

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1981

“Why can’t we eat meat? Our family eats meat every day!” Layla was puzzled and looked outside following Mrs. Cooper’s eyes.

“Today is your grandmother’s death anniversary. Your mother said to be vegetarian today to commemorate your grandmother.” Mrs. Cooper explained, “Layla, do you remember your grandmother?”

“I... Of course I remember my grandmother.” Layla said so, but in fact, her grandmother’s appearance in her heart was very light.

Grandma died too long ago.

She was too young at the time, and although Layla cried for her grandmother’s death at the time, the grief had long since faded away.

“Although there is no meat today, I put sugar. You can try it.” Mrs. Cooper coaxed, “I’ll make something delicious for you tomorrow morning.”

“I don’t like meat that much either.” Layla said, “I don’t need to eat meat.”

“Well. What did Aqi ask your mother for? It’s so mysterious.” Mrs. Cooper asked Layla in a low voice.

“I don’t know either. He didn’t tell me anything. I was doing homework in Teacher Larson’s study today, and he and Teacher Larson were staying in the living room. I heard the two of them chatting for a long time, I don’t know what they talked.” Layla took a bite of her meal.

Mrs. Cooper: “Aqi and you, Teacher Larson, are so speculative?”

Layla: “Teacher Larson sent two big packets of snacks to Uncle Aqi today...Mrs. Cooper, does Teacher Larson like Uncle Aqi?”

Mrs. Cooper: “It should be! Aqi looks like a talent, but it’s a bit dark... Your Teacher Larson has a good eye.”

Layla: “I also think Uncle Aqi is very handsome. But Uncle Aqi doesn’t seem to like Teacher Larson. Because Teacher Larson is Norah’s cousin, Uncle Aqi hates it very much.”

“Aqi didn’t do what he did. He really should be more careful. What if your Teacher Larson really has bad intentions?” Mrs. Cooper said, “Layla, your father shouldn’t have had an accident. We must keep this lesson in mind. In the future, apart from your relatives, you must not trust anyone at will.”

The front yard.

Aqi relayed to Avery what Katalina said to him today.

“Miss Tate, I don’t know if I should believe what she said. I didn’t tell her everything about my boss.”

“Does Katalina really say that?” Avery was very surprised.

Katalina actually wanted to help them by going to Norah’s place to collect information.

“It’s absolutely true. She looks like she doesn’t understand anything, but she actually said such complicated things. I feel like she might want to lie to us.” Aqi’s conditioned reflex felt that Katalina was the bait thrown by Norah.

“Aqi, don’t rush to deny her.” Avery frowned slightly, “Even if this is Norah’s plan, I would like to see what Norah will do in the future.”

Aqi said, “You mean, let me go to Act with Katalina?”

Avery said, “Yes. If she continues to talk to you about this topic tomorrow, you can follow her words. Let’s see what information she can get from Norah.”

Aqi: “Oh, okay...”

“Aqi, you look a little nervous.” Avery said, “If Katalina really wants to help us, it must be because of you.”

Aqi: “Miss Tate, don’t talk nonsense.”

Avery: “She sent me a message about Layla the past two days, and she had a chance to tell me about it. But she didn’t tell me. She told you that she wanted you to remember it. She’s good.”

“Even if she doesn’t have bad intentions, she wants to help us find the boss, but with her ability, she may not be able to help.” Aqi calmly said, “Miss Tate, we don’t need to hold her too much confidence. Besides, who knows if the boss’s business has anything to do with Norah. When Katalina said those words to me, it felt like she was fishing.”

“If she’s just catching your fish, think about it carefully and don’t be affected by other factors. Katalina may or may not be with Norah. If you’re interested in her, you can decide after getting to know her.” Avery reminded.

Aqi: "Miss Tate, are you all so casual when you fall in love? I've only known her for a few days!"

Avery: "I met your boss after we got married."

Aqi: "... "

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1982

Wanda's mind is restless, and it is difficult to sit and lie down. She felt that the sky above her head was about to collapse.

Even if Avery is not the boss of the Dream Makers Group, she has a deep relationship with the Dream Makers Group.

She originally thought that without Elliot's backer, she would have a hard time in the future, but as a result, she climbed onto the thick thigh of the Dream Makers Group.

The most terrifying thing is that Avery said that she wanted to seek revenge on her.

Wanda felt as if there was a gun invisibly, with the muzzle pointed at her temple. She looked around and felt that nowhere was safe.

She walked quickly to the window, closed it, and locked it. She went to the door again and put the safety bolt on.

After confirming that the doors and windows were closed, a layer of sweat appeared on her forehead.

She picked up the water glass and took a glass of water to drink. But there was still a steady stream of hot sweat coming out of the back.

She put down the water glass, picked up the remote control of the air conditioner, set the temperature to the lowest level, then entered the bedroom, opened the wardrobe, took clean pajamas from it, and entered the bathroom to take a shower.

An hour later, her mood calmed down a little. She decided to make a will.

She has a lot of money in her hands, but her only daughter has long been killed. She doesn't want her money to be taken away by people she hates after her death, so she must distribute the property before her death.

After coming out of the bathroom, Wanda changed into a long red dress, and took a pistol from the safe and put it in her bag before she dared to leave the house.

She took the elevator to the underground garage. She has an ordinary luxury car and a new dreamer's car.

Now she knows that the dream maker has a close relationship with Avery, so she doesn't plan to drive the dream maker's car anymore.

The Dream Maker's car is completely connected to the Internet and is controlled by the Dream Maker Group. If the Dream Maker Group wants her to die, it can directly drive the car into the river, or let the car hit other cars.

She got into her other car and drove it out of the underground garage. She came to the law firm and found a lawyer she knew well.

"Do you know Avery? She's going to kill me." Wanda's fingers holding the phone could not stop shaking, "She is now hooking up with the boss of the Dream Makers Group, and she wants to avenge her mother by killing me."

The lawyer: "Ms. Tate, do you have any evidence?"

"Yes!" Wanda slammed her mobile phone on the table and said excitedly, "I have a recording of the call. Avery said it to me herself on the phone. I'm coming to you, I just want you to testify for me. If I die next, it must be Avery who killed me. Even if Avery did not kill me personally, Avery must have killed me by others! I can do as much as you want. For you, as long as you can sue Avery after I have killed. Even if you can't let her die, you must let her be ruined and let everyone know that she killed me!"

The law firm stayed for about two hours.

When Wanda came out of the lawyer, it was already dark.

She got into the car and drove it back.

Five minutes after the car drove out, her cell phone rang. She narrowed her eyes and looked at the phone screen.

She saw that there was an unfamiliar number on the screen, and this number was 44444444...
