Chapter 205

Chapter 205

The next day, Jessica was in her office, dealing with some contracts, when Wendy walked in with a lot of documents.

After Jessica signed the documents, Wendy still didn't leave. She hedged a bit before she said to Jessica, "Miss Hall, there's one more thing you need to know."

Seeing Wendy hedging, Jessica chuckled. "What, Wendy? Is there something so bad that even you don't dare to mention?"

Wendy shook her head. It wasn't that she didn't dare say. It was just that she didn't know how to say it. "I've got the news. Justin seems to have gone to New York. He is going to visit Mr. and Mrs. Hall with gifts."

Upon hearing Wendy's words, Jessica immediately understood Justin's intention. "He can do whatever he wants. My parents won't agree to what he asks."

but he asks.

Not everyone was as peacockish as Justin.

Wendy nodded. It was indeed annoying. But Justin was no commoner. It wasn't proper to stop him from meeting Jessica's parents.

The smile on Jessica's face faded.

At the same time, at the Hall's house in New York.

When Morgan learned that Justin was here, he immediately stopped working and rushed back home.

Over twenty years ago, Morgan had once worked with Justin not long after he had just started his business. Justin had indeed made a lot of achievements in the business world. He was very talented and bold.

However, Morgan didn't agree with the way Justin handled his social relations.

Later, when Morgan learned that Jessica had suffered a lot in the Thomas family, he started to hate Justin.

Some time ago, the news of Lucas and Jessica getting back together was spread widely. Mr. and Mrs. Halls were worried. But Jessica had said that it was a mere misunderstanding, and she would take care of it. :

Jessica had always been independent and Morgan also believed in his daughter. Therefore, Morgan and May never mentioned Lucas' name in front of their daughter. They didn't want to upset Jessica.

Yet now, Justin has arrived in New York to visit Jessica's parents. Morgan knew it must be related to Jessica and Lucas.

Justin arrived at the Hall's place at around four o'clock in the afternoon. May happened to be at home today, so she had to receive Justin with a fake smile.

Justin was a cunning man. He never hit the point. Besides, he was an old man, so May had to treat him respectfully. May became a bit annoyed soon.

She hurried to have Morgan informed before he clocked off.

Hearing the engine sound of the car outside the villa, May was slightly relieved and continued to drink tea with her head down.

As soon as the car stopped, Morgan opened the door and got out of the car.

He hurried to enter the villa. When he arrived, he saw Justin sitting opposite his wife.

Morgan adjusted his expression and walked up with a polite smile. "Mr. Thomas, it's been a long time."

"Mr. Hall, it has indeed been a long time."

Justin laughed, coughing as he spoke.

Morgan instantly recalled the news in which Justin was sent to the hospital in the middle of the night. It was said that Justin was in poor health, but he looked just fine to Morgan.

It was not the right time to talk about Justin's health condition. Thus, Morgan retracted his thoughts and sat beside May with a smile. "Mr. Thomas, why didn't you inform us of your visit? In that case, I could have had someone pick you up."

Justin chuckled and said, "It doesn't matter. It's not the first time I've come to New York. Besides, I'm here to discuss something big with you, Mr. Hall."

Morgan could guess Justin's intention, but he pretended to be puzzled. "What are you here for, Mr. Thomas?"

"Hah-hah, for a good thing. Something extremely good!"

Justin laughed and coughed a few more times. Then, he glanced at Dwayne behind him. "Dwayne, bring the documents over to Mr. Hall."

Dwayne then quickly took out the prepared documents from his briefcase and placed them on the table before Morgan. "Mr. Hall, Mrs. Hall, this is the compensation Mr. Thomas plans to offer to Miss Hall."

With that, Justin sighed. "Mr. Hall, I know that the Thomas family has let Jessica down. I know I didn't teach my grandchildren well, which was why Jessica had some unhappy memories at our place. You know, I have been in hospital before. And I realized something important now. These days, whenever I think of Jessica, I feel that as an elder, I haven't done a good job. Otherwise, Jessica wouldn't have divorced Lucas in disappointment."

Morgan and May looked at each other. No one touched the so-called compensation agreement.

Morgan waved his hand and said, "Mr. Thomas, the past is in the past. Don't mention it."

"How can you say that, Mr. Hall? These things were indeed in the past, but I can't ignore the harm the Thomas family has done to Jessica. This is just a small compensation. Mr. Hall, please accept it. Just see it as a way to reassure an old man."

When Morgan heard Justin's words, he couldn't help but sneer deep down, but he still kept a smile on his face. "What is Mr. Thomas saying? Jessica has a big heart. It's been almost a year. She won't take it seriously."

Justin sighed again. "Mr. Hall, what happened in the past was all my fault. I was stubborn in the past, which was why Jessica had suffered so much. Don't worry. In the future, I will never let anyone in the Thomas family say anything harsh to Jessica!"

Hearing that Justin finally got to the point, May immediately put on a grim face. Morgan tried to maintain his smile, but it was hard.

He frowned and said, "Mr. Thomas, I don't quite understand what you mean: It has been almost a year since Jessica and Lucas divorced..."

Justin looked at Morgan and smiled. "Mr. Hall, young people nowadays are rather arrogant. Didn't you see the news on the Internet a few days ago? Lucas and Jessica are in love with each other again. As their family, we can't be the bad guys who break up a couple, right?"

May listened to his nonsense and finally could not help but say, "Wait, Mr. Thomas, are you saying that Jessica and Lucas have gotten back together?"

Justin didn't like it when May interrupted. But since he came over to play up to the Hall couple, he didn't show his annoyance. He continued, "Lucas likes Jessica, and Jessica has been in love with Lucas for so many years. The two of them have always been in love with each other. The divorce before was only because of some misunderstandings. Now that the misunderstanding has been resolved, the two of them are together again. I don't see any problems. What do you think, Mrs. Hall?"

May trembled with anger. Morgan, who was beside her, held her hand, "Mr. Thomas, you are right. We support true love, so who Jessica is with, as parents, we won't interfere so much. I still don't know what is the big thing you are talking about now?"

Morgan didn't want to beat around the bush with Justin anymore, so he went straight to the point and asked.

Justin laughed again. "I didn't make it clear. It was my fault! I came here today mainly to talk about the marriage between Jessica and Lucas. Dwayne, take out the document."

Dwayne nodded and handed over another document.

This time, Dwayne didn't directly put the document on the table since he had learned his lesson. Instead, he opened the folder and handed it to Morgan and May.

May could not help but toss a glance at it. Justin was indeed generous, only to make Lucas marry Jessica. But so what?

The Hall family was richer than the Thomas family. They didn't lack any money.

May twitched her mouth. She couldn't help but chuckle.

Justin's face darkened when he saw that. "Mrs. Hall, you seem dissatisfied."

When May saw Justin look over, she retracted her contempt. "Mr. Thomas, you must be joking. Morgan and I only have one daughter and that is Jessica. In the future, all our stuff will belong to Jessica. We actually don't care about how much money you are offering us. As parents, we only want our daughter to live a happy life. If Jessica is willing to marry Lucas, Morgan and I won't have any objections even if we are going to offer our money or properties."

May was implying something. In the past, Justin looked down upon Jessica, yet now he was so eager to make Jessica his granddaughter-in-law. How hilarious!

Justin could naturally hear the sarcasm in May's words, but he would have to bear that.

Now that Justin wanted Jessica and Lucas to remarry, he could only soften his tone.

Justin smiled and pretended not to understand. "Mrs. Hall hit right on the point. That's exactly why I took the initiative to come over and discuss it with you two."
