

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1391

Chapter 1391

Within half an hour, Xander's girlfriend came to the hospital. When she saw Avery, she was stunned for a moment.

"Did Xander do your surgery for you? What about others?"

The bodyguard immediately pulled her and wanted to take her out. But she pushed the bodyguard away suddenly, insisting to confront Avery.

"He sent me a message at 4:00 a.m. yesterday, saying that there is no way to operate on me." Avery was afraid that she would not believe her, so she turned on her phone and showed her the text message.

She took Avery's mobile phone, and after reading the text message, her scalp became numb: "What nonsense! He didn't contact me at all, and he didn't tell me that he was going back to Aryadelle."

"You mean he didn't return to Aryadelle to find you? " Avery looked at her inexplicably.

"If he returns to Aryadelle to look for me, why should I come here to ask you for someone? I haven't seen him for half a month." She returned Avery's phone, "I need an explanation."

Avery's brain was about to explode.

The bodyguard immediately reassured Avery, "Boss, stay still on the hospital bed, I'll explain to her!"

Having said that, the bodyguard took Xander's girlfriend's arm and wanted to take her out again.

"What do you want to explain? You explain it here!"

Avery echoed: "What do you want to explain? Do you know where Xander is?"

The bodyguard stammered: "I know...know."

"Where is he? Say it." Avery was about to get up from the hospital bed in excitement.

The bodyguard immediately held her down: "Xander was killed...Boss, don't go crazy. I have already told Elliot about this, and Elliot said he would find out the truth. I found out last night that he was dead in the hotel room..."

All of a sudden, a burst of crying came.

When Xander's girlfriend heard the news of Xander's death, she suddenly collapsed.

After the bodyguard pressed Avery, he immediately went to appease her: "don't cry... or come out of the ward and cry. My boss just finished the operation, and the doctor said she needs to rest."

Xander's girlfriend pulled him out.

On the hospital bed, Avery's tears welled up.

–The murder of Xander must have been done by someone from the Jobin family.

–Except for the Jobin family, no one else will hurt him at all.

–The Jobin family definitely didn't want him to operate on her, so they killed him.

–Did they think that her illness could not be cured?

–Why not come directly at her? Xander is just an ordinary doctor, why do they want to kill him?

Avery had a headache, and even her heart was in severe pain. She seemed to be strangled, unable to breathe.

...

When Elliot returned home, the nanny immediately went upstairs and called Rebecca down.

Rebecca went downstairs and saw him with a tender and sweet smile.

"Elliot, is Avery okay?"

Rebecca knew that he didn't go home last night and was accompanying Avery in the hospital. She felt uncomfortable, but she felt better when she thought that Avery was about to leave here.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1392

Chapter 1392

Elliot looked at her face and asked her, "Do you know Xander? How did he die?"

Rebecca's smile froze: "Is he dead? I don't know. I've been at home."

Elliot: "You don't need to go out if you want to kill him."

"I didn't kill him. I have no grievances with him, why should I kill him?" Rebecca was anxious. Next, she reached out and grabbed his arm, "I knew him. I went to the hospital before to ask about IVF, and happened to meet him at the hospital. He begged me to help Avery get out of here, and I said my father was angry. I can help when my father is not so angry."

"That's all?" Elliot pushed her hand away.

"Yes! There can't be anything else between me and him except Avery." Rebecca saw that he didn't seem to believe in himself, and said, "There's another. I took the initiative to invite him to be a guest at my house, because I heard that there was a man next to Avery, so I wanted to know the relationship between the two of them."

Elliot said, "He died, and died of poison. Do you think, except for Who else in your Jobin family might kill him? He's just a doctor and has no connections here."

"I don't know. Elliot, I really don't know. I'm not feeling well, I've been staying at home." Rebecca said, tears falling down, "Maybe it was my father who did it... He's been brooding about the death of my eldest brother. He didn't dare to directly Killing Avery, I was afraid of angering you, so I killed the people around her to relieve her hatred."

Elliot had no choice but to throw the blame on Kyrie.

Sure enough, when Elliot heard these words, his face suddenly became extremely cold, but he could do nothing.

In the hospital, no matter how the bodyguards comforted Xander's girlfriend, they couldn't calm down Xander's girlfriend. At the same time, the bodyguards worried that Avery couldn't stand the blow, so they had to call Elliot and ask him to come over.

After a while, Elliot came to the hospital.

After meeting Xander's girlfriend, he explained the cause of Xander's death to her.

Elliot said bluntly, "I can't explain it to you for the time being, but I can only compensate you. If you go to the murderer, you will only lose your own life. This is an irrational act. If Xander is still alive, he will never die. I don't want to see you die for him."

"I don't want compensation. I don't want any money you give me. I just want Xander."

Elliot: "He has already Dead. I can take you to see his body."

After Elliot took her away, the bodyguard turned and entered the ward.

Avery was lying on the hospital bed, with the nurse comforting her. She has just finished the operation, and she can't get out of bed yet, and she is not suitable for intense emotions, which will affect her recovery.

"Boss, Xander must have been killed by someone from the Jobin family. We have no way to seek revenge from Kyrie, we can only bear it." The bodyguard stood beside the hospital bed and said these words plainly.

Avery pursed her lips, pressing her inner grief.

"When you are discharged, let's leave here first. Let Elliot do the rest." The bodyguard continued.

Before, Avery really thought so. After leaving the hospital, leave here first to prevent Kyrie from blackmailing Elliot with himself.

But now, Avery has changed her mind.

Kyrie killed Xander, she couldn't leave here just like that. Avery wanted to avenge Xander.

It was Avery who called Xander here, if it wasn't for her, Xander would never have died. She owes Xander a life, and no matter what, she will avenge him.

.....

Afternoon.

Elliot comforted Xander's girlfriend and sent someone to take her to deal with Xander's body.

After the body is cremated, she will take Xander's ashes out of here.

Elliot returned to the ward and saw Avery lying quietly on the hospital bed.

Her eyes were red and swollen, and the expression on her face was very cold.

"Xander will not die in vain." He sat down beside the hospital bed, and his voice came calmly.

Avery interrupted him. "He died in vain. Even if you kill Kyrie, he won't come back to life. If he didn't know me, he wouldn't have been killed at all."

"Even if you blame yourself, he's the same I won't come back to life." Elliot said word by word, "I know you want revenge, even if you die here, you will not hesitate. Have you ever thought, who will suffer the most when you die?"

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1393

Chapter 1393

Avery knew that Elliot said this to calm her down, but she couldn't calm down. She was heartbroken. The more uncomfortable, the more painful the wound on the head.

"Avery, don't think about this anymore." Elliot held her hand tightly and said word by word, "Even if the sky is about to fall, don't worry about it. We'll talk about everything when you are discharged from the hospital!"

She tried and took a deep breath and was trying to calm her trembling body.

After a few minutes, her mood finally calmed down.

Elliot voice came in a low voice, "Avery, close your eyes. You can recover quickly only if you have a good rest."

Avery closed her eyes disobediently, she didn't want to.

As long as she closes her eyes, Xander's face appeared in her mind.

When she saw the message sent by Xander, she had no doubts.

It's just that she never expected Kyrie to be so cruel. She couldn't let herself act as if nothing had happened. Even if she temporarily suppressed her anger, she had to stay awake.

"Go out. I want to be alone." Avery pulled her hand out of his big palm, "I will take care of my illness, I won't get out of bed. I want to be alone."

"Okay." Elliot got up and looked at her pale and cold face, "I'm outside, you have something to call me."

"No need." Avery refused, word by word, "Go back and rest. There are bodyguards watching me, I don't Something will happen. I can get out of bed tomorrow."

"Why don't you let me accompany you?" Elliot had to suspect that she had transferred her hatred of Kyrie to him.

"I want to stay by myself. I don't want to hear any advice. I don't want to hear anything. I just want to get well in peace." Avery's eyes were red and tears were about to roll out at any moment, she choked, "I beg you, go Bar."

Elliot strode out of the ward.

When the bodyguard saw him come out, he immediately asked, "Mr. Foster, why did you come out? How is my boss?"

Elliot: "She didn't want to be disturbed."

"But she is a patient now and needs someone to escort her." The bodyguard scratched his head and said, "How about I go in?"

"Avery's crying now. You can go in later." Elliot's eyes darkened and he confessed, "After you go in, don't persuade her. She doesn't want to be persuaded."

"Oh... Is she treating you? Are you angry?" The bodyguard saw that Elliot's face was not very good, so he comforted, "Xander was called by my boss. Now that Xander is dead here, she must think that Xander was killed by her. I think so too. So no matter what she said to you, don't take it seriously."

"I know." Elliot wasn't angry with her, but he panicked, "I'll go first, I have something to do. I'll make a call."

Xander died of a highly poisonous poison which can cause people to die quickly if ingested in a very small amount.

This drug is a forbidden drug, and ordinary people can't get it at all.

Therefore, when Xander died, he did not suffer too much pain and torture.

It's just that a living person just passed away. It will be a painful blow for his family and friends.

Elliot came out of the hospital and asked the bodyguard to drive the car to Kyrie's villa.

Kyrie is recovering well.

When Elliot saw him, he felt better than yesterday.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1394

Chapter 1394

"Elliot, the job I gave you, you did a good job." Seeing him, Kyrie said with kindness, "By the way, how are you talking to the second and fourth brother? They should have been looking for you?"

Elliot nodded: "I have met with them. The preliminary opinion is that the property of the sixth and the youngest..."

“That’s my property. The property of the youngest has long been mine. I bought it from their widow in a reasonable and legal way.”

After the death of the sixth and the youngest, Kyrie did everything possible to buy out their property at a low price.

It is obviously a buyout, but it is actually a robbery.

The second and fourth broke up with Kyrie because of this.

If Kyrie used this despicable method to deal with outsiders, that’s all.

The sixth and the youngest are their allied brothers, how can they embezzle their property? Even if they want to embezzle, they will share it with their brothers. How can Kyrie take it alone?

Besides, the sixth and the youngest were killed in order to settle the mess for Cristian, and it was really disgusting that Kyrie did such a thing for the sake of profit.

“Brother, I propose to donate one third of the income from this part of the industry to the state treasury, and another third for public welfare. In the end, we only get one third of the proceeds.” Elliot was afraid that Kyrie would get angry and explain, “We can donate only a small part of the money through accounting. In this way, we will only lose a small part of the profit.”

“Well, even if it is only a small part of the profit, I don’t want to lose it.” Kyrie grimaced, gritted his teeth and said, “If it wasn’t for the sake of me and their former brothers, I would never suffer this loss.”

“It’s not good for us to fall out with them. Let’s take a step back, in order to move forward better.”

“Just do as you say.” Kyrie said. He asked the bodyguard to hand over cigarettes.

The bodyguard immediately lit a cigar and delivered it to him.

“You haven’t recovered yet, so it’s best not to touch the cigarette.” Elliot reminded to Kyrie.

“I smell it, I don’t smoke.” Kyrie held the cigarette in his hand, “Now that I have you to help me, my Jobin family will only get better and better. Of course I want to live a good life.”

Elliot: “Well.”

When the cigar was finished, Kyrie threw the cigarette butt into the trash can.

“Elliot, did you come to me just to talk about this?” Kyrie squinted his fox-like eyes and said, “How is Avery? I heard that she had a major operation.”

“The operation is success, but she is not very good.”

“Why is she bad?” Kyrie asked knowingly.

Elliot said calmly: “Her classmate is dead. His name is Xander, a neurologist. He specially called over to let this classmate operate on her. He was killed in the early morning of the day of her surgery.”

Oh...” The corners of Kyrie’s mouth rose, evoking a sarcastic arc, “I killed him.”

Elliot suppressed all his emotions in his heart, and his tone was calm: “How did he provoke him, Are you?”

Kyrie exhaled, “Of course he didn’t offend me. I think about it, but I can’t get angry. My son can’t just die like this. Otherwise, how lonely he would be on Road. I can’t kill your son to vent, let alone Avery, otherwise you will be angry with me. I can only kill the people around Avery to vent my anger.”

Elliot pursed his thin lips and did not speak.

Kyrie has done all the bad things in his life. For him, killing someone is as random as stepping on Avery.

Elliot got up from his chair, “You have a good rest, I will see you tomorrow.”

After Elliot finished speaking, he strode towards the door.

Kyrie looked at his arrogant back and shouted to Elliot uncontrollably: “Don’t think I don’t know you’re angry. I promised to let Avery leave, enough to give you face. Don’t be shameless. If you dare to betray me, I will not let you leave the Aryadelle to live.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1395

Chapter 1395

Kyrie looked furious, as if Elliot had done something wrong to him.

“You are ill now, you should rest well and don’t think too much.” Elliot stopped Kyrie and continued, “Rebecca said that she is not feeling well, I will go back and see her.”

His light tone made Kyrie feel like a fist. smashed in cotton.

After he left, Kyrie was very upset.

Kyrie said to the bodyguard, "He is more and more able to hide his feelings. Don't look at how much he seemed to respect me just now, but he actually hated me in his heart."

"Just because of that doctor named Xander. I don't think he is?"

Kyrie frowned, "Of course he's not for Xander...he's for Avery. You didn't hear him say Avery is not good? Avery is in a bad mood because of Xander's death."

The bodyguard laughed and said, "If she hates it, she hates it but she has no power, even if she hates you, she and also Elliot can't do anything. this is your world. If you are willing to reuse him, he is a thing, if you don't reuse him, he is a piece of sh*t!"

"He is still better than Lorenzo. I need him to do things for me." Kyrie's voice was low. Come down, "but I don't have to worry, Rebecca will definitely be able to keep him."

Avonsville.

Tate Industries.

Mike convened a senior management meeting to truthfully inform everyone about the problems the company is currently facing.

Mike said, "It's me who has implicated the company. Now that Avery is not in the country, she has no energy to manage the company, and she can't solve the problems the company is facing now."

"It means that our company only has the latest models. The product was not stolen." An executive asked in surprise.

Mike said, "Yes. Except for the latest models, if other old models continue to be produced, there is only one situation, that is, they cannot be sold. Wonder Technologies has not invested any research and development, so they can be sold at low prices. And our cost is placed in front of them, it is impossible to fight a price war with them."

The vice president wondered, "Then what should we do? Should we cut off the production line and lay off a large number of employees?"

Mike didn't answer. If he wants to keep the company alive, this is the only way to go.

"I heard that Wonder Technologies has spent a lot of money to hire a research and development team abroad, and they should have a lot of new products to launch next."

"I suddenly felt that our company was at a dead end and came to a dead end. How could this be?"

Mike: "Blame me. If it wasn't for my stubborn ex who came out to make trouble, our company would never have done this."

The vice president said, "Director Mike, since Avery is not to blame, then we don't have the right to blame you. If the company really can't go on, then go bankrupt. It's not like the company has never gone bankrupt. Although I'm not very good at finding a job at my age, it's good. I've saved a lot of money in the past few years..."

"Hey, are you really going to go bankrupt?" Someone sighed.

"Unless someone invests and changes the direction of development. Why can Wonder Technologies ride on our face? The first and biggest reason is that they have a lot of money. Wanda has made countless investments, even if they burned it in the early stage. A lot of money goes in, but it doesn't affect the normal operation of their company at all and they continue to attract investment..."

"Who will invest in us? We offended many investors when our company was booming."

"Yeah! Avery doesn't accept investment from outsiders at all."

"Then it can only go bankrupt. But even if the Tate Industries goes bankrupt, it will not affect Avery's technology in Bridgedale at all."

"I can come back and rebuild the Tate Industries."

No one answered.

Because everyone knows it's unlikely.

Wanda's Wonder Technologies almost emptied the Tate Industries this time.

Reality is reality, Avery has no cards.

Chapter 1396

After the meeting, Mike was extremely depressed. If these executives quarreled with him, he might not have such a headache.

He called Chad out and had lunch together.

"Not only did they not blame me but they comforted me in turn, saying that it wasn't my fault and that I should not blame myself." Mike took a can of beer and took a sip and continued, "They don't really want the company to go bankrupt, because there are so many of them. They all worked with Jack before. I feel very sorry for them."

Chad looked at his depressed appearance and felt very uncomfortable.

These days, he hardly slept well because of this sudden incident.

This incident was his ex's fault, and it had nothing to do with him, but he blamed all the faults on himself.

Chad said, "You'd better call Avery and ask her what to do. Go bankrupt or hold on, let's see what she has to say."

"She just had surgery, how dare I bother her with this? And she said that it's okay to go bankrupt, which means she has accepted the fact that the company will go bankrupt. But I can't accept it."

"She can accept it, why can't you accept it?"

Mike drank the wine in his hand and continued, "Because it was caused by me, so I can't accept it. I only have one feeling these days. It's not enough for him to hurt me once, and now he has to make up for it still such a deep knife, f*ck. I really want to kill him."

"Stop talking, drink a beer." Chad opened a can of beer and drank it with him.

"I don't want the company to go bankrupt. If Elliot was here, he would definitely not watch Avery's company go bankrupt." Mike gritted his teeth and continued, "I want to endure until Elliot comes back."

Chad glanced at him: "You can endure that time?"

Mike: "Maybe he will be back soon."

Chad didn't answer. He didn't want to pour cold water on Mike.

It's good to have hope. What if Elliot really returns to Aryadelle soon?

Blink, a week has passed.

Avery couldn't stay in the hospital and wanted to be discharged.

The doctor asked her to do a test. After the film came out, the doctor let her stay in the hospital.

The doctor said, "Ms. Tate, unless you go back to Aryadelle to receive medical treatment immediately after you are discharged from the hospital, otherwise, I will not be able to discharge you from the hospital. You will need to stay in the hospital for at least one month to be more secure for this operation."

Avery: "I feel that I have recovered. It's almost the same."

The doctor said helplessly, "Ms. Tate, you are also a doctor. If you were me and encountered a patient like you, would you let the patient go? If I let you out of the hospital, what happened to you?"

Avery said, "If something happens to me, I don't want you to be responsible. I may go back to Aryadelle. If I feel wrong when I go back to Aryadelle, I will go to the hospital immediately."

"Then you may not return to Aryadelle." The two were pulling in the doctor's office when Elliot walked in.

"Mr. Foster, you came just in time. Ms. Tate hasn't recovered yet, but she is willing to be discharged from the hospital. I can't let her out." The doctor walked up to Elliot and complained.

Elliot said: "Give her a discharge order. Let her be discharged."

Doctor: "???"

Chapter 1397

"I will send someone to take her back to Aryadelle. When she returns to Aryadelle, someone will naturally take her to the hospital for examination." Elliot explained to the doctor.

The doctor heard the words and immediately gave her a discharge order.

Avery felt that her life was being interfered with, and she frowned.

She took Elliot's arm and walked outside. The two came out of the office and walked towards the safe passage next to them.

"Elliot, I'm not going back to Aryadelle now."

"I've already booked a ticket for you, you can leave today." Elliot didn't seem to hear her words.

Avery: "I won't go."

"You have to go." Elliot's tone was not severe. She is still a patient, and he will not have a fierce dispute with her. "When you go, I will help you to avenge."

The words were choked in her throat, and she wanted to say it, but she felt very irrational. She wanted to say, she wanted to kill Kyrie with her own hands to avenge Xander.

But she is still sick, how can she kill Kyrie?

Don't kill Kyrie by then, but instead fall into Kyrie's hands, making it difficult for Elliot.

"Where did you buy the plane ticket for me?" Avery asked after a moment of silence.

"I haven't bought it yet. You said before that you were going to Bridgedale, so I don't know whether to buy it for you to go to Aryadelle or to go to Bridgedale." Elliot said.

Avery said hoarsely, "I'm going to Bridgedale. I'm going to meet Xander's parents and apologize to them."

Elliot Said, "I'll go when you're well. What should you do if they blame you? When the matter on my side is resolved, then I will go with you." Avery didn't answer.

After a while, the doctor issued a discharge order, brought it over, and gave it to them.

Elliot took the discharge order and took her to the ward.

She had already packed her things in advance, and the bodyguard was carrying her luggage, ready to leave at any time.

"Let's go!" Elliot said.

Bodyguard: "Go back to the hotel or..."

"Go to the airport." Elliot held Avery's hand and would not give her any other choice at all.

The bodyguards followed behind them with their luggage.

The bodyguard breathed a sigh of relief. Without Elliot, Avery would definitely find a way to find Kyrie.

Avery didn't want to die, but the bodyguard was still quite afraid of death.

The plane took off from Yonroeville and arrived at Bridgedale after several hours of flight.

Wesley was picked up at the airport.

After receiving Avery, Wesley immediately took her to the hospital.

Avery: "???"

Wesley explained, "You have only been hospitalized for a week, which is not enough. You are honestly in the hospital, don't think about anything."

Avery: "Brother Wesley, you can let me in anyway. Go and see Shea and Adrian."

Wesley said calmly, "You stay in the hospital first, and I will bring Adrian to see you. Xander's death has nothing to do with you. Although we have to believe science, but I think everyone has their own fate."

Avery sat down in the ward: "Brother Wesley, don't you think these words are very fateful?"

Wesley looked at her, "If we can't change things, we have to accept fate. To change what can be changed, to accept what cannot be changed. This is what Professor James Hough told me."

Avery listened and was very enlightened.

"You take a break first to avoid jet lag. Go for a checkup later, and then I'll find a doctor to prescribe medicine for you." Wesley glanced at her and asked, "Are you hungry? Do you want to eat something first?"

"A little hungry." Avery said.

After seeing Wesley, the feeling of grief eased a lot.

"I'll buy it for you." After that, Wesley was ready to go out.

"Brother Wesley, don't you ask me what I want to eat?"

Wesley stopped and looked back at her: "Aren't you picky eaters?"
