Chapter 1471

"I don't need you here anymore." Chad put down the fruit and pushed him out with both hands, "By the way, remember to bring meals at night."

Mike: "What's the matter with you? I said I won't leave."

Chad didn't want to talk nonsense with him, so after pushing him out, he quickly returned to the ward and closed the door.

"You two quarreled?" Elliot felt that the atmosphere was a little subtle.

Chad: "He must have made you angry?"

"No." Elliot glanced at the fruits he bought, "Why do you buy so many fruits?"

"Don't you want to eat more fruits to supplement vitamins when you are sick?" Chad opened the fruit bag and took out the file bag, "Boss, I accidentally took your paternity test result."

Chad thought about whether to hide Elliot. He could secretly put the paternity test results back in the drawer when Elliot wasn't paying attention.

Finally he decided to confess.

Elliot is not a fool, this matter cannot be concealed at all.

Who knows, when Elliot heard his words, he just responded lightly.

"I want to destroy it, but Avery won't let it."

"Avery knows about this?" Chad was shocked, "What was her reaction?"

"This was sent to her by Rebecca, of course she knew. Rebecca had long ago I told her about it. Even if she was angry, she was mentally prepared in advance."

"My God. This Rebecca is declaring war on Avery." Chad put the file bag back in the drawer.

Elliot: "Don't tell the public about this."

“Don’t worry, I won’t tell you. I won’t tell Mike.” Chad scratched his head embarrassedly, “I think it’s better to destroy it. Or I’ll take it back for you and put it away.”

Elliot: “Let Avery handle it.”

Chad: “Okay!”

Time blinked, and a week passed.

Elliot was finally approved to be discharged from the hospital. On the day he was discharged from the hospital, outside the hospital gate, there were a lot of reporters who took pictures secretly.

About two days ago, Sterling Group issued an external announcement that the chairman of the company was changed back to Elliot from Adrian.

This means that those who once coveted the Sterling Group have had their dreams shattered.

Elliot is back. His business empire will start a glorious journey again.

Elliot was pushed out by bodyguards in a wheelchair.

The reporter posted the secretly photographed photos on the Internet, with an accompanying text – what happened to Elliot in just three months?

In addition to the photo taken today, there is also a handsome photo of him when he was in high spirits.

The two photos are placed together for a stark contrast.

This Facebook quickly became popular.

Many netizens have left their comments.

–Curious, who broke Elliot’s leg? Is that Avery?

–Hahaha! Upstairs, are you serious? Why did Avery break Elliot’s leg? [laughs and tears] [laughs and tears]

[laughs and tears]

–I also think Avery broke his leg. Because he married a wife in Yonroeville. No one knows about this, right? [Support cheeks]

–What’s wrong with rich men marrying more wives? People’s wives didn’t say anything, I don’t know what some people are sour.

–No wonder Avery didn’t come to pick him up from the hospital. It turned out that the two of them had a relationship problem.

–I don’t know what happened to Elliot, I only know that his company’s third-quarter earnings report continued to rise. [lemon] [lemon]

...

Elliot was taken to the car, and after sitting firmly, he asked the driver, “Why didn’t Avery come?”

Chapter 1472

Avery told Elliot last night that she would come to pick him up from the hospital today.

But she didn’t come.

The driver said, “Avery is sick.”

Elliot frowned slightly when he heard this.

Avery got up this morning and felt dizzy. She thought it was because she didn’t sleep well, but after eating breakfast, her body temperature was obviously high.

She took a thermometer and checked, and sure enough, she had a low-grade fever.

It was a bit windy outside today, which was one of the reasons why she decided not to go out. Secondly, she was afraid that her illness would be passed on to Elliot.

Elliot was recovering from a serious illness, and his body was still relatively weak and his immunity was relatively low.

When the driver went to pick up Elliot, she packed a guest room for Elliot.

They can only sleep in separate rooms until they get better.

Fortunately, although she was ill, Mrs. Cooper was better.

Mrs. Cooper said that she might have been infected by her illness, but she knew very well that her illness had nothing to do with Mrs. Cooper.

After Mrs. Cooper caught a cold, she stayed home for two days, and only came back when her symptoms subsided. After coming here, I only go out of the room when cooking, and stay in the room to rest at other times.

How could it be contagious to her?

After a while, the car that picked up Elliot drove slowly to the front yard and stopped.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

The driver got out of the car and opened the rear door.

After Elliot was helped out of the car, he released the driver's arm.

With a cane in one hand, he strode towards the door of the villa.

He has been able to walk very steadily, but it is a little troublesome when getting on and off the bus.

Robert stood at the door of the villa, watching Elliot limping, and immediately hugged Mrs. Cooper's leg in fright.

"Don't be afraid, Robert, that's your dad." Avery heard the movement in the room and came out immediately. She had antipyretic stickers on her forehead and a mask on her face.

Elliot walked to the door, saw her like this, and sighed helplessly: "Have a fever?"

"38.2 degrees, not serious." Avery walked in front of him with a nasal voice, "You sleep in the guest room. I'm afraid that the cold will spread to you."

"You have a good rest, don't think nonsense." Elliot reached out and touched her cheek, which was a little hot, "Have you taken medicine?"

Avery: "Took cold medicine. It will be better after two hours of sleep."

Elliot: "Drink more water."

“Drink.” Avery was lethargic, “I was a little dizzy. I went to bed. Although you have been discharged from the hospital, you should be careful not to fail the re-examination.”

“Go and rest!, I will accompany you.” After Elliot watched her return to the room, he turned his attention to Robert who was hiding behind Mrs. Cooper.

Robert looked at him curiously and timidly with a pair of jet-black eyes.

“Robert, come here, Dad will give you a hug.” Elliot put on a gentle smile, and his tone was also very gentle.

Of course Robert wouldn't let Elliot hug him.

The way he walked strangely made Robert a little scared.

“Robert, don't be afraid. Dad is sick and only uses crutches.” Mrs. Cooper picked up Robert and walked to Elliot, “Dad give you a hug, and Dad'll get you some fruit puree, okay?”

Seeing the fruit puree's sake, Robert reluctantly let go of the hand that was holding Mrs. Cooper.

Elliot took him into his arms smoothly, smelling the milky smell of his body that belonged only to a child, and felt peaceful and happy in his heart.

His life seemed to be back on track from a fork in the road.

....

Bridgedale.

After a week of playing around, Ben Schaffer was ready to return to Aryadelle.

Before returning to Aryadelle, he had to visit Hayden and Gwen.

He brought gifts and came to Hayden's residence. He rang the doorbell, and within a moment, someone came to open the door.

It was Gwen who opened the door for him.

Chapter 1473

Gwen was wearing a yoga suit and was sweating. Seeing Ben Schaffer, she was stunned for a moment.

“What? It’s such a surprise to see me?” Ben Schaffer glanced at her quickly as he spoke.

But he hasn’t seen her for a while, and he feels that Gwen has lost a lot of weight, and her temperament has changed.

“The access control system at home is broken.” Gwen took a step back to make way for him.

“Oh, why didn’t someone come to fix it?” Ben Schaffer entered the room and changed his shoes at the entrance.

Gwen: “No one usually comes to visit.”

“Then how dare you open the door if you don’t know it’s me?” Ben Schaffer was surprised by her weak sense of defense.

“I know it’s you. Hayden told me this morning that you would come over today.” Gwen walked to the living room and put away the yoga mat.

“Then why were you so surprised when you saw me just now?” Ben Schaffer changed his shoes and walked to the living room to watch her clean up.

Gwen said slowly, “I’m not surprised to see you. I was stunned by the speed of your aging. The last time I saw you, I didn’t think you were so old. Why haven’t you seen you for a while, so old More.”

Ben Schaffer: “???”

–How different can he be now from three months ago?

–Why is Gwen speaking so ugly?

Gwen was mad at him on purpose.

“Why don’t you talk? Are you angry?” Gwen cleaned up the living room and turned to look at him, “You don’t look in the mirror every day, do you? You are really aging a lot, are you tired from work? Or play with women? Too much, your body is weak?”

Ben Schaffer gritted his teeth. He had chosen a gift for her carefully, but now he didn't want to give it to her.

"What's in this hand?" Gwen saw the bag in his hand, so she asked, "A gift?"

Ben Schaffer took a deep breath and decided not to care about her.

After all, he was ashamed of her.

He handed her the bag: "A gift for you."

"Oh, is it compensation for a previous miscarriage?" She took the bag and took out a jewelry box from it.

No wonder Gwen said that, ordinary friend, who gave such a precious gift.

Ben Schaffer couldn't stand being stabbed by her words, "Gwen, can you talk to me? I'm very happy to see you."

Gwen: "I'm not happy to see you happy."

Ben Schaffer was left speechless by her, and lost his temper. He walked to the sofa angrily and sat down, changing the subject: "When will Hayden be back?"

Gwen: "Six, seven or eight in the evening."

Ben: "It's so late?"

"Is six o'clock too late?" Gwen put the jewelry box Open, and inside was a sparkling bracelet. She put the bracelet on, That was not bad.

"Isn't he a primary school student? Domestic primary school students leave school at five o'clock in the afternoon."

"Hayden is an ordinary primary school student but he is a genius." Gwen teased, "I'm going to the training class to study accounting, shouldn't it be too late? Wait for me to take the exam. Accountant certificate, maybe I can do better than you."

Ben Schaffer felt his face being rubbed against the ground by her.

Ben: "Gwen, do you hate me so much?"

"Don't make fun of yourself. I just don't like your sh*t and I have to ask Avery to tell me about the big things. You're not ashamed."

Ben Schaffer was beaten by her. Powerless to fight back, defeated without a fight.

At 6:30 p.m., Hayden came home from school.

“Let’s eat out. I’ll treat you.” Ben Schaffer got up from the sofa and said to Hayden with a smile.

Hayden has no opinion.

“You guys go eat, I won’t go.” Gwen said lightly.

When Ben Schaffer heard her words, he immediately exploded.

“Gwen, are you so interesting? It’s just a meal, and it didn’t kill you. Are you targeting me like this?” Ben Schaffer blushed with anger, and quickly bullied his chest.

Gwen and Hayden were stunned.

Chapter 1474

Ben Schaffer’s roar was deafening.

Gwen was not so afraid of him at first, but seeing his angry look at the moment, her heart suddenly trembled.

“Uncle Schaffer, my aunt doesn’t eat heavy meal every night. She only eats fruit at night.” Hayden said, breaking the silence.

Ben Schaffer: “???”

The corners of his mouth twitched, and the blush on his face became deeper. Finally, an embarrassed cough started.

Gwen couldn’t help but want to laugh: “Forget it, I’ll go with you.”

After going out, Ben Schaffer was too embarrassed, so he kept walking with Hayden and kept asking about Hayden’s study.

Hayden was annoyed by his questioning, so he walked to Gwen's side.

Ben Schaffer had to walk side by side with the two of them.

"Gwen, you're so thin and exercising now, there is no need to skip dinner. You can eat less." Ben Schaffer finally summoned up the courage to speak to her.

Gwen: "I want to eat too, but my boss won't let me. You go and tell my boss."

Ben: "Who is your boss?"

Gwen: "Manager."

"Who is your manager?" Ben Schaffer asked.

"Do you really want to find her?" Gwen raised her eyebrows and asked him, "What does it have to do with you if I eat dinner or not?"

This question stopped Ben Schaffer. He seems to be really busy. But he just wanted to take care of her.

"Hayden, didn't you invest in the company? You are the big boss behind the scenes. Go and tell the agent that you can't keep your body by dieting. It's unhealthy."

Hayden: "I don't care."

Although he invested the money to open the company, he was only responsible for investing the money and nothing else.

Moreover, Gwen just didn't eat at night, so she could eat a little for breakfast and lunch.

Gwen still does physical exercise every day, which shows that she is not so hungry.

The three went to a restaurant and sat down.

After Ben Schaffer ordered a table of dishes with the menu, he ordered a bottle of red wine with great interest.

Gwen thought he was a bit outrageous: "Are you addicted to alcohol? Would you like to find a few people to drink with you?"

Ben: "No, I'll drink a little."

Gwen: "You drink a little but you have ordered a bottle, why?"

"Can I still order a drink? This is not a bar." Ben Schaffer guessed that Gwen might be distressed about the money, so he explained, "I can take the wine bottle home if I can't finish it, and drink it when I want to drink in the future."

Gwen: "I don't like drinking."

Ben: "Didn't you drink well when you accompany you before?"

"Are you sure you want to turn your back on the old account?" Gwen raised her eyebrows, with an attitude of 'the old lady will accompany her to the end', which made Ben Schaffer persuade him.

"Bring back what you can't finish drinking, you can take it to soak your feet." Ben Schaffer said seriously, "Maybe it can be sterilized."

Gwen: "I think you need it more. You can buy more wine, take a bath with wine, and your whole body will be healed. All need to be sterilized."

Ben Schaffer: "..."

Hayden sat on the side, listening to the two of them coming and going against each other, like sitting on pins and needles. Before eating, he was already half full.

Chapter 1475

Aryadelle.

In the evening.

Everyone came to the Starry River Villa with gifts to celebrate Elliot's discharge from the hospital and also to celebrate the reconciliation between Elliot and Avery.

After Avery took two doses of medicine, the fever subsided and her head was not so dizzy.

But after Tammy came over, she still put on a mask.

Tammy was pregnant and couldn't get sick.

Tammy said, "Avery, you must have been too tired recently. When people are too tired, they are easy to get sick. Before I got pregnant, I also caught a cold once. I also took cold medicine. I asked the doctor if the child would be sick. It will be affected. The doctor said that since the baby didn't bleed, it means that it has no effect."

Avery: "Well. Why didn't you come with Jun?"

After heard this question, the calm on Tammy's face no longer existed.

"My mother-in-law was hospitalized because of my high blood pressure. Jun went to take care of him. I haven't seen him for three days, and I suspect my mother-in-law won't let him come to me."

Avery frowned, "Your mother-in-law's condition is very serious. Have you been to the hospital?"

"My mother-in-law has had high blood pressure for many years. Since I met Jun, she has been hospitalized several times. She has to stay for half a month each time. If I go to see her, not only will I not be able to comfort her, but it will only make her blood pressure even higher." Tammy laughed at herself, and continued, "I can't compromise with her. I have already decided what my child's name will be.

"Okay! what's the name?" Avery asked.

"If it's the baby boy, his name will be Enzo, or If it's the baby girl, her name will be Kara. What do you think?" Tammy was very satisfied with the name she came up with.

Avery thinks the name is good, but her mother-in-law is afraid that she will not give up.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Avery: "Tammy, what will you do if your mother-in-law doesn't allow Jun to be with you?"

Tammy: "I've been thinking about it these days. It's enough for me to have children, but men are not necessary. Besides, without Jun, I can still find other men. The most important person in my life is definitely not a man with no blood relationship. The most important people should be my parents, and then my children. "

Avery felt that Tammy was much more mature.

Avery: "If only my mother is still alive. I want her to be happy, but there is no chance."

“Avery, don’t be sad. The things we can do are actually very limited. Don’t look at how free and easy I just said. In fact Jun didn’t come to me for three days, I’m very angry.” Tammy pulled out a wry smile and continued, “But I can’t be sad all the time because of this, it’s not good for the child.”

Avery: “It’s good for you to think so. Be sure to take care of your own body. It will be a very happy thing to have a child born safely. It is completely different from the happiness of love.”

“Yeah! Elliot is almost recovering, right? I see him holding Robert with one hand, so relaxed.” Tammy looked towards Elliot.

Avery: “It should be almost the same. I told him not to hug Robert first. After all, he is still recovering, but he doesn’t listen. Because Robert doesn’t want Elliot but he wants to have a good relationship with Robert quickly.”

Tammy: “Haha, I see it. Now, Robert’s little mouth is pouting, not very happy.”

Avery walked over and took Robert from Elliot’s arms.

After Robert got into his mother’s arms, he immediately made a ‘Owow’ in aggrieved, and then called out to his mother softly.

“Robert is so cute. When he grows up, he will definitely be completely different from Hayden. He will definitely be a little warm man.” Tammy reached out and teased Robert’s little face.

Avery said, “Because they grew up in different environments. In fact, Layla’s personality was not gregarious before, but it changed a little after returning to Aryadelle.”

The smile on Tammy’s face disappeared.

The environment of a single parent family will definitely have a big impact on the children.

If Tammy can’t resolve the conflict with her mother-in-law, her children will grow up in a single-parent family in the future.

Avery: “Tammy, you don’t have to worry so much. Although Hayden is not gregarious, he is also very good. Being lively has the advantage of being lively, and being introverted has the advantage of being introverted.”

Tammy was delighted, “If my child can have Hayden percent With an IQ of one, I’m going to be so happy.”

At 9 p.m., everyone left one after another.

After Avery put Robert to sleep, she came to Elliot.

She stood on tiptoe, approached his face, smelled it, and then frowned: "Elliot, what's the matter with you?"
