

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1671

What was going on with the Jobin family now?

“Rebecca didn’t answer your call...I feel stuck.” Ben Schaffer frowned, an ominous premonition arose in his heart, “Wait! There should be news soon from the Nick.”

Ten minutes later, Nick’s phone call came.

“Elliot, the person I sent out said that the door of Jobin’s house was closed, and nothing was found.” The Nick yawned, “Do you know what time we are here, why are you calling at this time? Everyone is here now and sleeping!”

Elliot: “Nick, Rebecca called for help about an hour ago. I recorded the phone call and heard gunshots over there.”

Nick suddenly looked serious: “But the subordinate I sent over there already back. He said he didn’t find anything unusual. You also know that the Jobin family has bodyguards, and my bodyguards wouldn’t dare to disturb me unless I go there in person.”

Elliot said, “Then please come over in person. I’m sure, I heard gunshots.”

Nick comforted, “Tomorrow morning. I’m out of town now. I drank a lot tonight, and I have a headache. If something happens to Rebecca, I will receive news. When I receive the news, I will tell you as soon as possible.”

Nick said so, and Elliot was helpless.

Haze was his daughter, not Nick’s, so Nick was naturally not in a hurry.

Elliot can’t wait to fly to Yonroeville in person at this moment.

“What did Nick comforted, say?” Ben Schaffer stood beside him, unable to hear the Nick’s voice over the phone.

“Nick’s out of town, so he can’t go to the Jobin’s house.” Elliot looked solemn, “Wait, there should be news in a few hours.”

“Hours.” Ben Schaffer sighed, “I can only hope this is Rebecca’s prank.”

The Third Hospital.

After Avery brought Tammy to the laboratory, Tammy stared at the nutrition bag for a while, sighing from time to time.

“Avery, why didn’t you tell me earlier that you can have a baby like this?” Tammy touched her bulging belly, “Do you know how uncomfortable I am every day now? When I sleep at night, my legs always cramp, and the cramps hurt to death. And my legs are starting to swell. I don’t know if I can come out to play with you in a few days.”

Avery: “This technology is not 100% safe.”

Tammy: “But the child in my stomach is not 100% safe.”

“Even if I mentioned it to you, your mother wouldn’t let you do this. Don’t regret it. If Shea was healthy, we wouldn’t have come up with this last resort.” Avery coaxed her, “Actually, I have personally experienced the process from pregnancy to delivery, which is also a rare experience in my life.”

“Are you comforting me? If you can choose to remove this painful experience, I will remove it without hesitation.” Tammy’s face collapsed, “I’ve gained twelve pounds. I’ve never been so fat in my life. I compared my current and previous photos, and I’m as fat as two people.”

Avery couldn’t help laughing: “Tammy, Don’t panic, you will lose weight when your baby is born. Besides, when your precious daughter is born, you will feel that the pain is worth it.”

Tammy: “I hope it is what you said.”

“Of course, I...I have given birth to three children, and I don’t regret it at all.” Avery thought of her three children with a happy and contented face.

“If I were you, I should have no regrets. The main reason is that you and Elliot’s genes are too strong. You two should have more babies.” Tammy said, her eyes fell back to the nutrition bag, “You and Wesley take turns guarding this bag every day?”

Avery: “Well, I guard it during the day and Brother Wesley guards the night. His dad comes to guard it on weekends.”

“Oh my God, it’s so troublesome. It feels more troublesome than my own. It’s equal to ten of you and Wesley. I can’t work for a month.” Tammy exclaimed.

Avery: “Yeah! I owe Shea. If Shea hadn’t donated blood to Robert, Robert would have died. So I must do my best to ensure that Shea’s child is born safely.”

Tammy said: “I’ll be here with you today.”

Avery said, "No, I'll treat you to dinner later and take you back. It's too boring here, and you need to rest now."

"You dislike me here. Is it in the way here?" Tammy pouted and said that on purpose.

"Then don't leave, just stay here with me. When you're sleepy later, go to that cot. I accidentally rolled out of the bed the other night, so be careful when you sleep. Point..." Avery frightened her.

Tammy burst into laughter. "Avery, I feel much happier chatting with you."

"If you are bored next, come to me. I can't go shopping with you, but I can relieve your boredom with you." Avery took out a bag of fruit from the side and put it on the coffee table, "What do you want to eat, I'll cut it for you."

"My blood sugar is high, and my mother told me not to eat fruit." Tammy was puzzled, "Avery, you said that I'm not really fat. Why? Why did I have so many problems after I was pregnant? Not only did I have high blood sugar, but my blood pressure was also high. Not only that, but the baby in my belly had small growth in the early stage and large growth in the later stage. I suspect that when I'm about to give birth, she won't go into the basin."

Avery: "What kind of problem do you have? It's all a small problem. Even if you don't go into the basin, it's fine. Didn't you decide to have a caesarean section? If the child really has a problem, The doctor will put you in the hospital."

Tammy: "Oh... too. I'm probably a little nervous."

"Have you read the book I recommended to you before?" Avery peeled a banana and bit it. After a sip, "I was also very scared when I was pregnant for the first time. At that time, it was through reading books to ease my fear."

"I bought it, but I haven't read it yet. I'll go back and read it later. I haven't read the paper for many years. The book is out." Tammy looked around and walked towards the bathroom.

"Tammy, do you want me to help you? The toilet here is not a toilet, it is little bad." Avery immediately put the banana in his mouth, wiped his hands with a tissue, and walked over.

"No, no, I'm not ready to give birth yet! You don't have to be so nervous." Tammy smiled and closed the bathroom door.

Avery walked into the room, picked up the phone, and planned to see which restaurant to eat at noon.

As a result, a news feed caught her eye.

Soon, Tammy came out of the bathroom.

“Avery, how did you take a shower when you lived here before?” Tammy walked in. “The bathroom is so small, I feel like I’m going to hit the wall when I turn around. And there’s no shower in it.”

Avery: “This ward used to be an ordinary ward. I went to Uncle Brook’s lounge to take a bath.”

Tammy complained, “It’s really troublesome. If only I could put this thing at home. But it’s not easy to put it at home. If something happens, there is no way to rescue it.”

Avery: “Well.”

An hour later, Avery took Tammy to dinner near the hospital.

Tammy put down the tableware after eating a little.

“Is the food not to your taste?” Avery said, picked up the menu again, and wanted to order more food for her.

“Avery, you don’t need to order any more. I’m deliberately controlling my diet.” Tammy looked at her and felt ashamed, “You have given birth to three children, but you are now as slender as a girl. You want to control my mouth.”

Avery: “Don’t starve the child in your belly.”

Tammy: “Don’t worry, my mother is always watching me when I get home.”

After lunch, Avery sent Tammy to Going home, after chatting a few words with Mary, Mary sent her out.

“Avery, I’m not forbidding her to go out. If she’s with you, I’ll be relieved.” Mary explained with a smile, “She’s too playful. If she goes out with other friends, it’s not what she says or what she says. She is with you, you can control her.”

Avery said, “Auntie, Tammy has become a mother, she is different now. She has a sense of proportion.”

“In my eyes, she will always be a child.” Mary smiled and sent her to the car, “I will take care of her for two more months, and I will be relieved when the child is born.”

“Well. Very busy, does Jun go home every day?” Avery asked before getting in the car.

Mary said, “No matter how late Jun is, he will come back. His company recently received a big order. He wants to do things well and prove himself, so he is more attentive. He explained it to us.”

“That’s good. No matter how busy you are now, when Tammy is about to give birth, you must find time to accompany Tammy.”

“We said that Jun will start to accompany Tammy after another month.”

Avery was relieved.
