

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1575

Chapter 1575

Avery shook her head: "Elliot said he was going to see his friend, and he would come back after seeing his friend."

"Why didn't Elliot take you to see his friend?" Adrian asked in confusion.

"Maybe his friend just wants to see him, not me." Avery replied casually and continued, "Are you hungry? I'm a little hungry. If you're hungry too, then I'll cook something to eat."

"What to cook?" Adrian was a little hungry, so he got up.

The two walked towards the kitchen.

Too many dumplings were made in the morning and they were not cooked.

"Let's cook dumplings and eat them." Avery took out the dumplings from the refrigerator.

Adrian: "Okay! I like to eat dumplings."

"Do you have anything you don't like?" Avery asked with a smile.

Chatting with Adrian will naturally relax her mood.

"I don't like to eat bitter melon." Adrian pulled his face, "Bitter melon is really bitter. But Mrs. Scarlet likes to eat it."

"I don't like bitter melon either. But bitter melon is a good thing." Avery told him about science, "But if you really don't like it, then don't eat it."

"Well, can you let me cook? I want to try it." Adrian hasn't cooked yet.

"Okay! I'll teach you." Avery stepped aside and continued, "Let's turn on the stove first. Press the switch and then turn the switch. No, we need to use a clean pot first and connect the right amount of water. It's about this The water on the scale line is enough. After connecting the water, we put the pot on the stove, and then turn on the switch. Wait for the fire to boil."

"How does the water boil?" Adrian stared at the water in the pot, ask.

Avery taught patiently, "Wait a while when the water boils, and then it's boiling. At this time, you can throw the dumplings or noodles into the pot. Like this kind of dumplings that have been frozen in the refrigerator, it usually takes ten minutes to cook. When it's almost cooked, you can taste it."

Adrian nodded: "It doesn't seem to be that difficult."

Avery boasted, "It's not that difficult. Plus you're smart, you can learn anything. Shea can even make soup. If you want to learn this, Usually, I can ask Mrs. Scarlet to teach you."

Adrian: "Mrs. Scarlet is afraid that my clothes will get dirty, and afraid that I will cut my hands with a knife."

Avery: "You can tell her that you will be careful. Mrs. Scarlet is soft-hearted."

Adrian: "Yeah."

Soon, the water boiled.

"Now you can put the dumplings in. The water is boiling, you have to put it in gently, otherwise it will be very painful if you get scalded by the boiling water." Avery was instructing.

Adrian took the dumplings and carefully put them into the pot.

"Yes, that's it. Look how smart you are!" Avery boasted.

At the door of the kitchen, Elliot stared blankly at the harmonious and warm picture of the two of them. He didn't want to go in and break this beauty.

When all the dumplings were in the pot, Avery caught a glimpse of Elliot out of the corner of his eye.

"When did you come back? Why didn't you make a sound?" Avery wiped her hands with a dry towel and strode to him.

Elliot didn't smell of alcohol, but there was a faint, unfamiliar smell of perfume.

Elliot should have gone to see the woman.

"I Just got back. Avery, are you cooking dumplings?" The expression on Elliot face was calm.

Avery: "Well, do you want to eat some? If you want to eat, I'll ask Adrian to put more dumplings."

Elliot: "I'm not hungry. Can Adrian cook?"

"I taught Adrian just now, it should be fine." Avery said and walked over to Adrian and asked, "Is there anything else you don't understand?"

"Yes," Adrian asked, "How to turn off the fire?"

Avery pointed to the stove switch, "Just screw it back to the original position. Then turn off the power switch here."

Adrian: "Okay, I see. Go watch TV with him. I'll call you when it's done cooking. "

Well, if there is anything you don't understand, please call me at any time." Avery finished with a smile, and went to the living room with Elliot.

A chorus was playing on TV.

Chapter 1576

A total of six artists chorus, followed by countless dancers.

The scene was very lively and the melody was very festive.

Avery and Elliot sat down on the sofa, and both of them looked at the TV screen at the same time.

Elliot said proactively, "Ben Schaffer called me. He said that Gwen won the second place in the preliminary competition."

Avery: "I know. Gwen called me."

Elliot: "They will go back to Aryadelle tomorrow."

"Well." this topic made Avery forget to ask who Elliot went to see just now, "Let Gwen continue to stay in the hotel then? It's not good?"

"Do you want Gwen to stay at my house?" Elliot asked.

Avery: "It's okay to stay at my house. It's the Spring Festival, everyone is back home to reunite with their families, but we let Gwen come back to stay in the hotel. I think it's too indifferent."

"Listen to you. You can live wherever you arrange for her." Elliot compromised, looking at her clear eyes with deep eyes. After hesitating again and again, he said again, "I just..."

“Avery, come and see if the dumplings are cooked.” Adrian sound came from the kitchen.

Avery immediately got up from the sofa and strode towards the kitchen.

Elliot got up very early today and was very sleepy now. He walked to the kitchen and said to Avery, “Avery, I’ll go back to the room to wash first.”

“Okay! Go!” Avery was holding a bowl, and in the bowl was a steaming dumpling, in the sweltering heat Under the steam, her eyes gleamed faintly.

After Elliot returned to the room, Avery and Adrian filled dumplings and went to the living room to eat while watching TV.

20 minutes later, the two finished eating dumplings.

Avery took the bowl into the dishwasher and came out of the kitchen.

Avery: “Adrian, go back to your room to sleep. I’m going to bed too. It’s very late now.”

Adrian scratched his head: “I want to wait for the New Year’s Eve.”

Avery glanced at the time, and it was just over an hour before the New Year.

“I’ll wait for New Year’s Eve with you.” Avery sat down beside him, “Actually, I’m not that sleepy.”

A sketch was playing on the TV.

In order to make herself not so sleepy, she took a serious look.

After some time, Avery’s phone screen lit up.

She picked up her phone and saw that it was 11 o’clock at night. Elliot should have fallen asleep.

She clicked on the message from the unfamiliar number, and saw a candid photo.

In the photo, Rebecca has a big belly, holding Elliot’s arm, and was about to enter the elevator.

In the photo, Elliot was wearing the new coat he wore today.

—He said he was going to see a friend, but it turned out to be Rebecca.

–The faint scent of perfume on his body naturally came from Rebecca.

–Didn't he say he'd never meet Rebecca again?

–No, what he promised was that he would never go to Yonroeville again.

–He didn't say that Rebecca came to Aryadelle to see her.

[Miss Tate, we photographed your husband having a tryst with a woman with a big belly for nearly an hour tonight. If you don't want this news to be in the headlines, then you need to pay a buyout fee. I still have a lot of these photos in my hand, and if I release any of them, it will definitely make it impossible for your family to celebrate the New Year.]

Avery read the text message sent by the other party, and her heart sank into a cold pool.

She wanted to say, let the photos go out, because it wasn't her who was secretly photographed anyway.

But thinking about how big this incident would affect the child, she could only endure her unhappiness and sent a message to ask: [How much do you want?]

Chapter 1577

The other party immediately replied: [Five million. This number is not much for you, is it? As long as you call the money tonight, I promise to destroy all the photos.]

Avery looked at the word 'Five million' and thought it was ridiculous.

–Is the photo of Elliot and Rebecca worth so much money?

Avery wanted to grit her teeth and said to the person on the phone, go and expose it. Expose now. Not to mention that Elliot and Rebecca were photographed going to the hotel for a tryst, even if she took a picture of the two of them on the bed, she wouldn't be afraid.

Elliot was not afraid, what was there to be afraid of.

Avery just felt disgusted, and she was afraid that the child would be disgusted.

In the end, it was still getting older, and the temperament was more calm than before, and it was more able to bear the pain that was unbearable before, or it was too much, and people were a little numb.

Avery copied the bank card number sent by the other party, opened her own bank app, and transferred five million.

After receiving the money, the other party sent a message: [Miss Tate, I didn't expect you to be so refreshing. I didn't expect you and your husband to be so good looking. But still, I wish you a Happy New Year]

Avery clenched the phone tightly, and the expression on her face couldn't be concealed.

"Avery, what's wrong with you?" Adrian asked, looking at her cold expression.

"Someone wishing me a happy new year," Avery explained, putting the phone down, "the one I hate."

Adrian: "Oh... the hater, just ignore it."

"Um." Avery took it from the table and picked up the glass and took a sip.

Time will soon come to the countdown to New Years Eve.

On the TV, the host and everyone on the scene counted down together: "Ten, nine, eight, seven..."

"Adrian, what do you wish for in the new year?" Avery looked at Adrian.

Adrian: " I hope I can become smarter and smarter and can take care of myself."

Avery: "You can definitely do it. I believe in you."

"Avery, thank you. What is your wish?" Adrian asked rhetorically.

Avery thought for a moment, then the corners of her mouth rose: "I hope my three children are healthy and happy."

"No."

"No."

"No one said that you can only make one wish, but you can make many." Adrian reminded her, "You can also wish that you and your husband are also healthy..."

"If you wish too much, it won't work." Avery smiled and said, "The most important thing is that the child is healthy and happy."

Adrian: "Okay! Then Am I being too greedy? My wish is so big."

Avery: "Don't be greedy. God has already accepted your wish. We will celebrate New Year's Eve together at the end of the year."

Adrian: "Okay!"

Avery returned to the bedroom and Elliot gave it to her. Left a bedside lamp.

He was fast asleep, breathing evenly and looked really tired.

Avery walked to the bed and turned off the light before she went to bed. The room suddenly fell into darkness.

She lay down on the bed with her back to Elliot.

–Elliot went out to see Rebecca, but he didn't tell her in advance. Today is New Year's Eve, a day to reunite with family. On such an important day, he secretly went out to meet Rebecca.

For Avery, this was a spiritual betrayal.

–If Elliot can sneak to see Rebecca once, there will be a second time, a third time...

–It's the same thing as physical betrayal.

–Is Elliot not letting go of Rebecca or the child in Rebecca's womb? Or, both?

–After all, if Elliot doesn't have feelings for Rebecca, how can he have feelings for the child in Rebecca's belly?

Suddenly a deep rift arose in her heart.

No wonder people say that after being together for a long time, it is easy to lose freshness and passion. She thought that she and Elliot would be exempt from the commonplace, but unexpectedly, they were also common people.

Chapter 1578

This was not the life Avery wants.

If she and Elliot really got to the point where they were separated from each other, she would rather not have this relationship.

She lives with her own children, and she will never have such troubles. She didn't want to be pitied by anyone, and she didn't want to be put on emotional shackles.

The more Avery think, the more awake her mind becomes, and the more she can't sleep.

After an unknown amount of time, she seemed to have fallen asleep in a daze, or even had a dream. Only when she was dreaming, she knew she was dreaming.

She didn't sleep very well, a dream started soon, then ended quickly and entered another dream.

This lasted for about two or three hours, and she woke up completely. She picked up her phone and checked the time. It's almost 5 a.m.

She breathed a sigh of relief. After a while, she got up.

At 7:30 in the morning, the calm of the villa was broken.

Layla and Hayden got up.

The two of them came out of the room and went to see Robert first.

After Hayden returned to Aryadelle, he got along with Robert for a period of time, and the relationship between the two brothers improved.

Looking at Robert at his current age is like looking at low-level animals, but his younger brother is slightly different from ordinary small animals.

That is his younger brother is cuter.

Robert also liked Hayden more, because the things he plays with him make him feel novel.

Layla pushed open the door of the children's room, Robert was sitting on the bed, holding the bottle in both hands, drinking milk.

"Hayden, Layla, Happy New Year." Mrs. Cooper immediately took out two red envelopes and gave them to Hayden and Layla.

"Grandma Cooper, aren't you going home to spend the New Year with your family?" Layla sat down beside the bed and asked.

Mrs. Cooper smiled and said, "I'll take a vacation when Robert is completely healed. He's still coughing a little."

Layla: "Oh...the cough is fine, he'll be fine when his mother is here."

“Well. Your elder brother is looking at your younger brother, and I will go to see if I need help in the kitchen.” Mrs. Cooper said and walked out.

Robert finished drinking the milk, put the bottle aside, and then stretched out two small arms towards Hayden and Layla, wanting to hug.

“Stinky brother, you are already a big baby, come down and go by yourself.” Layla carried her brother to the ground and put on shoes for him.

When Robert put on his shoes, Robert immediately took his red envelope and walked to Hayden.

He handed the red envelope to Hayden, who was puzzled: “I don’t want it, you give it to my sister.”

Robert pouted, stubbornly giving the red envelope to Hayden.

Layla was a little angry: “You gave the red envelope to my brother, but you didn’t give it to me, I’m angry!”

Hayden felt a little smug when he saw that Layla was jealous.

Hayden didn’t expect Robert like him so much.

He took the red envelope given by his brother, and as a result, the little guy immediately hugged his leg and said in a coquettish voice, “Brother hug!”

Layla: “Haha! Brother, he gave you a red envelope because he wanted you to hug him. Haha! Haha!”

Hayden’s face changed slightly, and after scolding ‘stinky brother’ after learning from Layla in his heart, he reluctantly picked Robert up.

At 8:00 a.m., Elliot got up. After washing up, he went downstairs.

When he came to the first floor, he immediately searched for Avery in the living room.

“Layla, where’s your mother?” Elliot slept well last night and was in good spirits today.

Layla looked shocked: “Isn’t mom sleeping with you?”

Hayden also looked at Elliot with a puzzled face.

Elliot: “She’s not in the room. She’s left when I wake up.”

After Elliot finished speaking, he looked at Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper shook her head: "I didn't see Avery when I got up. I went to ask the bodyguard at the gate."

Mrs. Cooper strode out of the yard.

After a while, Mrs. Cooper got the news and returned to the living room.

"The bodyguard said that Avery left at 6:00 a.m. She drove away."

She lives with her own children, and she will never have such troubles. She didn't want to be pitied by anyone, and she didn't want to be put on emotional shackles.

The more Avery think, the more awake her mind becomes, and the more she can't sleep.

After an unknown amount of time, she seemed to have fallen asleep in a daze, or even had a dream. Only when she was dreaming, she knew she was dreaming.

She didn't sleep very well, a dream started soon, then ended quickly and entered another dream.

This lasted for about two or three hours, and she woke up completely. She picked up her phone and checked the time. It's almost 5 a.m.

She breathed a sigh of relief. After a while, she got up.

At 7:30 in the morning, the calm of the villa was broken.

Layla and Hayden got up.

The two of them came out of the room and went to see Robert first.

After Hayden returned to Aryadelle, he got along with Robert for a period of time, and the relationship between the two brothers improved.

Looking at Robert at his current age is like looking at low-level animals, but his younger brother is slightly different from ordinary small animals.

That is his younger brother is cuter.

Robert also liked Hayden more, because the things he plays with him make him feel novel.

Layla pushed open the door of the children's room, Robert was sitting on the bed, holding the bottle in both hands, drinking milk.

"Hayden, Layla, Happy New Year." Mrs. Cooper immediately took out two red envelopes and gave them to Hayden and Layla.

"Grandma Cooper, aren't you going home to spend the New Year with your family?" Layla sat down beside the bed and asked.

Mrs. Cooper smiled and said, "I'll take a vacation when Robert is completely healed. He's still coughing a little."

Layla: "Oh...the cough is fine, he'll be fine when his mother is here."

"Well. Your elder brother is looking at your younger brother, and I will go to see if I need help in the kitchen." Mrs. Cooper said and walked out.

Robert finished drinking the milk, put the bottle aside, and then stretched out two small arms towards Hayden and Layla, wanting to hug.

"Stinky brother, you are already a big baby, come down and go by yourself." Layla carried her brother to the ground and put on shoes for him.

When Robert put on his shoes, Robert immediately took his red envelope and walked to Hayden.

He handed the red envelope to Hayden, who was puzzled: "I don't want it, you give it to my sister."

Robert pouted, stubbornly giving the red envelope to Hayden.

Layla was a little angry: "You gave the red envelope to my brother, but you didn't give it to me, I'm angry!"

Hayden felt a little smug when he saw that Layla was jealous.

Hayden didn't expect Robert like him so much.

He took the red envelope given by his brother, and as a result, the little guy immediately hugged his leg and said in a coquettish voice, "Brother hug!"

Layla: "Haha! Brother, he gave you a red envelope because he wanted you to hug him. Haha! Haha!"

Hayden's face changed slightly, and after scolding 'stinky brother' after learning from Layla in his heart, he reluctantly picked Robert up.

At 8:00 a.m., Elliot got up. After washing up, he went downstairs.

When he came to the first floor, he immediately searched for Avery in the living room.

"Layla, where's your mother?" Elliot slept well last night and was in good spirits today.

Layla looked shocked: "Isn't mom sleeping with you?"

Hayden also looked at Elliot with a puzzled face.

Elliot: "She's not in the room. She's left when I wake up."

After Elliot finished speaking, he looked at Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper shook her head: "I didn't see Avery when I got up. I went to ask the bodyguard at the gate."

Mrs. Cooper strode out of the yard.

After a while, Mrs. Cooper got the news and returned to the living room.

"The bodyguard said that Avery left at 6:00 a.m. She drove away."

This was not the life Avery wants.

If she and Elliot really got to the point where they were separated from each other, she would rather not have this relationship.

Chapter 1579

Going out at six in the morning? It’s winter, it’s six o’clock in the morning, it’s still dark.

Elliot picked up the phone, walked to the door, looked outside, and dialed Avery.

After a while, Avery answered the phone.

“Where are you? Why did you go out so early?” Elliot tense heartstrings relaxed a little.

Avery’s voice came calmly, “I’m going to visit my mother’s grave. Let’s take care of the child at home today.”

“Why don’t you want me to go with you?” Elliot preferred to accompany her to visit the grave.

“Have Mike with me. You stay at home.” After Avery finished speaking, she fell silent.

Elliot felt that she was in a bad mood and was reluctant to speak, so he didn’t say much.

After hanging up the phone, Layla walked over to Elliot and asked, “Where did my mother go? Why did she go out so early? Did you make her angry?”

Elliot explained, "Your mother went to visit your grandmother's grave. She misses your grandmother."

Layla said 'oh': "I miss my grandmother too. Although I haven't seen my grandmother for a long time, I still remember that my grandmother loves me."

"Yeah. You guys have breakfast. Is it?" Elliot asked.

Layla said, "Eat! Aunty Shea has already gone out. Uncle Adrian hasn't gotten up yet."

"Well, then Dad is going to have breakfast." Elliot touched his daughter's head and walked towards the dining room.

Not long after Elliot sat down in the dining room, Adrian came out of the room.

Adrian came to the dining room and had breakfast with Elliot.

"Where's Avery?" Adrian asked.

"She went out. Do you know what time she returned to the room last night?" Elliot asked as if nothing had happened.

Adrian: "After we made a wish for New Year's Eve together, she went back to the room."

She actually stayed up until New Year's Eve.

It stands to reason that if she stayed up so late, she should be very tired, and she should not be able to get up in the morning, but why did she go out at six o'clock?

If you want to go to the grave, you can go at any time, there is no need to go so early.

Even if she thinks about Laura, she can think about it at home, there is no need to go to the cemetery to guard.

The more Elliot thought about it, the more he felt that Avery might be hiding something.

–Did Avery know that he went out to see Rebecca last night?

Elliot turned on his phone and saw his name appearing in the headlines of the news section.

However, it was because of Sofia.

Yesterday someone photographed Sofia coming to his house, so someone guessed Sofia's identity.

Is the paparazzi not a new year? He even squatted outside his house and took pictures secretly, really dedicated.

Elliot put down his phone and picked up the milk glass. After breakfast, he watched the three children play well in the living room, so he stayed for a while and went outside.

Last night Rebecca gave him several color Doppler photos of the child.

He looked dizzy.

The first time he saw a child's color Doppler ultrasound was when the child was five months old.

At that time, he could still comfort himself, the child was still young, and maybe his appearance would change.

As a result, Rebecca brought the son's six-month and seven-month-old color Doppler ultrasound photos this time. Not only did the child not grow, but she became more like Layla.

In his mobile phone, there was a photo of Layla when she was born, which he copied from Avery's album last time, so he could clearly compare that the child in Rebecca's womb looked a lot like Layla.

He was holding the photo, dazed and overwhelmed, Rebecca kept saying that the child was like Layla, and he was even more upset.
