

“Lv Hua, are you okay? Can you still walk? Do you want to go home and seek treatment?” asked Kong Ming with concern as he looked at Lv Hua’s injuries.

Lv Hua had been the main subject of the interrogation.

Kong Ming and Lu Yan-Xi hadn’t suffered as much abuse and only had some bruises on their faces and bodies.

However, Lv Hua wasn’t as lucky. Lv Hua’s face was now badly bruised as he hobbled on his feet. His sharp-looking suit was now entirely bloodstained. He looked particularly miserable.

“Elder Kong, I’m fine. I can still walk, so don’t worry about me. I won’t go back until the mission is over.”

Although Lv Hua was in agony, he stubbornly persisted.

After all, all his friends and family knew about this mission.

If Lv Hua went back halfway, it would be deeply embarrassing.

He wouldn't be able to answer to War God Castle either.

"Alright then. Yan-Xi, help him out."

Kong Ming stopped trying to convince Lv Hua otherwise since he was so insistent.

The three of them continued searching for spirit energy fruit.

They continued walking for a few days in a row.

One day, a green light suddenly shot into the skies in the depths of the rainforest.

An immense spirit energy exploded quietly from somewhere.

The energy radiated outwards from its heart like a typhoon and swept in all directions.

In a matter of seconds, it swept throughout the Amazon rainforest.

In an instant, countless martial artists turned to look into the distance.

"Elder Kong, look. What's that? The energy feels so intense. Do you think it's spirit energy fruit? Considering how powerful it was, how many fruits do you think there are?"

Lu Yan-Xi and the others asked in shock as they watched the green light shoot into the sky.

All these years, it was the first time they had witnessed such vast amounts of energy.

Kong Ming looked into the distance solemnly.

After a brief silence, he said instantly, "Hurry up! We have to get there now."

At the drop of his voice, Kong Ming and the others darted swiftly towards the green light.

"Wait up!" Lv Hua shouted in agony from behind.

Even though a few days had passed, Lv Hua hadn't recovered fully. He still had difficulty walking, so how could he run?

The other teams in the rainforest were shocked when they saw the green light as well.

“If I am not mistaken, it must be spirit energy fruit! Let’s go. We have to try and get to the spirit energy fruit and leave quickly.”

“Heavens! Look at how intense this spirit energy is. There must be heaps of spirit energy fruit this time. The British must get our hands on a few of those this time!”

Everyone went into a furor as the spirit energy radiated throughout the rainforest.

All the martial artists swarmed towards it like wildly.

From overhead, it would seem as though all the martial artists were slicing through the rainforest like they were cutting through waves as they ran towards the source of energy.

They converged like rivers towards the ocean!

“Things are really getting exciting now.” Ye Fan looked into the sky at the green light as he shook his head and smiled.

Chapter 1264 Rise from Turmoil

“Fan, how can you still smile? This beam of light has caused such a commotion that everyone knows about it. Everyone must be rushing towards it now. This time, we probably can’t get our hands on the spirit energy fruit,” sighed the young lady as she griped.

Although Angie knew Ye Fan was so powerful that he was capable of felling up to ten opponents like chickens and dogs, there were far more competitors this time.

Martial arts representatives from around the world had gathered in South America.

Hence, Ye Fan would have to compete with hundreds of people to obtain the spirit energy fruit.

It was hard enough to fight just twice the number of opponents, let alone when it was hundreds of opponents?

Hence, Angie felt Ye Fan was incapable of outdoing the other martial artists on his own, no matter how powerful he was.

“Forget it. We should be happy with what we have. Since we already have five spirit energy fruits, it's good enough. Fan, why don't we head back instead of looking for this third group of trees?"

Angie already wanted to retreat.

However, Ye Fan had no intention of backing out.

He smiled calmly. "Do you want to go back? But why? Now that all the martial artists are gathering here, things are finally becoming exciting. Angie, there is an old saying."

Angie was at a loss. "What saying?"

Ye Fan pursed his lips into a smile. "Heroes rise from turmoil."

Ye Fan waved his hand and gestured for Angie to continue walking.

His unrestrained aura felt particularly charismatic!

Considering Ye Fan's personality, how could he keep his nose out of such an exciting event?

He was the Unrivalled Grandmaster after all.

He was a mighty legendary general of China. If he went back with just five spirit energy fruits, the God of War would certainly make a joke of it.

Of course, Ye Fan had other reasons for doing so.

He wanted to see Chu Tian-Qi, whom he hadn't seen in ten years.

Indeed, it was Ye Fan's biggest surprise to encounter members of the Chu clan in South America.

After learning of Keith's identity, Ye Fan had a feeling that his cousin was probably here.

If he was not mistaken, Chu Qi-Tian was going to make a bid for the spirit energy fruit too.

"It's been ten years. I don't mind settling the score ahead of time."

Ye Fan's lean silhouette walked solitarily in the rainforest with a hardened expression in his eyes.

No one could truly understand how Ye Fan felt.

He had been hunted by the Chu family and Chu Qi-Tian for ten years.

Even the tiniest grudges would gather into huge grievances over ten years.

Moreover, the vendetta between Ye Fan and Chu Qi-Tian was a matter of life and death!

Ye Fan wanted to settle the scores with Chu Zheng-Liang and his son when he visited the Chu family.

Since they encountered each other here, then why wait?

HUUU!

Cold wind left the young man's bangs fluttering as his garments flapped in the wind.

Angie was suddenly stunned after she looked at Ye Fan from behind.

She could sense a change in Ye Fan's mood as it emanated from the lean silhouette before her.

“Fan must have a lot of stories hidden in his heart,” Angie thought quietly as she watched Ye Fan walk away.

Angie chased after him after gathering her thoughts.

“Fan, wait up!!”

By the time Ye Fan and Angie arrived, a lot of martial artists had already gathered there.

However, no one found any spirit energy fruit.

Other than the dense forest, there were high mountains.

Water flowed down from the mountain top leaving behind a thunderous roar as it fell.

“That’s odd. Why can’t we find anything? Do you think it's somewhere else? Maybe we are looking in the wrong place?” asked someone from the crowd quizzically.

“I don’t think so. The natural energy is much denser here, so it’s the perfect place for spirit energy fruit trees to grow.”

“Hurry up and look! The spirit energy fruit tree must be here.”

Despite their efforts, they couldn't find anything.

But no one gave up, and everyone kept searching hard for the tree.

They looked like they were absolutely determined to find what they came for!

Kong Ming, Lv Hua, and Lu Yan-Xi were among these people too.

Perhaps Lv Hua was too engrossed on his search for the spirit energy fruit tree that he accidentally stepped on someone's foot.

“I'm sorry. I kept checking behind that I didn't realize you were there. I'm so sorry,” Lv Hua smiled as he apologized courteously.

“It's fine. I'm okay,” replied the man graciously without any expression on his face.

“I'm really sorry...” replied Lv Hua instinctively as he laughed.

However, Lv Hua was stunned mid-sentence.

Wait a second. Why was this voice so familiar?

Wasn't that...

Lv Hua hastily raised his head to see Ye Fan's lean profile.

"What the hell?! Ye Fan? What are you doing here?"

Lv Hua's expression instantly fell.

He didn't expect to encounter Ye Fan here.

Lv Hua was sure that someone at Ye Fan's level was bound to end up getting devoured by wild animals or slaughtered by others.

But Ye Fan had shockingly made it all the way here on his own.

"What do you mean you're fine? What do you mean you're okay? Damn you! How can a country bumpkin like you have the right to feel upset after getting stepped on?"

Lv Hua didn't know why, but he felt triggered at the sight of Ye Fan.

How could the country bumpkin have the cheek to say it was okay when Lv Hua stepped on him?

A lowly farmer didn't have the right to even respond after getting stepped on!

Lv Hua's shouting caught the others' attention.

Lu Yan-Xi and Kong Ming looked over before long.

Kong Ming glanced at Ye Fan coldly before turning his head away.

He seemed to be still angry at Ye Fan for offending him and refused to talk to Ye Fan to this day.

A look of disdain flashed across Lu Yan-Xi's face when she spotted Ye Fan.

She walked over immediately. "Ye Fan, I thought I made things quite clear. You and I belong to two different worlds, so it's impossible between us. Even if you get a divorce, I won't date you. No matter how you harass me, it's useless. I will only end up despising you," Lu Yan-Xi frowned as she spoke to Ye Fan self-righteously.

Lv Hua was stunned to hear this at first. Then he laughed.

However, his laughter sounded like blatant mockery.

"Heh! I was wondering where you found the courage to go so far into the rainforest. It turns out you were trying to court Yan-Xi? I didn't think that a country bumpkin like you could end up so madly in love with her. You should take a look at yourself in the mirror and see whether you are good enough for her first," Lv Hua shook his head as he mocked him in contempt.

"You are like a toad lusting after a swan. What wishful thinking! How could a lowly farmer ever dream to court Yan-Xi? That's simply hilarious," Lv Hua spoke rather loudly with the intent of embarrassing Ye Fan.

Sure enough, all the martial artists turned to look at Ye Fan like he was a joke.

Some of the people who knew Lv Hua hurried over to talk to him.

“Oh my! Aren’t you Mr Lv? I’m, Park Jeong-Chun, from Korea. Mr Lv, we met a few days ago, if you recall. You promised that we would have dinner after our work in South America is done. What happened to you? Why is your face bruised?” asked Park Jeong-Chun quizzically as he looked at Lv Hua’s face.

“N-nothing. It was just an accident, so don’t worry about it. Jeong-Chun, perfect timing. Let me introduce you to this man. He is a martial artist from China too. His name is Ye Fan, and he was born in the countryside. He isn’t much of a fighter, but he was sent here to learn. Instead of taking the chance to expand his horizons, he started lusting after Yan-Xi. He’s even chased us all the way here for her sake. Isn’t that hilarious?” scoffed Lv Hua.

“Oh, really now?” Park Jeong-Chun laughed as he turned to look at Ye Fan.

“You’re Ye Fan? Bro, you should consider whether you are worthy before you attempt to woo any woman. Or else, you will end up a laughingstock. You shouldn't lust after goddesses as beautiful and talented as Miss Yan-Xi. Only men as brilliant as Mr Lv deserve to have her," Park Jeong Chun mocked Ye Fan as he flattered Lv Hua.

"Lv Hua? Is he the one who defeated all the Indians and snatched spirit energy fruit from a mysterious martial artist?"

Lv Hua's name was gaining quite the reputation throughout the martial arts world through Ye Fan's efforts.

Hence, many people approached Lv Hua to befriend him when they found out who he was.

"I heard so much about you, Mr Lv. You defeated the Indian fighters with a single blow at the restaurant and made a name for yourself. Also, you turned the tides and snatched spirit energy fruit from a mysterious man. Now all the Australian martial artists who witnessed it are shocked by your ability."

"I have been dying to meet you in person. It's such an honor to meet you finally."

“You’re too kind, everyone. I was just lucky. It was pure luck.”

Lv Hua chuckled smugly from everyone’s warm welcome. He genuinely felt his pride and ego inflate immensely.
