Chapter 1211

F*ck!

What a coincidence?

He seemed to have a handle in her hand, and his momentum was suddenly insufficient.

“That colleague of mine said you can’t do it.” Gwen raised her eyebrows, looking at his face blushing and purple, “Not only can’t you do that, but you won’t give tips. You’ll die if you’re stingy.”

“What’s your colleague’s name? Give me the contact information.” Ben Schaffer was going crazy.

“Are you going to tip her?”

“You...”

“It’s fine if you don’t. I said this not to betray my colleague, but to remind you that I am a bad girl and you are not a good man. If you dare to stand on the moral high ground and scold me again in the future, I will tell you about it.” Gwen finished the threat and left the Schaffer family in a happy mood.

..

Bridgedale.

After Avery sent Wesley away, he returned to the master bedroom and took out the paper under the pillow. She first logged into Elliot’s Facebook account.

After logging in successfully, countless unread messages appeared in front of her.

There were messages she sent him, and there were messages sent by Chad.

Elliot didn’t look at a single one.

Avery took a deep breath, logged out of Facebook uncomfortably, and then logged into his mailbox.

After entering the mailbox, she saw his last login time and login ip. Elliot logged in to his mailbox the day before the equity transfer.

Avery looked at the landing time, and two lines of tears rolled down quickly.

Probably for him, at the moment when the equity was transferred, his heart also died.

Thinking of the change in his mood, Avery was in such pain that she couldn't breathe.

At the same moment, in Yonroeville.

Elliot suddenly found that his mobile phone was missing. His phone has been off for a few days. Because the phone has not been used at all in the past few days. He can't remember where the phone was lost.

Maybe it was lost before boarding the plane, maybe after getting off the plane... He has no memory at all.

He has always been proud of his memory that is superior to ordinary people, but now, such an important thing, he does not know when he lost it.

Looking for it now is like looking for a needle in a haystack.

He is no longer the Elliot who used to call the wind and call the rain.

A sense of decadence arises spontaneously.

He suddenly remembered the operation that Kyrie Jobin had talked about when he took him to visit the monkey park.

Sadly, the mother monkey was forced to undergo amnestic surgery, but after the operation, she was given a new life.

Isn't this a good treatment for it?

He suddenly envied the female monkey. He can forget all the people and start a new life, make new friends, and regain his dignity and happiness.

After the bath, he lay on the bed, looking at the ceiling and lost in thought.

There were two voices clamoring in his mind.

The first voice: Elliot, escape can't solve the problem. Avery already knew it was wrong. Give her another chance.

The second voice: Elliot! Don't trust any woman anymore. After that operation, completely forget about Avery. Start a new life again. This is your only right choice.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1212

Chapter 1212

The next morning.

After Avery got up, she went to the hospital. Adrian's condition was much better than yesterday.

Seeing Avery, Adrian immediately showed a smile: "Avery, how is my sister?"

Avery sat down beside his hospital bed, picked up the breakfast porridge she bought, and fed it to him: "She woke up last night. It took a while, but she fell asleep quickly. She is still sleeping at the moment."

"Well. Will she be better?"

"It should be." Avery fed a spoonful of porridge into his mouth, "Adrian, you stay in Bridgedale for now. After Shea is discharged from the hospital, you two, brother and sister will stay together. Wesley will take care of you."

"What about you?" Adrian asked.

"I'm going to find Elliot. When I find him, we'll go back to Aryadelle together. Okay?" Avery discussed with him.

"Okay, when my sister is with me, I won't be so bored." Adrian began to fantasize about his future life.

Avery looked at the smile on his face and raised the corner of his mouth.

After breakfast, Avery's cell phone rang. She took out her mobile phone and saw the words 'Cole' jumping on the screen, her face suddenly gloomy.

Cole sent her a message yesterday, but she didn't reply, so he couldn't wait to call today.

She took her mobile phone and walked towards the balcony.

After picking up the call, Cole's voice suddenly came: "Avery! Why didn't you reply to my message yesterday? Hehe, you don't want to play disappear, right?"

"If I want to play disappear, I won't answer your phone." Avery looked at the dazzling sunlight outside the window, her voice was cold, "Isn't it time yet?"

"You didn't reply to my message yesterday, so I arrived by plane overnight." Cole said here and asked, "Which hospital are you in? I'll go over now and take care of Adrian by the way."

Avery's strings were tense: "It's ridiculous, Cole, I know what you're worried about..."

"Since you know what I'm worried about, then tell me to the hospital. If I can't see Adrian today, I'll go to your house to block you. I know where your home in Bridgedale is." Cole came prepared.

After being silent for a few seconds, Avery told him the name of the hospital.

This is Bridgedale, she has enough confidence to deal with Cole.

About half an hour later, Cole came to the ward.

Seeing Adrian resting with his eyes closed, Cole breathed a sigh of relief: "Is he okay?"

"Even if he is okay, he can't be discharged now. If you plan to take him away in the next two days..."

"I didn't say I was going to take him away in the next two days. I will definitely take him away after he is discharged from the hospital." Cole looked at Avery with a triumphant smile on his face, "wait for me to take him back to Aryadelle. Now, the Sterling Group will gradually fall into my hands. Avery, will you regret not being with me at the beginning?"

Avery was disgusted by his greasy smile and asked, "Cole, did you come alone?"

"What! Are you testing me?" Cole approached her haggard and pale face, "How could I come alone? Adrian is now my turn against the wind. Key person. I hired a team of elite bodyguards who live near the hospital and are on call at any time."

"Oh, are they the bodyguards brought from Aryadelle?"

"Yeah! Are you afraid?"

"Afraid, I really am. I'm afraid." Avery said, glancing at Adrian, "Adrian's urine bag is almost full, you can change his urine bag later. If he wants to defecate, you have to help him into the bathroom."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1213

Chapter 1213

Cole's face suddenly turned the color of pig liver.

"It's you who said you were going to take care of him, don't you think you can't bear the pain?" Avery teased.

"Why don't you just take a kidney? Why do you have to insert a urinary catheter?" Cole said in disgust.

Avery mocked, "Would you like to try picking a kidney for you? If you're impatient, then go back to the hotel. Come back when he can be discharged from the hospital in a week."

Cole didn't want to endure hardship to take care of Adrian. But seeing that Avery wanted him to go so much, he decided to stay and take care of Adrian.

Seeing that Cole insisted on his own opinion, Avery came out of the ward.

Adrian is safe until Adrian is discharged from the hospital.

Now think of a foolproof way to ensure that Adrian will not be taken away by Cole.

.-

She found Wesley in the doctor's office and told Wesley about the situation. "This Cole doesn't hide his ambitions at all now."

Avery frowned, "Yes. He told me directly that after taking Adrian back, he will take the Sterling Group into his pocket. So I must not let him take Adrian away. He said he brought a lot of bodyguards from Aryadelle, and these bodyguards are near the hospital now."

"Avery, don't worry, I'm here. this is a hospital and his bodyguards dare not break in." Wesley comforted, "There is a no-contact order in Bridgedale. As long as we make this law take effect, we can make Cole unable to get close to Adrian."

"I know the no-contact order, but what should we do? Make this law take effect?" Avery's brain began to run at high speed.

Wesley said: "Just submit the proof to the judge that he intends to harm Adrian."

Avery: "But he will not harm Adrian."

Wesley said slowly, "Then we will create evidence that he intends to harm Adrian. To treat people like Cole, we need to put aside kindness and sincerity."

Avery nodded: "Wesley, just do as you said. How is Shea today?"

"She hasn't woken up today." Wesley couldn't accompany her in the intensive care unit, so he could only wait for news in the doctor's office .

"She will definitely wake up today, and she will be awake longer than yesterday." Avery said firmly.

"Well. Have you found Elliot's whereabouts?" Wesley was most worried about Elliot besides Shea.

It's not that Wesley cares more about Elliot, but that he worries about Avery.

If Avery can't find Elliot, her life will never return to normal.

"After Elliot transferred his shares, he never logged into his social account and email address." Although she was a little disappointed, she was not discouraged, "I plan to visit all his friends. If I really can't find him, I will publish 'The missing person notice' with a lot of money."

Wesley chuckled: "I see your determination to find him, but Elliot may want to dig a hole in the ground. If he is so proud, if he sees himself on the missing person notice, he will definitely feel very uncomfortable."

"I can't care so much. As long as there is his whereabouts, I am willing to try any method."

At noon, Shea woke up from a coma.

She woke up this time, much better than last night.

"Wesley, Avery." Her voice was weak, but she called out their names accurately, "Did my surgery succeed?"

"Your surgery was a success. You will get better and better every day." Wesley said .

Shea raised the corner of his mouth and breathed a sigh of relief: "Then can I see my brother? Avery, call him. I want to hear his voice... I also want him to hug him."

An unnatural emotion flashed in Avery's eyes, and then in front of her, she dialed Elliot's number.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1214

Chapter 1214

'This call cannot be connected'.

Her heart ached suddenly, but she had to pretend to be calm.

"Shea, your brother may be busy, I'll call him later." Avery really couldn't bear to tell Shea the truth now. Even if she can hide it for another day, it is better to wait for Shea to feel better than to say it now.

Wesley gave Avery a deep look. He thought Avery would tell Shea the truth, but he didn't expect her.

"Okay," Shea's eyes flashed with disappointment, and then he said nervously, "Will my brother blame me? Will he be mad at me?"

"No. Shea, not only is he not mad at you but he misses you very much." Avery held her hand, "You believe me."

Shea was relieved, "I believe in you and Wesley the most and my brother."

"You take a good rest, wait. When you are discharged from the hospital, there will be a surprise for you." Avery wanted to tell her the truth after she was discharged from the hospital.

"Well. I'm a little sleepy. I'll go to sleep first. If my brother comes, you must wake me up." Shea's voice weakened.

After Shea fell asleep again, Wesley and Avery came out of the ward.

Wesley whispered, "Avery, this matter may not be hidden from her when she is discharged from the hospital. She will stay in the hospital for at least half a month. After a week, if she can't see Elliot, she will definitely be suspicious."

Avery expressed her opinion, "Then tell her again in a week. She is too weak now. If she suffers such a blow, I'm afraid it will affect her recovery. My teacher once told me that when a person is sick, if he is in a bad mood, then he subconsciously does not want the disease to get better. In such a situation, the disease will usually take a long time to recover. If the patient is in a good mood and has a positive attitude, the recovery will be much faster."

“Yeah. Let’s hide it for now. I thought that Adrian would like to meet Shea. Adrian is really a very nice person. Every time he sees me, They all smiled at me.” Wesley smiled and said.

“They are as kind and gentle as brothers and sisters.”

“After they are discharged from the hospital, they must be settled.” Avery said, rubbing her eyebrows, “My eyes are not very comfortable, these few days. I didn’t rest well, and I saw double images. I’m going to buy some medicine.”

“Would you like to have a checkup?” Wesley accompanied her, “I’ll go with you.”

“No, it’s because I didn’t sleep well. I Just get some medicine.”

“Did you take sleeping pills yesterday?” Wesley asked.

“I took half a tablet. So I didn’t oversleep today.” She laughed at herself, “The feeling after waking up after taking the medicine is still different.”

“Then I won’t take medicine tonight. After dinner, I’ll go for a run in the nearby park.”

“Very good. I’m more relieved to see you gradually becoming more cheerful.” Wesley accompanied her to buy medicine.

In the evening, she came home, changed into her sportswear, and was ready to go out for a run.

Before going out, she suddenly thought about Gwen. After hesitating for a while, she dialed the number to Gwen.

At this moment, it is more than seven o’clock in the morning in Aryadelle.

Gwen answered the phone in a daze.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1215

Chapter 1215

“Gwen, have you thought about it?” Avery asked.

Gwen said before that she had made a decision to tell her, but she hasn’t told her yet.

“Avery, why do you tell Ben Schaffer about me? Do you know how that old b*stard Ben Schaffer reacted? He scolded me badly, that’s enough.” Gwen jumped off the bed

When she got up, “Ben also forced me to have an abortion. What kind of thing is he? He forced me.”

Avery was startled: “I called him, I’m afraid you will do the surgery alone, it’s not at ease. “

I know you are kind, but you are doing bad things. Even if you ask your best friend to accompany me to the hospital, it’s better than looking for Ben Schaffer.” Gwen complained.

“Well.” Avery was actually selfish.

The reason why she told Ben Schaffer the news at the first time was because she suspected that Gwen’s child was Ben Schaffer’s.

Gwen is young and her mind is not mature enough. It would be better if Ben Schaffer knew about it and they made a decision together.

“Forget it, don’t tell your best friend. I don’t need help from others.” Gwen lay down again and continued, “I haven’t decided whether to kill this child.”

Avery said, “If you don’t want to beat him, then don’t beat him. Didn’t Elliot give you living expenses every month? If it’s not enough, I’ll give you more money then.”

Gwen listened to these words, and her heart warmed: “Why are you so good to me? Elliot has already no longer the boss of the Sterling Group, and although I am his sister, he did not admit me.”

Avery: “You are his sister, it has nothing to do with his status. I said, I will help you as much as possible.”

“Okay, I don’t blame you anymore.” Gwen finished childishly and asked, “How is Elliot now? Is he down and doesn’t want to see people? If my dad knew that he had become like this, he would definitely regret it.”

Avery: “I haven’t found Elliot yet.”

“Then you have to find him as soon as possible. What if he doesn’t want to commit suicide? Isn’t it common in social news that rich people commit suicide because of financial problems?” Gwen was not cursing, but really worried about him.

Although the two brother and sister had never met, Gwen could feel that Elliot was a cold and arrogant person.

“Avery, you don’t need to worry about my affairs. I’ve calmed down now. It’s just a trivial matter for me. There’s no need to trouble others at all.” Gwen said.

“Well, I won’t go back to Aryadelle for the time being. If you need help urgently, you should still contact Ben Schaffer.” Avery reminded, “ When I first met Elliot, I was often scolded by Elliot.”

“You are so nice, why did he scold you?” Gwen was puzzled.

“I wasn’t that good at the beginning. Everyone has changed little by little. Some people are getting better and some people are getting worse. Gwen, I hope you can get better.”

Gwen’s cheeks Fever: “Do you always nagging like this? I haven’t had a mother since I was a child. You make me feel like I have an extra mother.”

Avery: “...”

“Do you think Ben Schaffer will know that Elliot is going? Where is it? If he knows, I will move to his house and help you find out.” Gwen disliked her nagging, but she was very moved, so she wanted to help her.

“Ben Schaffer and Elliot have an extraordinary relationship... But if you want to move to his house, he won’t let you go. And you are a girl who moved there...” Avery raised concerns.

“Don’t worry. I’m pregnant now, and he can’t do anything to me. I’ll move in tonight. I’ll contact you when I find out about Elliot.” Gwen said indifferently.

Gwen hung up After getting on the phone, start packing.

Avery looked at the call that was hung up, a little dazed.

Gwen helped her like this, which made her a little embarrassed.
