

Chapter 86 Who's Taking Revenge on Me?

Neither John nor Matthew took Javier's warning seriously. They thought that it was no different from a child who threw a "just you wait" after losing a fight. It proved nothing other than he was useless.

After Javier left Odello Corp., he found Jade standing at her car and wiping away her tears.

"It's okay. We've only lost Odello Corp. We still have Beacon Tires."

Jade shook her head. "I'm not sad about losing the shares. If Grandpa wanted to give those shares to Matthew, he could've just told me honestly. Odello Corp. has always been his. I wouldn't hesitate to give the shares to him.

After sending Jade home, Javier stayed in the car and called Chad.

"I don't care what measures you have to resort to, I want Odello Corp. to go bankrupt within ten days!"

Chad's reply was simple. "Got it."

If the Kerseys' existence was compared to an ancient beast, Javier's current call was like the beast opening one eye. There was no need for it to even lift its paw. Just its gaze alone was enough to crush the world!

That afternoon itself, John, who had regained his position as the chairman, received calls from over ten subsidiary companies.

"Mr. Odell, all of our clients have terminated their sales agreement. They didn't care about the contracts at all."

"Mr. Odell, we have to cease operation due to a full-scale combined investigation by the governing
