Chapter 1361

I met Rebecca in the hospital. She was troubled by her pregnancy. Because Elliot refused to touch her or have children with her.

I think Elliot should have you in his heart, so he refused to touch Rebecca. At that moment, I immediately understood why you came to Yonroeville to look for him regardless of your life. Because the two of you are a match made in heaven, and no matter what happens, it will never let you separate.

At the time of writing this email, I still feel that you will end up together because I believe in true love.

You can probably guess what happened next. I transferred the embryo from your body to Rebecca, who promised to help us leave the country.

I am writing this email to you, firstly, to confess my mistakes to you and ask you to forgive me. The second is to tell you that the children of Rebecca and Elliot are actually the flesh and blood of you and Elliot.

If you want to find this child, then you go to Yonroeville to find him now. It is not known whether the child is a boy or a girl. But I believe that Kyrie should treat him well.]

Finished writing the email in one breath, Xander didn't want to review it, and clicked the send button directly.

The interface is immediately displayed: Successfully sent , there is a prompt attached below: The email will be sent to Avery in 18 years (*yearmonth*day*).

Closing the notebook, he came out of the room.

Avery slept all day. When it was getting dark in the evening, the bodyguard asked the housekeeping manager to brush open the door of her room.

The bodyguard was worried about her accident.

After brushing the door open, she heard movement and immediately opened her eyes to wake up.

"Boss, are you alright?" The bodyguard scratched his head, "You've been sleeping all day, I worried about you."

Avery immediately sat up from the bed: "What time is it?"

"It's 6:30 in the evening."

"Oh...no wonder I'm so hungry."

"Get up quickly, Xander and I will wait for you at the hotel restaurant." After the bodyguard finished speaking, he strode out of the room.

At dinner, Xander offered to let her go to the hospital tomorrow.

Avery was eating and seemed to be thinking about something.

"Boss, you're going to the hospital tomorrow, are you okay?" The bodyguard repeated Xander's words.

Avery suddenly came back to her senses: "I will be hospitalized tomorrow."

Xander: "Then when do you want to be hospitalized?"

"Then tomorrow. You can do it anytime, and you can't go now anyway. Just thinking of the surgery, I'm a little scared." Avery held up the water glass and took a sip of water. "When you perform surgery on others, you are not afraid of anything. Now it's your turn, and you can finally feel the patient's nervousness."

Xander laughed at himself: "You don't worry about me. If you were the one who performed the operation on me, I would definitely not panic."

Avery laughed loudly: "I'm not really worried about your technique. This operation is just a small case for you. I just want to go ahead of time. I want to buy a wig. But it's very late today, and I don't know the wig store is closed or not."

For craniotomy, part of the hair will be shaved according to the surgery site. In case the surgery shaves off more hair, it is necessary to wear a wig.

Xander smiled, "We'll go buy a wig after dinner, just in case. Don't worry, I'll keep your hair as long as possible."

"Well."

"Boss, you are beautiful, even if you shave your head. I think, you might look a beautiful woman." The bodyguard complimented, "The most important thing is that hair can grow back. Health is the most important thing. When you finish the operation, maybe we can leave this place."

Xander: "Yes, wait. After your surgery, maybe we can go."

"You two really comfort people." Avery was a little depressed, but because of their company, she felt better.

Chapter 1362

On the other side, in the villa.

Elliot and Rebecca were sitting in the dining room and having dinner.

"Elliot, why did you go out so early this morning?" Rebecca spoke cautiously, breaking the silence.

"Your father asked me to accompany him to your sister-in-law's house." Elliot said lightly, and then changed the subject, "What did you think about what I told you last night?"

Rebecca said, "I've thought about it. I won't force you. But I can't have that kind of relationship with your bodyguard. Elliot, I'm your wife. I won't do that kind of thing with other men except you."

Elliot Seeing her stubborn tone, he frowned: "What if I never touch you in my life?"

Rebecca said sadly, "If that's the case...I won't tell my dad. I I went to the hospital today. The doctor told me that I can do test tube babies."

Elliot's eyes suddenly brightened: "That's fine. But don't let your father find out."

"I know. I will be very careful. Rebecca heard his tone soften a bit, but she was hopeful, "Can you accompany me to the sperm bank to select?"

Elliot: "Go on your own choice. I will be very busy next time." After a pause, probably thought she was a little pitiful, so he explained, "If I go to the hospital with you, you might find out."

“Oh, yes. Then I’ll go by myself.” Rebecca was very satisfied when she got his explanation, “Elliot, in fact, if we can always respect each other like this, I think it’s pretty good.”

“Do you really think so?”

Rebecca said shyly, “Well. Actually, I’m not that keen on that kind of thing. Hope you can stay by my side. My eldest brother died and now I have nothing but you and my dad.”

“You have a lot to do. Haven’t you graduated yet? You can go to school again. Make more friends.” Elliot was full and put down the dishes.

Rebecca looked at his back and probably understood what Elliot meant.

Elliot didn’t want her to be burdened.

The woman Elliot likes is a capable woman like Avery.

The next day.

Xander and his bodyguards sent Avery to the hospital.

Xander made an appointment for her in the VIP ward. Avery lived alone in a room with an accompanying bed. She looked at the escort bed with an embarrassed look on her face.

After Xander sent her to the ward, he went to help her make an appointment for the operating room.

The bodyguard sat down on the escort bed and said, “Boss, when you have surgery, I’ll be here to watch over you.”

Avery immediately refused, “I’ll find a nurse.”

“The nurse will take care of you during the day. I’ll watch over you at night.” The bodyguard was afraid that she was in danger.

Usually bad people do bad things at night.

There are doctors and nurses in the hospital during the day, so he won’t be so worried.

“Don’t you worry about me?” The bodyguard shouted when Avery saw the strange expression on her face, “Then let Xander watch over you at night, I’ll watch you during the day.”

Avery: “...”

“Well, the hospital gown is pretty good-looking, you should put it on quickly.” The bodyguard took her speechlessness as a tacit consent, and stuffed the hospital gown into her arms at the same time.

Avery took her sick clothes to the bathroom and put them on.

Putting on her sick clothes, she looked at herself in the mirror. Although it was a low point right now, she believed that after the low point, life would definitely improve.

After coming out of the bathroom, she lay down on the hospital bed, picked up her mobile phone, and wanted to notify Mike about her surgery.

After the mother died, apart from the child, Mike was her closest friend.

She dialed Mike’s phone, and she quietly waited for the call to be connected.

A few seconds later, Mike answered the phone: “Avery, did you know it all? Hey, I’m sorry for you this time. I really want to hammer myself to death.”

Mike was stunned for a moment, “What happened? What happened? What’s the matter?”

Chapter 1363

Avery suddenly forgot to call him to say that she was about to undergo surgery.

“Ah? Don’t you know? I thought someone told you about the company, so you came to me to settle the account.” Mike said awkwardly.

“No wonder you didn’t call me recently. It turns out that something happened to the company.” Avery took a deep breath and asked, “The company is going bankrupt?”

"I did it. Didn't I tell you that I was abandoned before? That person came to me. He didn't come to me directly. He unknowingly stole our company's core technology and gave it to Wanda. He didn't ask Wanda to receive a penny. He did it just to get my attention. This sh*t!"

"Your ex?"

"Well. Forgot to tell you, he's also a hacker. And... His skills are better than mine. So I f*cking checked a few nights before I found out that it was him."

Avery was stunned and didn't know what to say.

Mike: "I've already let him go. But our core technology has almost been stolen."

Avery: "Uh..." She really didn't know what to say.

This incident was too bloody and sudden, beyond her comprehension.

"Avery, scold me. I know that the Tate Industries is your hard work, so I never dared to call you..." Mike blamed himself.

"It's okay... don't feel bad. Although it's important, it's not as important as you." Avery comforted, "I'm not angry. Really."

Mike: "Why aren't you angry?"

Avery: "Because I suddenly found out Nothing is more important than a healthy body."

"Are you... sick?" Mike doubted, "Only sick people would say such things."

"Yeah. I'm calling you to tell you that I'm going to have a minor surgery. I can't make videocall with my child these days."

Mike said, "I'll watch the child, you don't have to worry about it. What kind of minor surgery?"

Considering Mike's current self-blame, Avery didn't want him to worry, so she downplayed it: "A minor gynecological surgery."

Mike didn't ask any further.

Afternoon.

Avery fell into a daze, and suddenly there was a rush of footsteps in his ears.

She opened her eyes suddenly.

After a while, Xander pushed open the door and walked in.

“Avery, are you awake? I made an appointment for tomorrow’s examination for you. Before the operation, you will have a detailed examination.”

Avery asked, “Well, you are my attending doctor now, and I will listen to you. What happened outside?”

“Did you hear that?” Xander walked to the bedside, “Kyrie fell at home and fainted. He was rushed to the hospital just now.”

Emergency Building.

After Kyrie was sent to the emergency room, his men stood outside the door, waiting anxiously.

“I wonder if you have heard of the world’s top neurologist? That doctor is now in our hospital.” A doctor stood beside him and spoke to Lorenzo Paquette, Kyrie’s confidant.

Lorenzo frowned: “Take me to that doctor.”

The doctor immediately took Lorenzo to the ward where Avery stayed.

After a while, Avery was taken to the door of the emergency room. She saw Elliot at a glance.

Elliot also looked at her... to be precise, looking at the hospital clothes on Avery and frowned.

Chapter 1364

“Avery, although my boss doesn’t like you very much, if you can cure my boss, I will help you speak nicely in front of him.” Lorenzo said in a rough voice.

Rebecca questioned, "Avery, are you really that powerful? However, if you can cure my father, I will also speak for you in front of my father."

Elliot turned sideways and pulled out his phone from pocket and send a message to Avery.

Avery's phone vibrated lightly. She turned on her phone and saw the message from Elliot.

There were only this message – 'No'.

Elliot told her to refuse to see Kyrie Jobin.

She held the phone and said to Rebecca lightly, "I have to go first to check on your father's condition. After that I can say answer of your question."

After her voice was settled, the door of the emergency room opened.

Elliot watched her resolutely stride into the emergency room, his fingers clenched.

Avery clearly saw the message he sent her but–

–why didn't she listen to him?

–Who is Kyrie?

–Hasn't she experienced it during this time?

Not to mention Kyrie's personality, just say Kyrie's confidant Lorenzo, like Kyrie, has a cold and cruel temperament.

If Avery promised to help Kyrie to heal, but failed to cure Kyrie in the end, Lorenzo would definitely kill her.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Elliot asked her to refuse because he didn't want Avery to jump into the fire pit. Even if Avery could cure Kyrie, Kyrie would never be grateful to her.

About half an hour later, the door to the emergency room opened, and Kyrie was pushed out.

"Doctor, how is my father?" Rebecca asked the doctor who came out first.

The doctor said, "Ms. Tate said you invited her to treat Mr. Jobin..."

“Avery, you promised to treat my father? Is my father seriously injured? Does he need surgery? When will he wake up?” Rebecca asked eagerly.

“How did he get hurt?” Avery asked.

“The servant and the bodyguard said that my father fell down when he went downstairs.” Rebecca’s eyes were red, “Maybe my elder brother’s death made him a little dazed.”

“His brain hemorrhage is not too serious . . . However, further examination is needed.” Avery glanced at the bodyguards surrounding here, and said, “So many of you are here, affecting other people to see a doctor. Just leave a few people here, others first Go back.”

Lorenzo immediately said to Rebecca, “Miss Jobin, go back first. Elliot and I are guarding here, your father will be fine.”

Rebecca glanced at Elliot, and then looked uneasy. He glanced at Avery.

“You go back first.” Elliot said.

Rebecca immediately nodded meekly: “Then I’ll come back tomorrow morning.”

After the bodyguard sent Rebecca away, Avery strode towards the elevator.

Elliot and Lorenzo followed.

The elevator door opened, and Avery said to Lorenzo, “Go take care of Kyrie for an examination. After you get the results of the examination, go to the neurology inpatient department to find me.”

Lorenzo nodded and gestured to Elliot: “What?”

“He’s going to pay the fee, and there are some hospitalization procedures to be done.” Avery teased, “What? Are you afraid I’ll eat him?”

Lorenzo’s face turned black.

Several bodyguards followed into the elevator, and when the elevator door closed, Avery immediately looked at Elliot.

This is the first time they have officially met since Cristian’s death.

Avery hasn’t seen Elliot for a few days, and Elliot has lost a lot of weight.

Chapter 1365

"The inpatient department is over there, let's go." Ali, the bodyguard, saw that the two of them were standing still, so he opened his mouth to break the silence.

The three walked towards the inpatient department.

Arriving at the neurology department, Avery said to Elliot, "Let your bodyguard pay the fee."

Elliot immediately took out a card and handed it to the bodyguard.

After the bodyguard left, Avery took Elliot into the doctor's office.

There are two doctors sitting in the office. Elliot was a little surprised to see the two of them coming in.

Avery directly pulled Elliot into the bathroom attached to the office and closed the door.

"Didn't I tell you to refuse? Why didn't you listen to me?" Elliot asked Avery first.

"Why should I refuse to see Kyrie?" Avery has her own ideas. "Nick told me that as long as Kyrie dies, your promise to him will not be fulfilled."

Elliot was shocked by her bold idea. He said, "You want to take this opportunity to kill Kyrie?"

"Can't you?" Avery raised her eyebrows, "I can do it without knowing it, and I promise not to let others see that I did it."

Elliot: "Do you think they are reasonable gentlemen?"

Avery was stunned.

"If Kyrie dies accidentally, even if you didn't kill him, his subordinates would kill you. Not to mention you killed him." Elliot rejected Avery's idea.

Avery: "I don't want to kill him, do you want me to treat him? What a joke..."

Elliot looked at her gown again, and asked, "Why are you wearing a hospital gown? Are you sick?"

Avery blushed nervously, remembering the lie she told Mike, so she said:
"Gynecological disease, I need a minor surgery."

An unnatural look flashed in Elliot eyes: "Wait when they come over, You just pretend your stomach hurts and say you can't help. If Kyrie wakes up and sees you, he'll definitely remember Cristian's death! He'll never be grateful to you. Do you understand what I mean?"

"Oh.... .." Avery lowered her eyes sadly, and soon raised her eyes to look at Elliot again, "You promised Kyrie that he would never leave the Yonroeville, and you promised him to have a child with Rebecca, which is against your will, right?"

Elliot's adam's apple rolling up and down sensually.

"Elliot, if you don't let me kill Kyrie, then you can find a way to kill him." Avery's eyes suddenly turned cold, her tone even colder, "Please give me a happy answer, If I do it, or you do?"

"Are you forcing me?" Elliot frowned.

If Avery killed Kyrie rashly, her bodyguard and classmate would all have to die.

"Yes, I'm just forcing you." Avery felt like she was going crazy, if she didn't force Elliot, life would drive her crazy, "Either you don't care about my life or death. Kyrie is going to deal with me and talk to me. What does it have to do with you? You have always wanted to protect me from here. Your feelings for me, who can you deceive? Do you think your new wife, Rebecca doesn't know anything."

Elliot looked at her aggressive look. His eyes were getting thicker, and the teeth were clenched.

'Bang bang bang'. There was a knock on the door.

Ali, The bodyguard went to pay the bills and came back. He didn't see the two of them. After asking around, a doctor told him that the two of them were in the bathroom.

-Two adults in one bathroom?

–Even if the two of them were going to plot something, they won't run to the bathroom to plot it.

With a 'squeak', the bathroom door opened. Avery bent over with a pained face, while Elliot held her arm and helped her out of the bathroom.

Ali was shocked, "What's wrong? Dr. Tate, are you alright?"

Avery gasped and said intermittently, "I...I'm afraid. I can't help Kyrie because I am too sick."
