When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1426

Avonsville.

After Avery had dinner, she took Robert for a walk in the community. She was supposed to take Layla out for a walk, but Layla needs tutoring.

After the summer vacation, an exam was first arranged in the school, and as a result, Layla's ranking dropped.

Without waiting for Avery to talk to Layla, Layla took the initiative to ask for tutoring.

Avery used to worry that her child would not pay attention to learning, but she didn't expect her worry to be completely unnecessary.

"Boss, when you were in Yonroeville, you gave me a bonus when you said it back." The bodyguard followed Avery and walked slowly, "I didn't plan to say that because your company was about to go bankrupt before, didn't you? However, you have now invested in the Sterling Group..."

Avery laughed: "I've been too busy these days, I forgot. Even if I'm going to go bankrupt, the bonus that should be given to you."

With that, Avery took out her mobile phone and directly transferred a large sum of money to the bodyguard.

The bodyguard immediately flattered: "Boss, you look so beautiful when you transfer money to me."

Avery: "Don't praise me. Every time you praise me, I break into a cold sweat."

"Can you not be so tired next time? The Sterling Group is a shareholder, and it also takes up the majority of the shares. You can let the people of the Sterling Group take care of it. You just need to receive dividends every year. If I were you, I would retire directly." The bodyguard chatted with her.

Avery: "If I play at home every day, then I don't need a bodyguard."

The bodyguard was shocked then said: "Then you should go to work every day. I think young people still need work to enrich themselves, otherwise it will be boring."

Avery was amused by his reaction, “You take Robert and I’ll make a call.”

Robert walks a little more steadily now, and is not too willing to sit in the cart.

The bodyguard took Robert over, picked him up, and held it high.

“I’ll take Robert over there to play with the children.” The bodyguard pointed to the fountain.

“Okay, I’ll go look for you after the phone call.” Avery agreed that Ben Schaffer’s matter had to be done.

After the bodyguard carried Robert away, Avery dialed Gwen’s number.

The call was quickly connected.

Gwen asked, “Avery, are you looking for me or Hayden? Hayden may have gone to school.”

Gwen now lives with Hayden.

First, Gwen was afraid of living alone. Second, the house where Hayden lived was quite big, and Hayden was usually at school, so the house was basically empty.

So Gwen proposed to hold back, but Hayden didn’t object.

Avery said softly, “If I’m looking for him, I’ll call him directly. Gwen, I’m looking for you because I want to talk about Ben Schaffer.”

Gwen felt nervous when she heard his name: “What’s the matter?”

Avery said, “Ben Schaffer wants you to remove him from the blacklist. He promised me that he would not harass you. He said he was afraid that you might have trouble in the future and could help you. I think he is sincere. I want to take care of you. It’s the kind of care that a brother takes care of a sister.”

Gwen teased, “Oh... he’s so shameless. He asked you to tell me. With you and Hayden taking care of me, how could I need him to take care of me? But since he found you, then I’ll pull him out of the blacklist with reluctance.”

Avery said, “If he harasses you and makes you feel uncomfortable, tell me, I’ll go find him.”

Gwen sighed, "I'm not a child anymore, if he harassed me, I'll block him again. My life is so good, although Elliot doesn't recognize me and you treat me like a sister."

Avery said, "It's not that he doesn't recognize you, he's a slow person."

Gwen said, "Anyway, I think Hayden is much easier to get along with than him."

"Maybe the two of you have fate." Avery is very pleased that their relationship is so good, "How is your work?"

"Recently, I need to practice my body first. The agent that Hayden hired for me is so strict. First of all, the diet must be completely in accordance with her plan. Second, she stares at me every day when I exercise, for fear that I will be lazy. You know why she is so strict? What Hayden talked about with her was that if I can become popular, then I will give her ten times the salary." Gwen said this and couldn't help but smile bitterly.

Avery: "This can indeed motivate her to be good."

Gwen: "Well, you said Hayden is so small, why is his brain so flexible?"

Avery: "Maybe... born!"

After talking on the phone, Avery went to the bodyguard and Robert. She walked to the fountain and saw Robert standing next to a pink children's bicycle.

The little guy grabbed the handle of the bicycle with both hands, pouted, and stared at the bodyguard.

Beside him, a little girl screamed at Robert in a hurry.

Robert was not afraid at all.

The bodyguard coaxed Robert, "Hey little ancestor, this is Miss Sister's bicycle. Shall we give it back to Miss Sister?"

Robert held on to the bicycle tightly and didn't let go. He felt that as long as he got what he got, it was his.

"Hey, this kid's grandma, should I buy this bike?" The bodyguard took out his wallet and planned to use the money to solve the problem.

Avery came over immediately and stopped the bodyguard.

"Robert, this is Miss Sister's bicycle, not yours." Avery walked up to Robert and squatted down, reasoning with him, "You are still young, you can't ride a bicycle. When you are older, your mom will buy a bicycle for you."

Because her voice was gentle, Robert let go of the bike after thinking for a while and threw herself into her arms.

"You are really your mother's good baby." Avery hugged Robert and looked at the little girl, "Little girl, what's your name? your Brother, Robert didn't mean to steal your bicycle. He may think your bicycle is very beautiful, so he likes it very much. Auntie apologizes to you, don't you get angry, okay?"

The little girl smiled because her bicycle was praised for her beauty.

"My name is Cora, I can take my brother to play with." The little girl immediately got on the bike and patted the seat behind, "Brother Robert, come up."

Seeing that Robert wanted to go up, Avery carried him to the The back seat: "Robert, hold your elder sister, be careful to fall down."

Robert immediately hugged Cora's waist tightly.

After Cora rode away in the car, Cora's grandmother asked Avery: "Does your husband live here now? I haven't seen you out for a walk in a while."

Avery: "Well, he will be back after a while. "

Cora's grandmother: Some people say you broke up, I don't believe it. You two are in such a good relationship, and the child is so beautiful, even if it is for the sake of the child, it is impossible to break up."

Avery: "Well, I'm sorry just now. I almost cried."

Cora's grandmother: "It's okay, children are like this. My granddaughter robbed other people's things before. It's better to be bigger."

At 8 p.m., Avery took Robert home.

"Mom! Why are you coming back now?" Layla has already finished tutoring, "Dad just called the video call."

Avery was stunned: "Did you pick it up?"

"Then I'll call him now." Avery took out her mobile phone and dialed Elliot's number.

Before she can make a video with him, she must first confirm that it is convenient for him to receive the video call now.

The call was made and was quickly connected.

"Where are you now? What are you doing? Is it convenient to take the video call?" Avery asked.

"I'm taking a shower." Elliot voice came in a low voice.

Avery froze for a moment, then said, "I'll Change the audio call mode to video call."

After she finished speaking, she hung up the phone and dialed the video call without waiting for him to respond.

Elliot took the video call. Seeing Elliot standing in the bathroom with no clothes on, Avery was stunned for a moment.

Her face turned red with a 'swish', her mind was a mess, and she suddenly forgot what to say.

Elliot's current appearance was not good for children to see, so she took her mobile phone and quickly walked towards the bedroom.

When she returned to the bedroom and closed the door, she found that her face was even redder.

She was very familiar with him, but at this moment, looking at his familiar face across the screen, he always felt a little strange.

"I took Robert out for a walk just now." Avery adjusted her mood and said first, "Why did you make a video call for Mrs. Cooper and not me?"

Although it was a trivial matter, she was angry for no reason.

"I want to see the child. I also made a video call for Mrs. Cooper before." His explanation did not make her quell her anger, but made her even more angry.

Avery: "Don't you want to see me?"

This question made Elliot thin his lips. He sipped suddenly.

"Do you have a problem with me? Because I transferred your shares to Adrian..."

"No."

Elliot said, interrupting her cranky thoughts, "I have no problem with you. You are not today. Have you gone to work? I'm afraid you are working overtime in the company."

Avery teased, "What's the point of working overtime? Now that you are the big boss of my company, why should I work so hard? It's almost eleven o'clock on your side. Right? Why did you take a shower so late?"

Elliot: "Today, my second brother treated me as a guest. I went to drink some wine."

"Are you physically able to drink?" Avery was surprised.

Elliot: "I only drank a little, it's fine."

"You went with Rebecca?" Avery asked casually.

Although Avery knew that he would return to Aryadelle in the future, but thinking of him getting along with Rebecca every day, she couldn't help feeling angry and angry.

Elliot: "Well."

"Isn't she going to be IVF? Did it work?" Avery continued.

Elliot: "Hmm."

"So soon?" Avery exclaimed in surprise.

Elliot: "It seems to have been two months."

"What is it like?" Avery was dissatisfied with his ambiguous answer.

Elliot frowned slightly: "I'm not very clear about her."

His answer finally made Avery feel a little more at ease.

Avery continued: "Where's Kyrie?"

Elliot: "Still in the hospital."

"Why do you feel bad? Are you happy?" Avery stared at his face, always feeling that he was very preoccupied, "Are you busy lately? Every time I take the initiative to send you a message, don't you want to go back to Aryadelle?"

Elliot pondered for a moment, then replied: "Xander's girlfriend is dead."

Why didn't Elliot contact Avery and why didn't he look happy because he felt ashamed.

The expression on Avery's face froze suddenly, and something seemed to be stuck in her throat, making her not know what to say for a while.

"Why did I keep urging you to leave Yonroeville before, because I can't protect anyone." Elliot voice was hoarse.

Avery eyes were scarlet, "Elliot, I don't blame you. It has nothing to do with you. If revenge is more difficult, then don't take revenge. I don't want you to die. You find a way to get out of there. you hurry back."

Elliot: "I'll be fine."

"You told me before that Xander's girlfriend would be fine, but she's dead. How do you know that Kyrie will not kill you? People like Kyrie are moody, and He knew about your protection of Xander's girlfriend, and he will definitely not let it go." Avery felt more and more dangerous the more he thought about it.

Elliot: "Kyrie just stopped my work."

After Elliot said this, there was a knock on the bathroom door.

Rebecca's voice came from outside the bathroom, "Elliot, the nanny has made sober soup, and I'll put it on the bedside table for you."

Avery heard Rebecca's gentle voice, and a thorn suddenly grew in her heart.

Avery asked him aloud, "You find a way to come back. If you don't find a way to come back quickly, I will find a way to save you."

Avery was giving him orders, not discussing with him.

After saying this, Avery hung up the video.

Elliot put down the phone, walked under the shower, turned on the switch, and the warm water quickly slid down his body along his short hair.

Elliot was very upset.

Avery said she was coming to rescue Elliot. It's like Xander's girlfriend has to come to avenge Xander.

If Xander was still alive, it would be impossible for his girlfriend to risk her life to avenge herself.

Elliot still remembers Xander's girlfriend's eyes when she was trampled on the ground by the bodyguard after she assassinated Kyrie.

His eyes are very bright. The anger in his eyes is not obvious, some are just relief.

Elliot decided to save her at that time, precisely because of her stubborn eyes, which reminded him of Avery. He thought that if he died in Yonroeville, Avery might be like Xander's girlfriend, running desperately to seek revenge for Kyrie.

Elliot didn't want Avery to save him. Whether he needs rescue or not, he doesn't need Avery.

After taking a shower, Elliot came out of the bathroom. At a glance, he saw Rebecca standing beside his bed.

Rebecca said, "Elliot, my father will be discharged from the hospital tomorrow, let's go to the hospital to pick him up tomorrow. I will ask my father to forgive you. Don't say anything tomorrow, I will make him to forgive you."

Elliot walked to her side, picked up the hangover soup, and took a sip.

The soup is a bit sour, and it is very refreshing to drink into the stomach.

Ellio finished the soup, and Rebecca immediately took the empty bowl. "It's very late, you go to rest. We'll talk about tomorrow's business tomorrow." He looked at Rebecca's uneasy face, his eyes slid a little bit until it landed on her stomach.

Rebecca followed his gaze and glanced at her belly, and said with a smile: "The child is still very little."

"Well, I know." Elliot tone was very light.

When Avery was pregnant with Robert, Elliot was always by her side. He knows how hard it is for a woman to get pregnant and how great a child is to be born. So he couldn't live up to Avery.

The next day, 8 a.m.

After finishing dressing up, Rebecca came to Elliot's door and knocked on the door.

Rebecca told him last night that she was going to the hospital today to pick up Kyriee home.

Although Elliot didn't explicitly agree last night, Rebecca didn't think he would refuse.

Rebecca knocked on the door twice, but there was no response. She was heartbroken and opened the door without authorization.

She saw that the quilt on the bed was neatly folded, which was folded by the nanny.

And the nanny told her just now that Elliot was still sleeping and didn't go downstairs.

Explain that this is not what the nanny folded today.

This further shows that Elliot didn't sleep on this bed last night.

Rebecca suddenly felt hypoxia.

–Elliot is not in the room or the villa, where has he been?

–When did he leave?

Rebecca immediately went back to her room to get her cell phone and dialed his number.

Sorry, the number you dialed has been switched off, please try again later.
Shut down!

Elliot turned his mobile off.

This is the first time Elliot has shut down since he came to Yonroeville.

Rebecca suddenly felt like the world was spinning. Don't know what to do.

–Could it be that Ellio... returned to Aryadelle?
