

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1951

Chapter 1951

The next day.

Ben Schaffer came to Yonroeville.

After Vice President Locklyn told him that Elliot might have an accident, Ben Schaffer was restless, so he came to see what was going on.

Chad brought Ben Schaffer to the place where Hayden built the base station.

Ben Schaffer looked at the unformed base station in front of him and pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose.

“Location chip? Do you want to build a base station?” Ben Schaffer asked.

Chad: “I was wondering too, so I asked Hayden last night. He said that it is not a positioning system on the market. He developed it himself.”

Ben Schaffer: “Isn’t he going to school?”

“He should have free time for school. Well! Anyway, he said that his positioning system is encrypted layer by layer. As long as the corresponding base station is built, the signal will definitely be searched. He said that someone in Bridgedale uses his positioning system.” Chad said, “He was busy last night. At twelve o’clock, I forced him to rest before he came with me. It was bright this morning, and he came again...”

Ben Schaffer’s face was gloomy: “Why didn’t you inform about such a big thing to me?”

“Brother Ben, aren’t you in a relationship? And I haven’t found out what happened to Avery and the boss. Tell you, there is nothing to worry about.” Chad said, “Actually, I still don’t. I believe the boss will be killed. I dream about him every night. He told me in my dream that he just took Avery out to play.”

If Chad didn’t talk about the latter dream, Ben Schaffer wouldn’t believe that something had happened to Elliot.

Hearing him talk about the latter dream, Ben Schaffer panicked.

On the third day after the establishment of the base station, the sky started to drizzle.

Nick came after breakfast.

Nick heard that the base station can be built today. He wants to see if Hayden can really find Avery's whereabouts after the base station is built.

In addition to Nick, Ben Schaffer and Chad also came to the scene early.

In fact, the two of them have been staring at the scene for the past two days.

Although I can't read it, I can't help you much, but if you don't stay here, it will be more troublesome in the hotel.

"The rain seems to be getting heavier. I'll go and call Hayden." Chad didn't want Hayden to get caught in the rain.

Ben Schaffer stopped him: "Didn't you see that he is busy now? If he doesn't have to do it himself, why would he waste his energy? Didn't he say that the positioning chip was developed by him? Without him, how would the base station be built?"

Chad stopped.

When Nick heard Ben Schaffer's words, he was quite shocked: "Hayden is so good now?"

"Hayden has always been very good. When he went to school in Aryadelle, he was recognized as a genius. The teachers who have contacted him are all right. He is full of praise." Ben Schaffer was proud of him, "It is precisely because he is so good that he has never put Elliot in his eyes."

Nick: "That's true. But Elliot definitely hopes that Hayden is now Instead of being a useless person."

"Have you found nothing over the past few days?" Ben Schaffer asked.

"I can't find it!" Nick frowned, "Second brother and fourth brother have sent me a lot of staff. In the past few days, our people have almost searched the entire capital, but they were not found at all. All the hotels, B&Bs, airports, and stations have been searched. Even some remote villages have been visited, but no one has seen them."

Ben Schaffer's Adam's apple rolled and he dared not speak, "Could it be that the two living people will disappear out of thin air?"

"They seem to have disappeared out of thin air. Whether they are still here or not, the person who kidnapped them will definitely shock us." The reason why Nick is so Said it was because after thinking about it for a few days, he didn't come up with any clues.

Ben Schaffer: "Actually, not necessarily. You are too snobbish here. Money can make a ghost run the mill, and the person who kidnapped them might not be as rich as Elliot."

“Everything is possible. I am a point. I don’t have any clues. I didn’t sleep all night last night, and I came early this morning just to see what the truth is.” Nick’s eyes were scarlet as he looked at the tower in front of him.

At noon.

Chad asked Hayden to eat together, but Hayden refused.

Because the base station was about to be built.

Hayden wanted to wait until the base station was built.

“Let’s go eat first! Just pack it for him and bring it over later.” Nick said.

Ben Schaffer and Chad followed Nick to a nearby restaurant for dinner.

“Today is the sixth day that they lost contact.”

When Nick arrived at the restaurant, he suddenly sighed.

This sentence made Ben Schaffer and Chad completely lose their appetites.

The longer it drags on, the less hope there is.

No matter where Elliot and Avery are now, they haven’t been able to contact them until now, but it is conceivable that their current situation must be very bad.

At 3 o’clock in the afternoon, the base station was built.

Hayden immediately returned to the nearest hotel. He has lived here for the past two days.

It is 500 meters away from the base station. Open the window and he can see the tall tower built.

Back at the hotel, he took off his raincoat.

Chad helped Hayden take off the safety helmet on his head.

“Hayden, eat something first!” Ben Schaffer took the lunch box and handed it to him.

"I'll find my mother first!" Hayden didn't feel hungry at all but his throat was actually hoarse.

"Then take a drink!" Ben Schaffer unscrewed the water bottle and handed it to him, "How thin are you? If your mother sees you like this, she will definitely feel distressed."

Hayden took the water bottle and drank the big bottle. After the water, walk to the computer and sit down.

Others stood beside him one after another, watching.

Hayden's fingers quickly jumped on the keyboard, and after a while, a map appeared in front of everyone.

On this map, a purple line appears.

This purple line flows like water on the map... After a while, the line stops moving.

Hayden's eyes were fixed on the end of the line.

After several seconds, seeing that the line never moved, he zoomed in on the end point!

"My mother is here!" Hayden's voice broke the silence of the room.

Nick put his head in front of his computer, stared at the map and looked at it again and again, and exclaimed: "There is the corpse pit! This is the corpse pit!"

"F*ck! How could this be?! I sent someone to check the corpse pit as soon as possible! The staff there said they had never seen them!" Nick scolded and chattered, took out his mobile phone, and ordered subordinates immediately go to surround the corpse pit.

Nick's assistant also put his head in front of the computer and stared at the map.

"Boss, this doesn't seem to be where the corpse pit is..." The assistant zoomed in on the map again, "This place is near the corpse pit, but not there."

Hayden immediately picked up the notebook and set off for the corpse pit. nearby.

He wants to find his mother immediately. Everyone followed him and left the hotel together to go to the location of the signal.

He don't know when the rain will stop. But the road near the corpse pit was muddy, and the car could not go forward at all.

"Stop!" Hayden called the car to stop, then pushed open the door to get out of the car.

Chapter 1953

Others got off the bus with him. Hayden switched the system to the iPad.

Holding his iPad, he strode towards the red dot shown on the map.

Chad looked at the desolate surroundings, his eyes couldn't help turning red.

"This area is the stronghold of that criminal gang." Nick had been to this area before, "It is very deserted, and most people don't usually come here."

"It is estimated that the people of that criminal gang are not dead yet, so they created it. This kidnapping case." Ben Schaffer answered.

Ben Schaffer told his guess, Chad couldn't help crying.

"Chad, this is just my guess, don't cry yet." Ben Schaffer didn't want it to be his own guess.

Because if that's the case, Elliot and Avery can't be alive.

"Ben Schaffer, I think your guess makes sense." Nick followed them along the rough dirt road with difficulty, "Except for the criminal gang who knows this, no one else will come this sh*t place."

Chad took off his glasses and raised his hand to wipe away his tears.

"Okay, don't cry." Ben Schaffer patted Chad's shoulder, "Maybe there will be a miracle? You forgot that he turned into a vegetative state in a car accident, and invited many experts, all of whom said he would not live long, but he was tough. He woke up by his own willpower."

Chad remembered this, and immediately took a deep breath: "Well. I haven't seen their bodies yet, maybe there is a miracle."

The group walked for about half an hour and came to the bungalow that was flooded with weeds.

"It's here." Hayden looked at the house in front of him and frowned, "My mother is inside!"

Nick immediately looked at the accompanying bodyguard: "Go in and search!"

A team of bodyguards immediately circled the bungalow and found the only entrance on the ground.

The iron door was locked.

A bodyguard pulled out a pistol, broke the door lock, and kicked open the iron door!

After the iron gate was kicked open, several bodyguards rushed in immediately.

After inspecting the room, the leading bodyguard ran out.

“Boss, there is no one inside.”

Everyone was stunned.

“My mother’s cell phone is here!” Hayden said, striding towards the bungalow.

Others followed into the bungalow.

It is covered with spider webs, and the naked eye can see dust floating in the air.

Although it was daytime, the light inside was dim because there were few windows in the house.

Everyone turned on their flashlights and started looking for their phones in every corner of the room.

“This house is so weird... just one door.” Ben Schaffer walked back and forth in the house, walked to Chad, and whispered, “It’s like a prison cell.”

“Well. After all, it’s a criminal gang. They must be afraid of someone escaping.” Chad analyzed, “As long as I don’t see my boss’s body, I won’t admit that something happened to the two of them.”

Ben Schaffer touched his chin and thought about it: “You Say whether there is a dark room or something in this house. Look at the old house we passed by, there is a big corpse pit. Do you think it is possible that there is such a pit here?”

Nick heard the two of them talking, and immediately Come over, “Can’t you speak louder? There are no outsiders here.”

“Boss Nick, I think there may also be a corpse pit here... You don’t mean that this gang and the corpse pit are both from this criminal gang. Is there a stronghold?” Ben Schaffer told Nick of his conjecture.

Nick looked around and said, "Have you seen the seal at the door? The police have been here before. They should have found nothing."

"The corpse pit, the police didn't find it either! It's not that the female prisoner was exposed later. Only then did I know..."

"What you said makes sense." Nick said to his bodyguard, "Have you found Avery's mobile phone?"

"Boss, I haven't found it yet!" The bodyguard replied loudly.

At this time, Ben Schaffer speculated again: "Is it possible that her mobile phone is... underground?"

No wonder Ben Schaffer speculated, because the space on the ground was unobstructed.

Chapter 1954

There are almost no compartments, not even a few pieces of furniture.

Only the kitchen and toilet are separated.

With a 'bang', a bodyguard pushed down a cabinet on the other side of the kitchen.

Because there is not much furniture in this house, and now Avery's mobile phone cannot be found, all the furniture can only be pushed away.

As a result, after the cabinet was pushed open, something magical happened.

"Boss, there is actually a door here!" The bodyguard exclaimed after seeing the dilapidated iron door in front of him.

In an instant, everyone ran over.

"Break it!" Nick immediately gave an order after seeing the iron gate.

The bodyguard cleared his throat: "Boss, this door can be opened directly."

After speaking, the bodyguard pulled the latch and opened the iron door.

A dark entrance suddenly appeared in front of everyone.

Everyone gasped.

Ben Schaffer didn't expect that he guessed it right!

Chad had a strong premonition in his heart.

His boss was killed!

Just as everyone stared blankly at the entrance, Hayden directly passed them and walked towards the entrance.

"Hayden! Let the bodyguards go down to explore the way first!" Seeing this, Nick immediately stopped.

Nick is more cautious in doing things. He will never be the first to rush into such a strange and dangerous place.

His bodyguard heard his voice and immediately grabbed Hayden.

"We'll lead the way, you follow!" The bodyguard walked in front with a flashlight in one hand and a pistol in the other.

The way to go underground is a dirt staircase. Although it is made of mud, it is easier to walk.

Not long after walking down, the bodyguard's flashlight suddenly illuminated a pile of bones.

"F*ck! I guessed it right! I knew there must be a corpse pit here!" Ben Schaffer covered his nose with one hand, frowned, and said this.

After Ben Schaffer's words were settled, Hayden immediately pushed aside the bodyguards in front and quickly ran towards the depths of the darkness.

"Mom!" After a while, Hayden's exclamation penetrated the entire basement.

Ben Schaffer and Chad immediately chased after him.

Hayden's footsteps stopped in one place. He saw Avery.

"Mom! Mom!" Hayden's voice trembled, with a cry.

Hayden was extremely proud and conceited. He never loses his temper in front of outsiders. But now, he saw his mother leaning against the wall, her face was pale and bloodless, and she seemed to have passed away forever... He couldn't control his grief at all!

Hayden dropped the iPad in his hand, squatted down, picked up his mother from the ground, and strode towards the entrance just now.

The moment he picked up his mother, his tears blurred his vision like a flood.

Mom's body is cold.

Although Hayden didn't think about the worst, the worst kept popping up and knocking all his sanity.

Hayden took Avery away, but the others were stunned and lost.

Until Chad asked: "Where's my boss? Where's my boss?!"

Nick's face was ashen, and after arranging a bodyguard to help Hayden, he said to the other bodyguards: "Elliot hasn't been found yet! Hurry up and find someone."
