

Chapter 936

In the evening, Fane and Selena were once again on the bed after they took their baths. Fane could not help but hug and kiss the pretty woman in front of him. “Aren’t you tired?” Selena blushed with a shy expression on her face. Selena frowned as she looked at the weird scar on Fane’s arm after he took off his clothes. She said, “Honey, I feel weird every time I see this scar on your arm. Why does it look like a huge fish scale? Apart from that, since you have such good medical skills, why can’t you get rid of it?” Fane smiled bitterly after he heard what she said, “It’s not so easy to get rid of this scar but it might be gone soon!” Fane kissed Selena after he spoke. The next morning, the bodyguards came before Young Master Quinton. “Young master, we’ve inquired clearly and the three of them are staying at the same place. Apart from that, they have also just arrived recently. I think they’re a family who recently moved from another city and just got settled in here. They bought 20 villas in one shot!” The bodyguard greeted Caleb and said. “What? They’ve just arrived here? F*ck, they dare act so outrageously when they’ve just reached this place? They even dared to hit my second uncle!” Caleb frowned and said. “My second uncle knows many masters. I need to act quickly and make my move soon as my uncle is really angry at these people. If my uncle finds out where they’re staying and send masters over to kill them, wouldn’t I lose my chances to touch that gentle beauty?” The bodyguard also nodded and suggested, “Young master, how about this? Get several people to guard their door every day. Get them to wait and to immediately call you when that woman comes out alone or with her boyfriend. How does that sound?” “Alright, you go and make the arrangements. Don’t call me immediately. Catch the girl and bring her to the hotel before you call me!” Caleb smiled indifferently. “It wouldn’t be a problem to handle a woman, right? That man looks like he does not have any combat abilities. If not, why didn’t he say anything the other day?” “Alright, young master. We’re getting it done now!” The bodyguard nodded and left to make the arrangements. In Wood's family mansion, the Ninth Patronum, Brenton Woods, walked toward the madam, Lily Lagorio with a heavy expression on his face. "Madam, we're in trouble!" Brenton said to Lily with a frown on his face. "What happened?" Lily drank the tea in her cup and asked with a frown. "Two days ago, I still had contact with those people. They said that both the butler and Beth Woods went looking for Fane and Joan. Although I don't know why, they must be there to persuade Fane to come back!" Brenton was speechless. "The young master has disappeared for such a long time, many people must have thought that the young master had definitely died. Our people didn't manage to find the young master so Nash Woods must be thinking about getting Fane back to inherit the Woods family's properties now that he's dying!"

Lily's face darkened when she heard what Brenton said. She held the teacup with all her might and the teacup turned into dust with a bang. She stood up and said angrily, "Is there nobody else in the Woods family? Can't the other young people in the Woods family be the inheritor? Anybody can be the next master apart from Fane Woods!" She looked at Brenton after she spoke. "Oh yes, did Fane come back with them? You said that we're in trouble, does that mean that Fane has returned with them? If that's the case, I've sent so many people and none of them are Beth and the butler's opponents. F*ck, I can't get them killed on the way!" Only then did Brenton replied to her, "Our people told me that Fane doesn't want to come back with them because of what happened previously so the butler and Beth came back by themselves! I told my people to make a move after they leave!" Brenton paused here before speaking again. "However, I've been calling them since yesterday and I failed to make contact. I think that they're all dead and I don't know what's the situation!" "You're telling me that our people started taking action after Beth and the others left but they still ended up dead?" Lily inhaled a deep breath and exclaimed. "Sh*t, if that's the case, that means Fane might have really strong combat powers? If not, how could he kill people from the Woods family? We sent several of them!” Brenton shook his head. “This might not be the case. There’s a possibility Fane has masters helping him. After all, he’s quite rich and powerful in the Middle Province. He might have hired a couple of strong bodyguards!” “Our people did not expose their identities and said that they were from the Woods family, right?” Lily thought about it and asked. “Definitely not. I told them to not expose their identities and to just kill Fane!” Brenton said confidently. “Let’s hope that Fane has a master with him. If he really has the strength to kill our people, it doesn’t matter if he doesn’t come back to the Woods family. If he really does, Nash and the others from the Woods family will focus on training him. They will help him to be the Woods family’s inheritor whole-heartedly!” Lily was also upset when she thought about it. “No, we can’t let Fane back no matter what happens. Continue to send people over. Fane might not know who wants him dead since they did not expose their identities. Don’t act carelessly this time, send several really good ones over!” “Yes, madam!” Brenton nodded. “Go get things done. Don’t you worry, I won’t forget about you after we’re done.” Lily finally waved and asked Brenton to leave. She thought about it before sending someone to get the third elder over. “Madam, how can I help you? Are you missing me so early in the day?” The third elder smirked and hugged Lily from behind after he closed the door. Lily directly rolled her eyes at him and pushed him away. “I ask for you to be here today to discuss something serious.” “What’s there to worry about? Nash is dying. Haha... We just need to wait for another two to three months and we have nothing to worry about after he dies!” The third elder smirked and his hand started exploring Lily’s body.

”Stop it!” Lily escaped from the third elder’s hug and gave him a flirtatious look. “I need you to do something important. You need to add another 200 people to look for my son and get him back! Do you understand?” The third elder's face slightly darkened when he heard this and he said helplessly, "Babe, do you think that I don't want to get Lance back? We've sent hundreds of people searching for him previously. That unknown forest is very deep in, and the landscape is very complicated. Do you know how difficult it is to search for one person there? Apart from that, there are many beasts inside. If we are not careful, our people might die there!" However, Lily responded with a cold expression. "I'm asking you to find one person, we're looking for several people. Lance went in with several people so they must have left some trails, right? Since you also said that the forest is very big and deep, we must not have sent enough people in. It would work if you send another 200 people! Apart from that, the people who went in would be much safer with the extra number of people we are sending in!" The third elder sighed. "Honey, do you think that only we, the Woods family members are worried? We've already sent lots of people and the families of those who went in with the young master also sent people in. Now, the forest has thousands of people searching for them. The most crucial point is that they still can't find anything after searching for two months. So, the young master and the others might have..." "Impossible, my son cannot be dead. He's so talented! He might be stuck in there! That must be it. You have to search for him, add more people and search for him!" Lily's eyes were red and she looked crazy. "Okay, okay! I will make the preparations tomorrow, alright?!" Although the third elder was impatient, he could only agree to make Lily happy. "That's more like it. Nothing will happen to my son!" Lily's emotions calmed down a bit. "You might not know this but that young man, Fane, might be coming back." "You mean the bastard child of the master and that woman?" The third elder frowned and finally realized why Lily was in such a hurry to get the eldest young master back. She was afraid of Fane's return. "Yes. I discovered the butler and Miss Beth leaving with several people some days ago. I felt that something was not right so I sent someone to follow them in secret. As a result, our people discovered that Titus and Beth really went looking for Joan and Fane. They might be thinking about bringing them back here! However, I secretly severed the relationship between the father and son. This caused Fane to hate Nash so he did not return with Titus and the others!” Lily said slowly. “F*ck, luckily they did not return together. Now that everybody thinks that the eldest young master is dead and if we fail to find him within another two to three months, Nash might ask Fane to inherit the position of the Woods family master when he dies. That would be troublesome for us!” The third elder could not help but inhaled a deep breath after he heard what Lily said and finally acknowledged the seriousness of the issue. After thinking about it, the third elder spoke again. “Since Titus and the others are back without Fane and that woman, why don’t you send people over to kill them? We can get rid of the threat once and for all. Previously, they weren’t a threat to us because the master never contacted them and the eldest young master was really talented. However, it’s different now that young master is missing and the master is very ill. If Fane returns, the Woods family members will definitely help Fane to raise his strength and be the Woods family master!”

‘ Lily smiled bitterly. “Do you think I did try that? I lost contact with the people I sent over and they might be dead.” “How’s that possible? Were the people we sent over very weak? That’s impossible. Our people are from a reclusive family and any one of them is a one in a million master. How can they fail to kill a pair of mother and son?” The third elder was once again surprised. Everything seemed to have gone out of his control.
