Chapter 1281

The black Car was in a position diagonally behind them, and they followed unhurriedly.

Elliot looked at the road in front of him, and said, "Stop in a place with fewer people."

"Okay." The driver immediately accelerated and drove the car to a nearby road with fewer people.

The bodyguard turned around behind him.

As a result, the car turned around and saw Elliot's car parked beside him.

The bodyguard slammed into the brakes and slammed the car to a halt.

Elliot got out of the car and strode to the bodyguard's car.

The bodyguard let out a low curse and lowered the car window.

Elliot saw his face, and the emotion in his eyes was unexpected but not unexpected.

Most people don't follow this blatantly.

"Avery asked you to follow me?" Elliot asked with a gloomy expression.

Bodyguard: "Yes! If it wasn't for my boss's order, why would I follow you? Wouldn't I sleep well at home? So, please don't trouble me, I'm just a hard worker."

Elliot's jaw tightened, "Why did she ask you to follow me?"

The bodyguard said truthfully, "She wants to know your address. Mr. Foster, can you tell me your address? This way I can leave work early. My boss said, if I can't follow your address, so let me follow you for a day today. You don't want me to be with you for a day, right?"

Elliot's eyes were unpredictable, and he threatened in a low voice, "Avery is not afraid of death, and you are not afraid of death?"

"Of course I'm scared to death. My boss asks her to trouble you if you get angry, don't hit me." The bodyguard confessed, "Mr. Foster, in fact, my boss wants your address, not necessarily to harass you and your new wife. ...She may be afraid that you will be killed one day, so she can collect your body for you."

Elliot's eyelids jumped.

–Did her bodyguard speak human language?

–He is alive and well, why curse him to death?

“Avery has already found out that Kyrie is in great danger now.” The bodyguard revealed Avery's good intentions.

“Since you already know that this place is full of danger, why didn't you bring her back to Aryadelle?”

“I wanted to bring her back to Aryadelle too, but she wouldn't listen. She's always been like this. Seriously, if you don't tell me the address, maybe she will drive after you tomorrow.” The bodyguard threatened Elliot.

Unexpectedly, the intimidation succeeded.

After the bodyguard got Elliot's address, he whistled and drove away immediately.

20 minutes later, the bodyguard took Elliot's address and showed it off in front of Avery.

“Boss, how is my efficiency?”

“Do you want me to praise you, or give you bonuses?” Avery came out of Xander's ward.

Xander originally came to perform surgery on her, but now she is not hospitalized, but Xander is hospitalized.

“I want you to give me bonuses while complimenting me.” The bodyguard handed the note with Elliot's address to Avery, “Boss, although I got his address, it's not his home, it's Miss Jobin. If you go there to make trouble, the Jobin family's bodyguards will definitely not show mercy to you. “

Avery glanced at the address and put it in his pocket.

“Although my skills are good, there is still a big problem with one against ten.” The bodyguard confessed, “So don't do stupid things that kill you.”

Avery said, “Do I look like such a brainless person? You did a good job today, and I'll give you a bonus. You help me watch Xander here. I'll go to the vice president.”

“Oh, is your classmate so seriously injured? You have to go to the vice president.”

Avery didn't answer him. She went to the vice president, not for Xander's business.

Although Xander suffered a fractured rib, it was not serious. Recover in a few days.

She went to the vice president to see the results of Elliot's review today. She came to the vice president's office, but the vice president was not there.

She waited outside the office for a while, but she didn't wait for anyone, so she could only go to the radiology department to see if the radiology department could show her Elliot's films.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1282

Chapter 1282

The driver sent Elliot to the villa.

After the car stopped, Elliot got out of the car.

Rebecca walked out of the room briskly in a fiery red dress.

"Elliot, how's the test result?"

Elliot: "It's okay. The doctor told me to rest more."

Rebecca took his arm and entered the living room with him.

"Then don't be so busy next. If you're embarrassed to tell Dad, I'll tell him." Rebecca frowned slightly, "Dad only knows to let you work, and doesn't care about your health at all. To me, nothing is as important as you."

"Rebecca, why are you dressed up so beautifully today?" Elliot glanced at the red dress on her body with deep eyes and pulled the topic away.

Rebecca smiled excitedly: "Because there will be a mysterious guest coming tonight. I won't tell you first, you'll find out later tonight."

Elliot nodded: "It's your birthday soon, what birthday gift do you want?"

Rebecca's cheeks were slightly red, and she said with embarrassment: "There is no one who asks for a birthday present. I want whatever you give me. I am happy with whatever you give me. As long as it is given by you, I will cherish it well."

Every word of Rebecca made him feel comfortable.

On the contrary, Avery gave him a headache as soon as he opened his mouth.

Intuition told him that he should choose Rebecca, a knowledgeable, docile, docile and virtuous woman, but he thought of Avery more often in his heart.

"Rebecca, do you want to go shopping? Let's take you out to buy gifts in the afternoon!"

After he made the proposal, Rebecca smiled and stood on tiptoe and kissed his chin: "Thank you husband. I heard that you didn't eat in the morning. You must be hungry now? I made soup for you and made your favorite dish, go and try it."

"Well."

The time flickered, and it was evening.

After Avery had dinner, she drove to Elliot and Rebecca's residence. She didn't dare to park the car at the gate of the front yard of their villa. After she parked the car beside the fence, she carried a bag and got out of the car.

She took a deep breath, walked to the gate of the courtyard, passed the railing gate, and glanced into the courtyard.

Under the glow of the sunset, she could see a lot of flowers and trees planted on the left side of the front yard, and an artificial rockery pond on the right side.

The environment was quiet and the scenery was pleasant. It's not dark yet, but the lights in the yard were all turned on.

The door of the villa was closed, and the lights inside could only be seen through the window, but the scene inside could not be seen clearly.

Avery pursed her red lips, took a deep breath, and then pressed the doorbell.

Soon, the nanny opened the door of the villa and walked out.

Seeing Avery, the nanny frowned.

She couldn't let Avery in.

“Ms. Tate!” the nanny said with a bit of arrogance and impatience, “the relationship between you and Mr. Foster is in the past. Now Mr. Foster and my young lady are married. And they have already been in the same room and are very affectionate. It’s her twenty-first birthday, and this afternoon, Mr. Foster took our young lady out to pick out gifts.”

Avery said, “they are married, isn’t it normal for them to be in the same room? Why did you tell me specifically? Could it be that the two of them have not been in the same room for the past few days?”

The nanny was so angry that her temples jumped at her words: “Ms. Tate! You are not welcome here. Please leave immediately!”

“I’m looking for Elliot, not you. You let him come out or ask your lady to come out.” Avery was not affected at all, her breath was steady, neither humble nor arrogant.

Chapter 1283

“Ms. Tate didn’t I tell you just now? They went shopping for gifts in the afternoon and haven’t come back yet.” The nanny glared at her and said, “I have never seen a shameless woman like you. It’s been made clear that I don’t want you, yet you dare to come here.”

Avery pursed her lips and clenched her fingers holding the bag tightly.

“You’d better leave quickly. Otherwise, when our eldest young master comes to see you later, he won’t be so patient to reason with you. He may kill you directly.” After the nanny said this ruthlessly, Turn around and walk towards the villa.

Master?

The eldest young master of the Jobin family?

Avery’s source of information on Kyrie came from Nick.

Nick only told her about the troubles Kyrie was facing now, but did not tell her about Kyrie’s family situation.

So she didn't understand what the nanny said about the eldest young master.

She promised the bodyguard that she would not die in vain. She didn't come to die, she came to deliver medicine to Elliot.

At noon, she went to the radiology department to find a doctor, and asked for a CT scan performed by Elliot today. She carefully checked Elliot's film, and after watching it, she found a small problem.

She stood outside the courtyard gate for less than a quarter of an hour, and two luxury cars came from not far away.

While Avery was looking at the two cars, one of the cars maliciously turned on the high beams and deliberately hit her with the high beams.

The strong light stabbed her to raise her arm to block her eyes.

"Who is that woman?" Cristian Jobin, the eldest young master of the Jobin family, who was sitting in the passenger seat, turned to ask his sister.

Cristian asked the driver to turn on the high beam just now.

Rebecca frowned and said gloomily, "That's Elliot's wife in Aryadelle. But Elliot and her only had a wedding in Aryadelle, and they didn't get a marriage certificate."

Cristian: "Oh, Avery, right?"

Rebecca whispered, "Yes. I don't know how she got here. I hate it."

A look of unhappiness appeared in Cristian's eyes, and he looked at Elliot: "Elliot, my sister is the jewel of our Jobin family. She has never been angry since she was a child. Don't dare to make my sister feel wronged."

"Brother, Elliot didn't make me feel wronged. The last time Avery came over, Elliot pushed her down directly. She was shameless and insisted on pestering Elliot. Elliot has already expressed his attitude to her." Rebecca quickly replied brother explained.

"If that's the case, then I'll get out of the car and kill her." Cristian's voice settled, and the driver drove the car to Avery and stopped.

The tense atmosphere spread, Rebecca looked at Elliot-

Rebecca immediately stopped her eldest brother: "Brother, this is the marriage room of Elliot and mine, don't kill people here. I will kill her. you Just drive away."

Rebecca got out of the car quickly and strode to Avery.

After the two men got out of the car, Cristian took out a cigarette and handed it to Elliot.

“Avery, what are you doing at my house?” Rebecca asked arrogantly.

Avery’s eyes eyes fell on Elliot.

“You can’t smoke.” Avery strode in front of Elliot, snatched the cigarette he took from Cristian’s hand, threw it on the ground, and handed him the medicine she brought, “There is something wrong with your re-examination results today. This is medicine, and the instructions for taking it are written on it. You take the medicine on time and go to the hospital for a review in a week.”

Out of the corner of Elliot’s eyes, he saw Cristian’s killing intent towards her, and immediately opened the medicine she handed over: “Avery, get out.”

Rebecca heard that there was a problem with the re-examination results, and asked nervously: “Avery, the doctor said that Elliot’s re-examination was fine. Why do you say that Elliot has a problem? Are you deliberately looking for an excuse to see Elliot?”

“Rebecca, Please ignore Avery. You bring eldest brother in first, and I’ll let her leave immediately.” Elliot’s voice was settled, and Rebecca immediately pulled Cristian into the yard.

Elliot looked at Avery with a cold and complicated expression.

The next second, his big palm clasped her wrist tightly. Her body was violently taken away by him.

Chapter 1284

He took her to her car.

“Open the door!” he shouted sharply.

“Your re-examination results are not ideal, did you not go to Vice President Lewis?” Avery handed the medicine to him again. Her tone was more severe than his, “You must avoid smoking and drinking recently, I don’t care about the Jobin family. What’s the matter, young master, you can’t make fun of your body.”

“I told you to open the car door!” He raised his voice and slammed his clenched fist on the car without warning.

‘Bang’ with a loud bang!

Avery shrank her neck.

“I’m leaving, I’m leaving now!” Avery was suffocated by the powerful aura around him.

She stuffed the medicine into his arms and pushed his body away.

She opened the car door and looked back at him before entering the car.

“Elliot, I won’t pester you all the time. I’m afraid that you will regret it after regaining your memory. If you recover your memory someday, come and tell me that the current life is the life you want, and I will leave.” Avery After saying these words, she got into the car and closed the door.

After the car disappeared in front of his eyes, he threw the medicine she stuffed into the trash can next to him.

After filming today, the doctor told him that he was recovering well. He believed that the doctor would not lie to him.

He strode into the front yard and into the villa.

Rebecca was talking on the phone with her cell phone.

Seeing him come in, Rebecca greeted the person on the phone and hung up the phone.

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

“Elliot, I called Vice President Lewis just now and asked about your review. He said you didn’t go to him after the examination today.” Rebecca frowned worriedly, “He said he listened to radiology. The doctor said your film is fine. But I told him that Avery said there was a problem with your review, so he’s going to adjust your film now.”

After Rebecca finished speaking, Cristian laughed at the side: “Rebecca, you have never cared about me so much.”

"It's different. Brother, you have so many people who care about you, but Elliot is the only one now." Rebecca walked up to the big brother and said, "Big brother, how long are you going to stay here this time?"

"My father told me to come back. He didn't tell me to go." Cristian said, looking at Elliot, "Elliot, you married my sister, and I want you to stay drunk tonight."

"Big brother! Elliot just had surgery, he can't drink now." Rebecca refused for Elliot.

"But how did I hear that he drank with his father last night? He could give his life to drank with his father, but not with me? Is he looking down on me?" Cristian's words, both inside and out, were putting pressure on Elliot.

He was admonishing Elliot that he was the master of the Jobin family.

Moreover, in the Jobin family's site, the Jobin family's eyeliner is everywhere.

Elliot's every move is under his control.

"I'll accompany you to drink." Elliot said indifferently and took a sip.

"It's almost the same. Otherwise, I thought you looked down on me." Cristian said angrily, leaning on Elliot's shoulder, and strode towards the dining room.

Rebecca watched the two of them take their seats in the dining room. She held her mobile phone and anxiously waited for Vice President Lewis's reply.

Today, her father is away, and she can't find him to help her. The eldest brother has always had a bad temper and doesn't listen to anyone.

If he gets Elliot drunk and causes Elliot to suffer from physical problems, his father will definitely punish him. And Cristian would definitely hate Elliot for that.

Rebecca didn't want the relationship between Cristian and Elliot to deteriorate.

After a while, the phone rang, and Rebecca immediately answered the call.

After answering the phone, Rebecca walked towards the dining room in shock.

She snatched the glass from Elliot's hand and said, "Elliot, just now Vice President Lewis said that there is indeed something wrong with your re-examination results. It may have been caused by drinking with Dad yesterday. You can't drink today. You drink milk, I'll accompany you. "

Elliot's eyes flickered with a fleeting surprise.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1285

Chapter 1285

Avery didn't just find a reason to see him tonight, but his review result was really wrong.

...

On the way back to the hospital, Avery felt a lot of pain.

She went to the radiologist at noon to ask for Elliot's CT scans. The doctor took out the black notepad and said that Elliot threw it in the trash can. Elliot must have thrown away the medicine she just gave him.

She turned on the car music, and the melody flowed out, making her forget her troubles for a while.

The red light ahead came on and she stopped the car.

A low male voice sang in his ears –

“I want to walk with you in the rain with an umbrella, and walk silently holding hands. You throw the umbrella in the wind and hug the rain and me. We are completely different but irresistible... You are you, I can be me, each other is a gap for each other...”

She wanted to accompany Elliot through the wind and rain, but he held another woman's hand.

She planned to listen to the song to relieve her pain, but before she finished listening to a song, her mood had completely collapsed.

The red light is dimmed, the green light is on.

She stepped on the accelerator and drove the car out.

The ringtone of the video call rang. She saw that Hayden was calling, so she drove the car to the side of the road and stopped, turned off the music, wiped the tears from her face with a tissue, and adjusted her mood.

After taking the video, she saw her son's face and the corners of her mouth rose.

"Hayden, is Layla going home?"

This chapter is provided . Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

"Well." Hayden looked at her mother's red eyes. Although Avery was laughing but she clearly cried.

Seeing her mother like this, Hayden's heart was heavy.

Hayden handed phone to Layla and walked away silently.

"Mom! I'm not happy." Layla just got up, a little angry, "I haven't seen you for a long time."

Avery coaxed, "Aren't you going to see mom now? Mom can make videos for you every day. Have you seen my aunt?"

Layla sighed, "Yes! She has been picked up by Uncle Ben. when will you be back? Now that Dad has a new wife, you Don't want him. If he makes one mistake, we can forgive him, and if he makes two mistakes, we can forgive him, but this time, it's the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth time he's made a mistake."

Avery said softly, "Layla, Your father's affairs are a bit complicated, and your mother will not explain it to you for a while. Your mother'll tell you when she goes back."

Layla frowned, "Oh... my brother has already run away. He runs like a duckling, but unfortunately you can't see it. I'm not happy, neither is my brother, only my brother Robert is happy like a little fool every day."

Avery was silent. She didn't know how to comfort her daughter.

The change in her relationship with Elliot will definitely have a huge impact on the child.

After a while, Hayden took the phone from Layla's hand.

"Mom, are you driving? You drive first, and I'll make a video with you tomorrow."

"Well." After the video ended, Avery cheered up and drove the car back on the road.

In the villa.

After Rebecca drank two glasses of wine with her eldest brother Cristian, her cheeks suddenly flushed and her eyes were blurred.

Elliot supported her and said to Cristian, "I'll take Rebecca back to the room to rest first. I'll drink with you later."

Cristian felt very boring.

"Forget it. Rebecca will definitely blame me if I drink you out." Cristian put down the glass and sneered, "We will have a chance to fight in the future, so don't be in a hurry."
