"Is this guy really just a doctor?" Ivan walked out, leaving the island with Xena. She thought about it and lit a fire, burning the entire island. "We cannot leave any traces or the Clark family master and Hugo family master would come looking for me after they read the messages on their phones!" Ivan thought about it and continued saying, "If they knew that their sons were killed after we came up with the money to employ assassins to kill Fane, both masters would blame their son's death on me!" "That's right. Especially since the Hugo family master never wanted Neil to mix around with you. He might question you if he knew his son died!" Xena also nodded and said. "Oh yes, don't tell anyone anything about today. Alright?" Ivan thought about it and reminded Xena after they reached their car. "Don't worry. I'm not dumb, I won't tell anyone anything!" Xena smiled and the both of them soon drove off. "We lost more than two hundred million and Fane is still alive. We're in so much trouble now, this guy is too good!" After they reached a hotel, Ivan and Xena ordered some takeout. They also opened a bottle of wine and Ivan drank several mouthfuls. He was still slightly afraid when he recalled the ground full of bodies. "Yes, Fane has a really strong combat ability, and he's hiding it so well!" Xena nodded and wiped the cold sweat on her forehead. "Luckily, the both of us did not go over that night. If we did and Fane knew that we had something to do with employing those assassins, he would have definitely killed us!" "Yes, luckily an emergency came up at the company and I needed to be there. If not, our death would have been certain!" Ivan drank another mouthful of wine and suddenly spoke with a frown on his face. "Do you think that both Ken and Neil identified us both before they died? Or would they have said our names by accident and Fane knows?" Xena took a sharp inhale after she heard Ivan and replied nervously, "Ivan, what should we do? Fane is a straightforward guy, would he kill us if he knows that we're involved?" "I don't think so. After all, he doesn't have any evidence and we weren't there.

We can just say that Ken and Neil were making things up!” Ivan thought about it and continued. “Apart from that, we’re all Taylors and Fane cannot kill us because of guesses or lack of evidence. Isn’t he afraid of the old master questioning him later?” “It seemed to be the case but...” Xena’s face paled and she pursed her lips. “I...I’m still slightly afraid!” “What are you afraid of? Come have some wine and food!” Ivan poured Xena another glass of wine and they cheered each other. The next morning, several middle-aged women and men arrived at the Middle Province. “Haha, I had no idea that we still needed to come back to this place again. It’s been a long time!” One of the men had a cold curl on the corners of his mouth. He had a sword on his back with an arrogant manner. “The old man of the Taylor family is really clever. Haha, he actually used someone to replace the actual target.” Another woman also started laughing coldly. “I want to see how they protect that young guy’s wife this time around!”

”Sigh, this is so troublesome. The old master said that he feels bad as we caused the Kelly family to be ashamed so we need to go over early in the morning and have lunch with them. This means that we would need to meet Fane and Selena again!” It was morning and Ivan was speaking impatiently as he stepped out of the hotel. Xena, who was by his side, commented, “Especially Fiona, she has been showing herself off now that their family’s rich. It’s as if she’s afraid that other people don’t know how rich her family is. She buys branded bags and lots of clothes every day. Does she think she can manage to wear all of them?” Ivan was speechless when he heard Xena’s jealous words. If Xena was rich, she would be acting the same as Fiona did. At this moment, Fane and the others were already taking a stroll at the Taylor family mansion. Although the Gold family master, Kelly, and other gold family members were unhappy about what happened the other day, they still smiled happily when they saw Fane. They did not show their anger, instead, there was a feeling of deliberate flattery. They obviously knew how scary Fane was. How could they offend a man who earned 100 million for every person he treated? They even knew that Selena's new company was growing well. With its current development, the company would surpass the original Taylor family's company. If that was the case, the Taylor family would definitely become a first-class aristocratic family soon. They might even surpass the Drake family after two to three years. Under such circumstances, how could they still offend Fane and Selena? They could only please them and not offend them. After all, they were members of the Taylor family and were considered the Gold family's relatives. Would they not be making their lives difficult if they did not please such powerful relatives? Cecilia's face darkened when she saw how the Gold family master, Kelly, and others were chit-chatting happily with Fane. However, she knew clearly that she could not do anything even though she was secretly unhappy. At this moment, several young people arrived at the Taylor family mansion's entrance. "Master Taylor, Old Master Taylor, get out here!" One of the men yelled loudly after he arrived at the entrance. "Who's that? How dare you cause trouble here? Are you suicidal?" Two of the bodyguards who were guarding the door immediately walked over angrily when they saw how wanton this person was. Everybody in the Middle Province knew to not offend and cause trouble with the Taylors because of Fane. The two men and two women in front of them were suicidal for being so arrogant in front of them. However, the man smiled coldly and pulled his sword out. He rushed forward and attacked both bodyguards. Both bodyguards directly covered their necks and fell to the ground.

"Who's that? How dare they cause trouble at our Taylor family mansion!" Fane, Theodore, and the others who were taking a stroll in the yard walked over. Theodore was the Taylor family master so he naturally walked in front. The old master, Fane, and the others followed behind him. "Haha, there's quite a huge number of people!” The man laughed before speaking. “Years ago, didn’t we ask for a young man from the Taylor family who reached the age of 18 to join the war? Why did I receive news that the bastard Ivan is still alive?” “Who are you people? What does the internal affairs of our family have to do with all of you?” Theodore frowned when he heard this. The four people in front of them were not simple people. He was worried, especially when he saw how speedy the man who attacked their bodyguards was. “Haha, how about you? Who are you?” The man on the opposite end did not answer Theodore’s question. Instead, he smiled coldly and said, “If I did not see wrongly, you’re the Taylor family master, right? I have no idea that you have already forgotten about us after five years. Did you forget how your son touched my fiance’s butt when I was not around years ago?” “You...You are from Gin city?” Theodore’s face turned pale when he recalled what happened years ago and inhaled deeply. Years ago, these people gave Ivan a beating because he offended them. However, they said that they would make Ivan regret what he did before they left. Nobody knew that the country started enlisting soldiers for the war not long after and the Taylor family was appointed a quota. It so happened that the only person in the entire Taylor family who fulfilled all the conditions was Ivan Taylor. The Taylor family knew at that moment that the people who came from the Gin City were people they could not afford to offend. If not, why were they so powerful? “Haha, that’s right. If we didn’t know that your family is famous now because you have a son-in-law who married into your family and is someone who can get all the Gods of War to attend his wedding, we wouldn’t have known that you people secretly swapped the person who was supposed to join the war!” The man laughed. He pointed his sword straightforwardly and directly addressed Theodore. “We were still young and not as powerful five years ago. We wanted to torture your family so we gave you face. We only asked for Ivan to join the war and for him to die on the battlefield. We have no idea that you guys were so daring to ask a son-in-law who married into your family to join the war. Today, surrender Ivan

to us and let us kill him here. If not, don't blame us for killing your entire Taylor family!" "Young man, you can't blame us for what happened years ago, right? None of you specially assigned Ivan to be the one to join the battlefield in the beginning! Apart from that, although Fane is just a son-in-law who married into our family but he's also considered as one of our Taylor family members. His age and other conditions fulfilled the requirement so we asked him to join the army. We did not violate the regulations the government set!" At this moment, Old Master Taylor could not bear it anymore and stepped forward. "None of you said that Ivan must join the army. If the government appointed Ivan and he must join the army, we would have definitely let him serve the country. Hence, I hope that all of you would stop looking into this. Fane also served the country well and killed many enemies leading to his achievements today!" "Haha, old man, f*cking stop acting dumb. Although we did not appoint Ivan but the only person in your family who fulfills the conditions is Ivan Taylor!" The man gritted his teeth and said angrily. "Do you think that we are dumb? A son-in-law who married into your family is considered as a member of your Taylor family? A son-in-law who married into your family isn't considered as a member of your family! He's an outsider!"
