

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1183

Elliot picked up Robert from the bed and touched his forehead with his fingers: "Dad has only been away from home for two days, why did Robert get bitten like this by mosquitoes?" After a pause, he looked at Mrs. Cooper, "Prepare a mosquito net for the child."

"Mosquito repellent. I bought a mosquito net yesterday and plan to install it later." Mrs. Cooper replied.

Robert's little hands grabbed the buttons of Elliot's shirt, using the buttons as a toy and having a great time.

"Sir, when you didn't go home the night before yesterday, Layla became suspicious. Don't look at Layla being young, but she understands everything at her age." Mrs. Cooper advised, "You must consider your child's feelings. Otherwise, in the future It is difficult to win back the heart of the child."

On the other side.

Cole met Lawyer Gordon.

After the two met, Cole looked around cautiously.

Lawyer Gordon met at a high-end coffee shop.

At this point in the morning, there were no customers in the coffee shop.

"Lawyer Gordon, is Elliot particularly angry? Look at me and tell the truth, I won't be in danger, right?" Cole asked in a low voice.

Lawyer Gordon pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose and said embarrassedly, "Mr. Foster, I don't know how to answer your question. Because Elliot only entrusted me to promote the transfer of shares with you, I don't know anything else."

Cole heaved a sigh of relief: "That's good. I'm afraid this is a trap. After all, it went too smoothly, a bit beyond my imagination."

The waiter came over with two cups of coffee and brought it to them.

Lawyer Gordon picked up the coffee cup and took a sip.

Cole was not in the mood to drink coffee, he said, "Lawyer Gordon, about the transfer of shares, what do I need to prepare here? Can you help me make a list? After all, it is not to me, if it is to me, It won't be so troublesome. After all, Adrian doesn't even have a bank account."

When Lawyer Gordon heard the words, he was stunned: "Adrian?"

Cole said slightly, "Yeah! Adrian is my uncle. You should have read the previous news, right? Avery hates me and my dad, otherwise he wouldn't ask for it. I can only transfer the shares to Adrian. Of course, the same is true for my uncle. After all, my uncle and I are in the same family."

Lawyer Gordon was stunned.

Elliot didn't tell him this. It only said that the shares would be transferred to Cole, but not to Adrian.

As a result, Cole said that he was going to transfer the shares to Adrian... Lawyer Gordon was a little dizzy, so he got up immediately.

"Mr. Foster, I'm going to the bathroom. Wait a moment."

Cole said 'oh' and watched Lawyer Gordon walk in the direction of the bathroom.

After Lawyer Gordon came to the bathroom, he immediately took out his mobile phone and dialed Elliot.

"Elliot, Cole said that what he talked to Avery was to transfer your shares to Adrian, not to him. What the hell is going on? Would you like to confirm with Avery now?"

Elliot's expression suddenly froze.

Avery asked to transfer his shares to Adrian?

His shares are his, she really thought she could transfer it to whoever she wanted?

Does she like Adrian that much? Or does she think that he has occupied Adrian's life, and now there is just this opportunity to return what he owes Adrian?

His heart was so painful that it was hard to breathe. He looked at Robert who was playing with toys on the bed, his eyes became moist.

Just five minutes ago, he had already persuaded himself in his heart that although Avery had hurt his heart this time and suffered great grievances, Avery had given him three children and suffered a lot, and they were equal to each other. .

But now, he quickly overturned this idea that had just been established.

He can't forgive Avery. Even if their child is so obedient, it doesn't mean that he can live a good life with Avery.

Avery can exploit his interests and hurt his feelings for other men. Once, there will be a second time.

After more than an hour, Avery and Layla returned home. They bought a lot of saplings and flowers at the market.

The bodyguard opened the trunk and moved everything out of the car. Mrs. Cooper came out with Robert in her arms and glanced at it: "You bought so many flowers. It's so beautiful."

"I chose these flowers. The saplings were chosen by my mother." Layla seemed to have forgotten the unhappiness in her heart, with a bright smile in her eyes she said, "Mom also bought fruit tree seedlings."

"What fruit tree seedlings did you buy?" Mrs. Cooper asked.

"I bought a grapefruit tree, a jujube tree, and... Mom, what other trees are there?" Layla looked up at her mother.

"There are also peach and pear trees." Avery added.

"Yes! Peach and pear trees. I like to eat peaches, So mom bought peach trees." Layla excitedly picked up the bag of flowers on the ground, "I'm going to put them in a vase."

"Layla, I put a lot of clean vases on the table, and you can see them when you enter the house. When you take the flowers, pay attention to the thorns! Don't poke your hands." Mrs. Cooper said to Layla.

"I know. I'll be careful." Layla entered the villa with flowers.

Avery was about to move the saplings to various open spaces in the yard. At this time, Mrs. Cooper said, "Avery, after you took Layla out, Elliot came back."

"Elliot is back?" Avery caught the question The point is, "He's left again?"

Mrs. Cooper said helplessly, "Yes. I persuaded him, but it didn't work. But today he hugged Robert. And he was very distressed that Robert was bitten by a mosquito. He still loves the child."

Avery said disappointedly, "Of course he loves the child. No matter how much hatred I have with him, the child does not offend him. Does he plan to do this every day and come back quietly when I go out? What if I don't go out every day? Will he never come back for the rest of his life?"

Mrs. Cooper: "Today, he came back and hugged Robert. It is estimated that he came to see the child."

"He made me seem like a dove occupying a magpie's nest. If I wasn't here, he wouldn't have to hide outside." Avery was very distressed, "When I plant these saplings, I will take the children back to my own house."

Even if she concealed that she was wrong and was willing to apologize to him and admit her mistake.

Elliot escaped completely like this, not giving her a chance to speak, which made her feel cold.

"Avery, don't do this. You wait..." Mrs. Cooper hurriedly persuaded her, "Give your husband some time. When he figures it out, he will definitely talk to you."

"So does Chad. That's what he said. He said that Elliot should give me the results next week."

"Yes, you can wait until next week. Don't move for now." Mrs. Cooper glanced at the saplings on the ground and said, "I'll get you tools and Layla will help to plant the trees."

Sterling Group.

Lawyer Gordon sat in Ben Schaffer's office and told Ben Schaffer about the matter, and Ben Schaffer's face became extremely gloomy.

"Are you kidding me?" Ben Schaffer frowned.

Lawyer Gordon calmly said: "I'm actually quite busy. If it wasn't for Elliot to come to me, I wouldn't have to come here specially to tell you this."

"Haha! It's impossible! Elliot can't give up what he holds All the shares!" Ben Schaffer angrily rebuked, "Even if Henry asked him for shares half a month ago, he only asked for one-third of the shares!"

"I can explain to you about this." Lawyer Gordon was in no hurry and eloquently said, "Originally, Elliot asked me to transfer one-third of the shares he held to Cole, but Cole accidentally mentioned that he had negotiated with Avery to transfer the shares to Adrian."

Ben Schaffer was shocked when he heard this.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1185

“You mean that Elliot transferred his shares because of Avery?”

“I don’t dare to guess at random, I just tell you what I know.” Lawyer Gordon said rigorously, “Elliot listen After saying that the shares were to be transferred to Adrian. He changed his mind. From transferring one third of the shares to transferring all of them.”

Ben Schaffer clenched his teeth and also clenched his fists: “D*mn it. What the h-e-l-l is this Avery doing? What! What is she trying to do!”

Lawyer Gordon advised: “Mr. Schaffer, calm down.”

Ben Schaffer said irritably, “Fck you, calm down! I can’t calm down! If Elliot quits the company, then this company will no longer be Sterling Group. He founded the company with all his passion and hard work. Why did Avery let him transfer the shares to Adrian? Avery’s brain was flooded, and Elliot also suffered. Fck!”

Lawyer Gordon continued to persuade: “Elliot has made up his mind, and you can’t change the situation if you are angry.”

“What about others? I want to see him.” Ben Schaffer got up from the sofa.

“I don’t know where Elliot is now. We contacted by phone.” Lawyer Gordon said.

Ben Schaffer immediately took out his mobile phone and dialed Elliot, but prompted him to turn off the mobile phone.

“You call him. Get through to me. I have to confirm that it was his intention before I can cooperate with your work.” The blue veins on Ben Schaffer’s forehead angered.

Lawyer Gordon had no choice but to call Elliot.

After the call was made, Lawyer Gordon was about to speak, but Ben Schaffer snatched his cell phone.

“Elliot! Where the h-e-l-l are you hiding?! Are you hiding to give the company to the people you hate. Do you know what you are doing?! Avery is nothing, you listen to her, you are Stupid. Hopelessly stupid. When I scold you for being in love, I didn’t mean to see you ruin your career for her now.”

Ben Schaffer was chattering and angrily, but the other side of the phone was silent.

“Elliot! What are you pretending to be dumb? Talk to me.” Ben Schaffer scolded a little tired.

“You know me. I’ve made a decision, no matter what you say, it’s useless.” Elliot’s voice came cold.

Ben Schaffer made a sarcastic sound that seemed to laugh and cry: “What do you mean is that Avery is more important than everything. She told you to die, do you want to die immediately?”

Lawyer Gordon couldn’t listen any longer and reminded: “Mr. Schaffer, please pay attention to your words.”

“Get out of here.” Ben Schaffer was in a fit of rage and his temper was particularly grumpy.

On the other side of the phone, Elliot changed his calm attitude and said word by word, “Don’t worry about my business. What kind of woman I find and how to deal with my property are all my business.”

“Okay! Your business, I don’t care.” Ben Schaffer hung up the phone in a fit of anger.

Lawyer Gordon stretched out his hand in front of him and asked for a cell phone.

Ben Schaffer realized that he was holding his mobile phone and immediately returned it.

“I’m sorry, Lawyer Gordon, I didn’t do it on purpose just now.”

“It’s fine. I’m afraid that you talk too much and cause irreversible results. His mood is not very good, and those words you said will aggravate his Emotions.” Lawyer Gordon explained.

“You’re right. But I can’t stand it. I’m really in pain. I don’t want to watch Avery destroy him but I can’t help it.”

Foster’s house, the front yard.

Avery and her daughter were planting trees. Mrs. Cooper came over with her cell phone, “Avery, your cell phone is ringing.”

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1186

Avery took off his work gloves and took over the phone.

It was Tammy who called.

Avery answered the phone, and Tammy's voice suddenly came in a hurry: "Avery, Ben Schaffer is too much. He just scolded you. He scolded you publicly in their small group, although he withdrew after scolding, But my husband saw it. My husband thought Ben Schaffer was too much, so he told me."

Avery was stunned: "He scolded me?"

"But Jun said that the scolding was very harsh. Even if you quarrel with Elliot, it is your business. Who is Ben Schaffer? Why does he scold you." Tammy was indignant as if she had been scolded, " My husband and Chad talked about him in the group, so he withdrew those swear words."

Tammy continued, "But that doesn't mean it didn't happen. Avery, you must ignore him in the future. He is probably in menopause, so he is very irritable."

Avery's mood was relatively calm, and guessed: "Maybe he has contacted Elliot."

"Even if he contacts Elliot, he has no right to scold you. Elliot is this Shrinking turtle, what is his dissatisfaction, won't he stand up and say it himself? Let Ben Schaffer swear in the group, he has no quality." Tammy scolded them together, "I used to think that he was different from other men, Now it seems that men are all the same."

Avery: "It's still good to be accurate."

Tammy suddenly put out the fire: "It's OK to be accurate. But we are talking about Elliot now. I hit him just now. I still can't get through the phone. Didn't he come home?"

"He came back when I took Layla out to buy flowers at noon today."

"Oh, shrewd turtle, I see when he plans to see you. "Maybe next week." Avery was sure that Elliot would find her next week.

Not long after the phone call with Tammy, Mike's car drove up.

This weekend, so Mike came over to see Avery and the child.

When Layla saw Mike, she dropped the shovel and ran towards him.

"Layla, you are planting a tree with your mother!" Mike handed Layla the gift he bought, and then strode towards Avery.

"Why are you here?" Avery glanced at him and asked.

“Look at what you said, didn’t you agree to get together once a week? Now you think I’m an eyesore?” Michael took her by the arm and led her into the villa, “The sun is so hot outside, aren’t you afraid of getting tanned? Studies have shown that skin aging is mainly caused by ultraviolet rays.”

“Aging is inevitable.” Avery patted the ashes on her body before entering the villa, “Are you going to stay for dinner tonight?”

“Of course. It’s already two o’clock in the afternoon. Don’t you want to take a nap today?”

“I didn’t plan to go to bed, since you’re here... Then I’d better go to sleep.” Avery said with a face Tired, “I really want to have a good night’s sleep.”

She has insomnia every night these days, and wakes up very early in the morning, resulting in a lack of energy during the day.

Mike: “I’ll take you back to your room.”

“What’s the matter? Do you have something to tell me?” Avery glanced at the two children.

The two of them were unpacking the gift that Mike had brought.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1187

“It’s not a big deal. I want to talk with you casually.” Mike whispered.

“Then go outside and talk.” Avery took him to the yard, “Speak! What’s the matter?”

“What else can you do... Don’t you know?” Mike put his hands on his h-i-ps and said, ” I know you have special feelings for Adrian, but you can’t put Adrian in front of Elliot.”

“I didn’t put Adrian in front of Elliot.” Avery said.

Mike sighed heavily, “But everyone thinks so now. Avery, if Elliot doesn’t want to take money to save Adrian, you can’t force it.”

Avery frowned, “I haven’t talked to him about this yet. If I talk to him about this, and he clearly refuses to help, can I force him?”

“Oh? You haven’t talked to him yet?” Mike was a little surprised.

“No. I feel that someone has revealed the wind to him.” Avery stared at his face, “Mike...”

Mike quickly changed the subject, “The crux of the question now is, how are you going to solve this problem? I’m here to persuade you. You quickly explain to Elliot, and you say you don’t care about Adrian.”

Avery: “Do you think if I tell him this, he will be able to calm down and go home?”

“That’s right. He’s running away from home now, and there’s no news. Isn’t he just pranking with you?” Mike said in a tone that he thought he knew a man well, “Apologize to him, admit your mistake, and promise that he will get back to him right away.”

Avery began to think about the feasibility of Mike’s method.

After hesitating for a while, she said: “I can’t say that I don’t care about Adrian. But I can ask him for a cent without taking Adrian’s affairs.”

“Why are you so stubborn?” Mike was helpless.

“That’s who I am. I don’t ask him for money, I go to someone else to borrow money. Anyway, Henry and his son want money. They think I don’t have enough money, so I can borrow it...” Avery sighed with relief for the method he came up with, “What do you think of my method?”

“Not so good.” Mike’s brows became more and more frowning, “Avery, don’t you plan to use it for Adrian’s sake? Do you put all your own net worth?”

“You think I have a lot of net worth, but they don’t think it’s enough.” Avery smiled wryly.

“I think you’re crazy. You want to give all of your net worth to the Henry and Cole, but you didn’t tell me in advance.”

“They wouldn’t want it. So I didn’t tell you.” Avery saw Mike’s disappointment, she explained with sadness and heartache, “Mike, what I want to save is not just Adrian.”

“Oh? Make it clear, you’d better make it clear to me. Otherwise, I have to learn from Elliot and run away from home.” Mike With red eyes, he said aggrieved, “I worked hard overtime to upgrade products, and make money for you, not to make you cheap.”

Hot tears fell from the corners of Avery’s eyes: “Mike, I’m sorry. I didn’t play cheap. You, how good you are to me and how much you have paid to the company, I know. I am not only for Adrian... but also for Shea...”

Mike heard ‘Shea’ Two words, suddenly took a breath.

Avery lowered her head and said, "She's not dead. I met Wesley on my honeymoon last time. Shea's situation is very bad now. This time Adrian's kidney needed to her because She had a kidney transplant, otherwise she would die."

"I see!" Mike sighed lightly, "Then why don't you tell Elliot? If you tell him, he will definitely not be angry with you!"

"If I tell him, he will definitely lose his mind. At the last wedding, he and Henry and his son had a quarrel like that. I don't want to have such an out of control situation again. Moreover, Shea's situation is very critical now. The kidney transplant is only the first step. Recovery is still unknown. Last time he learned of Shea's death, his depression relapsed, and he wanted to die with Shea at one point. How can I bear to let him suffer like this again?"
