

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1366

Chapter 1366

Avery suddenly forgot to call him to say that she was about to undergo surgery.

“Ah? Don’t you know? I thought someone told you about the company, so you came to me to settle the account.” Mike said awkwardly.

“No wonder you didn’t call me recently. It turns out that something happened to the company.” Avery took a deep breath and asked, “The company is going bankrupt?”

“I did it. Didn’t I tell you that I was abandoned before? That person came to me. He didn’t come to me directly. He unknowingly stole our company’s core technology and gave it to Wanda. He didn’t ask Wanda to receive a penny. He did it just to get my attention. This sh*t!”

“Your ex?”

“Well. Forgot to tell you, he’s also a hacker. And... His skills are better than mine. So I f*cking checked a few nights before I found out that it was him.”

Avery was stunned and didn’t know what to say.

Mike: “I’ve already let him go. But our core technology has almost been stolen.”

Avery: “Uh...” She really didn’t know what to say.

This incident was too bloody and sudden, beyond her comprehension.

“Avery, scold me. I know that the Tate Industries is your hard work, so I never dared to call you...” Mike blamed himself.

“It’s okay... don’t feel bad. Although it’s important, it’s not as important as you.” Avery comforted, “I’m not angry. Really.”

Mike: “Why aren’t you angry?”

Avery: “Because I suddenly found out Nothing is more important than a healthy body.”

“Are you... sick?” Mike doubted, “Only sick people would say such things.”

“Yeah. I’m calling you to tell you that I’m going to have a minor surgery. I can’t make videocall with my child these days.”

Mike said, "I'll watch the child, you don't have to worry about it. What kind of minor surgery?"

Considering Mike's current self-blame, Avery didn't want him to worry, so she downplayed it: "A minor gynecological surgery."

Mike didn't ask any further.

Afternoon.

Avery fell into a daze, and suddenly there was a rush of footsteps in his ears.

She opened her eyes suddenly.

After a while, Xander pushed open the door and walked in.

"Avery, are you awake? I made an appointment for tomorrow's examination for you. Before the operation, you will have a detailed examination."

Avery asked, "Well, you are my attending doctor now, and I will listen to you. What happened outside?"

"Did you hear that?" Xander walked to the bedside, "Kyrie fell at home and fainted. He was rushed to the hospital just now."

Emergency Building.

After Kyrie was sent to the emergency room, his men stood outside the door, waiting anxiously.

"I wonder if you have heard of the world's top neurologist? That doctor is now in our hospital." A doctor stood beside him and spoke to Lorenzo Paquette, Kyrie's confidant.

Lorenzo frowned: "Take me to that doctor."

The doctor immediately took Lorenzo to the ward where Avery stayed.

After a while, Avery was taken to the door of the emergency room. She saw Elliot at a glance.

Elliot also looked at her... to be precise, looking at the hospital clothes on Avery and frowned.

Chapter 1367

“Avery, although my boss doesn’t like you very much, if you can cure my boss, I will help you speak nicely in front of him.” Lorenzo said in a rough voice.

Rebecca questioned, “Avery, are you really that powerful? However, if you can cure my father, I will also speak for you in front of my father.”

Elliot turned sideways and pulled out his phone from pocket and send a message to Avery.

Avery’s phone vibrated lightly. She turned on her phone and saw the message from Elliot.

There were only this message – ‘No’.

Elliot told her to refuse to see Kyrie Jobin.

She held the phone and said to Rebecca lightly, “I have to go first to check on your father’s condition. After that I can say answer of your question.”

After her voice was settled, the door of the emergency room opened.

Elliot watched her resolutely stride into the emergency room, his fingers clenched.

Avery clearly saw the message he sent her but–

–why didn’t she listen to him?

–Who is Kyrie?

–Hasn’t she experienced it during this time?

Not to mention Kyrie’s personality, just say Kyrie’s confidant Lorenzo, like Kyrie, has a cold and cruel temperament.

If Avery promised to help Kyrie to heal, but failed to cure Kyrie in the end, Lorenzo would definitely kill her.

Elliot asked her to refuse because he didn’t want Avery to jump into the fire pit. Even if Avery could cure Kyrie, Kyrie would never be grateful to her.

About half an hour later, the door to the emergency room opened, and Kyrie was pushed out.

“Doctor, how is my father?” Rebecca asked the doctor who came out first.

The doctor said, "Ms. Tate said you invited her to treat Mr. Jobin..."

"Avery, you promised to treat my father? Is my father seriously injured? Does he need surgery? When will he wake up?" Rebecca asked eagerly.

"How did he get hurt?" Avery asked.

"The servant and the bodyguard said that my father fell down when he went downstairs." Rebecca's eyes were red, "Maybe my elder brother's death made him a little dazed."

"His brain hemorrhage is not too serious . . . However, further examination is needed." Avery glanced at the bodyguards surrounding here, and said, "So many of you are here, affecting other people to see a doctor. Just leave a few people here, others first Go back."

Lorenzo immediately said to Rebecca, "Miss Jobin, go back first. Elliot and I are guarding here, your father will be fine."

Rebecca glanced at Elliot, and then looked uneasy. He glanced at Avery.

"You go back first." Elliot said.

Rebecca immediately nodded meekly: "Then I'll come back tomorrow morning."

After the bodyguard sent Rebecca away, Avery strode towards the elevator.

Elliot and Lorenzo followed.

The elevator door opened, and Avery said to Lorenzo, "Go take care of Kyrie for an examination. After you get the results of the examination, go to the neurology inpatient department to find me."

Lorenzo nodded and gestured to Elliot: "What?"

"He's going to pay the fee, and there are some hospitalization procedures to be done." Avery teased, "What? Are you afraid I'll eat him?"

Lorenzo's face turned black.

Several bodyguards followed into the elevator, and when the elevator door closed, Avery immediately looked at Elliot.

This is the first time they have officially met since Cristian's death.

Avery hasn't seen Elliot for a few days, and Elliot has lost a lot of weight.

Chapter 1368

"The inpatient department is over there, let's go." Ali, the bodyguard, saw that the two of them were standing still, so he opened his mouth to break the silence.

The three walked towards the inpatient department.

Arriving at the neurology department, Avery said to Elliot, "Let your bodyguard pay the fee."

Elliot immediately took out a card and handed it to the bodyguard.

After the bodyguard left, Avery took Elliot into the doctor's office.

There are two doctors sitting in the office. Elliot was a little surprised to see the two of them coming in.

Avery directly pulled Elliot into the bathroom attached to the office and closed the door.

"Didn't I tell you to refuse? Why didn't you listen to me?" Elliot asked Avery first.

"Why should I refuse to see Kyrie?" Avery has her own ideas. "Nick told me that as long as Kyrie dies, your promise to him will not be fulfilled."

Elliot was shocked by her bold idea. He said, "You want to take this opportunity to kill Kyrie?"

"Can't you?" Avery raised her eyebrows, "I can do it without knowing it, and I promise not to let others see that I did it."

Elliot: "Do you think they are reasonable gentlemen?"

Avery was stunned.

"If Kyrie dies accidentally, even if you didn't kill him, his subordinates would kill you. Not to mention you killed him." Elliot rejected Avery's idea.

Avery: "I don't want to kill him, do you want me to treat him? What a joke..."

Elliot looked at her gown again, and asked, "Why are you wearing a hospital gown? Are you sick?"

Avery blushed nervously, remembering the lie she told Mike, so she said: "Gynecological disease, I need a minor surgery."

An unnatural look flashed in Elliot eyes: “Wait when they come over, You just pretend your stomach hurts and say you can’t help. If Kyrie wakes up and sees you, he’ll definitely remember Cristian’s death! He’ll never be grateful to you. Do you understand what I mean?”

“Oh.... ..” Avery lowered her eyes sadly, and soon raised her eyes to look at Elliot again, “You promised Kyrie that he would never leave the Yonroeville, and you promised him to have a child with Rebecca, which is against your will, right?”

Elliot’s adam’s apple rolling up and down sensually.

“Elliot, if you don’t let me kill Kyrie, then you can find a way to kill him.” Avery’s eyes suddenly turned cold, her tone even colder, “Please give me a happy answer, If I do it, or you do?”

“Are you forcing me?” Elliot frowned.

If Avery killed Kyrie rashly, her bodyguard and classmate would all have to die.

“Yes, I’m just forcing you.” Avery felt like she was going crazy, if she didn’t force Elliot, life would drive her crazy, “Either you don’t care about my life or death. Kyrie is going to deal with me and talk to me. What does it have to do with you? You have always wanted to protect me from here. Your feelings for me, who can you deceive? Do you think your new wife, Rebecca doesn’t know anything.”

Elliot looked at her aggressive look. His eyes were getting thicker, and the teeth were clenched.

‘Bang bang bang’. There was a knock on the door.

Ali, The bodyguard went to pay the bills and came back. He didn’t see the two of them. After asking around, a doctor told him that the two of them were in the bathroom.

–Two adults in one bathroom?

–Even if the two of them were going to plot something, they won’t run to the bathroom to plot it.

With a ‘squeak’, the bathroom door opened. Avery bent over with a pained face, while Elliot held her arm and helped her out of the bathroom.

Ali was shocked, “What’s wrong? Dr. Tate, are you alright?”

Avery gasped and said intermittently, “I...I’m afraid. I can’t help Kyrie because I am too sick.”

Chapter 1369

Elliot gave Avery to a nurse and asked the nurse to take Avery back to her ward then he went to contact other neurologists.

“Mr. Foster, what’s wrong with Ms. Tate? What’s wrong with her?” Ali asked curiously.

“You care about Ms. Tate so much, why didn’t you ask her just now?” Elliot retorted.

“I didn’t care about her that much, so I just asked casually.” Ali worried, “Lorenzo will definitely be angry if you let Ms. Tate go.”

“Then let Lorenzo invite her here.” Elliot said casually, “Did he think I would be afraid of him?”

Ali teased: “He thinks so too. Although you are Kyrie’s son-in-law and he is Kyrie’s adopted son.”

“Then why didn’t Kyrie’s Daughter to marry him?”

“Kyrie did plan this way before. Who knew that you could leave the country of Aryadelle and come here!” Ali talked to him in private.

Elliot blamed himself, “He took me to the zoo to see monkeys. And then the story of monkeys infected me.”

Ali said, “Hahaha! I heard it. A buddy of mine told me. He was Right at the scene. It is said that a female monkey was injured in love, received the operation, and then found a new love and she is very happy.”

Elliot: “I am the female monkey now.”

“It’s still different. You don’t like our young lady at all.” Ali looked at everything in his eyes, “Although our young lady is beautiful, she is still not as good as Ms. Tate.”

Elliot raised his eyebrows and waited for him to continue.

“Our young lady is beautiful and has no soul. Ms. Tate not only has a good-looking face, but also has outstanding abilities in all aspects. Our young lady can have fun, but a woman like Ms. Tate is the real attractive one.” Ali expressed himself insights.

Elliot said, “I’m not as much as you think.”

“Oh, are you following your feelings?”

“A combination of sensibility and rationality.”

Ali gave a thumbs up: "Successful people like you choose women with us. Ordinary people are different. We ordinary people just look at the right eye, and we don't care about all the mess."

After Avery was taken to the elevator by the nurse, he asked the nurse to go.

The reason why she agreed to pretend to be uncomfortable and turned away to help Kyrie to heal was because Elliot gave her a definite answer.

He said he did.

These two words made her more excited than 'I love you' or 'I remember you'.

Whether Elliot remembered her or not, he officially gave her a response today.

When Avery returned to the ward, Xander and the bodyguard immediately grabbed her arm and looked at her carefully.

"Are you all right?"

Avery shook her head: "I'm fine. How could I help Kyrie to heal? I just want to kill him. If it wasn't for him, Elliot wouldn't have done that operation and wouldn't have married his daughter."

"Kyrie deserves to die, but Elliot also has a problem..." The bodyguard said rationally.

"Elliot was in conflict with me at the time. When people are angry, they tend to do some impulsive things. Don't you feel impulsive?" Avery's retort made Xander and the bodyguard look at each other.

Could it be that the two of them are reconciled?

"What's the matter with the two of you?" The bodyguard smelled the gossip.

"It's nothing." Avery was afraid that Lorenzo would come to him, so she immediately climbed to the hospital bed and lay down, "If Kyrie's people come over later, they will say that I am not feeling well."

"Oh..." The bodyguard dragged Xander outside the ward.

After closing the door of the ward, the bodyguard said to Xander, "She probably talked to Elliot."

Xander stroked his chin: "Just talking, is she happy like this?"

"You can see that she is happy too. Is it?"

“When she left with Kyrie’s people, her face was as white as wax, and she had no love. But when she came back, the corners of her mouth couldn’t be restrained, and her cheeks were red. Isn’t it happy?” Xander said..

“I hope there will be no problems with her surgery now.” The bodyguard didn’t want to stay here for a second. “After the surgery, I can leave here quickly.”

Chapter 1370

Xander: "After her surgery, we can go."

Because his tone was too determined, the bodyguard was inevitably a little excited: "Really?"

"I guess. My intuition is generally accurate."

"Then guess how much bonus she will give me when she returns to Aryadelle?"

"..."

Xander patted in his trouser pocket, "Are there any more cigarettes? Let's go have a cigarette."

"I Didn't. The boss tell us to block Kyrie's people? Let's smoke again later. Didn't you say you don't like smoking?" The bodyguard took out a cigarette case, handed him one, and then took out one and put it on the tip of his nose to smell it.

"It's so boring here. Smoking is a good way to pass the time."

"That's right. Not only is it good to pass the time, but it's also refreshing. It hurts the body.

“Do you know which will come first, tomorrow or the accident?”

.....

Kyrie was sent to the inpatient department after the examination.

Lorenzo was very annoyed when he saw that Avery was left.

Although Ali explained to Lorenzo that Ms. Tate left because she was not feeling well but Lorenzo did not accept this explanation.

“Didn’t you see the hospital clothes on her body?” Elliot saw that Lorenzo wanted to find Avery, and immediately blocked him, “She is a patient now, if you ask her to treat eldest brother, aren’t you afraid that she misses and causes eldest brother to have an accident?”

Lorenzo was stunned: “She dares?”

Elliot: “Of course she doesn’t dare. But she is a patient now, and her stomach hurts so much that she can’t straighten her waist just now. The doctors and nurses here have seen it.”

Lorenzo: “What’s wrong with her? Sudden pain to the point that you can’t straighten your waist?”

Elliot: “Didn’t you go to the gynecology inpatient department to find her just now?”

“What gynecology inpatient department? I just went to the neurosurgery department to find her.” After Lorenzo cursed, he was stunned.

Avery is hospitalized in neurosurgery. Most of the patients hospitalized in neurosurgery are seriously ill and require craniotomy. If Avery is really a neurosurgery patient, then her condition may be worse than that of Kyrie. It’s really inappropriate for her to perform surgery on Kyrie.

Lorenzo immediately gave up the idea of looking for Avery.

Elliot strode towards the bathroom. After washing his face with cold water, he sent Avery a message: [Which gynecological ward are you in? I have something for you.]

Avery received Elliot’s message, and her entire back froze. She used the white lie she gave to Mike to perfunctory Elliot, but she forgot that he was in this hospital now.

And neurology and neurosurgery are up and down the stairs.

Although she lives in the neurosurgery VIP ward, which is separated from the general ward by an aisle, it is also divided into the neurosurgery floor. With trembling fingers, Avery replied to his message: [I'm not in the gynecology department. I am in neurosurgery.]

Elliot didn't expect that Avery didn't continue to lie.

She was so frank that Elliot was embarrassed to be angry.

Elliot sent a message asking: [Why did you lie to me just now?]

Avery: [I'm afraid I'll scare you by saying it. My illness sounds scary, but it's not scary at all. Just a small operation.]

Elliot: [Is there any minor surgery in neurosurgery?]

Avery: [Yes! I am proficient in both neurology and neurosurgery. I will not trick you.]

After all, Elliot was not a professional, so he did not dare to refute her easily.
