Chapter 1216

It has been almost a week since Elliot came Yonroeville.

After Kyrie took him to understand most of the industries he is now involved in, he asked him for a drink and a chat.

“You shouldn’t have been in contact with people in Aryadelle these days, right?” Kyrie said ‘people in Aryadelle’, referring to Avery.

“I have missed my phone.” Elliot raised his glass and took a sip, “I told you last time.”

“Yes, I didn’t forget about it. I sent someone to rummage the villa several times, and I also sent someone to the airport. I searched but I didn’t find your phone. You probably didn’t bring it on the plane.” Kyrie said frankly.

“I’m answering your last question.” Elliot put down his wine glass and looked at the night on the terrace in the distance. “I lost my phone, so I didn’t contact anyone.”

“Hahaha! If you want to contact people in Aryadelle, even if you lose your phone, there are many ways to do it. Didn’t I send someone to buy you a new phone? Avery’s number, You must remember? If you want to contact her, you can contact her at any time. As far as I know, she was looking for you.” Kyrie teased.

“How did you find out?” Elliot frowned. frown.

Elliot didn’t like his privacy being offended and he didn’t like being investigated.

Kyrie raised his eyebrows: “I didn’t check any of your privacy. I just called Ben Schaffer and chatted casually. Ben Schaffer was worried about you. He also tested me and asked me if I had seen you before. I asked him if Avery ran away with that fool named Adrian, and he said...” Kyrie said this, deliberately selling out.

Elliot saw him holding up the wine glass, so he picked up the wine glass and touched it with him.

“Ben Schaffer said that Avery was looking for you and wanted to save you.” Kyrie’s deep eagle eyes looked at Elliot, “Elliot, how are you thinking? Listen to my advice once. If you go back to Aryadelle now, although you still have some assets on hand, but to those real rich people, you are nothing. Even if you and Avery get together again, relying on Avery’s Tate Industries, you can barely make it into the upper class.”

Kyrie continued, "And after a long time, if you fail to make a comeback, maybe Avery will despise you. Women are the most snobbish. Even if Avery is not like that. A woman, but if she can hurt you once, she can hurt you countless times. Elliot, if you fall once or twice in one place, it can be said to be careless. That is truly hopeless."

Kyrie pointed to the exit, "If you think what I said is wrong, you can leave. If you leave this time, our brothers will return to the bridge road in the future. I will give Others, only give one chance. And I have given you several chances. I treat you differently from others. You should be able to feel it."

Elliot drank the wine in his glass.

"I'll give you An answer tomorrow." Elliot put down his glass and strode away.

Kyrie looked at his tall back and let out a deep breath. "It's really tough. I gave him such attractive conditions, and he still has to consider it."

The assistant said, "Don't you just admire Elliot? If he really agreed to follow you, he would definitely not betray you. "

Kyrie sighed, I'm afraid he won't bow his head. I pity him, but he refuses to submit to me. I really don't know what kind of magic and soul medicine that Avery gave Elliot, and he actually made him surrender. Give up your own country. It's really evil."

Heroes from ancient times have been saddened by beauty."

"What kind of beauty is Avery?"

"You think Avery is not beautiful, but Elliot thinks she is beautiful."

"Hehe, if he forgets Avery and brings Avery to him, do you think he will still be fascinated by her?" Kyrie was very curious.

The assistant said cautiously, "Maybe, maybe not. After all, no one can predict what his temperament will be after the operation. Besides, he hasn't agreed to the operation yet."

Kyrie's expression was inscrutable, "I think Elliot is shaken. I looked at him tonight, and it seemed to be shaken."

The assistant said, "Then don't I want to congratulate you in advance? If Elliot completely lost his memory, wouldn't he be at your mercy?"

What the h-e-l-l are you thinking about? I'm sure I can't mess with his mind. I'm pointing him to make money for me." Kyrie took out a cigar, and the assistant immediately took out a lighter and lit it for him.

In the dark night, the flames rise.

Elliot returned to the villa where he stayed.

Alcohol on top, spread to limbs and bones. There was a dull pain in the temple.

After changing his slippers, he walked towards the living room sofa.

The nanny who took care of his daily life saw him coming back and immediately came over: "Mr. Foster, do you need anything?"

Chapter 1217

"Give me a glass of water." Elliot sat down on the sofa and simply ordered.

The nanny immediately brought a glass of water and handed it to him.

He took the water glass, took a sip, and began to think about the consequences he would face after the operation.

–Before today, he hadn't really thought about it.

–What Kyrie Jobin said to him tonight made his dead heart ignite a lingering hatred.

–He would not have been lonely here.

–Why did he fall like this?

–Does his life really have to be wasted in such a senseless way?

–He was not reconciled.

–Whether he is Elliot or Nathan's illegitimate son, his life should not be destroyed and defined by anyone.

—He doesn't want anyone to look up to him, what he wants is that others can't look up to him.

After putting the water glass down, he said to the nanny, "Give me a pen and a notepad."

The nanny immediately went to get him a pen and notepad.

Elliot took the pen and notepad back to the bedroom and locked the door.

After turning on the bedroom light, he strode to the desk.

If this operation is to be done, then he needs to put some key information on paper.

In case, after the operation, he really don't remember anything, and he can have a certificate for doing things when he see this notebook in the future.

He hesitated for a few seconds before writing.

After he figured out what to write, he quickly wrote down——

——I have three children, Hayden, Layla, and Robert.

——Both of my parents died, and everyone I cared about has passed away.

Writing here, he suddenly stopped.

There was a sharp pain in his heart.

There seems to be nothing left to record.

Apart from the three children, the person he cared about most was Shea, but Shea was already dead.

And Avery... He didn't want to think of her, let alone record her name.

As long as he thinks of her face and sees her name, he feels like he has been pierced by thousands of arrows and is in pain.

The human body has a stress response. Elliot is holding the pen now and wants to write down the words 'Avery', but his fingers are shaking violently.

He couldn't write this name 'Avery' at all.

The next day, eight in the morning.

Elliot came out of the bedroom.

At a glance, he saw Kyrie Jobin sitting on the sofa in the living room.

You don't need to ask, you can guess that Kyrie is forcing him to answer.

"Elliot, you're up. Let's go to breakfast first. Let's talk about business after breakfast." Kyrie got up with a smile and strode towards him.

Chapter 1218

Bridgedale.

Hospital, inpatient department.

Adrian opened his eyes and saw Cole, his gentle eyes suddenly became extremely cold.

Avery told him that he should treat Cole as air.

Because he is a patient now, even if he ignores Cole, Cole will not be angry.

"Uncle, are you awake?" Cole saw Adrian open his eyes, and immediately said with a smile, "I bought you a tonic soup and put it in a thermos box, and I'll give it to you now. You can drink it yourself. Do you need to feed?"

Of course Cole didn't want to feed him.

Adrian just had one kidney removed, his hands were fine, and he had absolutely no problem eating.

Adrian looked at Cole coldly and shook his head.

“Aren’t you hungry?” Cole’s smile solidified and persuaded, “You haven’t eaten for so long, how can you not be hungry? If you don’t eat, it will affect your recovery.”

Cole looked forward to his early discharge from the hospital, so of course take good care of him.

Adrian still shook his head.

“Are you really not hungry, or don’t want me to feed you?” Cole looked at his haggard appearance and began to think of a way, “How about I let Avery feed you?”

Adrian nodded.

Cole cursed in his heart: ‘Saying you are a fool, you know how to pick someone to serve you.’

Cole put down the insulation box, took out his mobile phone, and dialed Avery.

Not long after, Avery came to the ward.

“Cole, you go out first. You are here to affect my mood.” Avery sat down beside the hospital bed.

“Ha ha ha! Avery, you are really interesting. It was Elliot who took the initiative to transfer the equity to Adrian, and it wasn’t me who forced him with a knife.” The reason why Cole mentioned this was to deliberately disgust her, “Now If you ignore my love, you won’t be able to climb high in the future.” After Cole finished speaking, he strode out.

After the door of the ward was closed, Avery opened the thermos cup, and a strong fragrance overflowed, making people greedy.

“Avery, when will he leave?” Adrian asked.

“It’s coming.” Avery raised the head of the bed and fed him soup, “you just need to remember my words and ignore Cole.”

“I ignored Cole. But I don’t want to see him. He’s here, I can only sleep with my eyes closed.” Adrian’s voice was dull, “How is my sister?”

“Shea woke up for a while today, and her body is much weaker than yours. So I haven’t told her about you yet. It’s her brother. I’m afraid she’s too emotional and her body can’t stand it.”

Adrian replied, “Avery, I’ll drink soup myself.”

He took the soup bowl and quickly finished the soup.

After handing her the empty bowl, Adrian looked out the window.

“Avery, go back quickly. It’s getting dark.” While Adrian hoped that she would go home to rest soon, he was reluctant to let her go, “Will you come to see me tomorrow?”

“As long as you don’t want to eat tomorrow, I will come and feed you.” Avery gave him an idea.

The corner of Adrian’s mouth raised a happy smile.

At this time, in Aryadelle, the morning light sprinkled the sky and the earth like gold.

It was seven o’clock in the morning, and the villa area was quiet, as if it had not changed from the dark night.

Gwen dragged her suitcase and appeared at the door of Ben Schaffer’s house. She took out the eye drops from her pocket and put it into her eyes.

After two lines of tears, she took a deep breath and rang the doorbell.

In the villa, Ben Schaffer woke up from his dream when he heard the knock on the door, and hurriedly came out of the bedroom with his slippers on.

The sound of ‘bang bang bang’ was like a drum, clearly reaching his ears.

Ben immediately turned back to the bedroom, picked up his mobile phone, and was ready to call the police at any time.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1219

Chapter 1219

After he got his mobile phone, he strode to the door and saw Gwen’s face on the access control display, a burst of fire and black smoke coming from his head.

He has changed the password of the courtyard gate, how did Gwen enter his courtyard?

Apart from jumping over the wall, he couldn’t think of any other possibility.

He opened the door in order to figure out the problem.

As a result, the door opened, and Gwen immediately carried her suitcase and entered his living room.

Ben Schaffer: “!!!”

He just watched her blatantly break into his house, not knowing what to do.

Ben Schaffer said angrily, “Gwen, What are you doing?”

“I moved the house.” Gwen sat down on the sofa, holding her suitcase in both hands, watching with tears in her eyes. Looking at Ben, “someone kept knocking on my door last night. I checked the surveillance this morning, and that person was a man and a pervert... So I can’t continue to live there.”

Ben Schaffer suddenly closed Getting angry, he walked up to her and asked, “Have you called the police?”

Gwen shook her head: “I have already cancelled the lease. I thought about it...”

“Don’t cry yet. I’ll give you a new lease on life. Rent a house.” Ben Schaffer interrupted her.

Gwen shook her head and complained: “I am so beautiful, no matter where I rent, there will be perverts looking for them. I have been attracted to perverts since I was a child.”

Ben Schaffer: “.....”

“I thought about it, although I hate you very much, but your house is bigger and the security is good, so I’d better live with you.” Gwen raised her hand to wipe her tears, “Don’t worry, I will pay you the rent. The living expenses that my brother gives me every month, you don’t have to give it to me, just treat it as your rent.”

Ben Schaffer was stunned: “No... You didn’t say you don’t want your second brother, Elliot. Do you have the money?”

“I’m so miserable, you still want to severely deduct the living expenses my second brother gave me?” Gwen looked at him in disbelief.

“What do you mean by harsh deduction... You decide to give birth to a child and then give up your living expenses!”

Gwen stared at him blankly and said, "My second brother doesn't know about my pregnancy. Could it be that Have you contacted Elliot? Avery has been looking for him, if you have his whereabouts, then I will call Avery now..."

Ben Schaffer immediately stopped her: "Don't be fooling around. Avery will contact Elliot. If I can't get on Elliot, how can I contact him."

Gwen said, "It's not worth it. My second brother must have given you a lot of money in advance and asked you to transfer it to me every month. My dad will be executed in half a month. My eldest brother doesn't care about me, the second brother's whereabouts are unknown, and I will be an orphan soon."

At this moment, it goes out.

Gwen is indeed quite miserable, but also quite irritating.

As long as Ben thinks that Gwen has a wild seed of an old man in her belly, he will be dismayed.

And Gwen will live in his house in the future, and Ben will be in pain every day.

Ben: "If you don't, go and kill the child first..."

"I won't." Gwen said firmly, "Why are you not able to get along with the child in my womb? I haven't even given birth to my child yet. It doesn't take up any space in your home, could it be that you want to charge rent for two people?"

Ben Schaffer was speechless. He turned back to the room.

Gwen sighed heavily. The first move in the plan, success!

The second step is to inquire about Elliot's whereabouts.

As long as there is news about Elliot from Ben Schaffer's side, Gwen believes that he will know it immediately.

Yonroeville.

In the hospital, the doctor handed a surgical risk notice to Elliot.

"Mr. Foster, you can rest assured that even if the operation fails, you will at most maintain the status."

Elliot took the risk notice and read it carefully.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1220

Chapter 1220

“Elliot, do it.” Kyrie stood beside him and urged, “There have been 300 clinical trials, all of which have been successful.”

“Mr. Kyrie, to be precise, there are 301 successful cases. Did you forget that you also had this operation?” The doctor said with a smile.

Elliot immediately looked at Kyrie.

Kyrie laughed suddenly: “Of course I didn’t forget it, I just didn’t want to mention it.” He looked at Elliot, “Do you know Rocky? I heard that he is a golden retriever who has been by my side for 20 years.”

“I know, Rocky is died.”

“Yes, people around me told me the same. I had surgery to clear the memory of it. So I don’t remember my feelings for it now,” Kyrie said, his face was slightly red, “I didn’t expect that I would have such deep feelings for a dog. It’s a shame to say it, so I didn’t tell you about my surgery.”

“You really don’t remember Rocky?” Elliot was shocked and look at him.

Kyrie nodded: “Do you think I’m smiling so happily, like pretending? I hate dogs now, and I would never keep a dog, let alone develop feelings for a dog.”

Elliot looked at the smile on his face not as pretentious.

Afterwards, Elliot signed his name on the risk notice.

.....

Time flies, three days have passed.

Adrian can be discharged from the hospital in another day.

Cole’s spirit was obviously high. Today he ordered a luxurious lunch for Adrian.

After lunch was delivered to the hospital, he immediately called Avery and asked her to feed Adrian.

Cole is now inseparable from Adrian. The more critical it is, the more it is necessary to ensure the safety of Adrian.

Cole knew that Avery was not willing to return Adrian to him, so he had to guard Avery strictly.

Adrian frowned, "Avery, Cole said just now that I can be discharged from the hospital tomorrow. But I feel that my body is still very weak, can I really be discharged from the hospital?"

Before Avery could speak, Cole took the lead and answered: "Of course you can be discharged. You have been in the hospital for a week. If you feel very weak, when I take you back to Aryadelle, I will hire a super nannie to take care of you. Or you can go to the hospital if you want. I'll arrange an intensive care unit for you."

Adrian looked at Avery.

Avery reassured, "Adrian, don't be afraid. Cole is your nephew, he will definitely not harm you. You will have an examination tomorrow, and if the result of the examination is ok, you can go back to Aryadelle with him."

"What if there is something wrong with my test results?" Adrian asked.

Cole comforted, "Uncle, you won't have a problem. If you have a problem, the doctor would have treated you long ago. I know you can't bear Avery. Don't worry, her home is also in Aryadelle. Wait for her in the future. When you return to Aryadelle, I will arrange for the two of you to meet."

Adrian lost his appetite immediately: "I'm full."

Cole glanced at the rest of the lunch on the table: "Uncle, how much do you want to eat? If you can't eat it, forget it, and when you return to Aryadelle, I will let someone cook you delicious food from the mountains and seas every day."

Avery packed up the leftovers and left the ward with a garbage bag.

Cole's cell phone rang. Seeing that it was his father's call, he immediately took it: "Dad, don't worry, everything is normal here. I will bring Adrian back to Aryadelle tomorrow."

"What is Avery's attitude?" Henry asked.

"What attitude can she have? Could it be that she can still kidnap Adrian? Haha! I think she has already accepted her fate. It's not good if she doesn't accept her fate." Cole smiled wickedly.

"That's right, now that she doesn't have Elliot's backer, what else can she do?" Henry laughed.

Cole suddenly changed the subject: "I don't know what my aunt's situation is now."

"Aren't you going to visit her? Anyway, she's your aunt." Henry smiled restrained.

Cole said, "They won't let me see. At first they said she was in the intensive care unit and she was not allowed to visit. I thought that after so many days, it is impossible for her to be still in the intensive care unit."

"It's easy to say. But don't worry about other things, the most important thing right now is to bring Adrian back to Aryadelle safely." Henry was eager to learn, "I've already ordered a big meal for you."

"Okay!"

Avery went from Adrian's ward After coming out, went to Wesley.

Wesley was in the intensive care unit and was taking care of Shea.

Shea was transferred from the intensive care unit yesterday.
