

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1831

Chapter 1831

“Who is it?” Seeing that Avery was attracted by the phone, Tammy immediately leaned in front of her and glanced at her phone screen.

After seeing the words ‘Elliot’, Tammy sighed: “Didn’t you two lose contact? You started contacting after you returned to Aryadelle?”

Avery: “To be precise, now.”

“Hahaha, I didn’t expect to be I caught up with the scene. Show me, what did he send you?” Tammy didn’t consider herself an outsider and Avery also didn’t treat her as an outsider.

Tammy took her mobile phone and was stunned when she saw the two text messages sent by Elliot.

“Why did he suddenly want to pay you child support? Did you meet yesterday to talk about this?”

Avery shook her head: “No. We met yesterday because Layla had a little problem with her work. Apart from that, we didn’t talk about anything else.”

“Then did Elliot find out with his conscience? Or does he think you look shabby?” Tammy looked Avery up and down.

Avery wore home clothes and has stylish curly hair tied behind her head. Fortunately, her skin was very white, so even if she faced the sky, she would not look earthy.

However, Tammy knew that she had a considerable filter for Avery.

From Elliot’s point of view, it might be different.

Avery couldn’t help but doubt herself, and looked down at herself by the way.

“Even if I look shabby, I don’t need to use money to insult me, right?” Avery took a deep breath, thinking about how to reply to Elliot.

“Since Elliot wants to give you money, why don’t you accept it? If you don’t want to accept it, you can talk to him!” Tammy gave Avery an idea, “You ask him for 100 billion, and let him give it all at once. He promises to be angry.”

Avery felt that his current relationship with Elliot was not suitable for such a joke.

“I think it’s such a serious thing, why don’t you talk about it face to face? Or on the phone? He texted you and said, is he trying to test you? Or is he trying to entangle you when he has nothing to say?” Tammy saw Avery’s face was embarrassed, so she diverged her thoughts and tried to understand Elliot’s mental activities.

In fact, Elliot’s mental activities are very simple.

About half an hour ago, Chad sent him a message saying that Avery was having a hard time now.

Chad told him that in seven years, Hayden would be able to marry a daughter-in-law. Before Avery sold the company’s money, not a cent was moved, and she planned to leave it for Hayden to marry a daughter-in-law.

Now Avery has no company, no investment, and no job. Not only that, but she also has to support Hayden, who has huge expenses. Compared with the previous life, it is too miserable now.

If Chad hadn’t been drinking, he wouldn’t have given Elliot this kind of news without thinking.

After all, it wasn’t Avery who told Chad that he was in financial difficulties and needed Elliot’s help.

And when Elliot received the news from Chad, he took it seriously!

Elliot not only took it seriously, but also made Avery and Hayden’s life more difficult. It was almost impossible to make up for the fact that the mother and son were suffering from hunger and cold, and went to the street to beg!

So after struggling for half an hour, Elliot sent Avery a message about alimony.

“I think you’re right.” Avery took the phone over and agreed, and said to Tammy, “If he sincerely wants to pay me child support, why didn’t he tell me last night? He could have called me to tell me about it, instead of sending it to me. The news said. How did he know that I pulled him out of the blacklist? In case I didn’t pull him out, I wouldn’t be able to see the messages he sent me.”

Tammy couldn’t help laughing: “I used to quarrel with Jun and blocked him when he was angry. Later, he once said that I was too naive and said that mature people like you and Elliot would definitely not block each other in a fight.”

Avery: “Elliot didn’t block me, I don’t know. But I’m not as mature as I think.”

Tammy asked, “I scolded him at the time, and I was going to be pissed off. I still care about so much. If you really don’t know how to reply, just pretend you didn’t see it!”

“Well.” Avery put the phone on the table, “It’s very late, is it time for Kara to go to bed? Why don’t you take Kara back first, and come over to play another day.”

“Okay! Then I’ll go first.”

Send Tammy away Afterwards, Avery returned to the living room.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1832

Chapter 1832

The takeaway that Tammy ordered for Avery has arrived, because the Foster family bodyguards came to pick up the strange text messages from Robert and Elliot, and she hadn’t had time to eat.

Her hungry chest was against her back, and her mind was full of white light.

She walked to the dining room with the takeaway and ate it happily.

Sometimes there are some truths that she understands in her heart, but the body will make mistakes in conditioned reflexes. For example, she always knew that when she was too hungry, she could not eat too hastily, otherwise it would hurt her stomach function.

She was probably so hungry that her head was dizzy, so she ate several mouthfuls of food in a row. If it wasn’t for the discomfort in her stomach, she would not stop abruptly.

Covering her stomach with one hand, she took a water cup to get some water to drink.

After a while, the phone rang.

She immediately went back to the dining room, put down her water glass, and picked up her phone. The call was from Tammy.

“Avery, Jun sent me a picture just now. It’s related to Elliot. Look! I think it would be too much if he really did this!” Tammy’s tone was very excited, as if Elliot had done heinous bad things.

After hanging up, Avery clicked on the picture sent by Tammy.

The picture is a screenshot of a short video. The content is about the news that Tate Industries is about to separate from Sterling Group and go public independently.

It also said that Norah Jones would become the big boss of the Tate Industries and would no longer be subject to Elliot.

The news itself is rather sensational, and what is even more shocking is that a user named Elliot liked the short video.

After seeing this short video, Jun immediately took a screenshot to Tammy, thinking it was funny.

But Tammy didn't think it was funny at all.

It was too much for Elliot to take the Tate Industries as his own. But considering that all of Elliot's properties in the future belong to Robert and Layla, it means that Tate Industries still has a relationship with Avery in the end, so he is not so angry.

But now, Elliot wants to give the Tate Industries to Norah Jones completely, how can this be done?

Just when Avery was about to reply to Tammy's message, Elliot called.

Avery watched his name beating on the screen, and was a little lost for a moment.

Did Elliot call to talk about child support?

After all, they have nothing to say now except this matter.

Regarding the fact that he wants to completely throw the Tate Industries to Norah Jones, he doesn't need to report to her at all, and he doesn't need to care about her thoughts.

Avery wanted to hang up the phone, but she lost control of her fingers and pressed the answer button. Looking at the connected call, she took a deep breath and brought the phone to her ear.

"I thought you didn't see the message I sent." Elliot laughed at himself, "When did you pull me out of the blacklist?"

Avery listened to his strange tone and retorted: "Since you know that I pulled you in Blacklisted, then why do you need to call me again?"

"I won't contact you, waiting for you to starve your child to death? Chad told me that you are having a hard time right now."

Avery: "???"

very difficult? !

Where did Chad hear about it?

...Mike?

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1833

Chapter 1833

Mike and Chad were drinking together tonight. Did Mike tell Chad after he was drunk?

Why is Mike saying that?

Avery was puzzled!

“I had a sum of money from selling the company before...” Avery took a deep breath and planned to fight back for herself.

Elliot thought about it for a while, but he wouldn't say such a thing. Even if Avery doesn't have a job and no income now, she was a boss before and the company sold a lot of money. It's only been more than two years, how could she have a hard time?

Not to mention that Avery has not worked for two years, even if she has not worked for ten years, it is impossible for her to live a difficult life.

If her life is really difficult, can't she go to work to make money? As for being reduced to needing her to pay child support to live?

“Didn't you say that the money is reserved for Hayden to marry a daughter-in-law?” Elliot asked in a tight voice, “Did Hayden fall in love early? And other words, it is judged that Hayden may have fallen in love early.”

If Hayden doesn't fall in love early, how can it cost so much?

Elliot knew that his divorce from Avery would definitely have an impact on the children. For example, Layla is not as cheerful as she used to be, and her academic performance has dropped a lot.

He naturally thought that their divorce would definitely have an impact on Hayden.

Avery was shocked by Elliot's words and almost choked on the air.

Hayden's puppy love... Just like Hayden's character who doesn't like to talk to others, if he can fall in love early, Avery will be able to have fun for a while.

“Chad also told you?” Avery didn't blame Chad, only Mike.

Even if you make up stories with Chad, it's not like that, right? !

This was outrageous too!

"I guessed the puppy love." Elliot said, "Has he changed a lot?"

"Yes, it has changed a lot." Avery said bluntly, "I don't know if it's early or not. But I heard from the teacher that there are many female students asking him out. Go out and play."

Elliot concluded in his heart that Hayden must be in a puppy love!

"What do you think?" Elliot felt that puppy love was not good. Puppy love affects learning.

Although he is not the kind of person who only relies on achievement, he feels that it is a pity that Hayden's original talent has been reduced to puppy love and abandoned his studies.

Avery: "What do you think? Even if he falls in love early, that's his decision."

"How can you do this?!" Elliot said angrily, "He's only eleven years old, and he's not even fully developed, so how can he fall in love early?!"

Avery: "What are you thinking? Even if he is really in a puppy love, he won't be with a girlfriend..."

"Since he is in a puppy love, how do you know he doesn't? No matter what country you are in, getting married and having children at the age of eleven is too much early!" Elliot even imagined that he was about to hug his grandson.

Avery took a deep breath: "He goes home every night."

"Do you think it takes one night to do that kind of thing?" Elliot retorted.

Avery: "Hayden is not that kind of person!"

Elliot: "But at his age, he shouldn't fall in love early!"

"I didn't say he fell in love early!" Avery was red-faced arguing with Elliot.

Avery felt that she and Elliot were now in two countries... oh no, it should be two planets!

"Didn't you just say you're not sure if he has a puppy love? Since you're not sure, how do you know he doesn't?" Elliot could not wait to fly to Bridgedale immediately to talk to Hayden.

Avery felt that there was no way to go on this phone call.

Chickens talk to ducks, play the piano to cows, bullsh!t!

“Since you’re so worried about his puppy love, go find him!” Avery wanted to end the call quickly.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1834

Chapter 1834

But after saying this, Avery was worried that Elliot really went to Bridgedale to find Hayden.

She can’t stand Elliot Hayden will definitely annoy him even more.

“I’m joking with you! Hayden doesn’t have a puppy love, I’m sure.” Avery immediately changed her words to reassure him, “I don’t need your alimony for the time being.”

“The alimony is not for you, but for Hayden.” Elliot Correct her.

“Hayden doesn’t need it either!” Avery was enraged by him, “As long as I’m still alive, I don’t need you to pay Hayden alimony!”

Elliot frowned upon hearing Avery’s angry voice. He didn’t want to quarrel with her by calling her this call.

Elliot wanted to communicate with Avery about her and Hayden’s current living situation. If their life was really not good, he was very willing to help them.

But his thoughts changed when he reached Avery.

Avery has strong self-esteem, and even if life is not very good, she will not talk to Elliot.

Avery quickly calmed down after listening to his breathing on the phone.

She was so excited just now. In fact, no matter what Elliot said, she didn’t need to be angry.

“If you have nothing else to do, hang up.” Avery said calmly.

“Avery, since you don’t have any money, leave it to me to find Haze.” Elliot was worried that Avery would spend too much to find Haze. Add a burden to a family that is not already wealthy.

Avery's mood, which had already calmed down, was stirred up by stormy waves again because of his words.

Avery took a deep breath, took another deep breath, and hung up. She looked at Elliot's number on the screen and wanted to blacklist him again!

But reason kept her from doing so.

For Haze.

What if Elliot finds Haze someday?

Even if she can't get Haze's custody, she will do her best to make up for Haze.

Tammy sent Avery a bunch of messages complaining about Elliot, but Avery didn't reply.

Tammy guessed that Avery must have fainted.

Back home, Tammy gave her daughter to her mother, and then went to the master bedroom to find Jun.

Jun had just finished taking a shower and before he had time to blow his hair, Tammy pressed him on the bed.

"Is the user named 'Elliot' who liked it really Elliot?" Tammy was a little suspicious.

The user named 'Elliot' is not such a high-profile person.

Even if he really registered as a short video user, wouldn't his account name really be Elliot?

"I don't know! I don't think so, but it may be." Jun wiped his hair with a towel, "I don't think this is important... I asked Brother Ben, and he said that he sent a short video. That account also said last month that the comet was about to hit the earth, didn't brother Ben mean that the news of the short video was fake?"

"Oh... it's best to be fake! You send the picture to After I did, I forwarded it to Avery. Since it is fake, I will explain it to Avery."

Jun said, "Brother Ben didn't explicitly say it was fake. He said that the future development of the Tate Industries is their company's secret, can't tell me too much. So what was said in the news may also happen. After all, Norah Jones's ability is really too strong!"

“But the Tate Industries is Avery!” Tammy fights for Avery.

“The Tate Industries has nothing to do with her.” Jun said, “Avery has already come out, so don’t worry about it.”

The next day, in the morning.

Avery was still sleeping, but the door was pushed open from the outside.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1835

Chapter 1835

Avery opened her eyes and saw Mike’s face. What happened last night suddenly came to mind.

“Avery, it’s almost nine o’clock, why are you still sleeping?” Mike walked to the window and opened the curtains, “I bought you breakfast.”

“Who told you to break into my room without knocking on the door?” Avery got out of bed immediately and walked towards the wardrobe.

“I think you haven’t gotten up so late, I’m afraid you’ll have an accident.” Mike sat down at the bay window and his eyes fell on her, “Actually, I didn’t want to come over so early to quarrel with you, it was Chad who asked me to come to you now and ask to clear.”

Avery went to the bathroom to change clothes, washed her face by the way, and walked out.

“How much alcohol did you drink last night?” Avery looked at him coldly.

“I didn’t drink much, just... a bottle!” Mike was speechless when Avery saw it. “What’s wrong? Do I still smell alcohol? I came from a shower.”

Mike lifted up his clothes, put it under his nose and sniffed it, and muttered, “It’s tasteless!”

“Did you tell Chad last night that I am living in poverty? Elliot sent me a message last night and wanted to pay me child support.” Avery exhaled, “Others have been drinking and like to brag outside, so why are you doing the opposite of others after drinking?”

Mike was stunned for a moment: “Have I ever said such a thing? I think about it. Ah!” After a pause, Mike slapped his head sharply, “I remembered, I didn’t mean to say that. It’s Chad who is particularly concerned about your future career development. I was annoyed by his questioning, so I made it up. “

“Why does he pay so much attention to my career development?” Avery got an explanation and became less angry.

“That’s how he is. He likes to worry about it. He said that he was afraid that you would feel uncomfortable when you saw the building of the Tate Industries.” Mike said here and asked her, “You must not see the Tate Industries’s building. Will it be uncomfortable?”

“Uncomfortable.” Avery replied, “I don’t care how they are developing in Bridgedale. But when I returned to Aryadelle and saw the familiar headquarters building of Tate Industries, I really felt bad.”

Mike: “... “

Mike didn’t expect Chad to be right.

“I know why Chad is worried about me.” Avery linked the news that Tammy showed him last night to this incident, “I saw news last night that the Tate Industries was going to be independent.

“independent?” Mike jumped down from the bay window, “How to be independent?”

“Separate from Sterling Group and go public independently. The news said that Elliot would give up Tate Industries to Norah Jones.”

When Avery was sleeping last night, Because of this problem, she tossed to sleep very late.

She couldn’t help recalling how she would feel if her father was still alive and knew that the company she had founded had ended up in the hands of outsiders.

If Elliot and Norah Jones changed the name of the Tate Industries, they wouldn’t be so upset.

“How could Elliot cheap Norah Jones for nothing? He must have made a lot of money.” Mike frowned, “Last night Chad told me that Elliot admired Norah Jones very much. Because Norah Jones’s work ability is very good.”

“Look. It came out. When the Tate Industries was in our hands, the breakthrough was not so big.” Avery said calmly, “She is indeed quite business-minded.”

“Avery, we came back to find Haze, so don’t think about other things.” Mike didn’t know how to comfort Avery, so he could only distract her with other things.

“Well.” Avery turned around and entered the bathroom, “You said just now that Chad asked you to ask me...what to ask me? Why do you have to ask me in the morning?”

“Oh, last night Chad listened to a recording from Elliot. It was the one you called Elliot when you were blind. Elliot said he didn’t know about your blindness. Elliot also told Chad if he knew at the time that you are blind, so he definitely won’t go to Yonroeville.” Mike took the mobile phone and walked to the bathroom door, and added, “I have listened to the recording. The first half is normal, but the second half is without your voice.”

Avery squeezed toothpaste stopped.

Avery: “Elliot made the recording?”

“Yeah! He wants to prove that he is innocent, not a merciless man... Chad asked me to bring the recording to you to see if the recording is real.” Mike said, turned on the recording, and played it.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1836

Chapter 1836

Avery stared at herself in the mirror, and her memory was brought back to the beginning.

At that time, her eyes suddenly became blind, and her mood fell to the bottom.

Nervousness, fear, and unease filled every nerve in her body. She thought that if she finally called Elliot, he would definitely come and take her to the hospital.

After listening to the recording, Mike pressed pause.

“Avery, why are you crying?” Mike saw that her eyes were wet, and immediately put the phone aside and brought her a tissue.

“Didn’t you just ask why I was silent in the second half?” Avery’s body was tense, and the hand holding the toothbrush couldn’t stop shaking.

“Yeah! Chad said he asked Elliot, and Elliot said he probably didn’t listen to your phone at the time.”

“He lied!” Avery threw the toothbrush in his hand to the ground, crying, “My voice was eliminated! I told him I couldn’t see! I begged him to come to me! How could he silence my voice and show this recording to prove himself?!”

Mike’s chest heaved quickly.

He didn't expect that Elliot could be so shameless.

He took a deep breath, bent down, picked up her toothbrush, and threw it in the trash.

"Don't cry, I'll buy you a new toothbrush."

After Mike left, Avery turned on the faucet. The sound of water rushing drowned out her cry.

She thought that she had forgotten the hurt Elliot gave her, but when the recording came, the pain came out from the bottom of her heart.

Mike came out of the villa with confusion in her mind.

At this moment, Chad sent a message to inquire about the result.

Mike dialed the phone, suppressed his anger, and asked, "Chad! Do you want to see Avery cry? I've never seen her cry in more than two years! You f*cking ask me to use the recording to ask her. After listening to the recording, she cried! She said that Elliot had silenced her voice! In the latter half, Elliot had manipulated her!"

Chad: "..."

Mike: "If you don't believe it, come now. Avery's home, she's still crying!"

Chad was exhausted and very uncomfortable: "Forget it, there's no need. Since the two of them don't agree, then one of them must be lying. I thought that there must be a misunderstanding between the two of them. It looks like I was wrong."

Mike: "Don't mention that b*stard in front of me in the future."

Chad: "Got it."

...

Avery made an appointment with a famous private detective in Aryadelle at home.

She handed the information she had prepared to the other party.

"Haze is my daughter. After she was born, she was sold from Yonroeville to Aryadelle. You are a famous detective in Aryadelle, and I believe in your strength. I wonder if you can help me find my daughter. If you help me find my daughter, the price is not a problem."

Who knows, the detective shook his head after seeing the photos she provided.

Chapter 1837

Avery's eyes paled.

"Are you afraid that I can't make a bid?" she asked suspiciously.

"Miss Tate, I'll accept the information, but I don't need the money." The detective explained, "Mr. Foster has approached me. He gave me a photo of Haze. Because there is too little information, there has been no progress. Now I have you. I will look for the supplementary information. However, my team and I are not looking for it in Aryadelle now."

Avery: "Why?"

"The information that Mr. Foster gave me, the child may be sold to small countries around Yonroeville. Not so far from Aryadelle."

Avery: "But the clue I got was that the child was sold to Aryadelle."

"Is the information you got authentic?" The detective asked.

"How can I be sure of this?" Avery frowned, "Go to Aryadelle to find it. I can give you as much money as Elliot gives you."

A smile appeared on the detective's face: "Miss Tate, you know him, how much will you offer me?"

"I don't know. But I saw his worth from last year's rich list. I can also offer the price he can offer." Avery said firmly.

The detective's look at Avery suddenly deepened.

The detective: "Since Miss Tate is so arrogant, I will do my best."

Avery said, "It's hard work for you! Haze and my daughter Layla looked a lot alike when they were young. I don't believe she will change a lot when she grows up. Looking for the photo of my daughter Layla, it shouldn't go wrong."

"Okay."

After the two of them chatted, the detective came out of Avery's house.

After getting in the car, the detective called Elliot.

The detective: "Miss Tate is looking for me."

"I knew Avery would look for you." Everything was within Elliot's expectations, "Did you tell her?"

The detective said, "Yes. But she thinks that the child may be in Aryadelle. Let me find it in Aryadelle. Mr. Foster, Miss Tate said that she saw your ranking and worth on the rich list last year, and she said that it doesn't matter what you give me. She can charge the same price at any price. Is she really that rich?"

Elliot: "Aren't you a detective? If she has money, you can find out if you investigate privately?" Elliot retorted.

The detective said embarrassedly: "I haven't heard that Miss Tate is so rich. But I don't think she's joking with me when I look at Miss Tate."

Elliot: "According to the information I got, her life is very difficult now."

The detective: "Oh . . . That's it!"

Elliot said, "She asked you to look for it in Aryadelle, then you can look for it in Aryadelle. What else did she say to you?"

The detective: "She said to find it according to Layla's appearance."

Elliot: "Do as she said."

After Elliot finished the call, the office door was knocked open.

Chad walked in. He drank last night and had a headache this morning, so he didn't come to the company in the morning.

He just arrived at the company and felt it necessary to talk to Elliot in person.

"Are you feeling better?" Elliot asked immediately when he saw Chad.

Chad listened to the boss's concerned greetings, and his heart was very painful.

The boss is obviously a good person, why would he do such a despicable thing?

Did he ever think that Avery might hear the fake recording?

"What are you doing in a daze?" Elliot raised his voice a few times when he saw him in a trance. "After you sent me a message last night, I contacted Avery and planned to give her a child support payment, but she refused."

"Oh..." Chad was not surprised at all.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1838

Chapter 1838

“What’s even more ridiculous is that a detective I found just now told me that Avery asked him to meet and offered him a super high price to find Haze.” Elliot couldn’t understand Avery’s behavior, “How could she take All the capital to go to Haze?”

Chad heard it, but the boss was still worried about Avery.

Otherwise, there is no need to worry about whether she will use all the capital to find children.

Chad: “Boss, although Avery is not as rich as you, she also wants to do her part.”

Elliot: “I told her that I have been sending someone to look for Haze. She doesn’t believe me, so she has to find it herself. “

Boss, don’t worry about what she does. Anyway, you are divorced, and you will live your own lives in the future. Don’t disturb anyone.” Chad said calmly.

When Elliot heard her words, the expression on his face changed suddenly.

In the past, when Chad mentioned their relationship, he would try his best to match them up. The most common words were that he couldn’t bear it for the sake of children? But now, Chad actually told them not to disturb anyone.

“Chad, you’ve changed.” Elliot looked at Chad with deep eyes, “What did Mike say to you last night?”

Chad: “What I said, I sent a message to tell you. After that, we were drunk.”

Elliot: “Who told you to tell me that Avery and I will not disturb anyone in the future?”

“I said it myself... Am I wrong?” Chad pretended to be innocent and asked, “Do you have any ideas or plans?”

Elliot: “Chad, you go out.”

In the evening.

Everyone had a formal gathering at Avery’s house.

In this gathering, in addition to Jun, Tammy, Ben, Gwen, Wesley and Shea. And, of course, their children.

Avery was very happy to see Shea's daughter for the first time.

Shea's daughter Maria is two years old this year. She looks like Wesley and has a similar personality. She is very quiet.

Tammy told her that Maria didn't like to cry, so Avery immediately took Maria into her arms.

The little guy really doesn't like to cry.

Although she frowned and didn't want to be hugged, she looked at Avery very firmly, with an expression of "I don't want you to be hugged, if you don't let go, I will consider crying".

Tammy said, "Avery, I originally planned to bring Robert, but Robert was not at home. Mrs. Cooper said that Elliot took him out."

After Tammy said this, Shea suddenly remembered something.

She was about to say something when Wesley immediately patted her on the shoulder, then walked towards the door with the phone.

Shea understood.

"Shea, who usually takes Maria? Maria is really cute! Be obedient and obedient." Avery especially likes Maria.

"I also particularly like Maria. Don't you say that some babies are very good, like angels? I think Maria is an angel baby." Tammy echoed.

Shea was very happy that they praised Maria: "It's mainly my mother-in-law who takes care of Maria. If I bring children, their family will be worried to death." She laughed at herself.

"What's there to worry about. I see how well you hugged the child just now!" Avery said, "But it is hard to take care of the child, and your mother-in-law is willing to help you take care of the child, so you can watch from the side. However, why don't you ask a nanny to take care of the child?"

"I hired a nanny before, but Maria is so good, my mother-in-law thought she could take care of her alone, so she dismissed the nanny." Shea explained.

“Hahaha. So many of us are staring at it. If anyone in Wesley’s family treats you badly, we will help you out.” Ben Schaffer interjected with a smile.

Shea blushed slightly, and turned to look at Wesley.

Wesley stood outside talking on the phone. However, he was facing the room. After he and Shea looked at each other, the call was quickly finished.

Chapter 1839

After Wesley came in, he said to Avery with an apologetic expression: “Avery, Elliot is here.”

Everyone was stunned.

“Maria wanted to play with Robert at noon today, so I called my brother, Elliot and asked him to bring Robert to our house after get off work. I forgot about it.” Shea explained.

“I called him just now and told him not to bring Robert to our house, but he already knew from my mother that we were coming to Avery. He said he would be there soon.” Wesley continued to explain.

“No wonder I went to pick up Robert, and Mrs. Cooper said that Elliot took him out.” Tammy said, “It’s just right for him to come, leave Robert behind, and let him go.”

“Tammy, this is not good?” Jun glanced at the food on the table, “Brother Elliot eats together, just an extra pair of tableware. And maybe he won’t stay to eat? Let’s not show that we don’t welcome him first! “

Jun’s voice was settled, and outside the villa, the black Rolls-Royce stopped.

After a while, the bodyguard got off the car with Robert in his arms.

Wesley and Shea greeted him at the door.

Elliot entered the living room with them.

When Maria saw Robert, he immediately shouted cheerfully: “Brother, brother!”

It can be seen that Maria especially likes Robert.

Robert held a small gift box in his hand.

Every time Robert went to see Maria, Elliot would prepare a small gift for his son and ask his son to bring it to his sister.

So Maria especially likes to play with his brother.

“Kara, go and play with them!” Tammy took her daughter over there.

The three children, Kara, Maria and Robert never played together before. but after knew each other, the three of them quickly started playing.

“Elliot, have you eaten dinner yet?” Ben Schaffer asked Elliot, “We are just about to eat, why don’t you come and eat together?”

Chad saw Avery’s face ashen, and immediately said, “Brother Ben, this is not very good. Right? The boss must have food at home. Forcing the boss to stay here, the boss is embarrassed!”

Ben Schaffer: “???”

Elliot looked at Chad with cold eyes.

Although Chad argued in the afternoon that he was not brainwashed by Mike, it is now very obvious that he was brainwashed.

Chad coughed dryly in a guilty conscience, and pretended to find a cup to drink water.

Shea felt that since her brother didn’t refuse just now, it means that he hasn’t eaten yet.

Shea: “Brother, are you staying for dinner?”

Shea knew that Elliot and Avery were divorced, but Shea felt that with so many friends and children, it shouldn’t be too much to keep Elliot for dinner.

After all, Elliot brought Robert here, shouldn’t he have to take Robert away later?

Elliot looked at Avery. Since he came in until now, Avery has never looked at him directly.

“Shea, this is Avery’s house, let’s see what Avery has to say!” Wesley saw that Avery was in a bad mood, so he spoke immediately.

Mike had been silent all the time. Hearing Wesley’s words, he couldn’t help but say, “Wesley, it’s no wonder Avery has always regarded you as a big brother. You can really understand her feelings.”

Mike’s words are clearly true In praising Wesley, it was actually for Elliot.

Why couldn't Elliot hear what Mike meant, didn't he just let him go?

Just when he turned around to leave, Avery took the lead to stand up from the chair.

Avery didn't talk to anyone, didn't stop, and strode towards the master bedroom.

"What's wrong with Avery?" Tammy didn't know what happened, so she asked in a low voice in surprise.

Is it because Elliot planned to give the Tate Industries to Norah Jones?

If it wasn't for this incident, It felt that Avery didn't need to embarrass Elliot in the presence of so many friends and children.

Gwen answered: "What else can happen, there is someone she doesn't like."

Although Elliot is her brother, she is correct.

From the moment they divorced, Gwen stood firmly on Avery's side.

Shea blushed embarrassedly, "I'll go and see Avery."

"Don't go." Wesley pulled her back, "Let Tammy go!"

Shea's identity was too embarrassing.

Her relationship with Elliot is closer than that of her own siblings, and she has no idea of the grievances accumulated over the years between Avery and Elliot.

She went in to persuade Avery, no matter how she persuaded it, it was useless.

"Mike, go!" Tammy said to Mike, "I have something to ask Elliot."

Mike wanted to stay and watch the show, but he didn't want Avery to be alone in the room, so Mike walked to three children's side and brought the three of them to Avery's room.

Having a child, Avery dare not show it even if she is unhappy.

Seeing the smile on Avery's face, Mike came out of the master bedroom.

In the dining room.

Elliot was invited to sit in the dining chair.

Ben Schaffer brought tableware and poured wine for Elliot.

Jun gave Tammy countless glances to tell her not to make trouble, but she turned a blind eye.

Mike returned to the dining room, took a look at the scene, and fanned the flames: "Tammy, didn't you say you have something to say? Did you say it?"

Tammy immediately pushed Jun away and walked in front of Elliot.

"Elliot, look at this picture." Tammy opened the picture from last night, handed it to Elliot, and asked, "Is the 'Elliot' here you?"

Elliot glanced at the picture and said without hesitation, "No. Don't ask me this kind of boring question."

He didn't have an account for this kind of short video, and even if he did, he wouldn't use his real name!

"What Tammy mainly wants to ask is the news in this short video... Is the Tate Industries going to go public independently? Will Norah Jones become the big boss of the Tate Industries?" Jun questioned him directly.

Tammy: "Yes! Avery is so angry, it must be because of this!"

Jun pulled Tammy back to the seat and sat down.

The question that should be asked has already been asked, and it depends on whether Elliot will answer.

"I don't need to and can't explain any important decisions within my company to you. If Avery is angry with me because of this, it can only mean that she is narrow-minded. Since she can't let go of the Tate Industries, why did she pretend to be free and easy?" Elliot teased coldly.

Chad took a sip of his wine and dared to say, "She's not..."

As soon as Chad opened his mouth, everyone's eyes flicked towards him.

The words behind it were immediately blocked in the throat.

"What's she not?" Elliot looked at Chad and put pressure on him with his eyes, "Speak!"

Chad took a deep breath and squeezed the glass tightly with his fingers: "Mike knows! Mike, you said!"

Mike: "???"

Mike looked at Elliot contemptuously: "Of course Avery is not angry because of such trivial things! If you really want to know why she is angry, you can ask her! I can't tell you!"

Everyone's eyes fell on Elliot's face.

"Whether Avery is angry or not, why is he angry, I don't care at all! If it wasn't for Robert to come looking for Maria, I would never have come!" After Elliot finished speaking indifferently, he stood up from his chair and turned around!

His eyes immediately met Avery, who had just come over.
