Let me go, Mr. Hill Author: Shallow South Chapter 2764

Chapter 2764

When Chester was about to get in his car, he suddenly turned back and said to Ken, "Remind the presidents who ate together tonight that they didn't see Eliza and Monte eating together upstairs. Also, take care of the security footage that hasn't been deleted."

Ken was stunned. He nodded.

However, he was confused and wondered what spell Eliza had put Chester under.

She had rejected Chester countless times, yet the selfish President Jewell was still helping her.

It was bizarre.

After returning home, charity received a call from Steven. "Miss Robbins, the woman has been arranged to enter Monte's room. As for the hotel's security footage... I realized someone had already deleted it. It seems like the restaurant's waiters have been told to keep their lips sealed beforehand too... Do you need me to investigate this? I think someone is helping you in secret."

Charity immediately thought of Chester. "No need to investigate. I know who did it."

She did not expect that he would still voluntarily help her after she rejected him.

However, it did not matter.

Chester owed her a lot, so helping her once was a matter of course.

“Publish the stuff after recording it,” charity reminded.

“Okay.”

At that moment, Monte felt that his head was muddled. He was also feeling hot as if he had drunk alcohol.

He felt a woman pressing herself against him in a daze.

Monte took that woman as Eliza and flipped her around to trap her beneath him.

The steamy situation continued for some time. Monte hugged the woman and spoke many sweet words. “Babe, let’s just be together like this forever. Don’t leave me. I missed you so much.”

The woman let out a hmph. “Did you say the same thing to your fiancée?”

“Are you talking about Lillian? She’s not even half as good as you. I wouldn’t marry her if it weren’t for the Tanner family’s background, she doesn’t have the looks or a nice body. She’s like a dead fish on the bed.”

“Really? But you bought her a lot of stuff.”

“What’s wrong? I’ll buy them for you tomorrow if you’re jealous. You can have anything you want, but don’t be like Lillian. She’s useless and only knows how to spend money.”

Monte talked a lot. He treated the woman in his arms as Eliza and spilled all sorts of honeyed words.

The 'war' only ended when he got so sleepy that he could not open his eyelids.

While Monte was sleeping soundly, a video was quietly being circulated on the internet.

Although the revealing parts were blurred, Monte's face was magnified clearly for everyone to see.

[Hey, this guy looks familiar. He looks decent but has terrible behavior. Isn't he Eliza's ex-boyfriend?]

[I know him. He's the son of Janee Hotel's chairman. It's said that he's engaged to the Tanner family's daughter. F*ck. He's openly having an affair.]

[Wait. Is it okay to talk about his fiancée like that?]

Even if she's extravagant and likes to spend money, she's still his fiancée. If you're really capable, then why did you get engaged to her in the first place?]

[The last scumbag was Chester, and now, it's Monte. What the f *ck? Do all rich people now have no morals?]

[I suddenly think Eliza is so pitiful. Is she a collector of scumbags?]

[Eliza said it was a peaceful breakup the last time, but I don't believe that all of a sudden. It must've been Monte who cheated on her.]

[I think Chester makes it clear that he's a scumbag. On the other hand, Monte is a flirtatious scumbag on the inside, yet he still acts like he's loving and affectionate.]

[I pity Monte's fiancée, but I pity Eliza more. I'll never go to Janee Hotel in the future.] [I won't go there either. Monte is too disgusting.]

Let me go, Mr. Hill Author: Shallow South Chapter 2765

Chapter 2765

Monte was still unaware that there was a huge commotion outside until there was the sound of something heavy banging on the door.

“Who’s being so noisy?” He threw a tantrum and sat up. Then, he saw an unknown woman whom he had never met before lying beside him.

The woman’s hair was fanned out, and she was naked with the smell of cheap perfume on her.

“Who... Who are you?”

Monte was so startled that he stood up from the bed instantly.

At the same time, Lillian barged in with two of her brothers with a bang.

“Monte, you bastard!” Lillian charged over and slapped Monte twice. The fire of fury burned in her eyes.

her since she was young.

However, everyone had found out that her fiance was having an affair behind her back.

Never mind that he was having an affair, but he even said she did not have good looks or a nice body. He said she was like a dead fish on the bed.

What Lillian felt was not just a betrayal of her feelings but also utter humiliation.

Monte covered his face. He was afraid. "Lillian, listen to my explanation."

"There's nothing to explain. Monte, the Tanner family knows all about what you said. Lillian is the Tanner family's baby. You humiliating her is equivalent to humiliating the Tanner family."

Eldest Young Master Tanner and Second Young Master Tanner rolled their sleeves before beating Monte up.

Monte initially put up a strong resistance but could not go against two men. Moreover, he had used too much energy last night and felt weak all over. Soon, he was pressed to the floor and beaten up until his face was bruised.

On the other hand, the woman on the bed secretly prepared to wear her clothes and leave while those people were fighting.

"Where do you think you're going?" Lillian was about to slap her furiously.

The woman screamed, "You'd better not touch me. I have HIV."

The people in the room went silent in an instant.

After glancing at Monte, who was like a rag on the floor, Lillian's two brothers stepped back out of fear.

Monte was in shock. He wiped the blood off the corners of his mouth. His eyes were bloodshot. "Don't talk nonsense."

"I really have HIV. All of you'd better stay away from me," the woman said.

Lillian was afraid, she staggered backward. "Get lost. Get lost now."

The woman quickly escaped. Monte got up and wanted to go after her, but his legs hurt, so he fell to the floor again. His usual handsomeness and elegance were gone.

Lillian did not know whether the woman was speaking the truth or not. However, people with better backgrounds feared death more. "Brother, let's go. I don't want to marry him anymore. I want to cancel our engagement and go to the hospital for a check-up."

If that woman had been with Monte for some time, maybe she also had...

"Monte, I don't know what attracted you to that woman, but it's obvious that you've been seduced and scammed. The video of you having an affair is being circulated. Everyone knows about it. It's impossible for the Tanner family to be in-laws with the Patterson family anymore. In addition, the Patterson and Tanner families won't have anything to do with each other from now on. Also, you'd better pray that my sister is healthy, or I'll make your life a living hell."

After Eldest Young Master Tanner gave a vicious warning, he quickly left with his sister.

Monte was sprawled on the floor. His handsome face looked fierce as he clenched his fists tightly.

At that moment, no matter how dense he was, he knew that all this must have had something to do with Eliza.

He was clearly having dinner with her last night. It was her who helped him back to his room too.

After that...

Monte touched the back of his shoulders all of a sudden.

He squinted his eyes coldly.

Chapter 2766

Monte took a quick bath. After thoroughly removing that woman's scent, he rushed to the hospital for a check-up.

On the way, he received a call from Mr. Patterson. "Monte, you unfilial son! I told you to treat Lillian nicely, but look at what you did. You created such a scandal, and now everyone knows about it. I'm utterly embarrassed because of you. Your Uncle Tanner even called to say they want to cut off contact with our family.

"Also, I heard from the Tanner family that you've been infected with HIV?"

"I should've strangled you to death when you were born back then."

Cold sweat broke out on Monte's forehead. "Dad, I was scammed. Someone wants to ruin our partnership with the Tanner family."

"You only got scammed because you're stupid and perverted!" Mr. Patterson scolded. "If you've really caught some dirty disease, don't appear in front of me anymore."

Mr. Patterson hung up after speaking.

Monte gripped the phone tightly.

He never thought Eliza would set him up like this.

Did she not love him a lot all along?

She even loved him to the extent she attempted suicide for him...

Monte suddenly trembled.

Did Eliza's feelings of love turn to hatred?

When Monte arrived at the hospital, he swiftly did a complete body check-up. He threw in more money for the test results to be produced quicker.

The results came out not even an hour later.

It was... positive.

Monte felt as if his head had exploded, "what does... positive mean?"

The doctor glanced at him sympathetically. "Maybe there's HIV in your body. However, this is just a preliminary check-up. We'll send the samples to a laboratory for a double-check..."

Monte was furious. He immediately lifted the doctor by his collar, "what double-check? I'll only ask you once. Do I have HIV?"

"...It's possible." The doctor instinctively stepped back.

At that moment, Monte felt his body go cold.

He pushed the doctor away and went out the door.

He could not be bothered about the rumors. He rushed to the villa neighborhood where Eliza lived right away.

“Eliza, get out here now!” Monte kicked and banged on the door crazily.

“Sir, Miss Robbins left for work in the morning.” A bodyguard walked over and said, “Please don’t make a fuss in the neighborhood, otherwise, don’t blame US for being rude.”

“Did she come back last night?” Monte squinted his eyes.

“Yes.”

Monte suddenly felt like he was a fool.

He had planned a candlelight dinner and intended to make Eliza stay the night.

In the end, he had a one-night stand with a strange, dirty woman.

‘Ha. You’re so cunning, Eliza.’

As expected of the woman who fooled Chester.

Monte had an ashen face from anger. His whole body trembled, and his eyes were filled with contempt.

In the office of Neeson Corporation.

The secretary, Layla, was reporting on some progress. “We’ve already handed the related evidence to the police. The police have filed a case and started investigating. Manager Green was taken away by the police last night. His wife has come to the company to look for you several times, most likely to beg for mercy.”

"I won't meet her. Let the law decide his punishment."

Charity said indifferently, "Screen all employees close to Manager Green and clear them out."

"Okay."

Just as Layla nodded, charity's phone rang.

Layla left tactfully.

Charity picked up Freya's call.

"Charity, you're being unfair. You did something big on your own again." Freya laughed and said, "Monte's erotic video was your doing, right?"

"Mm." Charity did not keep a secret. "It was a last-minute decision."
