

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1561

Chapter 1561

“Elliot, what are you thinking?” Avery walked up to him, put a kiss on his cheek and said in a low voice, “I feel like you are unhappy.”

“The snow outside reminds me of a lot of things.” Elliot eyes fell out of the window again, “I always feel that the snow is the same as before, but we are not what we used to be.”

“What do you mean we are not what we used to be?” Avery’s eyebrows frowned, unable to guess what Elliot was thinking.

Elliot explained, “We will eventually grow old, but the snow will not change. Every birthday and Spring Festival, it is easy to fall into this emotion.”

“Hahaha! Maybe I’m not your age, So on birthdays and New Year, other than being happy, I don’t think about these things.” Avery pulled him out of bed, “I made breakfast, but it tasted so-so, so don’t dislike it.”

“What did you cook?” Elliot asked.

“Fried two eggs, and boiled noodles.” Avery shrugged, “There are no other ingredients at home. The weather is so bad today, and the takeaway has stopped.”

“Well, what time did you get up?” Elliot entered washroom wash.

“I woke up at 7 o’clock. But I didn’t get up until 8 o’clock.” Avery stood at the door of the bathroom, “I found three cases of the same condition as me in Xander’s past surgery cases. I’ve had general anesthesia twice. I’m going to go to Xander’s former teacher and ask.”

Elliot: “I’ll go with you.”

Avery said, “It’s snowing so much today, I’ll just go by myself. I’ve passed A former classmate, contacted his former teacher.”

“Aren’t you a teacher?” After washing up, Elliot walked out of the bathroom.

Avery took his big palm and walked towards the dining room.

“It wasn’t before graduate school. Did you forget that I went to a university in Aryadelle? In fact, I also like to miss the past, especially the biggest turning points in my life. I often think, if I hadn’t contacted Professor James Hough at the beginning, then I will definitely not have the achievements I have now.”

“Even if you don’t take the initiative to find Professor James Hough, you will still be a very good person. Wherever gold is, it will shine.”

“You can really praise people. I saw it. Check the weather forecast, there will be heavy snow today and tomorrow, and the flight has been suspended for the past two days, so let’s stay here in peace.”

Entering the dining room, Avery brought the cooked noodles to him.

Avery said shyly, “The noodles are a little bland, and the eggs are a little salty. You can break the eggs and eat them with noodles.”

She was also helpless about her regressive cooking skills. She had a time before and was a good cook. Later, when she returned to Aryadelle, there were people serving her every day, and she didn’t need to enter the kitchen, so her cooking skills naturally deteriorated.

“I’ll go buy vegetables later and cook for you.” Elliot tasted the eggs, and he was really flustered, so he soaked the eggs in the noodle soup, “Don’t you want to go to Xander’s house to sort out his books?”

“I’ll tidy up with his teacher. With help, I’ll be able to tidy up soon. I should be able to accompany you at home tomorrow.” Avery quickly finished the noodles and wiped her mouth with a tissue, “If you can’t eat it, Don’t eat it. There are noodles and eggs in the refrigerator, you can cook it yourself. I have an appointment with his teacher to meet at 10 o’clock, and I have to go out.”

“Actually, you can make an appointment after the snow stops. Do you have to go out today?” Elliot glanced at the heavy snow outside the window, worried for her safety.

Snowy roads are slippery and more prone to traffic accidents.

“There are cleaners to clean up the snow on the road, but I’ll drive slowly.” Avery walked to the door and changed her shoes, “I’ll call you later.”

Chapter 1562

After Avery went out, Elliot looked at the noodles in front of him. The eggs were too salty to eat, but thinking that Avery had worked so hard to fry them, he still endured eating the eggs.

Elliot took a deep breath and drank three glasses of water before covering up the salty taste.

Avery and Xander's teacher made an appointment to meet in a cafe.

After the two met, the teacher shook hands with her very enthusiastically.

"Avery, I heard Xander mention you. Before Xander went to Yonroeville to find you, he called me."

Avery was a little surprised: "what did he say?"

The teacher said, "He said you trusted him very much. It made him a little nervous. After he arrived in Yonroeville, I called him to ask about the situation. He didn't want to tell me too much out of the protection of your privacy, so I didn't ask. "

Avery: "I told him not to tell me about my illness."

The teacher: "I understand. After the news of his death, I went to see his parents. They were very sad, and I didn't dare to ask more about it."

"Frankly speaking, we don't know what's going on." Avery took out the examination that Xander had done in Yonroeville, "This is the surgical plan formulated by Xander and me, and these are what Xander asked me to do. The day before my operation, he gave me a general anesthesia. You should know that general anesthesia is harmful to the body. Moreover, we generally do not give patients two general anesthesia in a short period of time, unless connected Two major operations. But we generally don't perform two major operations on patients in a row."

The teacher's face changed greatly when he heard the words.

The teacher: "This is definitely not possible. Why did Xander do this?"

Avery: "I asked, and he said that the dose was less than the dose of general anesthesia. I didn't doubt it at the time, so I didn't ask. After he died, I checked it, and that was The dose of general anesthesia."

The teacher: "There must be a problem. Xander is either threatened or for some other reason. He takes your illness very seriously and is cautious, and he won't want to harm you."

Avery nodded: "yes, I think so too. Before he was killed, his attitude towards me was normal. I really hope that I will get better from the operation soon. I don't believe that it is fake. He will never harm me."

The teacher: "Can't you find the reason?"

Avery shook her head: "If I could find out the reason, I wouldn't come to you. We have no contact with the Yonroeville now."

The teacher: "Then there is no way, I...I can only be sure that Xander will never mess around. He must have had a last resort."

"With your words, I feel more at ease." At least Avery no longer doubted that Xander was on Rebecca's side...

In the afternoon, after she and the Teacher had sorted out the books in Xander's study, Xander's parents kept them for dinner.

Avery couldn't refuse, so she went home after dinner.

She sent Elliot a message in advance that she couldn't go home for dinner, but Elliot was already cooking at that time, so he still cooked a large table of dishes.

When Avery got home, she saw the food he cooked, and her eyes were red with emotion.

"Husband, serve me a meal." Avery sat down in the dining chair and acted coquettishly with him, "I'm a little tired of sorting books today."

Elliot immediately filled her a bowl of rice and handed it to her: "You met his teacher, is there anything to gain?"

"Yes." Avery took a piece of meat and put it in her mouth to taste it, and it tasted surprisingly good, "His teacher thinks there is a secret behind this incident. I think it has something to do with Rebecca. But I don't want to go to Rebecca. Because Rebecca will never admit that Xander's death is related to her. Go to her, maybe she will take the opportunity to entangle you."

Chapter 1563

"Has Rebecca added your Whatsapp?" Avery asked.

"No." Elliot replied without hesitation.

The second time Rebecca looked for him, it was through text messages on his mobile phone, and he did not add his Whatsapp account.

"If she adds you Whatsapp, do you know what to do?" Avery 'beats' him face to face.

“Ignore.” Elliot gave the answer and asked, “How does it taste?”

“It is no exaggeration to say that your cooking skills are comparable to that of a chef.” After Avery took a few bites, she gave a very high rating.

“You didn’t eat much at Xander’s house, did you?” After dinner, he knew the quality of the dishes he cooked.

His cooking skills are not comparable to that of a chef, at best a little better than Avery.

“No, I came back today after I was full.” Avery took a mouthful of rice. “Although I have a filter for you, you are doing really well. At least it’s a qualified home-cooked dish.”

Elliot was silent for a moment and asked: “Would you like to go for another checkup? I always feel that Xander did something to you before he died.”

“I had a checkup before, and my body is fine.” Avery looked up at him, “After he died, I at least I did two comprehensive examinations. Besides, if he really did something to me, my body would definitely feel it. After the anesthesia took effect, I didn’t feel any discomfort.”

Elliot said firmly, “That’s because you told Xander at the time. I didn’t have any precautions, so I didn’t feel the abnormality of the body carefully. I asked the doctor today. There are many adverse reactions of general anesthesia. Generally, the doctor does not recommend general anesthesia for patients when general anesthesia is not necessary. Yes. Xander must have done something to you.”

She was startled by his solemn expression.

“But since you didn’t notice anything abnormal, it’s too late to say this now.” Elliot saw her stop eating, so he changed the conversation, “You eat! Let’s make a videocall for the children after dinner. It hasn’t snowed in Aryadelle yet. Layla and Robert will definitely be very happy to see the snow.”

“Well. We’ll build a snowman later, and then make a videocall for them.” No matter how old Avery is, as long as she sees snow, the first thing that comes to her mind is to build a snowman.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

Avery tasted every dish Elliot made, and when she finally put down the dishes, she smiled contentedly: “Husband, is there anything you can’t do?”

“Yes,” Elliot replied, “I’m not going to have children.”

“Hahahaha. Why do you say such a serious thing?” Avery got up from the dining chair, wrapped the leftovers in plastic wrap, and put them in the refrigerator, “If you can have children, you must have been silent from the start to the delivery.”

“Not necessarily. When you gave birth, I checked how painful it was to give birth. The answer on the Internet said that the pain of natural labor is the same as surgery without anesthesia. It’s almost surgery. I’m sure I can’t keep silent.” Elliot threw all the dishes in the dishwasher, pressed the power button, and washed his hands with hand sanitizer.

“Do you know what I was thinking when I gave birth?” Avery walked over to him and watched him wipe his hands with a dry towel, then took his arm and walked towards the door, “I saw him during my internship in the hospital. Many terminally ill patients. It only hurts for a few days to give birth to a child, but people who are seriously ill often endure pain for months or even years before they die.”

“Why do you suddenly talk about such a heavy topic?” Elliot’s Adam’s apple rolled.

Avery: “Didn’t you talk about the pain of having a baby? I’m here to comfort you. Although having a baby is painful, it’s even more painful.”

“You’re really comforting, my heart is heavier.” Elliot couldn’t help laughing.

“Tsk, let’s go build a snowman. We’ll build our own, and let the children see who is more beautiful later.” Avery walked to the door, took a coat from the hanging clothes, put it on, and ran into the yard first.

Elliot turned on all the street lights in the yard, looked at her running lightly like a deer, and the corners of his mouth couldn’t help rising.

He put on his coat, changed his shoes, and strode out the door.

Twenty minutes later, Avery’s cell phone rang. She took off her gloves and took the videocall from Layla.

“Layla, where are your brother, Hayden and Robert? Call them quickly.” Avery smiled and turned the camera to the snowman she and Elliot made, “Look, this is the snowman made by mom and dad.”

Layla looked at the yard. The white snow scene and the two big snowmen prototypes couldn’t help but exclaim: “Mom! It’s snowing so hard over there. I really want to go and build a snowman with you.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1564

“It’s big in the daytime. It’s not much at the moment.” On the other side of the video call, Layla shouted ‘brother’ and ‘stinky brother’.

After a while, Hayden and Robert appeared in the video call.

“Look at the snowmen made by mom and dad. Who do you think is better?” Avery pointed out the two snowmen to the children, “The smaller one is made by mom, and the bigger one next to it is made by dad.”

“Is there any need to ask? Of course, it’s my mother’s good-looking pile.” Layla cheered.

Avery was instantly satisfied: “Mom hasn’t finished stacking it yet. Mom is going to make a beautiful nose for it. When mom’s stack is finished, mom will stack three more small ones, so we have a family of five.”

“Mom, you make me more beautiful! If I am the prettiest little snowman.” Layla asked quickly.

“Of course, Mom will definitely make you the most beautiful.”

After the video call was finished, Elliot walked up to her and touched her hand holding the phone.

“The temperature has dropped a lot. You go inside and I’ll build the remaining little snowmen.” Elliot touched her hand a little cold.

Avery: “I’m not cold, I just wear gloves. With you, everything is very happy.”

Elliot: “Me too.”

Avery teased, “I know. If it weren’t for me. If I ask you to come out and build a snowman, you won’t run out to build it yourself. Those who really like to build snowmen will run out to build them during the day.” stud

“I bought vegetables during the day and studied recipes.” Elliot defended himself .

Avery laughed, “Even if you didn’t buy groceries or study recipes, you won’t come out and make a snowman. You wouldn’t do such a childish thing by yourself.”

Elliot: “It’s kind of stupid to make a snowman by yourself.”

Avery: “I don’t think so.”

Elliot: “I told me.”

Avery: "I know, if you make a snowman by yourself, I will think you are very cute."

.....

After building the snowman, Avery and Elliot took a photo with five snowmen in the snow, and while sending the photo to Layla, she also posted the photo to the circle of friends.

—Avery ate dinner made by her husband today and built a snowman together. Life is so self-evident.

After the dynamic release is successful, it immediately receives numerous likes and comments.

Ben Schaffer: "Coke? Are you drinking Coke?" [Laughs]

Gwen replied below his comment: "You graduated from Y University, right?"

Tammy: "I went to check the second half of this sentence. The second half of the sentence is why it is necessary to be a human being. I don't know the last word, hum!"

Jun: "Don't cry, wife, that word is very difficult, and I don't even know it." [Hug]

At night, after Avery fell asleep, Elliot looked at the news she posted and fell into deep thought.

Chapter 1565

Regarding the cause of Xander's death, Avery was definitely not as light as she appeared on the face.

If it wasn't that she didn't want to have any more contact with Rebecca, she would definitely go to Yonroeville to find out what happened to Xander.

Elliot felt the grievance in her heart from the words 'life is so self-contained'.

But he couldn't do anything about it. He could neither make Rebecca and the child disappear, nor could he get the truth of Xander's death from Rebecca's mouth.

Avery won't let him go to Yonroeville, nor let him contact Rebecca.

The only thing Elliot can do now is to accompany Avery and the children well and stop making them sad.

Aryadelle.

It's 12 p.m.

Jun accompanied Tammy to the hospital for an obstetric examination. After the obstetric examination, they went directly to Lynch's house.

Jun lived here on weekdays and went back to Hertz's house to accompany his parents on weekends.

His mother was hospitalized with high blood pressure last time, and was later discharged, but her blood pressure was still high.

He knew why his mother was unhappy, so he tried to use the weekend to make up for his parents' debt.

Today is Saturday, and he told his parents in advance that he would accompany Tammy for an obstetric examination today, and he would go back in the evening.

Unexpectedly, his car drove to the door of the front yard of Lynch's house, and he saw his father's car parked in the yard.

"My parents are here." Jun's heart was tense, and he said with a guilty conscience.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

"It's coming! It's coming! What are you doing in such a panic?" Tammy unfastened her seat belt, pushed the door open and got out of the car.

"Tammy, my parents didn't tell me they were coming to your house today." Jun didn't feel flustered, "I always think they came to your house suddenly, there must be a conspiracy."

"What are you afraid of, this is my house, you Parents still dare to mess around in my house?" Tammy walked over to the driver's seat and pulled Jun down.

The two entered the living room and saw at a glance that the four elders were divided into two factions, each occupying one side, and there was a great potential for negotiation.

Jun immediately walked up to his parents with a smile on his face: "Dad, Mom, why are you here? Why didn't you tell me? If Tammy's parents are not at home, you are not here for nothing."

Jun said, and sat down beside his mother.

Tammy sat down beside her parents.

The confrontation has not only not disappeared, but has intensified.

Tammy just glanced at her mother-in-law lightly, and then she felt a bad and strong aura from her mother-in-law's face.

Tammy is almost three months pregnant now. After becoming a mother, her mentality has changed significantly.

She used to think that her mother-in-law was a little possessive towards Jun, but now she understands her mother-in-law's mood a little bit.

It's just that understanding comes from understanding. Jun belongs to her, and this will not change.

Moreover, she has also made psychological preparations that if she has a son, the son will get married and run with his daughter-in-law in the future.

"My dad and I are here to find you." Mrs. Hertz smirked to maintain a decent appearance, "Didn't you say you're depressed? So I asked your dad to contact a foreign psychiatrist. We plan to take you abroad for treatment."

Chapter 1566

"Mom, Jun's condition has been brought under control. As long as he follows the domestic doctor's orders and takes his medicine on time, it will have no effect." Tammy answered first.

"Taking medicine every day, how can it have no effect? Did the doctor tell you that taking medicine has no side effects?" Mrs. Hertz's voice was not loud, but her tone was resentful, "I gave Jun the best doctor I contacted abroad, and it is said that he can cure depression."

Tammy smiled dryly, "Why haven't I heard that a doctor can cure depression? There is no other way to treat this disease than to take medicine and regulate your emotions. If the doctor you mentioned was really that powerful, he would have been well-known all over the world long ago"

Mrs. Hertz: "There are so many things you haven't heard of, if you knew everything, you would be famous all over the world."

The mother-in-law and daughter-in-law disagreed and quarreled.

"Mom! Don't get excited. Be careful that your blood pressure rises again." Jun patted his mother on the back while speaking for Tammy, "Tammy is right, I have never heard that modern medicine can completely cure depression. Besides, Tammy's belly is getting bigger now. I have to take care of her, so I can't go abroad for treatment. Let's talk about it when Tammy's child is born!"

"I knew you were going to say that." Mrs. Hertz sighed, opened the bag, and took out a few bottles of medicine, "This is the medicine I asked the expert to prescribe. You can take it and see the effect. If it works, then take this medicine regularly."

Jun's face suddenly changed.

Tammy was so nervous.

The two elders of the Lynch family knew that Jun's depression was fake, so they sweated.

"Yes, don't think your mother is too busy. You have been pampered and grown up since you were a child, and you don't understand our painstaking care for you. She talks about your depression in front of me every day, for fear that you won't be able to think about it one day and throw it away. Get off us and leave." Mr. Hertz said bitterly.

Jun shook his head in embarrassment.

How could he not know the deep love his parents have for him.

If Jun is really depressed, he will definitely take this medicine, and he will take it in front of them and show them.

"Jun, you can take it now. I heard that this medicine is very effective. One thousand dollar for one medicine." Mrs. Hertz urged.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

Jun's brain exploded: "One thousand dollar for one medicine?"

"Yeah! It cost hundreds of thousands for these bottles of medicine. I'll bring it to you first and see if it works. If it works..." Mr. Hertz said.

"Dad, Mom, I'm not terminally ill, how can you buy such expensive medicine?" Jun felt that his parents had been deceived.

Tammy was more direct and asked her own question: "Have you been deceived? He is not cancer. What kind of medicine costs 1,000 dollar? Tell me the doctor's contact information, and I will check."

Mr. Hertz and Mrs. Hertz's face turned dark.

“Tammy, don’t speak so badly.” Thiago said, “Isn’t it only a few hundred thousand dollars? Your mother usually pays this price for a more expensive bag. Even if your in-laws are really deceived, don’t you? Do you think your mother wasn’t cheated? In my opinion, anyone who buys something that is not worth that price is paying IQ tax.”

Tammy couldn’t help but be happy.

Dad said her speech was ugly, and he thought how nice his own words were.

Jun sighed and said to his mother, “Mom, I have taken the medicine today. I will wait until tomorrow to take the medicine you bought. Tammy is going to take a nap. I will take you back.”

Mrs. Hertz: “Jun, do you think you are sick or not? Do you think I and your dad can’t tell? You lied to us with outsiders, has your conscience been eaten by a dog?!”

Tammy’s heart was burning with fire. She felt like her husband is going to be beaten. “Ah...my stomach...it hurts!”

She screamed suddenly, causing the whole room to change faces.

Jun immediately ran towards her and picked her up.

“Husband...take me to the room to lie down for a while...” Tammy gave him a secret wink, lest he think her stomach hurts.

How could Mrs. Hertz not guess that this was Tammy’s plan, but seeing that her son cared about her so much. She suddenly felt that if she continued to make trouble, there would be no good results.

Chapter 1567

“My family, how did you raise Tammy so well?” Mrs. Hertz said with a smile, “My son is like a fool in front of Tammy.”

Of course the two elders of the Lynch family understood what she meant.

“My daughter is really good. We haven’t taught her much, she’s born so good hahaha.” Thiago couldn’t hide the joy and pride in his eyes.

Mrs. Hertz smiled a little: “My family, let’s discuss something. We didn’t expect Tammy to be pregnant so quickly. The doctor said before that she was not easy to get pregnant, but in fact it was bullsh*t. If it is really not easy to get pregnant, how could Tammy be so successful?”

“You wouldn’t want Tammy to have a second child, right?” Mary heard Mrs. Hertz’s intention.

“My dear Mary, what do you mean, Tammy has a family name with your family name, and will not give birth in the future? Then what’s the face of our Hertz family?” Mrs. Hertz’s blood pressure is about to rise.

Mary explained, “No. It’s useless for you to tell us whether Tammy will have a second child. You have to tell Tammy. Although Tammy is my daughter, we all listen to her. Our little sweet eats soft and not hard. If you want her to have a second child, then you have to be nice to little sweet.”

Thiago added: “What is your attitude towards us little sweet. It’s also clear. It’s not that we can’t live without your son. If you arrange a blind date for Jun in private, we won’t welcome you as guests in the future. My daughter will not be wronged, and neither will we.”

“Of course, as long as you are kind to Tammy in the future and don’t do things in person and behind your back, we can still get along well. After all, Jun is very filial to us, comparable to my own son. I am very satisfied with this son-in-law.” Thiago squinted and smiled with satisfaction.

The hearts of the two elders of the Hertz family were about to be pierced.

The son who raised him so hard, ran away with other women, and even went to filial piety to other people’s parents.

In the room.

Jun wanted to go out and explain to his parents, but was held back by Tammy.

“Are you stupid? Are you going out to fight?” Tammy lay down on the bed, “Your parents are angry now, you should wait for them to calm down before going to them.”

“Yes!” Jun sat down beside her, “I’m just worried about my mother. My mother has high blood pressure.”

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

“I know your mother has high blood pressure. If your mother doesn’t have high blood pressure, I’ll just quarrel with her. Am I pretending to have a stomachache?” Tammy stroked her abdomen, “Jun, do you regret being with me?”

Jun: “How could it be. If I couldn’t stand your violent temper, I would have run away.”

Tammy glared at him: “I really don’t know if you’re praising me or hurting me.”

“Equally divided, but it’s true that I love you.” Jun reached out and touched her belly, and said in a low voice, “Tammy, I know you love me too.”

“Bullsh*t, if I don’t love you, I don’t have to have children at all. I’m bitter and want to have children. Isn’t it all the pressure from your parents?” Tammy glared at him at a glance.

Jun smiled, “I know how good you are to me, I will keep it in my heart. Let’s take a nap. When I wake up, I will go to my parents.”

“You and them are good. Say, don’t really get mad at them.” Tammy put down the phone, “My mother just sent me a message saying that your mother wants me to have a second child.”

Jun replied embarrassedly, “They follow me. I said it, I don’t care. It’s as simple as pulling a radish to have a child. I asked them why they didn’t have a second child in the first place, but they didn’t say anything.”

Tammy: “Hahaha! You are so bad!”

Jun: “Wife, come and kiss one.”

Tammy hugged his head and gave him a strong kiss on the face.

.....

Two days later.

Bridgedale.

The snow stopped and the snow in the yard started to melt.

The temperature has gotten colder.

Elliot and Avery invited Gwen and Ben Schaffer to have dinner together.

Chapter 1568

After eating this meal, the two of them will go back to Aryadelle for the Spring Festival.

“Gwen, it’s a pity I can’t watch your game.” Avery handed a gift to her, “I picked this up with your second brother yesterday. It’s a little thought from us. I hope your game will go well and you’ll get the ranking you want.”

Gwen: “Thank you. when my game is over, I’ll go back to find you.”

Avery: "Well, when your game is over, you have a good rest. It feels like you have been reborn in just a few months."

"I'm quite satisfied with my current state." Gwen put the gift in her bag with a narcissistic expression, "I think I'm more beautiful now."

"You're an aesthetic deformity. You've had enough before. you've lost weight, and now you're skinny and if I want to say beauty, it's still more beautiful before." Ben Schaffer expressed his views mercilessly.

Gwen: "If you don't like me now, don't."

"I didn't say I didn't like you. I'm just worried about your health." Ben Schaffer explained patiently.

"My profession requires me to maintain such a weight, you keep talking about it, it's really annoying!" Gwen glared at him, "I don't have an Electra complex, so don't always act like my elders, okay?"

Avery held back a laugh, "Do you two always bicker like this?"

Gwen: "No."

Ben: "Yes!"

The two of them said in unison, but gave completely different answers.

Probably feeling a little embarrassed, so they both took up the water glasses in front of them and took a sip.

"Ben Schaffer, do you want to go back to Aryadelle with us?" Elliot saw that the two of them were not dealing with each other so much, so he asked Ben Schaffer.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

"Go back with them. If I can reach the top three in the competition, I will definitely call you to show off. If I don't get the top three, don't bother me." Gwen discussed with Ben Schaffer.

"I'm not going back." Ben Schaffer said firmly, "I've agreed to watch your game, I'll definitely have to watch it before I leave. I even have the camera ready."

Gwen: "As you like. Anyway, if someone asks me at that time. What does it have to do with you, I will say that you are my father."

Ben Schaffer: "Are you polite? Can't I be your brother?"

Gwen: "We don't look alike."

Ben: "Then you say I am your father?"

Gwen: "Stepfather."

Ben Schaffer was a little angry, but it wasn't enough for him to return home.

"Elliot, have you seen that? This is the true face of your sister. She is so gentle and well-behaved in front of Avery. She was just like that in front of me." Ben Schaffer made a small report to Elliot in front of Gwen.

Elliot: "What do you want me to say? "

Avery: "..."

The water he just drank almost spit out.

Gwen smiled unkindly.

"Avery, Elliot suffered a lot when chasing you before? I remember it like this." Ben Schaffer was neither angry nor annoyed.

Avery: "You may remember it wrong. I was more angry before. How could a proud person like him make himself suffer?"

Ben: "Then how did you endure it?"

"I couldn't bear it, I always quarreled with him directly. If you follow me, maybe Gwen will ignore you." Avery held back a smile, "Gwen wants to work hard now, please wait patiently."

After dinner, Elliot and Avery went directly to the airport.

Chapter 1569

They bought tickets for 11 o'clock tonight.

They could have bought a ticket for tomorrow, but Avery missed the child and wanted to go back earlier.

Arriving at the airport, the accompanying bodyguards go to check-in.

Avery and Elliot rested in the VIP lounge.

She rested her head on Elliot's shoulder and whispered, "I'm a little dizzy."

“Go to sleep first if you’re sleepy. I’ll call you later when we board the plane.” Elliot looked at her sideways.

Avery has closed her eyes.

“Is it cold?” Elliot reached out and shook her hand.

Her hands were warm, but she said, “It’s a little cold.”

Elliot raised his hand and touched the temperature of her forehead: “Do you have a fever? The temperature is a little high.”

Avery heard this, reached out and touched her forehead, Elliot touched his forehead and said, “It seems that the temperature is a little higher than yours. But I’m a little dizzy..”

“You wait for me here, I’ll find a thermometer to take your temperature.” After speaking, Elliot strode towards the service desk.

Soon, he came back with a thermometer.

Avery took the thermometer and put it under her armpit.

A waiter came over with hot water and put it in front of them.

“Thank you.” Avery picked up the water glass and wanted to drink some hot water.

“When did you start to get dizzy? If we knew you were not feeling well, we didn’t need to go to them to eat.” Elliot touched Avery’s forehead again, and was more certain that she had a fever.

“It was fine when I ate just now, but only when I came to the airport by car, I feel dizzy.” After taking a sip of hot water, Avery put down the water glass, “Keep away from me, be careful that I infect you with a cold.”

“I never catch a cold.” Elliot said, “Avery, you are still too weak.”

“You’re someone who has just recovered from a serious illness, so you have the nerve to say that I’m weak?” Avery bickered with him, “I don’t like the weather here. If I was in Aryadelle, I wouldn’t catch a cold.”

Elliot: “Would you like to wait for your cold to heal? Or Go back to Aryadelle now?”

“No. I’ll take some medicine and I’ll sleep on the plane, and go back to Aryadelle.” Avery was in good spirits, “Even if I have a fever, it’s not a high fever. It shouldn’t exceed thirty-nine degrees.”

After five minutes, she took out the thermometer.

The temperature was exactly thirty-nine degrees.

Elliot took the thermometer and returned it to the service desk.

At the same time, Elliot took the antipyretic and cold medicine from the front desk.

When Avery boarded the plane, her temperature wasn’t as high, but she was more sleepy than before.

After getting on the plane, she lay down and went straight to sleep.

The flight attendant knew she had a fever, so she brought a blanket and antipyretic stickers.

“After Ms. Tate’s fever subsides, cover her with a blanket.” The flight attendant reminded Elliot.

Elliot: “Thank you.”

The flight attendant: “You’re welcome. Let us know if you need anything.”

Avery slept directly to her destination. She woke up as the plane taxied.

“Avery, you slept for 10 hours. How do you feel now?” Elliot sighed.

Her fever has subsided, and she was a little confused because she slept for too long.

Avery: “Are we in Aryadelle?”

Elliot: “Yes.”

“I’m so thirsty.” Avery pursed her dry lips.

Elliot immediately opened the thermos cup and gave her water.

Chapter 1570

At the airport, Mike brought Layla and Hayden to pick up the plane.

"If Mom knew that Robert was sick, she would definitely die of distress." Layla muttered softly.

Robert had a fever last night, and after taking antipyretics, the fever subsided, and after a few hours, the fever started again.

Robert is a premature baby, and his body will be slightly weaker than normal children.

"Isn't it no longer burning? It's just a common cold. Your mother is a doctor, so you won't be scared." Mike said.

"But Robert's voice has become the voice of a duckling." Layla remembered that Robert's voice had become rough now, and couldn't help but want to laugh.

During their conversation, Elliot and Avery came over.

"What are you talking about? I can see you laughing all the way." Avery walked up to Layla and touched her head, "Why don't you rest at home so late?"

"I'm on winter vacation now, I don't need to get up early. My brother is coming to pick you up, and of course I will too." Layla took her mother's hand and said, "Mom, Robert has a fever."

Avery: "I also have a fever but it subsided on the plane."

Layla said, "Mom, why don't you take good care of yourself? But my younger brother is worse than you. My younger brother's voice has become rough."

"Did he go outside for a hair dryer?" Avery said in pain, "The last time my brother had a fever, he caught a cold."

"I don't know. My brother and I were playing outside, and we didn't catch a cold." Layla whispered, "Mom, how did you catch a cold?"

Avery scratched her head: "I don't know, but your mother is already well."

Back home, Avery looked at Robert, who was languid, and immediately picked him up.

"Little baby, do you have a cold? Have you taken the medicine?"

Mrs. Cooper smiled and said, "The medicine prescribed by the doctor this time is very sweet, and he likes to drink it."

"Avery, you also need to take medicine." Elliot reminded, "Go take a bath first."

Elliot: "Mrs. Cooper, it's already very late, take Robert to rest."

Mrs. Cooper explained: "Robert slept all day during the day, so I can't sleep right now. But it's really late now, so you should go to rest early! I'm taking Robert back to the room."

After Mrs. Cooper took Robert away, Avery sent Layla and Hayden back to the room.

"Babies, you are going to pick up mom tonight. Mom is very happy, but if it's too late next time, don't pick up mom."

"Mom, it's my brother who has to pick you up. I'm very sleepy." Layla said, climbed onto the bed and lay down, "Mom, you also go to bed earlier."

"Yeah!" Avery wanted to give her daughter a good night kiss, but thought that she had a cold now, so she gave up.

From the children's room, she went back to the master bedroom.

Elliot was running hot water for her in the bathroom.

Avery took the medicine out of her bag and took two.

"Elliot, wash up first. I'm not sleepy." Avery slept enough on the plane, and now she is in good spirits, "Gwen sent me a message, I'll text her back first."

"Okay." Elliot Close the bathroom door. He hadn't slept on the plane, for fear that Avery might get sicker or wake up suddenly, so he's more tired now.

Avery sat down on the small sofa and read the message from Gwen.

Gwen: [Avery, Ben Schaffer took me out to go shopping. I thought he was going to buy me something, of course, if he did buy me something, I certainly wouldn't. The result... he wanted to buy it himself, and he asked me to pick it for him. Suits, shoes, ties... I can choose anything, I'm drunk]

Avery: [Hahaha! He's here to watch you play, so buy new clothes.]

Gwen: [Maybe. He said he was going to do a look. With that hair on his head, I'm really worried that the stylist isn't doing enough.]

Avery: [Gwen, do you like him? I was quite happy when I saw you hurt him.]

Gwen: [A little bit. I thought about it a little bit, and in fact, he's been pretty good to me all along. It's my own personality that is too aggressive, and I often go against him.]

Avery: [You have a game tomorrow, so have a good rest tonight.]

Gwen: [Ben said he would invite me to a big dinner tonight. After I have a big meal, I will go home to rest. You wait for my good news.]

Avery's fingers jumped on the screen, trying to type 'OK', but as a result, his eyes went black, and the mobile phone in her hand fell to the ground with a 'bang'.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1565

Chapter 1565

Regarding the cause of Xander's death, Avery was definitely not as light as she appeared on the face.

If it wasn't that she didn't want to have any more contact with Rebecca, she would definitely go to Yonroeville to find out what happened to Xander.

Elliot felt the grievance in her heart from the words 'life is so self-contained'.

But he couldn't do anything about it. He could neither make Rebecca and the child disappear, nor could he get the truth of Xander's death from Rebecca's mouth.

Avery won't let him go to Yonroeville, nor let him contact Rebecca.

The only thing Elliot can do now is to accompany Avery and the children well and stop making them sad.

Aryadelle.

It's 12 p.m.

Jun accompanied Tammy to the hospital for an obstetric examination. After the obstetric examination, they went directly to Lynch's house.

Jun lived here on weekdays and went back to Hertz's house to accompany his parents on weekends.

His mother was hospitalized with high blood pressure last time, and was later discharged, but her blood pressure was still high.

He knew why his mother was unhappy, so he tried to use the weekend to make up for his parents' debt.

Today is Saturday, and he told his parents in advance that he would accompany Tammy for an obstetric examination today, and he would go back in the evening.

Unexpectedly, his car drove to the door of the front yard of Lynch's house, and he saw his father's car parked in the yard.

"My parents are here." Jun's heart was tense, and he said with a guilty conscience.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

"It's coming! It's coming! What are you doing in such a panic?" Tammy unfastened her seat belt, pushed the door open and got out of the car.

"Tammy, my parents didn't tell me they were coming to your house today." Jun didn't feel flustered, "I always think they came to your house suddenly, there must be a conspiracy."

"What are you afraid of, this is my house, you Parents still dare to mess around in my house?" Tammy walked over to the driver's seat and pulled Jun down.

The two entered the living room and saw at a glance that the four elders were divided into two factions, each occupying one side, and there was a great potential for negotiation.

Jun immediately walked up to his parents with a smile on his face: "Dad, Mom, why are you here? Why didn't you tell me? If Tammy's parents are not at home, you are not here for nothing."

Jun said, and sat down beside his mother.

Tammy sat down beside her parents.

The confrontation has not only not disappeared, but has intensified.

Tammy just glanced at her mother-in-law lightly, and then she felt a bad and strong aura from her mother-in-law's face.

Tammy is almost three months pregnant now. After becoming a mother, her mentality has changed significantly.

She used to think that her mother-in-law was a little possessive towards Jun, but now she understands her mother-in-law's mood a little bit.

It's just that understanding comes from understanding. Jun belongs to her, and this will not change.

Moreover, she has also made psychological preparations that if she has a son, the son will get married and run with his daughter-in-law in the future.

“My dad and I are here to find you.” Mrs. Hertz smirked to maintain a decent appearance, “Didn’t you say you’re depressed? So I asked your dad to contact a foreign psychiatrist. We plan to take you abroad for treatment.”

Chapter 1566

“Mom, Jun’s condition has been brought under control. As long as he follows the domestic doctor’s orders and takes his medicine on time, it will have no effect.” Tammy answered first.

“Taking medicine every day, how can it have no effect? Did the doctor tell you that taking medicine has no side effects?” Mrs. Hertz’s voice was not loud, but her tone was resentful, “I gave Jun the best doctor I contacted abroad, and it is said that he can cure depression.”

Tammy smiled dryly, “Why haven’t I heard that a doctor can cure depression? There is no other way to treat this disease than to take medicine and regulate your emotions. If the doctor you mentioned was really that powerful, he would have been well-known all over the world long ago”

Mrs. Hertz: “There are so many things you haven’t heard of, if you knew everything, you would be famous all over the world.”

The mother-in-law and daughter-in-law disagreed and quarreled.

“Mom! Don’t get excited. Be careful that your blood pressure rises again.” Jun patted his mother on the back while speaking for Tammy, “Tammy is right, I have never heard that modern medicine can completely cure depression. Besides, Tammy’s belly is getting bigger now. I have to take care of her, so I can’t go abroad for treatment. Let’s talk about it when Tammy’s child is born!”

“I knew you were going to say that.” Mrs. Hertz sighed, opened the bag, and took out a few bottles of medicine, “This is the medicine I asked the expert to prescribe. You can take it and see the effect. If it works, then take this medicine regularly.”

Jun’s face suddenly changed.

Tammy was so nervous.

The two elders of the Lynch family knew that Jun’s depression was fake, so they sweated.

“Yes, don’t think your mother is too busy. You have been pampered and grown up since you were a child, and you don’t understand our painstaking care for you. She talks about your depression in front of me every day, for fear that you won’t be able to think about it one day and throw it away. Get off us and leave.” Mr. Hertz said bitterly.

Jun shook his head in embarrassment.

How could he not know the deep love his parents have for him.

If Jun is really depressed, he will definitely take this medicine, and he will take it in front of them and show them.

“Jun, you can take it now. I heard that this medicine is very effective. One thousand dollar for one medicine.” Mrs. Hertz urged.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

Jun’s brain exploded: “One thousand dollar for one medicine?”

“Yeah! It cost hundreds of thousands for these bottles of medicine. I’ll bring it to you first and see if it works. If it works...” Mr. Hertz said.

“Dad, Mom, I’m not terminally ill, how can you buy such expensive medicine?” Jun felt that his parents had been deceived.

Tammy was more direct and asked her own question: “Have you been deceived? He is not cancer. What kind of medicine costs 1,000 dollar? Tell me the doctor’s contact information, and I will check.”

Mr. Hertz and Mrs. Hertz’s face turned dark.

“Tammy, don’t speak so badly.” Thiago said, “Isn’t it only a few hundred thousand dollars? Your mother usually pays this price for a more expensive bag. Even if your in-laws are really deceived, don’t you? Do you think your mother wasn’t cheated? In my opinion, anyone who buys something that is not worth that price is paying IQ tax.”

Tammy couldn’t help but be happy.

Dad said her speech was ugly, and he thought how nice his own words were.

Jun sighed and said to his mother, “Mom, I have taken the medicine today. I will wait until tomorrow to take the medicine you bought. Tammy is going to take a nap. I will take you back.”

Mrs. Hertz: “Jun, do you think you are sick or not? Do you think I and your dad can’t tell? You lied to us with outsiders, has your conscience been eaten by a dog?!”

Tammy’s heart was burning with fire. She felt like her husband is going to be beaten. “Ah...my stomach...it hurts!”

She screamed suddenly, causing the whole room to change faces.

Jun immediately ran towards her and picked her up.

“Husband...take me to the room to lie down for a while...” Tammy gave him a secret wink, lest he think her stomach hurts.

How could Mrs. Hertz not guess that this was Tammy’s plan, but seeing that her son cared about her so much. She suddenly felt that if she continued to make trouble, there would be no good results.

Chapter 1567

“My family, how did you raise Tammy so well?” Mrs. Hertz said with a smile, “My son is like a fool in front of Tammy.”

Of course the two elders of the Lynch family understood what she meant.

“My daughter is really good. We haven’t taught her much, she’s born so good hahaha.” Thiago couldn’t hide the joy and pride in his eyes.

Mrs. Hertz smiled a little: “My family, let’s discuss something. We didn’t expect Tammy to be pregnant so quickly. The doctor said before that she was not easy to get pregnant, but in fact it was bullsh*t. If it is really not easy to get pregnant, how could Tammy be so successful?”

“You wouldn’t want Tammy to have a second child, right?” Mary heard Mrs. Hertz’s intention.

“My dear Mary, what do you mean, Tammy has a family name with your family name, and will not give birth in the future? Then what’s the face of our Hertz family?” Mrs. Hertz’s blood pressure is about to rise.

Mary explained, “No. It’s useless for you to tell us whether Tammy will have a second child. You have to tell Tammy. Although Tammy is my daughter, we all listen to her. Our little sweet eats soft and not hard. If you want her to have a second child, then you have to be nice to little sweet.”

Thiago added: “What is your attitude towards us little sweet. It’s also clear. It’s not that we can’t live without your son. If you arrange a blind date for Jun in private, we won’t welcome you as guests in the future. My daughter will not be wronged, and neither will we.”

“Of course, as long as you are kind to Tammy in the future and don’t do things in person and behind your back, we can still get along well. After all, Jun is very filial to us, comparable to my own son. I am very satisfied with this son-in-law.” Thiago squinted and smiled with satisfaction.

The hearts of the two elders of the Hertz family were about to be pierced.

The son who raised him so hard, ran away with other women, and even went to filial piety to other people's parents.

In the room.

Jun wanted to go out and explain to his parents, but was held back by Tammy.

"Are you stupid? Are you going out to fight?" Tammy lay down on the bed, "Your parents are angry now, you should wait for them to calm down before going to them."

"Yes!" Jun sat down beside her, "I'm just worried about my mother. My mother has high blood pressure."

"I know your mother has high blood pressure. If your mother doesn't have high blood pressure, I'll just quarrel with her. Am I pretending to have a stomachache?" Tammy stroked her abdomen, "Jun, do you regret being with me?"

Jun: "How could it be. If I couldn't stand your violent temper, I would have run away."

Tammy glared at him: "I really don't know if you're praising me or hurting me."

"Equally divided, but it's true that I love you." Jun reached out and touched her belly, and said in a low voice, "Tammy, I know you love me too."

"Bullsh*t, if I don't love you, I don't have to have children at all. I'm bitter and want to have children. Isn't it all the pressure from your parents?" Tammy glared at him at a glance.

Jun smiled, "I know how good you are to me, I will keep it in my heart. Let's take a nap. When I wake up, I will go to my parents."

"You and them are good. Say, don't really get mad at them." Tammy put down the phone, "My mother just sent me a message saying that your mother wants me to have a second child."

Jun replied embarrassedly, "They follow me. I said it, I don't care. It's as simple as pulling a radish to have a child. I asked them why they didn't have a second child in the first place, but they didn't say anything."

Tammy: "Hahaha! You are so bad!"

Jun: "Wife, come and kiss one."

Tammy hugged his head and gave him a strong kiss on the face.

.....

Two days later.

Bridgedale.

The snow stopped and the snow in the yard started to melt.

The temperature has gotten colder.

Elliot and Avery invited Gwen and Ben Schaffer to have dinner together.

Chapter 1568

After eating this meal, the two of them will go back to Aryadelle for the Spring Festival.

“Gwen, it’s a pity I can’t watch your game.” Avery handed a gift to her, “I picked this up with your second brother yesterday. It’s a little thought from us. I hope your game will go well and you’ll get the ranking you want.”

Gwen: “Thank you. when my game is over, I’ll go back to find you.”

Avery: “Well, when your game is over, you have a good rest. It feels like you have been reborn in just a few months.”

“I’m quite satisfied with my current state.” Gwen put the gift in her bag with a narcissistic expression, “I think I’m more beautiful now.”

“You’re an aesthetic deformity. You’ve had enough before. you’ve lost weight, and now you’re skinny and if I want to say beauty, it’s still more beautiful before.” Ben Schaffer expressed his views mercilessly.

Gwen: “If you don’t like me now, don’t.”

“I didn’t say I didn’t like you. I’m just worried about your health.” Ben Schaffer explained patiently.

“My profession requires me to maintain such a weight, you keep talking about it, it’s really annoying!” Gwen glared at him, “I don’t have an Electra complex, so don’t always act like my elders, okay?”

Avery held back a laugh, “Do you two always bicker like this?”

Gwen: “No.”

Ben: "Yes!"

The two of them said in unison, but gave completely different answers.

Probably feeling a little embarrassed, so they both took up the water glasses in front of them and took a sip.

"Ben Schaffer, do you want to go back to Aryadelle with us?" Elliot saw that the two of them were not dealing with each other so much, so he asked Ben Schaffer.

This chapter is provided . Visit infobagh.com for daily update.

"Go back with them. If I can reach the top three in the competition, I will definitely call you to show off. If I don't get the top three, don't bother me." Gwen discussed with Ben Schaffer.

"I'm not going back." Ben Schaffer said firmly, "I've agreed to watch your game, I'll definitely have to watch it before I leave. I even have the camera ready."

Gwen: "As you like. Anyway, if someone asks me at that time. What does it have to do with you, I will say that you are my father."

Ben Schaffer: "Are you polite? Can't I be your brother?"

Gwen: "We don't look alike."

Ben: "Then you say I am your father?"

Gwen: "Stepfather."

Ben Schaffer was a little angry, but it wasn't enough for him to return home.

"Elliot, have you seen that? This is the true face of your sister. She is so gentle and well-behaved in front of Avery. She was just like that in front of me." Ben Schaffer made a small report to Elliot in front of Gwen.

Elliot: "What do you want me to say? "

Avery: "..."

The water he just drank almost spit out.

Gwen smiled unkindly.

"Avery, Elliot suffered a lot when chasing you before? I remember it like this." Ben Schaffer was neither angry nor annoyed.

Avery: "You may remember it wrong. I was more angry before. How could a proud person like him make himself suffer?"

Ben: "Then how did you endure it?"

"I couldn't bear it, I always quarreled with him directly. If you follow me, maybe Gwen will ignore you." Avery held back a smile, "Gwen wants to work hard now, please wait patiently."

After dinner, Elliot and Avery went directly to the airport.

Chapter 1569

They bought tickets for 11 o'clock tonight.

They could have bought a ticket for tomorrow, but Avery missed the child and wanted to go back earlier.

Arriving at the airport, the accompanying bodyguards go to check-in.

Avery and Elliot rested in the VIP lounge.

She rested her head on Elliot's shoulder and whispered, "I'm a little dizzy."

"Go to sleep first if you're sleepy. I'll call you later when we board the plane." Elliot looked at her sideways.

Avery has closed her eyes.

"Is it cold?" Elliot reached out and shook her hand.

Her hands were warm, but she said, "It's a little cold."

Elliot raised his hand and touched the temperature of her forehead: "Do you have a fever? The temperature is a little high."
