

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2046

“Mike, didn’t you say you want to make up for sleep?” Avery said, “Go and rest! I’m staying at home today, I won’t go out. You don’t have to worry.”

“Okay, I’m really sleepy.” Mike said, walked to the bodyguard and confessed, “You here Stay in the living room, and you won’t leave if anyone tells you to go and you must keep an eye on Emilio.”

The bodyguard loudly replied, “Understood!”

He stared at Emilio without blinking, for fear that he would run away.

Emilio felt uncomfortable, but did not intend to leave. He sat down on the sofa and the nanny asked him what he wanted to drink.

“Water is enough.” Emilio looked at Avery and wondered, “Have you not slept all night? Your face is pale, and your red eyes are full of red blood... It looks a bit scary.”

Avery Ignore his rants.

After the nanny brought Emilio a glass of water, she brought Avery’s breakfast.

Avery picked up the milk cup and took a sip of milk.

Avery: “You asked me about Norah yesterday. Does your dad plan to let her inherit your Jones family’s property with you?”

Emilio shook his head: “No one can guess what my dad is thinking about. But he went to the airport to pick up Norah in person last night. His other children have never enjoyed this treatment.”

“Last night was a special situation. If your dad doesn’t pick her up at the airport, she will fall into my hands.” Avery put down the milk cup, took a bun in her hand, and took a bite.

Emilio: “Oh.....”

Avery: “She laid the trap that Elliot and I encountered in Yonroeville.”

Emilio: “I heard that. Norah is quite like Travis and will do anything to achieve her goals. I heard news about her before that she and Elliot were together. I didn’t expect her to kill Elliot.” Because of this, Emilio would not get too close to Norah.

If one day Norah was assassinated, he didn’t know how she would die.

What a shrewd person Elliot was, wasn't he also tricked by Norah?

Emilio boasted that his brain was one ten thousandth less than that of Elliot.

"Travis protects Norah so much, it's definitely not because the father and daughter are deeply in love." Avery said calmly, "Travis should be for the Tate Industries."

"Haha, my dad's intentions are too obvious. If Norah is incapable of, my dad will never protect her like that." Emilio said, "You are pitiful no matter how you look at it now. If you can't find a man, Tate Industries may be swallowed up by my dad and Norah. What are you going to do?"

Looking at Emilio's gloating look, Avery glared at him: "Are you sent by your dad to spy on me?"

"Hahaha, my dad really wants me to do this. But I don't necessarily listen to him. After all, one day he maybe treat me like my eldest brother."

"How is your eldest brother?" Avery finished eating the buns and wiped her mouth with a tissue.

"My dad originally wanted to kill him, but Margaret stopped him." Emilio felt a little chill in his heart when he talked about this, "My eldest brother is his biological son."

Avery: "Not all of your Jones family's children. Does he have children? Why do you emphasize the word biological?"

Emilio coughed, "Avery, it's not important."

"Some of these children in your Jones family were not born to Travis? The children were killed because Travis found out that they were not his biological son?" Avery grasped the topic tightly, trying to figure out what was going on.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 2047

Although this incident seems to have nothing to do with Elliot's kidnapping, Avery feels that through this incident, she can understand Travis better psychology.

Emilio: "You guessed half right. Those children who died for no reason were indeed not born to Travis. But how could this kind of thing be hidden from him? DNA testing is so convenient. Those children who were not biological were born with permission of Travis. It is estimated that he allowed those children to be born with the same mentality as raising animals!"

Avery fell silent.

“What I can be sure of now is that my eldest brother and I are his own. And Norah, she should also be his own, otherwise my dad wouldn’t take such a risk for Norah.” Emilio continued, “My dad’s body is not as good as you think. Otherwise, he wouldn’t be so dependent on Margaret.”

Avery didn’t expect Emilio to take the initiative to mention Margaret.

“Your father invested in Margaret to open a company. What exactly does this company do?” Avery asked nervously, “Emilio, tell me everything you know.”

“Tell you, what’s the benefit of me?” Emilio negotiated terms with her.

Avery fell silent.

“Avery, I don’t know much.” Emilio saw that Avery was really thinking muvh, so he joked. “It’s okay to tell you directly.”

Avery: “Then you say it!”

“I’m afraid that if I tell you, you run away and Cause trouble.” Emilio was a little embarrassed, “You almost strangled Norah at the airport last night, you were too impulsive! And what I want to tell you is just my own guess, I have no evidence, and I am not sure.”

“You said. I promise not to be impulsive!” Avery took a deep breath, making herself look as calm as possible.

“Come here a little bit.” Emilio glanced at the bodyguard, then stretched out his hand to tick Avery, “This kind of matter concerns the secret of our Jones family, I can’t just let a bodyguard listen to it.”

Avery glanced at the bodyguard, then walked to Emilio.

“Boss, why don’t you have a heart?” the bodyguard walked over quickly, pulled Avery away, and pulled Emilio up from the sofa with both hands, “Boss, in case he has a knife hidden on his body, wait for you to approach, I’ll give you a shot, if you die, how can you seek revenge from Travis?!”

Avery: “The bodyguard is right.”

Then the bodyguard started to search Emilio with both hands.

Emilio: "Hey! I'm the second young master of the Jones family. You treat me like this. Be careful with me... Be careful with me..."

"Be careful with you? What are you talking about? Stuttering?" The bodyguard pushed him up. After searching up and down, he did not find sharp objects, so he released him.

"Be careful, I hold revenge!" Emilio's cheeks were flushed with anger, and his eyes were full of anger.

"Childish!" The bodyguard rolled his eyes at him and returned to the position just now.

Avery walked up to Emilio and explained, "I'm sorry, because of what happened yesterday, Mike blamed the bodyguard."

"Forget it, let's get down to business!" Emilio leaned into Avery's ear and whispered, "My dad has been looking for ways to prolong his life and keep his youth forever. The company he invested in Margaret specializes in this. I don't know the specific situation of that company, but from my dad's attitude towards Margaret, I can be sure Margaret made something."

Avery also had this guess in her heart, and after hearing Emilio say it, she was shocked.

Birth, old age, sickness and death are the laws of nature. And Travis wants to break this natural law. His heart is higher than the sky.

"I asked someone for consultation. No matter what medical research is done, it requires animal or human clinical trials... Can you guess what I want to say?" After Emilio said this, he took water glass on the table and take a sip.
