

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3720

The discussions never stopped, and Vivian merely stood there and quietly listened to everything.

Dora looked at Vivian and noticed that Vivian seemed to be calm the whole time as if he was not planning on doing anything next.

He summoned up the courage to say, “Bjorne, what they’re saying might be reasonable. After all, skill is undeniable. The strongest one in that group, the one called Toulson, is just slightly stronger than those on his level. He’s nothing compared to you. This purple-feathered beast is nothing to you.”

In truth, he was not just trying to flatter Bjorne, he really did mean what he said. Even though Dora felt that Vivian would not be able to deal with the beast himself, there were nine other warriors in the battle.

As long as the other nine were useful enough, Vivian would absolutely be able to deal with the beast.

That was undeniable. Dora felt like Vivian should participate right away and defeat the beast with his undeniable skill, leaving a deep impression on everyone. Then, everyone would know what truly being strong meant.

Astor did not say anything by the side, but he felt the same way as well.

Someone as strong as Vivian should be throwing his power around at that moment, dealing with that beast that could not be handled. Vivian raised an eyebrow as he turned to look at the two of them, knowing what they were thinking.

Vivian laughed and said, “Just wait for a bit more, I want to test something.”

He was not a three-year-old, he was in no hurry to show off. Vivian had already set up a plan for himself after entering the Capture Hall. There were some things he needed to make sure of before he participated in the battle to gain his Life Points and the rewards.

Hearing Vivian’s words, both of them were stunned. They had a curious look in their eyes.

If anyone else had said that, they would have thought that the person was just putting on an act. However, they would not dare to think that way with Vivian due to Vivian’s strength.

Time slowly ticked away.

In a flash, five minutes had passed since the end of the last battle. Everyone was looking impatient. In truth, the situation was to be expected.

The purple-feathered beast was just too hard to deal with. Furthermore, everything would be reset, and they would have to fight a perfectly healthy one. Even Toulson with all his skill had failed.

They needed to properly think about their own strength. Life Points were not that easy to obtain. The rewards were definitely amazing, but they would need to be capable of getting it in the first place.

Those who had wanted to join felt even more apprehensive after seeing the heavily injured person from the last battle, on top of Toulson’s failure.

No one stepped forward, and no one was able to decide if they wanted to participate or not. The situation was at a standstill.

The spectators could only quietly wait. Many of them wanted to see a result, and quite a few of them were getting impatient. They were losing hope as well.

They felt like they might not even be able to see the next battle in a day or two. The battle lasted only ten minutes. It was not worth it to wait so long.

“Surely we won’t have to wait for a few more hours? Time’s really being wasted now. I feel like it’s not very worth it. The Whirling World is open for such a little amount of time. If we waste it like that, it would not be worth it!”

“A few hours is not even that much. Last time, I had to wait for a whole day. After all, the situation is unique. The purple feathered beast is just too strong. No one wants to face it.”
