

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1881

Chapter 1881

Seeing the nine photos posted by Tammy, and taking a look at the words above, Elliot's mood is like falling into an ice cellar.

What Tammy meant was that Avery could order a special new car for her too?

Thinking of this, Elliot found Jun's number and dialed it.

Jun parked the car on the side of the road and took Elliot's call.

"Brother Elliot."

"Avery promised to book a car for you?" Elliot asked.

"Uh...how did you know?" Jun wondered.

"I guessed it from Tammy's circle of friends." Elliot asked again, "Why can Avery help you? Sure, tell me everything you know."

Jun looked embarrassed, took a deep breath, and said "Brother Elliot, do you really want to listen?"

"What does Avery have to do with the dream maker?" Elliot's tone gradually became impatient.

Jun cleared his throat and said, "She is in love with the boss of the Dream Makers Group..." After a pause, he said quickly, "It was Chad who told us. Chad is listened to what Mike said. So this matter should not be fake."

Elliot's breathing suddenly became solemn.

"Brother Elliot, Tammy went to Avery today, and it was confirmed from her. Avery is indeed getting along with the dreamer's boss. I think you should forget her and start a new life!" Jun Seeing that Elliot didn't speak, he felt a little flustered.

Jun was worried that Elliot would do impulsive things after being stimulated.

After Elliot settled down, he hung up the phone.

"Dad! I'm going out to play with my sister...you go out with us!" Before Robert was taken out by Layla, his little hand grabbed his father's big palm and wanted to take his father out.

Elliot followed his son out like a puppet.

Layla pouted and complained in a low voice: “Stinky brother, let’s go out to play, what are you doing with your dad?”

Robert looked aggrieved: “I want dad to play with us!”

“Robert, what do you want dad for?” Layla glared at Robert and dad with the drone and remote control in her hand.

Robert flattered and pulled his sister’s hem: “Dad, watch us play! Hey! Sister, teach me to play!”

Seeing that Elliot didn’t say a word, Layla took him as air and began to teach her brother to play no one machine.

After a while, after Robert was able to control the drone by himself, Elliot rolled his Adam’s apple and said to Layla, “Layla, do you know about your mother looking for a boyfriend?”

Layla said “ah! What did you say?”

“Your mother is looking for a boyfriend.” Elliot looked at his daughter, “She is on good terms with the boss of the Dream Makers Group. She has already told you Auntie Tammy. She didn’t tell you. right?”

Layla’s eyes stared like copper bells in disbelief.

Mom never told her about finding a boyfriend! Why does she suddenly have a boyfriend?

“I don’t believe it! I’m going to call my mother!” Layla ran back to the villa angrily.

Elliot looked at the back of his daughter running away with an incredible look on his face.

What did Avery think? This kind of thing is hidden from her daughter. Does she think her daughter will not promise her to find a new lover?

Looking at Layla’s expression when she learned the news just now, Layla will definitely object!

The solemn expression on Elliot’s face eased slightly.

When Layla got home, she took her cell phone and called her mother.

“Mom! Dad said you were looking for a boyfriend!” Layla said angrily, “Did Dad lie to me or are you really looking for a boyfriend?”

Avery was lying on the sofa just after dinner.

Avery: “Is your father with you?”

“Not here! He’s playing drones with his brother outside.” Layla said here, her tone suddenly aggrieved, “Are you really looking for a boyfriend? Who is your boyfriend? Is he handsome? How old is he? Where do you live?”

Avery listened to her daughter’s voice and wanted to see her and tell her face to face.

Avery: “You asked the driver to take you to Mommy. Mommy told you in person.”

“Oh... well.” Layla hung up the phone and went to the driver immediately.

After a while, the driver took Layla out.

Mrs. Cooper strode towards Elliot.

Mrs. Cooper : “Sir, Layla was making a fuss to find Avery, so I asked the driver to take her there. Don’t worry, I’ll let the driver take Layla back later.”

“Well.” Elliot looked at the door.

He doesn’t know how Avery will convince Layla.

However, the boyfriend of Avery was looking for must have passed the Hayden level.

As long as Hayden passes the level, Avery will have nothing to fear on Layla and Robert’s side.

About an hour later, the driver brought Layla back.

Elliot saw the relaxed and natural expression on his daughter’s face, and it seemed that Avery convinced her.

“How did your mother tell you?” Elliot asked casually.

Layla was stunned for a moment, then walked to Elliot’s side and sat down next to him.

“Dad, my mother has already told me.” Layla’s face burst into a bright smile, “My mother said that Uncle Billy is young and handsome, not only intelligent, but also handsome. More importantly, Billy Uncle loves my mother, he not only gives my mother all the money he earns, but also listens to my mother.”

Elliot’s face turned red and black.

Billy really?

Have they really developed to this point?

Isn’t it just a matter of confirming the relationship? Avery has already started to spend Billy’s money?

Wait... Avery bought jewelry for Layla at the auction before.

10 million is just the price at the beginning of the auction. If Norah Jones had bid with her at that time, the price would definitely be higher.

Avery spends so much money now, is it because all he spends is Billy’s money?

Thinking of this, Elliot’s heart ached for a while!

When Billy fell in love with Avery, he was not stingy towards Avery.

He gave Avery a bank card, but Avery never spent his money.

Billy believed that he had never treated her harshly in terms of economics.

“Dad, did you hear what I said?” Layla raised her voice a little for fear that her father would not be stimulated, “Uncle Billy listens to my mother in everything, he is not like you, he always annoys my mother Angry. Uncle Billy has never made my mother angry!”

“Is this what your mother told you?” Elliot’s face was black as carbon, and his voice trembled slightly. He clenched his Fist tightly.

If the person facing Elliot was not Layla, he would have had an attack long ago.

“Yeah! My mom didn’t tell me earlier because she was still investigating Uncle Billy. Now that I know, she told me all about it.” Layla winked at Dad, “Daddy, you look so angry! Are you jealous?”

Elliot’s thin lips pursed into a line, and the lines of his body tightened.

“Who told you to be angry with my mother before. Now you regret it? If you regret it, you can get my mother back before my mother marries Uncle Billy. Otherwise...” Having said this, Layla sighed, “Otherwise my mother and Uncle Billy will definitely have many babies.”

Elliot: “!!!”

“Once they have a lot of babies, Mommy won’t want us at all.” Layla sighed, resting her head on Dad’s shoulder.

“However,” without waiting for Elliot to express her stance, Layla continued, “If my mother really wants to marry Uncle Billy, I am not unacceptable. My mother said that Uncle Billy will be very ill to me and Robert and Hayden. Okay. I really look forward to seeing Uncle Billy, maybe he listens to me more than you.”

Elliot’s anger reached its peak.

Elliot: “Layla, do you really want to recognize that man as your stepdad?”

Elliot voice trembled faintly. Layla felt her father’s anger, but she decided to bite the bullet and finish what she wanted to say.

Layla: “As long as my mother is happy, of course I can recognize that man as a stepfather.”

Elliot felt very sad when he got the answer from his daughter.

He got up from the sofa and walked upstairs.

Layla watched her dad go upstairs without saying a word, and her heart skipped a beat.

–Will Dad be mad at himself?

Thinking of this, she ran anxiously to find Mrs. Cooper.

“I made Dad angry just now.” Layla puffed out her cheeks as she looked at Robert who was already asleep on the bed.

Mrs. Cooper pulled Layla out of the room.

“I heard something. It was said that your mother found a new boyfriend.” Mrs. Cooper sighed, “Is it true?”

Layla lowered her head, thought for a few seconds, and said, "If my mother really found a new boyfriend, what do you think my father will do?"

Mrs. Cooper shook her head: "I don't know. It depends on what kind of boyfriend your mother is looking for. If it is a good person, your father may not interfere. If it is not a good person, your Dad shouldn't watch your mother be dragged down by bad men."

Layla: "My mother's boyfriend must be a good man!"

"Oh, I don't know what your father will do. But what is certain is that your father will be very sad." Mrs. Cooper couldn't help feeling sad for Elliot, "After he knew your mother, for so many years, he has never been right. Other women have been moved. Even after you divorced your mother, he has always kept himself clean... Layla, when you grow up, you will understand how rare a man like your father is."

After listening Mrs. Cooper's words, Layla became more and more guilty.

"I want my dad to go and get my mom back. But I'm too embarrassed to say it outright... so I'm mad at him. I complimented my mom's boyfriend." Layla said.

Mrs. Cooper patted her on the shoulder: "Everyone doesn't want to be angry. Think about it, if you were your father, what would you do? Your father did his best to you and Robert, and couldn't find fault. If you want them to be reconciled, it's better to say good things about your father in front of your mother more often."

"If I said a few words, they wouldn't get divorced." Layla sighed, "I still I went back to my room to take a shower."

Layla said she went back to her room to take a shower, but after she went upstairs, she walked directly to her father's study.

She can't worry about her father.

What if Dad hides in the study and weeps?

A quarter of an hour later, Layla took her summer homework and pushed open the door of her father's study without knocking on the door.

In the study, Elliot was caught off guard and panicked.

He didn't hear his daughter's footsteps.

The door was opened like this, and there was no time to wipe the tears in his eyes!

Layla quickly walked to Dad, staring at the tears in Dad's eyes, her heart was touched, and her small mouth was suddenly deflated.

Elliot: "Layla, I..."

"Dad, I'm sorry." Layla took some toilet paper from the cardboard box on the table and handed it to Dad, "I was mad at you just now."

When Elliot heard his daughter's apology, he immediately took the paper from his daughter and wiped the tears from his eyes.

"It must be that I didn't do well enough, so you will be mad at me on purpose." Elliot looked at his daughter, hoping to hear more from her heart.

Since Elliot divorced Avery, his daughter has been living by his side casually, but she has never said a single thoughtful word to him.

Now that his daughter can take the initiative to talk to him, he is very moved.

Layla put her summer homework on the desk, and after struggling for a while, she looked up and looked at her father again.

"Dad, I'm angry that you didn't coax my mother back. I've filmed several idol dramas, although they were all when the heroine was a child, but I know how those dramas were played. The man coaxed the woman back, why can't you coax my mother back?"

Layla complained.

"Do you think your father never kept your mother?" Elliot asked, looking at Layla's lost face.

Layla: "You didn't! At least I didn't see it!"

"I called and texted your mother, and I went to Bridgedale to find her. I tried every method I could. I don't want you three brothers and sisters separation, I don't want you to have a incomplete family of origin, but no matter what I do, your mother will never forgive me. I don't know what to do to coax her back."

When Elliot said this, he recalled the original All sorts of things, his eyes couldn't help but get wet again.

"Layla, Dad is not a hard-hearted person. Dad also wants you and your brother to be with mom and brother forever. Because Dad also wants our family to be reunited. It's just a lot of things, it's not what Dad wants to do. How's it going?"

After listening to her father's words, two lines of tears fell in Layla's eyes.

She felt that she had misunderstood her father in the past few years. Not only did she misunderstand her father, but she also got a lot of anger at her father.

Dad had never blamed her, and she was still complacent.

As everyone knows, her father is not feeling well.

"Dad, I won't be mad at you on purpose in the future." Layla wiped away tears.

Elliot immediately took Layla into his arms and wiped her tears with a tissue.

Elliot: "Layla, dad never blamed you. You don't have to apologize to dad."

"But I still want you to coax mom back." Layla raised her head, looked at her dad's handsome face, and said aggrieved, "I don't want to. If I want a stepfather, I don't want a stepmother, I just want to be with my parents. Dad, will you go and get my mother back?"

This was the first time Layla had formally pleaded with Elliot.

Without thinking, Elliot agreed to his daughter's request.

For his daughter, Elliot is willing to lay down his dignity.

Regardless of whether the final result can be achieved or not, at least let Layla see that Elliot has worked hard.

It was 9:00 p.m. when Layla came out of the study.

She went back to the bedroom, and instead of taking a bath immediately, she found her mobile phone and called her mother.

Avery answered the phone in seconds.

"Mom. My dad's crying." Layla sniffed, her voice hoarse.

Avery was stunned for a moment: "Did you cry? Mom seemed to have just cried when she heard your voice."

"I cried too. Because I saw my dad crying secretly... so I was also very sad." When Layla said this, her voice became even more hoarse, "Dad heard that you were looking for a boyfriend, so he secretly hid in the study and cried. Mom, I really want to tell him the truth!"

Avery hesitated for a while and said: "If you want to tell him, go tell him! It's a good job for your Uncle Mike. He wants to test your dad's feelings for me."

Chapter 1885

Layla calmed down a little after listening to her mother's words.

"Then I'll just listen to Uncle Mike! Uncle Mike must be doing it for Mom's sake." Layla muttered to herself.

"Layla, your father really cried?" Avery couldn't believe it.

She always felt that Elliot was not such a vulnerable person.

"Really!" Layla replied loudly, "Mom how could I lie to you? I saw it with my own eyes."

"Oh..." Avery still couldn't believe it, "Layla, your father is crying because of something else?"

"Huh?" Layla was stunned, "I-I don't know...but there's nothing else in our family that can make him cry! Today, Robert is so good. He fell asleep after playing outside for a while. I was the only one who was angry with him."

"Layla, don't be sad. Your father will find out the truth one day." Avery comforted her daughter, "It's very hard now. It's late, have you taken a bath?"

Layla: "Not yet..."

"Then you go take a bath first. Take a bath and get a good night's sleep. When you finish your summer homework, bring your brother to find me. When the time comes if there is anything, we can say it face to face." Avery's tone was relaxed, trying to relax her daughter.

"Mom, if Dad chases you again, will you still give him a chance?" Layla wondered if Dad still had a chance, "I like Dad, Robert also likes Dad, if we stay with him longer, we must be reluctant to abandon him."

Layla expressed her attitude.

Avery understands her daughter's emotional change.

The past two years have been neither long nor short.

Elliot can make the child develop feelings for him, which shows that he has spent a lot of time and energy on the child.

“If your father can get Haze back, maybe I will reconsider my relationship with him.” Avery told Layla her answer.

Layla made an ‘oh’, as if satisfied.

“Mom, then I’m going to take a bath. Bye.”

Avery: “Good night, baby.”

Avery’s heart beat heavily after speaking on the phone.

His daughter’s voice was still in her ears, but Elliot actually cried?

She frowned, turned on her phone, found Elliot’s dialog, and wanted to send him a message, but she didn’t know what to send.

If Elliot really cried tonight because Avery found a boyfriend, she would be embarrassed to find him instead.

Avery’s mood was completely disrupted. She lay on the bed and covered her head with the quilt.

Foster family.

After Layla left the study, Elliot began to think of a way.

Since he promised Layla to chase Avery back, his biggest obstacle now is Avery’s boyfriend Billy.

Who is this man?

Only by figuring out the details of the opponent can he know how much chance he has.

After thinking for half an hour, he called his subordinates and said his order.

Bridgedale.

10:00 in the morning.

Mike was wearing his home clothes and eating breakfast in the dining chair.

He and Hayden live together, but their work and rest times are completely staggered.

Hayden still went to bed late and got up early, and it was rare for Mike to say a word to him in a day.

Halfway through breakfast, Mike saw some great news.

This news amused Mike.

Mike immediately found Hayden's number and dialed: "Hayden, Your father, there is a big move!"

Hayden digested it for a while before he understood who Mike was referring to as 'father'.

Hayden has always had a goal, and this goal is to surpass Elliot.

Now, he is getting closer and closer to his goal, but he rarely pays attention to Elliot, and he doesn't care about Elliot that much.
