Chapter 1395

Kyrie looked furious, as if Elliot had done something wrong to him.

“You are ill now, you should rest well and don’t think too much.” Elliot stopped Kyrie and continued, “Rebecca said that she is not feeling well, I will go back and see her.”

His light tone made Kyrie feel like a fist. smashed in cotton.

After he left, Kyrie was very upset.

Kyrie said to the bodyguard, “He is more and more able to hide his feelings. Don’t look at how much he seemed to respect me just now, but he actually hated me in his heart.”

“Just because of that doctor named Xander. I don’t think he is?”

Kyrie frowned, “Of course he’s not for Xander...he’s for Avery. You didn’t hear him say Avery is not good? Avery is in a bad mood because of Xander’s death.”

The bodyguard laughed and said, “If she hates it, she hates it but she has no power, even if she hates you, she and also Elliot can’t do anything. this is your world. If you are willing to reuse him, he is a thing, if you don’t reuse him, he is a piece of sh*t!”

“He is still better than Lorenzo. I need him to do things for me.” Kyrie’s voice was low Come down, “but I don’t have to worry, Rebecca will definitely be able to keep him.”

Avonsville.

Tate Industries.

Mike convened a senior management meeting to truthfully inform everyone about the problems the company is currently facing.

Mike said, “It’s me who has implicated the company. Now that Avery is not in the country, she has no energy to manage the company, and she can’t solve the problems the company is facing now.”

“It means that our company only has the latest models. The product was not stolen.” An executive asked in surprise.

Mike said, “Yes. Except for the latest models, if other old models continue to be produced, there is only one situation, that is, they cannot be sold. Wonder Technologies has not invested any research and development, so they can be sold at low prices. And our cost is placed in front of them, it is impossible to fight a price war with them.”

The vice president wondered, “Then what should we do? Should we cut off the production line and lay off a large number of employees?”

Mike didn’t answer. If he wants to keep the company alive, this is the only way to go.

“I heard that Wonder Technologies has spent a lot of money to hire a research and development team abroad, and they should have a lot of new products to launch next.”

“I suddenly felt that our company was at a dead end and came to a dead end. How could this be?”

Mike: “Blame me. If it wasn’t for my stubborn ex who came out to make trouble, our company would never have done this.”

The vice president said, “Director Mike, since Avery is not to blame, then we don’t have the right to blame you. If the company really can’t go on, then go bankrupt. It’s not like the company has never gone bankrupt. Although I’m not very good at finding a job at my age, it’s good. I’ve saved a lot of money in the past few years...”

“Hey, are you really going to go bankrupt?” Someone sighed.

“Unless someone invests and changes the direction of development. Why can Wonder Technologies ride on our face? The first and biggest reason is that they have a lot of money. Wanda has made countless investments, even if they burned it in the early stage. A lot of money goes in, but it doesn’t affect the normal operation of their company at all and they continue to attract investment...”

“Who will invest in us? We offended many investors when our company was booming.”

“Yeah! Avery doesn’t accept investment from outsiders at all.”

“Then it can only go bankrupt. But even if the Tate Industries goes bankrupt, it will not affect Avery’s technology in Bridgedale at all.”

“I can come back and rebuild the Tate Industries.”

No one answered.

Because everyone knows it’s unlikely.

Wanda’s Wonder Technologies almost emptied the Tate Industries this time.

Reality is reality, Avery has no cards.

Chapter 1396

After the meeting, Mike was extremely depressed. If these executives quarreled with him, he might not have such a headache.

He called Chad out and had lunch together.

“Not only did they not blame me but they comforted me in turn, saying that it wasn’t my fault and that I should not blame myself.” Mike took a can of beer and took a sip and continued, “They don’t really want the company to go bankrupt, because there are so many of them. They all worked with Jack before. I feel very sorry for them.”

Chad looked at his depressed appearance and felt very uncomfortable.

These days, he hardly slept well because of this sudden incident.

This incident was his ex’s fault, and it had nothing to do with him, but he blamed all the faults on himself.

Chad said, “You’d better call Avery and ask her what to do. Go bankrupt or hold on, let’s see what she has to say.”

“She just had surgery, how dare I bother her with this? And she said that it’s okay to go bankrupt, which means she has accepted the fact that the company will go bankrupt. But I can’t accept it.”

“She can accept it, why can’t you accept it?”

Mike drank the wine in his hand and continued, “Because it was caused by me, so I can’t accept it. I only have one feeling these days. It’s not enough for him to hurt me once, and now he has to make up for it still such a deep knife, f*ck. I really want to kill him.”

“Stop talking, drink a beer.” Chad opened a can of beer and drank it with him.

“I don’t want the company to go bankrupt. If Elliot was here, he would definitely not watch Avery’s company go bankrupt.” Mike gritted his teeth and continued, “I want to endure until Elliot comes back.”

Chad glanced at him: “You can endure that time?”

Mike: “Maybe he will be back soon.”

Chad didn’t answer. He didn’t want to pour cold water on Mike.

It’s good to have hope. What if Elliot really returns to Aryadelle soon?

Blink, a week has passed.

Avery couldn't stay in the hospital and wanted to be discharged.

The doctor asked her to do a test. After the film came out, the doctor let her stay in the hospital.

The doctor said, "Ms. Tate, unless you go back to Aryadelle to receive medical treatment immediately after you are discharged from the hospital, otherwise, I will not be able to discharge you from the hospital. You will need to stay in the hospital for at least one month to be more secure for this operation."

Avery: "I feel that I have recovered. It's almost the same."

The doctor said helplessly, "Ms. Tate, you are also a doctor. If you were me and encountered a patient like you, would you let the patient go? If I let you out of the hospital, what happened to you?"

Avery said, "If something happens to me, I don't want you to be responsible. I may go back to Aryadelle. If I feel wrong when I go back to Aryadelle, I will go to the hospital immediately."

"Then you may not return to Aryadelle." The two were pulling in the doctor's office when Elliot walked in.

"Mr. Foster, you came just in time. Ms. Tate hasn't recovered yet, but she is willing to be discharged from the hospital. I can't let her out." The doctor walked up to Elliot and complained.

Elliot said: "Give her a discharge order. Let her be discharged."

Doctor: "???"

Chapter 1397

"I will send someone to take her back to Aryadelle. When she returns to Aryadelle, someone will naturally take her to the hospital for examination." Elliot explained to the doctor.

The doctor heard the words and immediately gave her a discharge order.

Avery felt that her life was being interfered with, and she frowned.

She took Elliot's arm and walked outside. The two came out of the office and walked towards the safe passage next to them.

“Elliot, I’m not going back to Aryadelle now.”

“I’ve already booked a ticket for you, you can leave today.” Elliot didn’t seem to hear her words.

Avery: “I won’t go.”

“You have to go.” Elliot’s tone was not severe. She is still a patient, and he will not have a fierce dispute with her. “When you go, I will help you to avenge.”

The words were choked in her throat, and she wanted to say it, but she felt very irrational. She wanted to say, she wanted to kill Kyrie with her own hands to avenge Xander.

But she is still sick, how can she kill Kyrie?

Don’t kill Kyrie by then, but instead fall into Kyrie’s hands, making it difficult for Elliot.

“Where did you buy the plane ticket for me?” Avery asked after a moment of silence.

“I haven’t bought it yet. You said before that you were going to Bridgedale, so I don’t know whether to buy it for you to go to Aryadelle or to go to Bridgedale.” Elliot said.

Avery said hoarsely, “I’m going to Bridgedale. I’m going to meet Xander’s parents and apologize to them.”

Elliot Said, “I’ll go when you’re well. What should you do if they blame you? When the matter on my side is resolved, then I will go with you.” Avery didn’t answer.

After a while, the doctor issued a discharge order, brought it over, and gave it to them.

Elliot took the discharge order and took her to the ward.

She had already packed her things in advance, and the bodyguard was carrying her luggage, ready to leave at any time.

“Let’s go!” Elliot said.

Bodyguard: “Go back to the hotel or…”

“Go to the airport.” Elliot held Avery’s hand and would not give her any other choice at all.

The bodyguards followed behind them with their luggage.

The bodyguard breathed a sigh of relief. Without Elliot, Avery would definitely find a way to find Kyrie.

Avery didn't want to die, but the bodyguard was still quite afraid of death.

The plane took off from Yonroeville and arrived at Bridgedale after several hours of flight.

Wesley was picked up at the airport.

After receiving Avery, Wesley immediately took her to the hospital.

Avery: "???"

Wesley explained, "You have only been hospitalized for a week, which is not enough. You are honestly in the hospital, don't think about anything."

Avery: "Brother Wesley, you can let me in anyway. Go and see Shea and Adrian."

Wesley said calmly, "You stay in the hospital first, and I will bring Adrian to see you. Xander's death has nothing to do with you. Although we have to believe science, but I think everyone has their own fate."

Avery sat down in the ward: "Brother Wesley, don't you think these words are very fateful?"

Wesley looked at her, "If we can't change things, we have to accept fate. To change what can be changed, to accept what cannot be changed. This is what Professor James Hough told me."

Avery listened and was very enlightened.

"You take a break first to avoid jet lag. Go for a checkup later, and then I'll find a doctor to prescribe medicine for you." Wesley glanced at her and asked, "Are you hungry? Do you want to eat something first?"

"A little hungry." Avery said.

After seeing Wesley, the feeling of grief eased a lot.

"I'll buy it for you." After that, Wesley was ready to go out.

"Brother Wesley, don't you ask me what I want to eat?"

Wesley stopped and looked back at her: "Aren't you picky eaters?"

Chapter 1398

Avery: “Well, I’m not picky eaters. You can buy whatever you want, don’t buy too much.”

Wesley: “Well.”

After Wesley left, Avery felt that her heart was floating in the air and gradually fell.

She lay down on the hospital bed, turned on her phone, and dialed Mike.

The call was quickly connected.

“I am now hospitalized in Bridgedale, and it is estimated that it will take ten days and a half to be discharged.” Avery told him about her situation.

Wesley: “You finally escaped from the devil’s lair.”

“But Elliot is still there.” Avery lowered her eyes, worried for him.

“It’s better than both of you being there. And Elliot has dealt with them before, so he won’t necessarily suffer.” Mike said here, the conversation changed, “Avery, I may bankrupt your company.”

Mike had told her before, so she was mentally prepared.

“What’s the situation with the company now?” Avery asked.

Mike has never told her the specific situation, so she has no idea.

After Mike explained the situation to her, she was not so pessimistic.

Avery said. "Don't we still have the latest product to produce? Let's boil it first. It's really not possible, we can cut off part of the production line first. Geckos can survive by docking their tails, and we have to find a way to survive now."

Mike listened After hearing her words, her nose became sour: "Last night, Layla heard from somewhere that the company was in crisis. She gave me a card, saying it was the money she earned, and let me use it to save your company." Avery Terribly sour.

"I went to check the balance in that card today, and it's close to 20 million. Why does she have so much money?" Mike was puzzled.

"That's not Layla's money." Avery said hoarsely. "Layla's card has always been with me. The card she gave you last night was probably given to you by Eric."

Mike: "Oh! I see. I said how did Layla know what happened in our company."

Avery: "Eric always silently helped me when I was in trouble."

Mike: "I'll invite him to dinner another day."

"After thinking about it. I have a headache now, I will rest for a while." Avery lay down on the hospital bed.

Mike: "Okay, now the company's people are unstable, and it's hard for me to leave. You take care of your illness, and I'll wait for you to return to Aryadelle."

Avery: "Well."

3 hours later.

Avery woke up and opened her eyes.

In the ward, Hayden, Gwen, and Adrian were all there.

Seeing them, Avery wanted to sit up immediately.

"Mom, lie down." Hayden strode to the side of the hospital bed and said to her, "I'll call Uncle Wesley."

After Hayden went out, Gwen and Adrian walked in front of her.

"Avery, you need to get better soon. When you are discharged from the hospital, I will take you to see the company opened by Hayden." Gwen said.

Avery nodded.

“Avery, my sister really wants to come with me, but Wesley said she can’t go out yet.” Adrian’s gentle eyes showed a bright and gentle luster.

Avery: “Adrian, are you feeling better?”

Adrian: “I’m fine. My sister has also gained weight.”

“That’s good.” Avery felt more at ease.

Life isn’t all bad news after all.

After a while, Wesley stepped forward.

In his hand, he held various checklists that Avery had previously been in Yonroeville.

“Avery, I took the test you did before to show the doctor.” Wesley took out one of the sheets, and continued, “You had a general anesthesia the day before the operation, what did you do with the general anesthesia?”

“Xander said Do an angiography again.”

Wesley frowned, “I didn’t see your second angiography. Besides, you don’t need to have two angiography. Why did he give you general anesthesia? How could he do that? Don’t you think it’s strange?”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1399

Chapter 1399

Avery felt strange. She asked Xander at the time, and Xander’s answer was that the dose of anesthesia he gave her was less than the dose of general anesthesia.

Avery trusted Xander so much that she didn’t take a close look at the dose he was giving.

Xander said that he was doing a second angiography, and she also found it strange, but she didn’t ask him to see the results of the second angiography.

Now that Wesley raised a question, Avery couldn’t answer it at all.

“What the h-e-l-l was Xander doing? With his professionalism, he shouldn’t mess around.” Wesley asked in confusion.

It’s a pity that Xander is dead now, so there’s no way to find out about him.

“Brother Wesley, don’t you know conspiracy theories?” When Avery said this, he felt his body carefully to see if there was any discomfort.

Her biggest discomfort now is the head wound.

Before the operation, she did not feel any discomfort in her body. She didn’t think Xander would deliberately give herself general anesthesia and then take the opportunity to do bad things to herself.

It’s just that Xander gave her general anesthesia the day before the operation, which was really confusing.

“Brother Wesley, it’s impossible for us to know the reason for what he did. And I don’t feel any discomfort in my body. There should be nothing wrong.” Avery said.

Wesley was worried, “Do a full body examination. If you’re free, go to the examination now.”

Avery glanced at Hayden, Gwen and Adrian.

Wesley continued, “You don’t need to worry about them. You take care of your own body first. You go to check, and the bodyguard will send them back.”

“Brother Wesley, you are so strict with me now.” Avery said angrily.

Wesley explained to Avery. “Elliot called me. He said that you are very self-willed now. When you found out that you were sick, you delayed the operation. After the operation, you refused to be hospitalized to recuperate.”

“Why does he speak ill of me behind my back?” Avery frowned, slightly angry, “If he doesn’t go to Yonroeville, can I do this? Why doesn’t he think about it?”

“I don’t care about him, I don’t care. I only know that you are going to be discharged from the hospital a week after the operation, which is ridiculous. If your teacher is still alive, he will definitely scold you.” Wesley moved out of Professor James Hough, and Avery became quiet.

“Are you hungry? I’m a little hungry.” Gwen said.

Hayden: “Then let’s go eat. I’ll pack a copy for my mother to bring over later.”

“Okay!” Gwen looked at Adrian and said, “Fool, are you hungry too?”

“I’m not a fool.” Adrian frowned to correct her.

"I've been calling you for more than ten years. If I don't call you an idiot, what will I call you?" Gwen bickered with him.

Adrian thought for a while, "Don't know. You can call me using anyname except idiot."

Gwen laughed and joked, "Tsk tsk, look serious. When I become popular in the future, I will introduce you to a girlfriend. Anyway, Your face is still handsome. There must be women who are willing to support you."

Adrian's face turned red with a swish: "I don't want a girlfriend, my sister and I..."

"Your sister will definitely marry Wesley in the future. When she marries Wesley, how lonely you will be." Gwen continued to tease him, "Hey, speaking of which, you are now the boss of the Sterling Group."

Adrian corrected her, "I'm not. Elliot is the one."

Gwen: "You have self-knowledge. Even if my brother's property is given to you, you can't keep it. It will be snatched away in two strokes."

While chatting, they walked to a nearby restaurant and sat down.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1400

Chapter 1400

After ordering, Gwen said to Adrian: "Avery's company is in trouble, I think Avery must be in need of money now. Adrian, you are the boss of the Sterling Group now, you play the role of your boss, Give some money Avery."

Adrian: "Okay! What should I do?"

Gwen: "You call Ben Schaffer and say you want to invest in the Tate Industries...or you just say If you want to give money to Avery, he will understand if you say so. You are the boss now, and he will definitely listen to you. And he should also want to help Avery."

Adrian nodded: "I don't have his number."

"I have." Gwen turned on the phone, found the blacklist, and reported Ben Schaffer's number to him, "Do you remember what I said to you just now?"

Adrian: "I want to give money to Avery."

"Yes! You said that after he connected." Gwen urged him to dial Ben Schaffer's number.

The call was made, and after a while, Ben Schaffer was connected.

“Hello.” Ben Schaffer’s low voice came from the phone.

After Ben Schaffer’s voice came, Gwen immediately winked at Adrian and asked him to speak.

Adrian looked at Gwen and winked, his mind went blank for a moment.

After Ben Schaffer ‘hello’ for the second time, Gwen scolded Adrian, “You idiot.”

Hearing Gwen’s voice, Ben Schaffer was stunned for a moment: “What are you scolding me for? Is this your new number?”

“No. This is your boss’s number.” Gwen said angrily.

Ben Schaffer was stunned again: “This is your second brother’s new number? Aren’t you in Bridgedale? Did you go to Yonroeville?”

“Can you figure out who your current boss is? Just your brain, How did you become the chief financial officer?” Gwen mocked mercilessly.

Ben Schaffer blushed immediately: “You said Adrian. This is Adrian’s number?”

“You don’t even save your boss’s number, do you look down on your boss?” Gwen said.

Ben Schaffer: “Okay, don’t laugh at it. I’m done. Tell me, what are you looking for?”

“Adrian will tell you.” Gwen handed the phone to Adrian.

Adrian took the phone and said politely to Ben Schaffer: “Hello, I want to help Avery.”

Ben Schaffer: “What?”

Gwen listened to his puzzled tone and immediately grabbed the phone: “Adrian wants to help Avery. Adrian is now the boss of the Sterling Group, so he can freely distribute the money your company makes, right? He wants to give money to Avery, you are in charge of finance, so this matter is left to you.”

Ben Schaffer finally understood the purpose of their call.

Ben Schaffer said, “It’s good for you to have this kind of heart. I’ll call Mike later to see how much he needs. Although Adrian is the boss of the Sterling Group, not all the company’s money is his. Yes, I hope you two can understand this.”

Gwen: “Then he must have a lot of money, right?”

Ben Schaffer: "Well."

"That's not it. Give Avery the money that belongs to him." Gwen said.

Ben Schaffer: "Gwen, are you using the Sterling Group as an ATM machine? Sooner or later, the shares of Adrian will be transferred back to Elliot. Elliot may come back at any time."

"My second brother will be back and will definitely help Avery." Gwen said firmly, "You didn't spend your money, what do you feel bad for?"

"It's not that I feel bad, but I think you are too self-motivated. The current problems of the Tate Industries are not only the money issue, they need to adjust now..."

Gwen interrupted him, "Don't tell me this, I don't understand. You go and contact Mike. If he asks for money, You pay him. This is your boss's order."
