Testing Gets Started

Chapter 57

Tanner's POV

I was led into the forest by Alpha Heath, as he gave me instructions the whole way in. Just like with Gabi's testing, Alan didn't want Alpha Heath to know what the full plan was on the testing, just that two men would be in the forest, and two men on the training field. Alpha Heath was calm and collected as he gave me tips while we walked further into the forest. I can tell that Heath wants me to do well, but he has never seen me fight, and other than me being Gabi's mate, he has no real knowledge of me.

Yes, I goofed around with the guys, I like them, every single guy on the team is a good man, and I feel better about Gabi going with them to Red River, but she will never be safer than she is with me with her. I love her and she is my priority, my number one most important thing in my life, and I would gladly kill for her. I know she would do the same for me. I shake my head and try to get back into the game because I didn't get much sleep, but just getting breakfast with Gabi helped me so much.

Seeing her with a baby in her arms and knowing that she wants one with me, I feel invincible. I feel 12 feet tall, and I am about to make these guys work to kill me off. I can tell she is ready now, and I will end every single person on her team to get back to her. Alpha Heath has stopped walking and was looking at me with a serious expression, and then he starts laughing.

"Son, you are going to have to get your head in the game. I already know you NEED to get back to Gabi, but trust me when I tell you she was right when she said that you need to have patience. She will still be there waiting on you when you get done, so make sure she is proud of you when you see her. We all know she is ready to mate now, she let everyone anywhere around our table know. Gabi having that baby in her arms, it does that to women, Tanner. Stop, right now, or your lack of focus is going to get you "killed" and quick out here. They love Gabi, and they really like you too. But their pride took a hit when the first woman ever, and a fairly small one at that, got on the team. Hell, she made it look easy, and that is hard for some men to swallow. Alan, as the leader, was having already set her up to fail, but he forgot two things. First, Jameson is fair, above everything else, and couldn't accept what Alan was doing to Gabi. Second, she is mine and he forgot that I trained him. I needed to remind him, that he is only as good as his trainer until he can see the bigger picture, and realize that he needs to improve. Every. Single. Day. You cannot rest on your laurels; you have to actively try to improve yourself every single day. Alan got cocky and complacent. He also forgot that I consider Gabi to be My child, and I wasn't going to let him hurt her, whether he wanted to train her or not. So, I got with Jameson, and he stepped up to make it right. It wasn't a coincidence; Gabi trained her ass off, and the third time Alan canceled on her, I knew what he was doing. He cannot outfox me" Alpha Heath told me, and I realized that this was a life lesson, and applied to me being Alpha as well with what he was telling me for today on the field.

"Thank you, Alpha Heath, for the words of advice. I WAS going to try to hurry back to Gabi, but she will be more proud of me if I can manage to make the team on my own. I also am thankful don't have to fight her, as I know she will be a force to be reckoned with. I only got to see her fight for about a minute and a half before she scented me, and then ran off, but Jameson told me how good she is with her weapons. Hudson told me she is great with a bow and arrow but perfect with her gun. I know she is good, but she told me what happened to her at Red River, and I will be damned if I let her go back to the heinous pack, with Monty, Derek, and Jack there and not be there to protect her. I will not allow it" I told Alpha Heath.

"Focus on this task then Tanner, do your best. Forget this is training and play this like you are trying to rescue Gabi from those 4 men. Please don't hurt them, as they are about to ship out, but keep your focus. Use your wolf to help you with this. Tala helped Gabi, and it was how she ended up surprising Alan and beating him at his own game because she was not where he anticipated that she would be. Good luck, son, I will be supervising the testing, but I cannot help you anymore. We start in five minutes, now that you are in place" Alpha Heath told me, and then left me in the forest.

Gabi had told me that she climbed a tree and got a good vantage point and that was how she took the first two out. They will expect the same from me, but I walked in here with a backpack, I have two ghillie suits with me. One with leaves on it, and the other looks like grass. I will be in my suit in the tree. They will never see me. I plan to stay up in the tree for hours if I need to. I slip it on and then climb up the tree about thirty feet up. I close my eyes and start listening as I called out to my wolf Rafe, in mindlink.

"We are going to beat them, Tanner. You can calm down. I am already hiding our scent. After Gabi beat them, they are coming in slower than they did with her. They learned a lesson with our little mate. Tala helped her a lot, and I will help you to win as well. They are good, but none of them are Alphas. Now, stop worrying about Gabi, as they are approaching, and you are still worried about her at Red River pack" Rafe tells me and I open my eyes but do not move.

I can't believe I didn't hear them coming. They are good, but not as silent as they needed to be as now that I am focused, I can even hear their heartbeats. I wait and let them pass me, and I am thankful that Rafe can indeed hide our scent. This test would be a lot harder on me if he couldn't. It is not against the rules to hide your scent, it is just that a lot of wolves can't hide their scent well. My family does a very good job of being able to hide our scents. I start wondering if my sons and daughters will be able to do it and Rafe growls inside my head. st. I linked him back, "I won't do it again. I am 100% invested in this".

I see them moving slowly and not near each other as they go to feel me out, as they cannot smell me. I see them doubling back and they are quieter now, I wonder if they can hear my heart beating. I need to act, but I remember Gabi telling me to use my wits, she told me that I needed to be patient, she had been on hers and she did great. I need to do the same thing. They are about 15 feet away from me, on my left and my right side but both are looking away from each other and me. I grab the rock I have in the bottom of my backpack and throw it about 50 feet away from me.

They both turn towards the sound of the rock hitting the tree and start moving in that direction and using hand signals with each other. The one on the left will be harder to hit, so I already know that I will have to get him first. I line up my shot and before I take it, I glance over to the second man who is also still heading towards when I threw the rock and I take the shot. I hit the first man in the back of the head, and he went down, the man on my right jumps behind a tree and looks back in my direction, but I am very well covered in the tree. I know that he will be coming for me soon and I relax and closed my eyes and had Rafe listen for when he was going to make his move. Rafe told me that the man was about to run, but he didn't know which direction the man would go.

The man breaks to his left, which was my right, and I was glad, as it would have been a whole lot harder to hit him if he had gone the other way. I see him running and bent down so I wouldn't have a full-size target and I go ahead and drop down with my backpack to the lower branches. He is behind another tree now and he knows where! am now too. I see he has two of those things that Gabi has in her room, one in each hand and I know who it is now,

D DO

OM

Jameson. I know that I had better not let him anywhere near me, as he is deadly with them. We are both sizing each other up, and he knows I already have a bead on him, I was just waiting on him to come out. I will need to take the shot quickly as he is less than 20 feet away and I need my shot to count. Jameson will be moving fast, when he does

We are in this stand-off for over 20 minutes. My arms are burning from holding the gun still because I won't have time to get my kill shot if I put the gun down. Rafe gives me a heads up that Jameson is about to move and I re-focus on Jameson again. We wait another couple of minutes, before Jameson runs right to me, with his blades ready to go. I only have a literal 2 seconds to get this right as he is moving fast and I hit him in the forehead, center mass, and he went down, but he was within two feet of me when he finally went down, and I could have been out of the test, right then. Jameson gets up and grins at me, and I am glad that they wear protective equipment, as I could have blinded him if I messed up. Jameson holds his thumb and index finger about an inch apart to silently tell me that we both knew it had been close, and I grinned back at him. Jameson exits the area, and I changed into my other suit. I don't know who is left, but I know that Hudson is a ck shot and a sniper, and I need to figure out where he is. I have no idea who I took out first as he was in a suit himself and never took it off before he left. It really didn't matter who was left, as with this testing, Hudson can't use his rifle. My arms still hurt, but I am almost positive that I will have to go hand to hand for the next two kills, and I think of Gabi, and I work the kinks out of my arms. Nothing is going to keep me from protecting her at Red River. I will earn this spot on the team. I get on my stomach and keep the suit hood over my head and I leopard crawl my way towards the edge of the forest where it meets the training field. I have to go slowly, so it takes me about 45 minutes to get where I need to be. I use Gabi's sight she gave me to use in the testing. While I keep the hood on, I started looking for the last two men I needed to take out. I let out a little sigh of relief when I see a lump on the right end of the field move, and I find one of the last two.

Rejected but not Broken by KatVonBeck Chapter 58

Testing is Complete

Chapter 58

Tanner's POV

I just need to know where the last man is. I need to find him before he finds me. I need a bead on both of them. I will shoot the one closest to me and then I can go hand-to-hand on the last guy if needed. The one nearest the stands, as I come towards Gabi. I see her sitting there and she is looking nervous for me. I have to stop looking at her, I have to concentrate, I could have the missing trainer come up and shoot me in the head, and it will be game over for me.

Trefocus, and just in time too. I see someone move about thirty feet past where I saw the first lump, but this second one is half the size of the first. I bet the last one is Alan, and he dug down into the ground to not stand out and I have to say it worked, if I wasn't going as slow as I was, I would never have seen him. I am going to have to fight in the suit, and I already know they will too, but the suits are restrictive. I can either fight in it, or just come on out without it, and fight and hope that my full range of motion helps me win or leave it on and we be evenly matched.

I need every bit of additional help I can get in this test. I was lucky enough to have got off shots to take out the first two, but unless the Goddess is with me and I can be on top of the third man super quick, I may have to fight hand-to-hand with the last two. Tedge back into the forest a little and take my suit off and pray to the Goddess for help, as I know I will need it. I am ready to go, so I grab a drink from my water bottle and get behind a tree to watch them again and make sure that they are both still where I last saw them. I see them both very well from where I am and make sure that I saw both of them move before I take off at a dead run across the field at the first guy.

Tam a big guy, but I run every day in both wolf and human form, because I enjoy it, so I was almost halfway to the first guy before he saw me coming and hopped up to fight. That was a mistake on his part because I lift my gun and shoot him twice in his heart and once in the forehead and kept on running towards the last guy.

I am surprised, it isn't Alan, it is Hudson and I think back to the forest, and that first guy wasn't big enough to be Alan, and the guy I just shot wasn't either. I have taken out three men, but Alan is not here. I don't have time to think it through, I am obviously being set up here and I put the paintball gun down, and Hudson and I square up. I can tell his suit has been modified for him and he will have a full range of motion in it.

Great, I just need to end this quickly and figure out where Alan is. I link Rafe and tell him to help me find Alan, while I take care of Hudson. I really like Hudson, but he is going down.

Hudson is strong and has a slimmer form than the other men on his team. He is a strong fighter, but he is usually used to be a sniper, or required to do something with his gun is what I had heard. I soon learned that I had not been fully appraised of the fact that Hudson excelled at Jiu-Jitsu. I figured it out quickly, as it has been almost 5 years since my classes in it, and he managed to sweep my legs out from under me and then went into a side mount to use his body weight against me and keep me from breathing properly. I need to get out of this position as quickly as I can, Hudson is really good, and quick.

I slide my left forearm up and under the front of his neck, and I have to shoulder slide several times to be able to get room to be able to put my right forearm in between his waist and my shoulder. I remember from my classes back then that where the head moves, the body moves, and I need to get Hudson moved off of me, and then get him defeated. I already saw Heath and two judges coming in to watch us closely, to be able to decide the winner of the match, as Hudson was technically my last opponent. I start pushing up towards the sky with my left forearm and pushing back to my right back with my right forearm, pushing his waist and hips, back off and away from me. My right leg is flat on the ground and my left is bent and up so I can use it to help me push Hudson off of me. I put my right knee between our bodies as a kind of shield between us so he can't tighten me back up into the same position again.

Even if Hudson is able to get me into a half guard, I am still in a way better position than I was in. I get my breath back and take a moment to breathe deep and decide what I am going to do. I then twist back to get out of the hold and get on top of Hudson, as he rolled to get up and into another position. I was not an expert at Jiu-Jitsu by any stretch of the imagination. But, I was very good at one chokehold before I stopped going to class, and I hope to the Goddess that I can remember how to effectively apply it now.

My arm is under Hudson's head, and I used my own head to move his to where he is looking at the stands before I put my fist at his throat. I then pulled hard to the opposite side of where I just was, and Hudson knows what I am doing, and taps out quickly from my Ezekiel choke. I immediately release him and sit up on his side. I am wiped and don't know why until I realize that it is 3 pm according to the clock on the outside of the gym near the training area.

We have been at this for 5 hours. I was about to ask Hudson where Alan was when I see movement next the bleachers and Alan coming at me at full speed, I was barely able to dodge him as he came at me and then went into a tumble and came back at me. At least I know where he was now. I take my stance and I know this form a little better as I quit Jiu-Jitsu, to take Krav Maga. Alan is good, and I am wiped, I need to really focus now as he has got two blows in already, a front elbow strike, and then immediately into a back elbow strike, and he bounced back out of my space again. He will not be leaving me for long and I am trying to remember where I left my paintball gun, as I know Alan is going to toy with me until he takes me out and I don't have time for it. He has been able to rest, and eat, while I was taking out the rest of the team. I just need to work smarter, not harder. Alan will be pissed, but I could care less, I just need to beat him at this point. I am too close to be winning this whole thing, for me to want to lose now.

I see Alan coming and as predicted he is toying with me, and gives me a hard hook punch, which I saw as he threw it, and he had some power behind it. I know exactly where my paintball gun is now, and I allow myself to be knocked back and towards my gun, which Alan didn't see laying there as he was moving in to give me a round kick to hit me in my chest while I was down as I guess he wants me on my back and looking up at him when he beats me. I rolled back and come up with my gun and pull the trigger several times, right before he connects with my chest, and I fall back and lose the gun. I look up to see if Alan is going to attack me again and I see his whole stomach covered in paintballs. I look up and see the trail of paintballs going up his t-shirt and to his face. He got shot about 8 times, three in the stomach and the other 4 of 5 shots are in a straight line up to the last shot which was in the center of his forehead. I see him reach his hand out and help me up off the ground. I already feel the pain from my bruises, and I already know with how hard he hit me, that I will be able to see them as well when I take my shirt off.

I hear Gabi screaming and cheering for me as she runs up to me and then jumps up into my arms. She is so happy for me. I forget my pain from the bruises, and just hold her to me, sniffing her neck and then giving her mark a kiss. I feel her shiver in my arms and I smile at her reaction. Each of the guys came up to me to congratulate me, and then I asked them where the fifth guy was, the one in the forest with Jameson.

I see Gabi blush and then say, "That was actually me. Alan told me after you went into the forest that he needed me to participate for two reasons. One for you to be a full member of our team, not just honorary, you had to beat us all to get on the team. Second, because he wanted the drop on you to see how you would adapt and overcome when something unexpected happens. Because out there training, we deal with a lot of things coming from left field, and he wanted to see how you would react. You did a great, baby".

"I didn't even smell you out there. How could that be?" I asked her.

"Tala can block our scent, for about 30 minutes to an hour, so far that is the longest I can go. I think with training, I would be able to do it for much longer" Gabi's tells me, and I smile, because now I know our children will be able to as well.

"What is that smile for?" Gabi asks me,

"When I was up in the tree, I was daydreaming about our pups, and wondering if they would be able to block their scent as well, and now I know. They will be able to do it, since we both can" I told her.

"You were daydreaming about our babies?" Gabi said to me and her voice gets a little higher at the end of the sentence, and I can hear her excitement about my dreaming about our babies too, that was definitely making her very happy.

"Yes, I was", I said as I pulled her closer to me. "If they would look like you or me. Boys or girls or I would love a mix of them. I will take what I can get, as long as they are all with you, Gabi" I told her and then bent down to give her a kiss.

"Hey, hey, you two are gonna have to stop this right now. Alan, Heath, I am formally requesting that there will be no kissing between trainers from now on, Gabi is like my sister" Hudson called out and Gabi wiggled out of my grip and walks up to Hudson.

She motions to him to bend down like she is going to tell him something, as he is 6'4" tall too, and when he does, she kisses him on the cheek and gives him a hug. I cannot stop the growl that comes from my throat, as Hudson straightens back up.

I see Hudson grin over at me and then say, "Never mind, it is OK if she kisses her fellow trainers, but you two need to keep it PG in front of the rest of the class" Hudson say's and points at me and Gabi as she comes back into my arms.

"I have to say I agree with that, she is my baby girl," Heath said to the group.

"I can agree with it too", Alan said, and the guys all laughed, and then as they go to walk off Jameson and Easton kissed Gabi on top of her head and ruffle her hair. I am so glad that they love her because that means that every guy on this team would defend her too. My stomach growls and we all head back to the packhouse for us to eat. Tam glad that Alan didn't tell me about Gabi participating, I would have been a little hesitant about having to have to "kill" her. I am actually really proud of myself too, as these men, and Gabi, are really the best at what they do, and I am glad that I made the team.

Finally Together

Chapter 59

Gabi's POV

Tam so proud of Tanner. He took the test at exactly the five-week mark, while running his pack full time, and dealing with the bullshit that Taylor and Dad were doing on top of it. It was actually very smart on Taylor's part as the blame could be fully placed on Dana, and she would have been successful at breaking us up and still have deniability about being a part of it.

Taylor never thought she would be found out, and I hope she does come to the Luna ceremony because I am going to kick her ass when she does show up. We had dinner and everyone congratulated Tanner on what a good job he did, we had a few girls show up at the table to try to flirt but he just tilted his head at them, to deliberately show off his mark, and they left us alone after that. I can't blame them for trying, he is absolutely gorgeous. He moved his stuff back into my room as soon as we got back on our floor. Von made sure that Dana and Brock were on the lower guest floors, and Dana was mad that Tanner was ignoring her.

I let him shower first, and I got my nightgown out, and I am debating, should I even put it on? Or just come out naked? How do I need to do this? I am worried because I don't really know what to do. I hear a knock at the door, and see Von in the hallway when I answer it.

"Von, what are you doing here?" I asked in surprise.

"Honey, we were at breakfast with you. We could smell your arousal on you. I didn't think you were on birth control. So, I went to the store for you while Tanner was testing, just in case. Rest assured, you don't have to use them, honey, I would love to have some grandbabies running around the halls here visiting us" I blushed again, harder this time as now I know Heath knows as well, and that is even more embarrassing, as Von hands me the bag and turns to go.

"I know what happens, my mom at Red River told me, but I don't know how to, you know. Start things off, and I am a little scared” I tell Von in a low tone.

Von turns right back around and comes to hug me tight. “Do not worry about a thing, Gabi. Tanner knows what to do, and he will take care of you. Just start off with kissing, and Tanner will do the rest, OK. Do you feel better now?”

Von asks me as she kisses my head. I nod and hug her back. I am glad that she thought about me, and if I was ready for pups yet, and made that decision totally mine. Von and Heath always take care of me and think about me and my needs, and I love them both so much. “Alright sweet girl, I heard the shower turn off. I will see you in the morning. Everything will be fine. Tanner will love and take care of you” Von tells me and walks back to her room.

I shut the door, and go to put the bag on my nightstand. How am I going to face Heath in the morning? I am so embarrassed that he and Von could tell that I was turned on by Tanner this morning. I mean, he is my mate, and I guess it is natural for me to want my mate, so I will not feel bad about it. I do want him, very much, and most don't wait, they just mate when they find each other. I am glad that Tanner knew about what had happened with Derek and allowed me some time to get to know him. We spoke on the phone every day since we couldn't see each other..

Tanner cannot wait for me to come to his pack. He tells me that me just being there with him keeps him calm, and happy. He is going to let me put my desk in his office so we can be together while we work. I have to say that I am excited about being able to be with him every day.

I heard a sound and turn my head to the doorway of my bathroom and my breath catches in my throat. Tanner is there in all his glory with my towel tied around his waist and it is riding low. I see his 8-pack, his V-cut, and I used to be able to remember the real name of it, but right now, I can't even remember my own name as I look at him and find myself unable to blink anymore. I just keep staring at him, but I have no idea how long before I hear low laughter coming from him and him moving to me where I sit on the side of the bed. He helps me stand and gives me a kiss. His towel shifted a little while we were kissing and knocked the bag from my nightstand onto the floor.

I go to get it and one of the packages falls out of the bag, and I know my face is totally red right now. I look up at Tanner, who is now grinning widely at me and teases me, “Gabi, I am not that kind of a man. You are going to have to woo me first”. My face is now on fire, I can feel the heat coming off of it, and I wish I could bury my head in the sand somewhere. Goddess, this is embarrassing.

“Baby, I am so sorry. I couldn’t help but tease you” Tanner tells me and is still laughing a little as he kisses the top of my head.

“It is embarrassing, as Von and Heath both know that we are going to you know, tonight. How am I going to face Heath tomorrow? I asked him.

“Honey, he knew this morning. He spoke to me about it as he took me out to testing because you were all I could think about. I needed to get back to you quickly, and he told me to get my head in the game. He was right, I can’t protect you if I couldn’t pass the test. You already faced him after testing, he didn’t tease you. He wanted his Luna the same way when he met her. It will be OK. I have got you, and we will take it slow” Tanner tells me, and then gives me a little push to the bathroom. I grab my clothes and go to take my shower. I put on my lace-trimmed camisole and boy short set, this time in a baby blue, as I have them in several colors, and I didn’t want to wear the coral one I was in when Derek came into my room at Crimson Shadow. I wait a minute at the door before I come out into my bedroom.

Tanner has the main light turned off, and just the one on my nightstand on, so the light is low. I come to the bed and get in next to him and see a flash of his hip when I pulled the covers back, so I already know that he has lost his towel. I see the bruises from Alan hitting him and I am concerned for his pain. I touched one of them and he knew!

was worried about his pain level. Alan can ck a rib, with his blows, and he wasn’t just going to hand it to Tanner. I know he got hurt.

“Nothing is broken and Rafe is healing me, I am fine. I know you are nervous Gabi. I will take care of you. There will only be 1 moment of discomfort, but all of the rest of it will just be pleasure. I am so glad you waited for me, and I hate I didn’t do the same for you” Tanner tells me and pulls me closer to him. I lay back on my pillow and I remember Von saying that I only need to kiss him to get it started and that I can do. I roll to my side to face him, and Tanner was just watching me right now to see when I was comfortable with him. I traced his stomach and followed the lines on his abs, as I gently moved my finger around..

Tanner was perfection, and he was all mine. I let the fear go and sat up to get on my knees and I leaned in for a kiss. Tanner groaned deep in his throat and pulled me closer to him as the kiss deepened. I don’t know when he did it, but I am now straddling him on the bed and I felt something move against my thigh during the kiss, and I stopped in surprise and looked down. The sheets and comforter were still between us, and I really wanted a peek at him, all of him, as I still remembered our night together at Taylor's birthday party and I wanted to see him again.

"Patience, baby, we are not quite there yet. We will get there. We have all night. There is no hurry" Tanner tells me and brings my head back down to continue our kiss. I feel Tanner's hands in my hair and pulling me in closer to him as we continue to kiss. I feel so close to him, and I feel an ache in my lower stomach and I need more, more of him. So, I grind down on him to relieve some of the pressure I am feeling and that makes me feel better. When I ground down my clit rubbed on his dk, and I wanted more. Tanner growls lowly in his throat and he starts rubbing my breasts through my thin nightshirt. Tala is in my head, and she is encouraging me on, as she wants to be with her mate, she tells me to grind down on him again, and this time harder than before. I do and it feels even better than the first time. I gasp as Tanner is pinching my n*s in response to my actions and it feels good. I arch my back to push my breasts further into his face and he leans forward and put his mouth against the fabric and sucks my n*e into his mouth.

"Oh, yes" | moan out and I didn't even realize that I was going to speak to him. Tanner grips my hips and pulls me down into him again as he goes to my other n*e as does the same thing. The coarse cotton rubbing against my sensitive n*s is making me feel even more as Tanner continues to alternate back and forth between them and I continued to move my hips in a little circle over him. Tanner is groaning low in his throat as he continued to move from one breast to the other. Tanner stops for a minute and grabs a handful of my hair, and he pulls it gently to the side for me to expose my neck, where it is marked by him and he sucks on my mark, pulling the skin into his mouth and I moaned hard and grind down on him again. Tanner moans out too from me grinding down on him and when he loosened his grip on my hair, I leaned forward and lay my wet n*s on his chest, I bite down on his mark and he jumped, and that cause the covers to come down further. I promptly sat back down on Tanner and started moving my hips in a wider circle trying to get some friction on my clit because I needed it. I needed him to touch me down there again and make me c* m, like the last time we were together at Crimson Shadow.

Tanner growls low in his throat and puts his hand down to my lower lips, he felt how wet I am for him, and he is done going slow now. Tanner turns me onto my back and comes in for a passionate kiss and then sits on his knees to pull my boyshorts off of me and throw them to the floor. He raises me up a little and then tugs my shirt over my head and then starts laving his tongue over my breasts and sucking my n*e into his mouth and tugging on it hard.

Tanner sits in between my legs and edges down on the bed further and pushed my legs up, by bending my knees.

"What are you doing, Tanner?" I asked him.

"I am taking care of you, Gabi, so it will be easier on you when we have s*x. Just trust me, lay back and relax, 1 won't hurt you, baby" Tanner tells me.

I lay back slowly and I feel his hands on my thighs and I get nervous. When he licks my lower lips from the bottom to the top I jump and clamp my legs on his head, and I hear him laugh and then pulls my thighs from off his ears. Tanner does it again, and I jump a little less, but I am still nervous. Tanner comes closer to me and uses his tongue to hit my clit and I swear it feels so good to me. I feel the tingles as he uses his hands alternating to rub my breasts or tug on my n*s. I am feeling so much and I can feel my legs shaking when Tanner comes up and licks his way across my stomach to my breasts and then put his hand where his tongue was and kisses me. He uses his thumb to bear down on my clit and I go to s* m out his name and he takes my s* m into his mouth as I come undone. My legs are shaking, and I feel boneless and relaxed right now, but Tanner gives me a peck on the lips and then draws his dk from the bottom to the top of my lower lips, and they are soaked. It gets his dk lubricated and he just keeps moving it up and down and my oversensitive clit is wanting more with each time his dk comes up to rub it. I push down when he does it the last time and Tanner grins at me and tells me, "I am going to go slow, OK. You tell me if you need me to stop. Do you want me to put a condom on?"

I shake my head no, and Tanner said to me, "I will need you to use your words baby. We could get pregnant tonight and it is up to you, I can suit up if you want me to. I have never had s*x without one, and I will be OK if that is what you want"

"No, I am good with you not wearing a condom. Please, stop teasing me. I need you Tanner" I told him. I could feel him stiffen and he rubs his dk on me again to get it wet one more time. Then he moves closer to me, and he places his dk right at the beginning of my channel and pushes forward a little. I heard him groan as he starts sliding in and stops. I need more, I growl lowly at him. Tanner looks up at me and tells me, "I am going to go, I just have to break your barrier first, Gabi".

Inod at him and feel him pull back a little and then come back with a little more force, and I feel a little pain, but it is fine. I need more, I need Tanner to please help me out here. I rock forward with my hips and Tanner growls low in his throat and starts moving faster and I encourage him to move faster still.

"Please, Tanner, I need more. Please give me more" I called out to him and that was it, Tanner grabs my hips and starts moving at a furious pace, and I start moaning loudly, not caring at all who could hear me as Tanner pounded into me.

“Oh, yes...yes, Tanner, oh Goddess you feel so good to me. Ohhhh, baby...oh Tanner” I moaned out and Tanner goes faster still, biting his lip, and then he moves forward and bites down on my mark and I come hard. Clenching around his dk and pumping him of every last drop as he comes too. Tanner stiffens as he comes, and he is panting now. Tanner gets up and goes to the bathroom to get a wet rag and comes back to clean me up.

Tanner lays down next to me and kisses me on my mouth and tells me, “I love you so much Gabi. I am sorry I bit you, I just couldn’t hold out any longer, you are so tight, and it felt so good. You felt so good to me”.

I turn towards him and give him a kiss and then lay down facing him.

“Are you OK baby, you haven’t said anything, and I am scared that I got too excited with you, and may have hurt you” Tanner tells me with concern in his eyes.

“I am perfect Tanner. I love you so much. I loved it, I loved it when you were pounding into me” I told him and smiled. I see Tanner’s eyes go dark and hear a throaty voice say, “Oh, you liked getting pounded, well let’s see if I can help you out with that. Rafe is here and Tala is going nuts, I guess we are in for a long night as I smile back at him, and he slides down my body to lick my lower lips again.

Oh, yes, I can get used to this, I think before my eyes roll back and my legs start to shake again.

Rejected but not Broken by KatVonBeck Chapter 60

I Need Her Back

Chapter 60

Derek’s POV

Piper is driving me crazy. I am so sick of hearing about this fg Luna ceremony. She will not shut up about it.

That is all she has been talking about since I brought her here 5 months ago, during spring break. I wonder what the hell she is going to talk about once Saturday gets here and we are done with it. I wish to the Goddess that I had just mated and marked Gabi, to hell with my dad. He has been furious since she left. I am actually glad mom got her out now, as dad has been sleeping with Omegas that are Gabi’s age from the kitchen, and I fear that if she does come back, he will try to force her to sleep with him. If that happens, or Jack tries to attack her again, I swear to the Goddess, that I will kill them both and not think a thing about it.

Piper is never ready on time, for anything, and she knew we were three and a half hours away from the party at Crimson Shadow. Piper thought my speeding could overcome it. We were almost 2 hours late for the party when we got there. Piper will probably be late for her own Luna ceremony. So, we didn’t even get to see her friend Taylor that night. Imagine my surprise the next morning when I found out that the "Taylor" that I had slept with around Christmas, was actually Gabi's sister, It was right before I met Piper, so I didn't cheat on her with Taylor, but Piper was super pissed when she found out that I had dated and regularly slept with Heather. Her finding out that I had Alpha commanded Heather to not tell her, well, that was a bad night. I just saw her at a party, and she looked like Gabi. I knew Gabi was my mate at that time, and I wanted her. Taylor saw me too and was all in on being with me, but now that I know she is Gabi's sister, it will not be happening again. They are both beautiful women, but Gabi is the only nice person between the two of them. I still don't know how Gabi ended up being in our pack. I asked dad, and he said that Claire and Percy must have taken her from Crimson Shadow, but that can't possibly be right. I knew them both and they wouldn't have done that. Mom has been staying in her office or with Justin. She refuses to help Piper and said Piper should have learned to be a Luna from her mom, or from the training she went through at Alpha school. I don't have the heart to tell mom that Alpha training is basically a hook-up place with some occasional training going on. Piper really only wants to be the Luna in name only, and plan parties, that's it. She doesn't want to do the day-to-day work, and that is just going to have to pile up on me. She isn't going to be a proper Luna like she should have been, she just wants to do the fun stuff, and to hell with the rest of it. I wish I could push my job duties off too, but I can't. Our pack would fall apart, and it probably will be anyway. Dad has pissed away the savings we had, and that money was from mom anyway. They used to fight a lot when I was around eleven and she told him then, that if he pissed the pack funds away again, she would not put any more money back into it. Dad knew this, and I guess he is banking on mom feeling nicely towards me and giving me the funds to keep it running because he ran it right back into the ground. Millions were put into that account, and we have nothing to show for it. I have no idea what he did with it. I am hoping that the River Bed pack has some coffers, because if they don't, I may have the shortest run in the history of being an Alpha. Dad is waiting until right before the Luna ceremony to turn the pack over to me. He has been acting really strangely for the last 2 months, ever since Gabi came back and accepted my rejection. I don't know what is going on with him. He locks himself up in the office for long periods of time and I am worried about him. He is worse than he has ever been and when I ask mom, she said that he is about to get what he deserves, and then she smiles. It's weird, and I don't know what is going on.

Since I saw her at Taylor's birthday party, Gabi is all I can think about. Gabi, with her beautiful face and beautiful deep-blue eyes. Standing there look absolutely perfect in her blue evening gown. I remember when I first caught sight of her, as she was sitting closer to the stage than we were because we got there late. I didn't know who it was at the time, and I was very interested, but that Alpha had her wrapped up, and she didn't go to the bathroom alone either. I was so busy looking at her, that I didn't even recognize my own mom and aunt were with the group. In my defense, they were looking better than they normally do, and Gabi just kept my eyes on her.

I remember when I saw her out there dancing with the Alpha and then after their slow dance, his friends came over to dance as a group. They were having a great time and then I saw her smile and I sat up straight, "that is Gabi", my wolf Hunter told me, and he growled in my head. He didn't like seeing her dancing with the other Alpha, and I had to agree with him. He has been super pissed with me since I rejected her. I was an it. "You better make this right, or you are going to be the weakest Alpha in history," Hunter told me in mindlink. "I would give it up to be with her" I linked him back.

"Then tell her, because she is coming right now," Hunter told me and I feel him pushing out towards Gabi, to try to link with Tala.

I heard Heather talking to Piper, as she saw Gabi coming near us and she couldn't believe it was her either.

Apparently, Heather and Piper, both knew who the Alpha was, and they were jealous of Gabi too and were really ugly to her. I told Gabi that I would give up being an Alpha, which is actually unheard of, to have her be my mate again. It was a great offer, but the look that came onto her face, she was disgusted at my offer, and she shot me down hard. I cannot believe that it was over, just like that. I loved Gabi, I just had to do what dad had told me to do, it was for the good of the whole pack. I don't know why she refuses to see that

So, I made up a plan. I saw mom felt a little bad for me, and I waited for mom to go take her bubble bath. She told me to come to see her at midnight, I knew she would be in the bath for an hour, she does it all the time, as she takes her wine and a book with her. All I had to do was wait for Piper to go get in the tub. I ran into Heather, who also knew Piper was going to be busy in her bubble bath, as she asked me into her room, but I can't anymore. I only have s*x with Piper now, but I have to think of Gabi to do it. When I was in high school, and Alpha training, I used to sleep with anyone and everyone, but now I can't. I feel like I am being punished by the Goddess these days.

NEED Gabi back, she is the only one that I want, I want her and only her. To mate with, to have pups with, to run my pack with. I already know that Gabi would have been the perfect Luna, she is kind and compassionate, and she actually cares about other people. I screwed up so badly, and I get no sympathy from mom about it. She said, " You made your bed, lie in it". I wish I knew then, what I know now. I would not have made such a terrible choice. Just hearing Piper speak, is like nails on a chalkboard to me. I almost wish we could get attacked so mom could call in Uncle Heath's team, to train the packs. I want to see her so bad. I know if I could just get some time with her, I could talk her into coming back to me. I know she used to love me, she could again, I know it, I saw it in her eyes, right before I took her joy away by rejecting her. I punched the wall, just seeing that hurt look on her face, right before she passed out, I swear I would take it back if I could do it again. I know what that pain feels like because I felt it when she accepted the rejection. I call her every single day at Ever Green, but she won't speak to me. I have driven there three times and all three time's uncle Heath told me to go back to my pack, that he will not allow me to hurt Gabi. I actually think that uncle Heath and aunt Von think Gabi is theirs now, and she is not, she is MINE. Seeing her in her PJs, with her breasts pressed up tight against the fabric, every time I shut my eyes that is what I see. I could see her n*s and their dusky pink color was hypnotizing. I am still angry that the other Alpha was who she was actually waiting on, that she didn't want me anymore, she wants him. I have to figure out a way to change that. I adjust myself and I am glad I am alone in the office as I clearly have a problem now. I heard a knock on the door, about a minute later. and I called out for them to come in. I stood behind my chair, as I won't be able to sit down right now, and Piper walks in. Good, maybe I can catch her before she speaks, and I will bend her over my desk and get this over with to get some relief. I capture her lips in a passionate kiss and Piper smiles up at me happy that I am so excited to see her, she is even happier with seeing that I am ready to go, and she is all in with this. That was the reason we started hooking up in the first place. She was good to go at the drop of a hat, but these days she is having to work more for it, and it is making her mad. She slides her underwear off, and then she bends over my desk and flips her short skirt up over her ass. I noticed that she has her rounded ass tilted up the way she knows I like it. She spreads her legs further apart and wiggles her ass at me in an offering as she looks over her shoulder at me. That used to do it for me, that little ass wiggle of hers, but not anymore. I am suddenly angry with the whole thing, I feel like dad, and Piper, got me roped into this and I am mad, and need to work off my anger, it is OK, Piper likes it a little rough, and it will make her even happier.

I undo my jeans and push them down the corded muscles in my thighs along with my underwear and I give my dk one pump and then I drag the tip of it down Piper's slit.

She is soaked and really excited at seeing the "old"

Derek back again. I push her shoulders down on the desk because her hair is dark, just like Gabi's and I no longer want to see her face. I am picturing Gabi face down on my desk and I am ready to go, and I am harder than I have ever been before. I do one more drag through her folds and kick her legs a little further apart from each other and then thrust into her hard. I heard Piper call out, "Oh Goddess Yes" and I start pounding into her, and I wish she would stay quiet. She is really messing up my rhythm here, as I need to stay focused on her being Gabi. I lean over her and lift her up a little from the desk so I can start stroking her clit and when she comes, the tightening up will help me to come.

I keep hearing Piper talking to me and that is just not working for me. I push her chest back down on the desk, and I take my middle finger from her clit and slip it into her mouth for her to get the message. She promptly got the message and stops talking and she starts sucking hard on my finger as she keeps moaning low in her throat. Now this, this I can work with. Still looks like I have Gabi, and her sucking on my finger, I have to say, it feels pretty good. I start messing with her by slowing up my strokes for a little while and then thrusting back into her. We haven't slept together in the last 5 weeks, I haven't wanted to sleep with her, and she was mad at me for finding out I had dated and slept with Heather, a lot. In fact, she doesn't speak with Heather anymore.

speed up again and I can tell she is close, she is making a lot more noise in her throat, and I use both hands on her waist as I continue my stroke. I feel Piper clamp down on my dk as she comes and that allows me to finish as well. I feel very relaxed now, as it has been a minute since we got together.

Piper straightens up and gives me a smile and a kiss, and then bends over to grab her underwear and slides it back on. She stays standing there near the door and looking at me, and I sit down in my chair and ask her, "Did you need something else?"

"Well, I came in here to tell you that since I cannot get any help from anyone else here, Taylor will be coming in early to help me. She will be here either Monday or Tuesday" Piper tells me. I nod at her, there is nothing that I need to do about that. I wasn't informed, so guess they told dad already. She already acted like she didn't know me already when we "met" each other the morning after her party, so that is good for the both of us.

"I am glad you are getting help from your friend, I know you are excited about it. Your friends are welcome to come here anytime. I believe they told dad, as I haven't heard anything about this yet, but dad is still technically the Alpha until our ceremony" I told her. Piper is all smiles now as she leaves the office and goes to do, the Goddess knows what.

I lean back in my chair and wonder what day the rogues will be showing up. The letters continue to come in, and I know that they are entirely serious about attacking, and I have to say, I am ready for them to get here, maybe I will get lucky, and they will take Piper back to their lair, or just kill her annoying self, outright. They can put me out of my misery by showing up, so my beautiful Gabi can come here and help us by training our packmembers. I lean back in my chair and put my feet up and think about how I can talk Gabi into coming back to be mine.
