

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1977

Steven looked at everything in the cafe, but he did not go out. Because Wanda is really rude.

After a while, a well-meaning passerby called an ambulance for Wanda. As a result, when the ambulance arrived, she suddenly woke up.

Wanda refused the ambulance and strode towards the parking lot next to her.

Steven saw Wanda driving away, then took out his mobile phone and dialed Hayden's number.

Steven: "Wanda meet me just now and asked me about the robot."

"Why did you see her?" Hayden's voice came.

"I only heard about her evil deeds from her mouth before, but I saw her today and found that you didn't wrong her." Steven finished his coffee and went to the cashier to settle the bill.

Hayden: "The bad things she's done can't be said for days or nights. I'll just take my grandmother's death, because it's the most unforgivable thing."

Steven: "Well, when are you going to take revenge?"

Hayden: "Come on..."

Aryadelle.

Primary School.

Bodyguards come to pick Layla from school.

The bodyguards did not wait at the school gate, but came directly to Layla's classroom gate.

Katalina saw the bodyguard coming, and greeted him with a smile: "I told Layla's mother today that I will tutor Layla for 40 minutes every night from now on."

"You want to make money from my boss? You give Layla Tutoring, can I get a higher salary than outside?" The bodyguard said, "If you just want to earn my boss's money, well, if you have other intentions, I advise you to weigh yourself. Otherwise, I don't know how you died in the end."

Katalina was stunned by the bodyguard's words.

"I...I just want to help my students improve their academic performance...I don't want to collect extra money." Katalina defended herself, "If you don't believe me, ask Layla's mother, we don't talk about money."

The bodyguard: "Do you want her to take the initiative to send you money?"

Katalina: "No! If she takes the initiative to send me money, I definitely won't. Our school can't accept gifts, let alone red envelopes. . You really misunderstood me. I really want to help Layla improve her academic performance... Besides, my family is not here, I rent a house by myself, and it's boring after work every day...If you stay with me for one more hour, my life will be a little more fulfilling."

Bodyguard: "..."

"My family is quite rich." Katalina saw that the bodyguard still refused to believe in herself, so she could only tell the truth, "My family started a company in Bridgedale for decades. The pocket money my dad gave me every month was six figures."

Bodyguard: "..."

Katalina: "I choose to be a Teacher, it's because I love this industry."

"Sick." The bodyguard felt that she was either lying or that she was out of her mind.

Layla came out of the classroom with her schoolbag on her back and saw the bodyguard and the head teacher standing together. At that moment, she felt that they were a good match.

The two are tall and short, with black and white skin, one has a serious expression, the other has a lively expression... Obviously they are two completely different people, but they don't feel inconsistent at all when they stand together.

"Layla, if you don't want to tutor in my office, I can take you to my house for tutoring. My house is just outside the school, and it's just two steps away." Katalina walked in front of Layla and spoke enthusiastically.

"Teacher Larson, why are you being so kind to me?" Layla was a little unnatural.

She didn't really want to let Katalina help her with tutoring.

The reason why she stayed at school for tutoring the week before was because of her father's affairs, which made her feel uncomfortable and did not want to go home to be emotional.

But now her mother has coaxed her.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1978

Her academic performance looks poor, there is a reason why she deliberately failed the exam. As long as she takes the exam well in the future, her score will definitely improve.

"She said that her family is very rich, with six-figure pocket money a month. She came to be a teacher because she loves it, and she made up for you just because she was lonely and bored after get off work... Layla, do you believe it?" The bodyguard asked.

Layla was stunned for a moment, and then said, "I think Teacher Larson really looks rich."

"Why didn't I see that?" The bodyguard's eyes widened, and he looked Katalina up and down.

"I feel it. Because Teacher Larson has a good temperament and is completely different from Norah." Layla said, "Teacher Larson, I don't like your cousin, do you know about this?"

Katalina said with embarrassment, "Yes. My cousin said it."

"Then you are still willing to make up for me?" Layla didn't expect Katalina to be so honest.

"The time I spend with my cousin is not as long as the time I spend with you." Katalina took them to her rental house, "Since I can be your teacher, I think it's a kind of fate. So I won't Your relationship with my cousin affects how I think of you."

"What do you think of me then?" Layla asked.

Katalina said, "You are very smart, you know everything. And you are beautiful and polite. A girl like you is very attractive."

Layla was embarrassed to be praised: "Teacher Larson, what do you think of my uncle bodyguard? Katalina cleared her throat and said, "He's a bit fierce, but I understand. His job requires him to be a little bit fiercer, so that the bad guys don't dare to approach. He is responsible for his work and is a good bodyguard."

Layla secretly Glanced at the bodyguard. The bodyguard blushed awkwardly.

After an hour.

The bodyguard took Layla home.

“Uncle Aqi, are you still single?” Layla turned on the gossip mode, “What do you think of Teacher Larson?”

Aqi, the bodyguard said, “Layla, she is Norah’s cousin, I look at her just like Norah, not pleasing to the eye.”

Layla: “But I think Teacher Larson is a good person.”

The bodyguard: “Layla, you are still young, your heart is very complicated, you can’t understand.”

“You can understand but you haven’t found a girlfriend yet.” Layla said. She glanced at the snacks at hand, “Teacher Larson gave me so many snacks, I don’t like them, you can eat them!”

“You don’t like them, why don’t you refuse?” The bodyguards didn’t like snacks very much either.

“Teacher Larson was kind enough to send me, why would I be so embarrassed to refuse?”

“Forget it, I’ll eat it! What if it’s poisonous?” The bodyguard spoke cautiously.

Back home, Avery took Layla’s schoolbag over to watch her tuition tonight.

“Layla, doesn’t your teacher Larson teach foreign languages? Why does she even help you with math?” Avery took the workbook and walked to the dining room.

Layla: “Mom, I’m in elementary school now. Maths shouldn’t be too difficult for you, right?”

“Oh, yes.” Avery flipped through her workbook again, “Teacher Larson gave you a lot of attention.”

I think Teacher Larson may like Uncle Aqi a little.”

Avery: “???”

Layla: “I saw her peeking at Uncle Aqi, Mom, so she likes it?”

Avery: "Aqi knows this something?"

"He said he didn't like Teacher Larson because she was Norah's cousin." Layla expressed her thoughts, "I think Teacher Larson is different from Norah. Teacher Larson looks very simple..."

At this moment, Avery's cell phone rang.

Avery strode towards the living room, picked up the phone, and saw Wanda's call.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1979

Avery took the call from Wanda without thinking.

"Avery, tell me, what's going on with that robot named Billy?! What the h-e-l-l is going on with it?!" Wanda's roar was deafening.

Avery took the phone away.

"Avery! You talk! You f*cking talk!" Wanda didn't hear Avery's answer, as if she was crazy.

Avery was afraid that she would lose control by talking to Wanda, so she took her mobile phone and walked out.

"Wanda, what are you talking about? I don't understand." Avery replied.

"You don't understand?! You're pretending!" Wanda let out an angry shout from her throat, "You must know the Dream Maker Group! You must know the people there! Avery, I really underestimate you! If not I saw your father's photo today, and I f*cking thought you were in such a miserable life!"

"Have you seen my father's photo? Where did you see it?" Avery installed, ignorant of it and asked calmly.

"I found someone to investigate Billy in Rishawaka! I found out that the boss of the Dream Makers Group is probably Billy the Robot! And the person I was looking for showed me what a robot looks like... that's clearly you Dad's appearance when he was young! And this Billy's full name is revenge, do you want revenge? Who are you looking for revenge for? Looking for me?!"

Wanda was frightened and fainted at the time, precisely because she saw the robot. Jack Tate looks exactly the same.

The person who developed this robot definitely knows Jack Tate!

Because Jack Tate has been dead for many years, who will remember him? It could only be Avery or someone around Avery.

If the boss behind the Dream Makers Group is really Billy the Robot, then the real boss of the Dream Makers Group may be Avery and the people around Avery.

As long as she thought of this, Wanda felt her neck being restrained, and she couldn't breathe.

"Wanda, can you send me the photo? I haven't seen my dad's photo for a long time." Avery said casually, "Do you think it's possible that my dad was resurrected?"

"You... ..what nonsense are you talking about?! Your father is already dead! I saw him cremated with my own eyes, how did he come back to life?!" Wanda was shocked and dizzy at this bold assumption.

"It's also possible that you're hallucinating. I've never heard of a robot that looks like my dad. I've never seen it! You see my dad, and my dad must know about the crazy things you do. I'm here to ask you for your life." Avery cursed.

"Don't scare me! I, Wanda, didn't get scared! Your father is already dead! Now this robot, you deliberately designed it to look like your father... Your father's wish before his death was The driverless car was created, and now the Dream Makers Group has created it! So you used your father's appearance, which was a dream for your father! You are really a good and filial daughter!"

"Wanda, since you said that For this sake, I can only admit it." Avery said here, the conversation changed, "I am not only a good daughter who is filial to my father, but also a good daughter of my mother. Now I have fulfilled my father's dream. I came down to avenge my mother."

Wanda: "Hehehehe... It's really you! I didn't expect you to have such great ability! How do you want to avenge your mother?! You want to hit the car with a car. Are you going to kill me? Say it!"

"Guess it slowly." Avery hung up the phone after saying this.

She wants to make Wanda panic and fear, and to let Wanda taste the torment.

The next day.

After the bodyguard Aqi picked up Layla from school, together with Katalina, they went to her rental house for tutoring.

Layla didn't feel like a light bulb yesterday, but today they looked like a couple in dark clothes.

When they arrived at Katalina's rental house, Layla offered to write her homework first, and then show it to Katalina when she was done.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1980

"You two don't look at me, or I'll be nervous and prone to mistakes." Layla spoke to them both.

"Okay...Aqi, come with me." Katalina said to The bodyguard.

"Who told you to call my name?" The bodyguard was very uncomfortable.

"I think Layla calls you Uncle Aqi, don't I call you Aqi? Then what should I call you?" Katalina walked out of the study and came to the living room, "I have a lot of snacks here, I can't finish them, you can get them later. Why don't you go? Just think it's helping me."

"You have too much money to burn? You can't eat it, why don't you buy so much?" The bodyguard remembered the snacks that Layla gave him last night. I find it awkward for men to eat snacks.

"I'm bored by myself, so I go out shopping, but I always have to buy things... I buy a little bit every day, so my family can't put them down." Katalina said, took out two large bags of snacks, put them away In front of the bodyguard, "Take these back!"

The bodyguard: "..."

"By the way, has Layla's father found it? I think Layla is in a better mood." Katalina poured him a glass water, then sat down on the sofa and chatted with him.

"Are you looking for information for your cousin?" The bodyguard glared at her.

Katalina said, "...I care about the parents of the students myself, not my cousin. I swear!"

The bodyguard: "You want to imitate your cousin and seduce my boss, right?!"

Katalina: "...Actually, I prefer You're like that."

Bodyguard: “???”

Katalina: “Let me show you a movie I’ve been chasing recently, which is the story of a rich girl and her bodyguard.”

The bodyguard stepped back, feeling that this woman was poisonous!

“If you don’t think about me maliciously, I won’t tease you.” Katalina saw his blushing face, put away her phone, and defended herself, “I won’t be anyone’s pawn. Even if my cousin wants to use me, I won’t listen to her. I have my pride. I don’t even listen to my parents, so how can I listen to outsiders?”

Katalina continued: “Besides, my cousin has long since given up on Elliot. She only wants to pursue a career now. Need me to do anything for her. But…”

“But what?” The bodyguard looked at her defensively.

“Tell me what happened to your boss and when it happened, maybe I can help you go to my cousin’s place to find out.” Katalina said, “My cousin calls me to her place every weekend for dinner.”

The bodyguard: “You went to your cousin’s place to inquire about my boss? Why do you think your cousin knows more?”

“Why do you think my cousin doesn’t know? Of course, I’m not sure if my cousin knows, but I think My cousin is very good…she told me what happened to your boss.”

The bodyguard turned his head quickly, thinking, Norah, that scheming girl, might really know something.

An hour later, the bodyguard took Layla back to Foster’s house.

The bodyguard: “Miss Tate, I have something to report to you.”

Avery glanced at the bodyguard, then followed him to the yard.

Layla put down her schoolbag, washed her hands, walked to the dining room, glanced at the dishes on the table, and pouted: “Grandma Cooper, why are all vegetarian dishes today? I want to eat meat.”

“Layla, you can’t eat meat today.” Mrs. Cooper said, looking outside.
