Chapter 417: Not Allowing Her to Tag Along

Just as she finished speaking, Mo Zhu shook her head and rejected her firmly. “No! Go back to the hotel obediently!”

After saying this, she seemed to have thought of something and paused for a few seconds. She rubbed her palms and added, “If anything happens at the hotel tonight and I don’t return in time, go look for Xing Meng. She should know how to solve it!”

“No! I want to be with you!” Jiang Yu looked at Mo Zhu with a very pitiful expression. If Mo Zhu could say such things, something big might happen tonight. In that case, she definitely could not let Mo Zhu take the risk alone!

Before she could finish, Mo Zhu waved her hand impatiently and interrupted her coldly, “No! Go back to the hotel and stay there!”

After instructing her, Mo Zhu turned on her phone to look at the time. She turned her head and instructed Zhang Qi, “Don’t tell the teachers about Meng Ran’s disappearance first. Bring Jiang Yu to the hall to meet the students first. If they ask why Meng Ran isn’t around when they are taking attendance later, just say that I took her away.”

Zhang Qi had always listened to Mo Zhu. He nodded and replied, “Sure!”

Then, he recalled what Mo Zhu had said to Jiang Yu just now. He frowned and asked worriedly, “Sister Mo, are you going to look for Meng Ran? We’re not very familiar with the terrain and buildings in Country N. You have to be careful!”

Mo Zhu patted Zhang Qi’s shoulder and did not say anything else. She walked around the two of them and walked straight to the side door of the hotel.

She took out her phone and sent Huo Xuan a message asking him to go back first. Mo Zhu casually hailed a car on the street and headed to the old warehouse that the mysterious person had mentioned on the phone just now.

After Mo Zhu left, Jiang Yu turned her head and stared at Zhang Qi with a displeased expression. She learned the entire story from him and ordered coldly, "Follow me to the hotel's surveillance room!"

"The surveillance room?" Thinking that Jiang Yu might have wanted to see if Meng Ran had gone somewhere else before she had disappeared, Zhang Qi clenched his fists nervously and followed the girl obediently.

When she arrived at the surveillance room, Jiang Yu briefly explained the situation to the hotel staff and kept some dangerous factors of the situation from him. She only mentioned that Meng Ran's phone was missing and she could not contact her for the time being.

When the staff heard this, he nodded in understanding. He brought the two of them to the computer on the desk and skillfully pulled out the surveillance video of the various locations in the hotel. After instructing Jiang Yu how to check the time and location, the staff stood up and went to do something else.

Jiang Yu sat at her desk and operated the computer while Zhang Qi stood behind her and anxiously watched the surveillance video on the screen. When the staff member's figure completely disappeared from the room, Jiang Yu looked up indifferently in the direction of the door. Her hands did not stop as she neatly changed the computer screen into a string of mysterious codes that Zhang Qi could not understand!

The girl's fingers quickly typed code on the keyboard, and red dots quickly lit up on the computer screen on the desk.

After pulling out the map of Country N, Jiang Yu carefully analyzed the most suitable place to hide people in this small city. She eliminated a few places that were strictly controlled by the country and combined it with the location of the phone number that had been registered with Meng Ran's identity Mo Zhu had taken away just now, Jiang Yu instantly locked onto an alley that was located in the outer city.

The girl's clean and efficient actions shocked Zhang Qi. At this moment, he stood rooted to the ground and looked at the screen in a daze. Suddenly, he felt really lost as if he was in another dimension.

Although Jiang Yu did not talk much usually, everyone had been in the same group during the training period. She had always given people the feeling that she was gentle, soft, and weak. He did not expect that today, he would discover such a powerful side of the girl!

Chapter 418: Following Mo Zhu

In less than five minutes, Jiang Yu had located the location where Meng Ran might have been brought to through the various clues she had analyzed just now.

After restoring the computer to the scene where the surveillance video was originally monitoring, Jiang Yu stood up nimbly and brought Zhang Qi out of the surveillance room.

She took out her phone and recorded down the coordinates she had memorized. After the two of them took a few steps in the corridor, Jiang Yu turned her head and instructed Zhang Qi, "I've already located Sister Mo and Meng Ran's location. Meng Ran might have been kidnapped. Sister Mo must have decided to go alone because she was afraid of alerting the enemy. I'll rush over to help her immediately!"

After saying this, she sent the coordinates she had saved on her phone to Zhang Qi and continued, "In an hour, if I haven't sent you a message to inform you that we are safe, call Huo Xuan and tell him about the situation here. This is his phone number!"

Although Jiang Yu was very unwilling to give Huo Xuan and Mo Zhu any chance to develop their relationship, the situation was urgent now and the situation in Southeast Asia wasn't that optimistic. She had no choice but to consider Mo Zhu's safety!

After sending Zhang Qi Huo Xuan's phone number, Jiang Yu didn't say anything else and walked out of the hotel!

Zhang Qi stood in the corridor and watched in a daze as the girl disappeared around the corner. He nervously clenched the phone in his hand. After a while, worried that the three of them might encounter some danger, he ignored the arrangements Jiang Yu had made and took out his phone to call Huo Xuan.

Seeing that the call was from a Country Z's number, Huo Xuan frowned slightly and picked up the call.

Just as the call was picked up, Zhang Qi's anxious voice came from the other end. "Young Master Huo, something bad has happened! Sister Mo might be in danger!"

Upon hearing this, Huo Xuan's expression changed drastically. He asked in a low voice, "What's the situation? Explain it clearly!"

Zhang Qi calmed down and replied as calmly as possible, "Young Master Huo, I'm Sister Mo's classmate, Zhang Qi. Tonight, Meng Ran disappeared for no reason. Then, Sister Mo rushed to look for her in a hurry. After that, when Jiang Yu found out about this, she gave me a location and asked me to inform you if I don't hear from her in an hour. There's nothing else..."

After saying this, Zhang Qi was so nervous that his entire body was covered in sweat. Huo Xuan's name was very famous in Cloud City. Although his family background wasn't considered poor, this was the first time he was talking to such a big shot. Especially when he heard the man's cold tone just now, Zhang Qi broke out in cold sweat from fear!

When Huo Xuan heard this, he knocked the steering wheel heavily and asked, "Where is the location? Send it to me!"

Zhang Qi replied with a trembling voice, "Young Master Huo, Jiang Yu didn't give me the exact location. I only have a string of location numbers she sent me."

"Sure! Send me a copy of the same message!"

Upon hearing this, Zhang Qi didn't dare to delay. He immediately typed out the message Jiang Yu had sent him and sent it to Huo Xuan.

Although Zhang Qi knew how to forward the message, after reading the message carefully, he realized that this message was actually different from the one Jiang Yu had sent him!

He raised his phone again and briefly explained the situation to Huo Xuan. Huo Xuan replied in a low voice, "Where are you? Tell me your location. I'll pick you up now!"

When Zhang Qi heard this, he said anxiously, "I'm still at the hotel where we had dinner tonight!"

Just as he finished speaking, Huo Xuan hung up the phone neatly and rushed back to the hotel.

Thinking of how after receiving Mo Zhu's message just now, he had discussed with Xu Huan and Mo Wu about going to the West District to discuss business. Huo Xuan lowered his eyes and immediately called to inform the two of them about the change in the plans and asked them to gather at the hotel!

Chapter 419: Rushing to Save Them

Everyone's actions were very fast. They picked up Zhang Qi at the entrance of the hotel. Huo Xuan took his phone and quickly used the data cable to transmit the data to the computer at the same time. As expected, when he copied and pasted the location information that Jiang Yu had sent to him onto the internet, a huge map of Country N instantly covered the entire screen!

Upon seeing this scene, Xu Huan, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, widened his eyes in shock. He opened his mouth slightly in disbelief and turned to ask Huo Xuan, "Brother Huo, this map is so amazing. The person who made it is amazing!"

Huo Xuan didn't have the time to care about Xu Huan. He lowered his eyes and stared intently at the red dot that Jiang Yu had specially marked on the computer screen. A few seconds later, his gaze locked onto the outer city. "Let's go to Dragon Tail Alley. That girl means that Meng Ran was kidnapped and brought to an old warehouse in that area!"

Huo Xuan had been doing business in Southeast Asia for so many years, so he naturally had some understanding of the various industries in Country N. This area of Dragon Tail Alley used to be a heavy industry factory. More than ten years ago, when business was booming, the economy of the entire outer city was driven by these factories and they made a killing.

However, in the past few years, technology has developed rapidly. In addition, the atmospheric pollution was getting more and more serious. The business of heavy industry had gradually fallen behind that of technology products and light industry. Therefore, the factories that were originally built in the outer city had closed down and many people changed careers. This resulted in so many old empty warehouses in Dragon Tail Alley.

It was also because of this, the area became the place where many shady businesses in Country N were transacted.

After instructing Mo Wu to drive the car to Dragon Tail Alley, Huo Xuan sat in the car with a dark expression. He looked out the window with a heavy heart, deep in thought.

At the same time, Mo Zhu had already arrived at the warehouse accurately according to the address given by the other party.

Looking around and observing the surrounding terrain, Mo Zhu briefly analyzed her current location.

If she was not wrong, this should be an area where many crimes happen and it was not under the jurisdiction of anyone in Country N's outer city. On the way here just now, even though the driver had taken the main road, she did not see many cars and pedestrians along the way.

For the other party to choose such a place to meet her, it seemed like a fierce battle was inevitable today!

Thinking of this, Mo Zhu placed her and Meng Ran's phones into her coat pocket and zipped her coat to her collar. After double-checking the number of the warehouse, her eyes darkened and she pushed open the door of old warehouse No. 23.

After being pushed by Mo Zhu, the slightly rusty door let out a piercing sound. Then, there was the sound of a bullet being loaded.

At this moment, a bright light suddenly shone on Mo Zhu's body. She could not bear the physical stimulation and lowered her eyes, forcefully holding back the water vapor in her eyes.

Before Mo Zhu could completely adapt to the strong light, gunshots rang out in the surroundings.

She acutely dodged the first round of attacks through the direction where the gunshots came from. Suddenly, a crying female voice came from the quiet warehouse. "Sister Mo! Be careful! Not only do they have guns, but there's also a sniper lying in ambush outside the warehouse!"

The warehouse was very quiet at this moment. Mo Zhu naturally heard the voice in the dark. The person who had informed her was Meng Ran. After saying this, in order to prevent her from speaking again, the criminal hiding in the corner used a cloth to roughly cover the girl's mouth. Only Meng Ran's sobs were left in the air.

Upon hearing this, Mo Zhu's expression changed. She looked up in the direction where the sound came from. There were many paint buckets piled up high together. She rubbed her palms slightly and knew that Meng Ran was behind these paint buckets.

Chapter 420: Confrontation

A few seconds later, she seemed to have thought of something and put on a nonchalant expression. Her hands were lazily in her pockets until the only light shone on her. Everyone in the corner was observing her. She took two steps forward and said coldly, "Did you spend so much effort to lure me here just to hide in the dark and be a coward?"

After being mocked by Mo Zhu, a group of men in black holding guns indeed appeared in the dark. Just by looking at the clothes and looks of this group of people, they were indeed from Country N.

After pondering quietly for a few seconds, Mo Zhu could not think of who would specially kidnap Meng Ran to threaten her. If she could not figure it out, she might as well stop thinking about it. Putting these thoughts to the back of her mind, she looked at the person in charge of leading the team and said, "I'm already here. If there's anything, you can talk to me personally. Let that girl go!"

When the other party heard this, the face under the black cloth smiled. "Ms. Mo Zhu, I think you might have misunderstood. We didn't lure you here to discuss any conditions. What we want is your life!"

After saying this, without giving Mo Zhu time to react, that person waved his hand behind him. Dozens of men in black who were dressed similarly instantly appeared around Mo Zhu, each of them holding a gun.

Dozens of bullets shot at Mo Zhu at the same time. Meng Ran watched this scene from the corner and tears welled up in her eyes uncontrollably. She wanted to tell Mo Zhu loudly that it was dangerous here and that she had to run quickly, but her hands and feet were tightly tied and her mouth was stuffed with cloth. She could only watch as this group of people attacked the girl ruthlessly.

Her pupils constricted slightly. In an instant, Mo Zhu jumped into the air and dodged wave after wave of attacks. As she dodged the bullets, she quickly took out the silver needles she carried with her from her coat pocket and started to counterattack neatly.

At this moment, the windows around the warehouse suddenly shattered. A few silenced bullets from sniper rifles shot towards Mo Zhu.

A few days ago, as she was seriously injured in the Kang family, Mo Zhu's strength and ability had already decreased during this period of time. Now that she was dodging so many guns shooting at her at the same time, she was out of strength to dodge the bullets that came from the window.

She moved around, trying to avoid the bullets hitting important parts of her body. A bullet brushed past Mo Zhu's left shoulder. Immediately, a violent pain hit her, and the blood that gushed out of the wound instantly seeped out of her coat.

Mo Zhu took two steps back. Her eyes were bloodshot and the corners of her eyes were red. Her hair was slightly scattered on both sides of her face. As she had been forcefully raising her internal energy to avoid the gunshot and using her internal energy to activate the silver needles to defeat the enemy, her lips were pale and she looked like she was about to collapse.

"Bang!"

Bang! Bang!

Another round of bullets sounded beside her. Mo Zhu threw out the silver needles and retreated to dodge them.

At this moment, hurried footsteps suddenly came from the door of the warehouse behind her.

Then, Jiang Yu's figure appeared at the entrance of the warehouse. She casually picked up two guns that were thrown away by the men in black lying on the ground Mo

Zhu had defeated with the silver needles. Jiang Yu started firing at the men not far away with a dark expression.

After she had neatly shot the bullets in the gun, she used the stacked paint buckets in the warehouse as cover and hurriedly jumped behind them to reload before continuing the battle.

However, because there were too many men in black in the warehouse, and it was quite dark there, Jiang Yu's bullet accuracy was greatly reduced.

At this moment, Mo Zhu had just retreated to avoid another bullet that brushed past her. When she saw that the person who came was Jiang Yu, she turned to look at the girl and shouted coldly, "Who asked you to take the initiative to come here! This is not a place you should be! Hurry up and return to the hotel!"

When Jiang Yu heard this, she casually picked up a gun from the ground and looked up at Mo Zhu. She said firmly, "Sister Mo, stop talking. I won't go back. Let me fight with you. I don't want to be a burden who has to rely on you to protect me!"

After saying this, before Mo Zhu could say anything else, she held the gun in both hands and flipped over a few more corpses neatly. She aimed at a man in black and fired.

With Jiang Yu's help, the target of the man was no longer just Mo Zhu. Taking advantage of the momentary distraction, Mo Zhu took out a silver needle and quickly inserted a few needles into the acupuncture point on her left shoulder. After stopping the blood that gushed out of her blood vessels, the color on Mo Zhu's face recovered a little.

Chapter 421: Fighting Together

Jiang Yu raised her gun and jumped back and forth between the piles of paint buckets. As she dodged the bullets from the other party, she raised her gun and counterattacked. Seeing that everyone's attention was focused on the girl, she tried her best to stop the bleeding and bandage her wound. Mo Zhu stabilized her body by holding onto the paint bucket that had rolled to her feet after receiving a heavy blow.

From the corner of her eye, she found a shadowed area in the area that was not easy to be discovered. Mo Zhu's eyes darkened as she exerted strength in her dantian. She propped herself up with the paint bucket and turned around, and in a few steps she managed to hide herself in the shadows.

Her gaze was cold as she observed the man in black who was fighting Jiang Yu. A bone-chilling coldness appeared on her beautiful face!

She neatly took out a large number of silver needles from her pocket and matched Jiang Yu's shot. Mo Zhu used her internal energy to activate the silver needles and instantly inserted them accurately into the acupuncture points of the man in black.

She threw out all the silver needles in her hand. When she took out the last silver needle, Mo Zhu knelt on the ground with her left knee, her face pale as she suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood.

All the men in black present also paid the price. With Mo Zhu's attack, their acupuncture points were all fixed and they stood rooted to the ground, unable to move!

When Jiang Yu saw this, she quickly walked to Mo Zhu's side. She held her gun with one hand in case the enemies launched a sneak attack and helped the girl up from the ground with the other.

"Sister Mo, how do you feel?" Jiang Yu's tone revealed a deep worry. She noticed that Mo Zhu's left shoulder was soaked in blood. She opened her mouth in shock and said, "Sister Mo! You're injured? Why are you bleeding so much?"

Just now, when she entered the warehouse and saw Mo Zhu being surrounded by so many unknown men in black, Jiang Yu did not have the time to look at her surroundings carefully. She casually picked up a few weapons and fought the enemy.

In addition, the sky was dark now, and there was not much moonlight in the warehouse to begin with. After Mo Zhu dodged a few times, the headlights controlled by the enemies had already been shone elsewhere. Under such circumstances, it was already not easy to find the girl in the crowd, let alone see if she was injured!

Seeing how worried Jiang Yu was about her, Mo Zhu smiled and touched the girl's hand that was holding her tightly. She shook her head and replied, "It's just a small injury. I'm fine!"

After saying this, Mo Zhu stood up and quickly walked a few steps closer to the man in black who had taken the lead to talk to her just now. She raised her eyes slightly and looked straight at the man. She raised her hand and neatly pulled off his mask. Mo Zhu asked coldly, "Speak! Who sent you?"

This person was the leader of the team of the man in black. When he saw Mo Zhu standing in front of him and questioning him coldly, the man originally wanted to spit at this girl who did not know her place and then mock her ruthlessly.

Unexpectedly, this girl had used some evil technique. Although he was standing firmly on the spot, he could no longer control his body. He felt as if his entire body was out of his control!

Sensing the hostility on the man's body, Mo Zhu reached out and directly pressed a few major acupuncture points on his neck. "You can speak now. Answer my question honestly. Otherwise, I'll start with you and let your subordinates see what I can do!"

Just as he finished speaking, the man coughed twice tentatively. After confirming that he could speak, his expression was grave as he asked Mo Zhu in a low voice, "Who exactly are you! What did you do to us?"

Mo Zhu raised her eyebrows and looked up at the man expressionlessly. She emphasized in an unhappy tone, "I'm the one asking you! If you answer something else, I'll cut your tongue off!"

Looking at Mo Zhu's vicious gaze that looked like she wanted to eat him up, the man shivered quietly and replied with a trembling voice, "We're just a small organization in Country N. Someone offered a high price to buy your life!"

Chapter 422: The Person Behind the Scenes

Upon hearing this, Mo Zhu lowered her eyes slightly and subconsciously rubbed her palms.

Using money to buy her life?

Although she had come to Southeast Asia a few times for other reasons, she had never had much contact with the organizations and gangs here, let alone made enemies!

Mo Zhu could not think of anyone who could spend a high price to buy her life in Country N!

Besides, tonight's matter was different from ordinary kidnapping cases. The person who came must be very familiar with Mo Zhu to know that Meng Ran was on good terms with her. That was how they were able to target this girl accurately and lure her into the trap!

Before Mo Zhu could think of any substantial clues, a familiar female voice suddenly came from the corner. "Haha, you don't have to continue guessing, Mo Zhu. The person who wants your life is me!"

Just as she finished speaking, Kang Wan walked out of the shadows with a laugh.

Seeing that the person who came was this girl, Mo Zhu frowned slightly. She looked up at the girl coldly and asked, "It's you? Heh, how dare you attack my people. Are you really tired of living?"

Upon hearing Mo Zhu's words, Kang Wan seemed to have heard a huge joke. She couldn't help but laugh. "Haha, Mo Zhu, how dare you be so arrogant in my territory. Don't tell me you think that I only prepared these few people to deal with you!"

After a pause, she took two steps forward and waved her hand. She added with a disdainful expression, "These are just the appetizers. The ones lying in ambush outside the warehouse are the greeting gifts I'm giving you!"

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL.COM

Following Kang Wan's words, she looked up at the men in black in the warehouse. Mo Zhu sneered coldly and said, "Don't speak too early. How can you fight me with such strength? It's still unknown who will win tonight!"

Ignoring the coldness in the girl's words, Kang Wan took out a small whistle from her pocket and placed it by her mouth. She glanced at Mo Zhu and Jiang Yu, who was beside her, and continued with a cold expression, "I'll settle you here today and take it as revenge for the Kang family. Although the person in charge of the Kang family now is not my family, I heard that you destroyed my aunt's precious hands. In that case, let's take this opportunity to settle this score with interest!"

After saying this, she stuffed the whistle into her mouth before Mo Zhu could reply.

After blowing twice, rustling footsteps suddenly came from the bushes outside the warehouse.

Upon hearing the commotion outside, Mo Zhu took two steps back and came to Jiang Yu's side. She pushed the girl hard and lowered her eyes. "Not good, there are many people outside. It seems like this girl has already laid an ambush in advance!"

"Kang Wan's target is me. I'll lure them away later and you can escape in the chaos..."

Before Mo Zhu could finish, she thought that Mo Zhu would definitely want to protect her. Jiang Yu grabbed the girl's hand anxiously and shook her head vigorously. "Sister Mo, I won't leave you here alone. If you want to leave, we'll leave together!"

Seeing that the two of them were acting like sisters, Kang Wan sneered and sneered, "Don't waste your energy. None of you can escape today. Oh, right, there's also Meng Ran. On the account that we're all classmates, other than Mo Zhu, I'll let them give you a quick death."

After saying this, she turned her gaze to Mo Zhu's face. A hint of jealousy flashed across Kang Wan's eyes. "Mo Zhu, now that things have come to this, don't blame me for being ruthless. This is all your fault. If you had stayed in that small city and been a country bumpkin, you definitely wouldn't have attracted such a fatal disaster. If you want to blame someone, blame your mother who wants to climb up the social ladder!"

Chapter 423: Huo Xuan Is Here

Kang Wan had been in Cloud City for so long and had already secretly investigated the matters between Mo Zhu and the Huo family through her own methods. Naturally, she knew her background very well.

If not for Mo Zhu's biological mother, who wanted to give her to the Huo family when Huo Xuan was seriously ill, with Huo Xuan's status, a country bumpkin like Mo Zhu would probably never be able to climb up to such a high branch in her life!

Noticing Kang Wan's jealous expression, Mo Zhu sneered and retorted, "You're wrong. Even without me, Huo Xuan wouldn't have taken a liking to the Kang family! The Kang family only knows how to use underhanded methods to plot against others. It is disgusting to have any contact with you!"

Just as Mo Zhu finished speaking, the sound of a car engine suddenly came from outside the warehouse. It was unknown what happened outside, but sniper bullets shot in from the window again.

Her sharp eyes caught a glimpse of the fire in the night. Mo Zhu turned around and pressed Jiang Yu under her, avoiding the bullets. After rolling a few times, as she was severely exhausted, she was still ruthlessly shot by a bullet in her left shoulder that had been injured by the bullet just now.

An old wound was added to a new one. The flesh on the girl's shoulder instantly opened up. Blood flowed down in streams, and the side of her shoulder that was soaked spread to her chest.

Pain assaulted her. Just as Mo Zhu was about to be unable to hold on and dodge the next round of shots, the commotion outside the warehouse suddenly stopped. Then, a flashlight shone into the warehouse from the door.

Through the light of the flashlight, Mo Zhu saw that the people who walked into the warehouse were Huo Xuan and Xu Huan. Seeing that the two of them had noticed the commotion and were running over, Mo Zhu relaxed her tense nerves and fainted as if she couldn't hold on any longer.

Before her consciousness completely disappeared, she only had time to remind Huo Xuan, "Inform someone named Ren in my contact list about my injuries!"

At this moment, when she saw the scene in front of her, Kang Wan covered her mouth in disbelief. She was surrounded by the people Huo Xuan had brought with him. She stood rooted to the ground, trembling in fear.

Huo Xuan lifted Mo Zhu up horizontally. When he passed by the girl, he glanced at her coldly and said with a vicious and resolute tone, "Someone, lock her up in the interrogation camp of the Dark Department. After you've gone through every torture device, let her serve the captives in Continent M!"

After a pause, he looked at Kang Wan's pitiful appearance as she sobbed weakly. He added coldly, "Let Mo Jiu prescribe a good tonic and keep this b*tch alive. I want her to live a life worse than death!"

When Huo Xuan said this, Kang Wan was immediately frightened. She knew this man well. Huo Xuan had always been a man of his word since he was young. When he said this, Kang Wan didn't even dare to think about her future miserable outcome.

Kang Wan took two steps forward and grabbed the man's sleeve. She choked and said anxiously, "Brother Huo, you can't do this to me! All of this! This girl asked for it!"

"Brother Huo, have you forgotten? You still owe my aunt a favor. I can explain everything that happened today. You can't just sentence me to death like this!"

When Huo Xuan heard this, he sneered and shook off Kang Wan's hand. He turned his head and glared at the girl's eyes. "I've already repaid Cheng Tang's favor. I have nothing more to do with the Kang family and the Cheng family. You hurt my fiancée today, I'll definitely make you pay a thousand times the price!"

After saying this, Huo Xuan didn't want to look at Kang Wan anymore. He carried Mo Zhu and walked quickly. He left the warehouse and got into the car. He set off for the small mansion he had bought in Country N.

He handed the scene to Mo Wu and Xu Huan and saved Jiang Yu and Meng Ran. After sending the two of them and Zhang Qi back to the hotel, Mo Wu dealt with the remaining men in black in the warehouse while Xu Huan rushed to investigate the exact identities of the people Kang Wan had invited tonight.

Chapter 424: Saving Mo Zhu

According to Mo Zhu's instructions, he called the person she had marked as Ren in the girl's contact list. Huo Xuan sat anxiously in the main hall of the small mansion, waiting for this mysterious person to arrive.

The butler and servants in the small mansion were also very busy.

Although this was the mansion that Huo Xuan often stayed in when he was in Country N, the servants knew that all these years, other than occasionally discussing business here, Huo Xuan had never brought a woman back.

And tonight, not only did he bring back a young girl, he even carried her upstairs personally!

Huo Xuan carried Mo Zhu to his bedroom and laid her down. Then, he sat in the main hall, deep in thought. Not long later, the group of people that “Ren” had called over knocked on the door of the small mansion according to the address he had given.

As Huo Xuan had instructed the butler in advance that there would be guests visiting late at night, the butler directly brought the few people who came into the villa. After greeting the people who came, Huo Xuan led them to the bedroom where Mo Zhu was resting.

The few of them briefly checked the external injuries on Mo Zhu’s shoulder and took the girl’s pulse. Then, they turned around and instructed Huo Xuan, “Sir, we have to treat Ms. Mo Zhu’s wounds and diagnose her. If you don’t have anything urgent, why don’t you wait outside first?”

Seeing that two of the “experts” had already started wearing anti-bacteria protective clothing, Huo Xuan didn’t want to be a hindrance and delay their treatment of Mo Zhu. After nodding in agreement, he turned around and left the bedroom.

Seeing Huo Xuan come out, Xu Huan stood up from the sofa and walked to the man. As he handed over the information in his hand, he said in a low voice, “Brother Huo, Mo Wu has already investigated the people who attacked tonight. They are all small organizations and gangs in Country N. They usually do small jobs like smuggling, stealing, and taking orders to kill. Apart from being greedy, there’s nothing abnormal about them!”

Upon hearing this, Huo Xuan frowned slightly. He calmly raised his hand and pinched the space between his eyebrows. He said coldly, “Nothing abnormal? How did they get so many guns?”

/ please keep reading on

Although Southeast Asia’s Country N was indeed not as strict in the control of guns as Country Z, if this group of people was really as the investigated information they had shown and they were just an inconspicuous small organization in Country N, it was impossible for them to get so many guns, let alone hire snipers in secret!

Upon hearing Huo Xuan’s question, Xu Huan didn’t know how to answer. He raised his hand and scratched his head, replying in confusion, “I, I really don’t know!”

After pausing for a few seconds, he seemed to have thought of something and a glint flashed across his eyes. He suddenly looked up at Huo Xuan and guessed boldly, “Brother Huo, do you think Mi Lai has also interfered in this matter? If they want to cause such a huge commotion in Country N, especially in an unregulated area like Dragon Tail Alley, with Mi Lai's ability, it's impossible for them not to have heard any news!"

Huo Xuan nodded and replied in agreement, "That's right. I've also considered this point. These small organizations can't cause any trouble. Instruct Mo Qi to bring the Dark Forces to eliminate them. At the same time, get involved in Mi Lai's business and give him a reminder. If we really find any traces of their interference in this matter, I want to take back the business in Southeast Asia and teach them a lesson!"

The man's pupils constricted slightly, and a murderous expression appeared on his face. "They've challenged my bottom line time and time again! Then don't blame me for not showing mercy!"

Chapter 425: After the Surgery

About half an hour later, the door of Mo Zhu's bedroom was opened. The few people who had entered to treat the girl walked out of the room in an orderly manner.

Seeing that they had already completed the treatment, Huo Xuan let go of everything else on his mind. He stood up and quickly walked to the leader of the group and asked anxiously, "Doctor, how's Xiao Zhu's condition? Is she alright?"

Huo Xuan's voice trembled a little. He wasn't by Mo Zhu's side in such a dangerous situation tonight. Thinking that this girl hadn't fully recovered from her injuries in the Kang family, he was really afraid that something would happen to her. If that was the case, he wouldn't be able to forgive himself for the rest of his life!

The man took off his mask and looked up at Huo Xuan. He reported Mo Zhu's condition seriously, "Sir, Ms. Mo Zhu's vital signs have stabilized. She has a total of two gunshot wounds on her body. Apart from the abrasions on her left shoulder, a bullet has entered Ms. Mo Zhu's muscles. Through surgery, we have already taken out the bullet left in her body and bandaged the wound to stop the bleeding. After that, she only needs to change the medicine timely and recuperate quietly. You don't have to worry too much!"

Upon hearing the doctor's words, Huo Xuan felt relieved. He heaved a long sigh of relief and said in a low voice, "That's good, that's good. In this case, thank you to everyone here!"

Seeing how polite Huo Xuan was, the doctor waved his hand and explained, "Sir, the few of us are part of the medical team under Ms. Mo Zhu. We are already under her support and care, so we should work for her. You don't have to thank us!"

After saying this, the few of them neatly brought the medicine box and materials they had brought with them when they came. Without saying anything else, they left the small mansion without looking back.

After everyone left, Huo Xuan returned to Mo Zhu's bedroom.

He sat quietly by the girl's bed and stared at her seriously, his eyes filled with gentleness and love.

At this moment, there were only the two of them in the room. Huo Xuan listened to Mo Zhu's light breathing and raised his hand to slowly touch the girl's soft hand.

After more than ten minutes, Huo Xuan acutely felt his hand tremble slightly.

His eyes widened slightly as he stared intently at the girl's face. After Mo Zhu slowly opened her eyes, Huo Xuan frowned, and his eyes were a little moist. "Xiao Zhu, you're finally awake. Do you know how worried I was?"

In the face of such a situation, he had originally wanted to wait for Mo Zhu to open her eyes and ruthlessly scold her for not informing him in time. However, when he saw the girl wake up, he was so afraid that his entire body felt uncomfortable. Not to mention criticizing and reprimanding her, Huo Xuan couldn't say a single harsh word. All that was left in his heart was love and heartache.

At this moment, Mo Zhu was also very weak. She was seriously injured and had lost too much blood. Since she was young, no matter what field she was in, as long as she wanted to do something, she could always do it best. It was also the first time she had encountered a danger like today where she was almost killed by someone.

Noticing that Huo Xuan was holding her hand, Mo Zhu squeezed the man's palm slightly harder. She lowered her eyes slightly and replied in a low voice, "I'm sorry for making you worry..."

When Huo Xuan heard this, he gently supported Mo Zhu and leaned her against the head of the bed. He hugged the girl to his chest and rubbed Mo Zhu's hair as he said with a heartache, "I don't mean to blame you. You don't have to apologize to me. I'm just too worried about you. Seeing that you're so seriously injured, I'm a little anxious..."

After saying this, he carefully avoided the wound on Mo Zhu's shoulder. Huo Xuan lowered his eyes and looked at the girl's pale face. He frowned slightly and asked with a worried expression, "Why do you look so pale? Do you need to call Mo Jiu over to take a look?"

He didn't know the abilities of the people Mo Zhu had brought over in treating illnesses. Compared to them, Huo Xuan trusted Mo Jiu more.

Upon hearing this, Mo Zhu shook her head lightly and said, "There's no need. My people have been here, right? The few of them are very skilled in the medical field. I know my own body very well. I just lost too much blood tonight and suffered a serious loss of vital energy. In addition, I had overexerted my internal energy and caused a backlash. It's nothing serious. I'll be fine after resting for a few days!"

Chapter 426: Visiting Mo Zhu

Upon hearing Mo Zhu's words, Huo Xuan naturally wouldn't disobey the girl. He nodded quietly and agreed to Mo Zhu's request. He sat by the bed and obediently acted as a pillow for the girl.

A few minutes later, recalling that Mo Zhu's body was weak and she needed to replenish her energy, Huo Xuan frowned slightly and asked softly, "Xiao Zhu, do you want to eat something? Or drink some porridge. You've exhausted so much energy tonight. You can recover faster by eating a little!"

When Mo Zhu heard this, she shook her head and replied, "I don't really feel like eating now."

After saying this, she seemed to have thought of something and looked up at Huo Xuan before continuing, "Are Meng Ran and Jiang Yu alright?"

Although she knew that Huo Xuan would definitely protect the two of them, she was still worried and wanted to ask about their safety personally. After all, the cause of the matter was ultimately her!

Huo Xuan held Mo Zhu's hand and gently rubbed the back of the girl's hand as he replied, "Those two girls are fine. I asked Xu Huan to arrange for someone to send them back to the hotel!"

"That's good, that's good."

Upon hearing this, Mo Zhu was relieved. She shook the man's hand and lowered her eyes, pinching the space between her eyebrows with a slightly tired expression.

Seeing this, Huo Xuan helped Mo Zhu lie down again. Seeing that it was getting late, he instructed the servants not to disturb them. Then, he neatly crawled into the girl's bed and hugged Mo Zhu to sleep.

The next morning, just as the sun rose, there was an impatient knock on the door of the small mansion. After the butler opened the door and saw who it was, he brought them to the sofa in the main hall.

The people who knocked on the door early in the morning were Jiang Yu, Meng Ran, and Zhang Qi. Although the three of them had obediently returned to the hotel last night to not cause trouble for Huo Xuan, it did not mean that they were not concerned about Mo Zhu's condition. Therefore, when they woke up, Jiang Yu had nimbly found the location of Mo Zhu's phone and brought the two of them to the small mansion to visit the girl.

Due to the butler's announcement, Huo Xuan and Mo Zhu came downstairs for breakfast in a few minutes.

When Mo Zhu arrived at the main hall, seeing that the three of them had arrived so early and there was a huge table of breakfast prepared by the servants at the dining table, she took the initiative to invite them to eat together.

Everyone did not refuse and went to the dining room to choose a chair to sit down on.

When Jiang Yu saw this, her sharp eyes noticed that there was an empty seat beside Mo Zhu. She quickly took two steps forward and aimed at the chair beside the girl, preparing to sit down.

Unexpectedly, before she could pull the chair out, Huo Xuan's low voice suddenly sounded from behind her. "Young lady, this seat is mine."

Upon hearing this, Jiang Yu's face darkened unhappily. She looked up at Mo Zhu, who was sitting quietly and eating porridge, feeling wronged. Her tone carried a hint of resentment. "Sister Mo, I haven't had breakfast with you in a long time. I want to sit beside you!"

Just as she finished speaking, Meng Ran, who was sitting opposite her, winked at her. She pointed at the empty chair beside her and suggested, "Xiao Yu, why don't you sit beside me? I have an empty seat here!"

After saying this, Jiang Yu turned around and looked at Meng Ran unhappily. She frowned and pursed her lips. "No! I want to sit with Sister Mo!"

Seeing how persistent the girl was, Meng Ran did not persuade her anymore. She looked at Mo Zhu helplessly and shrugged, indicating that she had no choice.

She really could not understand Jiang Yu. After the recent training and examinations, Meng Ran and Jiang Yu had competed in the same group and lived in the same dormitory. She could vaguely feel that this girl had an inexplicable hostility towards Mo Zhu's fiancé, Young Master Huo. However, if she had to explain it in detail, she really could not point out anything abnormal!

In the current situation, it was obvious that Young Master Huo wanted to sit with Mo Zhu, but Jiang Yu insisted on intervening and separating the couple. Meng Ran really didn't understand why this girl had such a deep prejudice against Huo Xuan!

Chapter 427: Apologizing

Jiang Yu refused to give up. Thinking that the two of them had quarreled because of Huo Xuan before they came to Country N, Mo Zhu looked up and gave the man a helpless look. Huo Xuan immediately understood the deep meaning hidden in her eyes.

Huo Xuan shook his head lightly and sat down at the side. He didn't bear a grudge against Jiang Yu because of this small matter.

Upon seeing this scene, Jiang Yu raised her chin in satisfaction and sat down naturally. As she took the porridge that the servant had scooped for her, she looked at Mo Zhu and asked, "Sister Mo, I received a notice from the leader in Beijing last night that we're taking the plane back tonight. Are you coming with us?"

Upon hearing this, Mo Zhu looked up and glanced at Huo Xuan indifferently. Then, she shook her head and replied, "No, I'm not going with everyone else."

Just as she finished speaking, Jiang Yu's frown deepened. "Sister Mo, are you taking a private plane back? Let me go with you. I want to be by your side and take care of you!"

When Meng Ran heard this, she almost choked on a mouthful of porridge. She lowered her head and coughed suddenly. Meng Ran continued, "Xiao Yu, you don't have to be so worried about Sister Mo. Isn't there still Young Master Huo? I believe that with him around, he will definitely protect Sister Mo well. Besides, what era are we in now? Are bodyguards still allowed?"

Not only did Jiang Yu's move last night scare Zhang Qi, but it also shocked Meng Ran.

She had always thought that Jiang Yu, this girl, was a delicate beauty. She did not expect her to be able to fight so well and shoot at a group of criminals.

Although Meng Ran believed that she could be Mo Zhu's bodyguard with her ability, she was a little puzzled by the girl's insistence on getting involved in the couple's private time.

When they first arrived at the small mansion in the morning, they had asked Xu Huan about the doctor's diagnosis of Mo Zhu's condition. If she only needed to recuperate and nourish her body in the future, there was indeed no need to spend so much effort to specially arrange for someone to take care of her.

Jiang Yu pursed her lips. Seeing that Mo Zhu's expression did not change, she choked slightly and said, "Sister Mo, just agree to it. I..."

Before she could finish, Mo Zhu raised her hand and pinched the space between her eyebrows, hurriedly interrupting the girl. "You can take the private plane back with me, but you don't have to take care of me personally. In a while, get Huo Xuan to arrange for someone to send you back to the hotel to pack your things. After you're done packing, bring your luggage to the small mansion. Before you leave Country N, stay here obediently and don't go anywhere!"

Upon hearing Mo Zhu's agreement, Jiang Yu did not care about what she had emphasized after that. She happily immediately put on a smile and said, "Thank you, Sister Mo!"

Anyway, other than the competition, she had nothing else to do in Country N. Jiang Yu was unfamiliar with this place and the only person who had contact with her was Mo Zhu. As long as she could be with Sister Mo, she would do anything!

The meal ended quickly. After dinner, everyone sat on the sofa in the main hall and drank tea and chatted.

Meng Ran sat beside Mo Zhu with a guilty expression. She grabbed the girl's hand and lowered her eyes to apologize. "Sister Mo, what happened last night was all my fault. It's all my fault for causing you to be shot. The more I think about it, the more I feel guilty. I don't know how to apologize to you now..."

The atmosphere at the dining table just now was very good. Meng Ran had forgotten that she had another important motive for coming to the small mansion.

After she went back last night, she lay on the bed and looked at the small bed that belonged to Mo Zhu beside her. She was so worried that she could not sleep at all.

When she thought of how Mo Zhu had been seriously injured in order to save her, she wished she could replace Sister Mo and suffer this pain!

Chapter 428: Calming Meng Ran

When she saw Mo Zhu today and found out about her condition from Xu Huan, and seeing that the girl looked good, she felt relieved.

If anything happened to Mo Zhu because she had saved her, she would really live the rest of her life in guilt.

Mo Zhu held Meng Ran's hand comfortingly and smiled disapprovingly. "Don't say that. If we investigate the root cause, it's my fault! Kang Wan hired these people to kidnap you because she wanted to use this to threaten me into coming over to take my life. Even if it wasn't you last night, there would have been someone else."

After a pause, she raised her hand and pinched the space between her eyebrows before adding, "No matter who it is, the outcome will be the same. Since I know about this, they are after me no matter what. I can't turn a deaf ear and pretend that I didn't see it."

Although Mo Zhu had already said so many comforting words to Meng Ran for the first time, she still felt really apologetic in her heart and she could not let go of it. She lowered her head and said with a hoarse voice, "But, Sister Mo, I still feel so sorry. After all, you were injured because I was kidnapped. When I think of this, I feel very guilty!"

Mo Zhu waved her hand and patted Meng Ran's shoulder beside her. She said in a low voice as if nothing had happened, "It's fine. Kang Wan came to Country N prepared. Even without the kidnapping, she would have used other methods to lure me in. There are some things that can't be avoided. Since she has the intention to fight me, the right way to solve the problem is to fight Kang Wan head-on!"

At this point, Mo Zhu suddenly recalled that after she fainted last night, she had left Kang Wan in the warehouse. She lowered her eyes slightly and gently rubbed her palms. Considering that the girl might be taken away by Huo Xuan to be dealt with, she sneered and pitied this girl's situation.

Meng Ran and Zhang Qi did not know what feud Kang Wan had with Mo Zhu. At this moment, they were a little confused. Kang Wan was a noble lady from a noble family in Beijing. Why did she have to go against Mo Zhu?

Back then, when everyone was in the same class in Cloud City, she had already been at odds with Mo Zhu. Now that she was in Country N, this girl actually did such a thing to try to kill her!

They really did not expect that Kang Wan, who was considered a sweet and pleasant young lady, was actually such a ruthless person behind their backs.

/ please keep reading on

At this moment, only Jiang Yu lowered her head slightly and recalled Kang Wan's words in the warehouse last night as she tried to figure out the reason why she was targeting Mo Zhu.

Apart from the admiration Kang Wan had for Huo Xuan, there was also the reason why Mo Zhu had fought with the Kang family previously.

A hint of ruthlessness flashed across her eyes. Jiang Yu lowered her eyes coldly and stared at the teacup on the coffee table.

Since the Kang family dared to hurt Sister Mo, she would definitely make the Kang family pay the price with their blood!

Sensing a sudden murderous coldness beside her, Mo Zhu lowered her eyes warily and looked at Jiang Yu, who was sitting quietly on the sofa in a daze. She frowned thoughtfully.

However, that cold aura only stayed for an instant before disappearing. It was so fast that Mo Zhu did not have the time to tell if it was from Jiang Yu.

Noticing that Mo Zhu was looking over, Jiang Yu looked up at the girl and smiled sweetly. "It's good that Sister Mo is fine. Rest well during this period of time."

After a pause, she recalled that Mo Zhu had lost so much blood from her wound last night. She changed to a worried expression and added, "You were shot last night and your wound had lost so much blood. I wonder if there will be a scar!"

When Mo Zhu heard this, she waved her hand to signal Jiang Yu not to worry. "It shouldn't leave a scar. This is just a small scratch. Just use simple medicine!"

Chapter 429: Meeting Kang Wan

At the same time, in an underground "hunting ground" in Southeast Asia.

Kang Wan was lying almost half-naked in a cell. The clothes on her body were torn so badly that the original material could not be seen.

Her hands, feet, and neck were locked by chains, and her exposed skin was filled with small wounds.

Kang Wan lay on the ground and stared blankly at the ceiling of the cell. Her hair was messy and her eyes were red. Her cheeks were flushed red.

At this moment, the wooden door of the cell was opened. A few men in black quickly walked in and neatly dragged Kang Wan up from the ground. They undid the lock on the wall and half dragged her to another room.

Although Kang Wan did not know what method these people were going to use to torture her this time, through the torture they had used on her, she knew very well that no matter where these people brought her, she would not have a good life!

After being brought to the room and locked up, Kang Wan was so weak that her entire body was burning. She lay on the ground and could not move at all.

A few minutes later, the door opened again and Huo Xuan walked in with Xu Huan.

From the corner of her eye, Kang Wan saw that the person who came was Huo Xuan. Her eyes instantly lit up.

She forced herself to stand up and dragged the few heavy chains on her body. As she crawled in the man's direction, she reached out to pull Huo Xuan's pants.

Tears flowed out of her eyes uncontrollably. Kang Wan sobbed and begged, "Brother Xuan, I really know my mistake. Let me off this time. Let me off. I won't dare to do anything bad again. I will definitely turn over a new leaf in the future. Please, please forgive me this time..."

The thick and thick chain was pulled by Kang Wan and made a noisy noise against the ground. The girl's hands were red from the rough ground.

The people outside couldn't imagine how desperate she was on the day before Huo Xuan came. She was locked up like a dog in a dark place. Not only that, but every half an hour or hour, there would be men in black taking turns to torture her.

They didn't give her food or water. She, Kang Wan, was the daughter of the Kang family. When had she ever suffered such grievances? If they hadn't come in time to inject nutritional fluid into her veins when she was about to collapse, she probably wouldn't have been able to last until she saw Huo Xuan.

Huo Xuan stared coldly at Kang Wan, who was lying on the ground in front of him. A hint of coldness flashed across his eyes. He sneered and said, "I've already said that I want you to taste the torture equipment here and experience the feeling of living a life worse than death. It's only been a day and you can't take it anymore? This is nothing. The person who hurt my people has to pay the price!"

Looking at the man's vicious eyes, Kang Wan felt a chill for no reason. Her body trembled as she recalled the men in black who had abused her. She shouted with a trembling voice, "Kill me! Brother Xuan, kill me! I beg you, I beg you to give me a quick death. I really can't stand it anymore! If I had to live every day like this, I really can't hold on anymore. Give me a quick death, give me a quick death..."

Seeing Kang Wan shout at him in despair, Huo Xuan smiled coldly. He took two steps forward and stood in front of the girl. He squatted down slightly and sneered, "It's useless even if you beg me. It's already too late. You have a long life ahead of you. You should atone for your sins here!"

"Haha, haha..." Upon hearing this, the Kang Wan struggled to prop up half of their body and said with a laugh, "Huo Xuan! Why are you treating me like this! I'm the daughter of the Kang family. Aren't you afraid that if you treat me like this, the Kang family and the Cheng family will find out one day? Let me tell you, when that day comes, the two families will join forces. Your Huo family can just wait for death! ”

Chapter 430: Threatening Huo Xuan

“Why? Why didn’t you choose Sister Ying and I, who have such a good family background? Why did you have to choose Mo Zhu, that wild girl from a poor place in Cloud City? What’s so good about her? You’re so persistent in protecting her. She’s useless to the Huo family’s development and future! She’s not worthy of this identity and position!”

Upon hearing that Kang Wan could still say such things when she was already in danger, Xu Huan, who had been standing quietly behind Huo Xuan, couldn’t help but sneer.

Who did Kang Wan and Kang Ying think they were? How could they be compared to Mo Zhu?

After being tortured to this extent, instead of kneeling down and begging for mercy, Kang Wan actually dared to provoke Huo Xuan!

Could it be that she wanted to provoke Huo Xuan into killing her? If that was the case, she had probably tried it on the wrong person. Based on Xu Huan’s understanding of Huo Xuan for so many years, the angrier Huo Xuan was, the more he would let the Dark Forces torture her.

As expected, when he heard Kang Wan’s words, Huo Xuan frowned coldly. He stood up and glared at the girl as if he was looking at a clown. “I’ve remembered every word you said. The more ruthlessly you curse her, the more you’ll suffer in the future. Don’t worry, I won’t let you die so easily. I’ll instruct them to ‘serve’ you well!”

After saying this, Huo Xuan paused for a few seconds and added nonchalantly, “Oh, right, speaking of the Kang family and the Cheng family, I might as well tell you bluntly. After dealing with you, not to mention that the Kang family’s daughter’s disappearance has nothing to do with me, after I finish with what I’m busy with, I’ll deal with both your families together.”

Upon hearing this, seeing that her plan had failed, Kang Wan, who had been pretending to be aggressive just now, immediately lost. She lay on the ground and cried bitterly, begging, “I was wrong, I really know my mistake. Brother Xuan, give me another chance. I won’t dare to do it again!”

When Huo Xuan heard this, he frowned without batting an eyelid. He didn’t want to hear Kang Wan’s voice anymore and waved his hand behind him neatly.

Under Xu Huan's instructions, a few seconds later, a few more men in black walked in from the door of the room and quickly dragged the girl away the same way they had brought her in. Kang Wan stare in Huo Xuan's direction and shouted with persistence, "Brother Xuan, on the account of our many years of friendship, let me go. Don't hand me over to them. I don't want to live like this. Save me, save me..."

/ please keep reading on

Seeing Kang Wan struggle in the hands of the man in black, Xu Huan pursed his lips speechlessly. This girl should be glad that she was a woman. If she was a man, with her humiliating Mo Zhu like this, Huo Xuan would definitely take action personally. He would let her experience what it meant to be living a life worse than death.

Speaking of torture methods, these people from the Dark Forces were still too inferior to Huo Xuan!

After Kang Wan was taken away, Xu Huan followed behind Huo Xuan and left too. He closed the door casually and had just taken two steps when Huo Xuan, who was walking in front, suddenly thought of something. He turned his head and instructed Xu Huan coldly, "Before we leave Country N, ask Mo Qi to inform the people here. We have to keep this woman's news a secret and remind them not to forget to treat the people from Continent M well!"

When Xu Huan heard this, he thought of how cruel the people in Continent M were to women and frowned slightly. He nodded and replied, "Alright, I'll remember it, Brother Huo!"

This Kang Wan had provoked Huo Xuan of all people. Furthermore, she had been caught red-handed by this man in Country N.

Huo Xuan's methods of torture were endless. From now on, Kang Wan's life will definitely become increasingly difficult!

Xu Huan followed closely behind Huo Xuan and frowned. "Brother Huo, if the Kang family and the Cheng family pursue this matter..."

Huo Xuan turned his head and looked straight into Xu Huan's eyes. His gaze was cold. "Why would they? They don't have the ability to find out about us in Country N!"

After saying this, Huo Xuan left without looking back.
