Chapter 2798

Chapter 2798

"How could it be?"

Chester walked toward the water dispenser while holding the cup. His lips curled up. "I just can't wait to stand up to women like you."

Charity was dazed for a moment.

Chester added, "The girl in the video was just casually walking on the hotel corridor, yet she ended up being dragged to a room. Don't you find it terrifying? After the incident, there was no news about it. How's the girl now? What happened after she was dragged into the room? Aren't you curious or angry?"

Charity's heart sank.

As a female, she surely found it terrifying. "Since you were able to get your hands on this video, you should know what happened afterward."

"What happened afterward was that the girl died. The man who dragged her into a room was on drugs. Janee Hotel has suppressed this issue. It forbade such a scandal from being uncovered as it'd bring a huge impact on its business. The girl's parents have tried to appeal their daughter's death, but the evidence wasn't convincing enough. The video has also been removed after the incident." 1

Charity gasped as she never expected it to be the outcome. "Given that the video has been removed, how did you obtain it?"

"I have my own means." Chester scoffed. "I can spend some time and money to find out something as long as I'm determined."

Charity choked. That was what she said to Levi that morning.

Little did she expect that karma would bite her back so soon.

Chester continued gloomily, "The man was a guest in the hotel's presidential suite. So, right after the incident, the Patterson family promptly dealt with the evidence for the sake of their benefit. How outrageous. As an insider, I obtained this video out of justice. I couldn't bring myself to ignore it, so I felt the need to do something about it. The best decision was to have you disclose the video first." 1

Charity's mouth twitched, "oh, so you do have a sense of justice, huh? I won't believe you. I wasn't born yesterday."

"Don't I?"

Chester drank a mouthful of warm water. "I said so many things to you at the bar the other day. After thinking over it, I realized that I was indeed narrowminded in the past. After I returned home, I deeply reflected on myself and felt that what you said made sense. Therefore, I compensated 100 thousand dollars to the girl who accompanied me to drink in the private room that night so that she could go to school."

Charity was dumbfounded for a long time. At that moment, she had no idea what to say.

"Why are you so quiet?" Chester's lips curled into a smile, and he asked softly.

Charity rubbed her temples. "Could you be out of your mind?"

"Was I wrong in reflecting on myself?" Chester gave a deep laugh. "In the past, nobody had told me those things or taught me to be kind. Even if they did, I'd never come across someone whom I really wanted to make a change for."

Charity changed the topic. "So... what's the point of you calling me?"

"Oh. Why didn't you use my video?"

Chester said, "The exposure of the incident only worsened Janee Hotel's reputation a little. In fact, the effect of it wasn't huge. After they write a letter of apology, shift the responsibility to the employee, and compensate the supervision department tens of thousand of dollars, the matter will be settled. After all, many people are aware that the hotel's hygiene is so-so. What's more, Janee Hotel handles PR quite well."

Charity certainly knew that what Chester said was true. Just now, Janee Hotel had just made an official apology to the public. They even claimed that they would accept the supervision of the public. "A good act needs to be performed slowly. This is like an appetizer of a meal." 2

"Seemingly, you're going to use my video." Chester's tone was relaxed and happy again.

Charity choked. After some time, she said reluctantly, "I didn't want to use it at first. After all, I don't want to be involved with you anymore. However, having said that, the poor girl was innocent. I have no choice but to support your act of upholding justice."

"Thank you very much." Chester curled his lips without her realizing it.

His secretary wanted to enter the room to take her phone. When she secretly hid behind the door and caught sight of Chester's expression, she was nearly blinded.

His smile was very sweet. Could her boss be possessed?

"You're welcome." charity ended the call.

Chester stared at his phone, feeling attached to it.

Then, he waved at his secretary. "Here's your phone."

"Thank you, boss." His secretary cautiously lifted her phone.

"Another scandal related to Janee Hotel will break this afternoon. Later, get some people who side with Ferra to add fuel to the fire and spark the issue," Chester reminded.

“Okay.”

Deep down, his secretary was wondering if it would be a scandal related to Janee Hotel’s unhygienic matters.

Just now, Janee Hotel had handled the emergency, so the issue was pretty much settled.

When it was 3:00 p.m., his secretary would know what was going on.

The video of a man dragging a girl into a room in Janee Hotel caused an uproar on the Internet once again.

That was not solely related to hygiene as it also involved the safety of women who stayed in the hotel.

Soon, a few hundred million netizens had clicked on the news.

[Is this for real? Janee Hotel is a five-star hotel. How could such a terrifying incident happen in this hotel? Where was the security officer? This is terrifying.]

[The most terrifying thing is the timing. It took place in March, but it’s July now. We only found out about the issue now.]

[This video tells me that a girl can’t go out alone even to a five-star hotel.]

[Is someone trying to trick Janee Hotel? It was a hygiene-related issue this morning, and now, it’s about a girl dragged into a room. Like what others said, this matter has happened for a couple of months. I suppose the hotel has contacted the police to handle it properly. Is there a need to bring it up to harm the girl once again? Some people can go really far for the sake of website monetization.]

[The girl is already dead, she was my college mate. After she died, her parents called the police. At that time, the video had been deleted, so the police didn't manage to find any evidence. The man who dragged her was said to be a shareholder of a listed company.]

[I think I came across the news a few months ago, but it was deleted later.]

[Someone suppressed the issue, so it didn't make it to the trending searches. Plus, there was no evidence. The hotel claimed that the victim's parents were spreading rumors.]

[Some people shouldn't frame things if they didn't know what happened later, otherwise, it would cause panic among the public.] 1

In the meeting room of Janee Hotel, Toby flew into a rage on the spot. If Monte were not the general manager, he would have lifted the cup and hurled it at Monte's head. "Didn't I ask you to have it removed back then?"

"It was removed..." Monte stammered with a pale face.

"Chairman Patterson, I think someone retrieved the video through hacking." Manager Starr from the PR department said, "At that time, I watched him remove the video with my own eyes." 1

"Is there any way of handling the emergency?" Toby asked sharply.

"I've called Ferra, but they refuse to remove it from the trending searches," Manager Starr said with a glum expression.

"It must be Eliza's doing, what a b*tch." Monte slammed his hands on the table in annoyance. 1

Chapter 2800

Manager Starr frowned. "After the video was disclosed, I got netizens to fuel the issue, but it didn't really work. This has provoked outrage, particularly among the females. An apology alone isn't useful.

What's more, if Eliza has evidence telling everyone that the woman is dead, I'm afraid that the consequences..."

Toby said furiously, "Those women are really idle. Well, Ruby Vernon deserves what happened to her. Since she was dressed so beautifully late at night, she deserved to be dragged into the room by Huxley Todd."

Manager Starr curled his lip awkwardly. He did not dare to say a word.

Deep down, he was sneering at Toby and Monte.

In this era, what was wrong with women going out dressed beautifully?

However, Manager Starr currently relied on the Patterson family for his bread and butter. It was not easy to get a job out there. He had long put aside his principles for the sake of money.

Monte pursed his thin lips silently. Now, he was rather scared that he would be dragged into the incident on the internet.

He even regretted what he did.

Why did he provoke Eliza, that woman, back then?

That woman was like a psycho.

After some thought, Toby said, "Anyway, that was Huxley's doing. At that time, we helped to clean up his mess out of kindness, why don't we wash our hands of it? Let's say that Huxley had someone remove the video and it has nothing to do with the hotel. The hotel has been actively cooperating with the police, but there are issues with the internal staff. Then, we'll randomly get a substitute. We just have to make sure it doesn't involve the hotel."

"No way." Monte quickly said, "Dad, have you forgotten about the new company I just set up?"

Huxley has introduced over 10 clients to me. If this incident escalates and Huxley leaks those matters, I'll surely go to jail."

Toby flew into a fury after hearing it. "You dumb*ss. Who told you to work with those in Newcastle?"

"Dad, you didn't object to it earlier, did you? what's more, the revenue of my travel agency over the past two months can be compared to the corporation's one -year revenue," Monte said softly.

"But I can't possibly risk the name of Patterson Corporation for Huxley's sake." Toby snapped at him, "Patterson Corporation is our everything."

"Dad, that's not the point. After all, it's all about money." Monte was unbothered. "Anyway, our ultimate goal is to make enough money. We'll then be able to reopen our company. Our business hasn't been performing that well over the past few years. If it can't survive, let's close it and reopen a new hotel. The Patterson family might be prouder than before." 1

"What Young Master Patterson said makes sense." Manager Starr added, "Having said that, we mustn't let anyone know that we were the ones who had the hotel video removed."

Toby's heart thumped.

At that moment, Huxley called him. Toby took his phone and went to one side. "Huxley... This has nothing to do with US. Monte helped you remove the video previously. Eliza is probably the one who got a hacker to retrieve the video... Yes, yes. Eliza, that celebrity... I'm having a meeting now... I'm puzzled as well... Don't worry, we certainly won't betray you..."

After Toby ended the call, Monte raised his brows and said, "Dad, you're... egging Huxley on so that he'll cause trouble for Eliza, aren't you?" 1

"What's wrong with that?" Toby scoffed as he pointed at his head. "Huxley has been taking a lot of drugs and is out of his mind now. He's hot-tempered, irritable, and neurotic. Isn't it wonderful if he can do away with the albatross
