Chapter 1456

Avery felt that Elliot wouldn't lie to her, but looking at Rebecca's confident attitude, she didn't seem to lie to her either.

She needs to know the truth, the sooner she knows the better.

Aryadelle.

After a night of insomnia, Jun was dizzy and very painful.

Before eight in the morning, his parents came.

Jun didn't need to ask to know that the nanny told his parents about him and Tammy.

"Jun, what do you think?"

Jun looked confused: "Do you two need to be so serious? It's not the first time Tammy and I have quarreled..."

Mrs. Hertz, "Oh, yes little quarrel?"

Jun's face was very bad, and said, "Whether it's a small quarrel or a big, it's all about me and her. I'm going to make up for sleep, you two go back."

"Since you don't want to be talk nice with us, then I and your dad will go to Lynch's house now and talk to Tammy." Mrs. Hertz said, getting up.

Jun said immediately, "Hey mom. Don't do this. Tammy said she wanted to calm down, so don't go to her."

Mrs. Hertz said, "What's so cool about being calm. I think you two just want to avoid the problem. I know you like her and don't want to break up with her. Your father and I are very open-minded, and I won't force you to separate for the sake of the child. We think that the conflict between you and Tammy will be rooted to the end, It's still the child's problem."

Jun: "No! I just don't like her socializing outside, it has nothing to do with the child."

Mrs. Hertz: "Why can't Tammy socialize outside? Isn't her family's business important?"

Jun was asked back and was speechless.

Mrs. Hertz said, "Yes, you should understand Tammy more. Don't blame her blindly. We won't force Tammy to have children again. Didn't the doctor say that she is difficult to conceive?"

"You two think about it?" Jun looked at the two elders in surprise.

"No, what I mean to your dad is that you can find other women to have children." Mrs. Hertz said this way, "As long as you pay, there are many women willing to give birth to you."

Jun said, "Mom, what nonsense are you talking about?"

Mrs. Hertz said, "Tammy can't have children, so we won't make it difficult for her. We will find other women to have children. Is there any problem? You and Tammy are still husband and wife. The woman who gives birth to you is only responsible for giving birth, and will not affect the lives of the two of you."

Jun: "Mom, I beg you to stop talking. If Tammy hears this, she will must divorce me."

Mrs. Hertz said, "Divorce means divorce. It's not that you can't have children, so what are you afraid of?"

Jun didn't expect his mother to say such a thing. Although he quarreled with Tammy, he never thought about divorce from Tammy.

He was no longer a young and vigorous man in his twenties. He decided to remarry Tammy, not because of Tammy's face and figure, nor because of her childbirth.

"Mom, why don't you work hard with dad to have another son." Jun thought about it for a while, and then showed up, "I don't understand your thoughts, and I won't do as you say. An insult to me, and and also to Tammy."

After Jun finished speaking, he took the car keys and left.

About half an hour later, Tammy drove over. She tossed and turned awake last night. This morning, her mother enlightened her and asked her to come and have a good talk with Jun.

She ate breakfast and drove over.

The two elders of the Hertz family had already left, and only the nanny was at home.

When the nanny saw her return, she immediately put down her work and walked in front of her.

“Tammy, if only you came back earlier. Jun and your in-laws just left.” The nanny said.

“My in-laws are here?” Tammy put her bag on the sofa.

“Yeah! They’re here to find out and say one thing...” The nanny said here and did not continue.

Chapter 1457

Tammy’s curiosity was aroused.

She asked the nanny: “What’s the matter? Does it have anything to do with me?”

The nanny said hesitantly: “It’s related! It’s mainly about the child. Actually, it has nothing to do with you.”

“Since it is talking about the child, why doesn’t it have anything to do with me?” Tammy frowned her beautiful eyebrows, intuition that something happened, “What did they say?”

The nanny: “If you’re angry, I’d better not say it.”

Tammy: “If you don’t say it, then I’ll ask Jun.”

“Oh no. I’ll tell you.” The nanny took her arm and continued, “Your in-laws want to find a woman to replace You give birth to a child for Jun. Don’t be in a hurry to get angry... You and Jun are in a hurry to get angry about the child. It’s better to let other women suffer. You are still the young lady of the Hertz family. I won’t blame you for socializing outside.”

Tammy turned ashen as she was hit hard, and immediately shook off the nanny’s hand: “It’s good. Don’t tell them that I’ve come back. “

Tammy was so angry that the bag fell on the sofa and forgot to take it away.

At noon, Jun put down his pride and called Tammy, but he couldn’t get through.

At 4:00 in the afternoon, Jun dialed her number again, but still couldn’t get through.

Jun was a little irritable at first, but he couldn’t get through to her twice, and he suddenly panicked. He ended his work early and drove towards Tammy’s house.

Mary Lynch was at home.

Seeing Jun coming, Mary immediately invited him into the room to sit and after a while she said, "Quite so, don't blame Tammy for her recent socializing. It's her father who put a lot of pressure on her."

Jun: "Mom, I'm not angry anymore. Tammy's also very professional."

"I knew I didn't see you wrong. Except for me and her father, you are the one who loves her the most." Mary heaved a sigh of relief.

Jun: "Mom, Tammy didn't answer my call, so I came to wait for her."

"Why didn't she answer your call? Didn't you talk in the morning?" Mary asked in confusion.

"Morning?" Jun was surprised, "We didn't talk in the morning."

Mary : "I asked her to find you in the morning, didn't she go?"

Jun thought about it and said, "I went out very early in the morning. I haven't seen her."

"Oh...I'll call her and ask." Mary got up and looked for her cell phone.

After Mary got the mobile phone, she called Tammy in front of Jun.

Soon, the phone was connected.

Jun was suspicious, and immediately took out his mobile phone and dialed Tammy's number – sorry, the number you dialed is temporarily unavailable.

Tammy blocked him.

Yonroeville.

After Elliot's medicine was finished, Avery took the empty medicine bottle to the nurse station and threw it into the special medical trash can.

The nurse was no longer at the nurse's station in the morning. It is estimated that she went to find her sister in the reproductive department.

Avery returned to the ward, and after a while, the bodyguard brought her meals.

Because Rebecca allowed Avery to take care of Elliot here, the Jobin family bodyguard had no reason to stop Avery's bodyguard.

"Boss, you're really not afraid of death. I took a look just now and found that the Jobin family's bodyguards are all armed with guns." The bodyguard reminded Avery in a low voice.

"Even if they have bombs, it doesn't matter to me." Avery opened the lunch box and said calmly, "Go back to the hotel to rest. I'll be fine until Elliot wakes up."

Chapter 1458

"I've been resting in the hotel all day, I'll stay here for a while." The bodyguard walked to the hospital bed and stared at Elliot and looked carefully, "He just lays like this every day?"

Avery: "Well."

The bodyguard sighed, "The living dead mentioned in the book are like this, right? Can he still wake up?"

"If it is as serious as you said, then he is not in the ordinary ward, but in the ICU." Avery took a sip of soup and said, "He should be waking up soon."

"Oh, that's good." The bodyguard walked up to her and sat down, "Boss, I admire you more and more. You can be in Rebecca's territory, drive Rebecca away, your courage and courage are indeed the woman who can take down Elliot."

Avery blushed at his embarrassment: "Rebecca is pregnant now, so she didn't follow up with him to argue."

The bodyguard: "Oh, so it is."

Avery said, "When you bring your meal over at night, bring my suitcase."

"Okay. I can get it now, I'm fine anyway." The bodyguard got up and strode out.

After Avery finished eating, she took out the lunch box and threw it away.

She happened to meet the nurse who was going to inquire about the news and walked quickly.

When Avery saw the nurse, her heart beat faster.

“Ms. Tate, is Mr. Foster awake?” Because the Jobin family’s bodyguards were guarding outside, the nurse asked symbolically.

“No.” Avery shook her head.

The two entered the ward and closed the door of the ward.

The nurse said, “Ms. Tate, I didn’t get too specific information, because my sister didn’t know the inside story. She said that Miss Jobin’s transplant operation was done by the director.”

This result did not surprise Avery too much.

Everything about the Jobin family is private.

The nurse suddenly lowered her voice, “However, I still heard some important news. It takes a period of time to do IVF normally. Ms. Tate, you are a medical student, so you should understand what I mean. But Miss Jobin didn’t. Miss Jobin did it directly. I don’t know where the embryos transplanted into Miss Jobin’s stomach came from. I don’t even know who the father of this child is. “

Avery was stunned.

–Direct transplant?

–How could this be?

The nurse said, “Ms. Tate, when Mr. Foster wakes up, you can ask Mr. Foster what’s going on. If Miss Jobin’s child is indeed Mr. Foster’s, then Mr. Foster must know but I am a little puzzled. It’s Mr. Foster’s, so why did they choose IVF? Miss Jobin is very young and in good health, so they can conceive directly.”

Avery couldn’t answer the nurse’s question. Because she was more confused than nurses now.

After the nurse told Avery what she knew, she took another look at Elliot’s situation and left the ward.

When the bodyguard brought her luggage, she sat beside the hospital bed in a daze, completely unaware that someone had entered.

“Boss, what are you doing in a daze.” The bodyguard stretched out his hand and shook it in front of her. “Why are you so worried? It was fine just now. After I left, what happened?”

Avery: "I was thinking about what happened in Rebecca's stomach. What's the matter with the child."

"What is there to think about? When Elliot wakes up, you can just ask him if he doesn't." The bodyguard said lightly, "Didn't you say he is about to wake up?"

The bodyguard's mouth seemed to open light. After his words were settled, Elliot on the hospital bed suddenly opened his eyes without warning.

When the bodyguard saw Elliot open his eyes, he jumped back in fright.

"Boss! Elliot is awake." The bodyguard screamed.

Avery saw Elliot.

Elliot woke up!

Avery was too excited and nervous, she was at a loss for words and wanted to speak, but she didn't know what to say.

After Elliot opened his eyes, his eyes were cold and distracted.

Avery don't know what Elliot was thinking.

Chapter 1459

"Boss, don't you have a question to ask Mr. Foster? You ask!" Seeing Avery in a daze, the bodyguard immediately reminded her.

Avery recovered from the shock.

"Don't make a noise. He just woke up, but he's not awake yet." Avery pushed the bodyguard outside. "You stay outside. Don't come in without my order."

After pushing the bodyguard out, she quickly returned to the Elliot but his eyes were closed.

Avery rubbed her eyes, wondering if she had an illusion just now. However, the bodyguard saw it just now.

Avery didn't have any illusions, and Elliot did wake up briefly just now. Just when she hesitated to call his name, he opened his eyes again.

“Elliot!” Avery said quickly, “Elliot!”

Elliot’s eyes suddenly focused and looked at her.

“It’s me, I’m Avery.” Avery choked, “Kyrie is dead, when you are discharged from the hospital, let’s go back to Aryadelle together.”

–It took him twice as long as usual to digest what Avery said.

“Elliot, I know you’re in pain right now. It hurts everywhere. You don’t need to answer what I said...” Avery held his big palm and whispered.

“Okay...” Elliot replied hoarsely from his throat.

When he is discharged from the hospital, he will go back to Aryadelle with her.

Avery’s eyes suddenly became wet.

As Elliot answered her last sentence, she was satisfied.

In the evening, Rebecca came with a heat preservation box.

Hearing that Elliot woke up, she immediately asked the nanny to stew soup and porridge.

“Elliot!” Rebecca put the insulation box on the cabinet and walked to the side of the hospital bed. Seeing Elliot’s eyes open, she immediately asked gently and eagerly, “Elliot, how are you feeling? I brought you soup and...”

Vice President Lewis interrupted her: “Miss Jobin, he can’t drink soup now. He can only eat porridge and light noodles.”

“I’ve brought porridge.” Rebecca immediately opened the insulation box.

A strong fragrance wafted across the entire ward.

Avery came out of the bathroom, smelled the fragrance, and strode to Rebecca.

“Avery, the doctor said that Elliot can’t drink soup, let’s drink this soup.” Rebecca’s attitude towards Avery turned a hundred and eighty degrees, “Fortunately, I brought porridge for Elliot.”

Avery took the porridge, walked to the hospital bed, and asked, “Do you want to eat porridge?”

“Hey! Avery, why are you doing this?” Rebecca strode over and took a bowl from Avery’s hand. Snatched, “This is the porridge I brought to Elliot, I’ll just feed him, don’t bother you.”

Avery turned to ask Elliot, “Who do you want to feed?”

Rebecca held the bowl tightly , nervously waiting for Elliot’s answer.

She saw that Elliot looked at Avery with amber-like eyes, and spit out a word: “You.”

Rebecca’s hand holding the bowl suddenly lost his persistent strength.

Avery took the bowl from Rebecca’s hand and said, “I’ll stay with him tonight. When he’s not awake, he doesn’t need you. When he wakes up, he doesn’t need you anymore.”

Rebecca’s face turned pale.

“Elliot, do you really need me? Are you planning to go back to Aryadelle with Avery?” Rebecca asked unwillingly.

Elliot said without hesitation, “Yes.”

Rebecca’s heart fell to the bottom.

What she desperately wanted to grasp, she regarded her as a burden, lest it be avoided.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1460

Chapter 1460

The nanny supported Rebecca and persuaded in a low voice, “Miss, don’t be angry. You are pregnant with a child.”

Rebecca took a deep breath and tried to adjust her emotions.

When her father died, Elliot’s attitude towards her was completely undisguised.

The nanny helped Rebecca out of the ward.

“Miss, what do you think you are doing?” the nanny said worriedly, “If you want me to tell you, don’t punish Lorenzo. At least Lorenzo has his heart on you. You can see that Elliot doesn’t take you seriously at all. It’s irritating.”

Rebecca was stuck in his throat: "That's because he didn't know that the child in my womb was his. If he knew... His attitude towards me would definitely not be like this."

Seeing her persistent and unrepentant, Nanny can only let her stubborn.

When the last bump in the head breaks blood, she will know who is really good to her.

The nanny said, "Miss, you're less than three months pregnant now, so you need to keep your mood stable. Let's go back first. Elliot won't be able to leave the hospital for a while. When he's about to be discharged, you can get the results of the paternity test. Show him and see how he chooses."

Rebecca responded.

The nanny reminded, "Miss, you still have to prepare for the worst. If Elliot doesn't want you and the child, you must be strong."

Rebecca: "What can I do if I'm not strong? My father is dead, and I have no support. I am not strong, do I want to die?"

The nanny shut up and dared not say more.

When she reached the elevator door, the elevator opened slowly, and Lorenzo was standing inside.

When the nanny saw Lorenzo, her eyes suddenly lit up: "Lorenzo, accompany the lady to relax. I'll go back first."

After the nanny finished speaking, she walked away first.

Lorenzo came out of the elevator, looked at Rebecca's aggrieved face, and explained: "I heard that Elliot woke up, so I came to see. Why didn't you accompany him in the ward?"

Rebecca said angrily: "Elliot doesn't want me to accompany him. He said he wants to go back to Aryadelle with Avery."

Lorenzo sneered: "I already guessed the result."

Rebecca: "Are you laughing at me?"

"I didn't laugh at you." Lorenzo Grabbing her wrist: "It's too boring here, let's go down and talk!"

Aryadelle.

Mary was full of anger after talking on the phone with Tammy but Jun was there, so after she hung up the phone, she could only quickly suppress her emotions and force a smile.

Tammy said on the phone that she and Jun were over.

Jun: "When? Tammy didn't say it to me."

And Tammy heard that Jun was now at her house, she decided not to go home tonight.

"Exactly, have you and Tammy quarreled about anything else?" Mary put down her phone and sat down on the sofa.

Jun shook his head: "No."

Mary frowned, "There should be. Otherwise, Tammy wouldn't be like this. When I asked her to find you in the morning, her attitude was quite good. I'm a little impulsive, regretting that I shouldn't hit you. It's impossible that nothing happened today, so she changed her attitude."

Jun: "Oh? What is her attitude now?"

Mary told the truth to be honest, "Tammy hates you now. you don't have to wait for her here anymore, she said she won't be back tonight."

Jun felt a thorn in his heart. He got up and strode away.

Driving home, the nanny handed Tammy the bag that Tammy had left at home in the morning and handed it to Jun.

The nanny: "Yes, this is where Tammy landed here in the morning. I don't know if there are any important items in it, I dare not touch it."

Jun took the bag and asked, "Did she meet my parents when she came over in the morning? Did my parents say something bad to her?"

The nanny shook her head: "No. When she came, your dad and mom were left."

Jun opened the bag and found some makeup and a bottle of folic acid.
