn't apply anymore. I also recommend that you bring your Sai and Kamas with you to the fight. I have a suspicion that Dana will bring a weapon with her. If it is a gun, I will take care of her. But I want you prepared. I think it is ridiculous that this ignorant woman is so jealous of you that she would be making up so many lies about you. It truly shows her character. But even with not being able to train for a while, you are still my little terminator, and I am so proud of you", Heath told me, and came over to kiss the top of my head as he cradled baby Percy in his other arm.

Chapter 105 Tanner's POV

This has been the best Christmas that I can ever remember I think as I sit with Gabi in my lap and watch the grandparents play "pass the baby" over and over again. Did my grandparents do that when I was born? I honestly cannot remember, but it was great that they each loved the babies so much. Not partial to one of them, and love them both equally, they just wanted to smell the scent off their little heads and hold them until it was time to feed them and change their diapers, then they were glad to pass them along. Gabi is asleep on my lap, and my life feels perfect right now. I see Wyatt and Everly making faces at Dawson, and he is giving them a cute little smile, and you would have thought he hung the moon with how impressed they are with him. My parents have Percy right now, and they are just as impressed. Heath and Von are snuggling together and watching the other grandparents hold the babies, and the day went on well like that.

I cannot remember having better cookies and pastries either. Sarah made some of the most delicious baked goods I have ever put in my mouth. She could have her own bakery I swear. I am so glad she is here. Devon has been excelling at the training, and he will be a force to be reckoned with as I really think he will be making the team. I am glad I didn't just let him go like I wanted to. This has worked out very well for them and for me. If she didn't love making clothes so much, I would suggest that she bake every day.

We all had a great day, and a great meal as each of the Luna's helped make the meal, and it was a wonderful day. I look forward to the New Year, and Gabi taking care of the "bh brigade". I knew she would not be playing with them like she played with Stone, my mom, and Jason. Jason was still hella impressed and he cannot wait for the fight to happen. He even had a Team Gabi t-shirt made up and is really going to wear it to the fight. The fight keeps getting bigger and bigger it seems with people almost going crazy on it, and now bets are even being taken. They will fight on January the 5th, and I think Gabi could beat the pants off of them tomorrow, but Heath is going to treat it like a military mission and leave no room for Gabi to be hurt. Even with 4 against 1. He will take those odds and ram them down their throats because Heath will make sure that Gabi is ready for the fight.

10 DAYS LATER

It was now January fourth, and the fight will be tomorrow. Heath and Von came in last night with Alan, Jameson, Hudson, Easton, Angela, and their precious baby Brendan. The guys and Heath took Gabi and went to the gym with Jason, so they could lock it down again. They were out there for almost 3 hours, and they were all red and sweaty when they came back. They all went to grab showers and then came back down to eat. Gabi headed to me, as I had the babies and Gabi needed to feed the babies.

We were all sitting there after we had eaten, and Ava and Gina passed by to try to flirt with Jameson, Alan, and Hudson and were immediately shut down. So, they switched to messing with Gabi.

“You should go ahead and give up now Gabi, so you don’t get embarrassed tomorrow. You shouldn’t have agreed to fight Dana. It will be your funeral” Gina said and both she and Ava started laughing. Elise walks up and joins them and said, “I just spoke with Dana. She is good to go for tomorrow, I hope you are, but it is your own funeral. You shouldn’t have decided to fight her. She is going to mop the floor with you”.

Alan started laughing and said, “I look forward to seeing that tomorrow. You have convinced me that Dana will win” and then started to laugh harder. The rest of the guys on the team started laughing too as the girls got madder.

“Then you need to make sure everyone comes tomorrow to see it, all her backers can sit in her area.

I look forward to seeing them too tomorrow” Gabi told her with a serious face.

“What an excellent idea Gabi, that is the first time you have made a good point. We will be sure to pass that along, so Dana’s fans know where to sit. See you tomorrow, Gabi” Elise turns to walk away and comes back to the table. “Oh, one more thing before I forget, Dana said that she would give you a pass on beating you up tomorrow, if you decided to leave Blood Rose, and Tanner. I would suggest you take her up on it, as she has been really training hard” Elise finished and turned again to walk away. I grimace and frown, as this wasn’t a battle for Luna, Gabi was already Luna, and she wouldn’t be getting replaced. No matter what, Gabi is the Luna.

“I think I will take my chances, Elise. Please tell Dana, good luck tomorrow in the fight, and I am sure I will see you three there as well” Gabi told her and sat back in her chair.

I see the guys grinning after them and then laughing before they could get 20 feet away. I see all three of them turn around and make a big deal out of being laughed at. If they think that is bad, wait until tomorrow when they get thoroughly embarrassed at the fight. Gabi is going to teach them all a lesson about listening to an it. I will have a few more warriors who aren’t friends with Dana and her little friends, getting their stuff packed up, as I am sure they will be stepping up to help Dana in the fight. I don’t why, or what she promised them, but they are backing someone who betrayed her pack, to try to become Luna. She had her own mate, which she rejected because she wanted a higher rank. She should have kept her own mate, as there is no one better suited for her, but with how she is, that guy really dodged a bullet with her, i guarantee you he is probably better off without her.

We headed up to our rooms, as I wanted Gabi to get a good night’s sleep. We put the babies to sleep after their last feeding and I led Gabito our room after we turned out their light. We still have another week and a half, before we can have six. Gabi will be checked out by her doctor on the 15th and then he can tell us if she is OK, or if she has to wait another week. With our wolves, we heal faster, so I am hoping that she will be given the all-clear at the month mark. But I can tell that she is stressed about tomorrow. I hate that Dana ran all over the pack talking about Gabi before people could get to know her. I don’t know what all Dana has said about Gabi to the pack members, but we WILL get it straightened out after the fight. Anyone who joins in attacking Gabi is out of here, and I don’t care who they are.

Gabi had showered two hours ago when she came back from the gym, and she was coming out of the bathroom in her nightshirt from brushing her teeth. It was just a big t-shirt but seeing my mate with her panties skimming the t-shirt, got my head doing a double-take. I know we can't have s*x, but there was nothing wrong with helping my mate get some better sleep tonight. I came up behind her and rubbed her shoulders and felt some knots, so I had her sit down on the bed and I crawled across to get behind her again on my knees and gave her a neck and should rub. Gabi moaned her approval of what I was doing, and she felt the response I had from helping her out with this.

Gabi could feel how much I enjoyed her moan and looked over her shoulder at me and told me, "We can't yet Tanner. I feel like I am OK to have s*x, but I would rather get the doctors approval before we do. It's only been three weeks".

"No, I was just going to help you out baby, I don't need to have s*x," I told her.

Gabi looked at my lap, and then back into my eyes, and said, "I don't think he got the memo, Tanner" and then grinned at me.

"I can help you out so you can relax and get a good night's sleep. I know everyone is excited about the fight tomorrow, and I know that it is causing you some stress, so I wanted to help you be able to sleep well. Don't you usually sleep better after you have an o* m?" I asked her, and she nodded. I moved back so she could lay down on the bed, and I pulled her underwear down her legs. I am so glad that she is my mate I thought as I removed them and then threw them on the floor. She doesn't need them tonight.

I lay between her legs and pushed her heels towards her legs to get in closer and started slowly, to let her get into it. Gabi relaxed and I used a finger gently and worked her up until her legs were shaking hard and I knew she was about to c*m. I slowed down and brought her back down and felt a whimper of frustration from Gabi, which made me smile. I stop playing with her and bring her close again and I know what she likes, I sucked her clit into my mouth and Gabi came hard. I held her legs while she was bucking, and then Gabi stopped like she was too weak to do anything. She was laying there with a smile on her face and trying to calm her breathing. Gabi sits up and leans forward to kiss me as she ran her hand into my sweatpants. I pulled back and told her, "No, I was just trying to help you out. I will be fine".

You will be baby, I will make sure of it" Gabi said as she told me to get where she had been on the bed as she got up and went to the end of the bed. I see her crawling up the bed towards me and it was the sexiest thing I have ever seen in my life. My wife is a stunner, and I am the luckiest man in the world. I pulled my sweatpants down and Gabi was very enthusiastic about helping me out. I was putty in her hands after 3 weeks of no s'x, since the babies were born. I felt the familiar feeling coming over me and I tried to pull Gabi away, but she stayed there and took every last drop when I came. We both went back into the bathroom to take care of business before we go to bed. We both fell asleep quickly into a good sleep. Even with the knowledge that tomorrow was going to be a tough day, with an expected 4 against 1, in a very uneven fight.

Chapter 106 Tanner's POV

I was right, we both had a great night's sleep, and I feel excited for today I feel confident that Gabi was ready to kick some ass I mindlinked the gate guards to tell them that Crimson Shadow was coming today and to let Alpha Wyati, Lunal verly, and soon to be Alpha Stone in as they were coming to support Gabi today The fight was at 2, and Gabi is working around the schedule to feed the babies, but she also expresses for them, and we have a bag that we will be putting two bottles in that keeps the bottle cold until we need to use them, just in case the babies get hungry, or the fight goes over My mom usually helps us, as she lives here, so she was good with prepping the bottles and then letting Iverly and Von feed the babies. I already had the first row for Gabi's side saved for the family to sit on. I also had the second row for overflow and for Jason, Alan, Hudson, Jameson, Easton, Angela, and their baby

They all wanted to be ready to jump in to help if the number of jealous girls got too high. Angela wasn't on the elite team, but I have seen her fight, and she is tough Angela told us that we would need the extra seats as i den and her mate Caden, would be coming here today with her son Jackson, and Amanda Ross, Gabi's other best friend would be coming as well, to see Gabi and the babies, and have Gabi's back I have heard about both of them, and they were nice to Gabi at I vei Green, when she first got there, and I know how much Gabi loves them both. Irom what Angela just said to me, Amanda and I den would both jump in to fight to protect Gabi, even with being Omega's They both love her and will back her up, so these girls thinking that Gabi is by herself are going to have a surprise. I know Gabi wants to deal with them herself, but if things go south, I know they will jump in and help her.

I mindlink the guards with their names and the pack they are coming from, and we head down to lunch. Gabi let me sleep and got up and fed the boys, got them changed, and then came back to bed, for a little more sleep, as she had slept so well. We ended up getting up at almost 11 Gabi fed them again and we got dressed and came down to grab lunch. I got my plate and came back to the table while Gabi watched the boys, and then Gabi went to get her food. The babies are just the best, calm, and not fussy, unless it is past their feeding times then we will hear about it. Gabi has got the breastfeeding thing down, and she loves to bond with them and hold their little hands while she feeds them. She said that she feels so close to them when she feeds them.

I see my parents coming our way and they join us for lunch. How are you feeling Gabi? You, OK? We didn't see you guys this morning for breakfast" My mom asked.

"I am fine. we slept in, and I got up and fed and changed the boys, and then took a nap with Tanner. I guess I needed the sleep" Gabi said and smiled at them

"Are you nervous fighting Dana and the girls?" My dad asked her.

"No, I anticipate that they will jump in, and they will earn the punishment that they get, plus what Tanner gives them. I was pregnant when I got here, so that helped people think that Dana's lies were the truth. It didn't matter what Tanner or Alan said to them in rebuttal. To the ones that believe it, they think because I am the only female to make the team that I slept my way onto the team, until we get this done, they will continue to believe it. I am not worried about Dana's or her friend's opinions, but I do take offense to the people who blindly believed the jealous girls slandering my name just because they wanted my mate. Dana had a mate, but she decided to reject him, because he was a warrior too, and she wanted a higher ranking. Taylor wanted the same thing, and I hope Dana isn't as far gone as Taylor was. But if Dana pulls a weapon on me during the fight, all bets are off, attempting to kill the Luna of your pack, it is an automatic death sentence" Gabi told them and I nodded, I agree 100% with her. If Dana or any of the girls pull a gun, or weapon out to finish Gabi, I cannot allow them to live, they won't be banished they will be dead.

I get a mindlink that Both the Wilson's have arrived from the Crimson Shadow pack, and that Eden has as well from Ever Green and I told Gabi that her parents and her friends were here, and we headed to the front of the packhouse to greet them. I see my brother Gavin swinging a girl around in his arms, and she told him to put her down.

He sets her down carefully and looks at her, and we can all see it the second she looks him in the eyes. Gabi's friend Amanda is Gavin's mate. She hugs him and he is ecstatic about finding his mate too. Gabi is smiling and I see Gavin look over at me and I have never seen him happier. Eden and Caden are looking at them smiling, and Caden was carrying baby Jackson and they looked like a happy family. They come around I den's car and Gabi gasps as she sees that Eden is pregnant, and she runs down the steps to congratulate her and Caden. You can see how happy they are together. Eden and Gabi are talking excitedly up the steps as Caden walks in behind them speaking with Stone. They are still friends, and Stone never blamed him for rejecting Taylor. Caden had been punished enough, and the Goddess blessed him right then and there with Eden.

We head back into the dining room and we see Heath and Von sitting there and they greeted them, baby Jackson was glad to see them both and was moving his little arms all around. He is 7 months old now, and he is a cutie. My parents were surprised to see us come back and Gavin is clearly in love. My mom has a huge smile on her face, her third child has found his mate, and she couldn't be happier about it, plus of course potential grandchildren Amanda is really cute, so she and Gavin will have cute pups. Gabi takes the opportunity to take care of the babies while we were here visiting, and they were happy to meet the new people.

Eden and Amanda gushed over how cute the twins were, and I waited on it because I knew it was coming. Gavin finally couldn't take it, and said, "You know our babies will look like that as well because Tanner and I look alike" Eden tried to hide her smile with her hand, but Amanda was blushing furiously at what Gavin had said. Gabi had a huge smile on her face and said, "Yes, Gavin is a very handsome guy". I had to reach over and turn her face to me and say, "No, baby, you only have eyes for me, remember" and she laughed and leaned over to give me a kiss.

"Well, isn't this a sweet family moment" I heard a familiar voice and looked up to see Dana standing there with her three besties

"Apparently she can't stop making out with Tanner They are always doing that" Elise said.

"Yes, she really enjoys the company of men," Gina said. "I can't wait to see you kick her ass, Dana" Ava said.

"You can all keep it moving, I don't have to see you for another 30 minutes, or so. I will need to come in early and stretch and warm-up but trust me when I say that I won't be looking at your ugly face while I do it" Gabi told them and I was so proud of her for standing up for herself.

"Yes, you all can be utilizing your time to try to get up some people to sit in your stands to support you during the fight. Aren't you worried no one will be sitting in your stands, Dana?" I told her

"I am not worried about it, I have been training for this fight for whole three weeks, and Gabi couldn't because she had given birth. So, I didn't have to train as hard. I don't want to embarrass her too much, all I have to do is show everyone that Gabi didn't earn her way onto that team, she earned it on her back. I don't care what those other Trainers or you said. I KNOW because my friend Tatum told me so at the mall the last time that I saw her, at the end of May She said that she tried to report it to the Alpha of Iver Green, but that Gabi was sleeping with him too, so no one did anything about it” Dana said and then the whole dining room froze as a thunderous growl sounded from Alpha Heath, as he rose slowly from his chair and looked Dana dead in the eye and said, “What did Tatum tell you again?” in a deadly voice

Dana repeated everything that she said and while she was talking Von stood up and tried to wrap her arms around Heath to get him to focus on her, but in this instance, she couldn't get him calmed down, all four of the girls stepped back from our table and were visible scared. Alan, Hudson, James, and Laston came running into the dining room as they knew that roar and came to our table to see what happened.

“Is that the rumor that you have been spreading then? That Gabi was sleeping with the team, and the Alpha of [ver Green to ensure her place on the team?” Heath asked Dana, and I don't know if she will live to be able to fight Gabi at this point.

“Yes, because it isn't a rumor, it is the truth. My friend told me, and she was there. She saw the whole thing And she said that when she tried to tell the Luna of Ever Green, that she was kicked out of the pack for some made up reason Dana told them and then von turned around and looked at her with a face I have never seen on her before She is always smiling and kind, but right now. Von was about to kick all four of those girl's asses. I could see it on her face. Gabi stepped between them and said calmly. So you have nothing to worry about! then nght Dana? Since I didn' eam my spot, oh and just for the record if you pull a weapon on me during the match or any of your friends who join in the fight have a weapon that changes the terms of the fight, and I will kill whoever does it. It is against the law to threaten your luna, and whether you like it or not, I AM your Luna”.

The girls all blushed as they cannot believe Gabi knew what they were planning, but Dana didn't even flinch. “No one was planning on jumping you Gabi, I don't need help to beat you,” Dana said with a smirk.

“I will see you there in thirty minutes, you go ahead and do what you need to do, but I assure you, you will not be winning this fight, Dana. Be seeing you girls” Gabi said as she leaned over to look at them as she gave them a little finger wave, and they were mad. Mad that Gabi knew, and mad that Gabi called them on it. This is going to be a good fight.
