

Chapter 1391

“All right. The matter is settled,” Randall declared. “You’re my Big Brother from now on!”

“All right. Let’s go, Brother Randall!”

Noticing that everyone had cleaned up the spoils of war, Jack tossed his sword forward. It abruptly grew in size and floated before everyone.

“Let’s go. We’ll rest once we arrive at where everyone else is!”

Randall and the others leaped onto the sword before settling themselves onto the surface. “This is an amazing sword, Brother Jack. It can fly and it can serve as a weapon as well, and it seems to increase your fighting power by a good margin. It must be at least a middle-grade spiritual tool, yes?”

Before Jack could answer that, a girl from the White family cut in proudly, “Young Master Randall, your judgment is off this time. Young Master Jack’s flying sword is not a mid-grade spiritual tool, but an ultimate-grade spiritual tool!”

“Holy sh*t. An ultimate-grade?”

Randall and the others all took a sharp intake of breath, wondering if they had heard her wrong. They heard that only the Hunt family had one of those. They would never imagine that Jack would possess such a treasure.

Jack bobbed his head placidly at the sight of the other man’s stupefied expression. He controlled the flying sword, zipping toward somewhere in the middle at the foot of Kobe Mountain

Before arriving at the forest proper, Jack noticed that Daniella, Helena, and the others had flown above the canopy line, looking in his direction. It was evident that they were waiting for him to return

“He’s back, Big Sis. I knew that he would be able to handle it easily!”

Daniella broke out into a proud grin when she caught sight of the silhouettes of Jack and the others.

Admiration sparked in Helena. “That’s right. He’s amazing,” she replied, a wan smile on her lips. “I’ve never met such a genius and fantastic man before!”

“Of course!”

Daniella smiled and scanned her surroundings. “Otherwise, would I have set my eyes on him?” she whispered.

“Mmhmm. You have good taste!”

Helena rolled her eyes at her younger sister, then added after thinking for a while, “But I’m afraid that he’ll have to play the role of my boyfriend for a while longer before I can return him to you. We can’t let the Hunt family see through our ruse and find an excuse to say that we played them!”

“All right, all right. I understand!”

Daniella spoke callously. After she thought about it, she could not help but add in a joking manner, “Right. You won’t let your drama bleed into real life, right, Big Sis?”

Helena’s cheeks reddened, and she shot Daniella a glare.” What are you talking about? He’s your boyfriend. Why would I try to snatch him away from you? Don’t say anything like that next time, got it?”

Daniella pursed her lips. “I was just joking. Why are you mad at me!”

“How could you joke about something like this?”

Helena shot Daniella another glare. The two only clamped their mouths shut when they saw that Jack and the others were drawing near.

“Oh my. The two beauties from the Cabello family are here. No wonder Brother Jack flew so fast!”

Randall spoke in a genial tone after he saw Daniella and Helena

“What do you mean just the two of us? There’s another one waiting down there!”

Daniella studied him for a while. “Aren’t you Master Lancaster’s son, Randall Lancaster?” she said. “Why are you calling Jack ‘Brother?’”

“He’s my Big Bro from now, and I’m his Little Bro!” Randall said, grinning.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1392-1394

Chapter 1392

“No way. Did I hear that wrong? You-you’re willing to be his Little Bro?”

Helena was taken aback. This was Master Lancaster’s son, who was in a powerful, significant position. Besides, the Lancaster family was about the same level as the Cabello family among the eight reclusive families, so this was unprecedented.

“What are you talking about? We’re brothers. None of that ‘big’ or ‘little’ nonsense!”

Jack’s lips twisted into a wry smile as he explained hastily.

“Heh. Anyway, I’ll just listen to whatever you say, Big Bro!”

Randall chuckled and pounded his chest. “At any rate, you saved my life, Big Bro. So I’ll dedicate it to you!”

“All right. You all had better rest for two days. It won’t be too long till the competition ends. Once all of you have recovered, we’ll still have time to ascend the mountain!”

Jack decided as he scanned the audience.

Everyone hopped down from the flying sword, one by one. Some took out medicinal pills and began treating themselves as they sat on the ground, while others took out spirited grass or spirited stones and started to absorb its Chi to replenish their own.

“There are too many people here, especially those from the White family. How did we get so many people to gather here!”

Randall heaved an internal sigh of relief when he saw so many people. “Hah. We’re completely safe now that we have Brother Jack and the three geniuses from the Cabello family here. Our next step would be to wait till time runs out, and we’ll be able to get out of here!”

“The only thing I’m worried about now is First Young Master Draco. The other second-class and third-class families are no match for us.”

Daniella also sat down by the side. “Quite a few geniuses from the Lagorio family are dead, and the Church family has also lost plenty of people. Their families would be furious if they found out.”

“Mhmm. We should try to gather as many members of our families as we can to avoid unnecessary sacrifices!”

Jack nodded his head as he spoke.

“Young Master Jack. There are a few people coming this way!”

Two people were keeping watch atop the trees to see if any more White family members were coming over while everyone was waiting.

“Really? No one is chasing after them?”

Jack stood up, his heart leaping in delight. He hoped that he would find more White family members. That would mean that many of them were still alive.

“Er, not really. Looks like they’re escaping from something... There’s a monster chasing after them!”

One of the men spotted this and told Jack, "They're pretty far out. I can't tell what level the monster is at!"

"All right. I'll go get them!"

Jack flew up, and after discerning their direction, he shot straight toward them.

Roar!

Quite a few White family members were desperately flying away from the giant python snapping at their heels. It released earthshattering roars, and its maw was wide open, emanating a distinct promise of death.

"Hurry, hurry. We're arriving at the designated meeting Spot!"

Martin swung his sword backward as he tried to urge the people before him.

At that moment, Martin, just like Liah, was at the beginning stage of the true god status.

They had looked down on Jack at first and wanted to fight for the position of house heir, but they were so badly defeated that they were rendered speechless.

Chapter 1393

Now, the two had finally broken into the beginning stage of the true god status. However, Jack had already broken into the intermediate stage. His cultivation level had already surpassed theirs, what more his fighting skills? That fact made them completely submit to him.

"The monster's hide is too thick. The two of us are no match for it!"

Liah spoke haplessly as she battled the python, "Seems like this python is no longer at the beginning stage of the true god status—it's probably going to break into the intermediate stage soon!"

"You're right. We're no match even though the two of us are combining our strengths. Sh*t. I wonder if Young Master Jack has arrived at the designated meeting spot! If he's not there, we might just harm more White family members instead by bringing it there!"

Martin quickly thought of something, and his expression darkened. Worry filled his chest.

Liah gave a dry chuckle. "You 're right. What do we do now? We'll be doing more harm if the White family members waiting there are mostly at the semi-god Realm."

“We also don’t know if Beth and the others are there. We still have a few fighters at the beginning stage of the true god status, but we don’t know if they’re there!”

Martin slashed his sword again. The closer they came to the meeting point, the more worried he felt.

“Look. It’s the young master. He saw us, and he’s coming!”

At this moment, Liah quickly realized that Jack was flying over. Relief abruptly flooded her limbs.

When Martin recognized Jack, his expression lit up with excitement. Jack was at the intermediate stage of the true god realm, and he was a powerful fighter. They would not have to fear the giant python if he was coming to save them.

Roar!

The python’s body was riddled with wounds, and blood poured out from those wounds.

However, these injuries were nothing to such a giant being. Instead, the injuries made it even more agitated. It released a shriek before suddenly spearing forward at an accelerated speed, going straight for Martin.

“F*cking monster. It’s too fast!”

Martin was frightened when he saw this. Unable to dodge the attack, he hurriedly clenched his fist and poured his Chi into it, slamming it into the python’s head.

Bang!

A dull noise rang out. The next second, Martin was flung outward. He steadied himself with great effort, and blood spurted out of his mouth.

The giant python had also been dropped two or three meters, but it quickly righted itself and released a ferocious roar, rearing up toward Liah.

Whoosh!

At this moment, Liah swept a fearsome sword aura, which landed on the python’s body.

“Roar!”

The python twisted its head and lashed its tail.

“Sh*t!”

Liah cursed when she saw that the attack was coming for her. She quickly covered her body with a layer of protective Chi.

Bang!

The python's tail immediately shattered her shield, and it smacked straight into her, sending her flying backward as well.

Chapter 1394

"Pfttt!"

Liah was blasted backward, and a mouthful of warm red liquid spewed out of her mouth. Her face immediately blanched.

Nonetheless, she still gritted her teeth, preparing to continue fighting. That god damn python! It had previously killed several men from the White family; the White family had long wanted to murder this beast.

Seeing Martin getting hurt by it, it fumed the flame inside Liah even more.

"Liah, don't fight head-on with this monster! Its skin is too hard to penetrate through! Young Master Jack will soon arrive and it'll be so done for!"

As soon as Martin noticed that Liah stood up and planned to charge and fight again, he flew over to her side and advised her.

Roar!

However, the giant python that was wounded once again – was even more furious this time. After a roar, it bolted toward the direction of Liah and Martin.

"Die, you monster!"

A shadow bolted and arrived at the scene. Finally, Jack had arrived. He balled his fist and a thick layer of Chi energy encased his fist completely.

With a flash, he came to the side of the giant python and blasted his fist directly on it.

Bang!

A terrifying boom echoed through space. The gigantic body of the python received the blast from Jack, causing it to slant downward and hit the ground. The dust on the ground splashed messily as though they were dancing enthusiastically in the air.

Roar!

The giant python was severely injured, it hissed in pain. A pair of huge eyes were staring straight at Jack, deadly.

Nevertheless, it seemed to have known the strength and power that Jack possessed. Thus, it turned around and flew off into the distance, seemingly wanting to escape from Jack.

“What the heck?”

Liah and the others who had just witnessed the human python-one-second battle were completely baffled. They knew that Jack was strong, but they did not expect that he would be that strong! The blood-thirsty demonic python would actually be afraid of Jack and flee! The monster seemed to have the strength of the true god realm and possessed a certain level of spiritual intelligence.

“That’s so amazing! That monster beast was completely enraged by us before that. It was determined to pursue after us even when it is injured! Now, it actually got frightened away by Young Master Jack!”

A few members of the White family were relieved and all stopped to rest, breathing heavily.

Swoosh!

Jack chased after the python at lighting speed. Although the body of this monster beast was hard, tough, and resistant to beatings, it was also because of this, their movement and speed were often not fast. Their body was too huge, clumsy and not flexible.

Soon, Jack caught up with the gigantic python. With a flip of his palm, a black sword appeared in Jack’s grip. Chi energy flooded his sword, and the black sword instantly became a powerful weapon.

Swoosh!

Jack swung his arm. A frightening slashing blow with unrelenting Chi energy in it, landed on the python, splitting the python into two. He killed it.

Blood splashed, and the python smashed heavily onto the ground, breathless.

“Woohoo! This freaking monster is finally dead! It chased after us for almost an hour! I’m so exhausted!”

Martin flew toward Jack, looked at the python’s corpse, his spirits were flying high.
