

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1385

Chapter 1385

“You call my bodyguard or Xander first, and come back when I wake up.” Avery said, “There should be no problem with this operation, you don’t have to worry.”

Elliot: “I won’t worry as long as you leave here safely.”

“I’m sure I can get out of here safely. You’ll get out of here safely, too.” Avery put on her clothes and picked up her phone, “I’ll go first.”

“Well. Be careful on the road. Call me if you have anything.

“ ... ”

Avery came out of the hotel and strode towards the hospital. In less than 10 minutes, she returned to the ward.

Fortunately, Xander and the bodyguard hadn’t come yet.

Avery went to the bathroom to wash up, then walked to the bedside, picked up her phone, and turned it on. She saw that Xander sent her a message at 4:00 in the morning: [I can’t operate on you. My girlfriend forced me to go back home. So I go first. Sorry.]

This message made Avery stunned.

She knew that Xander had a girlfriend, and she heard him talk about it when they ate together before.

After a while, the bodyguard carried the breakfast, pushed open the door of the ward and walked in.

Avery immediately put down the phone, but the expression on her face did not adjust for a while.

The bodyguard put the breakfast on the table and asked, “Boss, what’s the matter with you? I went to call Xander in the morning. There is a ‘Do Not Disturb’ sign hanging on the door of his room. It’s strange.”

Avery explained, “Xander is left. He sent me a message at 4:00 in the morning, saying that he couldn’t operate on me.”

“Ah?! What’s going on? You two quarreled?” The bodyguard was taken aback.

It was agreed that the operation was done today, but the chief surgeon left. How to do this operation?

“He said his girlfriend forced him to go back, so he left first.” Avery said calmly, “It’s okay, I can find another doctor to operate on me. This operation is not that difficult.”

“Xander is too unkind. Even if his girlfriend forces him to go back, he can go back after the operation on you today. He can’t wait for a day? Don’t you think it’s a little strange? He will be fine if you go back to the hotel with him in the evening.” The bodyguard felt very strange.

Avery looked at the bodyguard: “Maybe his girlfriend had a big fight with him.”

The bodyguard sneered, “Even if there was a big fight, he wouldn’t leave you here, right? Either he doesn’t promise to operate on you and he said several times that we can leave here after your operation.”

“He must be involuntarily. Don’t blame him. Wait for my operation. I’ll call him later and ask.” Avery’s mood has calmed down. She took her breakfast out of the bag and took a small bite.

“Boss, he said last night that your condition has deteriorated. Could it be that he couldn’t handle your operation, so he escaped.” The bodyguard opened his mind.

“Impossible. Even if my condition deteriorates, the operation is at most complicated. With his ability, he can completely perform this operation for me. It’s definitely not the reason you guessed.” Avery still knows Xander’s ability very well otherwise she would not have called him to help him operate.

It’s just that Xander left before the operation, which is a bit strange indeed. In fact, he could leave at any time, but he chose to leave the night before the operation, which caught Avery by surprise.

“Then he’s too hateful. Boss, break up with him.” The bodyguard complained, “Let’s go to another doctor after breakfast.”

“Well.”

After breakfast, Avery and the bodyguard Go to a Doctor.

The doctor was very surprised when he heard that Xander had left.

“I thought you had a good relationship. I saw that he was very responsible for your illness before...”

The bodyguard said angrily, "We were also very angry. He didn't say bye, he just left. What a b*stard! Let's see if you can perform this operation on my boss."

The doctor said embarrassedly, "Of course it can be done, but I can't guarantee that the operation will be successful. After all, I have no medical skills. Xander is amazing. If you can't trust me, you can find experts from other countries."

Avery pondered for a moment and said, "Please help me with the operation. It's already so late."

Her condition deteriorated faster, and she couldn't drag it on any longer.

Bridgedale.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1386

Chapter 1386

Wesley called Avery but no one answered, so he dialed Xander's number, but no one answered.

Today is the day was Avery's surgery day, and he wanted to know the situation of the surgery.

Just when he checked the flight in Yonroeville and planned to go to Yonroeville, Avery's phone came back.

"Brother Wesley, my mobile phone is charging in the ward." Avery discussed the surgical plan with the doctor, and only returned to the ward just now.

"Are you operating today?"

"Well." Avery was stunned for a moment and told him the matter, "Xander has returned to Aryadelle, so I asked the doctor in this hospital to operate on me."

Wesley was taken aback: "What's the situation? What's the urgency? Can't you go back to Aryadelle after the operation? When did he leave?"

"He sent me a message at 4:00 in the morning, and he probably left when he sent me a message." Avery's mood has calmed down down.

"Why didn't you have an operation before leaving? Are you in a hurry for this day?" Wesley was puzzled.

“Maybe his condition is in a hurry. And this is not a major operation for me...”

“Craniotomy, why is it not a major operation? Xander is a fool. Either he will not agree to perform the operation for you, since he has agreed. How can he go back on the last day? I’ll call him later.” Wesley’s tone was very serious.

Avery immediately said, “Brother Wesley, don’t call him. He must have his own difficulties. I’ll call him after my operation is over.”

Wesley: “Is the doctor over there okay? “

“I don’t think there should be any problem. Kyrie always comes to this hospital to see a doctor every time he is sick.” Avery changed the subject, “How are Shea and Adrian?”

“They are fine.” Wesley lived with them and waited for Elliot and Avery to return, “Shea is much better, and Adrian takes good care of her.”

Avery: “I miss you so much.”

Wesley: “You need to have peace of mind. The most important thing is to recover from your illness now.”

Avery: “Well.”

Wesley: “Then I won’t bother you. Send me your bodyguard’s number. I’ll wait for you tonight and contact to your bodyguard.”

Avery: “Okay.”

After speaking, Avery sent the bodyguard’s number.

At 11 p.m.

Elliot returned to the villa.

In the living room, there was a floor of flowers, and Rebecca sat beside him, putting in a bottle.

Seeing Elliot coming back, Rebecca immediately put down the scissors and flowers in her hands and asked, “Elliot, is my dad coming home?”

“Well. He’s home now. How are you?” Elliot sat down on the sofa and glanced at the flowers she had arranged.

Rebecca sat down beside him and said, “It’s a little better today. I heard that Avery has an operation today. After her operation is over, you can go and see her if you want. It’s a pity that she doesn't want to see me otherwise I would also like to see her. I'll go see her with you."

Elliot looked at the sincere expression on Rebecca's face, and said solemnly, "Don't go to her in the future."

Rebecca: "Okay. I didn't expect you to hate me so much."

Elliot: "Since you are in good health today. It's not that uncomfortable anymore, then you can go see your dad later."

Rebecca said, "Well. I'll put these flowers in the vase and go there. Elliot, are you hungry? Would you like something to eat? The nanny made the soup..."

"I'm not hungry. Since you're fine, I'll go first." His voice settled, a look of disappointment flashed in her eyes, and he immediately explained, "Your dad gave me some work has been arranged, and I have to deal with it."

"Well, you go. I'm just worried that your body can't take it." Rebecca escorted him out.

After he left, Rebecca returned to the living room.

Chapter 1387

The nanny held a bowl of chicken soup and brought it to Rebecca: "Miss, did you see that Elliot's heart is not at home at all. If Avery was not here, he would definitely not be like this."

After taking a sip of the chicken soup, Rebecca said, "I'll go and talk to my father about this later. However, Avery has an operation today, and it is estimated that she will have to stay in the hospital for a few days before leaving here. Her heart will naturally go home."

"Well. This is the Jobin family's territory. No matter how powerful Elliot was in the past, no matter how good Avery is, no matter how good his arm is, Elliot must be your husband honestly, and Avery must also be an honest husband. Get out of here."

The nanny's words made Rebecca smile.

After drinking the soup, Rebecca went to Kyrie's house, accompanied by the nanny.

"Dad, how do you feel?" Rebecca asked, holding Kyrie's hand.

Kyrie looked at his daughter and asked, "What did you do yesterday?"

Rebecca said, "I now have Elliot's child in my belly. Dad, please let Avery leave here. Wait for Avery to leave. Now, I will definitely let Elliot stay here with peace of mind."

"What happened to the child?" Kyrie was very surprised.

After Rebecca explained the matter, Kyrie frowned, not very satisfied.

"Dad, don't be angry yet. This child's role is to keep Elliot here. When he stays, are you still afraid that he won't have children with me in the future?"

Rebecca's words made Kyrie's brows stretch: "Well. Rebecca, you not only want Elliot to stay here, but also like Avery, hold his heart firmly. Elliot can give up everything for Avery, and you also want him to give everything for you."

Rebecca nodded: "Dad, I will work hard."

In the hospital.

After all the preoperative preparations were done, Avery was sent to the operating room.

The bodyguard stood outside the operating room door, waiting anxiously.

After a while, Avery's cell phone rang, and it was Mike.

The bodyguard answered the phone: "My boss has just entered the operating room. It will take at least an hour to come out."

Mike: "When Avery comes out, you will call me back as soon as possible."

Bodyguard: "Let's talk about it when she wakes up. I still don't know how this doctor's medical skills are... My boss was put out by her classmates. I still can't figure it out, obviously he was fine yesterday, so if he doesn't want to do it, he won't do it."

"Then What's the name of the person?"

"His name is Xander. I had a good impression of him, but who knew he was such a person. Next time I want to see him, I have to scold him to death."

"I'll check this person out." Mike finished and hung up the phone.

The bodyguards were restlessly walking around outside the operating room.

At 3 p.m., the lights in the operating room went out, and after a while, the door of the operating room opened, and Avery was pushed out.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1388

Chapter 1388

After Avery was transferred to the ward, not long after, Elliot came.

“Doctor, when will my boss wake up?” the bodyguard asked the chief surgeon.

Doctor: “She should be able to wake up when the anesthesia is over.”

Bodyguard: “How long will it take for the anesthesia to pass?”

Doctor: “It may be soon, it may be at night.”

At 7 p.m., Avery woke up slowly. After she woke up, Elliot called the doctor immediately.

The bodyguard called Mike from outside the ward.

After Mike answered the phone, he said, “I checked Xander, but I didn’t find out that he bought a ticket from Yonroeville to Bridgedale. He should still be in Yonroeville.”

Bodyguard: “How is that possible? Another doctor performed surgery on my boss today. If Xander was still here, why didn’t he perform surgery on my boss?”

Mike: “The information I found can’t be wrong. He really didn’t leave by plane.”

The bodyguard said, “D*mn it. But we really can’t contact him.”

“How is Avery now?” Mike didn’t so concern about Xander, he cared more about Avery, “Can she speak now? I want to hear her voice.”

The bodyguard walked into the ward with his mobile phone.

The doctor was checking Avery’s temperature and blood pressure. Although her eyes were open and were a little dull.

“I’m afraid she can’t talk to you now. When she’s better, I’ll ask her to call you back.” After the bodyguard finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

After a while, Wesley’s phone call came.

The bodyguard stood outside the door of the ward and answered the phone: "My boss is already awake, but she can't talk to you on the phone now. I don't think she's very awake."

Wesley: "Well, it's like this after the surgery. She will be tomorrow. It should be much better."

"Wesley, you and Xander should also know each other, right? Didn't Xander send a message to my boss to go back to Bridgedale? But Mike said he didn't go back to Bridgedale. What do you think he is? What do you mean?" The bodyguard asked the question.

Wesley: "I called him just now, and his cell phone has been turned off."

The bodyguard: "Then do you know his address?"

Wesley said, "I don't know. Xander should be trustworthy. Otherwise, Avery will not be able to. Call him over."

"Then why did he send such a message to my boss? And if he doesn't go back to Bridgedale now, where is he?" The bodyguard especially wanted to figure out this question.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1389

"Are you going to the hotel where he stayed?"

"I went to see it in the morning, and there was a 'do not disturb' sign on it." The bodyguard said and paused, "I'll wait to go down to the hotel to see. A staff said he didn't leave here. If he didn't, then he could only be in the hotel..."

The bodyguard said, trembling in his heart and a cold sweat on his back.

After talking on the phone, the bodyguard returned to the ward.

The doctor checked Avery just now, and she was normal.

The doctor had already left, and Elliot was with her by the hospital bed.

The bodyguard put Avery's mobile phone on the table.

"Boss, rest well and don't think about anything. I'll go buy dinner now." The bodyguard said, and asked Elliot, "Would you like to bring it for you?"

“No, I’m not hungry yet.” Elliot said.

“Oh, then I’ll go first.” After the bodyguard finished, he left the ward.

After the bodyguard left, Elliot looked at Avery.

Elliot held her infusion hand and said, “I know you have a headache right now, so don’t think about anything. Kyrie has promised to let you leave here. When you feel better, you can leave.”

“Well. I miss home so much…” Avery said, a sharp pain in her head suddenly came.

“Don’t talk yet.” Elliot looked at her pained appearance, his heart clenched tightly, “I will be here with you tonight. Before you leave here, I will be with you.”

Avery stretched her thin eyebrows and gently responded.

In the hotel.

When the bodyguard came to the room where Xander stayed before, there was still a ‘Do Not Disturb’ sign hanging on the door.

The bodyguard pressed the doorbell, waited a moment, and got no response.

A strange feeling rose up.

If there are people in the room, after the doorbell rings, the people inside should come to open the door to see.

The bodyguard goes to the hotel manager and said, “My friend lives in this room. I can’t contact him now, so you help me open the door to see. I just went to the front desk to ask about my friend if he had checked out, but the lady at the front desk refused to tell me. If something happens to my friend, your hotel will not be able to shirk its responsibility.”

The hotel manager took the card and swiped the door open.

The bodyguard pushed open the door, and the sight inside made his hair stand up.

In the hospital ward, Elliot’s cell phone rang. Seeing that it was Avery’s bodyguard calling, he immediately answered the phone.

“Mr. Foster, The is the bad news. Xander is dead. He died in the hotel room.” The bodyguard was chilling and didn’t know what to do with Xander’s body.

Hearing this, Elliot walked out of the ward immediately.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1390

Chapter 1390

Avery don't know how long it took, she woke up from a sleep, and saw the ward was empty, Elliot was not there, nor was the bodyguard.

—Didn't Elliot say that he would accompany her here?

Avery took the phone and checked the time. It's already 11:00 p.m. She felt nothing but pain at the moment.

She found Elliot's number and dialed—

On the other side of the phone, Elliot's voice came, "Avery, are you awake? I'll go over to accompany you right away."

Her lips moved, and her voice was very soft: "If it's inconvenient to come here, you can come here..."

"I'm in the hospital, I'll go there right away." After Elliot finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Xander's body has been sent to the hospital. Now Elliot and the bodyguard need to find out why Xander died suddenly.

Moreover, before Xander died, why did he send such a message to Avery? Since he was going to leave, why didn't he make it? He felt that his death was not an accident, but...murder.

Elliot returned to the ward with the bodyguard.

Seeing the two of them, Avery asked aloud, "Did you go to smoke?"

"No."

"Yeah!"

The two of them spoke together, but the answers were different.

The calmness on Avery's face was replaced by curiosity: "What are you doing?"

The bodyguard kept his mouth shut and let Elliot speak.

"The bodyguard smoked and I had a late-night snack." Elliot finished his words concisely, walked to the bed and sat down, "Are you feeling better now?"

“Hmm. Why did Kyrie suddenly agree to let me go?” Avery asked.

“Rebecca went to him.” Elliot said truthfully.

Avery said weakly, “I understand. Rebecca doesn’t want me to stay here at all. If I leave, you will be hers.”

Elliot said, looking at the bodyguard, “Don’t think about it. You go back to rest first.”

“Oh... Boss, then I’ll go first. I’ll see you tomorrow morning.” After the bodyguard finished talking to Avery, he strode out.

The two of them planned to tell her Xander’s death when Avery was discharged from the hospital.

Avery just had brain surgery and couldn’t be stimulated now.

The next day.

After the nurse gave Avery’s medicine today, Elliot went back to rest.

Avery felt better today than yesterday. The pain was lessened and the spirit was slightly better.

The bodyguard thought Avery couldn’t eat today, so he didn’t buy her breakfast.

Avery especially wanted clear porridge, so she asked the bodyguard to buy it.

After the bodyguard went out, her cell phone rang.

It is a strange call, and the attribution shows Bridgedale.

She picked up the phone, and a female voice came: “Avery, I’m Xander’s girlfriend. Where are you now?”

Avery was stunned: “Isn’t Xander returning to Aryadelle?”

“Why didn’t I know he was returning to Aryadelle?” Now tell me where you are now?” The woman over the phone gradually lost control of her emotions.

Avery frowned, feeling that something was wrong. After she reported her ward number, the call was interrupted.

–Xander did not return to Bridgedale, where did Xander go?

–Could it be that something happened to Xander?
