Chapter 1476

Avery smelled a strong smell of wine in his breath.

Elliot was drinking. He looked at her with slightly drunk eyes, and said frankly: "I'm in a good mood today, and I drank a small cup."

Avery: "You only stopped taking the medicine today."

"Yes, I stopped taking the medicine today, so I drank a little." Elliot said, wrapping his arms around her waist, "I'm going to sleep with you tonight."

"Okay, you've already been drinking, why are you afraid of the cold virus?" Avery teased him, "No one will stop you from drinking?"

Elliot looked innocent: "No. They clink glasses with me."

Avery: "..."

Elliot: "Don't be angry. The champagne I drink is not high enough."

Avery: "The alcohol is not high but it's also wine. I didn't stare at you for a while, and you started messing around. Fortunately, I didn't let you go to work. If you were allowed to go to work, I don't know what you would be like."

Elliot looked at her angry expression, He leaned down and kissed her on the forehead.

"You've been chatting with Tammy tonight, what are you talking about?" Elliot's breath gushed on her skin, intimate and warm.

"I asked her why Jun didn't come, and she said her mother-in-law was hospitalized with high blood pressure. Do you know about this?" Avery was relieved because of his kiss.

Avery helped him and walked towards the master bedroom.

Elliot: "I also found out tonight. Jun was taking care of his mother in the hospital, so he didn't come."

Avery frowned slightly, "Tammy said that her mother-in-law might force them to separate. Do you think we can help them?"

Elliot said sharply, "Jun's mother wants a child, but Tammy doesn't give it. Their conflicts can't even be resolved. As outsiders, how can we help? You persuade Tammy to do the worst. she must plan to give birth to the child first."

Avery: "That's what I advised her. Tammy really wants to give birth to this child, so she should be able to think about it."

Elliot: "Well."

The two returned to the master bedroom, and Avery helped Elliot to sit on the sofa.

Avery: "You take off your clothes, I'll go get the water."

Elliot fractured his left leg and is still splinted, so he can't take a bath or shower.

"Avery, have you watched the news online?" Elliot unbuttoned his shirt one by one.

Avery responded: "I took a look when I woke up during the day. Are you trying to say that you were secretly photographed when you were discharged from the hospital? You look a little haggard in the photo. Why was your expression so serious at that time? "

"Because I didn't see you, I was a little confused." Elliot explained.

"Haha, I wanted to call you this morning, but I was so dizzy at the time that I fell asleep after taking the medicine." Avery smiled and admitted her mistake, "The netizens look at me too highly, how dare I Break your legs? Even if you marry a hundred wives, I wouldn't dare."

Listening to her teasing, Elliot stopped when he took off his clothes: "One hundred wives, do you want me to die in bed?"

Avery: "Yeah, isn't that easier than breaking your leg?"

"Avery, do you care about me and Rebecca?" Elliot asked, looking at her figure in the bathroom.

Avery came out with the water basin, "Can you believe me if I say I don't care? If I go to get a license with a man, but I don't have a relationship, you can't stand it. A child came out. Elliot, you asked me this question, do you want me to comfort you in return?"

Elliot threw the shirt he took off on the ground, and pulled the belt buckle off with his fingers.

"I'm not wronged, I don't need comfort. I want to comfort you, but I don't know how." Elliot pulled out the belt and put it aside.

Avery put the water basin on the table, then walked up to him and took off his pants.

The trousers Elliot wore were looser, so it was easier to take them off.

Avery: "Just be careful when taking off your left leg."

Avery said lightly, "You better stop comforting me. The more you comfort me, the more cranky I am. People need to be content. Elliot, I am very happy when you are by my side now. Just don't think about Rebecca and that child."

Elliot: "Then don't think about it."

"Yeah." After taking off his pants, Avery picked up the shirt he threw on the ground and put it in the laundry basket.

Chapter 1477

The sun shines through the window and falls into the huge living room.

On the sofa, a man and a woman hugged each other and slept soundly.

Suddenly, a rapid and harsh ringtone came from the mobile phone.

Gwen opened her eyes first.

It was her phone that rang.

Gwen wanted to reach out to find the phone, but her arm was bound by something, so she couldn't move.

She opened her eyes immediately, and after seeing what was restraining her, she immediately raised her feet and kicked Ben Schaffer off the sofa.

“Ah!” Ben Schaffer exclaimed, then opened his eyes.

“You old hooligan!” Gwen jumped off the sofa and scolded Ben Schaffer, “Think about what happened last night.”

Ben Schaffer was blank and forgot about the pain.

Last night, he invited Hayden Gwen to dinner.

He ordered a bottle of wine and drank it alone.

Hayden ate children’s meals, Gwen ate fruit salad. Ben was boring to drink alone, but he didn’t want to end the dinner so quickly, he could only drink one cup after another... In the end, he was drunk.

He couldn’t remember what happened after he was drunk.

“Gwen, can’t you? I drank too much last night, it’s impossible for you.” Ben Schaffer smelled an odor that didn’t belong to him, so he raised his arm and smelled it. .

It seems to be Gwen’s breath.

“You old hooligan, you drank too much last night and kept holding me and refused to let go. Hayden almost called the police, if I hadn’t stopped him. You should be in the detention center now.”

Ben Schaffer was shocked: “Is Hayden so heartless?”

“Isn’t the point that you are playing a hooligan to me?” Gwen was so angry that she ignored the phone call.

“Okay, sorry. I drank too much last night. How did I get back?” Ben rubbed his aching temples.

Gwen: “I hired two big men to drag you back.”

Ben Schaffer: “...”

Seeing that Ben really didn’t remember anything, Gwen didn’t bother him.

Gwen picked up her phone, saw the missed call from her agent, and called back immediately.

After calling, she immediately went to the bathroom to wash her face and was ready to go out.

“Are you going out? I’ll take you off.” Ben followed to the bathroom with a smell of alcohol.

Gwen: “No need. I’ll go to the company myself.”

“I just want to see your company. After I deliver you, I’ll go to the airport. I’ll go home with my ticket today.” Ben apologized to her again, “Gwen, I’m sorry. Next time I meet you, I won’t drink anymore.”

Gwen listened to his sincere tone and sneered: “You better bless me not to be famous, otherwise we will definitely not have the chance to meet next time.”

Ben: “Why? Are you going to leave the earth when you are famous?”

Gwen: “I am famous, and ordinary people want to spend money when they see me.”

Ben: “Then I don’t need to spend money.”

Gwen: “...”

The assistant pushed open the door of Wanda’s office.

“Ms. Tate, there is some exciting news, do you want to hear it?”

Wanda glared at the assistant.

The assistant immediately came to her ear and whispered, “A female cleaner in our company told people everywhere that she was Elliot’s biological mother.”

Chapter 1478

Elliot's biological mother?

Wanda was stunned for a moment.

Elliot is not a member of the Foster family, and this incident had already started.

His biological father, Nathan, had already been executed.

Nothing about his birth mother has ever been reported online.

"Bring that woman, I'll take a look." Wanda said to the assistant.

The assistant smiled and said, "I knew you were definitely interested. I'll call the head of logistics and ask him to bring her."

After two seconds of silence, Wanda confessed, "Keep quiet about this matter."

"Okay! Don't worry." The assistant said and went out to make a phone call.

Star River Villa.

Elliot has a cold fever today.

Avery thought that Elliot had infected, but she thought it was caused by his drinking last night.

"How can drinking cause a cold?" Avery was much better today, but seeing Elliot's ill appearance, she blamed herself, "I infected you."

Elliot: "It's okay, I don't blame you."

"It's useless for you to blame me. I don't dislike you. I'll sleep with you tonight." Avery went to get him cold medicine, "Don't hold Robert today. The child will be much more troublesome if he has a cold."

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

"Well. I try not to go out of the room." Elliot was afraid that when he saw Robert, he couldn't help but want to get close to him. "Have you noticed that Robert is getting cuter the more he looks?"

Avery handed Elliot a cup of warm water and handed him the pills again: "Robert is very cute. So you get better soon and bring more children. This way I can go to work too."

Elliot frowned, "Aren't you going to accompany me to work from home? You let me home alone?"

"You want to keep your legs. I don't need them." Avery pushed his hand holding the pills, "You take the pills first."

Elliot put the pills in his mouth, took a sip of water and swallowed them.

Avery took the empty water glass from him and put it on the table.

Avery: "For a hundred days, you have to wait for your legs to be completely healed before you can go to work. I counted the time and waited for your legs to recover, and it will be the end of the year."

Elliot: "I know, I can rest at home. But Why don't you accompany me?"

"Didn't you have children to accompany you? If I was at home, I would not be able to work well." Avery explained to him patiently, "I took your investment, and I can't let you lose money."

Elliot chuckled softly: "You think so?"

Avery: "Yeah! No matter who puts money in, I'll always think that way."

"Mike came to me a few days ago and said I was too much for you. He blamed me for not being able to. I want your shares." Elliot looked at her gently and wanted to know her reaction.

Avery couldn't help laughing: "I understand Mike's thoughts. In his eyes, I'm not a human being, but a god. So it's normal for all unreasonable and unimaginable things to happen to me. If you invest money, you don't want shares. I would rather choose to let the company go out of business."

"Do you want to know what I think?" Elliot asked.

"I know what you think." Avery eyes were clear, and her tone was firm, "Elliot, we have known each other for so many years. Although we have been on and off a few times, I am confident that I know you."

Avery replied, Elliot felt very satisfied. He was not afraid of being guessed by her.

Elliot's just afraid that Avery doesn't understand.

“As long as you stay by my side and be my wife, what’s yours is yours, and what’s mine is also yours.” Elliot expressed his heart to her.

“What’s yours and mine, I don’t care about that at all.” Avery smiled and reached out to touch the temperature of his forehead. “Fortunately, there is no fever. You lie down and rest today. The more rest you have, the faster your recovery will be.”

“You go out today?” Elliot took her hand, not wanting her to go away.

“I won’t go out this morning. There are activities at Layla’s school in the afternoon, so I have to go out in the afternoon.” Avery pulled the quilt up to cover him, “Do you want anything to eat? I’ll bring it back to you in the afternoon.”

Elliot: “No appetite. You come back early in the afternoon.”

Seeing his lack of energy, Avery suddenly didn’t want to go out.

Avery: “I’ll let Mike go to Layla’s school activities.”

“If you agree to Layla, then you should go. I’m not feeling well right now, I should be able to sleep better later.” Elliot afraid that his daughter will be disappointed if he doesn’t go.

Avery exited the room after he closed her eyes.

Chapter 1479

Robert was standing outside the door.

As soon as Avery came out, Robert immediately hugged her.

“Mom...play.”

“Okay, mommy will play with you.” Avery was afraid that Robert would disturb Elliot, so she decided to take the child to play outside.

The weather was good today, the sun was bright and the breeze was mild.

It had entered early autumn, the temperature was not as hot as summer, and the temperature difference between day and night was becoming more and more obvious.

Bridgedale.

After Ben accompanied Gwen to the modeling agency, he had no intention of leaving.

“Didn’t you say you were going to catch a plane?” Gwen asked.

Ben Schaffer smiled and said casually, “I didn’t say I wanted to catch a flight. I said today’s ticket. To be precise, tonight’s ticket. I’ll leave when I have dinner with you tonight. Where’s your agent? I want to meet her.”

It turned out that this was Ben Schaffer’s real purpose.

Of course Gwen wouldn’t take him to see her agent.

The agent, Lexie came out of the office and saw Ben Schaffer next to Gwen, and immediately asked Gwen, “Who is this? Your eldest brother?”

Lexie knew that Gwen had an eldest brother, but had never met.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Gwen immediately walked over to Lexie: “Miss Lexie, this is not my eldest brother. This is my second brother, Elliot’s friend.”

“Oh...why did you bring him to the company?” Lexie’s eyes turned from Ben Schaffer body retracted.

Before Gwen could answer, Ben Schaffer said, “Hello, I want to talk to you about Gwen’s diet.”

Lexie: “Elliot asked you to come to me?”

Ben Schaffer shook his head: “No, I think there is something wrong with the dietary requirements you set for her.”

“You are not Gwen’s relative, what do you think is wrong with me? You are a layman. You want to guide me?” Lexie glared at him, giving him no face at all, “We are going to train, you can do it yourself.”

Ben Schaffer didn’t expect this woman to be so serious, it’s hard to approach.

No wonder Gwen was afraid of her.

Ben followed them to the training room, intending to see Gwen's daily training.

For some reason, Ben cared about her career and future development.

It was like looking at a piece of white paper that was being painted with brilliant colors.

This feeling was difficult to express in words.

Aryadelle

At 1:30 p.m.

Avery went out to participate in the activities of Layla's school.

When Elliot woke up, his cold symptoms were much relieved. He got up and saw a thermos cup on the bedside table. He opened the thermos cup, which was filled with warm water.

There was also a note on the table, left by Avery.

–Go eat something after you get up. Even if you have no appetite, you have to eat it.

Because Elliot only ate a little porridge for breakfast, Avery was worried that he would not eat anything.

After drinking a sip of warm water, Elliot got out of bed and went to lunch on crutches.

After lunch, Elliot looked at Robert who was taking a nap.

Robert was very cute even when he was asleep.

Standing by the bed and watching his son for a while, Elliot's eyes suddenly darkened. He came out of the kid's room and went back to the bedroom. He picked up the phone on the bed and dialed Wesley.

Chapter 1480

Wesley saw his call and immediately answered the call.

“Do you think it’s appropriate to talk about you and Shea now?” Elliot voice came in a low voice, “Shea hasn’t recovered yet, are you so eager?”

His questioning made Wesley silent.

In fact, this matter was not what Wesley asked to talk about.

It was Shea who hoped that this matter would be settled.

It was impossible for Wesley to pour cold water on her.

And following her, it would make people mistakenly think that he was leading the matter behind the scenes.

“Well, wait until shea recovers. I’ll have a good chat with her.” Wesley said.

Elliot didn’t hang up because he still had doubts.

Elliot asked, “Can you tell your feelings for Avery and Shea? You chased Avery before. How can you like Shea?”

“If you like Avery, then you can’t like other women?” Wesley’s answer was open and aboveboard, “Avery is not only beautiful, easy-going, but also very capable. Many men like her.”

“Then you decide to be with Shea now, do you think she is easy to control? Or is it you? What do you want?” Elliot asked unceremoniously.

“Elliot, Shea is not your own sister. Do you think that when I am with her, apart from getting doubts from you, what else can I gain from you?” Wesley laughed at himself and continued, “This year, I have lost far more than I have gained a lot.”

Elliot felt that he had not finished speaking, so he did not speak immediately.

“If shea were your sister, I would be embarrassed to be with her. Now, she and I are both ordinary people. We are willing to be together and spend the future together, that’s all.”

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Elliot roughly understood what Wesley meant. .

Wesley was not an ambitious person. From the fact that he left Bridgedale and returned to Aryadelle, he did not rely on his father, the dean, but only became an ordinary doctor. It can be seen that what he pursues is not a magnificent life.

“Although Shea is not my own sister, in my heart, she is closer than my own sister. If you dare to let her be wronged in the future, I will never let you go.” Elliot spoke harshly to Wesley.

Wesley: “I wronged myself, and I won’t wrong her.”

“Don’t say it so grandly. If you hadn’t asked Shea to donate blood to Robert, Shea would never have known about Robert. Avery was sad, so she chose to sacrifice Shea.” Elliot brought up the old story again.

Wesley felt a colic in his heart: “I’m not an immortal, how could I have expected such serious consequences for Shea’s blood donation? Besides, I have been regretting it. I really shouldn’t have told her about Robert. It’s time to tell her that her blood can save Robert. In this way, she won’t suffer any pain, and she and I don’t have to hide outside for that long.”

If Wesley didn’t tell Shea, then Robert might have died at that time.

–Why doesn’t Elliot understand this?

–It’s just that the depressed mood always wants to find an outlet.

“Elliot, don’t mention this again. You can accuse me, but don’t mention it again.” Wesley’s tone increased, “I will take good care of Shea in the future, whether you agree with me or not, we will both spend this life together.”

This conversation was completely beyond Elliot’s imagination.

After a year of precipitation, not only Shea has changed, but Wesley has also changed.

Wesley was no longer the gentle and introverted gentleman he used to be.

He was tougher and more mature than before.

Elliot no longer doubts whether he can take on the heavy responsibility of taking care of Shea.

Primary School.

This afternoon, the school held a celebration of 11th in the auditorium.

Avery, as the representative of the parents of the students, sat down in the front row of the audience.

Layla's head teacher said to Avery: "After Layla's performance is over, the host will invite you to come on stage and chat with you casually."

Avery: "Layla didn't tell me that I needed to come on stage."
